TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

Subchapter E—Administrative Provisions Common to Various Taxes

PART 455—REWARDS FOR INFORMATION LEADING TO THE DETECTION AND PUNISHMENT OF PERSONS VIOLATING INTERNAL REVENUE LAWS

§ 455.1 Rewards for information. Under and by virtue of the provisions of section 3792 of the Internal Revenue Code (formerly section 3463 of the Revised Statutes of the United States), which authorize the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to pay such sums as he may deem necessary, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum appropriated therefor, for detecting and bringing to trial and punishment persons guilty of violating the internal revenue laws, or conniving at violations of the same, in cases where such expenses are not otherwise provided for by law, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, does hereby offer for information given by persons other than officers of internal revenue, or persons appointed or employed in, or acting in connection with, the Internal Revenue Service, that shall lead to the detection and punishment of persons guilty of violating the internal revenue laws, or conniving at the same, such reward as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall deem suitable, but in no case exceeding 10 per cent of the net amount of tâxes, penalties, fines and forfeitures which, by reason of said information, shall be paid irrecoverably to the United States through suit or otherwise.

The rewards hereby offered are limited in their aggregate to the sum appropriated therefor and shall be paid only in cases not otherwise provided for by law.

Claims for reward under the provisions hereof shall be made on Form 211, which may be obtained from Collectors of Internal Revenue or from the Bureau at Washington, D. C.

Treasury decision 4663, approved July 6, 1936, is hereby revoked.

(Sec. 3792 of the Internal Revenue Code; 53 Stat. 467)

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter III—Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

[B. E. P. Q. 386, 7th Revision]

GYPSY MOTH AND BROWN-TAIL MOTH QUARANTINE REGULATIONS MODIFIED

This revision of circular B. E. P. Q. 386 adds to the list of articles exempted from certification requirements, exfoliated or expanded vermiculite when packaged in closed containers, salal (known to the trade as lemon) cuttings, for ornamental use, and sawdust and shavings produced under certain prescribed conditions and so identified.

Wintergreen cuttings have been more specifically classified as to species.

§ 301.45a[1] Administrative instructions; articles exempted from restrictions. Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine by the second proviso of § 301.45, Chapter III, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations (Notice of Quarantine No. 45, on account of the gypsy moth and brown-tail moth), the following articles, the interstate movement of which is not considered to constitute a risk of moth dissemination, are exempted from the restrictions of the regulations of this quarantine, effective November 20, 1942.

Acacia cuttings for ornamental use (Acacia spp.).

Banana stalks, when crushed, dried, and shredded.

Birch slabs for use as post cards.

Birch bark when waxed, polished, or otherwise treated to adequately eliminate all risk of transmitting infestation and when used in the manufacture of novelties.

Box shooks, when newly manufactured and planed on four sides.

Boxwood cuttings and branches for ornamental use (Buxus sempervirens).

Cable reels, when newly manufactured and empty.

California peppertree cuttings and branches for ornamental use (Schinus molle).

Clubmoss (sometimes called "ground pine") (Lycopodium spp.).

Cuttings of woody plants that have been grown in the greenhouse throughout the year, when labeled on the outside of the container to show that the contents were greenhouse grown.

Eucalyptus cuttings and branches for ornamental use (Eucalyptus globulus).

Evergreen smilax (Smilax lanceolata).

Fuchsia (Fuchsia spp.).

Galax (Galax aphylla).

Geranium (Pelargonium spp.).

Heather cuttings for ornamental use (Erica spp., Calluna spp.).

Heliotrope (Heliotropium spp.).

Herbarium specimens, when dried, pressed, and treated, and when so labeled on the outside of each container.

Jerusalem-cherry (Solanum capsicastrum, S. pseudocapsicum, S. hendersoni).

Leaves of deciduous or evergreen trees that have been treated or dyed.

Mistletoe (Phoradendron flavescens, Viscum album, etc.).

Oregon huckleberry (Vaccinium ovatum).

Partridgeberry (Mitchella repens).

Salal, known to the trade as lemon cuttings, for ornamental use (Gaultheria shallon).

Sawdust that has been (1) produced in established, nonportable, commercial sawmills from boards or other timber previously sawed four sides, (2) subsequently blown through an air-blast conveyor line having a minimum length of 50 feet and at least one 45° or sharper angle, (3) protected from infestation prior to shipment, and (4) identified as specified below.

Shavings that have been either (1) produced by planers having 6 or more blades, or (2) blown through an air-blast conveyor line having a minimum length of 50 feet and at least one 45° or sharper angle; and in either case protected from infestation prior to shipment, and identified as specified below.

Invoices and waybills covering bulk carload or less-than-carload shipments of sawdust or shavings meeting these conditions for exemption shall bear thereon a notation to the effect that:

"The consignor guarantees that the contents of this shipment have been produced under conditions which entitle the material to exemption as specified in the Federal gypsy moth quarantine regulations or administrative instructions thereto."

Strawberry plants (Fragaria spp.).

Trailing arbutus (Epigaea repens).

Verbena (Verbena spp.).

Vermiculite (variously termed zonolite or mica-gro) when exfoliated or expanded and when packaged in closed containers.

Wintergreen for ornamental use (Gaultheria procumbens, Pyrola spp.). See also Salal.

Wood flour, pulverized wood, or ground wood sawdust, when processed by screening or sifting through a screen of at least 30 meshes per inch.

These instructions supersede the list of exempted articles contained in B. E. P. Q. 386, 6th revision, which became effective October 10, 1941.

Chapter VII—Agricultural Adjustment Agency

PART 717—REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE HOLDING OF REFERENDA ON MARKETING QUOTAS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by Title III of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 (Public Law No. 430, 75th Congress, approved February 16, 1938; 52 Stat. 38, 7 U.S.C. 1301 et seq.), as amended, public notice is hereby given of the following amendments to MQ-650, "Regulations Governing the Holding of Referenda on Marketing Quotas," as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 5, 1941, (6 F.R. 5616):

1. § 717.9 Issuing ballots to voters is hereby amended as follows: The first sentence thereof is amended so as to read: "The community referendum committee, or at least one member thereof in case there are two or more polling places in the community, shall open the polling place for the issuance of ballot forms and the casting of ballots at the time designated by the county committee and shall thereafter, until the time when the polls are required to be closed and the casting of ballots discontinued, issue a ballot to each person who is eligible to vote and applies for a ballot and to each person who claims to be eligible to vote and insists upon voting even though his eligibility to vote is challenged by the committee." The last sentence thereof is amended so as to read: "Ballot forms[1] shall be issued and ballots placed in the ballot box only while at least one member serving on the community referendum committee is physically present in the polling place and in position to see each ballot form as it is issued and each ballot as it is placed in the ballot box."

2. § 717.12 State committee's record of the result of the referendum is hereby amended by changing the third sentence to read as follows: "The State summary shall be prepared in triplicate and certified to by at least a majority of the members of the State committee, or by the administrative officer in charge of the State office if so instructed by the Regional Director.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Administration

PART 945—MILK IN THE WASHINGTON, D. C., MARKETING AREA

ORDER TERMINATING CERTAIN PROVISIONS

Order terminating certain provisions of §§ 945.1 (a) (5)[2] and 945.7 (a)[3] of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Washington, D. C., marketing area.

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and the provisions of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Washington, D. C., marketing area, it is hereby determined that the provisions of such order which provide that farmers delivering milk to plants outside the marketing area, from which milk is shipped into the marketing area, shall be considered producers, and the provisions which require handlers under the said marketing order to pay the difference between the Class I and Class II prices on the milk equivalent of cream received from plants outside the marketing area, are provisions which obstruct and do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to the producers of milk under such marketing order.

It is, therefore, ordered, That effective as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., November 25, 1942, the following provisions of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Washington, D. C., marketing area are hereby suspended:

1. The words "from which no milk was shipped to the marketing area as milk during the preceding year," which are included in the proviso in § 945.1 (a) (5) of the said order; and

2. The provision "add the hundredweight of milk equivalent (at the average test of milk received from producers) of the butterfat contained in cream received from plants at which no milk is received from producers, which is allocated to Class I, times the Class I price, less the Class II price, computed pursuant to § 945.5", which appears in § 945.7 (a) of the said order.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of November, 1942. Witness my hand and the Seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

CERTAIN INDEBTEDNESS OWING BY TAKAMINE CORPORATION

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding that the property described as follows:

> All right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of Tatsumi Engineering Company, Ltd., whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Tokyo, Japan, in and to all indebtedness, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to it by Takamine Corporation [which was found in Vesting Order Number 194 issued under date of September 28, 1942 to be a business enterprise within the United States which is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan)] a New York corporation, New York, New York, including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any and all such indebtedness and the right to sue for and collect such indebtedness, is an interest in the aforesaid business enterprise held by, and is property within the United States owned or controlled by, a national of a designated enemy country (Japan), determining that to the extent that any or all of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Japan), and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt within the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington D. C. on November 18, 1942.

ESTATE OF FREDERICK HERBENER, DECEASED

In re: estate of Frederick Herbener, deceased—file D. 28-1477; E. T. sec. 185.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act as amended, Executive Order 9095 as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Frank F. Barthmaier, Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Orphans Court of the State of Pennsylvania, in and for Philadelphia County;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

National:	Last known address
Elizabeth Herbener	Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Elizabeth Herbener in and to the Estate of Frederick Herbener, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and interests and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property and interests or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Dated: November 18, 1942.

302, 585	11/2/39	M. Feuerstein	Dosing arrangements.
303, 314	11/7/39	A. Van Peski et al	Isomerization of hydrocarbons.
303, 816	11/10/39	E. Verweij et al	Production of magnetic material.
304, 843	11/16/39	J. Van Heutsz	Process for dehydrating vegetable produce.
306, 583	11/28/39	P. Kruyff	Method for preparing condensation products of the type of the furylmethane derivatives.
308, 426	12/9/39	F. Van Der Plas	Extraction process.
309, 483	12/15/39	M. Rozenbroek	Process for rpeparing starch products.
309, 484	12/15/39	M. Rozenbroek	Process for preparing starch products.
309, 485	12/15/39	M. Rozenbroek	Process for preparing starch products.
309, 936	12/19/39	L. De Langen	A filter for separating solids from a fluid.
310, 261	12/20/39	M. Jansen	Process for the separation of yeast from yeast suspensions.
310, 722	12/23/39	J. Lubberhuizen	Electro-motor driven vertical centrifugal machine.
312, 186	1/2/40	A. Van Peski	Alkylation process.
312, 306	1/3/40	O. Van Lin et al	Insulated electrical conductor.
314, 551	1/18/40	J. Loder	Motor driven fluid measuring apparatus.
314, 552	1/18/40	J. Loder	Price computing and indicating mechanism.
314, 880	1/20/40	M. Ter Horst	Process for the manufacture of fibres, filaments, threads, films and the like from solutions of proteins, particularly casein.
315, 073	1/22/40	A. Schat	Ship's lifeboats.
315, 426	1/24/40	C. Schouten	Processes and apparatus for separating loose masses.
318, 179	2/9/40	J. Berge	Composition of matter.
320, 427	2/23/40	G. Van Leeuwen	Process of impermeabilizing, tightening or consolidating grounds, etc.
320, 428	2/23/40	G. Van Leeuwen	Process of impermeabilizing, tightening or consolidating grounds, etc.
320, 429	2/23/40	G. Van Leeuwen	Process of impermeabilizing, tightening, or consolidating grounds and other eartny and stony masses and structures.
321, 131	2/27/40	J. Hoekstra	Insulated electric conductor and method of making the same.
321, 318	2/28/40	J. Hoekstra	Method of producing rigid electrical windings.
322, 170	3/4/40	J. Hoeffelmann	Process for producing sulphonium compounds.
323, 408	3/11/40	H. Hoog	Treatment of hydrocarbons.
323, 409	3/11/40	A. Van Peski et al	Isomerization of naphthenic hydrocarbons.
323, 410	3/11/40	A. Van Peski	Process for treating naphthenic hydrocarbon distillates.
326, 088	3/26/40	C. Campfens et al	Device for expelling the contents of collapsible tubes.
326, 496	3/28/40	J. Zeehuisen	Process of treating fibrous materials, more particularly bast fibres.
326, 497	3/28/40	M. Groen	Method of producing starch esters.
326, 773	3/29/40	W. Van Dranen	Filter card.
327, 931	4/4/40	A. Schaafsma	Process for dehydration.
328, 697	4/9/40	A. Van Peski	Isomerization of hydrocarbons.
329, 472	4/13/40	A. Van Peski et al	Paraffin alkylation process.
330, 189	4/17/40	J. Giljam	Combustion engines.
332, 417	4/29/40	A. Dekker	Crude oil burners.
332, 583	4/30/40	J. Dombach	Cereal product and process for obtaining same.
332, 822	5/1/40	W. Reppmann	Filter.
332, 850	5/1/40	H. Neijer	Adhesives.
333, 012	5/1/40	R. Oppenauer	Manufacture of hydroxy-keto compounds having a cyclopentanopolyhydrophenanthrene nucleus.
334, 586	5/11/40	A. Van Peski	Process for the production of hydroaromatic hydrocarbons.
334, 656	5/11/40	L. Van Bergen	Process for producing filaments, threads, fibres, bands, films and the like from proteins.
335, 078	5/14/40	K. Tromp	Apparatus for separating solid materials having different specific gravities by means of a suspension.
335, 629	5/16/40	A. Schat	Ships' davits of the gravity type.
337, 199	5/25/40	J. Overhoff	Silver catalyst and method of making same.
337, 324	5/25/40	J. Hoeffelman et al	Organic sulfur compounds and a process for their preparation.
338, 794	6/4/40	K. Tromp	Apparatus for continuously determining &, if desired, adjusting the specific gravity of a suspension
340, 193	6/12/40	A. Lambeek	Cartridge case and method of making same.
340, 373	6/13/40	J. Hoekstra et al	Flexible electric conductor.
346, 851	7/22/40	C. Schouten	Jigs for treating ore-bearing and like materials.
348, 032	7/27/40	W. Mazee	Non-aqueous drilling fluid.
348, 940	7/31/40	B. Zweers	Process and means for lowering a construction with a comparatively large base into the soil.
352, 310	8/12/40	J. Hessels	Process for improving the properties of rubber latex.
353, 788	8/23/40	A. Brugma	Process and device for fractional distillation of liquid mixtures, more particularly petroleum.
356, 176	9/10/40	G. Van Den Broek	Apparatus for the manufacture of photographic prints.
356, 770	9/14/40	L. De Kadt	Package for fluids.
356, 883	9/14/40	L. TeStrake	Fabric-simulating material.
357, 662	9/20/40	A. Wildschut	Process for the vulcanization of rubber, baltata, gutta percha, synthetic rubber and the like, mixtures thereof and latices of these materials.
358, 093	9/24/40	A. Bargeboer	Foodstuffs—preserving in bottles, etc.
359, 575	10/3/40	P. Smit	Purification of sugar containing liquids.
359, 978	10/5/40	H. Waterman et al	Process for the activation of normally liqui fatty materials containing unsaturated compounds.
360, 381	10/9/40	G. Hilgers	Implements for driving in screws, wire nails, etc.
362, 682	10/24/40	R. Priester	Making drying oils.
363, 778	10/31/40	J. Nauta	Mixing apparatus, especially adapted for mixing pulverized materials.
363, 911	11/1/40	J. Hoeffelman	Mineral oil.
367, 293	11/26/40	H. Van Tongeren	Cyclones.
369, 346	12/9/40	A. Story	Resilient seat or back.
369, 351	12/9/40	G. Hannot	Frost resistent micro-porous product.
370, 501	12/17/40	T. Hoek	Process of preparing mixed acid.
372, 886	1/2/41	W. Van Zwet et al	Luminescent material.
373, 585	1/8/41	G. Hepp	Electronic generator.
373, 612	1/8/41	J. Kok	Process for the preparation of durable aqueous solutions particularly of pharmaceutical nature.
374, 054	1/11/41	N. Voorhoeve et al	Carbon microphone.
374, 066	1/11/41	J. Haantjes	Negative feed-back circuit arrangement.

R. HENRY, ET AL.

PATENT APPLICATIONS OF FOREIGN NATIONALS

Under the authority of the Trading with the enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding that the property described as follows:

Patent applications listed and described in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, is property in which nationals of a foreign country (Belgium) have interests, and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1 within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on November 2, 1942.

[SEAL] LEO T. CROWLEY,
Alien Property Custodian.

EXHIBIT A

Patent applications in the United States Patent Office which are identified as follows:

Serial No.	Filing date	Inventor	Title
39, 987	10/10/35	R. Henry	Process for the biological and simultaneous purification of waste liquors and their slimes.
167, 311	10/4/37	A. Dewandre	Gun mounting with shock absorber.
242, 290	11/25/38	A. Schuller et al	Process for stabilizing cellulose esters.
247, 961	12/27/38	A. Dewandre	Hydraulically and pneumatically controlled mount for automatic guns.
268, 357	4/17/39	F. Vranken	Heating ovens, particularly those for hardening glass plates.
268, 616	4/18/39	F. Vranken	Heating ovens, particularly those for hardening glass plates.
269, 255	4/21/39	L. Robin et al	Free wheels.
270, 689	4/28/39	D. Kushman	Process of manufacturing alkaline silicates in powder form.
278, 768	6/12/39	R. Mautsch	Process and installation for the manufacture of shaped metal products.
287, 300	7/29/39	J. Persoons et al	Cream separators.
287, 630	7/31/39	M. Demeulenaere	Computing mechanism for cash register and the like.
298, 141	10/5/39	T. Rival	Automatic weighing device.
302, 452	11/1/39	E. Frankignoul	Method and device for constructing concrete moulded in the ground.
304, 632	11/15/39	R. Tritsmans et al	Manufacture of flexible sheet material.
307, 707	12/5/39	A. Lambiotte	Process of continuous carbonization of cellulosic materials.
309, 100	12/13/39	L. Robin et al	Transmission devices.
312, 133	1/2/40	J. Henricot	Lining for tube mills or crushing mills containing balls or similar crushing bodies.
317, 942	2/8/40	A. Bailly	Centrifugal hydro-extractor.
318, 403	2/12/40	P. Mols	Process of and means for grinding glass plates.
323, 719	3/13/40	G. Delchef	Phonograph records automatic changing devices.
323, 807	3/13/40	F. Dumont	Apparatus for shifting a vehicle.
326, 732	3/29/40	A. Claudot et al	Photographic apparatus in detached parts.
327, 816	4/4/40	V. De Samsonow	Processes for producing compressed laminated wood.
330, 197	4/17/40	V. Remus	Valve.
330, 410	4/18/40	H. Duesberg	Method of and arrangement for extracting metal bodies from webs of textiles materials.
331, 265	4/23/40	L. Sturbelle et al	Leaching method and apparatus.
331, 471	4/24/40	H. Duesberg	Carding machines with direct drive.
333, 593	5/6/40	A. Claessens	Composite paint and the method of manufacturing the same.
339, 015	6/5/40	D. Kissman	Process of manufacturing sodium cyanide.
369, 359	12/9/40	J. Doms	Processes for sterlizing milk, etc.
382, 396	3/8/41	M. Rumpf	Devices for the protection of the guiding surfaces of the slides of machine tools.
382, 419	3/8/41	A. Georges	Speed varying devices.
389, 222	4/18/41	H. Verkinderen et al	Colour couplers for photographic colour development.
391, 003	4/29/41	M. Bouffart	Process and device for the production of gases at high pressure and motor fed with these gases.
394, 287	5/20/41	W. Mees	Intermediates for dyestuffs.
394, 288	5/20/41	P. DeSmet et al	Intermediates for dyestuffs.
394, 290	5/20/41	P. Bruylants et al	Color couplers for color development.
395, 359½	5/27/42	M. Hendrikx et al	Food composition.
399, 921	6/26/41	A. Liesken	Swing front face drawer for vertical filing cabinets.
409, 279	9/2/41	M. Caro et al	Racquet stringing machine.
442, 130	5/7/42	A. Adrianoff	Hearth for burning solid fuels leaving ashes having any melting point.

[Vesting Order 293]

J. REGNIER, ET AL.

PATENT APPLICATIONS OF FOREIGN NATIONALS

Under the authority of the Trading with the enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding that the property described as follows:

Patent applications listed and described in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, is property in which nationals of a foreign country (France) have interests, and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1 within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in Section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on November 2, 1942.

[SEAL] LEO T. CROWLEY,
Alien Property Custodian.

EXHIBIT A

Patent applications in the United States Patent Office which are identified as follows:

SERIES OF 1925

Serial No.	Filing date	Inventor	Title
738, 375	8/3/34	J. Regnier	Local anaesthetics.

SERIES OF 1935

Serial No.	Filing date	Inventor	Title
17, 398	4/20/35	L. Jumau	Lead electric accumulators.
71, 309	3/27/36	J. Regnier	Alkaloid salts and the manufacture thereof.
108, 062	10/28/36	P. Toulon	Picture transmission systems.
109, 507	11/6/36	R. Barthelemy	Synchronising apparatus for cathode ray oscillographs.
118, 258	12/30/36	P. Goissedet et al	Process for the preparation of new soluble aromatic amido compounds of therapeutic value.
120, 900	1/16/37	P. Chevallier	Amplifier with secondary electronic emission.
121, 898	1/22/37	H. Andre	Accumulators.
122, 332	1/26/37	H. Gutton	Radio apparatus for locating obstructions.
140, 767	5/4/37	J. Le Rouge	Process for removing the substances condensed in cold accumulators in the cooling of gases.
147, 610	6/11/37	W. De Fligue	Separator.
161, 690	8/30/37	E. Desroches	Purification of water.
176, 740	11/26/37	R. Dufour et al	Methods and apparatus for heating and vulcanizing rubber and similar matter.
177, 226	11/30/37	F. Salomon	Oscillation damping means.
187, 514	1/28/38	R. Weitzel	Construction of walls.
187, 733	1/29/38	J. DeTailly et al	Wire glass.
191, 142	2/18/38	A. Delaplace	Combined electric motor and speed reducer units.
197, 725	3/23/38	R. Perrin	Process and apparatus for effecting metallurgical reactions regularly and rapidly.
202, 571	4/16/38	J. Bernard	Magnetic distributors.
203, 849	4/23/38	J. Mercier	Control of two or more concomitant devices.
206, 498	5/6/38	C. Nicolle	Plastic material wrappers.
207, 114	5/10/38	M. Perrey	Apparatus for measuring the maximum energy and force of an impact member or tup for testing any articles and in particular rails.
207, 115	5/10/38	C. Waseige	Mounting of accessories on an aircraft.
208, 303	5/16/38	M. Mennesson	Operative fluid delivery-control devices.
209, 832	5/24/38	F. Mezger	Device for electrical calculation.
209, 869	5/25/38	G. Cantacuzene	Processes and devices for storing liquids sheltered from air.
211, 060	5/31/38	F. Hornain	Safety switch.
213, 267	6/11/38	G. Lefort Des Ylouses	High-frequency electric furnace for the production of oxides of nitrogen.
213, 689	6/14/38	E. Desroches	Process and means of purifying water.
214, 146	6/16/38	J. Cathala	Process for the manufacture of sulfur trioxide.
214, 490	6/18/38	B. Fernier	Electric circuit breaker with compressed fluid blow out.
214, 496	6/18/38	P. Bary	Process for the preparation and use of anticryptogamic colloidal solutions, bactericides and insecticides.
216, 105	6/27/38	H. Guinot	Process of separating olefines from gaseous mixtures.
219, 102	7/13/38	M. Julien et al	Resilient suspension particularly for bodies driven with a rotary motion.
220, 590	7/21/38	R. Anxionnaz et al	Gas turbine plants.

Serial No.	Filing date	Inventor	Title
222, 943	8/3/38	J. Lepetit	Electric wires and method of making the same.
228, 364	9/3/38	A. Ruegger	Tiltable seat.
229, 220	9/9/38	P. Petitcolas et al	Process for the manufacture of polyazoic dyestuffs, of lacs derived therefrom, and the new products obtained.
229, 641	9/13/38	J. Mercier	Deformable or elastic accumulators.
234, 731	10/12/38	J. Bethenod	System for controlling the temperature in the interior of vehicles.
235, 224	10/15/38	H. Carroll	Plastic composition, etc.
240, 370	11/14/38	J. Capelle	Method and a machine for the progressive cutting by generation of involute teeth.
240, 593	11/15/38	H. Guinot	Hydration of olefines.
241, 068	11/17/38	R. Boyer et al	Elastic wheels.
242, 072	11/23/38	M. Julien	Suspension devices.
242, 540	11/26/38	R. Malherbe	Electric discharge tubes and lamps and their manufacture.
242, 616	11/26/38	J. Gratzmuller et al	Packing devices.
244, 063	12/5/38	M. Wintrebert	Articulation means for artificial dentures.
244, 382	12/7/38	F. Salomon	Devices adapted to eliminate oscillations.
245, 523	12/13/38	I. Kitroser	Photographic apparatus.
245, 780	12/14/38	J. Frasch	Process for protecting articles made of light metals.
245, 949	12/15/38	T. Volochine	Method and apparatus for the measurement of radiant energy.
246, 223	12/16/38	E. Roirant	Automatic machine for the manufacture of bottles and the like articles.
246, 720	12/19/38	G. Fontaine	Devices for operating land mines and the like by the passage of tanks or other heavy vehicles.
247, 957	12/27/38	G. Garnier	Enciphering apparatus.
248, 645	12/30/38	R. Girche	Process for varnishing supports mainly comprising rubber.
248, 646	12/30/38	L. Bille	Cement and asbestos base mixtures used as plaster work covering layers or walls.
250, 452	1/11/39	M. Julien	Resilient transmission joints.
250, 826	1/13/39	C. Korytko	Piston.
251, 004	1/14/39	G. Valensi	System of television in colours.
251, 638	1/18/39	M. Casse	Machines for treating textile material.
253, 839	1/31/39	P. Beuchon	Photo-electric tube.
254, 376	2/3/39	P. Salles	Process for the electrolytic production of neutral hypochlorinated solutions, means and apparatus used and new products obtained.
254, 743	2/4/39	R. Maillet	Method and apparatus for seismic underground prospecting.
255, 816	2/11/39	J. Savary	Safety razors having adjustable guards.
257, 539	2/20/39	H. Guinot	Separation of mixtures of olefines and paraffins.
257, 762	2/21/39	J. Frasch	Process for the protection of magnesium-base metals.
258, 313	2/24/39	P. Blanchard	Mechanical atomizing burners.
258, 571	2/25/39	J. Lepetit	Electric conductors.
259, 357	3/2/39	R. Rouat	Electric bath.
260, 226	3/6/39	P. Eichinger	Electric conductors.
260, 434	3/7/39	P. Woog	Polymerization of olefins.
261, 068	3/10/39	S. Fiedler et al	Process for the removal of silica from water.
261, 152	3/10/39	J. Fieux	Powder catapult.
261, 154	3/10/39	G. Vulliet-Durand	Plastic materials and the manufacturing process of same.
261, 155	3/10/39	G. Vulliet-Durand	Process for manufacturing homogenous plastic material by impregnation.
261, 491	3/13/39	R. De Lavaud	Propellers.
262, 509	3/17/39	R. Laraque	Shock absorbing means for aircraft landing gear.
262, 567	3/17/39	M. Percheron	Process of artificial digestion of albuminoid and fatty substance
263, 042	3/20/39	C. Bazille	Regulating the operation of a gas producer.
263, 139	3/21/39	A. Samuel	Powder box having a hermetic and inviolable closure.
263, 258	3/21/39	A. Durr et al	Manufacture of plastic materials, etc.
263, 577	3/22/39	G. Vulliet-Durand	Artificial product imitating skins and leather and process for making same.
263, 996	3/24/39	A. Genies	Colour films.
264, 004	3/24/39	P. Richard	Stabilizers for aircrafts.
264, 265	3/25/39	R. Hauguel	Device for the control of the fuel supply of engines.
265, 577	4/1/39	L. Audubert	Volumetic compressors.
265, 602	4/1/39	J. Blumenfeld	Process for the preparation of compounds of cerium.
265, 786	4/3/39	J. Bethenod et al	Apparatus for transforming oscillations.
265, 886	4/4/39	B. Long	Reinforced sponge glass article.
266, 692	4/ 7/39	J. Muller	Fluid handling mechanism.
266, 832	4/ 8/39	Y. Peyches	Salt bath furnace.
267, 203	4/10/39	B. Maisant	Cocoa nut retting methods.
268, 442	4/17/39	C. Nicolle	Packing machine.
268, 499	4/18/39	H. Boutillon	Volumetric liquid meters.
269, 265	4/21/39	F. Mezger	Electrical calculating apparatus.
270, 679	4/28/39	J. Garric	Manufacture of stockings.
270, 788	4/29/39	M. Latour	Instructive and demonstration apparatus or toy for the construction of various electric machines and devices.
270, 928	4/29/39	M. Paquet	Opaquing agent for enamels and process for manufacturing same.
270, 935	4/29/39	P. Latrobe	Manufacture of decorated products permeable to the luminious rays and products obtained therefrom.
271, 343	5/ 2/39	G. Jaubert	Production of bodies which absorb gases and vapors.

Serial No.	Filing date	Inventor	Title
271, 524	5/ 3/39	M. Schlumberger	Coring tool.
272, 073	5/ 6/39	A. Paumier	Electronic scanning devices for television.
272, 281	5/ 6/39	F. Amiot	Methods and devices for shaping pieces.
272, 665	5/ 9/39	A. Sobek	Differential pump.
272, 666	5/ 9/39	A. Sobek	Rotary vane-pumps capable of operating as a vacuum pump or as a compressor.
272, 716	5/9/39	L. Gardelle et al	Method of manufacturing hollow valves.
272, 791	5/10/39	J. Mercier	Storage-devices.
272, 848	5/10/39	E. Firon et al	Bow-tie clasps.
272, 880	5/10/39	M. Goudard	Auxiliary carburetion devices for supercharged internal combustion engines.
273, 151	5/11/39	H. Potez	Two-speed driving mechanism for centrifugal compressors.
273, 401	5/13/39	A. Darche	Guns and firearms.
275, 565	5/24/39	G. Fontaine	Fuse setting apparatus for artillery projectiles.
275, 566	5/24/39	M. Paquet et al	Opacifying agents mainly comprising zirconia and process for preparing same.
275, 989	5/26/39	A. Kirchheim	Process for manufacturing glass articles.
276, 022	5/26/39	M. Paquet	Vitreous enamels containing zirconium and process for preparing same.
276, 030	5/27/39	J. Mercier	Propellers with variable pitch.
276, 093	5/27/39	M. Schlumberger	Projectile for perforating bore hole casings.
277, 306	6/3/39	J. Persin	Press-button closure band.
277, 870	6/7/39	J. Boucher	Process and installation for the transverse reinforcement of pipes and other pieces.
278, 770	6/12/39	P. Furth	Process for manufacturing sliding clasp fasteners and in automatic machines for carrying out said process.
278, 945	6/13/39	E. Prat	Dust separators.
280, 012	6/19/39	H. Tailleferre	Marine power plants.
280, 863	6/23/39	P. Lemoigne	Motor propelling units.
281, 751	6/28/39	A. Saheurs	Process and apparatus for the treatment of a fluid.
281, 861	6/29/39	J. Mercier	Pumps.
281, 862	6/29/39	J. Mercier	Distributors for fluid operated apparatus.
282, 338	7/1/39	J. Kirschhof	Locomotive valve actuating mechanism.
282, 756	7/4/39	C. Villard	Galvanometer coil supports.
282, 958	7/5/39	E. Freyssinet	Packing devices.
283, 118	7/6/39	E. Schueller	Compositions for rendering inoffensive the dyeings of the so-called oxidation type.
283, 283	7/7/39	J. Leclabart	Heater for permanent waving.
284, 945	7/17/39	R. Sarazin	Impulse neutralizer.
285, 111	7/18/39	J. LeCorguillier	Device for starting and feeding electric discharge tubes under low pressure.
285, 112	7/18/39	J. LeCorguillier	Device for starting and feeding electric discharge tubes.
285, 256	7/19/39	J. Vancoppenolle	Device for the suspension of vehicles.
285, 266	7/19/39	J. Motte et al	Process for the protection of insecticides.
285, 464	7/19/39	J. Lautrette	Treatment of crankcase oil.
286, 126	7/24/39	P. Gonon et al	Manufacture of artificial tooth.
287, 396	7/29/39	M. Decalion	High efficiency reflectors or searchlights.
287, 893	8/2/39	P. Mesnel	Guideways for sliding windows.
288, 461	8/4/39	C. Waseige	Retractable wheel mounting for aircraft.
288, 462	8/4/39	C. Waseige	Retractable landing gear for aircraft.
288, 463	8/4/39	C. Waseige	Operating mechanisms for retractable members on board aircraft.
288, 679	8/5/39	F. Amiot	Piloting systems for aircrafts.
288, 683	8/5/39	F. Amiot	Construction of fuselages.
288, 972	8/8/39	M. Julien et al	Resilient suspension of vibrating bodies.
289, 301	8/9/39	J. Languepin	Resistance electric welding machines.
289, 326	8/9/39	A. Garbarini	Multiple divergence reflecting devices.
289, 682	8/11/39	H. DeBellescize	Method of telegraphic communication.
290, 317	8/15/39	H. Guinot	Recovery of alcohols from olefine hydration products.
290, 433	8/16/39	F. Salomon	Oscillation reducing device.
290, 868	8/18/39	A. Wormser	Call-dials utilised, in particular, in automatic telephony.
292, 640	8/30/39	J. Mercier	Automatic locking device for undercarriage.
293, 095	9/1/39	H. Thaon	Equalization device.
293, 149	9/2/39	P. Boissou	Pipe joint packing means.
293, 418	9/5/39	P. Boissou	Piping elements and process and outfit for manufacturing same.
293, 601	9/6/39	C. Nicolle	Impervious packings and receptacles.
293, 848	9/7/39	F. Walckenaer	Control devices for steam locomotives.
294, 523	9/12/39	J. Morelle	Collimators.
295, 028	9/15/39	Y. Peyches	Method and means for manufacturing glass.
295, 029	9/15/39	Y. Peyches	Means for manufacturing glass.
297, 182	9/29/39	L. Lejeune	Method for manufacturing balls for games.
297, 183	9/29/39	B. Long	Method of and apparatus for tempering glass sheets.
297, 191	9/29/39	J. Frasch	Process for the protection of magnesium and its alloys.
297, 764	10/3/39	H. De Poix	Process for preserving perishable foodstuffs.
297, 931	10/4/39	M. Mennesson	Control devices for variable pitch propellers.
299, 877	10/17/39	R. Laraque	Winch, etc.
299, 907	10/17/39	R. Perrin	Process for economically and rapidly obtaining high quality steels.
300, 233	10/19/39	E. Tassel	Synthetic tannins.
300, 234	10/19/39	A. Durr et al	Process for the manufacture of colours for printing, products resulting therefrom and their industrial applications.
302, 568	11/2/39	J. Labour	Processes and apparatus for the extraction of liquids such as petrol and all other hydrocarbons contained in jellies or like products.
304, 633	11/15/39	M. Julien	Resilient supports.
304, 834	11/16/39	G. Boulet	Aircraft power plants for high altitude flight.
304, 837	11/16/39	J. Brasseur	Assembly of metallic elements or the like.
304, 867	11/16/39	E. Lejeune	Process and device for the manufacture of gas masks.
304, 884	11/17/39	G. Valensi	Communication system.
305, 029	11/17/39	L. Cheneau	Automotive vehicles.
305, 040	11/17/39	E. Barde	Process which enables the reproduction of images by means of diazonic compounds to be obtained.
305, 042	11/17/39	L. Pagnon	Process of manufacture of cellular rubber having fluid-tight cells.
305, 384	11/20/39	R. Marais	Pump for injection engines.
305, 404	11/20/39	R. Hirsch	Process for sizing of fibrous materials.
305, 481	11/21/39	J. Seailles	Manufacturing sulphurous anhydride alumina and cements starting from sulphates of calcium.
305, 564	11/21/39	G. Kopp et al	Novel chromiferous dyestuffs and processes for making the same.
306, 197	11/25/39	L. Pagnon	Process for the manufacture of cellular rubber having fluid tight cells.
306, 501	11/28/39	B. Long	Manufacture of multicellular glass.
306, 564	11/28/39	C. Waseige	Variable pitch aerial propellers.
308, 738	12/11/39	C. Franchini	Method and device for increasing, on alternating current supply systems, the efficiency of electric lighting installations and for supplying electrical apparatus operating at very low tension.
309, 051	12/19/39	J. Lobstein	Electric heating apparatus for all applications.
309, 506	12/15/39	G. Chausson	Cooling devices for engines.
309, 655	12/16/39	L. Bechereau	Supporting surfaces for aircrafts.
309, 656	12/16/39	F. Amiot	Devices for shaping pieces.
310, 182	12/20/39	J. Seailles	Process for extraction of magnesia from water containing convertible magnesium salts, such as sea water.
310, 427	12/21/39	P. Richard	Fuselages of aircrafts.
310, 626	12/22/39	M. Dalotel	Diaphragm control device for motion and still picture cameras.
311, 434	12/28/39	R. Marais	Windscreen wiper having a wide sweeping action.
311, 678	12/29/39	J. Fieux	Catapult devices for launching aerial machines.
311, 869	12/30/39	M. Elie et al	System for object detection and distance measurement.
312, 220	1/3/40	J. Reutter	Dynamic compass.
312, 371	1/4/40	M. Pegard	Machine-tool and especially radial drilling machine.
313, 124	1/9/40	M. Mennesson	Carburation devices for internal combustion engines.
313, 281	1/10/40	A. Saheurs	Processes and apparatuses for the regeneration of a liquid or other applications.
313, 336	1/11/40	J. Nougarou	Mechanism for the automatic control of a speed change transmission of motor vehicles.
313, 441	1/11/40	A. Bailly	Drive for the spindles of machine tools.
314, 347	1/17/40	M. Ricard	Process and device for the manufacture of moulded objects of a cellular, rubber-like substance having closed gas-tight cells, etc.
314, 406	1/18/40	J. Mercier	Deformable systems.
314, 407	1/18/40	J. Mersier	Stamping and marking machine.
314, 811	1/20/40	F. Mathieu	Driving mechanism.
315, 012	1/22/40	J. Abadie	Luminescent lamp bulbs.
315, 013	1/22/40	J. Abadie	Low tension lamp bulbs.
315, 014	1/22/40	J. Abadie	Low voltage luminescent tubes.
315, 015	1/22/40	J. Abadie	Fluorescent and phosphorescent tubes.
315, 016	1/22/40	J. Abadie	Auxiliary equipment for luminescent tubes.
315, 017	1/22/40	J. Abadie	Luminescent lamp with turbulent discharge.
315, 018	1/22/40	J. Abadie	Carbureted emissive electrodes.
315, 157	1/23/40	M. Schlumberger	Gun perforator.
316, 681	1/31/40	F. Boinot	Process for the treatment of worts, etc.
316, 824	2/1/40	F. Pappe	Calculating machine.
318, 343	2/10/40	R. Tauty	Devices for airchutes.
318, 344	2/10/40	A. St. Genies	Devices for making exposures on lenticular films.
318, 782	2/13/40	R. Leboime	Pliable envelope or balloon bag for inflammable gases.

PATENT APPLICATIONS OF FOREIGN NATIONALS

Under the authority of the Trading with the enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding that the property described as follows:

> Patent applications listed and described in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, is property in which nationals of a foreign country (Norway) have interests, and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1 within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on November 2, 1942.

Patent application identified as follows:

243,687	12/3/38	V. Harms	Sedimentation apparatus.

is property in which nationals of foreign countries (Netherlands and Denmark) have interests and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1 within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on November 2, 1942.

[Vesting Order 329]

M. Szatrow

PATENT APPLICATIONS OF FOREIGN NATIONALS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and

Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding that the property described as follows:

Patent application identified as follows:

356, 529	9/12/40	M. Szatrow	Games.

is property in which nationals of foreign countries (Philippines and Poland) have interests and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1 within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on November 2, 1942.

[SEAL] LEO T. CROWLEY,
Alien Property Custodian.

OFFICE OF THE ADMINISTRATOR OF CIVIL AERONAUTICS.

[Order No. 4]

SHADY REST AND SUNNY SOUTH AIRPORTS

CANCELLATION OF DESIGNATION AS LANDING AREA

NOVEMBER 20, 1942.

It appearing that: 1. The Shady Rest Airport and the Sunny South Airport, Miami, Florida, have each been designated as a "Designated Landing Area" into and out of which civil aircraft may operate pursuant to the provisions of the Civil Air Regulations;

2. These airports are located within a short distance of the Miami Thirty-Sixth Street Airport and the Miami International Airport at which airports Naval Air Stations are located;

3. The operations of Naval aircraft from the Naval Air Stations together with the operations of civil aircraft from the Shady Rest and Sunny South Airports create a hazardous traffic condition;

4. The Interdepartmental Air Traffic Control Board at its meeting of October 14, 1942, considered the problem presented by this hazardous traffic condition and recommended that the designations granted to the Shady Rest and Sunny South Airports be cancelled;

5. The recommendation of the Interdepartmental Air Traffic Control Board that the designations granted to Shady Rest and Sunny South Airports be cancelled was approved by the War Aviation Committee on October 21, 1942.

Now, therefore, acting pursuant to the authority vested in me by § 60.953 (c) of the Civil Air Regulations and finding that this action is necessary to the public safety and in the interest of national defense: It is ordered:

That the designation as a "Designated Landing Area" issued to the Shady Rest Airport, Miami Springs, Florida, dated May 15, 1942, is cancelled and the designation as a "Designated Landing Area" issued to the Sunny South Airport, Miami, Florida, dated April 27, 1942, is cancelled.

This order shall become effective 0001 E. W. T., December 1, 1942.

C. I. STANTON,
Administrator.

EASTON TRANSIT CO., ET AL.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 21st day of November, A. D., 1942.

In the matter of Easton Transit Company, Lehigh Valley Transit Company and National Power & Light Company.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both), has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by the above named parties; and

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 1, 1942, at 5:30 p. m., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may become effective or may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration or application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

National Power & Light Company ("National") owns 43,000 shares (par value $50 per share) of the capital stock of Easton Transit Company ("Easton") constituting all of the outstanding capital stock of that company. National proposes to surrender for cancellation to Easton 41,000 shares of Easton's capital stock as a capital contribution. Easton will accept the surrender of said 41,000 shares for cancellation and credit capital surplus with the aggregate par value thereof ($2,050,000); against the capital surplus thus created Easton will write off on earned surplus deficit ($2,046,511.52) on its books at August 31, 1942. National will then sell to Lehigh Valley Transit Company ("Lehigh") the remaining 2,000 shares of the capital stock of Easton for a consideration of $10,000 in cash. The proposed transactions are stated to be part of a general program for the liquidation of National.

SEYBOLT AND SEYBOLT, INC.

FINDINGS AND ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION AS BROKER AND DEALER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa. on the 23rd day of November, 1942.

In the matter of Seybolt & Seybolt, Inc., Springfield, Massachusetts.

1. Seybolt and Seybolt, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, hereinafter referred to as the registrant, is registered with this Commission as an over-the-counter broker and dealer pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. We instituted this proceeding under section 15 (b) to determine whether or not registrant's registration as a broker and dealer should be revoked.

2. Our order of October 10, 1942, instituting proceedings, stated that the commission's public official files disclose that the registrant is permanently enjoined by a decree of the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, entered on or about November 19, 1941, from engaging in and continuing certain acts and practices in connection with the purchase and sale of securities.

3. At the hearing held before the Trial Examiner on October 26, 1942, the registrant did not appear, but, in an answer and stipulation which it had filed the registrant acknowledged, among other things, receipt and service of adequate notice, waived the opportunity to be heard, and admitted the allegations of the Commission's order of October 10, 1942. The record shows, and we find, that by judgment of the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, entered on consent of the registrant on November 19, 1941, the registrant is enjoined from directly or indirectly: "Making use of the mails or of any means or instrumentalities of interstate commerce, when as a part of a regular business it is engaged as a broker or a dealer in securities to effect any transaction in, or to induce the purchase or sale of, any security (other than commercial paper, bankers' acceptances, and commercial bills) otherwise than on a national securities exchange, by means of any manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance, more particularly:

(1) Engaging in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person, relating to:

(a) The safekeeping of securities sold to customers;

(b) The nature of payments made to customers;

(c) The use of funds received from customers for the purchase of securities; or engaging in any other act, practice, or course of business of similar purport or object which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person."

4. We find that revocation of registrant's registration as a broker and dealer is in the public interest.

Accordingly, It is ordered, Pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that the registration of Seybolt & Seybolt, Inc., as a broker and dealer be, and it hereby is, revoked.

By the Commission (Commissioners Healy, Pike, Burke, and O'Brien), Chairman Purcell being absent and not participating.

WIGHT AND COMPANY

FINDINGS AND ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION AS BROKER AND DEALER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa. on the 23rd day of November, 1942.

In the matter of Wight & Company, Asbury Park, New Jersey.

1. Wight & Company, a partnership composed of Jasper Wight and Lester W. Wight, hereinafter called the registrant, is registered with this Commission as a broker and dealer pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. We instituted this proceeding under section 15 (b) to determine whether or not registrant's registration as a broker and dealer should be revoked.

2. Our order of September 21, 1942, instituting proceedings, stated that members of its staff had reported to the Commission information obtained as a result of an investigation which tended to show that Jasper Wight and Lester Wight individually, and as Wight and Company, are permanently enjoined by a decree of the Chancery Court of the State of New Jersey, entered on or about March 12, 1942, from engaging in or continuing certain conduct and practices in connection with the purchase and sale of securities.

3. Pursuant to the above order, notice was served upon the registrant and the hearing in the matter was held before a Trial Examiner in New York City on October 1, 1942. The registrant did not appear either in person or by counsel.

4. The record shows, and we find, that by judgment of the Chancery Court of the State of New Jersey, entered on March 12, 1942, Jasper Wight and Lester W. Wight, individually, and as co-partners trading as Wight & Company, are permanently enjoined "from the issuance, offering for sale, sale, promotion, negotiation, advertisement and distribution, within or from this State, of any securities whatsoever, ----------------". The Court's order also appointed a receiver to take over all the assets of Jasper Wight and Lester W. Wight, individually, and as Wight & Company, derived by them "by means of any practice declared to be illegal and prohibited by the New Jersey Securities Law".

5. We find that revocation of the registrant's registration as a broker and dealer is in the public interest.

Accordingly, It is ordered, Pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that the registration of Wight & Company as a broker and dealer be, and it hereby is, revoked.

By the Commission (Commissioners Healy, Pike, Burke, and O'Brien), Chairman Purcell being absent and not participating.

THE MIDDLE WEST CORPORATION

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of November 1942.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company; and

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 8, 1942 at 5:30 p. m., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter, such application as filed or as amended may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized below:

The Middle West Corporation proposes to sell to The Atlantic Company of Atlanta, Georgia, for the consideration of $708,200 in cash, all of the securities and interests held by The Middle West Corporation in (a) City Ice Company of Kansas City, (b) Southern United Ice Company, and (c) Western Ice Service Company. Before such sale is consummated it is proposed that The Middle West Corporation will acquire from Western Ice Service Company all of the outstanding capital stock of Southern-Henke Ice & Storage Company, a non-utility subsidiary of Western Ice Service Company. The Middle West Corporation proposes to acquire such securities for the consideration of $27,705.68, and to pay therefor by reducing by such amount the indebtedness on open account owed The Middle West Corporation by Western Ice Service Company amounting to $41,666.67 at September 30, 1942.

NEW ENGLAND GAS AND ELECTRIC ASSOCIATION

ORDER POSTPONING HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 24th day of November 1942.

The Commission having issued on September 26, 1942, a Notice of and Order for Hearing pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, with respect to New England Gas and Electric Association; and said order having designated November 30, 1942, as the date for public hearing in the matter embraced by said order; and

New England Gas and Electric Association having requested that the hearing in this matter be postponed for a period of 90 days; and

It appearing to the Commission that a postponement of the hearing for 90 days would unduly delay the proceedings, but that postponement of the hearing should be made to January 18, 1943;

It is ordered, That the hearing in this matter previously scheduled for November 30, 1942, be, and hereby is, postponed to January 18, 1943, at the same time and place, and before the same trial examiner as heretofore designated.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VII—Agricultural Adjustment Agency

PART 721—CORN

CORN ACREAGE ALLOTMENT FOR COMMERCIAL CORN-PRODUCING AREA, 1943

Whereas section 328 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides in part as follows:

> The acreage allotment of corn for any calendar year shall be that acreage in the commercial corn-producing area which, on the basis of the average yield for corn in such area during the ten calendar years immediately preceding such calendar year, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions and trends in yield, will produce an amount of corn in such area which the Secretary determines will, together with corn produced in the United States outside the commercial corn-producing area, make available a supply for the marketing year beginning in such calendar year, equal to the reserve supply level. The Secretary shall proclaim such acreage allotment not later than February 1 of the calendar year for which such acreage allotment was determined * * *.

Whereas paragraph (c) of section 301 of said Act provides as follows:

> The latest available statistics of the Federal Government shall be used by the Secretary in making the determinations required to be made by the Secretary under this Act.

Now therefore, be it known that I, Claude R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, acting under and pursuant to, and by virtue of, the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress known as the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, upon the basis of the latest available statistics of the Federal Government, do hereby ascertain, determine, and proclaim under section 328 of said Act:

§ 721.402[1] Corn acreage allotment for the commercial corn-producing area for 1943. That the acreage allotment of corn for the commercial corn-producing area for the calendar year 1943 shall be 43,423,000 acres. (52 Stat. 52:202)

PART 803—GENERAL ORDERS

[General Order 14]

AUTHORIZATION TO THE WAR DEPARTMENT REGARDING CERTAIN CIVILIAN EMPLOYEES

§ 803.14 General Order No. 14. (a) The National War Labor Board hereby delegates to the Secretary of War, to be exercised on his behalf by the Wage Administration Section within the Civilian Personnel Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply (hereinafter referred to as the "War Department Agency"), the power to rule upon all applications for wage and salary adjustments (insofar as approval thereof has been made a function of the National War Labor Board) covering civilian employees within the continental limits of the United States and Alaska, employed by (1) the War Department, (2) the Army Exchange Service, and (3) government-owned, privately-operated facilities of the War Department, all in accordance with the further provisions of this order.

(b) There shall be a standing tripartite Appeals Committee, to consist of two representatives to be appointed by the War Department Agency and two representatives each of industry and labor to be appointed by the National War Labor Board. The Committee may have such assistants as the Board may designate. The Board hereby delegates to the Appeals Committee the power to pass upon appeals from rulings by the War Department Agency under category (a) (3) above, and to perform such other duties as are hereinafter prescribed.

(c) In the performance of their respective duties the War Department Agency and the Appeals Committee shall comply with the terms of Executive Order No. 9250, dated October 3, 1942,[1] and all general orders and policies of the National War Labor Board announced thereunder. The War Department Agency, without making an initial ruling thereon, may refer to the Board, through the Appeals Committee, for decision by the Board any case which in the opinion of the Agency presents doubtful or disputed questions of sufficient seriousness and import to warrant direct action by the Board.

(d) The War Department Agency and the Appeals Committee shall transmit to the Review and Analysis Division of the National War Labor Board copies of their respective rulings and rules of procedure as they are issued, and such additional data and reports as said Division or the Board may from time to time deem necessary.

(e) Any ruling by the War Department Agency hereunder shall be final, subject (1) to the National War Labor Board's ultimate power to review rulings on its own initiative, and (2) in cases under category (a) (3) above, to the right of any aggrieved party within a period of ten days after the issuance of the ruling, to file an appeal with the Appeals Committee.

(f) Any ruling by the Appeals Committee hereunder shall be final subject (1) to the National War Labor Board's ultimate power to review rulings on its own initiative, and (2) to the right of any aggrieved party, including the War Department, within a period of ten days after the issuance of the ruling, to petition the National War Labor Board for leave to appeal to the Board. The burden shall be upon the petitioner in such cases to show why the Board should be called upon to act.

(g) Any ruling by the War Department Agency hereunder shall be deemed to be the act of the National War Labor Board unless and until reversed or modified by the Appeals Committee or by the Board. Any such order of reversal or modification shall allow the War Department Agency a period of two weeks after (1) the time for appeal from the order of the Appeals Committee has elapsed, or (2) if the case has been appealed to the Board, from the date of the Board's order, within which to comply with the order.

(h) The term "government-owned, privately-operated facilities of the War Department shall include for the purposes of this order only those facilities (1) in which the War Department has contractual responsibility for the approval of pay roll costs, and (2) which are designated in lists furnished from time to time to the Board by the War Department Agency. The Board may at any time, upon at least seven days' notice to the War Department Agency, strike from the list any facility if the Board believes that the policies of Executive Order No. 9017[2] or Executive Order No. 9250 will be furthered by the Board's acting directly upon the wage and salary adjustments of such facility.

(i) Where disputes about wages or salaries arise between the private operators of said facilities and their employees, the disputes shall be referred to the War Department Agency. The Agency's rulings in such cases shall be final, subject to the same rights of appeal and review as in cases of rulings by the Agency upon applications for voluntary wage or salary adjustments. The Agency's jurisdiction over disputes shall include only those concerning wages and salaries. The National War Labor Board may in its discretion refer other disputes to the Appeals Committee for such action as the Board may specify in the particular case.

PART 803—GENERAL ORDERS

[General Order 15]

DECISIONS OF ARBITRATORS, ETC.

§ 803.15 General Order No. 15 (a) Where under the provisions of a bona fide collective agreement there has been established an impartial chairman, umpire or arbitrator whose duties include the fixing of rates for new jobs, his decisions so rendered need not be submitted for approval to the National War Labor Board: Provided, That:

(1) The rate for each new job shall be fixed in an amount which is directly related to and in balance with the established rates of the other jobs covered by the agreement, and shall be consistent with the Board's Wage Stabilization Policy of November 6, 1942.

(2) A bi-weekly report of rates so fixed shall be transmitted to the Division of Review, Analysis and Research of the National War Labor Board together with sufficient information to establish the aforesaid relationship and balance.

(3) Such decisions shall be subject to the Board's ultimate power review but any modification or reversal thereof will not be retroactive.

(4) The establishment of such rates should not result in any substantial increase of the level of costs and shall not furnish a basis either to increase price ceilings of the commodity or service involved or to resist otherwise justifiable reductions in such price ceilings.

PART 803—GENERAL ORDERS

[General Order 16]

WAGES OF FEMALES

§ 803.16 General Order No. 16 (a) Adjustments which equalize the wage or salary rates paid to females with the rates paid to males for comparable quality and quantity of work on the same or similar operations, and adjustments in accordance with this policy which recognize or are based on differences in quality or quantity of work performed, may be made without approval of the National War Labor Board: Provided, That:

(1) Such adjustments are reported, when made, to the Division of Review, Analysis and Research of the National War Labor Board together with sufficient information to show that they are in accordance with the policy referred to above;

(2) Such adjustments shall be subject to the Board's ultimate power of review, but any modification or reversal thereof will not be retroactive;

(3) Such adjustments shall not furnish a basis either to increase price ceilings of the commodity or service involved or to resist otherwise justified reductions in such price ceilings.

PART 803—GENERAL ORDERS

[General Order 6, Interpretation 1]

NEW JOB CLASSIFICATIONS

An interpretation to § 803.6 is issued to read as follows:

§ 803.6 General Order No. 6.[1] * * *

INTERPRETATION NO. 1

Question: Paragraph (b) of General Order No. 6 provides that unless a higher rate is approved by the Board, the rate for a new job classification shall be fixed "at a level not exceeding that which prevails for similar classifications within the area." What is the meaning of the quoted phrase? Specifically, must the rate on new jobs be fixed at not exceeding the average of the rates in the area for similar classifications, if the employer is to be free to proceed without the necessity of seeking approval by the Board of what otherwise would constitute a wage increase?

Answer: The object of paragraph (b) of General Order No. 6 was to prevent an employer, upon opening a new plant or creating new job classifications in his existing plant, from paying rates which would unstabilize the rate structure in the area affected by his action. In interpreting General Order No. 6 this object should be kept in mind, and the order should be given a practical and common sense reading.

1. The creation of a new job classification in an existing plant. (a) Major considerations to be borne in mind in making rulings in these cases are that the rates for the new jobs should bear a direct relation to and be in balance with the existing rate structure in the plant. If comparison with other rates in these cases are that the rates for the new rates should bear the same relation to rates for similar classifications in the area as the existing rates in the plant bear to comparable rates in the area.

(b) In these cases of creating new job classifications in existing plants the local Wage and Hour offices, guided by the above considerations and with the approval of the appropriate Wage and Hour Regional Director, may make final rulings except in unusual circumstances, for exampl where it is proposed to set up in an existing plant a new department of substantial size. In such exceptional cases, the application for a ruling should be transmitted by the local Wage and Hour office to the War Labor Board Regional Director and there be processed as set out below.

2. The establishment of a new plant. (a) Whether in a given case it would unstabilize wages in the area to permit a particular employer to fix the rates for a new plant at any level up to the maximum being paid in the area, or whether he should be permitted to pay only the average, or less than the average, will depend on his traditional wage history in relation to the wages of the industry generally, or of the area if he has theretofore operated in the area, the nature of the work in which he is engaged, the rates being paid for comparable work in comparable establishments, and other pertinent factors.

(b) Applications in these cases should be transmitted, without a ruling by the local Wage and Hour office but with such information as said office may deem helpful, to the War Labor Board Regional Director. In his discretion the Regional Director may rule on the case or refer it for a ruling to a tri-partite panel. If the new plant is of substantial size and will employ a large proportion of skilled labor, the Regional Director should refer the case to a panel.

[1] 7 F.R. 8981.

(c) It will be proper and sometimes necessary for the Regional Director or the panel to hold hearings relative to the proper level at which the applicant's rates for the new plant should be fixed. To such a hearing should be invited interested representatives of industry and labor.

3. In all cases the applicant should show the data on the basis of which the proposed rates were determined.

Question: Does the foregoing relate to salaries as well as wages?

Answer: Yes, under General Order No. 6-A.

(E.O. 9250; 7 F.R. 7871)

Executive Secretary.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 1029—FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT AND ATTACHMENTS AND REPAIR PARTS THEREFOR

[Limitation Order L-170 as Amended Nov. 25, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage of critical materials entering into the manufacture of farm machinery and equipment and attachments and repair parts therefor, for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1029.10 Limitation Order L-170[2]—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. (1) This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Protection of production schedules. Producers of any items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts under the terms of this order may, notwithstanding the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended, schedule their production of such items as if the orders therefor bore a rating of AA-3.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person, other than a supplier, engaged in the manufacture of farm machinery and equipment or of repair parts for farm machinery and equipment; Provided, That:

(i) No person who did not manufacture any farm machinery and equipment or repair parts in 1940 or 1941 shall be deemed a "producer", nor shall any such person manufacture any such products of an aggregate value exceeding $2,500 for the period November 1, 1942 to October 31, 1943, inclusive; and

(ii) No state prison institution shall engage in the manufacture of any such products until such time as it has received a specific quota from the Director General for Operations.

(3) "Class A producer" means any producer whose total net sales (including sales of all affiliates of such producer) of all products during the calendar year 1941 exceeded $10,000,000 in value (including domestic sales and exports).

(4) "Class B producer" means any producer whose total net sales (including sales of all affiliates of such producer) of all products during the calendar year 1941 exceeded $750,000 but did not exceed $10,000,000 in value (including domestic sales and exports).

(5) "Class C producer" means any producer whose total net sales (including sales of all affiliates of such producer) of all products during the calendar year 1941 did not exceed $750,000 in value (including domestic sales and exports).

(6) "Affiliate" of a producer means any subsidiary thereof, any subsidiary of such a subsidiary, any parent company, and any subsidiary of such a parent company.

(7) "Supplier" means any person engaged in the manufacture (for sale to a producer) of materials, parts, assemblies or sub-assemblies to be physically incorporated into farm machinery and equipment or repair parts manufactured by such producer, or to be resold by such producer as repair parts.

(8) "Distributor" means any person not a producer whose business consists, in whole or in part, of the sale of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts from inventory, and includes wholesalers, jobbers, retailers and other persons performing similar functions.

(9) "Farm machinery and equipment" means agricultural machinery, mechanical equipment and implements (including all attachments used in conjunction therewith) used for the production or care of crops, livestock, livestock products, or other produce on a farm (or elsewhere in the case of poultry), including irrigation and drainage equipment (excluding tile), horseshoes (including muleshoes), horseshoe nails, harness hardware and water well casing; but excluding repair parts, and also excluding all of the following: tracklaying type tractors, equipment ordered by the United States Department of Agriculture or other United States Government agencies, buildings and repairs thereto, fencing, poultry nettings and wire, wire fencing, bale ties or straps, oil well casing and water pipe, nails (other than horseshoe nails) and sundry hardware.

(10) "Attachment" for farm machinery and equipment means a supplementary appliance which may be added to an otherwise complete machine to extend the utility of such machine.

(11) "Repair parts" means all types of replacement parts considered separately or as assemblies which are manufactured for use and used in the repair and maintenance of farm machinery and equipment, and shall include plow shares and shapes.

(12) "Base production" means the weight of a producer's total production of any item of farm machinery and equipment during either the calendar year 1940 or 1941, in whichever year such weight was the greater; except that, as to items which are bracketed together in Schedule A, the base production shall be the weight of the total production of each group of items so bracketed.

(13) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind, which will be physically incorporated into any item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts.

(14) "Weight" means the net shipping weight of any item of farm machinery and equipment which is completely manufactured, or completely fabricated and ready for shipment in knock-down form.

(15) "Schedule A" means the schedule of quota percentages attached hereto and made a part hereof, as amended from time to time. If any item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts is not specifically listed or otherwise provided for in such schedule, the quota percentage therefor shall be deemed to be 0%.

(16) "Lend-lease order" means any order for farm machinery and equipment or repair parts placed by any agency of the United States Government in response to a requisition filed pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(c) General restrictions on production for domestic use (including "concentration of production"). (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g) hereof, and subject to the provisions of paragraphs (c) (2), (c) (3) and (e) hereof, during the period November 1, 1942, to October 31, 1943, inclusive, no producer shall:

(i) Manufacture, for sale in the continental United States, a total quantity by weight of any item of farm machinery and equipment listed in Schedule A in excess of that quantity obtained by multiplying the applicable quota percentage (designated in the appropriate column of said Schedule A for Class A producers, Class B producers and Class C producers respectively) for such item by his base production of such item for such sale; except that wherever, in said Schedule A, two or more items are bracketed together and only one quota percentage assigned thereto, such percentage shall be applied to such producer's total base production of all such bracketed items, and the total permissible weight thus determined may be distributed among all or any one or more of such bracketed items at his election; and except that, as to silos (Item 296 of said Schedule A), the base production and items permitted to be produced shall be deemed to be in terms of units rather than weight;

[2] 7 F.R. 8460.

(iii) Manufacture, for sale in the continental United States, any farm machinery and equipment requiring rubber tires;

(iv) Sell in the continental United States any quantity of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts which is in excess of the quantity thereof authorized to be manufactured for such sale by the provisions of this order.

(2) The Director General for Operations may, by specific directions issued to any one or more producers, increase or decrease any such producer's quotas as to all or any one or more items authorized to be produced by him by this paragraph (c), and may transfer any portion of such quotas between any such producers (including the transfer thereof from producers located in critical areas as the same may be designated from time to time by the War Manpower Commission).

(3) As to any portion of any such producer's quota as so established which he may decide not to produce at any time after November 1, 1942, he shall immediately notify the War Production Board, so that appropriate action can be taken to transfer such portion of his quota.

(d) General restrictions on production for export. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g) hereof, and subject to the provisions of paragraphs (d) (2), (d) (3) and (e) hereof, during the period November 1, 1942, to October 31, 1943, inclusive, no producer shall manufacture for shipment, or ship:

(i) To all foreign countries within any group of countries listed respectively on Schedules B–1, B–2, B–3, B–4, B–5, and B–6, attached hereto and made a part hereof, as amended from time to time, a quantity of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts in the aggregate in excess of a designated percentage (listed respectively on each such schedule) of one-half the net shipping weight of the total quantity thereof exported by said producer during the calendar years 1940 and 1941 in the aggregate to all such countries within the particular group;

(ii) To Canada a quantity of any item of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts (as listed in Schedule B–7, attached hereto and made a part hereof, as amended from time to time) in excess of that quantity obtained by multiplying the quota percentage designated in said Schedule B–7 for such item by the quantity thereof shipped by said producer to Canada during the calendar year 1940;

(iii) To any foreign country (including Canada and territories and possessions of the United States) any farm machinery and equipment requiring rubber tires.

(2) Except as to items destined for Canada (Schedule B–7) and for territories and possessions of the United States (Schedule B–6), no producer shall fabricate or process any material to be physically incorporated into any item of farm machinery and equipment which may be authorized to be manufactured for export by paragraph (d) (1) above, unless and until he has received from the Director General for Operations specific authorization for such fabrication or processing as to any or all such items, application for which may be by letter setting forth the pertinent facts: Provided, That nothing in this paragraph (d) (2) shall be deemed to prevent any such producer from earmarking for export, within his export quota, any items of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts from his inventory, whether or not such items were manufactured specifically for export.

As to any portion of any such producer's export quota, as established by paragraph (d) (1) above, which he may decide not to produce at any time after November 1, 1942, he shall immediately notify the War Production Board, so that appropriate action can be taken to transfer such portion of his export quota.

(3) The Director General for Operations may, by specific directions issued to any one or more producers, increase or decrease any such producer's quotas as established by paragraph (d) (1) above, and may transfer any portion of such quotas between any such producers (including the transfer thereof from producers located in critical areas as the same may be designated from time to time by the War Manpower Commission).

(e) Further restrictions on production—(1) Restrictions on production for specific periods. The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue supplementary orders (or specific directions to any one or more producers) governing the production of all or any one or more items of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts for specified monthly, bi-monthly or quarterly periods. On and after the effective date of any such supplementary order or specific direction, no producer affected thereby shall, notwithstanding the provisions of this Order L–170, manufacture any such item during the period specified except in accordance with the terms of such supplementary order or specific direction.

(2) Items containing iron and steel. On and after November 1, 1942, no producer shall put into process any iron or steel (excluding screws, nails, rivets, bolts, or wire, strapping or small hardware for joining or other similar essential purpose) to make any of the following items of farm machinery and equipment:

Barnyard stock tanks.
Bee hives.
Butter churns.
Butter molds.
Canopies for electric brooders.
Cattle stalls.
Corn cribs.
Doubletrees.
Farm gates.
Grain bins.
Grit boxes.
Guide handles.
Hobbles (all types).
Hog troughs.
Laying nests.
Livestock feeders.
Marking poles.
Milk stools.
Nick yokes.
Poultry feeders.
Singletrees.
Stanchions.
Stock pens.
Thills.
Tongues.
Weaners.

(f) Overproduction under Order L–26. Any items of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts which have been manufactured and/or sold by any producer prior to November 1, 1942, and which are in excess of such producer's authorized quota under Limitation Order L–26 (including all amendments thereto and appeals granted thereunder), shall be deducted from such quotas as may be authorized for such producer by the provisions of this order or subsequent orders: Provided, That no such deduction shall constitute a condonation of any violation of any order or regulation of the War Production Board.

(g) Exceptions—(1) To the extent that the weight of any item or items of a producer's quota as established by paragraph (c) (1) hereof has been or will be increased by his substituting for more critical materials entering into such item or items any one or more of the following materials:

Glass or other ceramic products.
Plain concrete.
Fibre board.
Wood fibre products.
Plywood (produced with binder or adhesive not restricted by Conservation Order M–25 or any other applicable M or L order).
Gum and other hardwood lumber.
Softwood lumber (subject to the restrictions of Conservation Order M–208 or any other applicable M or L order); such increased weight shall not operate to reduce the number of units which he could have otherwise manufactured pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) above. In addition, if any such producer has made, or shows that he can make, in any item or items of his quota as established by paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof, a substitution of any of the materials listed above for more critical materials entering into such item or items, he may apply by letter to the Director General for Operations for reconsideration of his quota, based on such substitution.

(2) Any item of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts which was manufactured for sale within the continental United States by a producer within his authorized quota under Limitation Order L–26 (including all amendments thereto and appeals granted thereunder), and which is, prior to November 1, 1942, completely manufactured, or completely fabricated and ready for shipment in knock-down form, may be sold on and after such date without reference to the provisions of this order.

(3) Nothing in paragraph (d) of this order shall be deemed to prohibit or control the shipment of any item of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts which:

(i) Was manufactured for export by a producer within his authorized quota

under paragraph (c) (1) (iii) of Limitation Order L–26 (including all amendments thereto and appeals granted thereunder), and

(ii) Is covered by either an export license issued by the Board of Economic Warfare or by a lend-lease order, dated prior to November 1, 1942, (except as to items destined for Canada and territories and possessions of the United States), and

(iii) Is, prior to such date, completely manufactured or completely fabricated and ready for shipment in knock-down form.

Any such items for export which, prior to November 1, 1942, are in production or on order but not completely manufactured or ready for shipment in knock-down form, shall be deducted from such export quotas as may be authorized for such producer by the provisions of this order or subsequent orders, and shall not be manufactured on and after such date except in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) above.

(h) Restrictions on sales for domestic use. Subject to such directions as may be issued from time to time as to rationing control, by, or pursuant to delegations from, the Director General for Operations,

(1) On and after November 1, 1942, no person shall sell any item of new farm machinery and equipment (except horseshoes, muleshoes and horseshoe nails) which he knows or has reason to know will not be used in the hands of the ultimate consumer for the production or care of crops, livestock, livestock products, or other produce on a farm (or elsewhere in the case of poultry), except to fill a contract or purchase order bearing a preference rating of A–9 or higher;

(2) On and after November 1, 1942, no distributor shall sell or deliver to a consumer any new repair part which he knows or has reason to know will not be incorporated reasonably promptly into farm machinery and equipment in the possession of such consumer.

(i) Inventory provisions. (1) On and after November 1, 1942, no distributor shall:

(i) Keep in his inventory, in his possession or under his control, for a period of more than thirty days, any used, traded-in, imperfect or non-usable item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts which cannot be reconditioned, but must dispose of the same through the customary disposal or scrap channels; or

(ii) During any consecutive three months period (or four months period as to distributors not located in either the Eastern or Central War Time Zones), place regular stock orders for a quantity of any item of repair parts in excess of his estimated requirements of such item for that period, taking into consideration inventory of like parts on hand. The restrictions of this paragraph (i) (1) (ii) shall not apply to emergency orders for any item of repair parts to be used in the current three (or four) months period: Provided, That the distributor shall file with his order to the producer for any such emergency item a certificate in substantially the following form:

CERTIFICATE FOR EMERGENCY ORDER

I hereby certify that the repair part(s) specified in the attached order is(are) essential for the emergency repair of farm machinery and equipment.

(Signed) ----------------------------
Firm, partnership, or corporation
By: ----------------------------
Title of individual

Address of firm, partnership, or corporation

A copy of each such certificate shall be retained by the distributor as a part of his records.

(2) On and after November 1, 1942, any producer may sell to any other producer any material in his inventory which is in excess of his requirements for the items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts permitted to be manufactured by the provisions of this order. Such sales shall be expressly permitted within the terms of paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation No. 13 as amended.

(j) Standardization, simplification, substitution, and conservation of critical materials. (1) In the manufacture of any item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts, no producer shall use any alloy steel, stainless steel, aluminum, magnesium, copper, brass, bronze, zinc, nickel, tin, cadmium or fabricated rubber products for any purpose where the use of other less critical materials will not impair the efficiency of operation of such item.

No materials shall be used which are prohibited by M–Orders or other restrictions on use of critical materials as now or hereafter ordered by the Director General for Operations.

(2) The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue supplementary orders or schedules establishing required specifications with respect to the production of any item or items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts. "Required specifications" may include requirements to standardize or simplify the types, sizes or models of, or the specifications for, any such item or items; to eliminate, reduce or conserve the use of critical materials in the production thereof; and to substitute less critical for more critical materials in the production thereof. On and after the effective date of any such supplementary order or schedule, no farm machinery and equipment and repair parts affected thereby shall be produced, fabricated, assembled, or delivered, if such production, fabrication, assembly, or delivery is prohibited by the terms thereof.

(k) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(l) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(m) Reports. (1) All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(2) Each producer shall file not later than thirty days after October 19, 1942, a report of his production quotas on Form PD–629.

(3) Each producer shall file by the 10th day of each month a report on Form PD–630 of his production during the preceding month, the first report to be made on or before December 10, 1942.

(4) Each producer affected by paragraph (d) hereof shall file by the 10th day of each month a report on Form PD–387 (revised) of his shipments during the preceding month (starting with November, 1942) to all foreign countries (including all countries listed on Schedules B–1, B–2, B–3, B–4, B–5, B–6, and B–7).

(n) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(o) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him in comparison with others similarly situated, may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(p) Communications. All communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Farm Machinery and Equipment Branch, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–170.

(q) Inconsistent orders. This order supersedes as of November 1, 1942, Limitation Order L–26, and Supplementary Limitation Orders L–26–a and L–26–d, and all amendments thereto and appeals granted thereunder.

Issued this 25th day of November 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

SCHEDULE A[1]

SCHEDULE OF QUOTAS COVERING THE DOMESTIC PRODUCTION OF FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT AND REPAIR PARTS THEREFOR FOR THE PERIOD NOVEMBER 1, 1942, TO OCTOBER 31, 1943

Quotas for repair parts are expressed as a percentage of the average dollar value of all repair parts sold during the years 1940 and 1941. Quotas for new machinery and equipment including attachments are expressed as a percentage of the weight of each item produced during 1940 or 1941, whichever was higher. Producers of these items must use the percentages set forth in the respective columns, depending upon whether they are Class A, Class B, or Class C producers. Production of "bracketed items" may be distributed among all or any one or more items included in the particular bracket so long as the total weight of material used does not exceed that determined by the quota percentage assigned to the particular bracket.

[1] As amended November 25, 1942.

Any item of farm machinery and equipment not provided for in this Schedule A shall not be manufactured, unless specifically exempted by Order L–170.

PART 937—ZINC

[Conservation Order M-11-b, as Amended Nov. 26, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of zinc for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 937.13 Conservation Order M-11-b—(a) Prohibition on use of zinc in articles appearing on List A. (1) Between July 24, 1942 and September 1, 1942, no person shall put into process in the manufacture of any item on List A more weight of zinc than 50% of the average monthly weight of zinc put into process by him during 1941 in the making of such item, and no person shall put into process any zinc in the making of such item unless processing thereof will be completed within such period.

(2) Effective September 1, 1942, no person shall process any zinc to make any item on List A.

(3) No person shall process any zinc to make any item on List A-1 after the governing date set forth opposite such item in column 2 of List A-1. No person shall at any time process any zinc to make any item now or hereafter placed on List A-1 unless the item will be completed by the governing date applicable to the item.

(4) No person shall process any metal which has a protective coating or plating (other than paint) of zinc to make any item on List A and no person shall apply a protective coating or plating (other than paint) of zinc to any item on List A, unless the item on List A has a notation to the contrary; and no person shall process any metal which has a protective coating or plating (other than paint) of zinc to make any item on List A-1 after its governing date and no person shall apply a protective coating or plating (other than paint) of zinc to any item on List A-1 after its governing date, unless the item on List A-1 has a notation to the contrary.

(b) Limitation on other uses of zinc. (1) No person shall put into process during any calendar quarter in the manufacture of items not on Lists A or A-1 at the beginning of such quarter more than 75% of the amount by weight of zinc of prime western grade or more than 50% of the amount by weight of zinc of any other grade, respectively, put into process by him in the manufacture of such items during the corresponding calendar quarter of 1941.

(2) No person shall put into process during any calendar quarter more than 75% of the amount by weight of zinc of prime western grade or more than 50% of the amount by weight of zinc of any other grade, respectively, put into process by him during the corresponding calendar quarter of 1941 for the purpose of applying a protective coating or plating (other than paint) of zinc.

(3) No person shall put into process in the manufacture of automotive and tractor carburetors and fuel pumps for repair, maintenance and replacement purposes during the last half of the last calendar quarter of 1942 more than 25% of the amount by weight of zinc put into process by him during the entire third calendar quarter of 1942 in the manufacture of automotive and tractor carburetors and fuel pumps for repair, maintenance and replacement purposes; and no person shall put into process for such purposes during the first calendar quarter of 1943 or any subsequent calendar quarter more than 50% of the amount by weight of zinc put into process by him for such purposes during the third calendar quarter of 1942.

(c) General exceptions. The prohibitions and restrictions in paragraphs (a) and (b) shall not apply to the use of zinc in any item which is being produced:

(1) Under a specific contract or subcontract covering the manufacture of any product, or any component to be physically incorporated into such product, produced by or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States or the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, or for any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the Defense of the United States", (Lend-Lease Act) to the extent required by specifications, including performance specifications, applicable to the contracts, subcontracts or purchase orders of these organizations.

(2) For use to comply with safety regulations issued under governmental authority which require the use of zinc to the extent employed, or

(3) For use in chemical and industrial plants to the extent that corrosive or chemical action makes the use of any other material impractical, or

(4) For use in research laboratories where and to the extent that the physical or chemical properties make the use of any other material impractical.

(5) For health supplies as defined in Preference Rating Order P-29, as the same may be amended, to the extent a preference rating of A-10 or higher is assigned under said order to deliveries of zinc for the manufacture of any such supplies, or

(6) For precision measuring, recording and control instruments, systems or equipment for use in industrial processes, or

(7) For stamping and forming dies.

(d) Prohibitions against sales or deliveries of zinc. No person shall after July 24, 1942, sell or deliver zinc to any person if he knows, or has reason to believe such material is to be used in violation of the terms of this order.

(e) Limitation of inventories. No person shall accumulate an inventory of zinc or products thereof, in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished parts or sub-assemblies in quantities in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory, taking into consideration the limitations placed upon the production of zinc products by this order. Any person who has an inventory in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory is prohibited from receiving additional zinc or products thereof beyond that extent necessary to maintain a minimum practicable working inventory.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order must be made on Form PD-500 and must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates.

(2) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply to the use of material in all items or articles hereafter manufactured irrespective of whether such items are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to July 24, 1942, or pursuant to a contract supported by a preference rating. Insofar as any other order of the Director General for Operations may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided, the use of zinc in the production of any article, the limitation of such other order shall be observed.

(3) Violations or false statements. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(4) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(i) "Zinc" means zinc metal which has been produced by any electrolytic, electro-thermic, or fire refining process. It shall include zinc dust (for Sheradizing only), scrap zinc, zinc metal produced from scrap and any alloy in the composition of which the percentage of zinc metal by weight equals or exceeds the percentage of all other metals.

(ii) "Prime western zinc" means zinc of no higher grade than that conforming to American Society for Testing Materials specification B6–37, grade 5, and zinc dust for Sheradizing.

(iii) "Zinc of any other grade" means zinc conforming to American Society for Testing Materials specification B6–37, grades 1a, 1, 2, 3, or 4, and any alloy in the composition of which the percentage of zinc metal by weight equals or exceeds the percentage of all other metals.

(iv) "Inventory" of a person includes the inventory of affiliates and subsidiaries of such person, and the inventory of others where such inventory is under the control of or under common control with or available for the use of such person.

(v) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not (including, but not limited to, any trustee, receiver, assignee, or personal representative thereof):

(vi) "Item" means any article or component part thereof.

(vii) "Process" means cut, draw, machine, stamp, melt, cast, forge, roll, turn, spin or otherwise shape.

(viii) "Put into process" means the first change by a manufacturer in the form of material from that form in which it is received by him.

(ix) "Sheradizing" means any process which uses zinc dust or finely divided zinc as a raw material for impregnating the surface of a ferrous material with zinc by process of cementation.

(g) Items not controlled by order. From and after October 2, 1942, the provisions of this order shall not apply to the processing or putting into process of zinc in the manufacture of dry cell batteries to the extent that the manufacture of such batteries is governed by General Limitation Order L–71 as amended from time to time; and from and after November 13, 1942, the provisions of this order shall not apply to the processing or putting into process of zinc printing plates to the extent that the processing and putting into process of such plates is governed by General Limitation Order M–99 as amended from time to time.

Issued this 26th day of November 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

LIST A [1]

The use of zinc in the items below and in all component parts of such items is prohibited except to the extent permitted by the foregoing Conservation Order M–11–b. Where sublistings appear under a general heading on this list, only the sublistings are to be considered as items on List A.

- Automotive:
  - Diesel engines.
  - Passenger cars.
  - Trailers.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Regulation 17]

POST EXCHANGES AND SHIP'S SERVICE DEPARTMENTS

§ 944.38 Priorities Regulation 17—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this regulation "orders for military exchanges or service departments" means contracts or purchase orders for material to be delivered to, or for the account of, or to be physically incorporated in material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of, any U. S. Army or Marine Corps Post Exchange or any U. S. Navy Ship's Service Department.

(b) Purchases constitute defense orders. Orders for military exchanges or service departments shall be deemed to be "Defense Orders" within the meaning of § 944.1 (b) (1) of Priorities Regulation 1 (and therefore by reason of § 944.1a of Priorities Regulation 1, shall be rated A–10, unless a higher preference rating is assigned) only when such orders are endorsed as follows:

> All the items on this Purchase Order are listed in Priorities-Allocation Instructions 12, with Amendments. Therefore, pursuant to terms of Priorities Regulation 17, this Order carries a preference rating A–10 without the issuance of a Preference Rating Certificate.

(c) Applicability of military exemptions. Whenever any rule, regulation or order of the War Production Board contains an exception or exemption for material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of, or for material to be physically incorporated in material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Army or Navy of the United States, such exception or exemption shall not apply to orders for military exchanges or service departments except in cases where such orders bear the following endorsement:

(1) In the case of U. S. Army Post Exchanges:

> Authorized as an Army purchase pursuant to Priorities-Allocation Instructions.
> By ___________________ > Army Exchange Service,
> War Department.

(2) In the case of U. S. Navy Ship's Service Departments:

> Authorized as a Navy Purchase pursuant to Priorities-Allocation Instructions.
> By ___________________,
> Bureau of Naval Personnel.

(3) In the case of U. S. Marine Corps Post Exchanges:

> Authorized as a Marine Corps purchase within Army or Navy exception clause pursuant to Priorities-Allocation Instructions,
> By ___________________________
> Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps

(d) Effect of quota provisions. Whenever any rule, regulation or order of the War Production Board limits the amount of any material that may be received, processed, sold or delivered by any person to a percentage of previous amounts thereof received, processed, sold or delivered by him, or otherwise expressly fixes a quota for him, and contains an exception or exemption for material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Army or Navy of the United States, but does not expressly permit such person, in computing his quota, to exclude therefrom orders for military exchanges or service departments, such orders which are endorsed as provided in paragraph (c) hereof shall be included in such exception or exemption. Orders for military exchanges or service departments which are not endorsed at all or only endorsed as provided in paragraph (b) shall not be included in such exception or exemption and must be charged against the quota of the person filling them, but such orders need not be accepted by such person in excess of 45% of such person's quota or such other percentage as the Director General for Operations may prescribe with respect to any particular material.

(e) Effect on other provisions. In case any provision in any regulation or in any order of the War Production Board is inconsistent with any provision in this regulation, the provisions of this regulation shall govern unless such other provision expressly states that this regulation shall be inapplicable.

Issued this 26th day of November 1942.

PART 1012—DOMESTIC VACUUM CLEANERS

[Revocation of General Limitation Order L–18 and Supplementary General Limitation Order L–18–a]

Section 1012.1 General Limitation Order L–18 and § 1012.2 Supplementary General Limitation Order L–18–a are hereby revoked.

PART 1012—DOMESTIC VACUUM CLEANERS

[Supplementary Limitation Order L–18–b, as Amended Nov. 26, 1942]

Section 1012.3 Supplementary Limitation Order L–18–b is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1012.3 Supplementary Limitation Order L–18–b—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Domestic vacuum cleaner" means any vacuum cleaner designed primarily for household use.

(2) "Attachment" means any special purpose device commonly known as an attachment which is designed for use with a domestic vacuum cleaner.

(3) "Assembly" does not include the putting together of a vacuum cleaner after delivery to a sales outlet or consumer in knockdown form pursuant to an established shipping custom, nor does it include the adding of finished parts or attachments to an otherwise finished vacuum cleaner when the placing of one or more finished parts or attachments or the size or type thereof, is determined by the use to which the ultimate consumer is to put the article.

(b) Prohibition on production. No person shall produce or assemble any new domestic vacuum cleaner or attachment, whether for household, commercial, institutional, governmental or any other purpose. The provisions of this paragraph shall not be deemed to prohibit the repair or rebuilding of used domestic vacuum cleaners or attachments.

(c) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order must be made on Form PD–500 and must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board of the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates.

(d) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(e) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(f) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production, and sales.

(g) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(h) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers' Durable Goods Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–18–b.

Issued this 26th day of November 1942.

PART 1042—IMPORTS OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS

[General Imports Order M–63, as Amended November 20, 1942[1]]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain imported materials for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1042.1 General Imports Order M–63—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether or not incorporated.

(2) "Owner" of any material means any person who has any property interest in such material except a person whose interest is held solely as security for the payment of money.

(3) "Consignee" means the person to whom a material is consigned at the time of importation.

(4) "Import" means to transport in any manner into the continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States (including the Philippine Islands). It includes shipments into a free port, free zone, or bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States and shipments in bond into the continental United States for transshipment to Canada, Mexico, or any other foreign country.

(5) "Place of initial storage" means any warehouse, yard ground storage, or other place, to which the person making the entry or withdrawal from custody of the United States Bureau of Customs of material imported subject to this order directs or has directed that such material be transported from the port of entry to be held until disposed of pursuant to this order.

(6) Material shall be deemed "in transit" if either it is afloat or an on board ocean bill of lading has actually been issued with respect to it.

(b) Restrictions on imports of materials. (1) After the date upon which any material is first made subject to this order, no person, other than the Board of Economic Warfare, Commodity Credit Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, and any other United States governmental department, agency or corporation, or any agent acting for such company, department, agency, or corporation, shall, except as authorized or otherwise directed in writing by the Director General for Operations, purchase for import, import, offer to purchase for import, receive, or offer to receive on consignment for import, or make any contract or other arrangement for the importing of, any such material. No bank or other person shall participate, by financing or otherwise, in any arrangement which such bank or person knows or has reason to know involves the importation of any such material unless such bank or person has received either a copy of the authorization issued by the Director General for Operations, or, if the material is one of those on List I or List II, an affidavit stating that the material is imported under a contract made before, or in existence on, the date when such material was first made subject to the provisions of this order. The materials subject to this order are those listed upon List I, List II, and List III attached hereto, and those hereafter made subject to this order by the Director General for Operations.

(2) Any person desiring such authorization, whether owner, purchaser, seller, or consignee of the material to be imported, or agent of any of them, shall make application therefor in duplicate on Form PD–222–C, addressed to the War Production Board, Ref.: M–63, Washington, D. C.

(3) Unless otherwise directed by the Director General for Operations, this prohibition shall not prevent the importing, under the restrictions hereinafter set forth, of any material on List I or List II by any person under any contract made before, or in existence on, the date when such material was first made subject to the provisions of this Order M–63.

(4) This prohibition shall apply, however, to the importing of any material on List III by any person under any contract or other arrangement whether made prior or subsequent to the date upon which such material was made subject to the order except where on such date such material was in transit to a point within continental United States.

(5) Unless otherwise directed by the Director General for Operations, the restrictions set forth in this paragraph (b) shall not apply to any material of which any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation is the owner at the time of importation or to any material which the owner at the time of importation had purchased or otherwise acquired from any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation.

(c) Restrictions on disposition of imported material on List I. Except as hereinafter specifically provided in paragraph (d) hereof:

(1) Restrictions upon owners and consignees. No owner or consignee of any material on List I which is imported after such material has become subject to this order shall in any way, directly or indirectly:

(i) Dispose of any interest in such material;

[1] This document is a restatement of Amendment 8 to M–63 which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 24, page 9702 and reflects the order in its completed form as of November 20, 1942.

(ii) Process or in any way change the physical condition of such material;

(iii) Transfer possession, or cause or permit a transfer of possession, of such material except to the port of entry and from the port of entry to the place of initial storage of such material; or

(iv) Change, or cause or permit a change of, the location of such material except to the port of entry and from the port of entry to the place of initial storage of such material.

Provided: That a consignee of such material may dispose of his interest in such material to the extent necessary to complete any commitment or contract made prior to the effective date of this order. The person to whom he disposes of such interest shall be subject to all restrictions imposed upon owners by this order.

(2) Restrictions upon banks and persons similarly situated. No bank or other person which, as agent, pledges, beneficiary under a trust receipt, or otherwise, has possession of or any interest in any written instrument evidencing any interest in any material on List I shall in any way, directly or indirectly, dispose of any such interest, or transfer possession, or cause or permit a transfer of possession, of such instrument, unless: (i) Such material was imported before it became subject to this order; or

(ii) Such person neither knows nor has reason to know that such material was imported after it became subject to this order; or

(iii) Such disposition or transfer is necessary to permit a consignee to make a permissible disposition of material in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c); or

(iv) Such disposition or transfer is made to the owner of the material and such owner has complied with all the provisions of this order.

(d) Permissible disposition of imported materials on List I—(1) Transfer to Governmental agency. Nothing contained in this order shall prohibit any person having any interest whether as owner, consignee, or otherwise in any material on List I imported after such material has become subject to this order from disposing of, or making any arrangement to dispose of, any interest in such material to the Board of Economic Warfare, Commodity Credit Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, or any other United States governmental department, agency, or corporation.

(2) Authorization by Director General for Operations. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c), an owner of material on List I imported after such material has become subject to this order or a bank or other person having possession of or an interest in a written instrument evidencing an interest in such material, may process such material or may dispose of any interest in such material or any such written instrument, or transfer possession or change the location thereof, or cause or permit such a transfer of possession or change of location, upon written authorization by the Director General for Operations. Any such person may make application in duplicate for such an authorization on Form PD–222A, which form shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Ref.: M–63, Washington, D. C.

(3) Exceptions. The restrictions set forth in paragraph (c) shall not apply to any material of which any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation is the owner at the time of importation, and shall not apply to any such material after any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation becomes the owner thereof, and shall not apply to any material purchased or otherwise acquired from any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation.

(e) Restrictions on disposition of imported material on List II or List III. Any material on List II or List III, which is imported after such material has become subject to this order, may be sold, processed, consumed, or otherwise disposed of without restriction, subject to the provisions of paragraph (f) hereof as to reports, and subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), hereinafter mentioned, and of any general preference, conservation, or limitation order of the Director General for Operations which now or hereafter may be in effect with respect to such material.

(f) Reports—(1) Reports of existing contracts to the War Production Board. Promptly after any List I or List II material has become subject to this order, every person other than any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation, or any agent acting for any such department, agency, or corporation who has outstanding any order, contract, or other arrangement for the importing of any such material or who has heretofore acquired for import any such material which has not physically arrived at the port of entry thereof when this order becomes effective with respect thereto, shall report all relevant facts with respect to such material to the War Production Board, Ref.: M–63, Washington, D. C. Such report shall be filed in duplicate.

(2) Reports of authorized contracts to the War Production Board. Every person (other than any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation, or any agent acting for such department, agency, or corporation), who is authorized by the Director General for Operations under paragraph (b) hereof, to make any contract or other arrangement for the importing of any material subject to this order, shall promptly report all relevant facts with respect to any contract or other arrangement entered into pursuant to such authorization to the War Production Board, Ref.: M–63, Washington, D. C. Such report shall be filed in duplicate.

(3) Reports to Collector of Customs. No material which is imported after it has become subject to this order, including materials imported by or for the account of the Board of Economic Warfare, Commodity Credit Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, or any other United States governmental department, agency, or corporation, shall be entered through the United States Bureau of Customs for any purpose, whether for consumption, for warehouse, in transit, in bond, for re-export, for appraisal, or otherwise, unless the person making the entry shall file with the entry Form PD–222–B in duplicate. No material on List I or List II which was imported prior to July 2, 1942, and which on July 2, 1942, was in a free port, free zone, or bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States shall be withdrawn for consumption unless the person making the withdrawal shall file with the withdrawal Form PD–222–B in duplicate. Both copies of such forms shall be transmitted by the Collector of Customs to the War Production Board, Stockpile and Shipping Branch, Ref.: M–63, Washington, D. C.

(4) Other reports. All persons having any interest in, or taking any action with respect to, any material imported after it has become subject to this order, whether as owner, agent, consignee, or otherwise, shall file such other reports as may be required from time to time by the War Production Board.

(g) Routing of communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise herein directed be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–63.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or who furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority assistance.

(i) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944) as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(j) Effective date. This order shall take effect at 12:01 a. m. on July 2, 1942, and shall continue in effect until revoked. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued November 20, 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

NOTE: Changes were made in List I, List II, and List III, effective November 23, 1942.

INTERPRETATION 1

No authorization under paragraph (b) of the order is necessary for the release or withdrawal of materials on List II or List III from a free port, a free zone, or the bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States regardless of the date when such materials first entered such place. The actual importation, which is the subject of restriction under paragraph (b), is deemed to have occurred before the question of release or withdrawal arises. Also, no authorization under paragraph (d) of the order is necessary for the subsequent disposition, processing, or shipment of such released or withdrawn List II and List III materials.

As to List I materials which are similarly situated, no authorization under paragraph (b) of the order is necessary for their release or withdrawal from free port, free zone, or bonded custody, but authorization under paragraph (d) of the order is necessary for their subsequent disposition, processing, or shipment unless they are shipped in bond to Canada, Mexico, or some other foreign country, in which event the foreign destination is deemed to be the place of initial storage as such term is used in the order.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-162]

GLIDDEN CO.

The Glidden Company, an Ohio corporation, with its principal office at Cleveland, Ohio, is engaged in the business of producing paints and vegetable oils.

Subsequent to April 9, 1942, without the authorization of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations of the War Production Board, The Glidden Company began construction (as defined in Conservation Order L-41 [1]) of two buildings at its plant at Buena Park, California, for the storage of seed and beans, and for delinting cottonseed, respectively. The estimated cost of construction of each of these buildings was in excess of $5,000.00 and both of said buildings constitute a single project under Conservation Order L-41. Such construction was begun in disregard of the provisions of Conservation Order L-41, with which The Glidden Company was familiar, and constituted wilful violations of that order.

After May 18, 1942, The Glidden Company accepted delivery of certain delinting machinery of a value of approximately $12,465.00 not pursuant to an "approved order", as said term is defined in General Limitation Order L-83.[2] Delivery of such machinery was accepted in disregard of the provisions of General Limitation Order L-83, with which the company was familiar, and constituted wilful violations of that order.

These violations of Conservation Order L-41 and General Limitation Order L-83 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials and machinery to uses prohibited by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts: It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.162 Suspension Order S-162. (a) Neither The Glidden Company nor any other person shall order, purchase, accept delivery of, withdraw from inventory or in any other manner secure or use material or construction plant in order to continue construction on either of the two buildings (one designed primarily for the storage of cottonseed and soya beans, the other designed primarily to house equipment necessary for delinting cottonseed) located at the plant of The Glidden Company at Buena Park, California, on which construction has been begun but not completed. For a period of one year from the effective date of this order no application for authorization to continue or complete construction of either of said buildings filed by The Glidden Company or any other person shall be granted.

(b) The Glidden Company shall not use for any purpose any of the delinting machinery which it acquired for installing in either of the buildings specified in paragraph (a) hereof, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this paragraph shall prohibit The Glidden Company from selling or otherwise disposing of any of such machinery in accordance with the restrictions of any applicable orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve The Glidden Company from any restriction, prohibition or other provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on November 30, 1942.

Issued this 26th day of November, 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 923—TUNGSTEN

[General Preference Order M-29 as Amended Nov. 27, 1942]

Whereas, the national defense requirements have created a shortage of tungsten, as hereinafter defined, for defense, for private account, and for export and it is necessary, in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution thereof;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 923.3 General Preference Order M-29—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Tungsten" means and includes:

(i) Ores and concentrates, including beneficiated or treated forms, containing commercially recognized tungsten;

(ii) The element tungsten in pure form, in any shape into which the same may be fabricated;

(iii) Ferro-tungsten, tungsten metal powder and any other ferrous combination of the element tungsten in semi-manufactured or manufactured form, excluding alloy steel, high speed steel and tool steel.

(iv) All non-ferrous mixtures or alloys containing tungsten, prepared for any purpose requiring further processing, whether the same are manufactured by means of melting, pressing, sintering, brazing, soldering or welding, including but not limited to mixtures or alloys to be used in the production of tools and tool blanks or as hard facing materials, but not including any finished tool;

(v) All chemical compounds having tungsten as a recognizable and essential component;

(vi) All scrap or secondary material containing commercially recoverable tungsten as defined in (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) above, excluding tungsten bearing iron and steel scrap.

(2) "Producer" means any person who mines or otherwise produces natural materials containing recoverable quantities of tungsten.

(3) "Processor" means any person who prepares ores, concentrates or any chemical or metallurgical forms of tungsten for any industrial use.

(4) "Dealer" means any person who procures tungsten either by importing or from domestic sources for sale or resale without change in form, whether or not such person receives title to or physical delivery of the material, and includes warehousemen, brokers and jobbers.

(b) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(c) Restrictions on deliveries—(1) Allocations. Except as permitted by paragraph (c) (2) of this order, no person shall make or accept delivery of tungsten without the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

The Director will from time to time allocate the supply of tungsten and specifically direct the manner and quantities in which deliveries to particular persons or for particular uses shall be made or withheld. The Director may also require any person seeking to place a purchase order for tungsten to place the same with one or more particular suppliers. Such allocations and directions will be made primarily to insure satisfaction of all defense requirements of the United States, both direct and indirect, and they may be made without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular contracts or purchase orders.

(2) Permissible deliveries. Until further order or in the absence of a contrary direction by the Director General for Operations, the following transactions are permitted without specific authorization by the Director General for Operations:

(i) Tungsten in any form may be delivered by any person to the Metals Reserve Company or to any other Corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended (15 U.S.C., section 606 (b)), or to any duly authorized agent of any such Corporation.

(ii) Tungsten in any form (except in the form of wire, rod, sheet or metal powder) may be delivered by any person to any person in quantities of 25 pounds or less of contained tungsten, provided that the total quantity in terms of tungsten content which any person may receive pursuant to the provisions of this subparagraph during any one calendar month, beginning with the month of July, 1942, from all sources of supply shall be limited to 25 pounds.

(iii) Tungsten ores or concentrates may be delivered by any producer, dealer or processor:

(a) To any processor for the purpose of being concentrated, further concentrated or beneficiated by the processor receiving such delivery, or

(b) To any dealer, provided that no dealer shall store or otherwise hold for more than 120 days any material acquired by him under the provisions of this subparagraph.

(d) Reports and applications. (1) Each processor and dealer shall file with the War Production Board on or before the 20th day of each calendar month reports on form PD–9–d, or such other form as said Board may from time to time prescribe.

(2) Any person who desires an allocation of tungsten shall apply therefor to the War Production Board not later than the 20th day of the month preceding the month in which delivery of the material is desired, on Form PD–9–c, or such other form as the War Production Board may from time to time prescribe, and shall file a copy of such application with each supplier with whom he places a purchase order for tungsten. All such applications to the War Production Board must be accompanied by reports on behalf of the applicant on form PD–9–d, or on such other form as may be prescribed for this purpose from time to time by the War Production Board. Failure by any person to file an application in the manner and on the date required by this paragraph may be construed as notice to the Director General for Operations and to all suppliers of tungsten that such person does not desire an allocation of tungsten during the next succeeding month.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(f) Effect upon other orders. Nothing contained in this order shall be construed as altering or modifying any of the terms or provisions of General Imports Order M–63, as the same may be from time to time amended.

(g) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the Tungsten Branch, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference: M–29.

Part 1108—Maintenance and Operation of Plants Processing Dairy Products or Eggs

[Preference Rating Order P–118, as Amended November 27, 1942]

§ 1108.1 Preference Rating Order P–118—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Processor" means any person located in the United States, its territories and possessions, engaged in processing dairy products or eggs, or any person located in the Dominion of Canada, to whom and in whose name, a copy of this order is specifically issued.

(2) "Processing dairy products" means only the primary processing operations in connection with any of the following businesses:

(i) Pasteurizing milk,

(ii) Receiving milk from other persons for cooling preparatory to reshipment for further processing,

(iii) Producing dairy products, for sale, by processing milk or cream in a plant not located on the farm where the milk was produced or by processing ice cream mix produced in the same plant or in another plant under the same ownership as the processing plant.

(3) "Processing eggs" means only the primary processing operations in connection with any of the following businesses, performed in plants approved by the Agricultural Marketing Administration (or, in Canada, by the Special Products Board of Canada) for purposes of directly or indirectly supplying eggs or egg products to or for that agency or for the armed services:

(i) Candling and grading shell eggs,

(ii) Breaking, packaging, and freezing liquid eggs,

(iii) Dehydrating eggs.

(4) "Primary processing" means the operations commencing with the bringing of milk, cream, eggs, or ice cream mix (in the case provided for in paragraph (a) (2) (iii)) to a processor's plant and ending with the placing of the processed milk, dairy products, eggs or egg products in any packaging in that plant. Any special packaging required by contracts with the armed services or the Agricultural Marketing Administration shall also be considered primary processing.

(5) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind used for maintenance, repair, operation or replacement in plants processing dairy products or eggs, but shall not include any office or transportation supplies, machinery or equipment.

(6) "Maintenance" means minimum upkeep necessary to enable the processor's existing plant, machinery and equipment to be used at its maximum rate of operation permissible under any applicable orders, but shall not include the acquisition of additional machines or equipment.

(7) "Repair" means restoration of a processor's plant, machinery or equipment to sound working condition within a reasonable time after physical depreciation, wear and tear, damage, destruction of parts or the like have impaired its fitness for service but not to an extent involving major reconstruction or the acquisition of capital assets or of motors of 1-horsepower or more.

(8) "Material required for operation" means operating supplies to be consumed in the course of a processor's operations but not to be physically incorporated in the finished products nor used as packaging (except packaging staples, strapping, or stitching wire), fuel, or office supplies.

(9) "Replacement" means substitution of machinery or equipment for worn or damaged existing machinery or equipment which cannot be repaired without major reconstruction; Provided, That such substitution is made within a reasonable time after such condition develops; And provided further, That the replacement is not of greater productive capacity than the replaced machinery or equipment except to the minimum possible extent when a replacement of equivalent capacity is obsolete, unobtainable, or not obtainable within a reasonable time in relation to the processor's operating needs.

(10) "Supplier" means any person with whom a contract or purchase order has been placed for delivery of material to a processor or to another supplier.

(b) Assignment of preference ratings. Preference ratings are hereby assigned, subject to the restrictions and conditions of paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof:

(1) AA–2X to deliveries, to a processor, of material directly required for emergency maintenance or repair to avert spoilage of milk, dairy products, or eggs (shell, liquid, dehydrated) because of an actual breakdown or suspension of a processor's operations.

(2) AA–5 to deliveries, to a processor, of material required for repair, maintenance or operation.

(3) AA–3 to deliveries, to a processor, of material required for replacement.

(c) Restrictions on application of ratings by processor. (1) The processor shall not apply any preference rating assigned by (b) (1) above to deliveries of material to replace other material withdrawn from his inventory or stores for maintenance, repair, or operation.

(2) The processor shall not apply any preference rating assigned by (b) (2) above if, in view of the current rate of consumption of his inventory or stores for repair and maintenance or operation, the delivery of the material to be rated would increase his inventory or stores above the minimum permitted or provided in paragraph (e) below.

(3) The processor shall not apply any preference rating hereunder unless the material to be delivered cannot be secured when required without such rating.

(4) The processor may apply the rating only to those quantities and kinds of materials necessary to enable him to maintain his processing schedules up to the end of the calendar year 1943.

(d) Application of preference rating. (1) A processor or any supplier, in order to apply or extend the preference ratings assigned hereunder shall comply with Priorities Regulation No. 3, as it may be amended from time to time.

(2) If preference rating AA–2X is applied for emergency maintenance or repair, the processor must, immediately upon placing his order for such material, telegraph to the War Production Board the following with respect to such order:

(i) The name and address of the supplier,

(ii) Brief statement of what necessitated application of rating for emergency maintenance and repair,

(iii) A specific description of the material included in the order, and

(iv) The invoice cost of each item of such material.

(3) If the material is required for replacement, the processor shall not apply preference rating AA–3, unless he shall have communicated with the War Production Board, describing the material needed and the nature of the proposed replacement, and shall have received from the Director General for Operations a specific authorization to apply such rating, notwithstanding the fact that, prior to November 12, 1942, he may have been authorized to apply a lower rating under this order. Such application for authorization may be made by a written statement on Form PD–414 or, in any emergency, by telegram giving substantially the information called for by said Form PD–414.

(e) Inventory provisions. A processor shall not accept deliveries (whether rated hereunder or not) of material for repair and maintenance or operation which will increase the inventory or stores available to the processor for such purposes to an amount greater than the minimum necessary for repair and maintenance and to sustain the current level of operations of the processor, and the ratio of such inventory and stores to current operations shall in no event exceed the ratio of average inventory to average operation for the years 1938, 1939, and 1940.

(f) Records. In addition to the records required to be kept under Priorities Regulation 1, a processor placing any purchase order or contract rated hereunder shall retain, for a period of two years, for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, endorsed copies of all such purchase orders or contracts, whether accepted or rejected, segregated from all other purchase orders or contracts or filed in such a manner that they can be readily segregated for such inspection.

(g) Reports. Each processor who applies a preference rating hereunder shall file such reports as may be required from time to time by the War Production Board; and until further notice, any processor who applies a preference rating hereunder for "emergency maintenance or repair" under paragraph (b) (1) or for "repair, maintenance or operation" under paragraph (b) (2), shall file with the War Production Board within 10 days after the end of each quarter Form PD–413. The first such report shall be filed for the full quarter ending December 31, 1942.

(h) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Food Branch, Washington, D. C.—Ref.: P–118.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended at any time as to any processor or any supplier. In the event of revocation, deliveries already rated pursuant to this order shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless the rating has been specifically revoked with respect thereto. No additional applications of the rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by the processor or supplier affected by such revocation.

(k) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

Issued this 27th day of November 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

Interpretation 1

Order P–118, as amended, assigns high preference ratings to milk and cream "processors" to enable them to obtain deliveries of repair, maintenance, operating and replacement materials in sufficient time to avoid spoilage of milk or cream.

The order defines a "processor" as a person engaged in certain dairy businesses, to the extent that he is so engaged. Question has arisen as to what phases of such a processor's business may be supplied under the order. The order is interpreted as applying to only the primary processing operations and not to secondary processing or distribution operations. The line of demarcation between primary processing and secondary processing is at the point at which milk, cream, or dairy products have been made ready for delivery from the processor's original processing plant. Ratings under the order may be applied to materials related to any operations up to that point, subject to the restrictions in the order. Ratings under the order may not be applied to materials related to the operations beyond that point, such as delivery from the original plant, reprocessing or repackaging ice cream mix, cheese, butter or other dairy products in a plant other than the original plant, distribution of the finished product, or refrigeration maintained in customers' establishments.

Question has also arisen as to whether the ratings under the order may be applied to obtain automotive replacement parts. The War Production Board program for automotive replacement parts, as provided for in Limitation Order No. L–158 (Part 1297), is devised to develop a sufficient supply of such parts to meet reasonable needs without the use of preference ratings for their acquisition. Order P–118, in paragraph (d) (1) (iii) as amended, prohibits the use of its ratings to obtain material which can be secured without the use of those ratings. Therefore, such ratings may not be used to obtain automotive replacement parts. (Issued August 17, 1942.)

Part 1213—Safety Equipment

[Limitation Order L–114 as Amended Nov. 27, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created shortages in the supplies for the war effort, for private account and for export, of materials entering into the production of safety equipment; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the war effort:

§ 1213.1 General Limitation Order L–114—(a) Definition. "Safety equipment" means all equipment devices, guards, shields, containers, harnesses, headgear, belts, shoes, protective clothing, protective coverings, masks, respirators, inhalators, resuscitating apparatus, measuring instruments, indicating instruments, protective creams, treads, warning signs, and all other articles, which are manufactured or used to promote safety, or to prevent or reduce accidents, injuries, occupational hazards or diseases.

(b) Restrictions on use of scarce materials. Except as provided in paragraph (c) below, or upon specific authorization of the Director General for Operations, no person shall incorporate in the manufacture of safety equipment, or in any component part thereof, or sell, deliver, rent, purchase, accept delivery of, or obtain any safety equipment or parts thereof, in which there is incorporated or used, any of the following materials: aluminum, asbestos cloth, chromium, copper, copper base alloys, nickel, corrosion resisting steel, alloy steel, tin, synthetic plastics, magnesium, rubber or synthetic rubber, or neoprene.

(c) General exceptions. Paragraph (b) shall not apply to safety equipment assembled or manufactured:

(1) Prior to May 5, 1942, or from parts which were finished and ready for assembly on said date, provided such safety equipment is delivered to fill purchase orders bearing preference ratings of A–10 or higher, or

(2) From materials to the extent permitted in Appendix A hereof, or

(3) For delivery to, or for the account of, the Army or Navy of the United States, the Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics or the government of any country entitled to deliveries under the Act of Congress of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), provided, and to the extent that the materials designated in paragraph (b) are necessary for efficient functioning and required endurance of safety equipment intended for use:

(i) In or on completed vehicles, aircraft, or ships, or

(ii) Outside of continental United States, or in Alaska, or

(iii) In the protection of military or naval personnel while not engaged in production, maintenance, or repair.

(4) Any order or contract from any agency or government mentioned in paragraph (c) (3) requiring the incorporation or use of scarce materials designated in paragraph (b) shall constitute a representation that the conditions exist under which such scarce materials may be incorporated or used within the terms of this order. Said representation may be relied on by the person with whom the purchase order or contract is placed, his sub-contractors, and suppliers.

(d) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944) as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(e) Records. All persons to whom this order applies shall keep and preserve for not less than two years, accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(f) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(g) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(h) Violations. Violation of this order is a criminal offense. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of materials subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(i) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, may appeal to the War Production Board setting forth pertinent facts and the reasons such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(j) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, or communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Safety and Technical Equipment Branch, Industrial Safety Equipment Section, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–114.

(k) Effect of other orders. With respect to the use of the materials named herein for incorporation in the products named herein, or in component parts thereof, this order shall be subject to all other orders to conserve specific raw materials (M orders), and all orders providing for a preference rating in deliveries, or for allocation, as are now or may hereafter be in effect.

(a) Eyelets, rivets, and fasteners worn on the person and required to be non-corrosive or non-sparking.

(b) Frames, side screen binders and temples for spectacle type goggles.

(c) Lens extension rings for hot workers' goggles.

(d) Valves, unions, ferrules, tubing, connections, housings, non-sparking fittings, fastenings, gaskets, pins, probe tubes, orifices, regulators and bearings, for respirators, gas masks or hazard measuring devices through which explosive, toxic, or corrosive gases, dusts or fumes may pass.

(e) Valves, tubing, manifolds, chambers, gaskets, discs, breaker valves, unions, connections, mouthpieces, orifices and facepiece parts on safety equipment through which oxygen or air under pressure is conducted.

(f) Conductors of electricity for safety devices and appliances.

(g) Lens retaining rings and fittings on gas mask facepieces.

(h) Exhalation and inhalation valve inserts and angle tubes for gas masks, air line respirator and breathing apparatus, face and mouth pieces.

(i) Screen in safety canisters to be used as flame arrestors.

(j) Tubing and valves in safety canisters.

(k) Tubing and fittings in hazard measuring devices.

(l) Screen for mask type goggles or hoods but not including side screens on spectacle type or molded goggles.

(m) Bridge clips for molded goggles.

(n) Cylinders, valves, tubing and regulators for compressed air, mechanical guarding devices.

(3) Nickel in:

(a) Nickel silver for pad inserts for nose pads on spectacle type goggles, but not to exceed 20% in such alloy.

(b) Nickel silver for the following, but not to exceed 10% nickel in such alloy:

(i) Valve inserts for respirators.

(ii) Reducing, admission, dilution, check and safety valve pins, stems, plungers, inserts, screws, spiders, sleeves, yokes and bearings on gas masks, breathing apparatus, or hazard measuring devices.

(c) Leaded nickel silver for goggle frame screws and rivets, but not to exceed 18% nickel in such alloy.

(d) Nickel plating for spectacle type goggles until, but not after, May 31, 1943.

(e) Nickel silver for end pieces and guard arms on spectacle type goggles, but not to exceed 10% nickel in such alloy.

(4) Alloy steel in oxygen cylinders for breathing apparatus and inhalators, for which NE 8124 or 8233 steel may be applied.

(5) Tin in solder up to 30% by weight.

(6) Synthetic plastics in:

(a) Protective hats and caps.

(b) Face shields.

(c) Goggle frames.

(d) Lenses and laminated glass.

(e) Respirator and gas mask parts.

(f) Mounting panels, rheostats, connections, plugs, and insulation in cases, for hazard measuring devices when necessary for efficient operation.

(7) Rubber as permitted under Supplementary Order M–15–b, as amended from time to time.

(8) Synthetic rubber on specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

INTERPRETATION 1

"Measuring instruments" and "indicating instruments", as used in paragraph (a) of Limitation Order No. L–114, refer to instruments manufactured or used to promote safety, or to prevent or reduce accidents, injuries, occupational hazards, or diseases. Typical measuring and indicating instruments of the kinds contemplated, are used to detect gases or dangerous substances, the unknown presence of which might lead to explosions or other hazards. "Measuring instruments" and "indicating instruments" which are "industrial instruments" as defined in Limitation Order No. L–134, are not "safety equipment". (Issued September 25, 1942.)

PART 3068—THEOBROMINE AND CAFFEINE

[Conservation Order M–222 as Amended Nov. 27, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supplies of theobromine and caffeine for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the war effort:

§ 3068.1 General Conservation Order M–222—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Theobromine" means 3:7-dimethylxanthine, whether synthetic or natural, in crude or refined form. The term shall include any compound of theobromine including, but not limited to, theobromine sodium-acetate and theobromine with sodium salicylate, but shall not include standard dosage forms (tablets, capsules, ampules, solutions, etc.).

(2) "Caffeine" means 1:3:7-trimethylxanthine, whether synthetic or natural, in crude or refined form. The term shall include any compound of caffeine including, but not limited to, caffeine citrated, caffeine with sodium benzoate and caffeine with sodium salicylate, but shall not include standard dosage forms (tablets, capsules, ampules, solutions, etc.).

(3) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production or refining of theobromine or caffeine, as defined above, and includes any person who imports theobromine or caffeine or has theobromine or caffeine produced or refined for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(4) "Retailer" means any person who purchases theobromine or caffeine solely for the purpose of resale directly to the ultimate consumer for medicinal use

(5) "Wholesaler" means any person who purchases theobromine or caffeine solely for the purpose of resale directly to retailers without further processing and without changing the form thereof.

(6) "Distributor" means any person (other than a wholesaler or retailer) who purchases theobromine or caffeine from a producer solely for the purpose of resale without further processing and without changing the form thereof.

(b) Restrictions on use and delivery of theobromine and caffeine. (1) On and after October 1, 1942, no producer shall use any theobromine or caffeine other than stocks in his hands on said date, no producer or distributor shall deliver any theobromine or caffeine, and no person (other than a wholesaler or retailer) shall accept delivery of any theobromine or caffeine except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations upon application pursuant to paragraph (d) of this order or except as provided in paragraph (c) of this order.

(2) Each person who shall accept delivery of theobromine or caffeine pursuant to specific authorization of the Director General for Operations shall use such theobromine or caffeine in accordance with the representations made by him in his application for such authorization.

(3) The Director General for Operations in his discretion may at any time issue special directions to any person with respect to the use and delivery of theobromine or caffeine by such person.

(c) Exception. Specific authorization pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of this order shall not be required with respect to the delivery to any person or the acceptance of delivery or use by any person of two pounds or less of theobromine and two pounds or less of caffeine during any one calendar month. Such use or delivery may be made without regard to preference ratings.

(d) Applications and reports. (1) Each person seeking authorization, as required by paragraph (b) (1) of this order, to accept delivery of and use theobromine or caffeine during any calendar month shall place his purchase order with his supplier on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month for which authorization to accept delivery is requested, and shall file three copies of Form PD–600 with the War Production Board on or before such date. (Copies of this form may be obtained at the local field offices of the War Production Board.) He shall also send one copy of such form to his supplier with his purchase order. Any producer seeking authorization to use theobromine or caffeine during any calendar month shall file three copies of Form PD–600 with the War Production Board on or before such date. Each person, including a producer, filing Form PD–600 as required by this paragraph (d) (1) shall prepare such form in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following instructions:

(i) Heading. Specify either "theobromine" or "caffeine" in heading, using separate set of forms for each. Specify WPB Order No. "M–222". As unit of measure, specify "pounds". A separate set of forms must be filed for each supplier with whom a purchase order is placed.

(ii) Column 1, grade. Specify the quality; for example, crude; refined; caffeine USP; caffeine alkaloid anhydrous; caffeine citrated USP; caffeine with sodium benzoate USP; theobromine sodium-acetate USP; etc.

(iii) Columns 3, 20 and 22, primary products. Purchasers must specify the exact product or products to be produced in which the theobromine or caffeine will be used or incorporated. Distributors purchasing for resale will specify "resale".

(iv) Column 4, product use. Specify in each case (including case where your purchase is for "resale", as indicated in Columns 3, 20 and 22) the ultimate use to be made of product; for example, "medicinal" and "beverage". If there is more than one ultimate use of product, specify approximate percentage of total within each class of use.

(2) Each producer and each distributor seeking authorization, as required by paragraph (b)(1) of this order, to make deliveries of theobromine or caffeine shall file with the War Production Board on or before September 20, 1942, and on or before the 20th day of each month thereafter three copies of Form PD-601 (copies of this form may be obtained at the local offices of the War Production Board) prepared in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following specific instructions:

(i) Heading: Specify either "theobromine" or "caffeine" in heading, using separate set of forms for each. Specify WPB Order No. "M-222". As unit of measure, specify "pounds". A separate set of forms must be filed for each plant or warehouse. Check whether producer or distributor.

(ii) Columns 3 and 8, grade: Specify the quality, for example: crude; refined; caffeine USP; caffeine alkaloid anhydrous; caffeine citrated USP; caffeine with sodium benzoate USP; theobromine sodium-acetate USP; etc.

(3) The Director General for Operations may issue additional instructions from time to time concerning the preparation and filing of Forms PD-600 and PD-601.

(4) All persons affected by this order shall file such other reports as may be required from time to time by the War Production Board.

(e) Production of theobromine and caffeine. Each producer shall comply with such directions as may be given from time to time by the Director General for Operations with respect to the production of theobromine and caffeine.

(f) Restrictions on methylation of theobromine. (1) Unless otherwise authorized or directed by the Director General for Operations, no producer shall hereafter methylate theobromine to caffeine except (i) to fill purchase orders for caffeine which he has been specifically authorized to fill pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of this order, and/or (ii) to maintain a practicable minimum working inventory of caffeine.

(2) No producer shall, during any calendar month, methylate any theobromine to caffeine unless and until provision has been made by such producer to make all deliveries of theobromine which have been directed by the Director General for Operations to be made by him during such month.

(g) Notification of customers. Producers and distributors shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of their regular customers of the requirements of this order, but failure to give such notice shall not excuse any such person from the obligation of complying with the terms of this order.

(h) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(i) Intra-company deliveries. The prohibitions and restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries of theobromine or caffeine shall apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) Communications to War Production Board. All reports and applications required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: M-222.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[RPS 63,[1] Amendment 6]

RETAIL PRICES FOR NEW RUBBER TIRES AND TUBES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1315.104 is amended; the text of § 1315.108 is designated paragraph (a), the existing paragraphs (a) to (g) are redesignated subparagraphs (1) to (7) respectively, a new subparagraph (8) is added to such redesignated paragraph (a), and a new paragraph (b) is added;

Paragraphs (b) and (e) (1) in § 1315.110 are amended by inserting in each table a new line in the appropriate place for the manufacturers' names to appear in alphabetical order; paragraph (d) in § 1315.110 is amended by inserting in the table three new lines in the appropriate places for the manufacturers' names to appear in alphabetical order; paragraphs (k) and (m) (2) in § 1315.110 are amended;

Paragraph (b) in § 1315.111 is amended by deleting from the table the 24th and 31st lines, in which Fordham Tire Co. and Indiana Farm Bureau Cooperative Association, Inc. are listed as the distributors, by amending the 10th, 53rd, and 55th lines in the table, in which Broadway Tire Corporation, Western Auto Supply Co. and World Tire Corporation are listed as the distributors, and by inserting eleven new lines in the table in the appropriate places for the distributors' names to appear in alphabetical order;

Paragraph (d) in § 1315.111 is amended by amending the 36th and 38th lines in the table, in which Western Auto Supply Co. and World Tire Corporation are listed as the distributors, and by inserting fourteen new lines in the table in the appropriate places for the distributors' names to appear in alphabetical order;

Paragraph (e) (1) in § 1315.111 is amended by deleting from the table the 3rd and 5th lines, in which Fordham Tire Co. and Indiana Farm Bureau Cooperative Association, Inc. are listed as the distributors, and by inserting eleven new lines in the table in the appropriate places for the distributors' names to appear in alphabetical order; paragraph (e) (2) in § 1315.111 is amended by deleting from the table the 4th and 6th lines, in which Fordham Tire Co. and Indiana Farm Bureau Cooperative Association, Inc. are listed as the distributors, and by inserting five new lines in the table in the appropriate places for the distributors' names to appear in alphabetical order;

Paragraphs (k) and (m) in § 1315.111 are amended; and a new § 1315.112 is added, as set forth below:

§ 1315.104 Posting of prices. (a) Every person engaged in the business of selling new rubber tires or tubes at retail, shall mark or post maximum prices for such tires or tubes in accordance with one of the following subparagraphs:

(1) Such seller shall keep posted in a conspicuous place in each retail establishment at which such tires or tubes are offered for sale, a price list setting forth the maximum retail prices applicable to such tires or tubes. Lists of maximum prices computed in compliance with the terms of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 and prepared by manufacturers of manufacturers' brands and by owners of private brands, may be used for this purpose. The list of maximum prices so posted must show separately all of the following items which are applicable to tires or tubes offered for sale by the seller:

(i) Maximum retail prices for tires or tubes other than Exhibit C passenger-car tires and tubes and passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires, as established by Revised Price Schedule No. 63 apart from any 16% increase provided in paragraph (n) of §§ 1315.110 and 1315.111.

(ii) The amounts, in dollars and cents, of the 16% added to the maximum retail prices of passenger-car tires or tubes, as provided in paragraph (n) of §§ 1315.110 and 1315.111.

(iii) Maximum retail prices for Exhibit C passenger-car tires or tubes, as established by paragraph (o) of §§ 1315.110 and 1315.111.

(iv) Maximum retail prices for passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires, as established by Appendix C (§ 1315.112). These maximum prices must be clearly identified as applying to tires which are marked with the words "War Tire".

(2) Or such seller shall mark or post the maximum prices of such tires or tubes in accordance with the provisions of § 1499.13 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[2]

(b) If, on November 25, 1941, the seller had special and separate charges in effect for the extension of credit, for the demounting or mounting of a tire or tube on a vehicle or rim, or for any other service, in connection with the sale of new rubber tires or tubes, and if he desires to continue such charges after January 5, 1942, such seller shall keep posted in a conspicuous place in each retail establishment at which such tires or tubes are offered for sale, a statement listing the prices in effect on November 25, 1941, for such extra service.

(c) A seller at retail shall not remove or cause to be removed from any new rubber tire or tube any tag or label that has been attached to such tire or tube pursuant to an order of the Office of Price Adminstration.

§ 1315.108 Definitions. (a) * * *

(8) "Passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tire" means any passenger-car tire, regardless of the brand or other name appearing thereon, which is manufactured primarily of reclaimed rubber under restrictions of the War Production Board applicable to such war tires, and which has the words "War Tire" marked on the sidewall.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provision of paragraphs (a) to (1) inclusive, the maximum retail prices for the following brands of tires and tubes owned by the following private brand distributors shall be as follows:

(1) Triplex Tire Company: Maximum prices for all brands of passenger-car and truck tires shall be the consumer price list of the company on file with the Office of Price Administration which was in effect on September 30, 1941.

(2) National Co-operatives, Inc.: Maximum prices for all brands of passenger-car and truck tires and tubes shall be those set forth on the list of maximum retail prices filed pursuant to this subparagraph with the Division of the Federal Register.[3] Such list of maximum retail prices is available at any district, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1315.112 Appendix C: Maximum retail prices for new passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires. The following prices are the maximum prices that may be charged at retail for new rubber tires or tubes at the seller's place of business. The maximum prices set forth herein may not be exceeded for any such sale, even though in a particular case no used tire or tube is traded in. If a used tire or tube is traded in, the trade-in allowance shall be deducted from the maximum price. The actual dollar amount of the Federal Excise Tax paid on any tire or tube may in each case be added to the maximum price established by Revised Price Schedule No. 63.

(a) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of Appendixes A and B (§§ 1315.110 and 1315.111), the maximum retail prices for new passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires shall be:

PASSENGER-CAR RECLAIMED RUBBER WAR TIRES

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[MPR 143,[1] Amendment 2]

WHOLESALE PRICES FOR NEW RUBBER TIRES AND TUBES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The paragraph heading and the introductory text before the subparagraphs in paragraph (b) in § 1315.1501 is amended; paragraphs (d) and (e) in § 1315.1501 are redesignated (f) and (g) respectively; two new paragraphs (d) and (e) are added to § 1315.1501; and subparagraph (3) in the redesignated paragraph (g) in § 1315.1501 is amended;

Paragraph (b) in § 1315.1505 is amended, and four new paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) are added;

A new subparagraph (9) is added to paragraph (a) in § 1315.1510, and a new paragraph (b) is added to § 1315.1510; as set forth below:

§ 1315.1501 Maximum wholesale prices for new rubber tires and tubes. * * *

(b) Passenger-car tires and tubes other than Exhibit C tires and tubes and reclaimed rubber war tires. The maximum wholesale price for any new rubber passenger-car tires or tubes, except Exhibit C passenger-car tires and tubes and passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires, shall be the first applicable price among the prices set forth in the following subparagraphs (1) to (4), inclusive:

* * * * *

(d) Passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires. The maximum wholesale price for any new passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires shall be a price determined according to whichever of the following subparagraphs (1) to (3) is applicable:

(1) Sales on the basis of consumer price lists. (i) For any seller who quoted wholesale prices during March, 1942, by applying discounts to a consumer price list, the maximum wholesale price for any new passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires shall be determined by deducting from the maximum retail price of such reclaimed rubber war tires, as established by Revised Price Schedule No. 63, a percentage discount equal to the smallest discount from maximum retail prices at which the seller delivered, or if he did not deliver, at which he offered for delivery, during March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class, the brand of passenger-car tires listed in paragraph (b) of §§ 1315.110 or 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 for the manufacturer or private brand distributor whose company name or brand name appears on such reclaimed rubber war tires.

(ii) If such seller did not deliver or offer for delivery during March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class, any tires of the brand listed in paragraph (b) of §§ 1315.110 or 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 for the manufacturer or private brand distributor whose company name or brand name appears on the reclaimed rubber war tires, the maximum wholesale price for such reclaimed rubber war tires shall be determined by calculating the maximum wholesale price for the most comparable purchaser in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (i), and adjusting the price so calculated in accordance with the price differentials prevailing in the industry between such purchasers on March 1, 1942.

(2) Sales on the basis of net wholesale price lists. (i) For any seller who quoted wholesale prices during March, 1942, on the basis of a net wholesale price list, the maximum wholesale price for any new passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires shall be determined by taking the highest net price at which the seller delivered, or if he did not deliver, at which he offered for delivery, during March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class, the 6.00—16 size of the brand of passenger-car tires listed in paragraph (b) of §§ 1315.110 or 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 for the manufacturer or private brand distributor whose company name or brand name appears on such reclaimed rubber war tires, expressing that price as a percentage of the maximum retail price for the 6.00—16 size of the same brand, as established by Revised Price Schedule No. 63 apart from the 16% increase provided in paragraph (n) of §§ 1315.110 and 1315.111, and applying that percentage to the maximum retail prices for the reclaimed rubber war tires, as established by Revised Price Schedule No. 63.

(ii) If such seller did not deliver or offer for delivery during March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class, any 6.00—16 size tires of the brand listed in paragraph (b) of §§ 1315.110 or 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 for the manufacturer or private brand distributor whose company name or brand name appears on the reclaimed rubber war tires, the maximum wholesale price for such reclaimed rubber war tires shall be determined by calculating the maximum wholesale price for the most comparable purchaser in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (i), and adjusting the price so calculated in accordance with the price differentials prevailing in the industry between such purchasers on March 1, 1942.

(3) Manufacturers' sales to private brand distributors. Notwithstanding any provision of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, the maximum wholesale price for any sale or delivery by a manufacturer to a private brand distributor of new passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires bearing the distributor's company name or brand name shall be the price determined upon the manufacturer's first sale or delivery of such tires to the private brand distributor, by applying to the factory cost of the particular size of reclaimed rubber war tire, determined according to subdivision (i), the percentage mark-up applicable to the purchaser, determined according to subdivision (ii). The maximum wholesale price so established shall be the maximum wholesale price for all future deliveries of such reclaimed rubber war tires by the manufacturer to the same private brand distributor.

(i) Computation of factory cost. The factory cost of a reclaimed rubber war tire shall be the sum total of direct labor costs, direct materials costs including waste, and factory overhead. The direct labor costs shall be determined by multiplying the number of hours of each type of labor required in the manufacture of the tire by the wage rates determined in accordance with inferior subdivision (a) of this subdivision (i). The direct materials costs shall be determined by multiplying the quantity of each type of material required in the manufacture of the tire by the materials prices determined in accordance with inferior subdivision (b) of this subdivision (i). If any materials are supplied or paid for directly by the private brand distributor, the cost of such materials shall not be included in calculating the factory cost of the reclaimed rubber war tire. Waste shall be determined by applying the same methods as were used or would have been used by the manufacturer in similar production during March, 1942, adjusted to reflect the actual quantity of waste in the production of the reclaimed rubber war tire. The factory overhead shall include the following items: expense materials, supplies and miscellaneous expense; indirect labor and salaries; repairs and maintenance; depreciation; insurance; taxes, excluding income and excess profits taxes; power; royalties; mold depreciation if the manufacturer owns the mold; factory warehousing and shipping expenses (at location in the same town or city as the factory is located). The factory overhead shall be determined by using the bases and predetermined rates which the manufacturer had in effect on November 1, 1941, in determining the factory overhead on the brand of passenger-car tire listed in paragraph (b) of § 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 for the private brand distributor whose company name or brand name appears on the reclaimed rubber war tire. If the manufacturer did not manufacture during November, 1941, any tires of the brand so listed for that distributor, the factory overhead shall be determined by using the rates and bases actually used by the manufacturer during November, 1941, in determining the factory overhead on the brand of tires most comparable thereto.

(a) Wage rates. The wage rates applicable to any tire shall be the highest wage rates, in effect in the manufacturer's plant for any substantial portion of March, 1942, for each class of labor involved in the production of the tire. If the manufacturer did not employ a given class of labor in March, 1942, he shall use the highest wage rate paid for any substantial portion of March, 1942, by the nearest employer operating under comparable conditions who employed that class of labor during that month.

(b) Materials prices. The price of any materials used in the tire being priced shall be the highest price charged during March, 1942, (as defined in subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph (3)) by the manufacturer's supplier; except that if the Office of Price Administration has established a lower maximum price for the sale of that material to the manufacturer by his supplier, such lower price shall govern. If the material was not delivered or offered for delivery by the manufacturer's supplier during March, 1942, the material price shall be the first price at which the manufacturer's supplier offered to sell the material to a purchaser of the same class as the manufacturer after March 31, 1942, or the maximum price for the material established by the Office of Price Administration, whichever is the lower. The manufacturer's supplier shall be (1) his March, 1942, supplier of the material, or (2) lacking a March, 1942, supplier of the material, his most recent supplier of the material. If neither of these exists; it shall be his potential supplier. For the purposes of this inferior subdivision (b) if the manufacturer shall receive a written affirmation from the seller that the material is being sold at a price which is not in excess of the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration, and if the manufacturer shall have no cause to doubt the accuracy of the affirmation, and if, as of the time of his determination of the price of a tire, the maximum price of which is established by this paragraph, the manufacturer shall have no reason to believe that the selling price of the material is in excess of the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration, the price as affirmed by the seller shall be deemed to be the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration for that material.

(ii) Percentage mark-up. The percentage mark-up to be applied to the factory cost of any size of reclaimed rubber war tire in determining its maximum price to any particular private brand distributor shall be the difference between the manufacturer's actual factory cost in November, 1941, for the 6.00–16 size tire of the brand listed for that distributor in paragraph (b) of § 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63, and the highest net price at which such tire was delivered, or if it was not delivered, at which it was offered for delivery, by the manufacturer during November, 1941, to that private brand distributor, expressed as a percentage of such November, 1941, factory cost. In determining the actual November, 1941, factory cost on the 6.00–16 size tire of the brand specified above, the manufacturer shall consider the same elements of cost as those specified by subdivision (i) of this suparagraph (3) for determining the factory cost of a reclaimed rubber war tire. If the manufacturer did not deliver or offer for delivery to a particular private brand distributor during November, 1941, any 6.00–16 size tires of the brand listed for that distributor in paragraph (b) of § 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63, the percentage mark-up to be applied in determining the maximum price to that distributor shall be a mark-up approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration upon application by the manufacturer as provided in subdivision (v) of this subparagraph (3).

(iii) Definitions. When used in subdivision (i) (b) of this subparagraph (3), the phrase "highest price charged during March, 1942", means:

(a) The highest price at which the seller delivered, or if he did not deliver, at which he offered the commodity for delivery, during March, 1942, to the same manufacturer in a quantity normal for that manufacturer.

(b) If the seller made no such delivery or offer for delivery during March, 1942, to the same manufacturer, the highest price at which the seller delivered, or if he did not deliver, at which he offered the commodity for delivery, during March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class as the manufacturer in a quantity normal for that purchaser.

(c) If the seller made no such delivery or offer for delivery during March, 1942, to the same manufacturer or to a purchaser of the same class, the highest price charged by the seller during March, 1942, to a purchaser of a different class, in a quantity normal for that purchaser, adjusted to reflect the seller's customary differential between the two classes of purchasers.

(iv) Report of maximum prices. Within five days after a private brand distributor first agrees to buy tires for which a maximum price must be determined under this subparagraph (3) or within five days after the completion of the production of the tires for the first sale or delivery of such tires to such a purchaser, whichever is later, the manufacturer shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the maximum price as computed by him for each size of tire. The report shall show in detail the computation of the factory cost of each size of reclaimed rubber war tire and shall include a detailed showing of how the percentage mark-up to be applied was determined. The showing of how the percentage mark-up was determined either shall give in detail a breakdown of the November, 1941, factory cost of the 6.00—16 size tire of the brand listed for the same distributor in paragraph (b) of § 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 and set forth the highest net price at which such tire was delivered, or if it was not delivered, at which it was offered for delivery by the manufacturer during November, 1941, to the same private brand distributor, or it shall state that application for approval of a percentage mark-up has been made pursuant to subdivision (v) of this subparagraph (3). The report under this subdivision (iv) shall be made on Form 243:1, copies of which are available at the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and shall include in detail all the information called for on that form. The manufacturer may not accept payment for any such tires until fifteen days have elapsed after the mailing of the report. Within this fifteen day period the price so reported shall be subject to adjustment by the Office of Price Administration. If the fifteen days elapse without the Office of Price Administration making any adjustment in the price reported, that price shall be the maximum wholesale price to that purchaser and shall apply to all future deliveries of such tires until adjusted by written order of the Office of Price Administration. If within this fifteen day period the Office of Price Administration has not disapproved in writing a mark-up requested in accordance with subdivision (v) of subparagraph (3), the manufacturer may consider that mark-up as approved. Subsequent to this fifteen day period, the price reported shall be subject to adjustment (not to apply retroactively) at any time upon the written order of the Office of Price Administration.

(v) Application for approval of a percentage mark-up. If the manufacturer did not deliver or offer for delivery to a particular private brand distributor during November, 1941, any 6.00–16 size tires of the brand listed for that distributor in paragraph (b) of § 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63, the manufacturer must apply to the Office of Price Administration for approval of a percentage mark-up to be used in determining the maximum price to such distributor under this subparagraph (3). Such application for approval must set forth the mark-up requested along with a showing that it is in line with other mark-ups determined according to subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph (3) and a detailed explanation of the basis for determining such mark-up. The application must be made at the same time as or prior to the report of maximum prices under subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph (3). The Office of Price Administration will approve or disapprove in writing the percentage mark-up for which approval is requested.

(4) Retail price labels. On and after December 1, 1942, before the delivery of any passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tire to any purchaser, every manufacturer and private brand distributor must, for those tires which bear its own company name or brand name, attach or cause to be attached securely to each such tire or to the wrapping on the tire, so that it is clearly visible, either a tag or a label displaying the following statement, with the maximum retail price of the tire at least one inch in height: "This reclaimed rubber war tire is a Grade III tire. OPA retail ceiling price $------ plus Federal Excise Tax. This notice may not be removed until delivered to the consumer."

(e) Other tires and tubes. The maximum wholesale price for any new rubber tires or tubes which cannot be priced under paragraphs (a) to (d), inclusive, of this section shall be a price determined by the seller after specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration. A seller who seeks an authorization to determine a maximum price under the provisions of this paragraph shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., an application setting forth (1) a description in detail of the tires or tubes for which a maximum price is sought, including the brand name, type, sizes and plies; (2) a statement of the facts which make it impossible for him to determine a maximum price under paragraphs (a) to (d), inclusive; (3) his proposed pricing method; and (4) a statement of the reasons why he believes that the use of this method will result in a maximum price which is in line with the level of maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 143. Such authorization will be given in the form of an order prescribing a method of determining the maximum price.

(f) Sales for export. * * *

(g) Taxes. * * *

(3) The dollar amount of the Federal Excise Tax levied in respect to tires and tubes may be added to the maximum prices established by paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section.

§ 1315.1505 Records and reports. * * *

(b) Any manufacturer or private brand distributor who proposes to sell for the first time any tires or tubes, except passenger-car tires or tubes, of a brand, size, or type which was not on the price list from which that brand owner quoted prices on November 25, 1941, shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., at least five days before he offers any such tires or tubes for sale, the maximum wholesale prices for such tires or tubes as determined by the seller under subparagraph (3) or (4) of paragraph (a) of § 1315.1501. The report shall set forth the brand name of the tires or tubes, indicating their type, the sizes and plies in which such brand is to be manufactured, and the maximum wholesale prices for each class of purchasers. It shall also give in detail the basis used for determining the maximum wholesale prices, including the brand name, type, maximum wholesale prices, and maximum retail prices of the comparable tires or tubes which are used as the basis for the determination under subparagraph (3) or (4) of paragraph (a) of § 1315.1501, and including a detailed explanation of the differences in type, quality, size, and cost between the tires or tubes for which maximum prices are being established and such comparable tires or tubes and any other reasons supporting the adjustments made. The seller may not accept payment for the tires or tubes until fifteen days have elapsed after the mailing of the report. Within this fifteen day period the price so reported shall be subject to adjustment by the Office of Price Administration. Subsequent to this fifteen day period, such price shall be subject to adjustment (not to apply retroactively) at any time upon the written order of the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Every manufacturer who produces passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., stating the unit costs as of January 1, 1943, and as of the first day of every calendar quarter thereafter, for each size of passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tire it produces. The unit costs shall be reported on Form 243:2 and shall show labor costs and materials costs on the basis of wage rates and materials prices prevailing during March 1942, and factory overhead and other elements of unit cost computed by using the same rates and bases as were actually used during November 1941 for computing unit costs on the brand of passenger-car tire listed for the same manufacturer in paragraph (b) of § 1315.110 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63, giving in detail all the unit cost information called for on Form 243:2. Copies of Form 243:2 are available at the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. The reports shall be filed not later than thirty days after the date as of which they must state the unit costs.

(d) On or before January 1, 1943, every manufacturer and private brand distributor shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a report covering every one of its brands, sizes, and types of tires or tubes, except reclaimed rubber war tires, which was not on the price list from which that brand owner quoted prices on November 25, 1941, but which has been sold on the market for the first time between that date and November 25, 1942. Such report shall list each brand name, indicating the type of tire or tube, show the sizes and plies in which each of those brands is manufactured, set forth the maximum wholesale prices established for such tires or tubes for each class of purchasers, and give in detail the basis which was used for determining the maximum wholesale prices, indicating the exact provision of this regulation which was applied.

(e) On or before January 1, 1943, every manufacturer and private brand distributor shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a detailed report of its complete discount structure or net selling prices which are applicable to passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of § 1315.1501 (d). Such report shall indicate the highest prices charged for the brand of passenger-car tire listed for such manufacturer or distributor in paragraph (b) of §§ 1315.110 or 1315.111 of Revised Price Schedule No. 63, to each class of purchasers during March, 1942, by showing either the maximum retail price list from which discounts were allowed and the smallest discount allowed to each class of purchasers or the highest net price charged to each class of purchasers for the 6.00–16 size. The report shall also set forth a complete list of all the classes of purchasers to whom such seller delivered or offered such tires during March, 1942, indicating in detail all the bases, such as volume of purchases or function in the trade, used by the seller in distinguishing between classes of purchasers.

(f) Such persons shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records and reports required in paragraphs (a) to (d) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require or permit.

§ 1315.1510 Definitions. (a) * * *

(9) "Passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tire" means any passenger-car tire, regardless of the brand or other name appearing thereon, which is manufactured primarily of reclaimed rubber under restrictions of the War Production Board applicable to such war tires, and which has the words "War Tire" marked on the sidewall.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1315.1512 Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(b) Amendment No. 2 (§§ 1315.1501 (b), (d), (e), (f), (g); 1315.1505 (b), (c), (d), (e), (f); 1315.1510 (a)(9), (b)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 143 shall become effective November 25, 1942.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 120 Under § 1499.18 (b) of GMPR]

MERCHANTS CHEMICAL COMPANY

Order No. 120 Under § 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation—Docket No. GF1-86-P.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1021 Adjustment of maximum price for charcoal sold by Merchants Chemical Company. (a) Merchants Chemical Company of Minneapolis, Minnesota, may sell and deliver and any person may buy and receive charcoal from that concern at a price no higher than that set forth below:

> $28.50 per ton, f. o. b. plant in carload quantities.

(b) All discounts, allowances and trade practices in effect with respect to the commodity named above during March, 1942 by the seller shall remain in effect under this order.

(c) At the first delivery to any purchaser of charcoal at a price authorized by this order, Merchants Chemical Company shall deliver the following notice to the purchaser:

> The Office of Price Administration has permitted us to raise our maximum price to you for carload quantities of charcoal from $28.00 per ton, freight allowed to Council Bluffs, Iowa, to $28.50 f. o. b. plant, with all discounts, allowances and trade practices in effect with respect to the price of $28.00 charged during March, 1942. You or no other seller is permitted to raise his maximum price for the sale of charcoal purchased from us. If, however, you feel that you are suffering substantial hardship and that your maximum prices are abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for your most competitive sellers of such products, you may apply to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., under the provisions of section 18 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation prior to November 30, 1942.

The last sentence of the above notice shall be omitted on deliveries subsequent to November 30, 1942.

(d) All prayers of the applicant not granted herein are denied.

(e) This Order No. 120 may be revoked at any time.

(f) This Order No. 120 (§ 1499.1021) is hereby incorporated as a section of Supplementary Regulation No. 14, which contains modifications of maximum prices established by § 1499.2.

(g) This Order No. 120 (§ 1499.1021) shall become effective November 25, 1942.

Part 1305—Administration

[Supplementary Order 31]

TAX ON TRANSPORTATION OF PROPERTY IMPOSED BY REVENUE ACT OF 1942

A statement of the reasons for this Supplementary Order No. 31 has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

For the reasons set forth in that statement and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1305.36 Treatment of the tax on transportation of property imposed by the Revenue Act of 1942. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on the transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price.

(b) This Supplementary Order No. 31 shall not apply to the following price regulations:

(1) Revised Price Schedule No. 4—Iron and Steel Scrap.[1]

(2) Maximum Price Regulation No. 112—Pennsylvania Anthracite.[2]

(3) Maximum Price Regulation No. 120—Bituminous Coal Delivered from Mine or Preparation Plant.[3]

(4) Maximum Price Regulation No. 121—Miscellaneous Solid Fuels Delivered from Producing Facilities.[4]

(5) Maximum Price Regulation No. 122—Solid Fuels Delivered from Facilities other than Producing Facilities—Dealers.[5]

(6) Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 130—Standard Newsprint Paper.[6]

(7) Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148—Dressed Hogs and Wholesale Pork Cuts.[7]

(8) Maximum Price Regulation No. 189—Bituminous Coal Sold for Direct Use as Bunker Fuel.[8]

(9) Maximum Price Regulation No. 236—Heating Boiler Conversion Parts.[9]

(10) Any price regulation issued after the effective date of this Supplementary Order No. 31 which specifically provides that this Supplementary Order No. 31 shall not apply.

(c) As used in this Supplementary Order No. 31:

(1) "Revenue Act of 1942" means Public Law 753—77th Congress, approved October 21, 1942.

(2) "Price regulation" means a price schedule effective in accordance with the provisions of section 206 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, a maximum price regulation or temporary maximum price regulation heretofore or hereafter issued, or any amendment or supplement thereto or order thereunder heretofore or hereafter issued.

(d) This Supplementary Order No. 31 (§ 1305.36) shall become effective December 1, 1942.

Part 1346—Building Materials

[Revised MPR 236]

HEATING BOILER CONVERSION PARTS

The preamble and §§ 1346.151 to 1346.167, inclusive, of Maximum Price Regulation No. 236[1] are renumbered and amended as set forth below.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necesary and proper, in order to effectuate the purpose of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, to replace the General Maximum Price Regulation and Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 with a separate regulation establishing maximum prices for the sale of conversion parts used in converting heating boilers from oil to hand fired solid fuels and for installation services relating thereto.

So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has consulted with representatives of the trade and industry which will be affected by this regulation. In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this Regulation are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 236 has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 236 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1346.151 to 1346.170, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

Sales of conversion parts for warm air furnaces, any sale of conversion parts for heating boilers, the total weight of which is 10 pounds or less, and sales of conversion parts for heating boilers in areas not subject to this Regulation, are covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, which incorporates many of the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Maximum prices for the installation of the conversion parts for heating boilers and warm air furnaces referred to in the previous paragraph are established in Maximum Price Regulation No. 251.

Maximum prices for sales of conversion parts for marine and industrial boilers, and installation services with respect to such parts, are subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 136.

Conversion parts, as defined in § 1346.169 (a) (8) of this Regulation, do not include manganese steel castings or manganese steel casting products as defined in, and controlled by, Maximum Price Regulation No. 235.

Maximum Price Regulation No. 244, which establishes maximum prices for gray iron castings, does not apply, but this regulation does apply to the sale of gray iron castings used for conversion parts.

(b) The maximum prices for special combination grates set forth in § 1346.159 shall be applicable to sales, deliveries, and installations made in the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1346.154 Prohibitions against sales and the installation of conversion parts at higher than maximum prices. On and after November 26, 1942, regardless of any contract, lease, or other obligation:

(a) No person shall sell or deliver any conversion parts and no person shall supply conversion parts installation service at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 236, Provided, That the provisions of this paragraph shall not be applicable to sales and deliveries of conversion parts or the supplying of installation services relating thereto to a purchaser, if prior to November 26, 1942:

(1) Such conversion parts have been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser, or

(2) If the seller has delivered the conversion parts to the site designated by the purchaser where the installation is to be made, or

(3) The service of installation has actually begun.

(b) No person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any conversion parts or installation services at a price higher than that permitted by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 236.

(c) No person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the acts prohibited in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

§ 1346.155 Maximum prices for the sale and delivery of conversion parts by manufacturers. (a) Maximum prices for the sale of conversion parts by manufacturers shall be as follows:

Class of purchaser:	Price, cents per pound of conversion parts
Wholesalers	11
Ultimate purchasers	20

(b) Transportation charges, services, cash and quantity discounts. (1) The maximum prices for sales by manufacturers shall include at least the same absorption of transportation costs, and other charges, at least the same rendition of services, and at least the same extension of quantity and cash discounts as were or would have been absorbed, rendered or extended by the seller on comparable sales to a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941.

(2) In the event the manufacturer makes a sale directly to a retailer or an ultimate purchaser, and, in accordance with his practice on October 1, 1941, he makes a charge for the cost of transporting the parts to the retailer or ultimate purchaser, he shall state the transportation costs incurred by him in making delivery as a separate item on the invoice rendered to the retailer or ultimate purchaser.

Class of purchaser:	Price, cents per pound of conversion parts
Ultimate purchasers	20

(b) Transportation charges. On sales by wholesalers, where the shipment originates at a wholesaler's warehouse, or where the shipment originates at a manufacturer's foundry or plant at the request of the purchaser, the maximum prices set forth above shall be f. o. b. the wholesaler's warehouse or the manufacturer's foundry or plant, respectively. In either case, where the wholesaler makes delivery to the purchaser, he may add to the maximum prices set forth above the transportation cost actually incurred by him in making delivery. He must, however, state the transportation cost incurred by him separately on the invoice rendered to the purchaser. In the event a wholesaler makes a sale where the shipment originates at a manufacturer's foundry or plant, although not at the request of the purchaser, the shipment shall be treated, for the purpose of determining the transportation costs which may be charged to the purchaser, as though it originated at the wholesaler's warehouse.

(c) Services, cash and quantity discounts. The maximum prices for sales by wholesalers shall include at least the same rendition of services, and at least the same extension of cash and quantity discounts as were or would have been rendered or extended by the seller on comparable sales to a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941.

Ultimate purchaser	20

(b) Transportation charges. Retailers may add to the maximum prices established above the actual transportation costs incurred in securing conversion parts directly from either the manufacturer or the wholesaler: Provided, That the retailer states the transportation costs separately on the invoice rendered to the ultimate purchaser. In the event a retailer purchases a quantity of conversion parts that will be resold to different ultimate purchasers, he shall prorate the transportation costs equally on a per pound basis.

(a) Take the number of hours utilized in making the installation (figuring the time on the basis of the practice customarily employed by the installer on October 1, 1941).

(b) Multiply the number of hours utilized by the highest hourly price charged by the installer during the month of March 1942 for the same or similar mechanical service employing the same class of mechanics or, in the event the installer had no such established hourly price for such service or similar service during March 1942, the maximum hourly price of the nearest competitor who pays the same wage rate and employs the same class of mechanics: Provided, That the hourly price charged may be adjusted to reflect actual increases in wage rates paid by the installer becoming effective between March 1, 1942, and October 3, 1942, by adding to such March hourly price charged only the actual hourly increase in the wage rate during such period.

Trade name of special combination grate	Type	Capacity	Installed price
"Konver-to-Kol."	Kit A	Up to 24″ fire pot	$34.95
	Kit B	25″ to 34″ fire pot	39.95
"Convert-O-Grates."	Kit A	Up to 24″ fire pot	34.95
	Kit B	29″ to 34″ fire pot	39.95
"Stoket"	A-14	Up to 20″ fire pot	32.95
	A-22	22″ to 26″ fire pot	39.95
	Type B	27″ to 40″ fire pot	37.95
	Type C	21″ to 27″ fire pot	34.95

(b) Uninstalled price. The maximum price for the sale of any special combination grate listed above shall be a price not higher than the installed price for such grate as established above less the cost to the seller of making the installation in the locality where the special combination grate is to be installed.

§ 1346.160 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in this regulation may be offered, charged, demanded, or paid.

§ 1346.161 Federal and State taxes. There may be added to the maximum price established by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 236 the amount of tax levied by any Federal excise tax statute or any State or municipal sales, gross receipts, gross proceeds, or compensating use tax statute or ordinance, under which the tax is measured by gross proceeds or units of sale, if, but only if, (a) such statute or ordinance requires the vendor to state the tax separately from the purchase price paid by the purchaser, consumer, or user, on the bill, sales check, or evidence of sale, at the time of the transaction; or (b) such statute or ordinance requires such tax to be separately paid by the purchaser, consumer or user with tokens or other media of State or municipal tax payment; or (c) such a statute or ordinance permits the vendor to state such tax separately, and such tax is in fact stated separately, by the vendor. The amount of tax permitted to be added by this paragraph shall in no event exceed that paid by the purchaser, consumer, or user.

(c) Every person engaged in the sale or supply of conversion parts installation services for which maximum prices are established in § 1346.158 shall preserve for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect complete and accurate records of each such sale or supply of installation services showing:

(1) The name and address of the purchaser of such service or installation;

(2) The date thereof;

(3) The actual number of hours employed for completion of the conversion;

(4) The rate charged the purchaser per hour;

(5) The type and number of unit converted.

(d) Every person engaged in the sale and supply of conversion parts installation service shall file, on or before December 21, 1942, with the War Price and Rationing Board of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over the area in which the seller is located the following:

(1) The hourly prices charged for conversion parts installation services during the month of March 1942;

(2) The hourly rate of wages paid to employees performing such service or a similar service in March 1942;

(3) If there has been any increase in the hourly wage rate between the period of March 1, 1942, and October 3, 1942, the amount thereof and the effective date of such increase;

(4) If the installer of conversion parts did not have such established hourly price for such service or a similar service during March 1942, the maximum hourly price of the nearest competitor who pays the same wage rate and employs the same class of mechanics.

(e) Every person engaged in the sale and supply of conversion parts installation service shall prepare on or before December 21, 1942, to the full extent of all available information and records and thereafter keep posted in a conspicuous manner at his place of business for examination by any person during ordinary business hours a statement showing the highest prices which he may charge for installation services pursuant to the terms of § 1346.158 of this regulation.

(f) Persons affected by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 236 shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.

§ 1346.165 Details required in contract of sale and invoice. (a) Every seller of conversion parts, other than special combination grates, shall with respect to every sale thereof deliver to the purchaser an invoice which shall contain the name and address of the purchaser and the seller; the date upon which the sale was made; an itemized list of the conversion parts sold; their total net weight; the price per net pound of such conversion parts; and the total price paid, with any charge made for transportation shown separately if required by §§ 1346.155, 1346.156, and 1346.157.

(b) Every person making sales of special combination grates for which maximum prices are established by this regulation shall with respect to every sale thereof deliver to the purchaser an invoice showing the name and address of the seller; the date upon which the sale was made; trade name, type, and capacity of the grate; the price received, and whether sold installed or uninstalled.

(c) Every person supplying conversion parts installation services for which maximum prices are established in § 1346.158 shall furnish with respect to each installation an invoice which shall contain the name and address of the purchaser and the seller; the date on which the installation was made; the total number of hours actually employed to complete the conversion; the rate per hour charged for such service; and the type and number of unit converted.

(d) Every person selling conversion parts, other than special combination grates, and supplying the services necessary for their installation shall furnish to the purchaser an invoice containing all of the information required in paragraphs (a) and (c) of this section. The invoice shall also bear the following statement signed by the seller and shall be true to the knowledge of the seller in all respects:

> The total conversion parts used do not exceed the actual requirements for the conversion of the heating boiler from oil firing to the use of solid fuels. The weight of the parts so used and listed on this invoice is accurate and the prices therefor conform with Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 236, issued by the Office of Price Administration to the best of my knowledge and belief.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 236, or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest state, district, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this section shall not be applicable to any war procurement agency or any contracting officer thereof, and any such contracting officer or any paying finance officer shall be relieved of any and every liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 236, or by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1346.169 Definitions. (a) When used in the Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 236, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Manufacturer" means a person operating a foundry or plant which produces conversion parts, but does not include a person purchasing conversion parts for purposes of resale.

(3) "Wholesaler" means a person who purchases conversion parts for purposes of resale primarily from a manufacturer or another wholesaler and sells primarily to persons who will resell to the ultimate purchaser.

(4) "Retailer" means a person who purchases conversion parts for purposes of resale to ultimate purchasers, whether or not he is an installer.

(5) "Ultimate purchaser" means a person who purchases conversion parts for use rather than resale.

(6) "Installation service" means a mechanical service necessary to convert an oil fired heating boiler and make it ready for use for hand fired solid fuels.

(7) "Installer" means a person who furnishes installation services.

(8) "Conversion parts" means the metal parts necessary to convert an oil fired heating boiler, other than an industrial or marine boiler, and make it ready for use for hand fired solid fuels, and shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following parts whether actually used for conversion, repair, or otherwise:

(i) Grate assemblies and parts.
(ii) Grate supports.
(iii) Shaker handles.
(iv) Ashpit doors and frames.
(v) Poker.
(vi) Ash hoe.
(vii) Clinker tongs.
} Domestic type—only when sold with grate assemblies.
(viii) Smokehood, with check control.
(ix) Special combination grates.

(9) "Special combination grates" means the combination units for which maximum prices are established in § 1346.159.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1346.170 Effective date. This Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 236 (§§ 1346.151 to 1346.170, inclusive) shall become effective November 26, 1942.

PART 1360—MOTOR VEHICLES AND MOTOR VEHICLE EQUIPMENT

[RPS 85,[1] Amendment 7]

NEW PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been prepared and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* A new § 1360.52a is added as set forth below:

§ 1360.52a Extension of time for performance of maintenance operations. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of § 1360.51 or § 1360.52, the time for the performance of any maintenance operation or operations set forth in § 1360.51 or §1360.52 may be extended to a date not later than December 31, 1942 when satisfactory evidence has been furnished the Office of Price Administration, in accordance with paragraph (b) below, showing that one or more of the following conditions exist:

(1) That there is, in the locality in which the new passenger automobile is to be stored, a shortage of indoor storage facilities; or

(2) That there is, in the locality in which the new passenger automobile is stored, a shortage in the supply of a commodity necessary in the performance of any of the specified maintenance operations; or

(3) That there is, in the locality in which the new passenger automobile is stored, a shortage of mechanics to perform the specified maintenance operations.

(b) If any person desires such an extension of time under the circumstances set forth in the preceding paragraph, a report shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing a detailed statement of the facts making such extension of time necessary and the requested date thereof, which shall in no event be later than December 31, 1942. If the Office of Price Administration approves the extension of time, or fails to disapprove it within ten days after receiving such report, the date of the extension sought shall be substituted for October 31, 1942 throughout § 1360.51 or § 1360.52, as the case may be.

§ 1360.60a Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(g) Amendment No. 7 (§ 1360.52a) shall become effective December 2, 1942.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 3,[2] Amendment 26]

SUGAR RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

New paragraphs, (d) and (e), are added to § 1407.87, and § 1407.241, Schedule A, Table VI, is amended as set forth below:

Institutional and industrial users

* * * * *

§ 1407.87 Provisional allowance. * * *

(d) Notwithstanding the terms of paragraph (c) of this section, a registering unit entitled to a provisional allowance for a calendar year for feeding bees may, at any time during such calendar year, make application for such provisional allowance or any part thereof.

(e) A registering unit may, during the year 1942, obtain an advance on future provisional allowances for feeding bees if: (1) it has obtained its full 1942 provisional allowance for such purpose; and (2) the unused part of such provisional allowance, in addition to the honey in each colony, will be insufficient to feed the bees in that colony until they begin to produce honey in 1943. The total amount of the advances which may be obtained by a registering unit pursuant to this paragraph shall not exceed 15 pounds for each colony. The amounts advanced shall be deducted from the registering unit's 1943 provisional allowance for feeding bees; provided, that if an amount in excess of 10 pounds per colony is advanced, such excess shall be deducted from the registering unit's 1944 provisional allowance for feeding bees. Application for an advance shall be made to the Board on OPA Form No. R-315. The application shall establish compliance with the requirements of this paragraph, state that if the application is granted with respect to any colony, the registering unit will not remove honey from that colony until the bees in that colony begin to produce honey in 1943, and include such other information as the Board may require.

NEW COMMERCIAL MOTOR VEHICLES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been prepared and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1499.73 (a) (19) subdivision (iii) is redesignated (iv) and new subdivision (iii) is added as set forth below:

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services, and transactions. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the commodities, services, and transactions listed below are modified as hereinafter provided:

* * * * *

(19) New commercial motor vehicles:

* * * * *

(iii) Extension of time for performance of maintenance operations. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subparagraph (19), the time for the performance of any maintenance operation or operations set forth in the preceding subdivision (ii) may be extended to a date not later than December 31, 1942 when satisfactory evidence has been furnished the Office of Price Administration, in accordance with inferior subdivision (b) below, showing that one or more of the following conditions exist:

(1) That there is, in the locality in which the new commercial motor vehicle is to be stored, a shortage of indoor storage facilities; or

(2) That there is, in the locality in which the new commercial motor vehicle is stored, a shortage in the supply of a commodity necessary in the performance of any of the specified maintenance operations; or

(3) That there is, in the locality in which the new commercial motor vehicle is stored, a shortage of mechanics to perform the specified maintenance operations.

(b) Reports. If any person desires such an extension of time under the circumstances set forth in the preceding inferior subdivision (a), a report shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing a detailed statement of the facts making such extension of time necessary and the requested date thereof, which shall in no event be later than December 31, 1942.

(c) Approval of extension. If the Office of Price Administration approves the requested extension of time, or fails to disapprove it within ten days after receiving such report, the date of the extension sought shall be substituted for October 31, 1942, throughout this subparagraph (19).

(b) Effective date. * * *

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment is issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1499.73 (a) (12) (ii) (b) is amended as set forth below:

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by section 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services and transactions. * * *

(a) * * *

(12) * * *

(ii) * * *

(b) The term "semifabricated article" refers to newly-mined domestic silver which has been melted, smelted or refined, and further processed, or combined with other materials, by alloying, machining, rolling, drawing, turning, blanking, slitting, cutting, spinning, remelting, recasting, or other similar process, or by being subjected to special refining processes, and which is in such state or condition that its value depends primarily upon the metallic silver content and not upon its form. The term includes, but is not restricted to, silver alloys, grain, shot, powder, wire, sheet, blanks, circles, solders, brazing alloys, sintered products, silver-clad metals, silver inlays, and bar silver in weights or degrees of fineness different from the weight and fineness of standard commercial bars; it excludes, but without limitation, standard commercial bar silver and any article, other than those specifically referred to herein, which is suitable for ultimate use without further processing or combination with other materials.

The term shall also include sheet, wire and tubing of rolled gold plate or gold-filled stock, consisting of fine or carat gold on a silver alloy base, notwithstanding the fact that the value thereof may not be primarily dependent upon the silver content.

(1) Small carriers defined. For the purpose of accounting for operating expenses small carriers operating steam roads shall be defined as follows:

(1) Class II having annual operating revenues of $100,000 to $1,000,000.
(2) Class III having annual operating revenues below $100,000.

(2) Condensed classification of operating expenses prescribed. Every small carrier as defined herein, operating a steam road subject to the provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act, and every trustee, executor, administrator, or assignee of any such carrier are hereby required to comply with the Condensed Classification of Operating Expenses for Class II and Class III Steam Roads, Second Revised Issue, 1943.

(3) Applicability of the provisions in the classification of operating expenses embraced in the Classification of Operating Revenues and Operating Expenses of Steam Roads, Issue of 1914, prescribed under order of May 19, 1914, as amended. All the provisions contained in the said order of May 19, 1914, as amended, and all rules prescribed by that order for the keeping and recording of operating expense accounts as expressed in the text of the primary accounts contained in said Issue of 1914 shall apply to small carriers, excepting only that small carriers are, by virtue of this order, authorized to reduce the number of primary accounts kept by them.

(4) Effective date. The Condensed Classification of Operating Expenses for Class II and Class III Steam Roads, Second Revised Issue, 1943, shall become effective on January 1, 1943.

(5) Service. A copy of this order and the Condensed Classification of Operating Expenses for Class II and Class III Steam Roads, Second Revised Issue, 1943, herein prescribed shall be served upon every such carrier subject to the act and upon every trustee, executor, administrator, or assignee of any such carrier and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C.

(6) Cancelation of previous order. This order cancels the order of April 7, 1936, in the matter of a Condensed Classification of Operating Expenses of Steam Roads, sometimes referred to as First Revised Issue, effective on January 1, 1936.

Subchapter C—Carriers by Water

PART 315—EXEMPTION OF CONTRACT CARRIERS

TOWAGE OF LOGS AND PILING IN RAFTS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 4, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of November, A. D. 1942.

It appearing that by its order entered on October 29, 1941, division 4 found that numerous carriers by water are engaged, among other things, in the towing of floating objects, including logs and piling in rafts which are not designed or used for the carrying of passengers and property; that because of the inherent nature of the commodities transported, or their requirement of special equipment, such transportation is not actually and substantially competitive with transportation by any common carrier subject to part I, II or III of the Interstate Commerce Act; and that carriers engaged in such transportation under individual agreements or contracts are contract carriers by water;

It further appearing that by said order the division ordered that the transportation of the said floating objects, including logs and piling in rafts be exempted from the requirements of part III of the act until further order of the Commission;

It further appearing that upon petition filed by certain water carriers engaged in the towing of logs and piling in rafts on the lower Columbia and Willamette rivers, and their tributaries, and for good cause shown, the division by its further order dated December 3, 1941, postponed the exemption of the transportation by contract carriers by water of floating objects consisting of logs and piling in rafts until the further order of the Commission.

And it further appearing that a hearing has been held and a full investigation of the matters and things involved has been made, and said division, on the date hereof, has made and filed a report containing its findings of fact and conclusions thereon, which report is hereby referred to and made a part hereof:

It is ordered, That § 315.2 (order of October 29, 1941, as amended December 3, 1941) is vacated and set aside insofar as it applies to the towage of logs and piling in rafts, and to read as follows:

§ 315.2 Towage of floating objects. Transportation by contract carriers of empty vessels to and from shipyards, floating objects such as derricks, dredges, tanks, caissons, pontoons, and other floating objects, other than logs and piling in rafts, of varying shapes, sizes, and drafts which are not designed or used for the carrying of passengers and property, is hereby exempted from the requirements of part III of the Interstate Commerce Act until the further order of the Commission. (Sec. 303 (e), 54 Stat. L. 932; 49 U.S.C. 903)

And it is further ordered, That this order shall take effect and be in force from and after February 9, 1943.

By the Commission, Division 4.

Secretary.

RIDGWAY COAL COMPANY

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR DISPOSITION OF COMPLIANCE PROCEEDINGS WITHOUT FORMAL HEARING

In the matter of John H. Ridgway, doing business under the name and style of Ridgway Coal Company, Code Member.

Notice is hereby given that an application, dated October 22, 1942, for formal hearing was filed with the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") on October 27, 1942, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division by the Ridgway Coal Company, the abovenamed Code Member (the "Code Member."

1. In said application the Code Member admits having committed violations of the Bituminous Coal Code and the effective minimum prices established thereunder, as alleged in the complaint, as follows:

(a) By failing to file with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 4, for each month from and including January 1941 to and including June 1942, a report of all sales made during each of said months of coal produced at his Buckeye Mine, Mine Index No. 1803, and Ridgway Mine, Mine Index No. 1804, both located in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, District No. 4, which coal was shipped from said mines by truck to various purchasers, and by failing to file with said Statistical Bureau for said period copies of truck tickets, sales slips, invoices and listings of said sales, as required by Division Orders Nos. 156, 307 and 309, dated January 18, 1937, December 11, 1940, and January 14, 1941, respectively.

2. In said application, the Code Member also states that to the best of its knowledge and belief it has not committed any other violation of the Act, the Code or regulations thereunder, either before or after the admitted violations referred to hereinabove.

3. In said application, Code Member consents, upon the basis of the abovementioned admitted violations, to the entry of an Order cancelling and revoking its Code membership, or of an Order directing it to cease and desist from further violations of the Act, the Code and the regulations thereunder, or to the entry of an Order revoking its Code membership and also to enjoining and restraining the Code Member from further violations of the Act, the Code and the regulations thereunder upon any restoration of his Code membership.

All interested parties desiring to do so may file with the Division within fifteen (15) days from the date of this notice recommendations or requests for informal conference in respect to such application.

TWIN ELM COAL COMPANY

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION FOR RESTORATION OF CODE MEMBERSHIP

A written complaint having been filed herein on March 17, 1941, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 12 as complainant, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"), alleging wilful violation by the Twin Elm Coal Company, Bussey, Iowa, code member in District No. 12, of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"), of the Bituminous Coal Code (the "Code"), and rules and regulations thereunder; and

An Order having been issued herein on August 27, 1941, revoking and cancelling the code membership of H. M. Webb, George Ethel, Sr., and George Ethel, Jr., individually and as partners doing business under the name and style of Twin Elm Coal Company, a partnership; and

Said Order of Cancellation and Revocation having been duly served on September 8, 1941, on said code member; and

H. M. Webb, individually and as a partner having duly filed with this Division, as provided in section 5 (c) of the Act, an application for restoration to code membership of H. M. Webb, George Ethel, Sr., and George Ethel, Jr., individually and as partners doing business under the name and style of Twin Elm Coal Company, to become effective simultaneously with the effective date of said cancellation and revocation of his code membership; and

It appearing from said application that said H. M. Webb, on behalf of the code member has paid to the Collector of Internal Revenue at Des Moines, Iowa, on November 19, 1941, the sum of $148.59, pursuant to said order dated August 27, 1941, as a condition precedent to the restoration of his code membership;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That said application for restoration to code membership of H. M. Webb, George Ethel, Sr., and George Ethel, Jr., individually and as partners doing business under the name and style of Twin Elm Coal Company be, and it hereby is, granted.

It is further ordered, That the said restoration of the code membership of H. M. Webb, George Ethel, Sr., and George Ethel, Jr., individually and as partners doing business under the name and style of Twin Elm Coal Company, be effective as of the effective date of said cancellation and revocation of code membership.

[Docket No. A-1758]

ATLAS ENGINEERING CO.

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

In the matter of the petition of Atlas Engineering Company, a code member in District 6, for permission to sell 15 cars of mine run coal produced at its Roberta Mine (Mine Index No. 206) at less than the applicable minimum price.

On November 23, 1942, the Atlas Engineering Company, a code member producer in District 6, filed a petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, with this Division requesting permission to sell 15 cars of distressed mine run coal at less than the applicable minimum price therefor. It is stated that the cars were shipped on November 7, 1942, on order of the Pennsylvania Railroad, but were returned to the siding upon refusal of the Pennsylvania Railroad to accept the coal. The petition states that the coal is first cut coal and contains too much slack to meet the mine run specifications of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Petitioner further states that every effort has been made to dispose of this coal at not less than the applicable minimum price for mine run coal, but without success; that the cars are now and have been since November 7, 1942, lying on the Atlas siding of the West Virginia-Pittsburgh Coal Company at Locust Grove siding, Colliers, West Virginia; and that the delay in moving this coal has resulted in a loss of several thousand dollars in that it has prevented petitioner from shipping any coal by rail in the interim. Petitioner requests that an order be issued giving it permission to sell this coal at a price lower than the applicable minimum price for mine run coal.

In a telegram dated November 19, 1942, petitioner indicated that this coal must be offered at the effective minimum price for 2" nut and slack if it is to be sold. In a communication dated November 19, 1942, District Board No. 6 stated that the coal has been inspected and that it is equivalent to a 2" x 0 coal and recommended that this producer be given permission to dispose of it at the Size Group 10 price or at any price the producer can get.

In view of the above stated circumstances, it appears that an adequate showing of necessity has been made for the granting of the relief stated hereinafter. No petitions of intervention, other than the communication received from District Board No. 6, have been filed by any party and the following action is deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the petition of Atlas Engineering Company in the above-entitled matter is granted and permission is given to petitioner to dispose of the following cars of coal now located on the tracks of the Atlas siding of the West Virginia-Pittsburgh Coal Company at Locust Grove siding, Colliers, West Virginia, at a price not less than the effective minimum price for Size Group No. 10 for rail shipment:

It is further ordered, That the petitioner shall notify the Division and file a report indicating the name and address of the purchaser or purchasers and the price or prices at which the 15 cars of coal were sold within ten (10) days after said sale, which report shall become part of this docket.

SHELBY COAL CO., INC., AND SHELBY COAL CO.

ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATIONS

In the matter of proceedings to determine if certain registered distributors are bona fide merchants actively, regularly and continuously engaged in the business of purchasing coal for resale and actually reselling it in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots within the meaning of § 304.13 of the rules and regulations for the registration of distributors; and for the revocation of the registration of distributors who are not so engaged.

Order revoking registrations of Shelby Coal Company, Inc., and Shelby Coal Co. (W. K. Jenne).

The Bituminous Coal Division, on February 18, 1942, having issued, in the above-entitled matter, an order to show cause why the registration of the registered distributors named therein should not be revoked on the grounds that such registrants were not actively, regularly and continuously engaged in the business of purchasing coal for resale and reselling it in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots within the meaning of § 304.13 of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors; and

Said order having provided that the failure of any such named distributor to file an answer to said order to show cause, as required by the order, may be deemed to be an admission that the person so failing to file is not actively, regularly, and continuously engaged as a distributor, and an order revoking the registration of such person may be entered; and

It appearing that Shelby Coal Company, Inc., Box 253, Pikeville, Kentucky, Registration No. 8320, and Shelby Coal Co. (W. K. Jenne), Pikeville, Kentucky, Registration No. 4797, failed to file answers to said Order to Show Cause;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the registrations of Shelby Coal Company, Inc., Box 253, Pikeville, Kentucky, Registration No. 8320, and Shelby Coal Co. (W. K. Jenne), Pikeville, Kentucky, Registration No. 4797, be and the same are hereby revoked.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket No. G-433]

INDEPENDENT NATURAL GAS COMPANY

ORDER FIXING DATE FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING SUPPLEMENTAL RATE SCHEDULE

NOVEMBER 24, 1942.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) Independent Natural Gas Company has on file a rate schedule designated in the files of the Commission as Independent Natural Gas Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 2 and Exhibit A thereto, providing for the sale of natural gas to Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company for resale for ultimate public consumption;

(b) On October 26, 1942, Independent Natural Gas Company filed with the Commission a rate schedule designated Supplement No. 1 to Independent Natural Gas Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 2, providing for increased rates or charges for the sale of natural gas to Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company;

(c) Unless suspended by order of the Commission, Supplement No. 1 to Independent Natural Gas Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 2 will become effective as of November 26, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and the Provisional Rules of Practice and Regulations thereunder;

(d) In purported justification of the proposed increased rates or charges, Independent Natural Gas Company stated that it must make a substantial additional investment and will incur additional expense in order to supply the increased volumes of natural gas provided for in the aforesaid supplemental rate schedule, and it was further stated that Independent Natural Gas Company must pay increased amounts to Phillips Petroleum Company for the purchase of the natural gas which it sells to Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company;

(e) Independent Natural Gas Company is a subsidiary of and is controlled by Phillips Petroleum Company;

(f) The schedule of increased rates or charges contained in Supplement No. 1 to Independent Natural Gas Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 2 may result in excessive rates or charges to Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company or place an undue burden upon ultimate consumers of natural gas; and the proposed increased rates or charges have not been shown to be justified;

The Commission finds that:

It is necessary, desirable and in the public interest that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates or charges and that said proposed increased rates or charges be suspended pending such hearing and decision thereon.

The Commission, upon its own motion, orders that:

(A) A public hearing be held on January 12, 1943, at 9:45 a. m. in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the lawfulness of the rates or charges, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, contained in Supplement No. 1 to Independent Natural Gas Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 2 for the sale of natural gas to Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company for resale for ultimate public consumption;

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, Supplement No. 1 to Independent Natural Gas Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 2, in so far as it provides for increased rates or charges other than for the sale of natural gas for resale for industrial use only, be and it hereby is suspended until April 26, 1943, or until such time thereafter as such increased rates or charges shall be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act;

(C) During the period of suspension, the rates or charges collected and received by Independent Natural Gas Company from Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company, as provided in Independent Natural Gas Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 2 and Exhibit A thereto, except in so far as they may be for the sale of natural gas for resale for industrial use only, shall remain and continue in full force and effect;

(D) At the hearing, the burden of proof to show that the proposed increased rates or charges are just and reasonable shall be upon the Independent Natural Gas Company;

(E) Interested State commissions may participate in said hearing as provided in § 67.4 of the Provisional Rules of Practice and Regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G-141]

CITIES SERVICE GAS COMPANY

ORDER AMENDING ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

NOVEMBER 25, 1942.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) By its order dated October 13, 1942, the Commission ordered that a public hearing in the above-entitled matter be held commencing on November 30, 1942, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the Federal Building, Kansas City, Missouri;

(b) It has been found desirable to specify more particularly the place for the said hearing in the City of Kansas City, Missouri;

The Commission orders that:

(A) The public hearing in the above-entitled proceeding now set to begin on November 30, 1942, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the Federal Building, Kansas City, Missouri, be held commencing on November 30, 1942, at 10 o'clock a. m., in Room 664, United States Court House, Kansas City, Missouri;

(B) The Commission's order of October 13, 1942, be and the same is hereby amended to the extent, and only to the extent, indicated by paragraph (A) above.

By the Commission.

[Suspension Order 163]

Liberty Dairy Company

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Liberty Dairy Company, a corporation, 6212 Grandy Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of specific charges of violations of Rationing Order No. 3, sugar rationing regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held on October 14, 1942, in Detroit, Michigan. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. Such evidence having been considered by the Deputy Administrator, It is hereby determined that:

(a) On April 29, 1942, respondent registered for the Liberty Dairy Company, an industrial user of sugar, located at 6212 Grandy Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, and established a sugar base under Rationing Order No. 3, sugar rationing regulations, for the use of sugar for the following products: ice cream, ices, sherbets, frozen custards, other dairy products, condensed milk and cheese.

(b) Respondent has violated § 1407.82 of Rationing Order No. 3, sugar rationing regulations, in that on May 6, 1942, respondent delivered two thousand pounds (2,000) of sugar to Michael S. Abrams, an industrial user, without receiving any sugar purchase certificate therefor; such delivery was not within the class of deliveries permitted to be made without the exchange of a sugar purchase certificate by Rationing Order No. 3, sugar rationing regulations.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of sugar in the United States, the violation of the sugar rationing regulations by respondent resulted in the diversion of the use of sugar from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. And it appearing to the Deputy Administrator from the evidence before him that further violations of the sugar rationing regulations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.

It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 163 shall be in effect:

(1) Respondent shall not receive any allotments of sugar for ice cream, ices, sherbets and frozen custards.

(2) Respondent shall not use sugar for ice cream, ices, sherbets or frozen custards.

(d) Respondent shall forthwith surrender for cancellation to the War Price and Ration Board which issued them all sugar purchase certificates in its possession that were issued to it for the purchase of sugar for ice cream, ices, sherbets and frozen custards.

(e) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 163 that are defined in Rationing Order No. 3, sugar rationing regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(f) This Suspension Order No. 163 shall become effective immediately and shall remain in effect until further order of the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, but not later than December 31, 1944.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; Sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); W.P.B. Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562) and Supplementary Directive No. 1E (7 F.R. 2965))

Issued and effective this 25th day of November 1942.

[Suspension Order 164]

A and H Tire Service Corporation and Charles E. Anderson

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

A and H Tire Service Corporation and Charles E. Anderson, 7035 Carnegie Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, hereinafter called respondents, were duly served with a notice of specific charges of violations of revised tire rationing regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing upon the charges was held on September 25, 1942, in Cleveland, Ohio. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondents. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. Such evidence having been considered by the Deputy Administrator. It is hereby determined:

(a) Respondents have violated §1315.803 (b) (3) of revised tire rationing regulations in that between April 13, 1942, and April 23, 1942, respondents used truck type camelback as defined by specifications then established by the War Production Board to recap twenty-two (22) passenger type tires to be mounted on passenger automobiles that were not taxicabs or jitneys.

(b) Respondents have violated § 1315.1005 of revised tire rationing regulations in that between March 1, 1942, and September 1, 1942, respondents failed to take any inventory of camelback in their possession or under their control and failed to keep a record of the amount of camelback used by them in retreading and recapping during said period.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of rubber in the United States, violations of the revised tire rationing regulations by respondents have resulted in the diversion of rubber from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator from the evidence before him that further violations of the tire rationing regulations by respondents are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken, It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 164 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondents shall not accept any transfers or deliveries of or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any new tires, new tubes, recapped tires, retreaded tires, camelback or other recapping or retreading material.

(3) Respondents shall not directly or indirectly sell, transfer, deliver, or otherwise deal or trade in any new tires, new tubes, recapped tires, retreaded tires, camelback or other retreading or recapping material.

(4) Respondents shall not enter into any contract or commitment for the recapping or retreading of tires or recap or retread any tires or in any way use or consume any camelback or other retreading or recapping material: Provided, however, That if any contracts for retreading or recapping of tires have been entered into by respondents and such tires have been prepared in any degree for retreading or recapping or have been retreaded or recapped before this Suspension Order No. 164 is served upon respondents, such recapping or retreading may be completed and the retreaded or recapped tires delivered with the prior approval and under the supervision of the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration for Region III.

(d) Any term used in this Suspension Order No. 164 that is defined in revised tire rationing regulations shall have the meaning therein given it.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 164 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. November 25, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 a. m. December 10, 1942.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); WPB Directive No. 1 and Supplementary Directive No. 1B (7 F.R. 562, 925))

Issued this 25th day of November 1942.

[Suspension Order 165]

The Horn Company and S. L. Horn, Jr.

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

The Horn Company, a corporation, and S. L. Horn, Jr., both of 7035 Carnegie Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, hereinafter called respondents, were duly served with a notice of specific charges of violations of revised tire rationing regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held on September 25, 1942, in Cleveland, Ohio. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondents. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. Such evidence having been considered by the Deputy Administrator, It is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondents are engaged in selling new rubber tires, casings, and tubes both to consumers and to persons who buy for purposes of resale.

(b) Respondents have violated § 1315.1003 of revised tire rationing regulations in that, except for an inventory taken on June 19, 1942, which was admittedly incorrect, respondents failed to take between February 28, 1942, and August 1, 1942, any inventory of new tires and tubes and retreaded and recapped tires in their possession and keep a record thereof.

(c) Respondents have violated § 1315.1003 of revised tire rationing regulations in that respondents filed an incorrect report on OPA Form R-17 which purported to set forth all the tires and tubes in their possession and control on June 30, 1942. This report was based on an inventory taken by respondents on June 19, 1942, which inventory was itself admittedly incorrect.

The foregoing violations by respondents have interfered with the effective administration and enforcement of revised tire rationing regulations in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator from the evidence before him that further violations of the tire rationing regulations by respondents are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(d) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 165 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondents shall not accept any transfers or deliveries of or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any new tires, new tubes, recapped tires, retreaded tires, camelback or other recapping or retreading material.

(3) Respondents shall not directly or indirectly sell, transfer, deliver, or otherwise deal or trade in any new tires, new tubes, recapped tires, retreaded tires, camelback or other retreading or recapping material.

(4) Respondents shall not enter into any contract or commitment for the recapping or retreading of tires or recap or retread any tires or in any way use or consume any camelback or other retreading or recapping material: Provided, however, That if any contracts for retreading or recapping of tires have been entered into by respondents and such tires have been prepared in any degree for retreading or recapping or have been retreaded or recapped before this Suspension Order No. 165 is served upon respondents, such recapping or retreading may be completed and the retreaded or recapped tires delivered with the prior approval and under the supervision of the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration for Region III.

(e) Any term used in this Suspension Order No. 165 that is defined in revised tire rationing regulations shall have the meaning therein given it.

(f) This Suspension Order No. 165 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. November 25, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 A. M. December 10, 1942.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., Sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong., and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); W.P.B. Directive No. 1 and Supplementary Directive No. 1B (7 F.R. 562, 925)

[Suspension Order 167]

M. A. Boggs

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

M. A. Boggs, doing business as Barton Tire Shop, Barton, Ohio, herein called respondent, was duly served with a notice of specific charges of violations of revised tire rationing regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing upon the charges was held on August 31, 1942, in Youngstown, Ohio, and on September 3, 1942, in Wheeling, West Virginia. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been duly considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, It is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent has violated revised tire rationing regulations in that on or about July 1, 1942, respondent accepted delivery of 25 pounds of camelback from a dealer in camelback without delivering in exchange therefor any portion of any certificate issued pursuant to revised tire rationing regulations.

(b) Respondent has violated revised tire rationing regulations in that between March 1, and July 18, 1942, respondent transferred and delivered 457 pounds of camelback without receiving in exchange therefor any portion of any certificate issued pursuant to revised rationing regulations.

(c) The foregoing deliveries made or received by respondent were not within any of the classes of deliveries of camelback permitted by the provisions of the revised tire rationing regulations to be made without the exchange of certificates or portions of certificates.

(d) Respondent has violated revised tire rationing regulations in that between February 28, 1942, and September 1, 1942, respondent did not take any inventory of the camelback in his possession or control or keep any record of his total production of retreaded and recapped tires.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of rubber in the United States, respondent's violations of the tire rationing regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration have resulted in the diversion of rubber from military and essential civilian uses to non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations of tire rationing regulations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(e) During the period in which Suspension Order No. 167 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any transfers or deliveries of or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any tires or tubes of any kind, or any camelback or other recapping or retreading material.

(2) No person shall in any manner, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer or deliver any tires or tubes of any kind, or any camelback or other recapping or retreading material to respondent.

(3) Respondent shall not directly or indirectly sell, transfer, deliver, or otherwise deal or trade in any tires or tubes of any kind, or any camelback or other retreading or recapping material.

(4) Respondent shall not enter into any contract or commitment for the recapping or retreading of tires or recap or retread any tires or in any way use or consume any camelback or other retreading or recapping material: Provided, however, That if any contracts for retreading or recapping of tires have been entered into by respondent and such tires have been prepared in any degree for retreading or recapping or have been retreaded or recapped before this Suspension Order No. 167 is served upon respondent, such recapping or retreading may be completed and the retreaded or recapped tires delivered with the prior approval and under the supervision of the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration for Region III.

(f) Any term used in this Suspension Order No. 167 that is defined in Revised Tire Rationing Regulations shall have the meaning therein given it.

(g) This Suspension Order No. 167 shall become effective November 28, 1942, and unless sooner terminated shall expire 12:01 A. M. December 28, 1942.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; Sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); W.P.B. Directive No. 1 and Supplementary Directive No. 1B (7 F.R. 562, 925)

AUTHORITY TO SEND LICENSING WARNING NOTICES

DELEGATION TO REGIONAL ADMINISTRATORS

This General Order No. 27 formerly appeared as Title 32, National Defense, Chapter XI, Office of Price Administration, Part 1305, Administration, General Order No. 3,[1] § 1305.13.

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, the following order is prescribed:

(a) Order delegating to Regional Administrators authority to send licensing warning notices. (1) The functions, duties, powers, authority and discretion conferred upon the Price Administrator by section 205 (f) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall be exercised by the Price Administrator through the several Regional Administrators of the Office of Price Administration, to the following extent:

(i) Each of the several Regional Administrators of the Office of Price Administration is authorized, within his Region to send a warning notice by registered mail to any person who, in the judgment of such Regional Administrator, has violated any of the provisions of a license issued under section 205 (f) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, or has violated any of the provisions of any regulation, order, or requirement under section 2 or section 202 (b) of said Act, or any of the provisions of any price schedule effective in accordance with the provisions of section 206 of said Act, which is applicable to such person.

(ii) Any warning notice sent by any Regional Administrator pursuant to the authority conferred by this General Order No. 27 shall have the same force and effect as if sent by the Price Administrator.

(b) This General Order No. 27 shall be effective as of July 18, 1942.

[General Order 38]

RENUMBERING CERTAIN ADMINISTRATIVE AND GENERAL ORDERS AND RENAMING CERTAIN ADMINISTRATIVE ORDERS

The Office of Price Administration has issued a series of orders entitled Administrative Orders Nos. A and B, a series of orders entitled Administrative Orders numbering 1 through 30 which are in substance delegation orders, and a series of orders entitled General Orders Numbers 1 through 5 which are in substance delegation orders. Most of these orders have been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Another series of orders relating to internal administrative matters which have not been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and which are captioned Administrative Orders, have also been issued by the Office of Price Administration.

In order to avoid confusion and to establish a uniform caption for the various types of orders issued by the Office of Price Administration, the Administrator has determined that the caption "Administrative Orders" shall be reserved for orders relating to internal organization of the Office of Price Administration and that the caption "General Order" shall be applied to the other orders above mentioned.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order No. 9125, Executive Order No. 9250, War Production Board Directive No. 1, as supplemented, War Production Board Directive No. 1-E, War Production Directive No. 1-J, War Production Board Directive No. 1-K, and War Production Board Directive No. 1-L, it is hereby ordered that said Administrative Orders A and B, Administrative Orders 1 through 30, and General Orders numbers 1 through 5 be, and are hereby, renumbered and renamed as follows:

[Order 8 Under RPS 53]

THE BEST FOODS, INC.

ORDER ESTABLISHING MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 8 Under Revised Price Schedule No. 53—Fats and Oils.

On October 19, 1942, The Best Foods Inc., 88 Lexington Avenue, New York City, filed pursuant to § 1351.151 (b) (7) of Revised Price Schedule No. 53 an application for the determination of its maximum price on a fats and oils commodity which it proposes to manufacture. This commodity, which will be made from approximately 50% cottonseed oil and 50% palm oil, will be refined, deodorized and hydrogenated, with a melting point of approximately 106 degrees F.

Due consideration has been given to the application; and an opinion in support of this Order has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the Opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended and Executive Order 9250, and in accordance with § 1351.151 (b) (7) of Revised Price Schedule No. 53, issued by the Office of Price Administration, it is hereby ordered:

(a) The maximum price of The Best Foods Inc., 88 Lexington Avenue, New York City, on the fats and oils commodity defined in paragraph (b) of this Order shall be 14.575¢ per pound delivered, tank cars, New York.

(b) The term "fats and oils commodity," as used in this Order, means a refined, deodorized and hydrogenated commodity, made from approximately 50% cotton seed oil and 50% palm oil, with a melting point of approximately 106 degrees F.

(c) The maximum price hereinbefore fixed shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

(d) This Order No. 8 shall become effective November 27, 1942.

Issued this 26th day of November 1942.

OSHER BROTHERS COMPANY

ORDER GRANTING PETITION FOR ADJUSTMENT

Order No. 17 Under Maximum Price Regulation No. 169—Beef and Veal Carcasses and Wholesale Cuts—Docket No. 3169-20.

On July 24, 1942 Osher Brothers Company, 3310 West Sixty-fifth Street, Cleveland, Ohio, filed a petition for adjustment pursuant to § 1364.60 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, as amended. Due consideration has been given to the petition and an Opinion in support of this Order No. 17 has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

For the reasons set forth in the Opinion under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration: It is hereby ordered:

(a) Osher Brothers Company may sell and deliver and agree, offer, solicit, and attempt to sell and deliver carcass beef AA or choice grade, at a price not in excess of 22¢ per pound and any person may buy and receive from the Osher Brothers Company such carcass beef at a price not in excess of 22¢ per pound.

(b) Osher Brothers Company shall mail or cause to be mailed to all persons who purchase carcass beef AA or choice grade from it for resale a notice reading as follows:

> The Office of Price Administration by Order No. 17 effective November 27, 1942, pursuant to § 1364.60 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, as amended, has permitted us to raise our maximum prices for sales to you of carcass beef AA or choice grade from 20¢ per pound to 22¢ per pound.
> This amount represents only that part of cost increases which we were unable to absorb and it was granted with the understanding that resale prices would not be raised. The Office of Price Administration has not permitted you or any other seller to raise the maximum price for the sale of carcass beef AA or choice grade. In order that we may continue to provide you with carcass beef AA or choice grade it will be necessary for you to accept this reduction in your margin.

(c) All prayers of the petition not granted herein are denied.

(d) This Order No. 17 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1364.62 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, as amended, shall apply to the terms used herein.

(e) This Order No. 17 shall become effective November 27, 1942.

Issued this 26th day of November 1942.

PART 726—FIRE-CURED AND DARK AIR-CURED TOBACCO

Proclamation of the national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco for the 1943–44 marketing year.

The Secretary of Agriculture, acting under and pursuant to, and by virtue of, the authority vested in him by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 as amended, does hereby find, determine, specify and proclaim that: Authority: 52 Stat. 38, 46, 53 Stat. 1261, 54 Stat. 392, 1209; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1301 (b), 1312 (a), 1312 (c).

§ 726.551 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1943[1]—(a) Reserve supply level. The reserve supply level for dark air-cured tobacco is 89,000,000 pounds.

(b) Total supply. The total supply of dark air-cured tobacco as of the beginning of the marketing year for such tobacco beginning October 1, 1942 was 94,000,000 pounds and exceeds the reserve supply level of such tobacco.

(c) National marketing quota. The amount of the national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco which will make available during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1943, a supply of tobacco equal to the reserve supply level of such tobacco is 28,000,000 pounds.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of November, 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] GROVER B. HILL,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 727—FLUE-CURED TOBACCO

SUBPART F—1943

Proclamation of the national marketing quota for flue-cured tobacco for the 1943–44 marketing year.

The Secretary of Agriculture, acting under and pursuant to, and by virtue of, the authority vested in him by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, does hereby find, determine, specify, and proclaim that: Authority: 52 Stat. 38, 46, 53 Stat. 1261, 54 Stat. 392, 1209; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1301 (b), 1312 (a), 1312 (c).

§ 727.501 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for flue-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1943[1]—(a) Reserve supply level. The reserve supply level for flue-cured tobacco is 2,078,000,000 pounds.

(b) Total supply. The total supply of flue-cured tobacco as of the beginning of the marketing year for such tobacco beginning July 1, 1942, was 2,286,000,000 pounds and exceeds the reserve supply level of such tobacco.

(c) National marketing quota. The amount of the national marketing quota for flue-cured tobacco which will make available during the marketing year beginning July 1, 1943, a supply of tobacco equal to the reserve supply level of such tobacco is 625,000,000 pounds. An increase in this amount is necessary in order to meet market demands and to avoid undue restriction of marketings in adjusting the total supply to the reserve supply level. Therefore, the amount of the national marketing quota for flue-cured tobacco, in terms of the total quantity of such tobacco which may be marketed during the marketing year beginning July 1, 1943, as increased, is 680,000,000 pounds.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 28th day of November, 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] GROVER B. HILL,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter I—Aid of Civil Authorities and Public Relations

PART 5—SAFEGUARDING TECHNICAL INFORMATION

PART 9—SECRECY SURROUNDING TROOP MOVEMENTS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Sections 5.1, 5.2 (a), 5.3, 5.5 (b) and (c), 5.7, 5.8, 5.9, 5.10, 5.11 (b), 5.12, 5.17, 5.19, 5.20 (a) and (b), and 5.21 (a) and (b) (1) (2) are retained without change in revision of Army Regulations No. 380–5, September 28, 1942, and §§ 5.2 (b), 5.4, 5.5 (a), 5.6, 5.11 (a), 5.13, 5.14, 5.15, 5.16, 5.18, 5.20 (c) and 5.21 (b) (3) are amended as follows.[1]

§ 5.2 Responsibility. * * *

(b) Commanding officers, administrative officers, and procurement agencies are responsible that military personnel, civilian employees of the Military Establishment, and the management and employees of commercial firms engaged in classified projects or developments for the War Department are familiar with the pertinent provisions of these regulations. Clerical and technical work on secret and confidential matter, to the extent practicable, will be performed only by duly investigated and approved personnel. [Par. 8]

§ 5.4 Dissemination of classified military information. Except as regards information to be released to the press by authorized military public regulations agencies, when classified military information is disseminated under the provisions of these regulations to persons not subject to military law, they will be informed that it affects the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act and that its transmission to an unauthrized person is prohibited. [Par. 15*a*]

* * * * *

§ 5.5 Requests for military information. (a) Requests from private individuals or firms for classified military information will be referred through channels to the Commanding General of the Army Ground Forces, the Commanding General of the Army Air Forces, the Commanding General of the Services of Supply, the Commanding General of the army or the service command concerned, who, if unable to make reply or if another agency is interested, will refer the matter to The Adjutant General for appropriate action. [Par. 14]

* * * * *

§ 5.6 Dissemination of restricted matter. The information contained in restricted documents and the essential characteristics of restricted matériel may be given to any person known to be in the service of the United States and to persons of undoubted loyalty and discretion who are cooperating in Government work, but will not be communicated to the public or to the press except by authorized military public relations agencies. [Par. 5*d*]

Paragraph (e) of the agreement quoted in § 5.11 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.11 Invitations for bids and contracts. (a) * * *

(e) (1) The undersigned agrees to bring or cause to be brought to the attention of all persons engaged in the preparation of the bid, whether submitted or not, including subbidders and their employees, the following provisions of law:

> Espionage Act: Subparagraphs (d) and (e), sec. 1, act June 15, 1917 (40 Stat. 217); sec. 1, act March 28, 1940 (54 Stat. 79; 50 U.S.C. 31; M.L., 1939, Supp. I, sec. 2181).
> Sec. 1, act January 12, 1938 (52 Stat. 3; 50 U.S.C. 45; M.L., 1939, sec. 2187a), and E.O. 8381, March 22, 1940; 5 F.R. 1147; 50 U.S.C. 45; M.L., 1939, Supp. I, sec. 2187a.
> Second War Powers Act, 1942, sections 1402, 1403, act March 27, 1942 (Public Law 507, 77th Cong.).

(2) If the successful bidder on any project, the undersigned agrees also to bring or cause to be brought to the attention of all persons engaged in the performance of the contract, including persons employed on subcontracts, the provisions of the law enumerated in (1) above. [Par. 51]

§ 5.13 Responsibility of Army representatives or inspectors. (a) Army representatives or inspectors of the supply service are the local representatives of the War Department and will take the necessary measures to insure the safeguarding of classified information or projects in the hands of the contractors or in process of manufacture in their plants.

(b) Army representatives or inspectors will advise contractors as to their responsibilities and the practical measures to be taken to safeguard secret, confidential, and restricted matters and will act favorably, if practicable, on any suggestion or request of the company tending to preserve secrecy. If at any time conditions at any plant, or any action of a company or its employees, jeopardize the security of classified matter pertaining to the War Department or violate the provisions of the Espionage Act, the Army representative or inspector will request the contractor to take prompt remedial action. If adequate precautionary measures are not taken immediately, he will report promptly to the chief of the supply service concerned and, if the situation requires, to the commanding general of the service command in which the item is in process of manufacture.

(c) When Army and Navy inspectors are on duty at the same plant, the Army inspector will coordinate all security measures with the Navy inspector in order to avoid conflicting demands upon contractors. [Par. 53]

§ 5.14 Responsibility of Government contractors. (a) A private individual, firm, or corporation which enters into a contract to engage in technical work for the War Department becomes responsible in matters within his or its control for the safeguarding of all secret, confidential, or restricted matters that may be disclosed or that may be developed in connection therewith. A clause to this effect will be included in such a contract, but its omission will not release the contractor from his responsibility under the Espionage Act and other pertinent laws.

(b) Contractors are responsible that all classified projects allotted to subcontractors or agents are fully protected by a similar agreement.

(c) Whenever for any reason a contract agreement or subcontract has been made which does not include a security clause but later is found to involve secret, confidential, or restricted matter, the supply service concerned will take the necessary steps to insure that the project or work is properly classified and that the contractor, agent, or subcontractor is informed of the classification end of his responsibility in the matter. [Par. 54]

§ 5.15 Public display of classified matériel. (a) Commanding officers are responsible that all classified parts, components, or features of matériel are properly safeguarded during maneuvers, drills, parades, ceremonies, assemblages, demonstrations, or exhibitions open to the general public.

(b) (1) Photographs of equipment while in process of development or those revealing processes of manufacture are prohibited unless authorized by the chief of supply service concerned. After an article of equipment has been issued to combat units, release of photographs is permissible unless specifically prohibited by the instructions issued therewith.

(2) Requests for permission to take photographs of classified matériel, projects, or processes of manufacture will be referred to the War Department through the proper chief of supply service. If authority is granted, it will be with the understanding that the resulting photographs will be submitted to the War Department for review prior to release. [Par. 56]

§ 5.16 Release of information or sale of matériel. Domestic sale, divulging information in connection with negotiations for foreign sale, and foreign manufacture of items of Army and Navy matériel and equipment are not permitted unless the War and Navy Departments are agreed that military secrecy is not compromised thereby. [Par. 57*a*]

§ 5.18 Authority for admission—(a) General. Correspondence and communications relating to visits will be routed direct between the various offices concerned.

(b) Foreign nationals. (1) Foreign nationals (see § 5.17 (a)) will be admitted to Government or commercial manufacturing establishments and experimental laboratories engaged on classified work or projects, and to military posts, camps, and airfields only on written authority of the Assistant Chief of Staff, G–2, War Department General Staff.

(2) Application for such visits will be made through the appropriate diplomatic representatives except in the case of foreign nationals employed by citizens of the United States or by firms or corporations owned or controlled by citizens of the United States, for whom applications will be submitted by their employers, approved by the commanding officer or management of the establishment to be visited, and forwarded with the recommendation of the chief of the supply service or appropriate commanding general of the service command concerned to the Assistant Chief of Staff, G–2, War Department General Staff.

(3) Applications submitted through either of the channels described above will include the following information:

(i) Name in full.

(ii) Official title or position.

(iii) Name of plant or plants, posts, camps, or airfields to which admission is desired.

(iv) Date of visit or dates between which visits are desired.

(v) Purpose of visit.

For foreign nationals employed by citizens of the United States or by firms or corporations owned or controlled by citizens of the United States the following additional information will be required:

(vi) Nationality.

(vii) Length of service with present employer.

(4) Prior to authorizing a visit to a War Department or commercial manufacturing establishment engaged in classified work or projects, the Assistant Chief of Staff, G–2, War Department General Staff, will secure the recommendations of the Navy Department and the chief of the supply service concerned. Members of the armed forces of Canada and Mexico may, however, be admitted to Army posts, camps, and airfields near the borders of those countries for occasional visits on the authority of the commanding general of the army, defense command, or service command having jurisdiction over such posts, camps or airfields, without reference to higher authority.

(c) United States citizens. Subject to the approval of the commanding officer or the contractor, United States citizens, except those representing a foreign government, firm, or corporation, may be admitted to War Department or commercial manufacturing establishments engaged on classified work or projects under the following conditions:

(1) Casual visitors may be admitted provided no secret, confidential, or restricted work or project is shown or discussed.

(2) Representatives of other United States Government agencies, manufacturers, or their representatives, engineers, and inventors cooperating in War Department work and having a legitimate interest therein may be shown such works or projects as are considered necessary and desirable by the responsible chief of supply service. Authority for admission will be in writing.

(3) Accredited reporters, photographers, and other representatives of publicity agencies may be admitted to manufacturing establishments engaged on work for the War Department provided classified matters, projects, or processes of manufacture are not shown or discussed with them. News items, photographs, and motion pictures resulting from the visit must be submitted to the Assistant Chief of Staff, G–2, War Department General Staff, for release prior to publication. [Par. 59]

§ 5.20 Responsibility of Government contractors. * * *

(c) (1) War Department contractors will submit to the commanding general of the service command, chief of supply service, or Commanding General, Matériel Command, Army Air Forces, whichever is appropriate, to whom their plants are assigned for continuing protection, at the end of each month, and upon the completion of the work or project, a report of all visitors who have gained information concerning the classified work or projects. These reports will include the following information:

(i) Name, official position, and nationality.

(ii) Address.

(iii) Authority for visit.

(iv) Whether authorization for visit was written or oral.

(v) Whether authorization for visit was received prior to or simultaneous with the visit.

(vi) Number of authorizations received for which the corresponding visits were not made, with detailed information in each case.

(2) The commanding general of the service command, chief of supply service, or Commanding General, Matériel Command, Army Air Forces, whichever is appropriate, to whom their plants are assigned for continuing protection, will submit the reports to the Assistant Chief of Staff, G–2, War Department General Staff, through the appropriate chief of supply service. [Par. 61]

§ 5.21 Restricted areas * * *

(b) Procedure in case of violation. * * *

(3) A report will be made through military channels to the commanding general of the service command of each case brought to the attention of civil authority and will include a brief of all the facts and copies of all pertinent communications. [Par. 63b]

Sections 9.1 to 9.5, inclusive, are retained without change in revision of Army Regulations No. 380–5, September 28, 1942.

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 240—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

RULE AND FORM RELATING TO REPORTS TO BE MADE BY CERTAIN EXCHANGE MEMBERS, BROKERS AND DEALERS UNDER THE ACT

The Securities and Exchange Commission, deeming it necessary for the exercise of the functions vested in it and necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors so to do, pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 17 and 23 (a) thereof, hereby takes the following action:

I. Adopts § 240.17A–5 [Rule X-17A–5], reading as follows:

§ 240.17A-5 Reports to be made by certain Exchange members, brokers and dealers. (a) Reports to be made annually. Every member of a national securities exchange who transacts a business in securities directly with others than members of a national securities exchange, and every broker or dealer who transacts a business in securities through the medium of any such member, and every broker or dealer registered pursuant to section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, [Sec. 15, 48 Stat. 895; sec. 3, 49 Stat. 1377; 15 U.S.C. 78o] shall file on Form X-17A–5,[1] during each calendar year commencing January 1, 1943, a report of his financial condition as of a date not more than 45 days prior to the filing thereof: Provided, That reports for any two consecutive years shall not be filed within less than four months of each other. The report shall be filed in duplicate with the Regional Office of the Commission for the region in which the member, broker, or dealer has his principal place of business.

(b) Nature and form of reports. Each report of financial condition filed pursuant to paragraph (a) hereof shall be prepared and filed in accordance with the following requirements:

(1) The report of a member, broker, or dealer shall be certified by a certified public accountant or a public accountant who shall be in fact independent (i) if said member, broker, or dealer is required to file a certified financial statement with any agency of any state in which he does business as a condition of doing business in securities therein, or is required to file a certified financial statement with any national securities exchange of which he is a member, or (ii) if, during the year preceding the date as of which his financial condition is reported said member, broker, or dealer has made a practice of (a) extending credit in any form to customers (such as carrying margin accounts or selling securities on a partial payment or installment basis): Provided, That credit shall not be deemed to be extended by reason of a bona fide delayed delivery of any such security against full payment of the entire purchase price thereof upon such delivery within thirty-five (35) days after such purchase; (b) holding securities owned by customers, except as an incident to transactions with or for customers which are promptly consummated by delivery, or (c) carrying credit balances of customers, except as an incident to transactions with or for customers which are promptly consummated by payment;

(2) Attached to the report shall be an oath or affirmation that, to the best knowledge and belief of the person making such oath or affirmation, (i) the financial statement and supporting schedules are true and correct and (ii) neither the member, broker, or dealer, nor any partner, officer, or director, as the case may be, has any proprietary interest in any account classified solely as that of a customer. The oath or affirmation shall be made before a person duly authorized to administer such oaths or affirmations. If the member, broker, or dealer is a sole proprietorship, the oath or affirmation shall be made by the proprietor; if a partnership, by a general partner; or if a corporation, by a duly authorized officer.

(c) Use of statements filed with state commissions and National Securities Exchanges. Any member, broker, or dealer who is subject to the provisions of paragraph (a) hereof may file in lieu of the report required by that paragraph a copy of any financial statement which he is, or has been, required to file with any national securities exchange of which he is a member, or with any agency of any State as a condition of doing business in securities therein: Provided, That (1) the copy so included reflects his financial condition as of a date not more than forty-five (45) days prior to the filing thereof with the Commission; and (2) the report, as filed with this Commission, meets the requirements of this rule and Form X-17A–5 and contains the information called for by that form.

(d) Extension of time for filing reports. In the event any member, broker, or dealer finds that he cannot file his report for any year within the time specified in paragraphs (a) or (c) hereof without undue hardship, he may file with the Commission an application for an extension of time to a specified date which shall not be more than 90 days after the date as of which his financial condition is reported. The application shall state the reasons for the requested extension and shall contain an agreement to file the report on or before the specified date. The application shall be deemed granted unless the Commission, within ten days after receipt thereof, enters an order denying the application.

(e) Exemptions. Any "bank", as defined in section 3 (a) (6) of the Act, [sec. 3, 48 Stat. 882; 15 U. S. C. 78c] shall be exempt from the provisions of this rule.

(f) Qualifications of accountants. The Commission will not recognize any person as a certified public accountant who is not duly registered and in good standing as such under the laws of his place of residence or principal office. The Commission will not recognize any person as a public accountant who is not in good standing and entitled to practice as such under the laws of the place of his residence or principal office.

(g) Accountant's certificate — (1) Technical requirements. The accountant's certificate shall be dated, shall be signed manually, and shall identify without detailed enumeration the items of the report covered by the certificate.

(2) Representations as to audit. The accountant's certificate (i) shall contain a reasonably comprehensive statement as to the scope of the audit made, including a statement as to whether the accountant reviewed the procedures followed for safeguarding the securities of customers, and including, if with respect to significant items in the report covered by the certificate any auditing procedures generally recognized as normal have been omitted, a specific designation of such procedures and of the reasons for their omission; (ii) shall state whether the audit was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards applicable in the circumstances; and (iii) shall state whether the audit made omitted any procedure deemed necessary by the accountant under the circumstances of the particular case.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall be construed to imply authority for the omission of any procedure which independent accountants would ordinarily employ in the course of an audit made for the purpose of expressing the opinions required by paragraph (h) of this rule.

(h) Accountant's certificate—opinions to be expressed. The accountant's certificate shall state clearly the opinion of the accountant with respect to the financial statement covered by the certificate and the accounting principles and practices reflected therein.

(1) Accountant's certificate — exceptions. Any matters to which the accountant takes exception shall be clearly identified; the exception thereto shall be specifically and clearly stated; and, to the extent practicable, the effect of each such exception on the related item of the report shall be given. [Rule X-17A-5, effective November 28, 1942]

(Sec. 17, 48 Stat. 897; sec. 4, 49 Stat. 1379; sec. 5, 52 Stat. 1076; 15 U.S.C. 78q; sec. 23, 48 Stat. 901; sec. 8, 49 Stat. 1379; 15 U.S.C. 78w)

II. Adopts Form X-17A-5 to be used to comply with § 240.17A-5 [Rule X-17A-5].

By the Commission.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration

[Docket No. FDC-36]

PART 51—CANNED VEGETABLESS DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY; QUALITY AND FILL OF CONTAINER

CANNED PEAS

ORDER AMENDING DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046; 21 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 341; and sec. 701 (e), 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 371 (e)) and on the basis of the evidence received at the above-entitled hearing duly held pursuant to notice thereof issued by the Federal Security Administrator on April 23, 1942 (7 F.R. 3066), the following order is hereby promulgated:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The green color of peas is due primarily to their content of chlorophyll.

2. One of the constituents of the chlorophyll molecule is magnesium.

3. When peas are picked from the vine the intensity of their green color begins to decrease. This decrease continues as peas are shelled and held, is accelerated when they are canned, and continues while they are in storage.

4. This decrease in intensity of color is due to the conversion of the chlorophyll into pheophytin through loss of the magnesium from the chlorophyll molecule. Pheophytin is not green but is olive drab in color. There is no known method applicable to peas whereby the pheophytin can be converted back into chlorophyll.

5. Under the process by which peas are ordinarily canned, they are shelled, washed, blanched in hot water, sealed in cans in a water solution of salt and sugar, and heated in a retort for 35 minutes at 240° F. when in cans of the size most frequently sold, or for a time and temperature equivalent in their destructive effect on microorganisms when in cans of other sizes.

6. When peas are so canned, the process of conversion of chlorophyll into pheophytin is sufficiently near completion within a short time after canning that the peas are no longer green but are olive drab or straw-colored.

7. Peas in their natural state are slightly on the acid side of the neutral point (pH 7) between acidity and alkalinity. A well-recognized but little understood phenomenon is that their acidity slowly but continuously increases during the canning process and subsequent storage. This is expressed chemically as a decrease of pH and the decrease continues until an equilibrium, sometimes as low as pH 5, is reached.

8. The rate of conversion of chlorophyll to pheophytin proceeds rapidly in an acid medium. In an alkaline medium the rate of conversion is greatly retarded. The time and temperature to which the peas are subjected before canning and the time and temperature during heat processing and in storage after canning also affect the rate of conversion.

9. It has recently been found that by converting the naturally acid medium surrounding the chlorophyll in peas to a state of mild alkalinity, and by regulating the times and temperatures of holding, processing, and storing, the rate of conversion of chlorophyll to pheophytin can be substantially retarded.

10. Such regulation of times and temperatures within the limits found desirable for this purpose has no material effect upon the identity of canned peas and does not conflict with the definition and standard of identity for canned peas now in effect.

11. For the conversion of the naturally acid state of the peas to one of alkalinity, certain alkalizing chemicals not permitted by the definition and standard of identity for canned peas have been found to be suitable. These chemicals are sodium carbonate, calcium hydroxide, and magnesium hydroxide.

12. Sodium carbonate must be used as such, but calcium hydroxide and magnesium hydroxide may be used as such or obtained by the use of calcium oxide and magnesium oxide which, when they come into contact with water, are promptly converted into the respective hydroxides.

13. Sodium carbonate is useful in an aqueous solution of approximately 2 percent concentration for a pre-blanch soak of about 30 minutes at room temperature for the reason that it retards the destruction of chlorophyll at the beginning of the blanch. An alkali in the blanch water does not suffice for this purpose since it does not penetrate the peas rapidly enough to raise their pH to an alkaline level before extensive destruction of chlorophyll occurs from the heat of blanching.

14. The sodium of the sodium carbonate replaces unidentified elements in the peas, according to a principle known as "the base exchange theory" whereby different basic elements in combination with other substances in solution are held to exchange positions continuously. It is a reasonable conclusion from this principle that some of the sodium carbonate enters into the composition of the finished canned peas, and there is no authoritative evidence to the contrary even though the peas are thoroughly washed after the treatment with sodium carbonate solution.

15. The proponents of the alkalizing process could have shown positively that sodium carbonate does not enter into the composition of the peas, if such were the case, by comparative quantitative analyses for sodium of the pre-blanch and blanch solutions before and after soaking and blanching, but no such analysis was reported among the voluminous analytical data entered of record.

16. Alkaline substances other than sodium carbonate would be equally effective in controlling the pH of the peas during the holding period, but such other substances, in quantities sufficient to control the pH, make the peas tough or impair their taste or are otherwise unsuitable or impracticable.

17. Sodium carbonate has a softening effect upon the texture of peas during the pre-blanch treatment.

18. In order to restore to the peas a texture comparable to their natural texture and at the same time to maintain the pH of the peas throughout the blanching process at an alkaline level, the blanch water must be made alkaline by a substance having a hardening effect.

19. The only blanch solution which has been found suitable for this purpose, and which is employed for about the same time and at the same temperature used for blanching peas canned by the ordinary method, is an aqueous solution of approximately 0.04 percent of calcium hydroxide or approximately 0.03 percent of calcium oxide. When blanched in this solution the calcium actually enters into the composition of the peas, as shown by chemical analyses. The reaction presumably follows the principle of base exchange.

20. From their observation of such phenomena experienced chemists do not believe that there is a complete exchange of calcium for the sodium added in the pre-blanch solution.

21. When the alkalizing process is used, the blanched peas are washed to remove free calcium hydroxide and are then sealed in the container with an aqueous packing medium.

22. To offset the drift toward acidity referred to in finding 7, and thus to retard the conversion of chlorophyll to pheophytin, it is necessary to incorporate a reserve of alkali in the canned peas, since the quantity of alkalis remaining in the peas from the pre-blanch and blanching is not enough to provide such a reserve in the finished product.

23. The only substance found suitable for this purpose, by reason of the fact that it provides such a reserve without impairing the natural characteristics of peas, is magnesium hydroxide. This is added to the packing medium in a quantity of about 0.1 percent of the weight of the medium.

24. The quantity of magnesium hydroxide added, together with the effect of the constituents of peas and other ingredients of the finished product, determines the ultimate pH of the peas and liquid within the can.

25. If the canned peas are too alkaline, undesirable flavors and odors foreign to canned peas are developed.

26. It is therefore necessary to limit the alkalinity of the finished product, and the most feasible, objectively determinable method of so doing is to prescribe a limit on the pH of the contents of the can.

27. It has been determined that the maximum pH that can be reached without danger of undesirable effects on canned peas is 8.0.

28. A method regarded by experienced chemists as accurate and desirable for determining pH, from the standpoint of both the pea canning industry and enforcement officials, is the method known as the glass electrode method.

29. To avoid undue loss of chlorophyll through long heating, the heat process for alkalized peas, after they are sealed in the can, is only 7 minutes, but the temperature of processing is 260° F. when in the size of can most frequently sold. This is the equivalent, in its destructive effect on microorganisms causing spoilage, to the process of 35 minutes at 240° F. used for ordinary canned peas in cans of the same size.

30. As a final precaution against undue loss of chlorophyll before purchase by the ultimate consumer, proponents of the alkalizing process recommend that peas canned by that process be stored at a temperature not over 55° F.

31. Under the definition and standard of identity now in effect, canned peas are prepared from one of four pea ingredients, two of which are succulent and two of which are dried. The proponents of the alkalizing process advocate its use for succulent peas only, and regard it as unsuitable for use in canning dried peas since such peas, in the process of maturing, lose widely varying proportions of their chlorophyll and are of nonuniform color, and when canned by such process their already undesirable lack of uniformity in color is emphasized.

32. Extensive investigations of the effects of sodium carbonate, calcium hydroxide, and magnesium hydroxide as used in the alkalizing process have failed to show any harmful effects upon the nutritive value of canned peas.

33. Sodium carbonate, calcium hydroxide, and magnesium hydroxide, used as described in the preceding findings, are suitable optional ingredients of canned peas prepared from succulent peas.

34. Consumers are concerned to know when chemicals are added to canned peas.

35. The use of the alkalizing chemicals sodium carbonate, calcium hydroxide, and magnesium hydroxide in canned peas without informing the purchasers thereof would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers.

36. Sodium carbonate, calcium hydroxide, and magnesium hydroxide are the common names of the chemicals used in the alkalizing process for canned peas; such chemicals belong to a group commonly known as "alkalis."

Upon the basis of the foregoing findings of fact, it is concluded that the regulation fixing and establishing a definition and standard of identity for canned peas (5 F.R. 740) should be amended so as to permit the use as optional ingredients in succulent canned peas of sodium carbonate, calcium hydroxide, and magnesium hydroxide in the quantities specified in the following provisions of such amended regulation and to require that such substances be named on the label of canned peas in which they are used; and that such regulation as so amended will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers.

Wherefore the regulation fixing and establishing a definition and standard of identity for canned peas is amended as follows:

Amendments to Regulation

1. Section 51.0 (c) is amended to read:

§ 51.0 Canned peas—Identity; label statement of optional ingredients. * * *

(c) The following optional ingredients may be used:

(1) Salt;
(2) Sugar;
(3) Dextrose;
(4) Spice;
(5) Flavoring;
(6) Artificial coloring;

and in case optional pea ingredient (1) or (2) is used,

(7) Sodium carbonate, calcium hydroxide, and magnesium hydroxide in such quantity that the hydrogen ion concentration of the finished canned peas, as determined by the glass electrode method, is not more than pH 8.

2. Section 51.0 (f) is amended by renumbering subparagraph (6) as subparagraph (7) and inserting immediately before such subparagraph a new subparagraph reading:

(6) If optional ingredient (c) (7) is used, the label shall bear the statement "Traces of sodium carbonate, calcium hydroxide, and magnesium hydroxide added"; but in lieu of such statement the label may bear the statement "Traces of alkalis added."

(52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U.S.C. 341, 371 (e))

The regulations hereby promulgated shall become effective on the nineteenth day following the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Acting Administrator.

[T. D. 5184]

Subchapter C—Miscellaneous Excise Taxes

PART 171—MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS RELATED TO LIQUOR

SUBPART I—PRODUCTION, REMOVAL, ETC. OF UNFINISHED SPIRITS FOR REDISTILLATION

Pursuant to the provisions of sections 2883 (d) and 3176, Internal Revenue Code, Treasury Decision 5132 (26 CFR, Part 171, Subpart I[1]) is amended by inserting immediately after § 171.63 the following new section designated § 171.63A:

§ 171.63A Special Form 236. Where it is desired to expedite the removal of unfinished spirits in tank cars or tank trucks from a registered distillery or internal revenue bonded warehouse to another registered distillery or internal revenue bonded warehouse for redistillation, as provided by these regulations, and the proprietor of the registered distillery or internal revenue bonded warehouse to which the unfinished spirits are to be shipped has on file a bond in the maximum penal sum, the removal of such spirits may be made pursuant to a special Form 236, properly modified (in lieu of the regular Form 236 specified in § 171.63), to be executed by the distiller or warehouseman making the shipment: Provided, That the proprietor of the registered distillery or internal revenue bonded warehouse who is to receive unfinished spirits pursuant to such special Form 236 shall file a consent of surety, Form 1533, on his distillery bond, Form 30 or Form 30½, or his transportation and warehousing bond, Form 1571, as the case may be, extending the terms thereof to cover such transfers. The consent of surety shall be in substantially the following form:

> To extend the terms of said bond to assume liability for the payment of any tax that may become due on spirits withdrawn from registered distilleries or internal revenue bonded warehouses by the principal pursuant to special Form 236 under the provisions of section 2883 (d), Internal Revenue Code, and Treasury Decision 5132, as amended.

Parts 2 and 3 of the special Form 236 will not be executed by the District Supervisor. After Part 1 of the special Form 236 has been executed by the proprietor of the shipping distillery or warehouse, he will deliver the form to the storekeeper-gauger who will execute Part 4 thereof, and attach a copy of Form 1520 covering the gauge of the unfinished spirits to each copy of special Form 236. Thereafter the forms will be disposed of in accordance with existing regulations. (Secs. 2883 (d) and 3176, I. R. C.)

Subchapter D—Social Security and Carriers Taxes

[T.D. 5185]

PART 402—EMPLOYEES' TAX AND EMPLOYERS' TAX UNDER THE FEDERAL INSURANCE CONTRIBUTIONS ACT

EMPLOYMENT TAXES

Regulations 106 amended to conform to section 701 of the Revenue Act of 1942, postponing until January 1, 1944, the increase in rates of the taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act.

In order to conform Regulations 106 [Part 402, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Sup.], relating to the employees' tax and the employers' tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (subchapter A, chapter 9, Internal Revenue Code; 53 Stat. 175, 1381; 26 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1400 to 1432, inclusive), to section 701 of the Revenue Act of 1942, approved October 21, 1942, (Pub. Law 753, 77th Cong.), such regulations are amended as follows:

Paragraph 1. Immediately preceding § 402.301, relating to measure of employees' tax, the following is inserted:

Section 701 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1942

Clauses (1) and (2) of section 1400 of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1400) are amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to wages received during the calendar years 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942, and 1943, the rate shall be 1 per centum.

(2) With respect to wages received during the calendar years 1944 and 1945, the rate shall be 2 per centum.

Paragraph 2. § 402.302, relating to rates and computation of employees' tax, is amended to read as follows:

§ 402.302 Rates and computation of employees' tax. The rates of employees' tax applicable for the respective calendar years are as follows:

	Percent
For the calendar years 1940, 1941, 1942, and 1943	1
For the calendar years 1944 and 1945	2
For the calendar years 1946, 1947, and 1948	2½
For the calendar year 1949 and subsequent calendar years	3

The employees' tax is computed by applying to the wages received by the employee the rate in effect at the time such wages are received.

Example: During 1943 A is an employee of B and is engaged in the performance of services which constitute employment (see § 402.203). In the following year, 1944, A receives from B $1,000 as remuneration for services performed by A in the preceding year. The tax is payable at the 2 percent rate in effect for the calendar year 1944 (the year in which the wages are received), and not at the 1 percent rate which is in effect for the calendar year 1943 (the year in which the services were performed).

Paragraph 3. Immediately preceding § 402.401, relating to measure of employers' tax, the following is inserted:

Section 701 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1942

Clauses (1) and (2) of section 1410 of such Act [Federal Insurance Contributions Act] (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1410) are amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to wages paid during the calendar years 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942, and 1943, the rate shall be 1 per centum.

(2) With respect to wages paid during the calendar years 1944 and 1945, the rate shall be 2 per centum.

Paragraph 4. § 402.402, relating to rates and computation of employers' tax, is amended to read as follows:

§ 402.402 Rates and computation of employers' tax. The rates of employers' tax applicable for the respective calendar years are as follows:

	Percent
For the calendar years 1940, 1941, 1942, and 1943	1
For the calendar years 1944 and 1945	2
For the calendar years 1946, 1947, and 1948	2½
For the calendar year 1949 and subsequent calendar years	3

The employers' tax is computed by applying to the wages paid by the employer the rate in effect at the time such wages are paid.

Paragraph 5. The last paragraph of § 402.705, relating to special refunds of employees' tax on wages over $3,000, is amended by striking out "1942" and "1943" wherever they now appear therein, and by inserting in lieu thereof "1943" and "1944", respectively.

(This Treasury Decision is issued under the authority contained in section 1429 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 178; 26 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1429), and section 701 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Pub. Law 753—77th Cong.))

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1699]

PART 339—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 19

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 19 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the No. 11 Mine of the Union Pacific Coal Company.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the No. 11 Mine (Mine Index No. 243) of the Union Pacific Coal Company, for shipments by rail and for shipments by truck; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 339.4 (Code member price index) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-I, § 339.5 (General prices; minimum prices for shipment via rail transportation) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-II, and § 339.21 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth, and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

The price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the attached schedule marked Supplement R-I, R-II and T are based upon the price classifications and minimum prices in effect on October 1, 1942, for comparable and analogous coals and reflect the changes, if any, made in minimum prices by the Acting Director's order of August 28, 1942, 7 F.R. 6943, in General Docket No. 21.

Dated: November 12, 1942.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER,
Director.

TEMPORARY AND CONDITIONALLY FINAL EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR DISTRICT NO. 19

NOTE: The material contained in these supplements is to be read in the light of the classifications, prices, instructions, exceptions and other provisions contained in Part 339, Minimum Price Schedule for District No. 19, and supplements thereto.

FOR ALL SHIPMENTS EXCEPT TRUCK

The following price classification and minimum prices shall be inserted in Minimum Price Schedule for District No. 19:

§ 339.4 Code member price index—Supplement R-I. Insert the following listing in proper alphabetical order under Code Member Index:

Producer	Mine	Mine index No.	County	Shipping point	Subdistrict price group	Railroad	F. o. b. No.	Prices
								Rail	Truck
Union Pacific Coal Co., The.	No. 11	243	Sweetwater	Rock Springs, Wyo.	2	UP	70	§ 339. 5	§ 339.21

§ 339.5 General prices; minimum prices for shipment via rail transportation—Supplement R-II. The No. 11 Mine (Mine Index No. 243) of the Union Pacific Coal Co., shall be included in Subdistrict No. 2 in District No. 19, and the coals of that mine, in the respective size groups, shall be subject to the minimum f. o. b. mine prices for shipment via rail to all market areas, for all uses, that are presently in effect for the coals of the D. O. Clark Mine (Mine Index No. 5) of the Union Pacific Coal Co., in Subdistrict No. 2 in District No. 19.

FOR TRUCK SHIPMENTS

§ 339.21 General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas—Supplement T. Insert the following code members name, mine name, mine index number, and county under Subdistrict No. 2, and the following prices:

Code member mine	Mine index No.	County	Size groups

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

Part 1010—Suspension Orders

[Suspension Order S-158]

ALTHEN REALTY COMPANY, INC.

The Althen Realty Company, Inc., St. Louis, Missouri, is a real estate corporation engaged in the ownership and operation of various real properties in and around St. Louis, Missouri; and is the owner of two two-story buildings on Clifton Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri. On April 17, 1942, the Althen Realty Company, Inc., by its contractor, Fred Hof, St. Louis, Missouri, began construction on remodeling these two buildings into residential apartments at a cost of $12,774, without having obtained authorization from the War Production Board as required by Conservation Order L-41.

The beginning of construction without authorization by the Althen Realty Company, Inc., constituted a wilful violation of Conservation Order L-41, which has impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts: It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.158 Suspension Order S-158. (a) Deliveries of material to the Althen Realty Company, Inc., its successors and assigns shall not be accorded priority, directly or indirectly over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied directly or indirectly to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to the Althen Realty Company, Inc., its successors or assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is covered by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve the Althen Realty Company, Inc., from any restrictions, prohibition, or provision contained in any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order is to take effect December 1, 1942, and is to expire on March 1, 1943.

Issued this 28th day of November 1942.

Ernest Kanzler,
Director General for Operations.

Part 1010—Suspension Orders

[Suspension Order S-159]

FRED HOF

Fred Hof, St. Louis, Missouri, is an individual engaged in the general contracting business. On April 17, 1942, Fred Hof began construction under a contract with the Althen Realty Company, Inc., on remodeling two two-story buildings located on Clifton Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri, into residential apartments at a cost of $12,774, without having obtained authorization from the War Production Board as required by Conservation Order L-41.

The beginning of this construction by Fred Hof constituted a wilful violation of Conservation Order L-41 which has impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts: It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.159 Suspension Order No. S-159. (a) Deliveries of material to Fred Hof, his successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority directly or indirectly, over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned or applied directly or indirectly to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Fred Hof, his successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is covered by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Fred Hof from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations, or the Director General for Operations except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order is to take effect on December 1, 1942, and is to expire June 1, 1943, at which time restrictions contained in this order are to be of no further effect.

Issued this 28th day of November 1942.

Part 1010—Suspension Orders

[Suspension Order S-161]

M. E. SWING COMPANY

E. M. Swing is the sole proprietor of the wholesale and retail coffee business known as the M. E. Swing Company located at 1013 E Street NW., Washington, D. C., and is a roaster, as defined in Conservation Order M-135.

During the month of October, 1942, said E. M. Swing sold 28,250 pounds of roasted coffee in excess of the quota permitted under the terms of Supplementary Order M-135-c. This constituted a wilful violation of said order.

Prior to November 19, 1942, said E. M. Swing failed to maintain adequate and complete records concerning his inventories of and transactions in coffee. This constituted a violation of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

E. M. Swing has failed to file reports with the War Production Board on Form PD-533 as required by Conservation Order No. M-135.

These violations of Supplementary Order M-135-c and Conservation Order No. M-135 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.161 Suspension Order S-161. (a) E. M. Swing, doing business as the M. E. Swing Company, 1013 E Street NW., Washington, D. C., his successors and assigns, shall not deliver more than 30,000 pounds of roasted coffee during any calendar month.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve E. M. Swing, doing business as M. E. Swing Company, from any restrictions, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order is to take effect on December 1, 1942, and shall terminate on March 31, 1943, after which latter date this order shall have no further force and effect.

Issued this 28th day of November 1942.

Ernest Kanzler,
Director General for Operations.

Part 1010—Suspension Orders

[Suspension Order S-163]

STERLING PRODUCTS, INC.

Sterling Products, Inc., Newark, New Jersey, is a manufacturer of steel beds which are sold to domestic purchasers. Subsequent to August 3, 1942, the Company assembled a substantial number of beds from steel parts although it was aware that Conservation Order M-126 prohibited the assembling of any beds containing steel at that time.

This constituted a wilful violation of Conservation Order M-126 which has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.163 Suspension Order S-163. (a) Sterling Products, Inc., its successors and assigns, shall not sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any beds containing iron or steel, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations: Provided, however, That Sterling Products, Inc., may deliver or transfer such beds for the purpose of storing the same for its own account.

(b) For a period of six months from the effective date of this order, deliveries of material to Sterling Products, Inc., its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries to Sterling Products, Inc., by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) For a period of six months from the effective date of this order, no allocation shall be made to Sterling Products, Inc., its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Sterling Products, Inc., from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect November 30, 1942.

Part 1010—Suspension Orders

[Suspension Order S-165]

NEW ENGLAND BRIAR PIPE COMPANY

New England Briar Pipe Company, a corporation with a principal place of business in West New York, New Jersey, and a factory at Penacook, New Hampshire, is engaged in manufacturing and selling briar pipes and nail polish brushes. It has been accustomed to manufacture its brush handles and the extensions on its pipes from aluminum. Between January 23, 1942 and May 13, 1942 it used at least 6,000 pounds of aluminum coils and strips for this purpose in violation of Supplementary Conservation Order M-1-e. During this period the official in charge of its operations was familiar with the priorities system in general and with the fact that since the spring of 1941, increasingly stringent restrictions on the use of critical materials such as aluminum were being imposed. In continuing the use of aluminum as late as May, 1942, without making any attempt to ascertain whether the use of aluminum for such obviously non-essential purposes was prohibited, it acted so recklessly that its violations must be considered as wilful.

The foregoing violations of War Production Board Orders have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing: It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.165 Suspension Order S-165. (a) Deliveries of material to New England Briar Pipe Company, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to New England Briar Pipe Company, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve New England Briar Pipe Company from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect November 30, 1942, and shall expire March 30, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Part 3146—Garment Leather

[General Conservation Order M-265]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of leather for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3146.1 General Conservation Order No. M-265—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Cattlehide" means the hide or skin of bulls, steers and cows, whether native or branded, foreign or domestic, including calf and kipskins (but excluding slunks) and shall also include buffalo hides.

(2) "Goatskin" means the skin of the goat, including an India tanned goatskin.

(3) "Kidskin" means the skin of the young goat.

(4) "Garment leather" means leather to be incorporated into jackets, jerkins, doublets, vests, coats and other similar articles of apparel.

(5) "Military order" means an order for products to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, the Marine Corps, the War Shipping Administration, the governments of Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Iceland, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, Turkey, United Kingdom, including its Dominions, Crown Colonies and Protectorates, or Yugoslavia, or the governments of any country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States". (Lend-Lease Act.)

(6) "Civilian order" means any order except a military order.

(c) Restriction on processing of garment leather. No tanner shall put into process for garment leather, or continue to process, any cattlehides, goatskins or kidskins (other than cattlehide splits) except to the extent required to fill military orders.

This restriction shall not apply to any cattlehides, goatskins or kidskins which have reached a stage in the process on the date of this order where they cannot be made into leather suitable for any other purpose.

(d) Restriction upon sales and deliveries of garment leather made from cattlehides, goatskins and kidskins. No tanner or converter shall sell or deliver any leather made from cattlehides, goatskins or kidskins (other than cattlehide splits) against any civilian order for garment leather if such leather is suitable for filling any of his military orders.

(e) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(f) Reports. Each person affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as may be required by said Board from time to time.

(g) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, purchases, production and sales.

(h) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports, applications, forms or communications required under or referred to in this order, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: M-265.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or who furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority assistance.

(j) Expiration Date. This order shall expire on December 31, 1942.

Issued this 28th day of November 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of rubber and balata for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 940.3 General Limitation Order M-15-b—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Crude rubber" means all forms and types of crude rubber (including crepe rubber for soles or any other purpose) but does not mean or include balata, gutta-percha, gutta siak, gutta jelutong, pontianac, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or latex.

(2) "Latex" means the rubber solids contained in liquid latex in crude form, and in compounded liquid latex (but not the rubber solids in shoe adhesives and container sealing compounds).

(3) "Scrap rubber product" means any finished rubber product or part thereof, made in whole or in part from crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, scrap rubber or reclaimed rubber, which through wear, deterioration or obsolescence has served its primary purpose in its present state, but does not mean or include a repairable tire, treadable tire or any other manufactured product which is still usable for the primary purpose for which it was designed.

(4) "In-process scrap" means any material which is produced in the course of manufacture (including the repair, retreading or recapping of tires), and any defective or factory rejected materials or products which are not usable for the primary purpose for which they were designed and which contain any crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, scrap rubber or reclaimed rubber, including all types and grades of residues, such as cuttings, trimmings, tuber heads, flash, cut edgings, sweepings, dust, buffings, sawings, grindings, drippings and any other form of rubber whether vulcanized or unvulcanized, which results from or is incident to the processing of crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, scrap rubber or reclaimed rubber in the manufacture or repair of any product, but does not mean or include uncured friction scrap, reclaimed rubber or any finished rubber products.

(5) "Uncured friction scrap" means any scrap rubber which contains fabric and which is produced in the manufacture of tires, hose or belting before such products are finally vulcanized.

(6) "Scrap rubber" means and includes any scrap rubber product, in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap.

(7) "Reclaimed rubber" means any vulcanizable material derived from the processing or treatment of scrap rubber.

(8) "Repairable tire" means a pneumatic tire or tire casing which has sufficient tread design or under tread to warrant repair for use for the purpose for which it was primarily designed. For the purposes of this definition:

(i) "Repair" means a vulcanized sectional repair, or vulcanized reinforcement or vulcanized spot repair which can be accomplished in accordance with recognized commercial practice and which can be reasonably expected to render satisfactory service under limited operating conditions (speed under 40 MPH and no overload) so that the tire when repaired will be in a safe condition for service.

(ii) The tread and sidewall must not be severely weather checked or cracked to the extent that the tire has more than two radial cracks which extend through the cord body.

(iii) The cord body:

(a) Must not have separation between plies.

(b) Must not have been damaged to the extent that cords are pulled loose beyond the first inside ply.

(c) Must not have any fabric injuries that exceed one-half the cross-sectional diameter of the tire. Example—Injuries in 600/16 (6 inch) tires must not be more than three inches long on the inside of the tire: in 10.00/20 tires not more than five inches.

(d) Must not have or show evidence of having had more than three injuries requiring sectional repairs.

(e) Must not have injuries below any point where the top of the rim flange makes contact with the tire.

(f) Must not have or exhibit circumferential or flex breaks on the inside ply.

(g) Bead area must be sound with no broken wires.

(9) "Treadable tire" means a pneumatic tire or tire casing which warrants repair and retreading or recapping for the purpose for which it was primarily designed in accordance with recognized commercial practice, and which can reasonably be expected to render satisfactory service under limited operating conditions (speed under 40 MPH and no overload). For the purpose of this definition:

(i) The cord body:

(a) Must not be worn through more than one body ply for a total length of more than four inches on four ply tires.

(b) Must not be worn through more than two plies for a total length of more than four inches on tires of six plies or more.

(c) Must not have or show evidence of having had more than two injuries each not exceeding one-third the cross-sectional diameter of the tire. Example—Breaks in 600/16 (6 inch) tire must not be more than two inches long on the inside of the tire: 900/20 (9 inch) tires not more than three inches long.

(d) Must not have more than three radial cracks of more than one inch in length extending to the cord body.

(ii) The tire must in all other respects than specified in this paragraph (a) (9) conform to the requirements of a repairable tire.

(10) "Scrap consumer" means any person who consumes scrap rubber in the manufacture of any finished or partly finished product or material, and includes any person producing reclaimed rubber from scrap rubber, but does not include any person who separates scrap rubber or tears, splits or pulls scrap rubber apart (such as splitting tires) for the purpose of selling the component parts thereof to Rubber Reserve Company or to a scrap dealer.

(11) "Scrap dealer" means any person (other than a scrap consumer) buying, selling or collecting scrap rubber.

(12) "Synthetic rubber" means any of the varieties of compositions generally known as synthetic rubber, including, but not limited to, butadiene types, chloroprene, organic polysulfids and butyl.

(13) "Balata" means any of the gums of recognized commercial grades having a gutta hydrocarbon base and a high resin content, procured from wild forest trees of the Mimusops genus and closely related genera generally found in South and Central America from the Amazon Valley north through Panama, and includes such gums whether in crude or refined (deresinated or partly deresinated) form; but does not mean or include scrap balata or reclaimed balata.

(14) "Inventory" means crude rubber, latex, scrap rubber, reclaimed rubber or balata, or products thereof, in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished parts or sub-assemblies.

(15) "Consume" means to use, process, stamp, cut, or in any manner make any substantial change in the form, shape or chemical composition of any crude rubber, latex, scrap rubber, reclaimed rubber or balata.

(16) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(17) "War order" means:

(i) Any contract or purchase order for material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, or the Office of Scientific Research and Development, but not to or for the account of any post exchange, ship's store, commissary, officer's mess, officers', non-commissioned officers' or enlisted men's club, or any similar agency or organization.

(ii) Any contract or purchase order placed by any agency of the United States for material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of, any foreign country under the provisions of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(iii) Any contract or purchase order for material or equipment required by the person placing the same to fill his contracts or purchase orders on hand, provided such material or equipment is to be physically incorporated in material or equipment to be delivered under contracts or purchase orders included under (i) and (ii) of this paragraph (a) (17).

(b) Restrictions on consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata—(1) Crude rubber. Crude rubber may be consumed only:

(i) To fill war orders; but only in the manufacture of those products set forth in Schedule I attached to this order.

(ii) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-A attached to this order; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations:

(2) Latex. Latex may be consumed only:

(i) To fill war orders; but only in the manufacture of those products set forth in Schedule I attached to this order.

(ii) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-B attached to this order; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations.

(3) Reclaimed rubber. Reclaimed rubber may be consumed only:

(i) To fill war orders; but only in the manufacture of those products set forth in Schedule I attached to this order.

(ii) To manufacture those products set forth in Schedules II-A or II-B attached to this order and not set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order; but only where special authorization for the consumption of crude rubber or latex to manufacture such products has been issued by the Director General for Operations.

(iii) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order which are also set forth in Schedule II-A or Schedule II-B attached to this order, whether or not mixed or compounded with crude rubber, latex or scrap rubber; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations for the consumption of the respective amounts of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber to be consumed.

(iv) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order and not set forth in Schedules II-A or II-B attached to this order; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations.

(4) Scrap rubber. Scrap rubber may be consumed only:

(i) To fill war orders; but only in the manufacture of those products set forth in Schedule I attached to this order.

(ii) To manufacture those products set forth in Schedule II-A or II-B attached to this order and not set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order; but only where special authorization for the consumption of crude rubber or latex to manufacture such products has been issued by the Director General for Operations.

(iii) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order which are also set forth in Schedule II-A or Schedule II-B attached to this order, whether or not mixed or compounded with crude rubber, latex or reclaimed rubber; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations for the consumption of the respective amounts of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber to be consumed.

(iv) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order and not set forth in Schedule II-A or II-B attached to this order; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations.

(v) To manufacture reclaimed rubber.

(vi) As to in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap generated after March 31, 1942, by the person who generated such in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap; but only in the manufacture of any products of the group (as set forth in said Schedules II-A, II-B and II-C) in which is listed the product in connection with which such in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap was generated. In such case the in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap consumed shall not be charged against his quota or allotment of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber for making products of that group. Any person may consume in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap whether generated by him or not, in the manufacture of any products not so listed in the same group when, but only when, he has received from the Director General for Operations an authorization to consume reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture of such other group of products, and in such event the in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap consumed shall be within the limits of such authorization and shall be charged against his quota or allotment of reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber for manufacturing such other group of products.

(5) Balata. Balata shall be consumed only:

(i) To manufacture self-sealing fuel cells to fill war orders.

(ii) For such other purposes as may be permitted by special authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(c) General provisions—(1) Distribution of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata among plants. Each company (which term when used in this subparagraph shall include any corporation together with all other corporations controlling, and all other corporations controlled by, such corporation) which is a processor of crude rubber, latex, scrap rubber, reclaimed rubber or balata and which operates plants in more than one community (all plants operated by the same company in the same community being herein collectively referred to as a "unit"), shall immediately upon distributing crude rubber, latex, scrap rubber, reclaimed rubber or balata during any calendar month among its units in proportions differing from the proportional distribution throughout such units during July, 1941, file with the Rubber and Rubber Products Branch of the War Production Board, a full report thereof showing clearly the reasons for such change in proportional distribution throughout its units. In any case in which it appears that such change in ratio was not justified or proper, the Director General for Operations may take such action as he deems appropriate.

(2) Manufacture according to specifications. Any of the products or materials whose manufacture is permitted by this order or by special authorization of the Director General for Operations shall be manufactured only in conformity with specifications now or hereafter set forth in lists attached to § 940.5 Supplementary Order M–15–b–1 or such other specifications as may be issued by the Director General for Operations; provided that until specifications for particular products or groups of products are issued by the Director General for Operations, the crude rubber, latex or balata content by weight of any such products manufactured by any person shall not exceed the respective crude rubber, latex or balata content by weight of similar products manufactured by such person on the most recent date prior to September 1, 1942, on which he manufactured such products.

(3) Limitation on consumption to fill war orders. No person shall consume more crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata to fill any war order than is required for delivery within sixty days from the date such crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata is consumed under the delivery dates specified in the purchase order placed with him.

(4) Limitation of inventories. No person other than Rubber Reserve Company shall purchase, accept delivery of or otherwise acquire any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or balata or products thereof, or any products of scrap rubber, in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished products or parts or subassemblies in quantities which shall result in such person having an inventory of such material or products in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory, taking into consideration the limitations placed by this order on the production of products made of crude rubber, latex, balata, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber. An inventory of crude rubber, latex or balata which can reasonably be expected to last more than sixty days, or of reclaimed rubber which can reasonably be expected to last more than forty-five days, shall be deemed to be in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory. The limitation on inventories imposed by this paragraph (c) (4) and by § 944.14 (Priorities Regulation No. 1) as amended, shall not apply to inventories of reclaimed rubber held or acquired by persons engaged in the business of reclaiming rubber but who are not consumers of reclaimed rubber, it being contemplated that persons engaged in the business of reclaiming rubber (but not consumers of reclaimed rubber) may accumulate such inventories of reclaimed rubber as they may deem advisable.

(5) Restriction on the acquisition of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata. No person other than Rubber Reserve Company shall purchase, accept delivery of or otherwise acquire any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata for any purpose except for the purpose of consuming the same in the manufacture of a product or products for which such material may be consumed under the provisions of this order or under special authorization of the Director General for Operations, provided that nothing in this order shall prevent any scrap dealer from acquiring scrap rubber in the usual course of his business for the purpose of selling the same to another scrap dealer or to Rubber Reserve Company.

(6) Restriction on the sale of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and balata. No person shall sell, trade or transfer the ownership of any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or balata, and no person shall accept any such sale, trade or transfer of ownership, except (i) as may be expressly permitted by regulations prescribed by Rubber Reserve Company, or (ii) in those cases in which special authorizations may be issued by the Director General for Operations; provided that nothing in this paragraph (c) (6) shall be deemed to prohibit the sale of unvulcanized rubber products or products made from balata which were in finished or marketable form on December 11, 1941, or which have become finished and marketable at any time after that date pursuant to processing not prohibited by any orders or other instructions heretofore or hereafter issued by the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations.

(7) General restrictions on the purchase and sale of scrap rubber. Except (i) as may be expressly permitted by regulations prescribed by Rubber Reserve Company, or (ii) in those cases in which special authorizations may be issued by the Director General for Operations:

(a) No person other than Rubber Reserve Company shall sell, trade or transfer the ownership or possession of any scrap rubber to any scrap consumer.

(b) No scrap consumer shall purchase, receive or accept delivery of any scrap rubber, or the right to receive any scrap rubber, from any person other than Rubber Reserve Company.

(c) No scrap consumer shall sell, trade or transfer the ownership or possession of any scrap rubber to any person, including any scrap dealer.

Provided, That the prohibitions of this paragraph (c) (7) shall not apply to any transfer or delivery of scrap rubber from one location to another location controlled by the same person where no change of ownership takes place, or to any purchase or sale by any corporation from or to another corporation which is its subsidiary or of which it is a subsidiary, of any in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap generated by the corporation making such sale or transfer, and any such sale shall be expressly permitted within the terms of paragraph (c) (2) (iii) of Priorities Regulation No. 13 (Part 944). For the purposes hereof a corporation shall be deemed to be a subsidiary of another corporation if all or substantially all of its voting stock is owned by such other corporation.

(8) Restriction on the destruction of tires and scrap rubber. No person shall destroy, damage, cut or tear apart any tire, tire casing or tire tube or any scrap rubber, whether by burning or any other means and whether for the purpose of making or repairing products or materials from or with all or any of its constituent parts; provided that this restriction shall not apply to the following:

(i) The consumption of any scrap rubber in the manufacture of any product for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be consumed under the provisions of this order or under special authorization of the Director General for Operations; but subject to such limitations as to quantities, specifications and other restrictions as may be imposed by this order or such special authorization.

(ii) The consumption of any scrap rubber by any person producing reclaimed rubber as a necessary incident to such reclaiming operations.

(iii) The destruction of any scrap rubber (without destroying the rubber therein) for the purpose of selling its component parts to a scrap dealer for resale by him either (a) to Rubber Reserve Company, or (b) under rules or regulations prescribed from time to time by Rubber Reserve Company.

(iv) The destruction of the following articles when through obsolescence, use or deterioration the articles have entirely served their usefulness in their present state:

(a) Used battery containers and separators and parts thereof.

(b) Rough bore (metal reinforced) oil suction and discharge hose and hose containing asbestos combined with rubber.

(c) Wire cord generally classed as lamp cord and similar wire cords (but not other insulated wire or rubber covered cable).

(d) That part of rubber bonded to metal which cannot be separated from the metal by mechanical means.

(g) Metal-inserted running boards.

(h) Gasoline pump hose.

(i) Friction tape and adhesive tape (except in-process scrap).

(j) Burnt rubber all of which has been exposed to open flame (but not scorched rubber compounds).

(k) Gasket compounds containing cork.

(v) Ordinary wear and tear incident to the normal use of any article for the primary purpose for which it was designed.

(9) Restriction on regrooving tires. No person shall regroove the tread or tread surface of any tire or tire casing, whether by cutting, scraping, grinding, burning, heating, remolding or any other means.

(10) Restriction on splitting camelback and capping stock. No person shall split, cut, tear or otherwise separate any camelback or capping stock in such manner that there will result camelback or capping stock of gauges other than 10/32, 12/32, 14/32, 16/32, 18/32, 20/32, 22/32 inches and larger.

(11) Reports covering war orders. No person shall consume any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber to fill any war order until he has forwarded to the Rubber and Rubber Products Division of the War Production Board a report on Form PD–330, or such other form for reporting war orders as may be prescribed by the Director General for Operations. Upon forwarding such report, such person may proceed to fill the war order covered by the report unless notified to the contrary by the Director General for Operations.

(12) Prohibited products for other than war orders. Except to fill war orders, no person shall consume any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture of any of the products for which the consumption of such material is prohibited by Schedule III attached to this order, even though the consumption of such material would otherwise be permitted under any of the broader provisions, classifications or groupings of this order or under any of the other schedules attached to this order.

(13) Prohibited products for war orders. Unless permitted by special authorization of the Director General for Operations, no person shall (i) consume any crude rubber or latex in the manufacture or assembly of any of the products or materials set forth in Groups A and B of Schedule IV attached to this order for delivery to fill any war order; or (ii) consume any reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture or assembly of any of the products or materials set forth in Group B of said Schedule IV for delivery to fill any war order.

(14) Index of permitted and prohibited products. Schedule V is attached to this order for the convenience of the industry. This schedule constitutes an index of the products for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed, and those for which these materials may not be consumed, and contains appropriate cross-references to the other schedules in which such products are mentioned.

(15) Restriction on the importation of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata and products thereof. No person other than Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, Rubber Reserve Company or any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, or any agent acting for one of them, shall, except as authorized or otherwise directed in writing by the Director General for Operations, purchase for import, import, offer to purchase for import, receive, or offer to receive on consignment for import, or make any contract or other arrangement for the importing of, any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata, whether in crude, partly processed or processed form, or any finished or partly finished product or material made from any of the foregoing. For the purpose hereof "import" means to transport into continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States, and shall include a release from the bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs; and products or materials shall be deemed to be made from crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata if at least ten per cent of the weight of such products or materials was made from crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata or from any one or more of them. The restriction of this paragraph (c) (15) shall not apply to the importation by any person during any calendar month of products or materials (except tires, tire casings and tire tubes) which contain an aggregate of not more than twenty-five pounds of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata provided such products or materials are not imported for the purpose of manufacturing, processing, sale or resale.

(16) Restriction on consumption of rubber products and materials. No person shall use or consume any finished or partly finished product or material containing in the aggregate more than ten per cent by weight of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber, to manufacture for sale to others any other products for which he has not received an authorization from the Director General for Operations to consume crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber. In any case in which any such product or material is used pursuant to any such authorization, it shall be chargeable to such person's quota of reclaimed rubber and/or scrap rubber for the manufacture of such permitted products.

(17) Finished item deliveries. No person shall sell, transfer or deliver, or purchase or accept or accept transfer or delivery of, any item which he knows or has reason to know was fabricated, assembled or delivered in violation of any applicable provision of this order as amended from time to time.

(18) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(19) Applications for authorizations to consume crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber. Each person who wishes to consume any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber at any time subsequent to October 1, 1942 to manufacture any of the products or groups of products listed in Schedules II–A, II–B and II–C attached to this order, shall file with the Rubber and Rubber Products Division of the War Production Board an application on Form PD–407. Such application shall be filed not later than the tenth day of the month preceding the calendar month during which such person wishes to consume crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber.

(20) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by transmitting to the Rubber and Rubber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., an appeal on Form PD–500–b. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(21) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply to the use of material in all articles hereafter manufactured irrespective of whether such articles are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to the effective date hereof, or pursuant to a contract supported by a preference rating. Insofar as any other order of the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations heretofore or hereafter issued may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the use of crude rubber, latex, scrap rubber, reclaimed rubber or balata in the production of any article, the limitations of such other order shall be observed.

(22) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities' assistance.

(23) Communications. All reports required to be filed under this order, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Rubber and Rubber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M–15–b.

(24) General reports. Any person who, during any calendar month, consumes, ships or stocks any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata, or who, on the last day of any calendar month, has in his possession any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata, shall, not later than the fifteenth day of the succeeding month, file with the Rubber and Rubber Products Division of the War Production Board a report on the appropriate form PD–49, PD–322 or such other form or forms as may be prescribed from time to time.

(25) Outstanding special instructions. No unrevoked special instruction (i. e., instruction issued by individual letter or telegram and not by general order) issued prior to September 1, 1942 by the Director of Priorities, Director of Industry Operations or Director General for Operations, which (i) authorizes the consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber within a specified period or prior to a specified date, or (ii) forbids or restricts the consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber, is revoked or rescinded by this revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b.' All such unrevoked instructions shall remain in effect unless hereafter specifically rescinded or revoked by the Director General for Operations.

Issued this 30th day of November 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director of Operations.

SCHEDULE I

Products for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed to fill war orders. (See paragraphs (b)(1)(i), (b)(2)(i), (b)(3)(i) and (b)(4)(i) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b)

Pending the issuance of a list of products for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be required to fill war orders, to be set forth in a revised Schedule I, crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed to manufacture any product to fill any war order, unless the consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber in the manufacture of such product is prohibited by paragraph (c)(13) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b and Schedule IV attached thereto or by special direction of the Director General for Operations.

SCHEDULE II–A

Products for which crude rubber may be consumed upon authorizations issued from time to time by the Director General for Operations. (See paragraph (b)(1)(ii) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b.)

Any authorization to consume crude rubber to manufacture any group of products set forth in this Schedule II–A also authorizes the manufacture from the quota or allotment of crude rubber for that group of cements necessary to the manufacture (but not the use or application) of such products. No crude rubber shall be consumed to manufacture cements for the use or application of products of any group set forth in this Schedule II–A unless permitted by special authorization of the Director General for Operations.

Group 1

Compounds for insulating wire and cable

Group 2

Cable splicing compound

Group 3

Belt splicing and repair material
Last puller belts
Polishing belts
Screen diaphragms designed for paper making equipment

Group 4

Conveyor and elevator belting

Group 5

Flat transmission belts
Hog beater belts

Group 6

Industrial brake lining and clutch facings

Group 7

V-belts

Group 8

Acid hose
Air drill hose
Cement handling hose, including cement grouting, concrete placing and cement and dry material hose
Chemical hose
Divers' hose
Dredging sleeves
Expansion joint hose
Flexible couplings
Flanged flexible hose
Grease gun hose
Gasoline and oil tank wagon hose (not including curb pump hose)
Hydraulic control hose
Industrial vacuum hose, including dust collector, blower or exhaust hose
Jetting and hydraulic hose, including arbor pipe forming and phosphate flexible hose
Milk conveying hose
Oil suction and discharge hose
Paint spray hose
Pinch valve hose
Pneumatic hose
Railroad hose (all types)
Rotary driller's hose
Sand blast hose
Sanitary hose
Spray hose (designed for working pressures of 300# per square inch and over)
Steam hose
Suction hose
Welding hose

Group 9

Hard rubber pipe and fittings (industrial only)
Rubber buckets, pails, dippers, funnels, measures, bottles, beakers, frames, baskets, racks, trays (designed for handling corrosive materials and explosives)
Rubber insulated fume-ducts, fans, racks, frames, trays, screens, pipe, buckets, pails, dippers, agitators, funnels and measures (designed for handling corrosive materials and explosives)
Rubber pumps
Rubber lining designed for blowers, exhausters and pumps
Rubber valves and valve parts (except tire tube valves)

Group 10

Rubber lined tanks, drums, pipes and fittings (hard and soft)

Group 11

Rubber covered rolls and roll coverings (except domestic washing machine wringer, printers', fingerprint and business machine rolls)

Group 12

Press die pads

Group 13

Loom pickers

Group 14

Storage battery parts, (including only separators, retainers, binding strips, element support rods, tie rods, and hand-built jars and hand-built containers, but not including hand-built jars and containers designed for radio, farm lighting, mine safety and automotive S. L. I.)

Group 15

Hard rubber sheets, rods and tubing (designed for dielectric purposes)
Insulated tools
Magneto parts
Molded cable connectors and terminal blocks (designed for dielectric purposes)

Group 16

Mine safety battery parts
Mine safety lamp parts, excepting insulated wire
Respirators, hose masks, gas masks, goggles, inhalators, excepting headharness (mining and industrial types)

Group 17

Sheet, strip and mechanical packings

Group 18

Oil well specialties (including only packers, testing, lining bumper and swab rubbers; blow-out preventors; drill pipe protectors; stabilizers; slush pump pistons and liners; mud and oil pump pistons, liners, valves and parts; valve cups; strippers; stuffing box rings)

Group 19

Industrial abrasive implements

Group 20

Airplane de-icer parts
Card clothing
Gas main bags
Gaskets and washers for hose
Lineman's protective devices (including only line hose, insulator hoods, blankets, cable end test caps and separators, cable bandages, lineman's sleeves and insulating stools)
Mine ventilating tubing
Molded seals for dam and lock gates

Group 21

Component parts (not elsewhere listed but not including sponge) of machinery for the processing and fabricating of raw and semi-finished materials and for the transmission of mechanical power (except as specifically prohibited in Schedule III attached to Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b)

Group 22

Pipe coupling rings

Group 23

Fire and mill hose

Group 24

Milk and milking machine equipment consisting of:
  Couplings for pasteurizers and milk bottle and can washers
Gaskets for milk separators and clarifiers
Milk bottle filler rubbers
Milking machine inflations and tubing

Group 25

Box die gum, rubber die gum and rubber type gum, designed for industrial marking devices only

Group 26

Engravers' rubber (excluding rubber stamps, box dies, band daters and toy stamps)

Group 27

Printing plates (excluding rubber stamps, box dies, band daters and toy stamps)

Group 28

Cutting rubbers
Finger print rolls and finger print rubber
Offset and newspaper blankets
Printers' rollers
Rubber solution for wet plate negatives
Suction cups for printers' equipment

Group 29

Automotive parts consisting of the following only:
  Air brake and vacuum brake parts, excepting boots and linings
  Air brake and vacuum brake hose
  Hydraulic brake cylinder parts, excepting boots and linings
  Hydraulic brake hose
  Hydraulic clutch and throttle controls
  Pitman arm bushings for independent suspensions
  Remote control gearshift bushings
  Sealed beam gaskets
  Shock absorber bushings
  Steering post alignment bushings
  Suspension and torque arm bushings
  Steering box-to-frame pads for independent suspensions
  Torsional vibration dampers
  Windshield wiper blades and pivot to housing gaskets
  Engine, transmission and propeller center bearing mountings

Group 30

Pneumatic, solid and cushion tires, (including tubes, flaps, airbags and valves) of the following types only:
  Passenger
  Truck and bus
  Special purpose of the following types only: low platform trailer, rock service, earthmover, road builder and road grader
  Industrial Motorcycle Airplane

Group 31

Camelback, capping stock, filler strip, stripping stock, cushion stock, lug stock, and base stock for retreading and recapping tires

Group 32

Full circle and sectional airbags designed for recapping, retreading and repairing tires

Group 33

Tire and tube repair materials (including only cushion stock, tread repair stock, cord friction, square woven fabric friction, repair patches, and tube repair gum)

Group 34

Rubber footwear designed for severe industrial use, including rubber boots, mine pacs, and work shoes all with plain or steel toes

Group 35

Rubber footwear (other than that listed in Group 34), including rubber boots, arctics, gaiters, and light and heavy rubbers

Group 36

Diaphragms designed for regulating the flow of fluids
Tank balls designed for flush valves
Bibb washers
Fuller balls
Ball cock washers

Group 37

Autopsy and mortuary gloves
Industrial all rubber gloves and industrial net-lined gloves and industrial finger cots

Group 38

Electricians' gloves

Group 39

Brain surgery caps
Colostomy outfits
Denture suctions and model formers
Dilators
Finger cots (medical, surgical, dental, veterinary, mortuary and laboratory types only)
Orthodontia bands
Parts for medical, surgical, dental, veterinary and mortuary instruments
Prostatic bags
Rubber bands and cushions designed for artificial limbs
Tubes and tubing (except fountain syringe lengths), including catheters, stopples, and rubber policemen (medical, surgical, dental, mortuary, veterinary and laboratory types only)
Urinals designed for individual wear
Vaccine caps
X-ray sheets, gloves, aprons and cooling hose

Group 40

Surgical tape, medicated footpads and plasters

Group 41

Breast pumps
Bulbs (medical, surgical, dental, veterinary, mortuary and laboratory types only)
Medicine droppers
Water bottles and combination syringes

Group 42

Ice bags
Metatarsal cushions or pads (not parts of shoes)
Pneumatic truss pads
Truss pad covers

Group 43

Acoustic aids (soft rubber parts only) designed for individual hearing instruments and audiometers

Group 44

Hard rubber pipes, connections and accessories (medical, surgical, dental, veterinary and mortuary types only)

Group 45

Tubing, fountain syringe lengths

Group 46

Blood pressure bags
Dental dam
Dental separating strips and mouth props
Denture rubber
Inhalation bags and face pieces, not including oxygen tents (medical, surgical, dental and veterinary types only)
Invalid rings, but not including sponge rubber rings
Operating cushions, but not including sponge rubber cushions
Tourniquets

Group 47

Hospital sheeting

Group 48

Feeding nipples

Group 49

Pessaries and prophylactics

Group 50

Surgeons' gloves (medical, surgical, dental and veterinary types only)

Group 51

Meteorological balloons

Group 52

Cements designed for the repair, use or application of products permitted to be manufactured from crude rubber by Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b, except cements for use in the manufacture of such products, except shoe adhesives

Group 53

Commercial diving equipment

Group 54

Compounds designed for seaming protective clothing other than footwear and gloves

Group 55

Abrasive sand blasting helmets and clothing

Group 56

Conductive soles, taps and heels

Group 57

Shoe cements

Group 58

Lifesaving suits

Group 59

Compounds designed for sealing cans made of tinplate, blackplate or terneplate
Rings and compounds for sealing glass containers

Group 60

Blended compounds or mixtures designed for laboratory testing

Group 61

Vacuum cleaner belts

Group 62

Airplane equipment not elsewhere listed

Group 63

Molding bags

Group 64

Street car wheel sandwich rings

Group 65

Vibration dampers

SCHEDULE II–B

Products for which latex may be consumed upon authorizations issued from time to time by the Director General for Operations. (See paragraph (b) (2) (ii) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b)

Any authorization to consume latex to manufacture any group of products set forth in this Schedule II–B also authorizes the manufacture from the quota or allotment of latex for that group of cements necessary to the manufacture (but not the use or application) of such products. No latex shall be consumed to manufacture cements for the use or application of products of any group set forth in this Schedule II–B unless permitted by special authorization of the Director General for Operations.

Group 1

Colostomy outfits
Finger cots (medical, surgical, dental, mortuary and veterinary types only)
Prostatic bags
Prosthetic devices
Tubes and tubing (except fountain syringe lengths), including catheters (medical, surgical, dental, mortuary, veterinary and laboratory types only)
Urinals designed for individual wear

Group 2

Blood pressure bags
Inhalation bags, and face pieces, not including oxygen tents (medical, surgical, dental and veterinary types only)
Veterinary sleeves

Group 3

Industrial rubberized fabric gloves designed for handling corrosive and severely abrasive materials

Group 4

Electricians' gloves

Group 5

Dental dam

Group 6

Autopsy and mortuary gloves
Industrial all rubber gloves and industrial net-lined gloves and industrial finger cots

Group 7

Meteorological balloons

Group 8

Feeding nipples

Group 9

Pessaries and prophylactics

Group 10

Surgeons' gloves (medical, surgical, dental and veterinary types only)

Group 11

Compounds designed for sealing glass containers and cans made of tinplate, blackplate or terneplate

Group 12

Shoe cements

Group 13

Latex insulation for fume ducts, fans, racks, frames, trays, screens, pipes and fittings, buckets, dippers, funnels, measures, drums, pumps, valves, baskets, concave rollers and agitators (designed for handling corrosive materials)

Group 14

Flat transmission belts
Round transmission belts
V-belts

Group 15

Mine ventilating tubing

Group 16

Industrial abrasive implements

Group 17

Blended compounds or mixtures designed for laboratory testing

Group 18

Tire cord dip

SCHEDULE II–C

Products for which reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed upon authorizations issued from time to time by the Director General for Operations. (See paragraphs (b) (3) (iii) and (b) (4) (iii) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b)

Any authorization to consume reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber to manufacture any group of products set forth in this Schedule II–C also authorizes the manufacture from the quota or allotment of reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber for that group of cements necessary to the manufacture (but not the use or application) of such products. No reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber shall be consumed to manufacture cements for the use or application of products of any group set forth in this Schedule II–C unless permitted by special authorization of the Director General for Operations.

Group 1

Adhesives designed for fabricating steel wool, curled hair or fibre pads for surgical corrective appliances

Group 2

Adhesives for seaming bags and bagging
Gaskets and compounds for sealing jars, tumblers, cans, drums and pails

Group 3

Athletic equipment, consisting of the following only:
  Basketball bladders
  Football bladders
  Punching bag bladders
  Soccer bladders
  Volley ball bladders
  Hardballs
  Squash balls
  Tennis balls

Group 4

Automotive parts (including only spring bumpers—front and rear, tailpipe supports, battery drain tubes, brake boots, insulating forms or shapes for high tension wiring)

Group 5

Clutch facings, brake lining and brake blocks

Group 6

V-belts

Group 7

Barrel lining

Group 8

Brush setting compounds

Group 9

Molded battery containers except those designed for automotive S. L. I. batteries of S. A. E. Groups 1, 2 and 3

Group 10

Storage battery parts (except molded containers)

Group 11

Crutch tips

Group 12

Erasers and pencil plugs

Group 13

Friction tape

Group 14

Heels and heel bases (black dense composition only)

Group 15

Out soles, out soling strips, taps, top lifts and top lifting material (black dense composition only)

Group 16

Shoe bottom fillers and shoe tapes

Group 17

Insoles, midsoles and box toes

Group 18

Automotive radiator hose
Braided covered tubing
Cable covering, electric
Car heater hose
Curb line and garage air hose
Fire extinguisher tubing
Garden hose
Grease hose, low pressure, non-industrial Pump and windshield wiper tubing
Rock wool insulation hose
Shaft covering, flexible
Spray hose (designed for working pressures under 300 pounds per square inch)
Vacuum cleaner hose
Water hose

Group 19

Parts for business machines (except platens and rolls)

Group 20

Parts for refrigerators, washing machines and motor-driven electric appliances (except hose and belts)

Group 21

Horseshoe pads

Group 22

Pressure sensitive tape

Group 23

Stamp gum

Group 24

Sponge for stamp gum cushion

Group 25

Truss pads

Group 26

Elastic fabrics and elastic webbing for:
  Artificial legs
  Gas masks
  Goggles
  Hose masks
  Inhalators and respirators
  Edging for baby pants
  Industrial shoes
  Repair web
  Sanitary belts
  Surgical bandages, stockings and supports
  Trusses (including umbilical belts)

Group 27

Spud washers
Waste and overflow washers
Float valve shank washers
Flush elbows
Flush valve washers
Force cups
Gaskets and valves designed for back flow preventors (or vacuum breakers)
Siphon washers

Group 28

Cements designed for the repair, use or application of products permitted to be manufactured from crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber by Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b, except cements for use in the manufacture of such products, and except shoe adhesives.

Group 29

Tire and tube repair materials (including only cushion stock, tread repair stock, cord friction, square woven fabric friction, repair patches and tube repair gum)

Group 30

Capping stock, filler strip, stripping stock, cushion stock, lug stock and base stock for retreading and recapping tires

Group 31

Blended compounds or mixtures designed for laboratory testing

Group 32

Compounds designed for proofing fabrics, other than footwear and gloves

Group 33

Bicycle tires (including casings, tubes, flaps and valves)

Group 34

Mallets and mallet heads

SCHEDULE III

Exceptions from groups of products set forth in Schedules II–A, II–B and II–C. (See paragraph (c) (12) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b)

Unless otherwise specified in this Schedule III, no person may consume any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture or assembly of any of the products or materials listed in this Schedule III, even though the consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber might otherwise be permitted under any of the broader provisions or classifications of products under paragraphs (b) (1) (ii), (b) (2) (ii), (b) (3) (ii) or (b) (4) (ii) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b or Schedules II–A, II–B or II–C attached to said order. (The prohibitions of this Schedule II do not apply to the manufacture of products or materials to fill war orders, as to which see Schedule IV.)

The omission of any products or materials from this Schedule III does not mean that crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be consumed in their manufacture. Crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed in the manufacture of products or materials not listed in this Schedule III only if and to the extent permitted by Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b and Schedules II–A, II–B and II–C attached to said order.

Accelerator pedals (automotive)
Animal boots and shoes
Arch supports
Arm rests
Artificial leather
Basin gaskets and washers
Basin stoppers
Bath sprays
Bath tub stoppers
Battery carrier straps
Beer tubing
Blowout shoes (for tires)
Bookbinding adhesives
Bottle carriers
Bottle driers
Brake rod rattlers
Brewery hose
Brush bristles
Bumper tacks
Bunion pads
Camera bellows
Camera focusing cloth
Candy molds
Carboy pads
Casket gaskets
Chair and furniture parts
Channel filler
Christmas tree lighting devices
Chute lining
Cigar machine aprons
Cleats for athletic and sport shoes
Coated clips
Coffee maker bushings and gaskets
Concentrator belts
Contraction joint seals and concrete filler
Corn pads
Crib sheeting
Crutch pads
Cutting blocks
Cushions, upholstery and mattresses (except invalid rings and operating cushions)
Defroster parts and hose
Desk and chair protective pads
Dish drainers
Drain pipe lining
Draper aprons
Electric base plugs, plug connectors and light sockets
Elevator belt buckets and cleats
Exercise machine parts
Extension lamp handles
Fan bases and blades
Faucet caps
Faucet filters
Feeding bottle caps and covers (except nipples)
Ferrules
Filter cloth
Finger pads
Flooring, tile and tiling, and wainscoting (except conductive)
Fountain pen stock
Fly paper
Foot bath trays
Gaskets, pads and shims made from scrap tires and tubes
Gasoline curb pump hose
Gasoline tubing
Gauntlets and cuffing (except linemen's sleeves)
Gear silencers
Glue dispensers
Graphite guns and parts thereof
Grommets (except dielectric)
Handle grips (except for dielectric purposes)
Hard rubber photographic trays and development tanks (except X-Ray)
Hard rubber spatulas (except for handling explosives and corrosive materials)
Hat-forming bags
Hatters' belts
Horse shoes
Horticultural binding tape
Hose nozzles
Household gloves
Hydrometer parts
Ice cube trays
Ink wells and bottles
Instep supports
Kneeling pads
Knife handles and grips
Labels and label plasters
Lamp shades
Lawn mower tires
Leather finishes
Line tube caps
Link mats
Loom harness strapping
Lug straps, bumpers and holdups (constituting textile machinery parts)
Mallets and mallet heads (except that reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be used)
Marbon B (except wire and cable insulation)
Mats and matting (except conductive)
Molds for casting
Molded wheels and casters
Musical instruments and parts thereof
Oxygen tent canopies
Pacifiers
Paint brush guards
Painters' graining tools
Panelboard
Paper machine aprons
Paper padding adhesives
Pedal rubber
Photo wringers
Photographers' bulbs and tubes
Pliofilm (except for wire and cable insulation)
Plioform (except for wire and cable insulation)
Pliolite (except for wire and cable insulation)
Plywood adhesives
Post insulators
Powder bags (mining)
Pulley lagging
Recoil pads
Refrigerator freezing trays
Rock wool insulation hose (except that reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be used)
Rubber bands (except orthodontia bands and bands for artificial limbs)
Rubber thread
Rubberized hair and fibre (except for surgical corrective appliances)
Sand blasting stencils
Screw bumpers
Self-adhering signs
Service station signal hose
Sink and lavatory gaskets (including mack gaskets)
Sink sprays and drain stoppers
Slip joint washers
Spark plug caps
Specimen (biological) injections
Sponge applicators
Stair and step treads
Stick-on soles and taps
Stipplers
Stirrup pump hose
Stirring rods
Street sweeper belts
Street car springs
Swimming pool hose
Table tops
Tank floats
Telephone bases
Telephone cord protectors
Telephone protectors
Test tube holders

Thermometer cases
Thermos bottle parts
Thermoplastic coatings (except for wire and cable insulation)
Tire reliners
Tire and tube repair materials made from scrap tires and tubes
Toggle straps
Toilet closet outlet gaskets
Toilet closet seat bumpers
Trolley wire guard
Typewriter keys, platens, feet and covers
Typewriter and office machinery silencers
V-belt shock absorbers
Vacuum cleaner tires and bumpers
Washing machine drain hose
Weatherstripping
Wheelbarrow tires
Whiskey hose
Windlace and windlace tubing
Yarning material

SCHEDULE IV

Products for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may not be consumed to fill war orders. (See paragraph (c) (13) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b).

No person may (1) consume any crude rubber or latex in the manufacture or assembly of any of the products or materials set forth in Groups A and B of this Schedule IV for delivery to fill any war order; or (2) consume any reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture or assembly of any of the products or materials set forth in Group B of this Schedule IV for delivery to fill any war order; even though the consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber might otherwise be permitted under any of the broader provisions or classifications of products under paragraphs (b) (1) (i), (b) (2) (i), (b) (3) (i) or (b) (4) (i) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b or Schedule I attached to said order.

The omission of any products or materials from this Schedule IV does not mean that crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be consumed in their manufacture. Crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed in the manufacture of products or materials not so listed only if and to the extent permitted by Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b and Schedule I attached to said order.

Group A—Products and materials for which crude rubber and latex shall not be consumed

Accelerator treadle connections
Brush-setting compounds
Bumpers (automotive axle)
Bumper stripping
Cellular discs
Channel rubber (except airplane)
Combined fabrics (except flotation and lighter-than-air equipment or as otherwise specified by List 3 attached to Supplementary Order No. M–15–b–1, as amended)
Cowl vent hose
Cowl vent seals and gaskets
Dust and lever housing covers
Erasers (including typewriter)
Escalator handrails
Flyers' clothing bags (Type B 4)
Fly Paper
Foot boards (motorcycle)
Friction tape
Gym and basketball shoes (except cement and foxings)
Handle grips (except dielectric)
Labels
Mallet heads
Marbon B. (except wire and cable insulation)
Pliofilm, Plioform, and Pliolite (except moisture proof envelopes for parts for airplanes, tanks and guns and wire and cable insulation)
Recoil pads (except machine gun and eye buffers)
Rubber bands (except parts of combat equipment)
Rubberized curled hair or vegetable fibre
Sponge cushioning including seat bottoms, seat backs, armrests, handrests, parachute backs and seats and tank crash pads and linings and all other (except vision and gunsight slot pads, mask parts, ear cushions and cushioning for cameras, flight control and fire control instruments)
Toilet closet gaskets
Toilet seat bumpers
Water, garden and lawn hose (except as specified by List 1 attached to Supplementary Order No. M–15–b–1, as amended)
Weatherstrip (except airplane)

Group B—Products and materials for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber shall not be consumed

Artificial leather and upholstery
Ash trays
Athletic equipment (except clothing)
Bath sprays, sponges and soap dishes
Bumper tacks
Buttons (clothing)
Canvas water bags
Cap covers
Cartridge clip boxes
Cellular pads for crash helmet cushions
Channel filler and glazing rubber (except airplane)
Chevrons
Desk and chair protection pads
Desk sets
Dishdrainers
Door checks and bumpers (reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be used for airplane and automotive parts)
Door knob covers
Fan bases and blades (reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be used for combat tank equipment)
Faucet caps
Fender protective plates
Fender welting
Flooring (except conductive)
Fly swatters
Footbath trays
Gear shift knobs
Grommets (except airplane and dielectric)
Gun grips
Hood supports and bumpers
Hospital sheeting
Inkwells and bottles
Kneeling pads
Leather finishes
Link mats (reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be used for airplane walkways, pilot house, bridge deck and gun platforms)
Mastic deck covering (except repair)
Mats and matting (except switchboard and conductive; reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be used for airplane walkways, pilot house, bridge deck and gun platforms)
Molded wheels and casters (except hospital and surgical equipment and airplane tailwheels)
Name plates
Office machine silencers
Paper padding adhesives
Paving blocks
Pedal rubbers
Picture screens
Plate wipers
Plywood adhesives
Rubber-covered lamp guards, handles, grab rails and knobs (except dielectric)
Rubber thread
Sateen gimp
Serving trays
Sewage disposal bags and paper
Shims (automotive)
Sink pads, mats, sprays and stoppers
Stair and step treads (except conductive)
Steering wheels
Step plates
Stove top pads
Table tops (except conductive)
Tank fenders and flaps
Telephone bases
Tent fabrics
Thermostat covers
Tile and tiling (except conductive)
Toilet seats
Tractor and implement tires
Typewriter keys
Valve stems for tire tubes other than airplane tire tubes
Wainscoting
Wheelbarrow and lawnmower tires
Window squeegees (but not windshield wipers)
Wrestling mat covers
Zipper tabs

SCHEDULE V

Index of products for which crude rubber, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed, and of products for which the consumption of these materials is prohibited. (See paragraph (c) (14) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b)

This Schedule constitutes an index of the permitted and prohibited products under Schedules I, II–A, II–B, II–C, III and IV attached to Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b, and is attached to such order for the convenience of the industry. Appropriate cross-references are made to such other schedules. Crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may not be consumed to manufacture any product or material not mentioned in this Schedule V unless otherwise authorized by the Director General for Operations.

Adhesives, surgical appliances.	II-C	1
Agitators	II-A	9
	II-B	13
Air brake hose	II-A	29
Air brake parts	II-A	29
Air drill hose	II-A	8
Airbags, tire	II-A	30
	II-A	32
Airplane bumpers	IV	B	See door checks.
Airplane channel	IV	A	See channel.
	IV	B
Airplane de-icer parts.	II-A	20
Airplane door checks	IV	B	See door checks.
Airplane equipment	II-A	62
Airplane tailwheels	IV	B	See molded wheels.
Airplane tires	II-A	30
Airplane tire valve stems.	IV	B	See valve stems.
Airplane grommets	IV	B	See grommets.
Airplane walkways	IV	B	See link mats; also mats.
Airplane weatherstrip.	IV	A	See weatherstrip.
Animal boots & shoes.	III	-------
Appliances, surgical	II-C	1
Applicators, sponge	III	-------	See sponge applicators.
Aprons, cigar machine.	III	-------	See cigar machine aprons.
Aprons, draper	III	-------	See draper aprons.
Aprons, paper machine.	III	-------	See paper machine aprons.
Aprons, X-ray	II-A	39
Arbor pipe forming hose.	II-A	8
Arch supports	III	-------
Arctics	II-A	35
Arm rests	III	-------
Arm rests	IV	A	See sponge.
Artificial leather	III	-------
	IV	B
Artificial limbs	II-A	39
	II-C	26
Ash trays	IV	B
Athletic equipment	II-C	3
	IV	B
Athletic shoes	III	-------	See cleats.
Audiometers	II-A	43
Automotive accelerator pedals.	III	-------	See accelerator pedals.
Automotive axle bumpers.	IV	A	See bumpers.
Automotive parts	II-A	29
	II-C	4
	IV	B	See door checks.
Automotive radiator hose.	II-C	18
Automotive shims	IV	B	See shims.
Axle, bumpers	IV	A	See bumpers.
Bags, adhesives	II-C	2
Bags, blood pressure	II-A	46
	II-B	2
Bags, canvas	IV	B	See canvas.
Bags, flyers'	IV	A	See flyers'.
Bags, gas main	II-A	20
Bags, hat-forming	III	-------	See hat-forming bags.
Bags, ice	II-A	42
Bags, inhalation	II-A	46
	II-B	2
Bags, molding	II-A	63
Bags, powder	III	-------	See powder bags.
Bags, prostatic	II-A	39
	II-B	1
Bags, sewage disposal.	IV	B	See sewage.
Ball cock washers	II-A	36
Balloons, meteorological.	II-A	51

Balls, fuller	II-A	36
Balls, tank	II-A	26
Band daters	II-A	26
	II-A	27
Bands, artificial limbs.	II-A	39
Bands, orthodontia	II-A	39
Bands, rubber	III	-------	See rubber bands.
	IV	A	See rubber bands.
Barrel lining	II-C	7
Base, fan	III	-------	See fan bases.
	IV	B	See fan bases.
Base plugs, electric	III	-------	See electric base plugs.
Base stock	II-A	31
	II-C	30
Base, telephone	III	-------	See telephone bases.
	IV	B	See telephone bases.
Basin gaskets and washers.	III	-------
Basin stoppers	III	-------
Basketball shoes	IV	A	See gym shoes.
Baskets, insulation	II-B	13
Baskets, rubber	II-A	9
Bath sprays	III	-------
	IV	B
Bath trays, foot	III	-------	See foot bath trays.
Bath tub stoppers	III	-------
Battery carrier straps	III	-------
Battery containers	II-C	9
Battery drain tubes	II-C	4
Beakers	II-A	9
Beer tubing	III	-------
Bellows, camera	III	-------	See camera bellows.
Belt buckets, elevator.	III	-------	See elevator belt buckets.
Belt repair material	II-A	3
Belt splicing material.	II-A	3
Belting, conveyor	II-A	4
Belting, elevator	II-A	4
Belts, concentrator	III	-------	See concentrator belts.
Belts, flat transmission.	II-A	5
	II-B	14
Belts, hatters'	III	-------	See hatters' belts.
Belts, hog beater	II-A	5
Belts, last puller	II-A	3
Belts, polishing	II-A	3
Belts, round	II-B	14
Belts, sanitary	II-C	26
Belts, street sweeper	III	-------	See street sweeper belts.
Belts, umbilical	II-C	26
Belts, V	II-A	7

Bumpers, door	IV	B	See door checks.
Bumpers, hood	IV	B	See hood.
Bumpers, lug straps	III	-------	See lug straps.
Bumpers, screw	III	-------
Bumpers, spring	II-C	4
Bumpers, toilet seat	III	-------	See toilet bumpers.
	IV	A	See toilet bumpers.
Bumpers, vacuum cleaner.	III	-------	See vacuum cleaner tires.
Bunion pads	III	-------
Bus tires	II-A	30
Bushings, coffee maker.	III	-------	See coffee maker.
Bushings, automotive.	II-A	29
Business machine parts.	II-C	19
Buttons	IV	B
Cable bandages, lineman's.	II-A	20
Cable connectors	II-A	15
Cable covering	II-C	18
Cable end test caps	II-A	20
Cable insulating compounds.	II-A	1
Cable splicing compound.	II-A	2
Camelback	II-A	31
Camera bellows	III
Camera cushioning	IV	A	See sponge
Camera focusing cloth.	III
Candy molds	III
Canopies, oxygen tent.	III	-------	See oxygen tent.
Canvas water bags	IV	B
Cap covers	IV	B
Capping stock	II-A	31
	II-C	30
Caps, spark plug	III	-------	See spark plug.
Caps, surgery	II-A	39
Caps, faucet	III	-------	See faucet caps.
	IV	B	See faucet caps.
Caps, line tube	III	-------	See line tube caps.
Caps, vaccine	II-A	39
Carboy pads	III	-------
Car heater hose	II-C	18
Card clothing	II-A	20
Carriers, bottle	III	-------	See bottle carriers.
Cartridge clip boxes	IV	B
Case, thermometer	III	-------	See thermometer cases.
Casings, bicycle tire	II-C	33
Casket gaskets	III	-------
Caster, molded	III	-------	See molded wheels.
	IV	B	See molded wheels.
Casting, molds	III	-------	See molds for casting.

Part 1024—Pigs' and Hogs' Bristles

[General Preference Order M-51, as Amended Nov. 30, 1942]

The uncertainty of future shipments of pigs' and hogs' bristles from abroad and national defense requirements for products of which imported pigs' and hogs' bristles are an essential component, have created a shortage of such bristles for defense, private account, and for export, and it is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense to allocate such bristles in the manner and to the extent hereinafter in this order provided;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1024.1 General Preference Order M-51—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Bristles" shall mean pigs' or hogs' bristles of the lengths of two inches and longer, whether new or reclaimed and whether imported or not, but not including unturned riflings imported as such.

(2) "Dealer" shall mean any person engaged in the business of purchasing and reselling bristles without changing the condition thereof.

(3) "Dresser" or "reclaimer" shall mean any person grading, sorting, dressing or reclaiming bristles and reselling to a dealer or to other dressers or reclaimers.

(c) Restrictions on deliveries to defense orders. No person shall sell, deliver, or transfer title to any person other than the Defense Supplies Corporation, and no person, other than the Defense Supplies Corporation, shall buy, take title to, or accept delivery of bristles except upon defense orders, unless specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this paragraph shall prevent purchases or sales, deliveries or acceptance of deliveries, or transfers of title to fill orders in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (d) (3) (i), (d) (3) (ii) or (d) (3) (iv).

(d) Restrictions on use of bristles. (1) No person shall hereafter boil, steam, sterilize, cut, trim, or mix any bristles, or otherwise commence the manufacture of any product of which bristles are a component part except upon defense orders, unless specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(2) No person shall hereafter open any cases containing bristles or remove any bristles from cases, opened, broken or otherwise, except upon defense orders, unless specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, or unless necessary to preserve such bristles from deterioration. Any action taken to prevent bristles from deterioration shall be reported at once to the War Production Board, together with a complete description of the bristles so saved from deterioration, and the location thereof after such action, together with a statement of the reasons why such action was necessary. Such bristles shall not thereafter be sold, delivered or title thereto transferred unless specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this order shall prevent:

(i) Dressers or reclaimers from removing bristles from cases, performing their operations thereon, and reselling, delivering or transferring title to them upon orders placed by dealers for inventory.

(ii) Dealers from placing orders for delivery of, buying, taking title to, or accepting delivery of bristles for inventory.

(iii) The opening of cases for inspection as to quality and condition, verification of sizes and weights, and removal of the bristles of less than two inches in length.

(iv) The opening of cases, removal of bristles, deliveries and transfers of title, upon orders for shoe bristles.

(v) The manufacture, subject to the limitations of paragraph (e), of the minimum commercially practicable amounts of finished products when the manufacture of additional amounts of such products is required in order to fill defense orders: Provided, however, Any excess so manufactured shall be sold only on defense orders.

(vi) The manufacture, from November 30, 1942 through February 28, 1943, of shaving brushes containing bristles none of which are longer than 2⅞ inches and which were in the inventory of the manufacturer on September 7, 1942.

(vii) The manufacture, from November 30, 1942 through February 28, 1943, of tooth brushes containing bristles none of which are longer than 3⅛ inches before cutting, and which on September 7, 1942 were bleached and in the inventory of the manufacturer.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this order shall prevent any manufacturer of products containing bristles from placing purchase orders for or accepting delivery of such amounts of bristles as may be necessary to enable him to manufacture for inventory subject to the limitation in paragraph (e), an amount of his finished products not in excess of the amount of his finished products delivered by him upon defense orders in the calendar month preceding the date on which the purchase order is placed: Provided, That his inventory is not in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory at the time the order is placed and that to the best of his knowledge and belief, it will not become so at the time the bristles are scheduled to be delivered: And provided further, That delivery may not be accepted at any time when acceptance would bring his inventory above a practicable minimum working inventory. Such finished products shall be only of the kind and type suitable for delivery upon defense orders. No person shall make delivery of bristles unless each such order shall have endorsed thereon a certificate from such manufacturer, signed by an individual authorized to sign for such manufacturer, and in substantially the following form:

> The undersigned manufacturer hereby certifies to his vendor and to the War Production Board, subject to the provisions of section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 80) that the bristles to be delivered on this purchase order are required by the undersigned to enable the undersigned to manufacture, for inventory, an amount of the undersigned's finished products not in excess of the amount of the undersigned's finished products delivered upon defense orders in the calendar month preceding the date on which this purchase order is placed; that the undersigned's inventory is not in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory, and, to the best of his knowledge and belief, it will not become so at the time the bristles are scheduled to be delivered; and that delivery will not be accepted at any time when acceptance would bring the inventory of the undersigned above a practicable minimum working inventory.

> (Company)
> By ....
> (Signature of authorized individual)
> ....
> (Title)
> Date..................
> The undersigned hereby certifies to the above vendor and to the War Production Board, subject to the provisions of section (35) A of the United States Criminal Code, that the above certificate was signed by the undersigned on behalf of and by authority of the said manufacturer.
> (Individual)
> Date..................

(e) Conservation of bristles. No person shall use in the manufacture of any product a bristle mixture containing less than 45% of material other than pigs' or hogs' riflings or bristles of any length whatever: Provided, however, That this restriction shall not apply to:

(1) The manufacture of any product purchased by or for the account of the United States Army or Navy, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration where a contracting or inspecting officer of the department or agency concerned shall, after reviewing the applicable Emergency Alternate Federal Specification, certify in a signed certificate, furnished to the manufacturer or to the seller for transmission to the manufacturer, that a bristle mixture of a content different from that provided in this paragraph is necessary for military or naval uses.

(2) The manufacture, from November 30, 1942 through February 28, 1943, of shaving brushes containing bristles none of which are longer that 2⅞ inches and which were in the inventory of the manufacturer on September 7, 1942.

(3) The manufacture, from November 30, 1942 through February 28, 1943, of tooth brushes containing bristles none of which are longer than 3⅛ inches before cutting, and which on September 7, 1942 were bleached and in the inventory of the manufacturer.

(4) The manufacture of any product containing bristles none of which are longer than 2⅛ inches.

(f) Restrictions on importation and disposition of bristles. In addition to all other requirements of this order, the importation and disposition of bristles shall be made in conformity with the provisions of General Imports Order M-63, as amended from time to time.

(g) Reports and communications. (1) Each owner of bristles shall file with the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, acting as compiling agent for the War Production Board, not later than the tenth day of the following month, a monthly report on form PD-217 showing his holdings and consumption of bristles.

(2) Each person participating in any transaction involving bristles shall execute and file such reports and questionnaires as may be requested by the War Production Board from time to time.

(3) All reports required to be filed under, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M-51.

(h) Records and inspection. (1) Each person participating in any transaction involving bristles shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years accurate and complete records of his inventories, production, sales and transactions in bristles.

(2) All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(i) Appeals. Any person affected by the order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The War Production Board may thereupon take such action as it deems appropriate.

(j) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Part 1176—Iron and Steel Conservation

[Conservation Order M-126 as Amended Nov. 30, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron and steel for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1176.1 General Conservation Order M-126—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Governing date", with respect to any item on List A or List S, or part thereof, means the date set forth opposite such item.

(2) "Army - Navy - Maritime order" means an order for material to be purchased (or physically incorporated into material to be purchased) by or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration, where with respect to any item on List A, or part thereof, the use of iron or steel, or with respect to any item on List S, or part thereof, the use of stainless steel, is required by the specifications (including performance specifications) of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration, applicable to the contract, subcontract or purchase order.

(3) The terms "iron" and "steel" shall not be deemed to include screws, nails, rivets, bolts, or wire, strapping or small hardware for joining or other similar essential purposes.

(4) The term "stainless steel" means corrosion or heat resistant alloy iron or alloy steel containing 10 per cent or more of chromium with or without nickel and/or other alloying elements.

(5) "Process" means cut, draw, machine, stamp, melt, cast, forge, roll, turn, spin or otherwise shape.

(6) "Put into process" means the first change by a manufacturer in the form of material from that form in which it is received by him.

(7) The term "assemble" shall not be deemed to include the putting together of an article after delivery to a sales outlet or consumer in knockdown form pursuant to an established custom. The term "assemble" shall also not be deemed to include adding finished parts to an otherwise finished article when the placing of one or more finished parts or the size or type of one or more finished parts is determined by the use to which the ultimate consumer is to put the article.

(b) Restrictions with respect to List A products. Except as provided in paragraph (d):

(1) Raw material deliveries. From and after the applicable governing date of any item on List A, no person shall deliver or accept delivery of any iron or steel which he knows or has reason to know will be used to make such item, or any part thereof.

(2) Fabrication—(i) Limitation. During the 30 days next following the applicable governing date of any item on List A, no person shall put into process any iron or steel to make such item, or any part thereof, in an aggregate weight greater than 75 per cent of the average monthly weight of all metals put into process by him during 1941 in the making of such item and parts, and no person shall put into process any iron or steel in the making of any such item or part unless processing thereof will be completed within such 30 day period.

(ii) Prohibition. From and after the date 30 days after the applicable governing date of any item on List A, no person shall process any iron or steel to make such item, or any part thereof.

(3) Assembly. From and after the date 60 days after the applicable governing date of any item on List A, no person shall assemble such item, or any part thereof, containing any iron or steel.

(4) List A products without governing dates. With respect to any item on List A without a governing date, (i) no person shall deliver or accept delivery of any iron or steel which he knows or has reason to know will be used to make such item, or any part thereof, (ii) no person shall put into process or process any iron or steel to make such item, or any part thereof, and (iii) no person shall assemble such item, or any part thereof, containing any iron or steel.

(5) Finished item deliveries. No person shall deliver or accept delivery of any item on List A, or part thereof, which he knows or has reason to know was fabricated, assembled or delivered in violation of any applicable provision of this order as amended from time to time.

(c) Restrictions with respect to List S products. Except as provided in paragraph (d):

(1) Raw material deliveries. From and after the applicable governing date of any item on List S, no person shall deliver or accept delivery of any stainless steel which he knows or has reason to know will be used to make such item, or any part thereof.

(2) Fabrication—(i) Limitation. During the 30 days next following the applicable governing date of any item on List S, no person shall put into process any stainless steel to make such item, or any part thereof, in an aggregate weight greater than 50% of the average monthly weight of stainless steel put into process by him during 1941 in the making of such item and parts, and no person shall put into process any stainless steel in the making of any such item or part unless processing thereof will be completed within such 30 day period.

(ii) Prohibition. From and after the date 30 days after the applicable governing date of any item on List S, no person shall process any stainless steel to make such item, or any part thereof.

(3) Assembly. From and after the date 45 days after the applicable governing date of any item on List S, no person shall assemble such item, or any part thereof, containing any stainless steel.

(4) Finished item deliveries. No person shall deliver or accept delivery of any item on List S or part thereof, which he knows or has reason to know was fabricated, assembled, or delivered in violation of any applicable provision of this order as amended from time to time.

(d) Exemption for Army-Navy-Maritime orders. (1) The provisions of paragraph (b) with respect to items on List A with governing dates shall not apply to Army-Navy-Maritime orders for such items, or any parts thereof, for a period of 60 days after the applicable governing date. From and after the expiration of the applicable exemption period, no person shall deliver, accept delivery of, put into process, process or assemble any iron or steel for the making of any item on List A, or part thereof, unless such item or part is on List C. The provisions of paragraph (b) shall not apply to Army-Navy-Maritime orders for any item on List C, or part thereof, except that stainless steel shall not be used to make such item and parts, unless permitted by paragraph (d) (3).

(2) The provisions of paragraph (c) shall not apply to Army-Navy-Maritime orders for any item on List S, or part thereof, for a period of 60 days after its governing date. Except as provided in paragraph (d) (4), from and after the expiration of the applicable exemption period, no person shall deliver, accept delivery of, put into process, process or assemble any stainless steel for the making of any item on List S, or part thereof, unless such item or part is on List C.

(3) Except as otherwise specified on List C as to any item, or part thereof, stainless steel may be used to make any item on List C, or part thereof, for Army-Navy-Maritime orders until January 5, 1943. Except as provided in paragraph (d) (4), on and after January 5, 1943, no person shall use any stainless steel to make any item on List C, or part thereof, unless, and then only to the extent that, the use of stainless steel is expressly permitted for such item.

(4) The provisions of this order prohibiting the delivery, processing or assembling of stainless steel or a type of stainless steel for the making of any item, or part thereof, for Army-Navy-Maritime orders shall not apply to any order which has been approved on form PD-391 for melting during the fourth quarter of 1942 or for delivery during such quarter; or to any order which can not be filled by the manufacturer because of his inability to secure permitted materials, except that this exemption shall be only for the minimum period of time necessary to obtain such permitted materials and in no event later than April 30, 1943.

(e) Restrictions with respect to other products—(1) Roofing and siding. No person shall manufacture any iron or steel into roofing and siding except:

(i) For delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, The War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development; or

(ii) For delivery on a preference rating of AA-5 or higher assigned by a PD-3A preference rating certificate or by a preference rating order in the P-19 series; or

(iii) For defense housing, to the extent specified in the Defense Housing Critical List; or

(iv) For the manufacture, maintenance and repair of railroad freight cars, street cars, or busses; or

(v) For deliveries on preference ratings assigned by the Board of Economic Warfare or for deliveries on Lend-Lease orders; or

(vi) For delivery to an ultimate purchaser for maintenance and repair purposes regardless of rating. With respect to this paragraph (e) (1) (vi), no person may manufacture from May 5, 1942 to December 31, 1942, more than 20 percent of the roofing and siding made by him from iron or steel during the calendar year 1940; or in the calendar year 1943 or any subsequent calendar year, more than 25 percent of the roofing and siding made by him from iron or steel, during the calendar year 1940.

Any person manufacturing or selling any such roofing or siding may rely on the certificate of his customer that such roofing or siding will only be sold or used as permitted by this paragraph (e) (1).

(2) Other products. No person shall use any iron or steel to make any article not prohibited on List A, or any part thereof, where and to the extent that the use of other material (excluding material on List D) is practicable. Alloy steel shall not be used when the use of carbon steel is practicable, and no more iron or steel shall be used in connection with the manufacture of any such article than is essential. The provisions of this paragraph (e) (2) shall not apply in the case of articles or parts to be purchased by or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, or to be physically incorporated into products to be so purchased to the extent that the use of iron or steel is required by the specifications (including performance specifications) of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration applicable to the contract, subcontract or purchase order.

(f) Restrictions with respect to other scarce materials. No person whose use of iron or steel is restricted by paragraphs (b), (d) or (e) shall use as a substitute therefor any material on List D.

(g) Disposition of frozen and excessive inventories. The disposition of frozen and excessive inventories containing iron or steel shall be subject to the applicable provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 13 (§ 944.34).

(h) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order must be made on Form PD-500 and must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates.

(3) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply whether the items are ordered or manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior to, on, or subsequent to May 5, 1942, or pursuant to a contract supported by a preference rating. Insofar as any other order of the Director General for Operations may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the use of any material in the production of any item, the limitations of such order shall be observed.

(4) Intra-company deliveries. The restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries prohibit or restrict deliveries not only to other persons, including affiliates or subsidiaries, but also from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(6) Installation. The restrictions of this order with respect to putting into process, processing, and assembling shall not apply to the installation of an item or part for the ultimate consumer on his premises when any putting into process, processing or assembling of such item or part is incidental to such installation and is done on such premises.

(7) Repair. The restrictions of this order (other than those contained in paragraph (e) (2)) shall not apply to a person repairing a used article on or off the premises of the owner, if the person making the repair does not use iron or steel weighing in the aggregate more than 25 pounds and if any putting into process, processing or assembling done by such person is for the purpose of making the specific repair. The limitations in this paragraph (h) (7) on repairing a used article shall not apply to any item on List A or List S, or part thereof, to the extent that maintenance and repair of such item is specifically excepted on List A or List S.

LIST C

NOTE: List C was amended Nov. 30, 1942.

Access panels—for use on board ship, on military vehicles and where climatic or safety conditions make necessary.
Accessories—soda fountain—for use on board ship.
Acoustical ceilings—for use on board ship.
Air conditioning systems—for hospital operating rooms and industrial plants (excluding offices), for use on board ship, for use outside continental limits of the U. S., for use in fortifications, for handling and storage of explosives, for storage and handling of instruments critical to temperature or humidity, for use in gas proofing installations, and for use in mobile surgical vehicles and laboratory vehicles.
Ammunition boxes and chutes of stainless steel.
Attic fans—where climatic conditions make necessary.
Automobile accessories.
Automobile heaters—where specified for military vehicles.
Awning frames and supports—for use on board ship, military repair units, hospital installations, and military construction units.
Barber shop supplies.
Baskets—for cooking and manufacturing uses and for ordnance operations.
Bath tubs—for use on board ship and in hospitals.
B-B shot—for training and shot blast cleaning purposes.
Beds—for use on board ship; beds containing not more than 5 pounds of iron or steel, excluding springs.
Bed spring frames—for use on board ship and for maintenance and repair.
Bench legs.
Binoculars.
Bird cages—for carrier pigeons.
Bird feeders—for carrier pigeons.
Biscuit boxes—for use on board ship or where climatic conditions make necessary.
Bleachers and grandstands—but only straps and necessary fasteners for demountable wooden bleachers and grandstands.
Boiler casings of stainless steel—for use on board ship.
Bottle holders—for use on board ship and in hospitals.
Brushes, wire bristles only.
Buttons.
Cabinets—for mobile units such as maintenance company equipment (truck mounted), spare parts trucks and mobile reproduction units, and for electrical installations, hospital operating and examining rooms, and as permitted by L–13–a and L–62.
Cable terminals, fittings and turnbuckles of stainless steel.
Canopies, hoods and supports—for use on board ship, military repair units, hospital installations, and military construction units.
Cans or containers for anti-freeze, candy, coffee, nuts—where climatic conditions make necessary.
Cash boxes.
Casket handles.
Ceilings—for use on board ship, but only where necessary.

Furniture—for use on board ship.
Galley and mess equipment of stainless steel, as follows:
  Clad stainless steel for steam tables and warming pans.
  Single clad stainless steel on inside of steam jacketed kettles.
  Single clad stainless steel for stock pots.
  Clad stainless steel bottoms and solid stainless steel sides for pressure cookers.
  Non-nickel bearing stainless steel clad doors and other parts coming in direct contact with food in cold storage spaces on board ship.
  Non-nickel bearing stainless steel for coffee urns.
  Stainless steel single clad sinks and dresser tops for use on board ship.
  Stainless steel for canteens.
  Non-nickel bearing stainless steel liners for portable water coolers.
  Non-nickel bearing stainless steel for tanks and hoods of dishwashing machines.
  Metal sponges from non-nickel bearing stainless steel wire.
  Compartment mess trays, but only from existing finished stocks of stainless steel.
Games.
Garage hoists and car lifts.
Grilles—sewer.
Hand seals for documents.
Harness and saddlery fittings.
Hat frames, wire and gimps.
Hat-making machinery, but only—
  Blocking machines with complete sets of blocks.
  Sets or dies for cutting parts.
Helmets.
Hose reels.
Hospital equipment—
  Arm immersion stands.
  Bed trays.
  Bedside panel screen frames—for use in operating rooms, and outside continental limits of U. S.
  Bowl stands—for use in operating rooms and on board ship.
  Cabinets—X-ray film filing.
  Cabinets for diathermy, sinusoidal and galvanic apparatus.
  Chart holders.
  Commodes—for hospital use outside continental limits of U. S.
  Dish trucks—frames and wheel tires only.
  Dressing stand frames.
  Examining tables, non-adjustable—for use on board ship and in Field Hospitals.
  Instrument cabinets.
  Instrument tables.
  Nurses' work tables.
  Overbed and swing overbed tables—functional parts only.
  Stands and racks for colonic irrigation apparatus.
  Sterilizer stands.
  Supply and treatment cabinets.
  Utensil racks.
Hot water heaters, tanks and coils of stainless steel—where specified for aircraft and military vehicles.
Ice box exteriors—for use on board ship, mobile type refrigerators, and for use where climatic conditions make necessary.
Ice cube trays.
Identification tags and badges of stainless steel—for personnel.
Incinerators.
Keys for opening cans.
Laundry trays—for use on board ship.
Lavatories—for use on board ship and outside continental limits of U. S.
Lockers—for office equipment as limited by Limitation Order L–13–a, for use on board ship, military vehicles, outside continental limits of U. S. and in ordnance plants.
Mail boxes—for use on board ship.
Measuring pumps and dispensers for gasoline stations and garages, including but not limited to—
  Gasoline dispensing pumps.

  Grease pumps.
  Oil pumps.
  Kerosene pumps.
  Air pumps.
Mirrors, hand—for signal use.
Pads, inking and stamping.
Paint spray outfits.
Partitions—for use in hospitals and on board ship.
Pencils, mechanical or automatic, functional parts only—except for resale.
Phonograph motors, hand wound.
Phonograph record blanks.
Photographic accessories.
Pie plates.
Pitchers.
Pneumatic tube delivery systems.
Portable bathtubs.
Powder boxes of stainless steel.
Push carts—for ordnance and combat organizations.
Radio antenna of stainless steel.
Radio antennae poles.
Railings—for use on board ship.
Scaffolding—for use in shipyards, airfields and other places where use of wood scaffolding is impracticable.
Screen frames.
Sewer pipe, exterior installations—for pressure lines only.
Shirt and stocking dryers of cast iron only.
Shower receptors—for use on board ship.
Shower stalls—for use on board ship.
Sink aprons and legs—for use on board ship.
Sink drainboards, both integral and removable—for use on board ship and where required for sterilization.
Siphon chargers for life jacket inflation.
Slide fasteners.
Snow shovels and pushers, hand.
Sporting and athletic goods.
Stamped bakery equipment.
Swivel chairs—for use on board ship.
Tags—
  For marking ammunition.
  Identification (name).
Tanks, storage, water, but only for use on board ship, mobile units, range boilers and hot water storage, use outside continental limits of U. S., heights in excess of 100 feet, pneumatic pressure tanks.
Telephone bell boxes—for use on board ship or where climatic or safety conditions make necessary.
Telescopes.
Thermos jugs and bottles.
Tile, steel back—for ladder treads, step plates and use on board ship.
Tool boxes.
Tool cases—for mobile equipment.
Tool handles, where specified.
Truck and trailer units and bodies, where specifically designed for military purposes.
Urinals—for use on board ship, and outside continental limits of U. S.
Waste paper receptacles—for hospital use only.
Water troughs, frame and support only.
Wheelbarrows.
Wire racks and baskets.
Work benches where wooden benches will not stand up under ordinary use.

PART 1223—STANDARDIZATION AND SIMPLIFICATION OF PAPER

[Schedule VI to Limitation Order L–120 as Amended Nov. 30, 1942]

ROLL TOILET TISSUE

§ 1223.7 Schedule VI to Limitation Order L–120—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this schedule, including the Appendix:

"Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(b) Standard ream count. On and after the effective date of this schedule basis weights for roll toilet tissue shall be calculated by reference to a standard ream of 500 sheets 24'' x 36'', with a tolerance of 5% over or under the specified weight, instead of by reference to the ream of 480 sheets 24'' x 36'' heretofore used.

(c) Limitations. On and after December 7, 1942, no person shall manufacture any roll toilet tissue in any basis weight heavier than indicated in (i) under the Appendix, or in rolls containing any sheet count other than the counts specified in (iii) under the Appendix, or pack less rolls per case than indicated as the minimum for the rolls of each permitted sheet count in (iv) under the Appendix, or package, wind or prepare for loading any roll toilet tissue contrary to the provisions of (v), (vi) and (vii) under the Appendix.

This schedule shall take effect on December 7, 1942.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 30th day of November, 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

APPENDIX[1] TO SCHEDULE VI

PART 3096—PAPER AND PAPERBOARD

[General Conservation Order M-241, as Amended Nov. 30, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply for defense, for private account and for export of various materials and facilities required in the manufacture and distribution of paper and paperboard; and the following order is deemed necessary in the public interest and to promote national defense:

§ 3096.1 General Conservation Order M-241—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Produce" includes all operations connected with the production of paper and paperboard, including operations in the finishing room and packaging, but does not include processes or operations applied to paper and paperboard, after the primary papermaking, such as printing, waxing, gumming, coating, bag manufacture, cup manufacture, and envelope manufacture, box and container manufacture, and the fabrication of paper into paper articles.

(3) "Mill" means a congregation of pulp preparation and roll and sheet finishing equipment, paper machines and subsidiary facilities located and operated together as a single producing unit for the production of paper and paperboard.

(c) Restrictions on production of paper and paperboard. (1) No person or persons shall produce paper or paperboard in any mill which has not produced paper or paperboard since August 1, 1942.

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (c) (4), (5) and (6), no person or persons shall during the calendar month commencing November 1, 1942, or any calendar month thereafter, produce in any mill any greater quantity in tons of paper and/or paperboard than 100% of the average monthly quantity in tons of paper and/or paperboard produced in such mill during the six months from April 1, 1942, to September 30, 1942, inclusive, with the exception, however, that in addition any person may produce at any mill during any month not to exceed 15% of the quantity of paper and/or paperboard hereby permitted to be produced at such mill for the next month and/or not to exceed 15% of the quantity of paper and/or paperboard hereby permitted to be produced at such mill during the previous month, provided that in no event does the aggregate production at any mill during the months of November and December 1942, exceed twice the average monthly production at such mill during the six month period from April 1, 1942, to September 30, 1942, and provided further that in no event does the production at any mill during any calendar quarter after January 1, 1943, exceed three times the average monthly production during such six month period.

(3) The quantity in tons of paper and paperboard shall be measured in tonnage delivered from the paper machine, and the method and basis for determining such tonnage shall be that method and basis followed at such mill in the past, or any other practicable method and basis, provided that the same method and basis are used in determining production in future calendar months as are used in determining average production during the six months reference period from April 1, 1942 to September 30, 1942, inclusive.

(4) There shall not be included in such calculation, either for past or current production, papers and paperboard of the kinds included within the following designations on United States Department of Commerce (Census) Form WPB-514, as revised August 10, 1942:

Building papers (Code 14000, 14100, 14200, 14300, 14900)
Building boards (Code 58000, 58100, 58200, 58300, 58900)
Vulcanizing fibre stock (Code 13500)
Resin impregnating stock (Code 13600)
Sanitary napkin and hospital wadding stock (Code 11100)

(5) If one person owns only one mill, and such mill is equipped with only one machine unit for the manufacture of paper and/or paperboard, such person may, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) (2), produce at such mill during any calendar week any quantity of paper and/or paperboard required to occupy such machine 120 hours during such week.

(6) If any person owns more than one mill, and believes that the purposes of this order will be furthered by combining for production among all or several of his mills jointly the quantities of paper and/or paperboard which are permitted by this order for each separately, he may submit to the Director General for Operations, in writing, a plan for such combination, stating the quantity and kinds of paper and/or paperboard produced at each mill involved during the six month period from April 1, 1942 to September 30, 1942, inclusive, the quantity and kinds of paper expected to be produced at each such mill during each month under such plan, how long he proposes to operate under such plan, his reasons for desiring to adopt such plan, and the respects wherein he conceives that such plan will further the purposes of this order. The Director General for Operations may thereupon approve, modify, or disapprove such plan, or may impose upon the execution of any such plan such conditions as he may deem appropriate to this order. Upon receipt from the Director General for Operations of approval in writing of such a plan the proponent may, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) (2), produce at the mills designated in such plan the quantities and kinds of paper and/or paperboard provided for in such plan, subject to any modifications or conditions imposed by the Director General for Operations in his approval. No person shall undertake or attempt to carry into effect any such plan unless and until he receives such approval.

(d) Restrictions on inventory. No person shall knowingly make delivery of any type of paper or paperboard, and no person shall accept delivery of any type of paper or paperboard, if the inventory of such type of paper or paperboard in the hands of the person accepting delivery is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, in excess of ninety days supply, on the basis of his current method and rate of operation. This restriction applies equally to paper and paperboard of foreign and domestic origin. It shall not, however, prevent acceptance by any person of delivery of one carload or less of any type of paper or paperboard if the inventory of such type of paper or paperboard of the person accepting such delivery is not and will not by virtue of such acceptance become in excess of two carloads.

(e) Miscellaneous provisions — (1) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(2) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(3) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Appeals. Any person affected by the order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(6) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall unless otherwise directed, be addressed to, War Production Board, Pulp and Paper Branch, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M-241.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1338—SILK AND SILK PRODUCTS

[MPR 274]

WOMEN'S SILK HOSIERY

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 274 has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 274 is hereby issued.

Sec.
1338.101 Transactions in silk hosiery which are prohibited by this regulation.

1338.103 Maximum prices for silk hosiery not specifically priced in § 1338.102.
1338.104 Less than maximum prices may be charged.
1338.105 Information which must be furnished to ultimate consumers.
1338.106 Information which must be furnished to purchasers other than ultimate consumers.
1338.107 Relation between Maximum Price Regulation No. 274 and the General Maximum Price Regulation.
1338.108 Relation of this regulation to other Maximum Price Regulations.
1338.109 Evasion.
1338.110 Enforcement.
1338.111 Definitions.
1338.112 How this regulation may be amended.
Sec.
1338.113 Geographical applicability of this regulation.
1338.114 Effective date.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1338.101 to 1338.114, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1338.101 Transactions in silk hosiery which are prohibited by this regulation. On and after December 3, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall:

(a) Sell or deliver any silk hosiery at a price higher than the maximum price established by this regulation; or

(b) Sell or deliver any silk hosiery for which a maximum price is not provided in § 1338.102 unless he receives from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a specific maximum price therefor, as provided by § 1338.103; or

(c) Require a purchaser to buy or agree to buy any other hosiery or other article, service, package or wrapper in connection with a sale or delivery of silk hosiery; or

(d) Buy or receive silk hosiery in the course of trade or business at a price higher than the maximum price established by this regulation; or

(e) Do any other act which directly or indirectly increases the consideration paid for silk hosiery above the maximum price; or

(f) Offer, attempt or agree to do any of the acts prohibited by this regulation.

9. Out-sizes	(1)	(1)	(1)	(1)

(1) Maximum prices for "out-sizes" shall be the prices stated above with the addition thereto of $1.00 per dozen.

(d) Explanation of above tables—(1) Gauges. (i) "Gauges" are based upon use of the full 14-inch needle bar within a tolerance of four needles, in accordance with accepted trade practice.

(ii) "42 gauge and lower" include all gauges which are lower than 45 gauge.

(iii) "45 and 48 gauge" include 45 gauge and gauges which are higher than 45 gauges but lower than 51 gauge.

(iv) "51 and 54 gauge" include 51 gauge and gauges which are higher than 51 gauge but lower than 57 gauge.

(2) "All silk" and "silk leg." (i) "All silk" means hosiery knitted entirely of silk yarn, except for foot reenforcement.

(ii) "Silk leg" means hosiery in which the leg is knitted entirely of silk whereas some other portion of the stocking is made of other material.

(3) "Silk combination" hosiery is hosiery made of yarn consisting of one or more ends of continuous filament silk combined and twisted with cotton or rayon.

(4) "Out-sizes" are extra-wide sizes of silk hosiery manufactured in accordance with accepted trade practice for such extra widths and boarded on out-size forms.

§ 1338.103 Maximum prices for silk hosiery not specifically priced in § 1338.102. A seller who seeks a specific maximum price for any type of silk hosiery for which a maximum price is not provided in § 1338.102 shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., an application setting forth (a) a description in detail of the silk hosiery for which a maximum price is sought; (b) a statement of the facts which differentiate such silk hosiery from the silk hosiery for which maximum prices are established under § 1338.102 of this regulation; and (c) such other information as may be required by the Office of Price Administration. No person shall sell, deliver, or offer to sell, such hosiery unless he receives specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration.

(b) By marking. On and after December 3, 1942, no person shall sell, deliver or offer for sale silk hosiery at retail unless there is firmly attached to each pair of such hosiery a stamp, tag, or other marking, which truthfully and clearly states in writing, identifying information as to the construction and price of the hosiery as follows:

(1) In the case of full fashioned hosiery. (i) The words "full fashioned"; (ii) the gauge; (iii) the word "out-size" on all out-sizes; (iv) the words "Ceiling Price" or "Our Ceiling" accompanied by the seller's maximum price under this regulation (for example, Ceiling Price $1.15); (v) the word "irregulars" on all irregular hosiery, the word "seconds" on all seconds, and the word "thirds" on all thirds; (vi) the number of threads in all hosiery which is less than 51 gauge.

(2) In the case of circular knit hosiery. (i) The words "circular knit"; (ii) the needle count; (iii) the word "out-size" on all out-sizes; (iv) the words "Ceiling Price" or "Our Ceiling" accompanied by the seller's maximum price under this regulation, (for example, Ceiling Price 69¢); (v) the word "irregulars" on all irregular hosiery, the word "seconds" on all seconds, and the word "thirds" on all thirds.

(3) In the case of silk combination hosiery. (i) The words "full fashioned" or "circular knit"; (ii) the words "Ceiling Price" or "Our Ceiling" accompanied by the seller's maximum price under this regulation (for example, Ceiling Price $1.00); (iii) fiber content and description in accordance with Trade Practice Rules of the Federal Trade Commission; and (iv) the word "irregulars" on all irregular hosiery, the word "seconds" on all seconds, and the word "thirds" on all thirds.

(4) Abbreviations permitted. In marking hosiery pursuant to this paragraph, sellers are permitted to abbreviate the following words in the forms set forth opposite each respectively:

Full fashioned	f.f.
Gauge	gg.[1]
Circular knit	cir.
Needles	ndl.
Out-size	o-s.
Irregulars	ir.
Seconds	2nd
Thirds	3rd
Thread	Thd.

[1] For example, "45gg."

Abbreviation of required information is not permitted in posting.

§ 1338.106 Information which must be furnished to purchasers other than ultimate consumers. (a) Every person who sells silk hosiery to a purchaser other than an ultimate consumer shall, at the time of the delivery thereof, furnish to the purchaser thereof, the following:

(1) Written notification using the following words: "The specific maximum prices at which you may sell silk hosiery have been fixed by Maximum Price Regulation No. 274 issued by the Office of Price Administration on November 27, 1942. No person may sell, deliver, or offer for sale silk hosiery in the course of trade or business at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this regulation", and

(2) The text of § 1338.102 of this regulation, unless they shall have been previously furnished by the seller or his representative.

(b) Every seller shall, within five days after receipt of a written request, furnish any purchaser for resale of silk hosiery with all information with respect to the construction and quality of the hosiery which is pertinent to the marking or posting required by this regulation.

§ 1338.107 Relation between Maximum Price Regulation No. 274 and the General Maximum Price Regulation.[1] The General Maximum Price Regulation shall not apply and this Maximum Price Regulation No. 274 shall apply to sales, deliveries and offers to sell and to deliver silk hosiery. However, the following sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation are made a part of this regulation and each seller must comply with them.

(a) Federal and state taxes (§ 1499.7).

(b) Current records (§ 1499.12).

(c) Sales slips and receipts (§ 1499.14).

(d) The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to every person selling silk hosiery at wholesale or retail.

§ 1338.108 Relation of this regulation to other maximum price regulations—(a) Maximum Price Regulation No. 172.[2] Maximum Price Regulation No. 172—Charges of Contractors in Apparel Industry—shall apply, and this Maximum Price Regulation No. 274 shall not apply to transactions for which maximum prices are established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 172.

(b) Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[3] Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation shall apply and this Maximum Price Regulation No. 274 shall not apply to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1338.109 Evasion. The provisions of this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to any silk hosiery alone or in connection with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or any other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1338.111 Definitions—(a) Definitions incorporated by reference. Unless the context otherwise requires or unless otherwise specifically provided herein, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the terms used herein.

(b) Other definitions. When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 274 the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(1) "Manufacturer" means a person who sells, delivers, or offers for sale silk hosiery otherwise than at retail in a form substantially changed from the form in which he bought that silk hosiery or the materials from which it is made.

(2) "Sale at wholesale" means a sale by a person who buys silk hosiery and resells it, in any quantity, in a form substantially unchanged from the form in which he bought that silk hosiery, to any person other than the ultimate consumer.

(3) "Sale at retail" means a sale, in any quantity, to an ultimate consumer.

(4) "Ultimate consumer" means a person (i) who buys silk hosiery for a purpose other than that of reselling it and (ii) who did not sell or offer for sale silk hosiery in any quantity on or after February 5, 1942.

(5) "Silk hosiery" means any women's completely finished, full length hosiery in which (i) the leg or (ii) the leg and some other portion of the stocking in addition to the leg is made in whole or in part of silk yarn, but not including hosiery made of silk and wool.

(6) "Substandard quality" hosiery means any silk hosiery not of first quality. The term "substandard quality" includes:

(i) Irregulars. Irregulars are substandard hosiery containing one or more imperfections which are limited to irregularities in dimensions, size, color, knit or weave, without the presence in the hosiery of any obvious mends, runs, tears, or breaks in the fabric, or any substantial damage to the yarn or fabric itself.

(ii) Seconds. Seconds are substandard quality hosiery containing defects or imperfections which are not so limited as to constitute the hosiery irregulars and are of such character as to be seconds according to the manufacturer's standards of grading on the effective date of this regulation, and

(iii) Thirds. Thirds are substandard quality hosiery containing defects and imperfections which are not so limited as to constitute the hosiery irregulars or seconds and are of such character as to be thirds according to the manufacturer's standards of grading on the effective date of this regulation.

§ 1338.112 How this regulation may be amended. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[4] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1338.114 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 274 (§§ 1338.101 to 1338.114, inclusive) shall become effective December 3, 1942.

Issued this 27th day of November 1942.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 275]

EXTRACTED HONEY

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of "bulk honey", and "packaged honey" by a specific maximum price regulation.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which reflect to producers of extracted honey prices for their product equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250.

Therefore, with the concurrence of the Secretary of Agriculture, and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 is hereby issued.

Sec.
1351.1301	Prohibition against sales of "bulk and packaged honey" above maximum prices.
1351.1302	Exempt sales.
1351.1303	Maximum prices for sales of "bulk honey" and "packaged honey".
1351.1304	Applicability.
1351.1305	Less than maximum prices.
1351.1306	Customary allowances and discounts.
1351.1307	Transfers of business or stock in trade.
1351.1308	Export sales.
1351.1309	Petitions for amendment.
1351.1310	Adjustable pricing.
1351.1311	Evasion.
1351.1312	Enforcement.
1351.1313	Records and reports.
1351.1314	Notice of "permitted increase".
1351.1315	Geographical applicability.
1351.1316	Applicability of certain provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation.
1351.1317	Definitions.
1351.1318	Effective date.
1351.1319	Appendix A: Maximum prices for "bulk honey" and "packaged honey".

AUTHORITY: §§ 1351.1301 to 1351.1319, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong., and E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1351.1301 Prohibition against sales of "bulk and packaged honey" above maximum prices. On and after December 3, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation:

(a) No person shall sell or deliver any "bulk honey" or "packaged honey" at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1351.1319, Appendix A, of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275.

(b) No person shall buy or receive any "bulk honey" or "packaged honey" in the course of trade or business at higher prices than the maximum prices set forth in § 1351.1319, Appendix A, of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275.

(c) No person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of "bulk honey" or "packaged honey" to a purchaser if, prior to December 3, 1942, such honey, bulk or packaged, has been received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller for shipment to such purchaser.

§ 1351.1302 Exempt sales. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 shall not be applicable to sales at wholesale and sales at retail, except (a) that resales of "bulk honey" shall be covered by this regulation; and (b) sales of "packaged honey" direct to the ultimate consumer by the packager thereof shall be covered by this regulation.

§ 1351.1303 Maximum prices for sales of "bulk honey" and "packaged honey". The maximum prices for "bulk honey" and "packaged honey" shall be governed by the provisions of Appendix A, incorporated herein as § 1351.1319.

§ 1351.1304 Applicability. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation[2] with respect to sales and deliveries of "bulk honey" and "packaged honey", for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1351.1305 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1351.1307 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets, or stock in trade of any seller are sold or otherwise transferred on or after December 3, 1942, and the transferee carries on the business, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify those prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over to the transferee, all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions contained in this regulation.

§ 1351.1308 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export "bulk honey" and "packaged honey" shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1309 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking a modification of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275, may file a petition therefor in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[4] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1311 Evasion. Price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to the commodities whose prices are herein regulated alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1351.1312 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or any acts or practices which constitute such a violation, are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, field or regional offices of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1351.1313 Records and reports. Every person who sells "packaged honey" or resells "bulk honey" covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 shall (a) preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, all his existing records which were the basis for computations required by § 1351.1319, Appendix A; (b) within ten days after determining his maximum prices for each kind, flavor, brand, and container type and size of "packaged honey" or "bulk honey" which is resold, execute and file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., two copies of Forms No. 1–A, 1–B, 1–C which forms are obtainable at any district, state, field, or regional offices of the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1314 Notice of "permitted increase"—(a) Notice to wholesalers. In the case of any item of "packaged honey" which is being sold to a wholesaler for the first time after the seller's new maximum price for it has been established under § 1351.1319, Appendix A, the seller shall send the wholesaler (before or at the time of delivery) a written statement which lists for each such item included in the sale, (1) the "base price" charged wholesalers, as computed under subdivision (i) of § 1351.1319 (c) (1), Appendix A, (2) the seller's new maximum price for wholesalers, called the "maximum price", and (3) the amount of difference between the "base price" and the "maximum price", called the "wholesaler's permitted increase". This "wholesaler's permitted increase" may, pursuant to and in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 255 be added to the wholesaler's February ceiling on such item for the purpose of the wholesaler's determining his new maximum price.

(b) Notice to retailers in shipping cases. Every seller who sells any item of "packaged honey" to a wholesaler, shall include with the shipping case (or other packaged unit in which the retailer usually purchases the product) a "notice of retailer's permitted increase". This notice must be either pasted or stamped on the outside of each shipping case sold or printed on a slip and enclosed. In the latter case the seller shall place this statement on the outside: "Retailer's notice enclosed."

The seller shall calculate the retailer's permitted increase for the item which he computed for the wholesaler under paragraph (a), where necessary, to the units in which the commodity is usually sold at retail. When making this calculation, the seller shall adjust fractions of ½ cent or more to the next higher cent and fractions under ½ cent to the next lower cent. Except for the proper insertion, the notice of retailer's permitted increase shall read as follows:

NOTICE OF RETAILER'S PERMITTED INCREASE

Your new OPA ceiling price for the enclosed item is your March ceiling for such item plus ______ cents per retail container. OPA requires you to keep this information for examination.

(c) Notice to direct buying retailers. In the case of any item of "packaged honey" sold to a direct buying retailer after the seller's new maximum price for it has been established under § 1351.1319, Appendix A, the seller shall send the direct buying retailer (before or at the time of delivery) a written statement which lists for each such item included in the sale (1) the "base price" charged retailers, as computed under subdivision (i) of § 1351.1319 (c) (1), Appendix A; (2) the seller's new maximum price for direct buying retailers, called the "maximum price", and (3) the amount of difference between the "base price" and the "maximum price", called the "retailer's permitted increase". This "retailer's permitted increase" may, pursuant to and in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 256, be added to the retailer's March ceiling on such item for the purpose of the retailer determining his new maximum price.

§ 1351.1315 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 shall be applicable only to the 48 states of the United States and to the District of Columbia.

§ 1351.1316 Applicability of certain provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation. (a) The following sections of General Maximum Price Regulation, the amendments thereto, and Revised Supplementary Regulation Number 4[5] thereof shall be applicable to every person making sales and deliveries covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275.

(1) § 1499.4b (Special deals).

(2) § 1499.14 (Sales slips and receipts).

(3) § 1499.29 (a) (5) (Developmental contracts).

(4) § 1499.29 (a) (6) (Secret contracts).

(5) § 1499.29 (a) (7) (Emergency purchases).

§ 1351.1317 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275, the terms:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Sale at wholesale" means a sale of "packaged honey" by a person who buys and resells it, without substantially changing its form, to any person other than the ultimate consumer, so that a resale of "bulk honey" to whomever made is not a sale at wholesale, and such resales are subject to the provision of this regulation.

(3) "Sale at retail" means a sale to an ultimate consumer other than to an industrial, commercial, institutional, or governmental user.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended, and of section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other items used herein.

§ 1351.1318 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 (§§ 1351.1301 to 1351.1319, inclusive) shall become effective December 3, 1942.

§ 1351.1319 Appendix A: Maximum prices for "bulk honey" and "packaged honey"—(a) Definitions of terms used herein. (1) "Honey" means extracted honey which is the nectar and saccharine exudations of plants gathered, modified, and stored in the comb of honey bees and removed from the comb by centrifugal force, gravity, or other means.

(2) "Bulk honey" means honey in a container of a capacity of more than ten pounds.

(3) "Packaged honey" means honey in a container of a capacity of not more than ten pounds.

(4) "U. S. No. 1" means a grade of honey which is (i) fairly clean, (ii) and free from damage caused by turbidity, overheating, fermentation, honeydew, objectionable flavor, odor, or other means, (iii) and well ripened, and (iv) weighing not less than 11 pounds and 12 ounces per gallon of 231 cubic inches at 68° F.

(b) Maximum prices for "bulk honey." (1) The maximum price per pound f. o. b. seller's shipping point for "bulk honey" which is Grade U. S. No. 1 or better shall be 12¢: Provided, That where a purchaser furnishes a container in which bulk honey is bought or exchanges a container for that shipped by the seller, the maximum prices herein established for "bulk honey" shall be reduced by ½¢ per pound, and the cost, if any, of transporting the empty container back to the seller shall be paid by the purchaser.

(2) The maximum price per pound f. o. b. seller's shipping point for "bulk honey" which is of a grade less than U. S. No. 1 shall be determined by reducing the maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 for Grade U. S. No. 1 or better by the customary dollars and cents trade differentials which were in effect during the "base period".

(3) The maximum price per pound, c. i. f. port of entry for honey which is imported from outside of the continental United States shall be determined by reducing the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 275 for Grade U. S. No. 1 or better by the customary dollars and cents trade differentials which were in effect during the "base period."

(4) The maximum prices established for "bulk honey" by this paragraph (b) shall not be applicable to resales of "bulk honey" made in the performance of a customary distributive function. The maximum prices for such resales shall be governed by the provisions of paragraph (c) below.

(c) Maximum prices for "packaged honey" when sold to wholesalers, to retailers, and to ultimate consumers. (1) A seller of "packaged honey" except as provided in § 1351.1302 Exempt sales shall determine his maximum f. o. b. shipping point price to wholesalers, to retailers and to ultimate consumers, for each kind, flavor, brand, container type and size of "packaged honey" by adding his "permitted increase" to 102% of the "base price" for such items.

(i) The "base price" shall be calculated by dividing the total dollars charged f. o. b. shipping point before customary discounts and allowances for each such item during the "base period" of September, October, and November, 1941, by the number of such items sold during this period. When computing his maximum price to wholesalers, a seller shall determine his "base price" on the basis of sales made to wholesalers during the base period; when computing his maximum price to retailers, a seller shall determine his base price on the basis of sales made to retailers during the base period, and when computing his maximum price to ultimate consumers, the seller shall determine his base price on the basis of sales made to ultimate consumers during the base period.

EXAMPLE: A packer seeks the maximum f. o. b. shipping point price for a half pound glass jar of X brand white clover honey, which he wishes to sell to a wholesaler. In determining his "base price" he ascertains that he sold a thousand jars of this particular item to wholesalers (he disregards 500 jars sold to retailers and he disregards one hundred (100) jars sold to the ultimate consumers) during the base period September, October, and November, 1941.

200 jars were sold at 6¢ (f. o. b.)	$12.00
800 jars were sold at 7¢ (f. o. b.)	56.00
Total 1,000 jars	$68.00

$68 ÷ 1,000 jars = 6.8¢ ("base price" for the half pound glass jar of X brand white clover honey.)

(ii) The "permitted increase" for each said item shall be calculated as follows:

Determine the "permitted increase" per pound by adding the following two cost increases per pound under inferior subdivisions (a) and (b).

(a) Cost increase for honey. The cost increase per pound for honey shall be the difference between 11.8¢ and the seller's "weighted average cost" per pound for honey purchased during the base period.

The "weighted average cost" means the total dollars f. o. b. beekeepers' shipping point paid for honey purchased during the "base period", divided by the number of pounds of honey purchased during the base period. In computing the "weighted average cost", that quantity of honey which was produced by the seller during the base period shall be deemed to have been purchased by him at a price of 5.6¢ per pound.

EXAMPLE: (continued) the seller of X brand honey purchased 4,000 pounds of honey of the following grades during the "base period" of September, October, and November, 1941:

Grade A—3,000 lbs. @ 5.7¢ (f. o. b. beekeeper)	$171.00
Grade B—1,000 lbs. at 5¢	50.00
1,000 lbs. at 5.6¢	56.00
Total, 5,000 lbs	277.00

$277 ÷ 5,000 lbs. = 5.54¢ ("weighted average cost" per lb.)

11.8¢ minus 5.54¢ = 6.26¢ (cost increase per pound for honey)

(b) Cost increase for transportation. The cost increase per pound for transportation shall be the difference, if any, between the figure obtained by dividing the total pounds of honey produced and purchased during the base period by the total freight dollars paid for honey purchased during the base period, and the figure obtained by dividing the total pounds of honey produced and purchased during the months of June, July, and August, 1942, by the total freight dollars, f. o. b. beekeeper, paid for honey purchased during the months of June, July, and August, 1942.

EXAMPLE: (continued) The seller's freight bill for 4,000 pounds of honey which was shipped into his plant during the base period of September, October, and November, 1941, was $25.00. This total freight bill of $25.00 must be divided by 5,000 pounds which is the total number of pounds of honey that he purchased and produced during the base period. The resulting figure is .5¢ per pound.

During June, July, and August, 1942, this seller of X brand clover honey purchased and shipped in 2,000 pounds and produced 500 pounds. His freight bill for the 2,000 pounds of honey shipped in during the period of June, July, and August, 1942, totalled $15.00. This freight bill of $15.00 must be divided by 2,500 pounds The resulting figure is .6¢.

.6¢ (freight cost in second period)
—.5¢ (freight rate cost in first period)

.1¢ per lb. (Amount allowed for increased freight cost.)

(c) The sum of the increased cost per pound obtained under (a) and (b) is the "permitted increase" per pound. To obtain the "permitted increase" for each particular item, multiply the "permitted increase" per pound by the size of the container expressed in pounds.

EXAMPLE: (continued)

6.26¢ (increase per lb. for honey) and
0.10¢ (increase per lb. for freight)

6.36¢ (Total permitted increase per lb.)

If the item to be priced is a one-half pound jar, the permitted increase on such item is obtained by multiplying 6.36¢ by one-half, which equals 3.18¢, the "permitted increase" for the half-pound jar of X brand white clover honey. Therefore, in accordance with the directions of (c) (1), the maximum price for the one-half pound glass jar of X brand white clover honey would be computed as follows:

102% x 6.8¢ (base price half pound jar)	= 6.936¢
Permitted increase on ½-lb. jar of X brand white clover honey	= 3.18
Seller's new maximum price on his ½ lb. jar of X brand white clover honey	= 10.116¢

(d) Calculations. In calculating maximum prices on a per pound or per item basis in this section, all calculations shall be carried to the third decimal place. Final calculation of the maximum price resulting in a fraction of a cent shall be adjusted to the nearest ¼¢.

EXAMPLE: (continued) The calculations in the preceding paragraph were carried out to the third decimal place. The final calculations of 10.116¢ is adjusted to the nearest ¼ of a cent, which is 10¢.

(e) Maximum price for honey which is to be resold. A seller shall determine the maximum shipping point price for "bulk honey" which is to be resold in the same manner as that provided for the seller of "packaged honey": Provided, (1) That he must employ his "base period" price and not 102% thereof, and (2) that in computing his "base price", he shall base his computations only upon the resales of bulk honey made during the "base period", to the particular "class of purchaser" for which he is determining his maximum price. The term "class of purchaser" refers to the practice prevailing during the base period of offering certain classes or groups of purchasers different prices on the same honey item.

(f) Delivered prices. The delivered price for commodities subject to the provisions of this regulation shall in no case exceed the established maximum f. o. b. price plus the actual transportation charges incurred from the seller's shipping point to the place of destination.

(g) Maximum prices for items which cannot be priced under above paragraphs. (1) If the maximum price for any item of honey subject to the provisions of this regulation cannot be priced under the above, the maximum price for such item shall be determined after specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on application setting forth (i) a detailed description of the kind, flavor, brand, container type and size of the item sought to be priced; and (ii) a statement of facts pointing out why such item cannot be priced under the applicable paragraphs of this section; (iii) a statement showing the seller's maximum prices for the kind, grade, flavor, container type and size of the item most similar to that item for which a maximum price is sought and the "factory door costs" of such most similar items and of the item for which a price is sought. The "factory door cost" shall include all direct and indirect costs and expenses chargeable to the production of the item but shall not include costs or expenses chargeable to administration, selling, advertising, or transportation.

[RPS 53,[1] Amendment 20]

FATS AND OILS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1351.151 (b) (8) is amended by the addition of subdivision (xiii) as set forth below:

§ 1351.151 Maximum prices for fats and oils. * * *

(b) * * *

(8) * * *

(xiii) Where a Chicago processor sells lard flakes to another processor who is to use such lard flakes in the manufacture of war lard and the purchasing processor's maximum selling price on base or standard commercial refined lard, as established under § 1351.151 (b) (8), is lower than the maximum price on base or standard commercial refined lard, as established for the corporate limits of Chicago under § 1351.151 (b) (8), the maximum price on such lard flakes shall be the maximum price on lard flakes, as established for the corporate limits of Chicago under § 1351.151 (b) (8), plus the actual cost of freight from the seller's plant to the buyer's plant. Where the maximum price on lard flakes is computed under this subdivision (xiii) of § 1351.151 (b) (8), the maximum selling price of the purchasing processor on war lard, in whose manufacture such lard flakes are used, shall be the maximum price on war lard, as established for the corporate limits of Chicago under § 1351.151 (b) (8), plus ⅛¢ per pound.

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Maximum Rent Regulation 57]

HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS OTHER THAN HOTELS AND ROOMING HOUSES

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within each of the Defense-Rental Areas and the portion of a Defense-Rental Area set out in § 1388.581 (a) of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57, as designated in the designations and rent declarations issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, on May 26, 1942, on June 3, 1942, and on July 29, 1942, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said designations and rent declarations.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area on or about March 1, 1942. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Act, this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1388.581 to 1388.594, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1388.581 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57 applies to all housing accommodations within each of the following Defense-Rental Areas and the following portion of a Defense-Rental Area (each of which is referred to hereinafter in this Maximum Rent Regulation as the "Defense-Rental Area"), as designated in the designations and rent declarations (§§ 1388.1201 to 1388.1205, 1388.1251 to 1388.1255, 1388.1301 to 1388.1305, and 1388.1321 to 1388.1325, inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, on May 26, 1942, on June 3, 1942, and on July 29, 1942, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section:

(b) This Maximum Rent Regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Housing accommodations situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or others employees to whom the space is provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part;

(3) Rooms or other housing accommodations within hotels or rooming houses, or housing accommodations which have been, with the consent of the Administrator, brought under the control of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Hotels and Rooming Houses pursuant to the provisions of that regulation: Provided, That this Maximum Rent Regulation does apply to entire structures or premises though used as hotels or rooming houses.

(4) Housing accommodations rented to the United States acting by the National Housing Agency: Provided, however, That this Maximum Rent Regulation does apply to a sublease or other subrenting of such accommodations or any part thereof.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this Maximum Rent Regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.582 Prohibition against higher than maximum rents. (a) Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57 of any housing accommodations within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation, where housing accommodations are heated with fuel oil the landlord of such accommodations may as hereinafter provided enter into an agreement with the tenant providing for payment by the tenant of part or all of the cost of changing the heating unit to use some fuel other than oil or of installing a new heating unit using some fuel other than oil. Prior to making such agreement the landlord shall in writing report the terms of the proposed agreement to the Area Rent Office. The landlord may enter into the agreement either upon its approval by the Administrator or, unless the Administrator has disapproved the proposed agreement within 5 days after the filing of such report, upon the expiration of such 5-day period.

(c) Where a lease of housing accommodations was entered into prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith was granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which were the subject of the lease, with the further provision that some or all of the payments made under the lease should be credited toward the purchase price in the event such option is exercised, the landlord, notwithstanding any other provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation, may be authorized to receive payments made by the tenant in accordance with the provisions of such lease and in excess of the maximum rent for such housing accommodations. Such authority may be secured only by a written request of the tenant to the Area Rent Office and shall be granted by order of the Administrator if he finds that such payments in excess of the maximum rent will not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof. After entry of such order the landlord shall be authorized to demand, receive and retain payments provided by the lease in excess of the maximum rent for periods commencing on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation. After entry of such order, the provisions of the lease may be enforced in accordance with law, notwithstanding any other provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation: Provided, however, That if at the termination of the lease the tenant shall not exercise the option to buy, the landlord may thereafter remove or evict the tenant only in accordance with the provisions of § 1388.586 of this Maximum Rent Regulation. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to authorize the landlord to demand or receive payments in excess of the maximum rent in the absence of an order of the Administrator as herein provided. Where a lease of housing accommodations has been entered into on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith has been granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the landlord, prior to the exercise by the tenant of the option to buy, shall not demand or receive payments in excess of the maximum rent, whether or not such lease allocates some portion or portions of the periodic payments therein provided as payments on or for the option to buy.

§ 1388.583 Minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in § 1388.585 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with housing accommodations the same essential services, furniture, furnishings and equipment as those provided on the date determining the maximum rent, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those provided on such date: Provided, however, That where fuel oil is used to supply heat or hot water for housing accommodations, and the landlord provided heat or hot water on the date determining the maximum rent, the heat and hot water which the landlord is required to supply shall not be in excess of the amount which he can supply under any statute, regulation or order of the United States or any agency thereof which rations or limits the use of fuel oil.

§1388.584 Maximum rents. Maximum rents (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in § 1388.585) shall be:

(a) For housing accommodations rented on March 1, 1942, the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(b) For housing accommodations not rented on March 1, 1942, but rented at any time during the two months ending on that date, the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period.

(c) For housing accommodations not rented on March 1, 1942 nor during the two months ending on that date, but rented prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57, the first rent for such accommodations after March 1, 1942. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in §1388.585 (c).

(d) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented after March 1, 1942 and before the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed between those dates so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations changed between those dates from unfurnished to fully furnished, or from fully furnished to unfurnished, or (4) housing accommodations substantially changed between those dates by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, the first rent for such accommodations after such construction or change: Provided, however, That, where such first rent was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of a major capital improvement, the maximum rent shall be the first rent after termination of such lease. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.585 (c).

(e) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed on or after such effective date so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations not rented at any time between January 1, 1942 and such effective date, the first rent for such accommodations after the change or the effective date, as the case may be. Within 30 days after so renting the landlord shall register the accommodations as provided in § 1388. 587. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.585 (c).

(f) For housing accommodations constructed with priority rating from the United States or any agency thereof for which the rent has been heretofore or is hereafter approved by the United States or any agency thereof, the rent so approved, but in no event more than the rent on March 1, 1942, or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, more than the first rent after that date.

(g) For housing accommodations constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942, as determined by the owner of such accommodations: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.585 (c).

(h) For housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employes of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.585 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in the furniture, furnishings or equipment, an increase or decrease of services or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Administrator finds would have been on March 1, 1942, the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change. In all other cases, except those under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since March 1, 1942. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on March 1, 1942.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57 a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, on or prior to March 1, 1942, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent on March 1, 1942 was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent. No increase in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground set forth in this paragraph (a) (3) unless the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment occurred with the consent of the tenant or while the accommodations were vacant: Provided, That an adjustment may be ordered, although the tenant refuses to consent to the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, if the Administrator finds that such increase (i) is reasonably required for the operation of a multiple dwelling structure or other structure of which the accommodations are a part or (ii) is necessary for the preservation or maintenance of the accommodations.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(5) There was in force on March 1, 1942, a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to March 1, 1941, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942; or the housing accommodations were not rented on March 1, 1942, but were rented during the two months ending on that date and the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period was fixed by a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to March 1, 1941, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) (1) If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, the services provided for housing accommodations are less than the minimum services required by § 1388.583, the landlord shall either restore and maintain such minimum services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. If, on such effective date, the furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with housing accommodations are less than the minimum required by § 1388.583, the landlord shall, within 30 days after such date, file a written report showing the decrease in furniture, furnishings or equipment.

(2) Except as above provided, the landlord shall, until the accommodations become vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment he shall file a petition within 10 days after the change occurs. When the accommodations become vacant the landlord may, on renting to a new tenant, decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report showing such decrease.

(3) The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of § 1388.585 (c) (3). If the landlord fails to file the petition or report required by this paragraph within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by any order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. In such case, any order decreasing the maximum rent shall be effective to decrease such rent from the beginning of the first rental period after the decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, whichever is the later. The foregoing provisions and any refund thereunder do not affect any civil or criminal liability provided by the Act for failure to comply with any requirement of this paragraph.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The maximum rent for housing accommodations under paragraph (c), (d), (e), or (g), of § 1388.584 is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by § 1388.583 since the date or order determining the maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(5) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially lower rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(e) Where, at the expiration or other termination of an underlying lease or other rental agreement, housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the landlord may rent the entire premises for use by similar occupancy for a rent not in excess of the aggregate maximum rents of the separate dwelling units, or may rent the separate dwelling units for rents not in excess of the maximum rents applicable to such units.

Where housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the tenant may petition the Administrator for leave to exercise any right he would have except for this Maximum Rent Regulation to sell his underlying lease or other rental agreement. The Administrator may grant such petition if he finds that the sale will not result, and that sales of such character would not be likely to result, in the circumvention or evasion of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation. He may require that the sale be made on such terms as he deems necessary to prevent such circumvention or evasion.

(f) Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) of this section, the Administrator may enter an interim order increasing the maximum rent until further order, subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order upon such petition. The receipt by the landlord of any increased rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or, where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

(g) No adjustment in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground that the landlord, since the date or order determining the maximum rent, has, as a part of or in connection with a lease of housing accommodations, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease. Where a lease of housing accommodations was in force on the date determining the maximum rent, and the landlord had on that date, as a part of or in connection with such lease, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the Administrator may, on or after the termination of such lease, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, enter an order fixing the maximum rent on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations not subject to an option to buy on March 1, 1942.

§ 1388.586 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant shall be removed from any housing accommodations, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, and regardless of any contract, lease, agreement or obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into which provides for entry of judgment upon the tenant's confession for breach of the covenants thereof or which otherwise provides contrary hereto, unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation, or

(2) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the housing accommodations for the purpose of inspection or of showing the accommodations to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein: Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the accommodations is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or

(3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure, such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the housing accommodations for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) The tenant's lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, and at the time of termination the housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant; or

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the housing accommodations or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(6) The landlord owned, or acquired an enforceable right to buy or the right to possession of, the housing accommodations prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, and seeks in good faith to recover possession of such accommodations for immediate use and occupancy as a dwelling for himself. If a tenant has been removed or evicted under this paragraph (a) (6) from housing accommodations, the landlord shall file a written report on a form provided therefor before renting the accommodations or any part thereof during a period of six months after such removal or eviction.

(b) (1) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57 and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(2) Removal or eviction of a tenant for occupancy by a purchaser who has acquired his rights in the housing accommodations on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, is inconsistent with the purposes of the Act and this Maximum Rent Regulation and would be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof, unless (i) the payment or payments of principal made by the purchaser, excluding any payments made from funds borrowed for the purpose of making such principal payments, aggregate 33⅓% or more of the purchase price, and (ii) a period of three months has elapsed after the issuance of a certificate by the Administrator as hereinafter provided. For the purposes of this paragraph (b) (2), the payments of principal may be made by the purchaser conditionally or in escrow to the end that they shall be returned to the purchaser in the event the Administrator denies a petition for a certificate. If the Administrator finds that the required payments of principal have been made, he shall, on petition of either the vendor or purchaser, issue a certificate authorizing the purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant in accordance with the requirements of the local law at the expiration of three months after the date of issuance of such certificate. In no other case shall the Administrator issue a certificate for occupancy by a purchaser who has acquired his rights in the housing accommodations on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, unless he finds that the vendor has or had a substantial necessity requiring the sale and that a reasonable sale or disposition of the accommodations could not be made without removal or eviction of the tenant, or unless he finds that other special hardship would result; under such circumstances the payment by the purchaser of 33⅓% of the purchase price shall not be a condition to the issuance of a certificate, and the certificate shall authorize the vendor or purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant in accordance with the requirements of the local law.

(c) The provisions of this section do not apply to a subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant, where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(d) (1) Every notice to a tenant to vacate or surrender possession of housing accommodations shall state the ground under this section upon which the landlord relies for removal or eviction of the tenant. A written copy of such notice shall be given to the Area Rent Office within 24 hours after the notice is given to the tenant.

No tenant shall be removed or evicted from housing accommodations, by court process or otherwise, unless, at least ten days prior to the time specified for surrender of possession and to the commencement of any action for removal or eviction, the landlord has given written notices of the proposed removal or eviction to the tenant and to the Area Rent Office, stating the ground under this section upon which such removal or eviction is sought and specifying the time when the tenant is required to surrender possession.

Where the ground for removal or eviction of a tenant is non-payment of rent, every notice under this paragraph (d) (1) shall state the rent for the housing accommodations, the amount of rent due and the rental period or periods for which such rent is due. The provisions of this paragraph (d) (1) shall not apply where a certificate has been issued by the Administrator pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant, including an action based upon non-payment of rent, the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the Area Rent Office stating the title of the case, the number of the case where that is possible, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant, and the ground under this section on which removal or eviction is sought.

(e) No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

§ 1388.587 Registration. Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or within 30 days after the property is first rented, whichever date is the later, every landlord of housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in triplicate a written statement on the form provided therefor to be known as a registration statement. The statement shall identify each dwelling unit and specify the maximum rent provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57 for such dwelling unit and shall contain such other information as the Administrator shall require. The original shall remain on file with the Administrator and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy, stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord. In any subsequent change of tenancy the landlord shall exhibit to the new tenant his stamped copy of the registration statement, and shall obtain the tenant's signature and the date thereof, on the back of such statement. Within five days after renting to a new tenant, the landlord shall file a notice on the form provided therefor, on which he shall obtain the tenant's signature, stating that there has been a change in tenancy, that the stamped copy of the registration statement has been exhibited to the new tenant and that the rent for such accommodations is in conformity therewith.

No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

When the maximum rent is changed by order of the Administrator, the landlord shall deliver his stamped copy of the registration statement to the Area Rent Office for appropriate action reflecting such change.

The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations under § 1388.584 (g). The owner of such housing accommodations shall file a schedule or schedules, setting out the maximum rents for all such accommodations in the Defense-Rental Area and containing such other information as the Administrator shall require. A copy of such schedule or schedules shall be posted by the owner in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such housing accommodations.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including any civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

§ 1388.588 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of housing accommodations and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the accommodations by the Administrator as he may, from time to time, require.

§ 1388.589 Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57 shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of housing accommodations, by way of absolute or conditional sale, sale with purchase money or other form of mortgage, or sale with option to repurchase, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges or by modification of the services furnished with housing accommodations, or otherwise.

§ 1388.590 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation 57 are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

§ 1388.591 Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57 shall be filed with the Area Rent Office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).[1]

§ 1388.592 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57 may file petitions therefor in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

§ 1388.593 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57:

(1) The term "Act" means the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(2) The term "Administrator" means the Price Administrator of the Office of Price Administration, or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Administrator may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the Act.

(3) The term "Rent Director" means the person designated by the Administrator as director of the Defense-Rental Area or such person or persons as may be designated to carry out any of the duties delegated to the Rent Director by the Administrator.

(4) The term "Area Rent Office" means the office of the Rent Director in the Defense-Rental Area.

(5) The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(6) The term "housing accommodations" means any building, structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes, together with all privileges, services, furnishings, furniture, equipment, facilities and improvements connected with the use or occupancy of such property.

(7) The term "services" includes repairs, decorating and maintenance, the furnishing of light, heat, hot and cold water, telephone, elevator service, window shades, and storage, kitchen, bath, and laundry facilities and privileges, maid service, linen service, janitor service, the removal of refuse and any other privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations.

(8) The term "landlord" includes an owner, lessor, sublessor, assignee or other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations, or an agent of any of the foregoing.

(9) The term "tenant" includes a subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the possession or to the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations.

(10) The term "rent" means the consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity, demanded or received for the use or occupancy of housing accommodations or for the transfer of a lease of such accommodations.

(11) The term "hotel" means any establishment generally recognized as such in its community, containing more than 50 rooms and used predominantly for transient occupancy.

(12) The term "rooming house" means, in addition to its customary usage, a building or portion of a building other than a hotel in which a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment are rented on a short time basis of daily, weekly, or monthly occupancy to more than two paying tenants not members of the landlord's immediate family. The term includes boarding houses, dormitories, auto camps, trailers, residence clubs, tourist homes or cabins, and all other establishments of a similar nature.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used in this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.594 Effective date of the regulation. This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 57 (§§ 1388.581 to 1388.594, inclusive) shall become effective December 1, 1942.

Issued this 27th day of November 1942.

LEON HENDERSON,
Administrator.

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Maximum Rent Regulation 58A]

HOTELS AND ROOMING HOUSES

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within each of the Defense-Rental Areas and the portion of a Defense-Rental Area set out in § 1388.631 (a) of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 58A, as designated in the designations and rent declarations issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, on May 26, 1942, on June 3, 1942, and on July 29, 1942, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said designations and rent declarations.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area on or about March 1, 1942. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for rooms in hotels and rooming houses within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Act, this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 58A is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1388.631 to 1388.644, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1388.631 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 58A applies to all rooms in hotels and rooming houses within each of the following Defense-Rental Areas and the following portion of a Defense-Rental Area (each of which is referred to hereinafter in this Maximum Rent Regulation as the "Defense-Rental Area"), as designated in the Designations and Rent Declarations (§§ 1388.1201 to 1388.1205, 1388.1251 to 1388.1255, 1388.1301 to 1388.1305, and 1388.1321 to 1388.1325, inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, on May 26, 1942, on June 3, 1942, and on July 29, 1942, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section:

(1) The Lanett Defense-Rental Area, consisting of the County of Chambers, in the State of Alabama.

(b) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 58A does not apply to the following:

(1) Rooms situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Rooms occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the rooms are provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the rooms are a part;

(3) Rooms in hospitals, or rooms of charitable or educational institutions used in carrying out their charitable or educational purposes;

(4) Entire structures or premises used as hotels or rooming houses, as distinguished from the rooms within such hotels or rooming houses.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this Maximum Rent Regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(e) Where a building or establishment which does not come within the definitions of a hotel or rooming house contains one or more furnished rooms or other furnished housing accommodations rented on a daily, weekly or monthly basis, the landlord may, with the consent of the Administrator, elect to bring all housing accommodations within such building or establishment under the control of this Maximum Rent Regulation. A landlord who so elects shall file a registration statement under this Maximum Rent Regulation for all such housing accommodations, accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such election.

If the Administrator finds that the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation establishing maximum rents are better adapted to the rental practices for such building or establishment than the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations Other than Hotels and Rooming Houses, he shall consent to the landlord's election. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations within such building or establishment which are or hereafter may be rented or offered for rent shall become subject to the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation, and shall be considered rooms within a rooming house for the purposes of the provisions relating to eviction.

The landlord may at any time, with the consent of the Administrator, revoke his election, and thereby bring under the control of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations Other than Hotels and Rooming Houses all housing accommodations previously brought under the Maximum Rent Regulation by such election. He shall make such revocation by filing a registration statement or statements under the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations Other than Hotels and Rooming Houses, including in such registration statement or statements all housing accommodations brought under this Maximum Rent Regulation by such election. Such registration statement or statements shall be accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such revocation. The Administrator may defer action on such request if he has taken or is about to take action to decrease the maximum rents of any housing accommodations within such building or establishment. If the Administrator finds that the revocation so requested will not result in substantial increases in the maximum rents of housing accommodations affected by such revocation, he shall give such consent. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations affected by such revocation shall become subject to the provisions of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations Other than Hotels and Rooming Houses.

§ 1388.632 Prohibition. (a) Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 58A of any room in a hotel or rooming house within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) No tenant shall be required to change his term of occupancy if that will result in the payment of a higher amount per day than the maximum rent established for his present term of occupancy. Where, on June 15, 1942, or between that date and the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, a room was regularly rented or offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, the landlord shall continue to offer the room for rent for that term of occupancy, unless he offers another term of occupancy for a rent which results in the payment of an amount no higher per day.

§ 1388.633 Minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in § 1388.635 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with a room the same essential services, furniture, furnishings and equipment as those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those provided on such date or during such period: Provided, however, That where fuel oil is used to supply heat or hot water for a room, and the landlord provided heat or hot water on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, the heat and hot water which the landlord is required to supply shall not be in excess of the amount which he can supply under any statute, regulation or order of the United States or any agency thereof which rations or limits the use of fuel oil.

§ 1388.634 Maximum rents. This section establishes separate maximum rents for different terms of occupancy (daily, weekly or monthly) and numbers of occupants of a particular room. Maximum rents for rooms in a hotel or rooming house (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in § 1388.635) shall be:

(a) For a room rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on March 1, 1942, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during that thirty-day period, or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(b) For a room neither rented nor regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on March 1, 1942, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during the thirty days commencing when it was first offered for rent after March 1, 1942; or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(c) For a room rented for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent is established under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section the first rent for the room after March 1, 1942, for that term and number of occupants, but not more than the maximum rent for similar rooms for the same term and number of occupants in the same hotel or rooming house.

(d) For a room constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942, as determined by the owner of such rooms: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.635 (c) (1).

(e) For a room with which meals were provided during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent without separate charge therefor, the rent apportioned by the landlord from the total charge for the room and meals. The landlord's apportionment shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reported in the registration statement for such room. The Administrator at any time on his own initiative or on application of the tenant may by order decrease the maximum rent established by such apportionment, if he finds that the apportionment was unfair or unreasonable.

Every landlord who provides meals with accommodations shall make separate charges for the two. No landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on June 15, 1942.

(f) For a room rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 58A.

§ 1388.635 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. Except in cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section, every adjustment of a maximum rent shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942: Provided, however, That no maximum rent shall be increased because of a major capital improvement or an increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, by more than the amount which the Administrator finds would have been on March 1, 1942, the difference in the rental value of the accommodations by reason of such improvement or increase: And provided, further, That no adjustment shall be ordered because of a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, or a deterioration, where it appears that the rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since March 1, 1942. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms during the year ending on March 1, 1942.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been, since the thirty-day period or the order determining the maximum rent for the room, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, on or prior to March 1, 1942, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent during the thirty-day period ending on March 1, 1942, was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the thirty-day period or the order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by an allowance or discount to a tenant of a class of persons to whom the landlord regularly offered such an allowance or discount, and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(5) There was in force on March 1, 1942, a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to March 1, 1941, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(6) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) (1) If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation 58A, the services provided for a room are less than the minimum services required by § 1388.633, the landlord shall either restore and maintain such minimum services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. If, on such effective date, the furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with a room are less than the minimum required by § 1388.633, the landlord shall, within 30 days after such date, file a written report showing the decrease in furniture, furnishings or equipment.

(2) Except as above provided, the landlord shall, until the room becomes vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment he shall file a petition within 10 days after the change occurs. When the room becomes vacant the landlord may, on renting to a new tenant, decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report showing such decrease.

(3) The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of § 1388.635 (c) (3). If the landlord fails to file the petition or report required by this paragraph within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by any order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. In such case, any order decreasing the maximum rent shall be effective to decrease such rent from the beginning of the first rental period after the decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, whichever is the later. The foregoing provisions and any refund thereunder do not affect any civil or criminal liability provided by the Act for failure to comply with any requirement of this paragraph.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The maximum rent for the room is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the room other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by § 1388.633 since the date or order determining the maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

§ 1388.636 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant of a room within a hotel or rooming house shall be removed from such room, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 58A; or

(2) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the room for the purpose of inspection or of showing the room to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein: Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the room is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or

(3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the room for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the room or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith not to offer the room for rent. If a tenant has been removed or evicted from a room under this paragraph (a) (5), the landlord shall file a written report on a form provided therefor before renting the room during a period of 6 months after such removal or eviction.

(b) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(c) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant (except an action based on non-payment of a rent not in excess of the maximum rent) the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the Area Rent Office stating the title and number of the case, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant and the grounds on which eviction is sought.

(d) The provisions of this section do not apply to:

(1) A subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant; or

(2) A tenant occupying a room within a hotel on a daily or weekly basis; or a tenant occupying on a daily basis a room within a rooming house which has heretofore usually been rented on a daily basis.

(3) Rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

§ 1388.637 Registration and records. (a) Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 58A every landlord of a room rented or offered for rent shall file a written statement on the form provided therefor, containing such information as the Administrator shall require, to be known as a registration statement. Any maximum rent established after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation under paragraphs (b) or (c) of § 1388.634 shall be reported either on the first registration statement or on a statement filed within 5 days after such rent is established.

(b) Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, every landlord shall post and thereafter keep posted conspicuously in each room rented or offered for rent a card or sign plainly stating the maximum rent or rents for all terms of occupancy and for all numbers of occupants for which the room is rented or offered for rent. Where the taking of meals by the tenant or prospective tenant is a condition of renting such room, the card or sign shall so state. Should the maximum rent or rents for the room be changed by order of the Administrator the landlord shall alter the card or sign so that it states the changed rent or rents.

The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to rooms under § 1388.634 (d). The owner of such rooms shall post a copy of the registration statement in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such rooms.

(c) No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(e) Every landlord of a room rented or offered for rent shall preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, all his existing records showing or relating to (1) the rent for each term and number of occupants for which such room was rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for such room and (2) the rent on any date determining a maximum rent for such room for a particular term and number of occupants under § 1388.634 (c).

Every landlord of an establishment containing more than 20 rooms rented or offered for rent shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, records showing the rents received for each room, the particular term and number of occupants for which such rents were charged, and the name and permanent address of each occupant; every other landlord shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, records of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the rents received for rooms.

§ 1388.638 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of a room and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the room by the Administrator as he may from time to time require.

§ 1388.639 Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 58A shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of a room, by requiring the tenant to pay or obligate himself for membership or other fees, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with the room, or otherwise.

§ 1388.640 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation 58A are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

§ 1388.641 Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this Maximum Rent Regulation 58A shall be filed with the Area Rent Office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).[1]

§ 1388.642 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation 58A may file petitions therefor in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

§ 1388.643 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 58A:

(1) The term "Act" means the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(2) The term "Administrator" means the Price Administrator of the Office of Price Administration, or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Administrator may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the Act.

(3) The term "Rent Director" means the person designated by the Administrator as director of the Defense-Rental Area or such person or persons as may be designated to carry out any of the duties delegated to the Rent Director by the Administrator.

(4) The "Area Rent Office" means the office of the Rent Director in the Defense-Rental Area.

(5) The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(6) The term "housing accommodations" means any building, structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes (including houses, apartments, hotels, rooming or boarding house accommodations, and other properties used for living or dwelling purposes), together with all privileges, services, furnishings, furniture, equipment, facilities and improvements connected with the use or occupancy of such property.

(7) The term "room" means a room or group of rooms rented or offered for rent as a unit in a hotel or rooming house. The term includes ground rented as space for a trailer.

(8) The term "services" includes repairs, decorating, and maintenance, the furnishing of light, heat, hot and cold water, telephone, elevator service, window shades, and storage, kitchen, bath, and laundry facilities and privileges, maid service, linen service, janitor service, the removal of refuse and any other privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of a room.

(9) The term "landlord" includes an owner, lessor, sublessor, assignee or other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any room, or an agent of any of the foregoing.

(10) The term "tenant" includes a subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the possession or to the use or occupancy of any room.

(11) The term "rent" means the consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity demanded or received for the use or occupancy of a room or for the transfer of a lease of such room.

(12) The term "term of occupancy" means occupancy on a daily, weekly, or monthly basis.

(13) The term "hotel" means any establishment generally recognized as such in its community, containing more than 50 rooms and used predominantly for transient occupancy.

(14) The term "rooming house" means, in addition to its customary usage, a building or portion of a building other than a hotel in which a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment are rented on a short time basis of daily, weekly, or monthly occupancy to more than two paying tenants not members of the landlord's immediate family. The term includes boarding houses, dormitories, auto camps, trailers, residence clubs, tourist homes or cabins, and all other establishments of a similar nature.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used in this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.644 Effective date of the regulation. This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 58A (§§ 1388.631 to 1388.644, inclusive) shall become effective December 1, 1942.

Issued this 27th day of November 1942.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 154 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

BEEBE BROTHERS RUBBER COMPANY

On October 20, 1942, Beebe Brothers Rubber Company of Nashua, New Hampshire, filed application with the Office of Price Administration seeking specific authorization pursuant to § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation to determine the maximum price for rubber heels, other than those sold in the shoe repair trade, and for instructions as to the method to be used in determining such price. Due consideration has been given to the application and an opinion in support of this order has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as Amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration, It is hereby ordered:

---

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F. R. 3038, 3211, 3522, 3578, 3824, 3905, 4405, 5224, 5405, 5567, 5836, 6005, 6484, 7451, 8217, 8941, 9002, 8948.

§ 1499.1170 Authorization for Beebe Brothers Rubber Company to determine maximum prices for rubber heels, other than those sold in the shoe repair trade, produced after August 15, 1942. (a) The maximum prices which may be charged for rubber heels, other than those sold in the shoe repair trade, produced after August 15, 1942, by the Beebe Brothers Rubber Company, hereinafter called the "manufacturer", shall be: The maximum price of a rubber heel of the same type, brand, size and thickness, which was delivered or offered for delivery by the manufacturer in March 1942, adjusted by adding or substracting the increase or decrease in direct costs resulting from the changes in the physical properties of that rubber heel due to the use of a different grade of reclaimed rubber. The direct costs for the rubber heel made of the new compound and the rubber heel made of the old compound shall be determined as follows:

(1) The direct costs shall be the sum total of direct labor and direct materials costs. The direct labor costs shall be determined by multiplying the estimated number of hours of each type of labor required in the manufacture of the article by the wage rates determined in accordance with subdivision (i) of this subparagraph (1). The direct materials costs shall be determined by multiplying the estimated quantity of each type of material required in the manufacture of the article by the materials prices determined in accordance with subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph (1).

(i) The wage rates applicable to the article shall be the highest wage rates, in effect in the manufacturer's plant for any substantial portion of March, 1942, for each class of labor involved in the production of the commodity. If the manufacturer did not employ a given class of labor in March, 1942, he shall use the highest wage rate paid for any substantial portion of March, 1942, by the nearest employer operating under comparable conditions who employed that class of labor during that month.

(ii) The price of any materials used in the article being priced shall be the highest price charged during March, 1942 (as defined in subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph (1)) by the manufacturer's supplier; except that if the Office of Price Administration has established a lower maximum price for the sale of that material to the manufacturer by his supplier, such lower price shall govern. If the material was not delivered or offered for delivery by the manufacturer's supplier during March, 1942, the material price shall be the first price at which the manufacturer's supplier offered to sell the material to a purchaser of the same class as the manufacturer after March 31, 1942, or the maximum price for the material established by the Office of Price Administration, whichever is the lower. The manufacturer's supplier shall be (a) his March, 1942, supplier of the material, or (b) lacking a March, 1942, supplier of the material, his most recent supplier of the material. If neither of these exists; it shall be his potential supplier. For the purposes of this subdivision (ii), if the manufacturer shall receive a written affirmation from the seller that the material is being sold at a price which is not in excess of the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration, and if the manufacturer shall have no cause to doubt the accuracy of the affirmation, and if, as of the time of his determination of the price of an article the maximum price of which is established by this order, the manufacturer shall have no reason to believe that the selling price of the material is in excess of the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration, the price as affirmed by the seller shall be deemed to be the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration for that material.

(iii) When used in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph (1), the phrase "highest price charged during March, 1942" means:

(a) The highest price at which the seller delivered, or if he did not deliver, at which he offered the commodity for delivery, during March, 1942, to the same manufacturer in a quantity normal for that manufacturer.

(b) If the seller made no such delivery or offer for delivery during March, 1942, to the same manufacturer, the highest price at which the seller delivered, or if he did not deliver, at which he offered the commodity for delivery, during March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class as the manufacturer in a quantity normal for that purchaser.

(c) If the seller made no such delivery or offer for delivery during March, 1942, to the same manufacturer or to a purchaser of the same class, the highest price charged by the seller during March, 1942, to a purchaser of a different class, in a quantity normal for that purchaser, adjusted to reflect the seller's customary differential between the two classes of purchasers.

(b) This Order No. 154 may be revoked or amended by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

(c) This Order No. 154 (§ 1499.1170) shall become effective November 28, 1942.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 155 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

MARY CHESS, INC.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1171 Approval of maximum prices for sales of Strategy Perfume and Strategy Toilet Water—(a) Sales by Mary Chess, Inc.—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales of Strategy Perfume and Strategy Toilet Water by Mary Chess, Inc., to retail establishments and to consumers are established as set forth below:

	Retail establishments	Consumers
	Each	Each
½ ounce knight chessman bottle of Strategy Perfume	$6.00	$10.00
¾ dram pawn chessman bottle of Strategy Perfume	.90	1.50
6-ounce star-shaped bottle of Strategy Toilet Water	3.00	5.00

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Mary Chess, Inc., shall apply to the maximum prices set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for its sales of Strategy Perfume all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of transportation costs, and any other customary discounts or allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on its sales of White Lilac Perfume.

Mary Chess, Inc., shall apply to the maximum prices set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for its sales of Strategy Toilet Water all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of transportation costs, and any other customary discounts or allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on its sales of White Lilac Toilet Water.

(b) Sales by retail establishments—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales by any retail establishment of Strategy Perfume and Strategy Toilet Water are established as set forth below:

	Each
½ ounce knight chessman bottle of Strategy Perfume	$10.00
¾ dram pawn chessman bottle of Strategy Perfume	1.50
6 ounce star shaped bottle of Strategy Toilet Water	5.00

When used in this order the term "retail establishment" means any person who buys the ½ ounce knight chessman bottle of Strategy Perfume, the ¾ dram pawn chessman bottle of Strategy Perfume, or the 6 ounce star shaped bottle of Strategy Toilet Water and resells it, without substantially changing its form, directly to consumers.

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Any retail establishment making sales of Strategy Perfume shall apply to the maximum prices set forth for such sales in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of shipping charges and other customary discounts and allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on sales by the retail establishment of White Lilac Perfume or on sales of the perfume most nearly comparable to Strategy Perfume if the retail establishment did not sell White Lilac Perfume in March, 1942.

Any retail establishment making sales of Strategy Toilet Water shall apply to the maximum prices set forth for such sales in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of shipping charges and other customary discounts or allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on sales by the retail establishment of White Lilac Toilet Water or on sales of the toilet water most nearly comparable to Strategy Toilet Water if the retail establishment did not sell White Lilac Toilet Water in March, 1942.

(c) Notification of maximum prices. Mary Chess, Inc., shall accompany the first delivery of the ½ ounce knight chessman bottle of Strategy Perfume, the first delivery of the ¾ dram pawn chessman bottle of Strategy Perfume, and the first delivery of the 6 ounce star shaped bottle of Strategy Toilet Water to each retail establishment with a notification of the maximum prices for sales by retail establishments which are established by this Order No. 155. Such notification shall be effected by accompanying the first delivery of each type of bottle of Strategy Perfume and Strategy Toilet Water to each retail establishment with a copy of this Order No. 155.

(d) Definitions. When used in this order the term:

(1) "½ ounce knight chessman bottle of Strategy Perfume" means a ½ ounce glass bottle of perfume, Strategy fragrance, with a specially designed ground glass stopper simulating a knight of chess, mounted in a yellow satin rayon presentation box of stage design, manufactured and distributed by Mary Chess, Inc., under the name of Strategy Perfume.

(2) "¾ dram pawn chessman bottle of Strategy Perfume" means a ¾ dram glass bottle of perfume, Strategy fragrance, with a metal ball screw top simulating a pawn of chess, manufactured and distributed by Mary Chess, Inc., under the name of Strategy Perfume.

(3) "6 ounce star shaped bottle of Strategy Toilet Water" means a 6 fluid ounce five-pointed star shaped glass bottle of toilet water, Strategy fragrance, with a ground glass stopper, mounted in a special carton, manufactured and distributed by Mary Chess, Inc., under the name of Strategy Toilet Water.

(4) "White Lilac Perfume" means a ¾ dram glass bottle of perfume, White Lilac fragrance, with a metal ball screw top simulating a pawn of chess, manufactured and distributed by Mary Chess, Inc., under the name of White Lilac Perfume.

(5) "White Lilac Toilet Water" means a 6 fluid ounce five-pointed star shaped glass bottle of toilet water, White Lilac fragrance, with a ground glass stopper mounted in a special carton, manufactured and distributed by Mary Chess, Inc., under the name of White Lilac Toilet Water.

(e) This Order No. 155 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) This Order No. 155 (§ 1499.1171) shall become effective November 28, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 156 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

SMARTSTYL SHOE COMPANY

Smartstyl Shoe Company, Mayville, Wisconsin, made application pursuant to § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation for an authorization to determine maximum prices for a growing girls' shoe with a crepe sole. Due consideration has been given to the application and it appears that the new shoe cannot be priced by the seller under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation. For the reasons set forth in an opinion in support of this order, which has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is hereby ordered:

§ 1499.1172 Approval of method of determining a maximum price of a growing girls' Goodyear Welt oxford with a crepe sole for Smartstyl Shoe Company, Mayville, Wisconsin. (a) Smartstyl Shoe Company is hereby authorized to determine the maximum price for a new style of growing girls' shoe with a crepe sole in the following manner:

(1) From the same general classification as the new shoe it shall select as a base shoe a shoe which has the March 1942 total direct labor and material cost nearest to the calculated March 1942 total direct labor and material cost of the new shoe, which has a price established under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, and of which a substantial number of units was delivered in March 1942. If there is no shoe of the same general classification, it shall select as a base shoe the shoe which is in the March 1942 total material and direct labor cost range nearest to the calculated March 1942 total material and direct labor cost of the new shoe, and of which it delivered a substantial number of units during March 1942.

(2) It shall divide the maximum price for the base shoe by the total March 1942 material and direct labor cost thereof;

(3) It shall multiply the percentage so obtained by the total material and direct labor cost of the new shoe figured on a March 1942 basis;

(4) It shall then subtract the total March 1942 material and direct labor cost of the base shoe from the maximum selling price thereof; and

(5) Add the total March 1942 material and direct labor cost of the new shoe to the figure so obtained;

(6) The lower of the two results (operation 3 or 5) is the maximum price for the new shoe to a purchaser of the same class as that to which the price of the base shoe applies;

(b) The costs to be used in computing the above mentioned formula are to be compiled by filling out Form GMPR: 6—Report of a Maximum Price for a New Shoe.

(c) All allowances, discounts, trade practices and practices relating to the payment of transportation costs in effect during March 1942, shall apply to the maximum prices determined under paragraph (a).

(d) Within ten days after the maximum selling prices have been determined as herein provided the Smartstyl Shoe Company shall submit an individual report on Form GMPR 6 for each shoe priced under this Order No. 156 to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

(e) The maximum selling price as determined pursuant to paragraph (a) shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

(f) This Order No. 156 may be revoked or amended by the Office of Price Administration at any time;

(g) This Order No. 156 (§ 1499.1172) shall become effective November 28, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

(e), and (f) are added as set forth below:

§ 1499.108 Base-period records and reports. * * *

(c) If a seller of a service sells any service not the same as or similar to a service sold by him in March 1942, or not priced by the same rate, or pricing method and charges as he regularly used in March 1942, the records required by paragraph (d) of this § 1499.108 shall be preserved for examination by the Office of Price Administration, and a statement identical with that required by paragraph (b) of this § 1499.108 shall be prepared, kept and filed as required by that paragraph,

(d) For all services sold after December 3, 1942, the effective date of Amendment No. 10 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended (or sold after the effective date of the amendment which makes the service subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended, if that is later), the seller shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all records of the same kind as those he has customarily kept which relate to the prices which he charged for such services, the rates, or the pricing method and charges which he used, his offering prices for supply and an appropriate description and identification of those services.

(e) Where a service is made subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended for the first time, the seller must prepare, keep and file the statements required by paragraphs (b) and (c) of this § 1499.108 in accordance with those provisions. But the statements required by paragraphs (b) and (c) of this § 1499.108 need not be prepared nor kept available for inspection before twenty (20) days from the effective date of the amendment covering the service, and need not be filed with the Office of Price Administration before thirty (30) days from the effective date of such amendment.

(f) All statements required by this § 1499.108 must be signed by the seller personally (or if the seller is a partnership, by a partner, or if a corporation or an association, by a duly authorized officer).

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 237,[1] Amendment 4]

ADJUSTED AND FIXED MARKUP REGULATION FOR SALES OF CERTAIN FOOD PRODUCTS AT WHOLESALE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Amendment No. 4 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 237 has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1351.509a is added and § 1351.510 is amended; all to read as set forth below:

§ 1351.509a Addition allowed service wholesalers for deliveries outside of a base zone. (a) A service wholesaler who during March 1942 customarily (1) charged different delivered prices for the same food products because of the areas or zones in which the deliveries were made; and (2) determined his delivered prices for each of these areas or zones by adding to the delivered prices established for retailers situated in some base area or zone, an amount approximately equal to the difference between the average cost of delivery to the retailers in the base area or zone and the average cost of delivery to the retailers in such other areas or zones, may continue to receive such amounts in addition to his maximum prices, but such amounts (hereinafter called zone differentials) must be separately stated on the wholesaler's invoices.

(b) Before using such a zone differential, a service wholesaler must report it to the nearest district office or, in the absence of a district office, to the nearest state office of the Office of Price Administration, together with proof showing its customary use by him during March 1942.

(c) The Office of Price Administration reserves the right to adjust at any time any such zone differential permitted under this section.

§ 1351.510 Adjustment of maximum prices for different classes of purchasers. If a wholesaler had a practice during March, 1942 of giving to different classes of purchases allowances, discounts or other price differentials, he is required to reduce his maximum price calculated for any food product by the amount of such allowances, discounts or other price differentials, except as otherwise provided in § 1351.509a. No wholesaler shall change his customary allowances, discounts and price differentials if the change results in a higher net price.

PART 1364—FRESH, CURED, AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH

[MPR 277]

SALES BY CANNERS OF MACKEREL

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of canned mackerel have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of canned mackerel prevailing between October 1, 1941 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable, and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The maximum prices established herein are not below the average price of such commodities in the year 1941.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 277 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1364.601 to 1364.614, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1364.601 Prohibition against dealing in canned mackerel at prices above the maximum. On or after December 4, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no canner, or agent or other person acting on behalf, or under control, of such canner shall sell or deliver any canned mackerel, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive from a canner any mackerel at prices higher than those set forth in § 1364.612; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of canned mackerel to a purchaser if prior to November 1942, such mackerel has been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

[1] 7 F.R. 8205, 8427, 8808.

§ 1364.602 Conditional agreement. No canner of mackerel shall enter into an agreement permitting the adjustment of the prices to prices which may be higher than the maximum prices provided by § 1364.612 in the event that this Maximum Price Regulation No. 277 is amended or is determined by a court to be invalid or upon any other contingency: Provided, That if a petition for amendment has been duly filed, and such petition requires extensive consideration, the Administrator may grant an exception from the provisions of this section permitting the making of contracts adjustable upon the granting of the petition for amendment.

§ 1364.603 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export canned mackerel shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1364.604 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1364.612 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1364.605 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in Maximum Price Regulation No. 277 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to canned mackerel, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by changing the selection or style of processing or the canning, wrapping or packaging of mackerel.

§ 1364.606 Records and reports. (a) Every person making a purchase or sale of canned mackerel in the course of trade or business, or otherwise dealing therein, after December 3, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and of the seller, the price contracted for or received, the quantity and a description of the grade or brand, style of pack, and container size of mackerel.

(b) Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1364.607 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 277 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 277 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any act or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1364.608 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Regulation No. 277 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1364.609 Applicability. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 277 shall be applicable to the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1364.610 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation.[4] The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 277 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1364.611 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 277 the term:

(1) "Person" includes any individual corporation, partnership, association, or other organized group of persons, legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any agency thereof, or other government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agency of the foregoing: Provided, That no punishment provided by this regulation shall apply to the United States or to any such government, political subdivision, or agency.

(2) "Canner" means a person who preserves mackerel by processing and hermetically sealing in metal containers.

(3) "Mackerel" means any fish of the genus "scomber scombus" or of the species "pneumato phorus japonicus diego" or of the species "trachurus symmepericus."

(4) "Tall" can means a can (300 x 307) packed to a net weight of 15 ounces on the West Coast for Pacific mackerel and packed to a net weight of 14 ounces on the East Coast for Atlantic mackerel.

(5) "Oval" can means a can 607 x 406 x 108 when the same is packed with Pacific mackerel to a net weight of 15 ounces.

(6) "Price per case" means the price for 48 cans of mackerel packed for shipment in the usual container.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1364.612 Maximum Canners' prices for mackerel. (a) The prices set forth below are maximum prices per case f. o. b. cars at the shipping point nearest cannery. The maximum prices are gross prices and the seller shall deduct therefrom his customary allowances, discounts and differentials to purchasers of different classes.

Pacific Mackerel, per case of "talls" or "ovals"	$5.00
Atlantic Mackerel, per case of "talls"	8.00

(b) For varieties, container sizes, or types and styles of pack of mackerel not listed in paragraph (a) the price shall be a price determined by the Office of Price Administration to be in line with the prices listed in paragraph (a). Such determination shall be made upon written request, addressed to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and accompanied by sworn statements showing costs and usual differentials.

§ 1364.613 Notification from mackerel canners to purchasers, and from wholesalers to retailers. On and after December 4, 1942, canners and wholesalers of canned mackerel shall supply to each purchaser before or at the time of the first delivery of canned mackerel to such purchaser a written notification as follows:

> The OPA has authorized maximum canner prices on Pacific and Atlantic canned mackerel. Wholesalers and retailers are required to maintain March ceilings on these products except where the provisions of Maximum Price Regulations No. 237 and No. 238 on canned fish may be applied by such wholesalers and retailers. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

§ 1364.614. Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 277 (§§ 1364.601 to 1364.614) shall become effective December 4, 1942.

Issued this 28th day of November 1942.

Part 1499—Commodities and Services

[Order 157 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

REVLON PRODUCTS CORP.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1173 Approval of maximum prices for sales of Victory Lipstick—(a) Sales by Revlon Products Corporation. (1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales by Revlon Products Corporation of the Victory Lipstick to jobbers and to retail establishments are established as set forth below:

	To jobbers (each)	To retail establishments (each)
Victory Lipstick	$0.15	$0.24

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Revlon Products Corporation shall apply to the maximum prices set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for its sales of the Victory Lipstick all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of transportation costs, and any other customary discounts or allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on its sales of the Revlon Plastic Case Lipstick.

(b) Sales by jobbers—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum price for sales by jobbers of the Victory Lipstick is established as set forth below:

Victory Lipstick________________$0.24 each

When used in this order the term "jobber" means any barber and beauty supply jobber or other person who buys the Victory Lipstick and resells it, without substantially changing its form, to retail establishments.

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Any jobber making sales of the Victory Lipstick shall apply to the maximum price set forth for such sales in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of shipping charges, and other customary discounts or allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on sales by the jobber of the Revlon Plastic Case Lipstick, or on his sales of the lipstick most nearly comparable to the Victory Lipstick if the jobber did not sell the Revlon Plastic Case Lipstick in March, 1942.

(c) Sales by retail establishments—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum price for sales by any retail establishment of the Victory Lipstick is established as set forth below:

Victory lipstick________________ $0.40 each

When used in this order the term "retail establishment" means any beauty shop, drug store, department store, or other person who buys the Victory Lipstick and resells it directly to consumers.

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Any retail establishment making sales of the Victory Lipstick shall apply to the maximum price set forth for such sales in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of shipping charges, and other customary discounts or allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on sales by the retail establishment of the Revlon Plastic Case Lipstick, or the lipstick most nearly comparable to the Victory Lipstick if the retail establishment did not sell the Revlon Plastic Case Lipstick in March, 1942.

(d) Marking lipstick with retail ceiling price. Revlon Products Corporation shall mark each Victory Lipstick sold by it with the words "Ceiling Price 40¢." These words shall be printed or stamped in a color contrasting with the label in letters of sufficient size to be clearly legible to the consumer on the lipstick or on the package in which the Victory Lipstick is customarily sold by the retail establishment to the consumer. No retail establishment shall make sales of the Victory Lipstick unless the lipstick or the package in which the product is sold is marked with the ceiling price as required by this paragraph.

(e) Notification of maximum prices—(1) By Revlon Products Corporation to direct-buying retail establishments. On and after November 30, 1942, Revlon Products Corporation shall supply to each retail establishment before or at the time of its first delivery of Victory Lipstick to such retail establishment, a written statement as follows:

> The OPA has authorized us to charge 24 cents each for Victory Lipstick subject to all customary discounts and allowances. Your ceiling price is authorized to be 40 cents each for Victory Lipstick. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(2) By Revlon Products Corporation to jobbers and to retail establishments via jobbers. On and after November 30, 1942, Revlon Products Corporation shall supply to each jobber before or at the time of its first delivery of Victory Lipstick and in addition shall include with each shipping unit of such product for a period of three months a written notification. If such notification is enclosed in a shipping unit, a legend shall be affixed outside of such unit to read "Retailer's Notice Enclosed." The written notification shall read as follows:

> The OPA has authorized us to charge 15 cents each for Victory Lipstick subject to all customary discounts and allowances. Jobbers are authorized to establish a ceiling price of 24 cents each for this item subject to all customary discounts and allowances. Retail establishments are authorized to establish a ceiling price of 40 cents each for this item. A copy of this notice is included in every customary shipping unit. If the initial sale to a retail establishment is a spit-case sale, the jobber is required to provide such retail establishment with a copy of this notice. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(f) Definitions. When used in this order the term:

(1) "Victory Lipstick" means a cream cosmetic lipstick mass enclosed in a paper cylinder having a device for extruding the cream cosmetic lipstick mass.

(2) "Revlon Plastic Case Lipstick" means a cream cosmetic lipstick mass enclosed in a plastic cylinder having a device for extruding the cream cosmetic lipstick mass.

(g) This Order No. 157 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(h) This Order No. 157 (§ 1499.1173) shall become effective on November 30, 1942.

[Order 121 Under § 1499.18 (b) of GMPR]

GANDRUD CREAMERY CO.

Order No. 121 under § 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation—Docket No. GF1–431P.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1022 Adjustment of maximum prices for bulk ice cream sold at wholesale by Gandrud Creamery Company of Redwood Falls, Minnesota. (a) Gandrud Creamery Company of Redwood Falls, Minnesota may sell and deliver at wholesale bulk ice cream at prices not to exceed the following:

	Per gallon
Vanilla and chocolate flavored	$0.85
All other flavors	0.95

(b) At least the same cash discounts, allowances, trade practices, price differentials and quantity discounts to different classes of purchasers heretofore maintained by Gandrud Creamery Company shall be continued in force and apply to sales of bulk ice cream at wholesale hereafter.

(c) Gandrud Creamery Company shall mail or cause to be mailed to all persons who purchase bulk ice cream from it for sale at retail a notice reading as follows:

> The Office of Price Administration has permitted us to raise our maximum price for sales to you of bulk ice cream from $0.80 per gallon for vanilla and chocolate flavored ice cream to $0.85 per gallon, and from $0.90 per gallon for other flavors and combinations of flavors to $0.95 per gallon, subject to at least the same cash discounts, allowances, trade practices, price differentials and quantity discounts to different classes of purchasers which we have heretofore maintained. This amount represents only that part of cost increases which we were unable to absorb, and it was granted to us with the understanding that retail prices would not be raised. The Office of Price Administration has not permitted you or any other seller to raise maximum retail prices for bulk ice cream.

(d) All prayers of the application not granted herein are denied.

(e) This Order No. 121 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) This Order No. 121 (§ 1499.1022) is hereby incorporated as a section of Supplementary Regulation No. 14, which contains modifications of maximum prices established by § 1499.2.

(g) This Order No. 121 (§ 1499.1022) shall become effective November 30, 1942.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Fiscal Service: Bureau of the Public Debt.

[1942 Dept. Circ. 701]

2½ PERCENT TREASURY BONDS OF 1963–68

NOVEMBER 30, 1942.

I. OFFERING OF BONDS

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for bonds of the United States, designated 2½ percent Treasury Bonds of 1963–68. These bonds will not be available for subscription, for their own account, by commercial banks, which are defined for this purpose as banks accepting demand deposits. The amount of the offering is not specifically limited.

II. DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

1. The bonds will be dated December 1, 1942, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 2½ percent per annum, payable on a semiannual basis on June 15 and December 15, 1943, and thereafter on June 15 and December 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable. They will mature December 15, 1968, but may be redeemed at the option of the United States on and after December 15, 1963, in whole or in part, at par and accrued interest, on any interest day or days, on 4 months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. In case of partial redemption the bonds to be redeemed will be determined by such method as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. From the date of redemption designated in any such notice, interest on the bonds called for redemption shall cease.

2. The income derived from the bonds shall be subject to all Federal taxes, now or hereafter imposed. The bonds shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The bonds will not be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys before December 1, 1952; they will not bear the circulation privilege, and they will not be entitled to any privilege of conversion.

4. Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000. Bonds registered as to principal and interest will be issued in denominations of $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds, and for the transfer of registered bonds, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, except that they may not, before December 1, 1952, be transferred to or be held by commercial banks, which are defined, for this purpose, as banks accepting demand deposits. However, the bonds may be pledged as collateral for loans, including loans by commercial banks, but any such bank acquiring such bonds before December 1, 1952 because of the failure of such loans to be paid at maturity will be required to dispose of them in the same manner as they dispose of other assets not eligible to be owned by banks.

5. Any bonds issued hereunder which upon the death of the owner constitute part of his estate, will be redeemed at the option of the duly constituted representatives of the deceased owner's estate, at par and accrued interest to date of payment,[1] Provided:

(a) That the bonds were actually owned by the decedent at the time of his death; and

(b) That the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to apply the entire proceeds of redemption to the payment of Federal estate taxes.

Registered bonds submitted for redemption hereunder must be duly assigned to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption, the proceeds to be paid to the Collector of Internal Revenue at ______ for credit on Federal estate taxes due from estate of ___________." Owing to the periodic closing of the transfer books and the impossibility of stopping payment of interest to the registered owner during the closed period, registered bonds received after the closing of the books for payment during such closed period will be paid only at par with a deduction of interest from the date of payment to the next interest payment date;[2] bonds received during the closed period for payment at a date after the books reopen will be paid at par plus accrued interest from the reopening of the books to the date of payment. In either case checks for the full six months interest due on the last day of the closed period will be forwarded to the owner in due course. All bonds submitted must be accompanied by Form PD 1782,[3] properly completed, signed and sworn to, and by a certificate of the appointment of the personal representatives, under seal of the court, dated not more than 6 months prior to the submission of the bonds, which shall show that at the date thereof the appointment was still in force and effect. Upon payment of the bonds appropriate memorandum receipt will be forwarded to the representatives, which will be followed in due course by formal receipt from the Collector of Internal Revenue.

6. Except as provided in the preceding paragraphs, the bonds will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States bonds.

III. SUBSCRIPTION AND ALLOTMENT

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions and securities dealers generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Subscriptions must be accompanied by payment in full for the amount of bonds applied for.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of bonds applied for, and to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. PAYMENT

1. Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for bonds allotted hereunder must be made on or before December 1, 1942, or on later allotment. One day's accrued interest is $0.068 per $1,000. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for bonds allotted to its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve Bank of its District.

V. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. As fiscal agents of the United States Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective Districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive bonds.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

Secretary of the Treasury.

1¾ PERCENT TREASURY BONDS OF 1948

NOVEMBER 30, 1942.

I. OFFERING OF BONDS

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for bonds of the United States, designated 1¾ percent Treasury Bonds of 1948. The amount of the offering is not specifically limited, although allotments to commercial banks, which are defined for this purpose as banks accepting demand deposits, for their own account will be limited to $2,000,000,000, or thereabouts. The books will be open today and until further notice for the receipt of subscriptions from others than commercial banks for their own account, and today, December 1 and December 2 for the receipt of subscriptions from commercial banks for their own account.

[1] One pint can of special cement to be furnished to purchaser without additional charge with each 12 sets of Saf-T-Glo luminous automobile blackout protectors.

[2] One pint can of special cement to be furnished to purchaser without additional charge with each 12 sets of Saf-T-Glo luminous automobile blackout protectors.

---

[1] An exact half-year's interest is computed for each full half-year period irrespective of the actual number of days in the half year. For a fractional part of any half year, computation is on the basis of the actual number of days in such half year.

[2] The transfer books are closed from May 16 to June 15, and from November 16 to December 15 (both dates inclusive) in each year.

[3] Copies of Form PD 1782 may be obtained from any Federal Reserve Bank or from the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

II. DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

1. The bonds will be dated December 1, 1942, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of $1\frac{3}{4}$ percent per annum, payable on a semiannual basis on June 15 and December 15, 1943, and thereafter on June 15 and December 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable. They will mature June 15, 1948, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the bonds shall be subject to all Federal taxes, now or hereafter imposed. The bonds shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The bonds will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, but will not bear the circulation privilege and will not be entitled to any privilege of conversion.

4. Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000. Bonds registered as to principal and interest will be issued in denominations of $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds, and for the transfer of registered bonds, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

5. The bonds will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States bonds.

III. SUBSCRIPTION AND ALLOTMENT

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Subscribers must agree not to sell or otherwise dispose of their subscriptions, or of the securities which may be allotted thereon, prior to December 3, 1942. Banking institutions and securities dealers generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Others than banking institutions and securities dealers will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Subscriptions from commercial banks for their own account will be received without deposit. All other subscriptions must be accompanied by payment in full for the amount of bonds applied for.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of bonds applied for, and to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, subscriptions for amounts up to and including $100,000 from commercial banks, and subscriptions in any amount from all other subscribers, will be allotted in full; subscriptions for amounts over $100,000 from commercial banks will be allotted on an equal percentage basis, to be publicly announced. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. PAYMENT

1. Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for bonds allotted hereunder to or for the account of others than commercial banks must be made on or before December 1, 1942, or on later allotment. Payment at par and accrued interest to December 11, 1942, for bonds allotted hereunder to commercial banks must be made on that date. One day's accrued interest is $0.048 per $1,000. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for bonds allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve Bank of its District.

V. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective Districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive bonds.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

$\frac{7}{8}$ PERCENT TREASURY CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS OF SERIES E-1943

NOVEMBER 30, 1942.

I. OFFERING OF CERTIFICATES

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for certificates of indebtedness of the United States, designated $\frac{7}{8}$ percent Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of Series E-1943. The amount of the offering is not specifically limited, although allotments to commercial banks, which are defined for this purpose as banks accepting demand deposits, for their own account will be limited to \$2,000,000,000, or thereabouts. The books will be open today and until further notice for the receipt of subscriptions from others than commercial banks for their own account, and on December 16, December 17 and December 18 for the receipt of subscriptions from commercial banks for their own account.

II. DESCRIPTION OF CERTIFICATES

1. The certificates will be dated December 1, 1942, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of $\frac{7}{8}$ percent per annum, payable semiannually on June 1 and December 1, 1943. They will mature December 1, 1943, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the certificates shall be subject to all Federal taxes, now or hereafter imposed. The certificates shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The certificates will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes and will not bear the circulation privilege.

4. Bearer certificates with two interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000. The certificates will not be issued in registered form.

5. The certificates will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States certificates.

III. SUBSCRIPTION AND ALLOTMENT

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Subscribers must agree not to sell or otherwise dispose of their subscriptions, or of the securities which may be allotted thereon, prior to December 19, 1942. Banking institutions and securities dealers generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Others than banking institutions and securities dealers will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Subscriptions from commercial banks for their own account will be received without deposit. All other subscriptions must be accompanied by payment in full for the amount of certificates applied for.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of certificates applied for, and to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, subscriptions for amounts up to and including $100,000 from commercial banks, and subscriptions in any amount from all other subscribers, will be allotted in full; subscriptions for amounts over $100,000 from commercial banks will be allotted on an equal percentage basis, to be publicly announced. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. PAYMENT

1. Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for certificates allotted hereunder to or for the account of others than commercial banks must be made on or before December 1, 1942, or on later allotment. Payment at par and accrued interest to December 28, 1942, for certificates allotted hereunder to commercial banks must be made on that date. One day's accrued interest is $0.024 per $1,000. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for certificates allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve Bank of its District.

V. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective Districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for certificates allotted, to make delivery of certificates on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive certificates.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

LIBERTY FUEL & ICE CO.

ORDER REINSTATING THE REGISTRATION AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of proceedings to determine if certain registered distributors are bona fide merchants actively, regularly and continuously engaged in the business of purchasing coal for resale and actually reselling it in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots within the meaning of § 304.13 of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors; and for the revocation of the registration of distributors who are not so engaged.

The Liberty Fuel & Ice Company, 201 S. E. Third Ave., Portland, Oregon, Registered Distributor No. 5564, having failed to file answer and show cause why its registration as a distributor should not be revoked, as provided by the order to show cause entered herein on February 18, 1942, said registration was revoked on October 2, 1942, in accordance with the provisions of the said order to show cause, and

On November 23, 1942, said registrant having requested permission to file, and having submitted a duly verified answer indicating therein that it is actively, regularly and continuously engaged in the business of purchasing coal for resale and reselling it in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots,

It is ordered, That the Registration of the Liberty Fuel & Ice Company, Registration No. 5564, be and the same hereby is reinstated as of October 2, 1942, subject, however, to such order as may hereafter be entered in these proceedings.

It is further ordered, That the matter of the eligibility of the Liberty Fuel & Ice Company for continued registration as a distributor be and it is hereby set for hearing, as part of the hearing scheduled in this Docket for December 7, 1942, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to whether or not said Liberty Fuel & Ice Company is actively, regularly and continuously engaged in the business of purchasing coal for resale and reselling it in not less than cargo or railroad cargo lots.

WORDEN COAL CO.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the petition of Worden Coal Co. (P. H. Scanlon) for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for coals of the Worden Coal Co. in District No. 10.

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on January 5, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Edward J. Hayes or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before December 31, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of the Worden Coal Co. (P. H. Scanlon), a code member, to change the price classifications and increase the minimum prices applicable to the coals produced at the Worden Coal Co. Mine, Mine Index No. 1314, in District No. 10, for truck shipment to the same price classifications and minimum prices applicable to the coals of the Sunset Hill Mine, Mine Index No. 1051, and the Truck Trade Mine, Mine Index No. 1052, in District No. 10, for truck shipments.

[Docket No. A-941]

DISTRICT BOARD NO. 11

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 11 for the establishment of minimum prices for raw or washed coals which are crushed, pulverized or reduced by any method down to the size dimensions prescribed for Size Groups 13–16, inclusive, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition, as amended, filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on June 27, 1941, by District Board 11, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting the establishment of minimum prices in District 11 for lump, double-screened, mine run, modified mine run and mine run resultant coals, either raw or mechanically cleaned, that have been crushed, pulverized, or reduced by any method down to the size dimensions prescribed for Size Groups 13–16, inclusive, or for coals rescreened from such crushed sizes into nut and stoker coals (Size Groups 9, 10, 11, and 12) and resultant carbon (Size Group 15).

Pursuant to orders of the Director and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing was held in this matter on November 17, and 18, 1941, before a duly designated Examiner of the Division, and the Examiner, on May 1, 1942, submitted his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law and upon the basis thereof recommended that the relief in this matter be granted. Thereafter, opportunity was afforded to all parties to file exceptions thereto, and on June 22, 1942, petitioner and District Board 4 filed Exceptions to the Examiner's Report. On August 15, 1942, the Acting Director issued his Memorandum Opinion and Order Modifying, and Approving and Adopting as Modified, the findings and recommendations of the Examiner.

On October 26, 1942, District Board No. 11, the original petitioner herein, filed a motion for the reopening of and further hearing in this proceeding and for immediate temporary relief pending final decision on the motion. After timely notice to all intervenors, an informal conference was held on the motion on November 4, 1942. Representatives of District Board No. 6, District Board No. 11, and the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel appeared at the conference.

In substance, the motion of District Board No. 11 requests that the relief heretofore granted in this matter by the Order of the Acting Director dated August 15, 1942, be amended and broadened to accommodate certain preparations of coals produced in District No. 11 for which it is claimed minimum prices have not heretofore been established. The Order of the Acting Director dated August 15, 1942, 7 F.R. 6761, established minimum prices for lump, double-screened, mine run, and modified mine run coals and mine resultants of District No. 11, either raw or mechanically cleaned, which are crushed, pulverized, or reduced by any method, down to the size dimensions prescribed by Size Groups 13, 14, 15, and 16, or coals that are rescreened from such crushed sizes into nut and stoker coals (Size Groups 9, 10, 11, and 12) and resultant carbon (Size Group 15). For the crushed coals reduced to the size dimensions prescribed for Size Groups 13, 14, 15, and 16, prices were established when such crushed coals are loaded directly into railroad cars without subsequent screening or preparation process and without being mixed with natural screenings, or when they are returned to the flow of coal to the raw coal classification screens, or mixed with raw or washed screenings of similar size dimension. Minimum prices were also established for crushed coals reduced to the size dimensions prescribed for Size Groups 9–12, inclusive, and 15. Certain price instructions and definitions were also contained in the Order.

District Board No. 11 now requests that:

1. For crushed coal made from raw or mechanically cleaned coal from which 50 percent of the $\frac{3}{8}''$ minus coal is removed, or which is dedusted through the use of standard dedusters equipped with screens with openings smaller than 8 mesh, and which is loaded directly into railroad cars or is mixed with washed screenings, the same minimum prices applicable to washed screenings in Size Groups 23 and 24 be established. The Board states that this would maintain as between such coals and the prices established for coals crushed to the dimensions prescribed by Size Groups 13 and 14 (raw screenings) substantially the same differential which was established in General Docket No. 15 between Size Groups 13 and 14 (raw screenings) and Size Groups 26 and 27 (dry dedusted screenings).

2. The Order of the Acting Director dated August 15, 1942, be amended to provide that the minimum prices there established for coals crushed and rescreened to the size dimensions of stoker and nut be applicable only when such coals are crushed, rescreened, and loaded directly into railroad cars; that where raw or washed nut and stoker coals are mixed with crushed coals of the same size dimensions, the mixture not to exceed 50 percent crushed coal in the aggregate, take the minimum prices applicable to coals in Size Groups 9, 10, 11, 12 (raw nut and stoker), 17, 18, 19, or 20 (washed nut and stoker) as the case may be.

3. Where the carbon or dust which results from the crushing of coals to the size dimensions prescribed by Size Groups 9, 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 19, 20 or from the de-dusting of coals crushed to the size dimensions prescribed by Size Groups 13 and 14 is loaded direct into railroad cars or is mixed with the total concurrent production of raw carbon or dust, the carbon or dust resulting from crushing not to exceed 50 percent of the mixture, the minimum prices be the same as those applicable to coals in Size Groups 15 and 16, and where it is mixed with washed carbon, the mixture not to exceed 50 percent of the carbon resulting from crushing, the minimum prices be the same as those applicable to coals in Size Group 25.

4. Where coals are crushed to the dimensions prescribed for Size Groups 13, 14, 15, and 16, and returned to the flow of coal to the raw coal classification screen or mixed with the total concurrent production of raw screenings of these size groups, the crushed coal in such mixture not exceeding 50 percent of the aggregate, and then further mixed with coals of Size Groups 26 through 29, inclusive (dry dedusted screenings), or 30 through 32, inclusive (water dedusted screenings), the minimum prices be the same as those now applicable to uncrushed coals in these respective size groups.

The District Board also requests that for the purposes of clarification certain changes be made in the language descriptive of certain of the preparations for which minimum prices were established in the Acting Director's Order of August 15, 1942, and in the language of a price instruction established by that Order pertaining to the invoicing of coals.

Representatives of District Board No. 11 stated that, until recently, code members in District No. 11 had been of the opinion that the minimum prices applicable to coals which had not undergone secondary crushing in the preparation process were applicable to such coals when mixed with other coals which had undergone secondary crushing in the preparation process; that a recent letter from the Director of the Division to a code member producer in District No. 11 stated, however, that minimum prices had not been established for a particular mixture of such crushed coals with uncrushed coals; that it was inferred that minimum prices had not been established for other mixtures similarly prepared; and that as a consequence, code members in District No. 11 who normally produce such mixtures and have heavy outstanding commitments for their sale to industries essential to the war effort had terminated the production and sale of such mixtures pending the establishment of minimum prices therefor. It was further represented that the minimum prices proposed by the District Board were fair and equitable in that the admixture of crushed coals in a particular size of uncrushed coals of the same size would cause little deviation, if any, from the market value of uncrushed coals of the same size dimensions. With respect to the proposed revision of the Price Instruction pertaining to the invoicing of coals priced in the Order of August 15, 15, 1942, it was stated that the proposal of the District Board would promote some convenience. It appears that there is no urgency about the proposed revision of that instruction. It does appear, however, that minimum prices are urgently necessary for the preparations described by the Board and its representatives. No testimony was offered in opposition to the proposal of the Board, and accordingly it seems proper to establish the prices requested, temporarily, pending final disposition of this proceeding.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That, until otherwise ordered, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 11 for All Shipments Except Truck is amended and supplemented to include the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the schedule marked "Supplement R", annexed hereto and hereby made a part hereof.

Dated: November 18, 1942.

[P. & S. Docket No. 425]

SIOUX CITY STOCK YARDS COMPANY

ORDER OF MODIFICATION

Pursuant to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 181), the Secretary of Agriculture on December 13, 1934, issued an order prescribing reasonable rates and charges for stockyard services rendered by the respondent.

On August 15, 1935, the Secretary issued an order modifying the rates and charges prescribed in the order of December 13, 1934.

On November 6, 1937, the Secretary of Agriculture issued an order further modifying the rates and charges prescribed in the order of December 13, 1934, as modified by the order of August 15, 1935. The rates prescribed by the order of November 6, 1937, have continued in effect to the present date.

An audit and analysis have been made of respondent's books and records covering its operations for the years 1935 to 1941, both inclusive. The audit disclosed that for this period the respondent, after the payment of reasonable operating expenses, including Federal income taxes, earned an average rate of return of approximately 7.19 percent on the fair value of the used and useful property as found in the order. The audit also shows that during the four calendar years which have elapsed since the modification of November 6, 1937, became effective, the respondent, after payment of reasonable operating expenses, including Federal income taxes, earned 8.15 percent of the fair value of the used and useful property as found in the order.

In addition, an analysis of monthly reports filed by the respondent, covering its operations for the first nine months of its fiscal year, which ends October 31, 1942, shows that respondent's earnings during that period have been at the rate of approximately 9.7 percent of the fair value of the used and useful property as found in the order.

The respondent claims that effective on or about September 1, 1942, it consummated a wage agreement with certain of its employees which will result in an increase in respondent's operating expenses during its next fiscal year of approximately $25,000.

In its petition on which the order of November 6, 1937, was based, the respondent agreed that the Secretary could, without further hearing, order reductions of respondent's rates and charges for services rendered by respondent at its stockyard, from time to time, whenever the Secretary found, after such investigation as was deemed proper in the circumstances, that such reductions were warranted, with the understanding, however, that no reduction would be made below the rates and charges fixed by the order of December 13, 1934, without respondent's consent, except after a hearing, pursuant to the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921. The respondent further agreed to submit not later than the 10th day of each month an itemized statement of revenues and expenses of the preceding month, including details as to the volume of livestock receipts handled and quantities of feed and bedding sold and agreed to notify the Secretary of any change or changes in the scale of wages and salaries paid to respondent's employees and officials.

On consideration of all the facts disclosed by the audit and analysis of respondent's books and records covering its operations for the years 1935 to 1941, both inclusive, together with a consideration and analysis of the monthly reports submitted by respondent under the provisions of the order of November 6, 1937, and of the prospective increase in wages of its employees claimed by respondent it is concluded that the rates and charges for services provided in the order of modification of November 6, 1937, are unreasonably high and, therefore, that such rates and charges should be reduced by a further order of modification.

Order

It is hereby ordered, That, at least 10 days prior to the 20th day from the date of this order, the respondent file and publish a schedule containing the following rates and charges for its services to be effective on the 20th day from the date of this order to continue in effect until further order of the Secretary:

NON-BASIC AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

EXPANSION OF PRODUCTION

Section 4 (a) of the Act approved July 1, 1941, 55 Stat. 498, as amended by Public Law 729, 77th Congress, October 2, 1942, provides as follows:

> Whenever during the existing emergency the Secretary of Agriculture finds it necessary to encourage the expansion of production of any non-basic agricultural commodity, he shall make public announcement thereof and he shall so use the funds made available under section 3 of this Act or otherwise made available to him for the disposal of agricultural commodities, through a commodity loan, purchase, or other operation, taking into account the total funds available for such purpose for all commodities, so as to support, during the continuance of the present war and until the expiration of the two year period beginning with the 1st day of January immediately following the date upon which the President by proclamation or the Congress by concurrent resolution declares that hostilities in the present war have terminated, a price for the producers of any such commodity with respect to which such announcement was made of not less than 90 per centum of the parity or comparable price therefor. The comparable price for any such commodity shall be determined and used by the Secretary for the purposes of this section if the production or consumption of such commodity has so changed in extent or character since the base period as to result in a price out of line with parity prices for basic commodities. Any such commodity loan, purchase, or other operation which is undertaken shall be continued until the Secretary has given sufficient public announcement to permit the producers of such commodity to make a readjustment in the production of the commodity. For the purposes of this section, commodities other than cotton, corn, wheat, tobacco, peanuts, and rice shall be deemed to be non-basic commodities.

Pursuant to the foregoing provisions of law, public announcement is hereby made that I have found it necessary to encourage the expansion of production of the non-basic agricultural commodities named below, and the Secretary will during the period ending June 30, 1944, for all such commodities except hogs, and for hogs for the period ending September 30, 1944, through loans, purchases or other operations, support a price for eligible producers of each of these commodities at not less than the price level stated opposite such commodity, with adjustments, where applicable, for location, type, grade, and class.

Commodity and Level at Which Price Will Be Supported

Hogs: 90 percent of the parity price; but in no event less than $13.25 per hundredweight, average for good to choice butcher hogs weighing 240 to 270 pounds, at Chicago.

Eggs, chickens (excluding broilers or chickens weighing less than three pounds live weight), and turkeys: 90 percent of the parity price; but in no event a price for eggs purchased on an offer and acceptance basis equivalent to less than 30 cents per dozen in the spring and early summer and an annual average price of 34 cents per dozen, basis U. S. average farm price.

Butter, cheese, dry skim milk, and evaporated milk: 90 percent of the parity price equivalent; but in no event less than 46 cents per pound for 92 score butter, Chicago basis, the equivalent of 27 cents per pound including subsidy for No. 1 American Cheese, Plymouth basis, 12.5 cents for roller and 14.5 cents for spray process dry skim milk, extra grade Midwest basis, and a comparable price for evaporated milk, f. o. b. plant basis, which will be announced hereafter.

The 1943 crop of dry peas of the following varietal types: Alaska, Bluebell, Scotch Green, First and Best, and White Canada; 90 percent of the comparable price calculated as of the beginning of the marketing year (August 1), but in no event less than $5.25 per hundredweight for U. S. No. 1 peas and $5.00 per hundredweight for U. S. No. 2 peas, in bags, f. o. b. cars at country shipping points. Prices for wrinkled varieties will not be supported.

The 1943 crop of dry edible beans of the following varietal types: Pea, Medium White, Great Northern, Small White, Flat Small White, Pink, Pinto, Cranberry, Light Red Kidney, Dark Red Kidney, and Western Red Kidney; 90 percent of the parity price calculated as of the beginning of the marketing year (September 1); but in no event less than $5.35 per hundredweight for U. S. No. 1 beans and $5.20 per hundredweight for U. S. No. 2 beans, in bags, f. o. b. cars at country shipping points.

The 1943 crop of soybeans for oil: 90 percent of the comparable price calculated as of the beginning of the marketing year (October 1); but, in no event, less than $1.60 to $1.75 per bushel depending on oil content, U. S. average farm price, for Yellow or Green Soybeans of high oil content.

The 1943 crop of flaxseed for oil: 90 percent of the parity price calculated as of the beginning of the marketing year (June 1); but in no event less than $2.70 per bushel, basis No. 1 Flaxseed at Minneapolis.

The 1943 crop of American-Egyptian Cotton: 90 percent of the parity price calculated as of the beginning of the marketing year (August 1); but in no event less than 45 cents per pound for No. 2, $1\frac{1}{2}$-inch American-Egyptian Cotton, or a price for such cotton which bears the same relationship to the loan rate in Arizona for $1\frac{1}{16}$-inch Middling Upland Cotton as the support price for American-Egyptian Cotton bore to the loan rate for such Upland Cotton in 1942.

The 1943 crop of potatoes: 90 percent of the parity price calculated as of the beginning of the marketing year (July 1); but in no event less than specified prices for certain grades of potatoes in specified commercial areas, to be announced hereafter.

Inasmuch as the production and consumption of dry peas and soybeans for oil have so changed in extent and character since the base period as to result in parity prices for such commodities out of line with parity prices for basic agricultural commodities, comparable prices therefor have been used for the purpose of this announcement. Such prices will be determined by multiplying the following base prices by the index of prices paid by farmers for commodities purchased, including interest and taxes payable per acre, as published by the Department of Agriculture: Dry Peas $2.09 per hundredweight; Soybeans $0.96 per bushel. These base prices bear the same relation to the average base prices of corn, cotton, wheat, rice, tobacco, and peanuts as the actual prices of the same commodities were to the average actual prices of these six basic commodities in the sixty months, August 1935 through July 1939.

This announcement is applicable only to commodities marketed prior to June 30, 1944, or, in the case of hogs, to September 30, 1944, and, with respect to the commodities produced on an annual crop basis, is applicable only to the 1943 crop of such commodities. After the date specified above and for crops produced subsequent to the 1943 crops, the Secretary will continue to support the prices of the commodities listed above during the period prescribed by the foregoing provisions of law at not less than 90 percent of the parity or comparable prices, but the precise level of such support, to the extent that it may exceed 90 percent of parity or comparable price, and any conditions of eligibility for price support (including conditions relating to acreage or production requirements) will be covered in subsequent announcements.

The provisions of this announcement shall prevail in the event of any conflict between them and provisions of any announcement heretofore made.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of November 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CLAUDE R. WICKARD,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Wage and Hour Division.

COOKING AND HEATING APPLIANCES MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

NOTICE OF HEARING

Notice of hearing on the minimum wage recommendation of Industry Committee No. 51 for the Cooking and Heating Appliances Manufacturing Industry to be held December 16, 1942.

Whereas the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor, acting pursuant to section 5 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 on October 27, 1942, by Administrative Order No. 165, appointed Industry Committee No. 51 for the Cooking and Heating Appliances Manufacturing Industry, composed of an equal number of representatives of the public, employers in the industry and employees in the industry, such representatives having been appointed with due regard to the geographical regions in which the industry is carried on; and

Whereas Industry Committee No. 51, on November 19, 1942, recommended a minimum wage rate for the Cooking and Heating Appliances Manufacturing Industry and duly adopted a report containing such recommendations and reasons therefor and filed such report with the Administrator on November 20, 1942, pursuant to section 8 (d) of the Act and § 511.19 of the regulations issued under the Act; and

Whereas the Administrator is required by section 8 (d) of the Act, after due notice to interested persons and giving them an opportunity to be heard, to approve and carry into effect by order the recommendation of Industry Committee No. 51 if he finds that the recommendation is made in accordance with law and is supported by the evidence adduced at the hearing and taking into consideration the same factors as are required to be considered by the industry committee, will carry out the purposes of section 8 of the Act; and, if he finds otherwise, to disapprove such recommendation;

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that:

I. The recommendation of Industry Committee No. 51 is as follows:

Wages at a rate of not less than 40 cents an hour shall be paid under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 by every employer to each of his employees in the Cooking and Heating Appliances Manufacturing Industry (as defined in Administrative Order No. 165) who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce.

II. The definition of the Cooking and Heating Appliances Manufacturing Industry as set forth in Administrative Order No. 165, issued October 27, 1942, is as follows:

(a) The manufacture of cooking and heating equipment and appliances, and parts and accessories thereof;

(b) The term "manufacture" as used herein covers all operations involved in the production of any article covered by this definition, including foundry operations required to produce iron castings, the fabrication and surface treatment (including enameling) of sheet metal and castings parts, and the mounting and assembling of the parts;

(c) Provided, however, That the manufacture of the following shall not be included: steam fittings and specialties such as thermostats and other temperature control devices, gauges, regulators, traps, and reducing valves; steam heating boilers using pressure in excess of 15 pounds per square inch; cooking utensils; electrical equipment and appliances; stove pipes; tanks for water heaters; or any product covered by a wage order for the Gray Iron Jobbing Foundry Industry or Enameled Utensil Industry.

The definition of the Cooking and Heating Appliances Manufacturing Industry covers all occupations in the Industry which are necessary to the production of the articles specified in the definition including clerical, maintenance, shipping, and selling occupations: Provided, however, That such clerical, maintenance, shipping and selling occupations when carried on in a wholesaling or selling department physically segregated from other departments of a manufacturing establishment, the greater part of the sales of which wholesaling or selling department are sales of articles which have been purchased for resale, shall not be deemed to be covered by this definition: And provided, further, That where an employee covered by this definition is employed during the same workweek at two or more different minimum rates of pay, he shall be paid the highest of such rates for such workweek unless records concerning his employment are kept by his employer in accordance with applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division.

III. The full text of the report and recommendation of Industry Committee No. 51 is and will be available for inspection by any person between the hours of 9:00 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. at the following offices of the United States Department of Labor, Wage and Hour Division:

IV. A public hearing will be held on December 16, 1942, before Major Robert N. Campbell, Presiding Officer, at 10:00 a. m. in Room 3229, United States Department of Labor Building, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., for the purpose of taking evidence on the following question: Whether the recommendation of Industry Committee No. 51 should be approved or disapproved.

V. Any interested person supporting or opposing the recommendation of Industry Committee No. 51 may appear at the aforesaid hearing to offer evidence, either on his behalf or on behalf of any other person: Provided, That not later than December 9, 1942, such person shall file with the Administrator at New York, New York, a notice of his intent to appear which shall contain the following information:

1. The name and address of the person appearing.
2. If such person is appearing in a representative capacity, the name and address of the person or persons whom he is representing.
3. Whether such person proposes to appear for or against the recommendation of Industry Committee No. 51.
4. The approximate length of time requested for his presentation.

Such notice may be mailed to the Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, 165 West 46th Street, New York, New York, and shall be deemed filed upon receipt thereof.

VI. Any person interested in supporting or opposing the recommendation of Industry Committee No. 51 may secure further information concerning the aforesaid hearing by inquiry directed to the Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, 165 West 46th Streeet, New York, New York, or by consulting with attorneys representing the Administrator who will be available for that purpose at the Office of the Solicitor, United States Department of Labor, in Washington, D. C., and New York, New York.

VII. Copies of the following document relating to the Cooking and Heating Appliances Manufacturing Industry will be made available on request for inspection by any interested person who intends to appear at the aforesaid hearing:

Report entitled, Economic Factors Bearing on the Establishment of Minimum Wages in the Cooking and Heating Appliances Manufacturing Industry, prepared by the Economics Branch, Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, November, 1942.

VIII. The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the following rules, subject, however, to such subsequent modifications by the Administrator or the Presiding Officer as are deemed appropriate.

1. The hearings shall be stenographically reported and a transcript made which will be available to any person at prescribed rates upon request addressed to the Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, 165 West 46th Street, New York, New York.

2. In order to maintain orderly and expeditious procedure, each person filing a Notice to Appear shall be notified, if practicable, of the approximate day and the place at which he may offer evidence at the hearing. If such person does not appear at the time set in the notice, he will not be permitted to offer evidence at any other time except by special permission of the Presiding Officer.

3. At the discretion of the Presiding Officer, the hearing may be continued from day to day, or adjourned to a later date, or to a different place by announcement thereof at the hearing by the Presiding Officer, or by other appropriate notice.

4. At any stage of the hearing, the Presiding Officer may call for further evidence upon any matter. After the Presiding Officer has closed the hearing before him, no further evidence shall be taken, except at the request of the Administrator, unless provision has been made at the hearing for the later receipt of such evidence. In the event that the Administrator shall cause the hearing to be reopened for the purpose of receiving further evidence, due and reasonable notice of the time and place fixed for such taking of testimony shall be given to all persons who have filed a notice of intention to appear at the hearing.

5. All evidence must be presented under oath or affirmation.

6. Written documents or exhibits, except as otherwise permitted by the Presiding Officer, must be offered in evidence by a person who is prepared to testify as to the authenticity and trustworthiness thereof, and who shall, at the time of offering the documentary exhibit, make a brief statement as to the contents and manner of preparation thereof.

7. Written documents and exhibits shall be tendered in duplicate and the persons preparing the same shall be prepared to supply additional copies if such are ordered by the Presiding Officer. When evidence is embraced in a document containing matter not intended to be put in evidence, such a document will not be received, but the person offering the same may present to the Presiding Officer the original document together with two copies of those portions of the document intended to be put in evidence.

8. Subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses or the presentation of a document from any place in the United States at any designated place of hearing may be issued by the Administrator at his discretion, and any person appearing in the proceeding may apply in writing for the issuance by the Administrator of the subpoena. Such application shall be timely and shall identify exactly the witness or document and state fully the nature of the evidence proposed to be secured.

9. Witnesses summoned by the Administrator shall be paid the same fees and mileage as are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States. Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose instance witnesses appear, and the Administrator before issuing subpoena may require a deposit of an amount adequate to cover the fees and mileage involved.

10. The rules of evidence prevailing in the courts of law or equity shall not be controlling.

11. The Presiding Officer may, at his discretion, permit any person appearing in the proceeding to cross-examine any witness offered by another person insofar as is practicable, and to object to the admission or exclusion of evidence by the Presiding Officer. Requests for permission to cross-examine a witness offered by another person and objections to the admission or exclusion of evidence shall be stated briefly with the reasons for such request or the ground of objection relied on. Such requests or objections shall become a part of the record, but this record shall not include argument thereon except as ordered by the Presiding Officer. Objections to the approval of the Committee's recommendation and to the promulgation of a wage order based upon such approval must be made at the hearing before the Presiding Officer.

12. Before the close of the hearing, the Presiding Officer shall receive written requests from persons appearing in the proceeding for permission to make oral arguments before the Administrator upon the matter in issue. These requests will be forwarded to the Administrator by the Presiding Officer with the record of the proceedings. If the Administrator, in his discretion, allows the request, he shall give such notice thereof as he deems suitable to all persons appearing in the proceedings, and shall designate the time and place at which the oral arguments shall be heard. If such requests are allowed, all persons appearing at the hearing will be given opportunity to present oral argument.

13. Briefs (12 copies) may be submitted to the Administrator following the close of the hearing, by any persons appearing therein. Notice of the final dates for filing such briefs shall be given by the Administrator in such manner as shall be deemed suitable by him.

14. On the close of the hearing, the Presiding Officer shall forthwith file a complete record of the proceedings with the Administrator. The Presiding Officer shall not file an intermediate report unless so directed by the Administrator. If a report is filed, it shall be advisory only and have no binding effect upon the Administrator.

15. No order issued as a result of the hearing will take effect until after due notice is given of the issuance thereof by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at New York, New York, this 24th day of November 1942.

L. METCALFE WALLING,
Administrator.

EMPIRE FINISHED STEEL CORP.

ORDER GRANTING EXCEPTION

Order No. 28 under Revised Price Schedule No. 6—Iron and Steel Products—Docket No. 3006-29.

On October 23, 1942, Empire Finished Steel Corporation, 155 East 44th Street, New York City, filed a petition for an exception to Revised Price Schedule No. 6, as amended, pursuant to § 1306.7 (c) thereof. Due consideration has been given to the petition and an opinion in support of this Order No. 28 has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration: It is hereby ordered:

(a) Empire Finished Steel Corporation may sell and deliver, and agree, solicit and attempt to sell and deliver, cold finished steel bars at prices not in excess of those stated in paragraph (b) when such bars are shipped to points outside of the New England States from its plant at Putnam, Connecticut, and when such bars are shipped to points not located within its usual market area in the case of its Newark, New Jersey, plant where such shipments are made on or after October 23, 1942, under contracts entered into by it with the Procurement Division of the United States Treasury Department for the account of Lend-Lease Administration or under contracts entered into by it pursuant to allocations or directives of the War Production Board.

(b) The maximum prices which may be charged by Empire Finished Steel Corporation on sales of cold finished bars covered by paragraph (a) above shall be the Buffalo base price on cold finished bars plus the carload freight rate on hot rolled bars from Buffalo to its respective plants, f. o. b. such plants.

(c) All prayers of the petition not herein granted are denied.

(d) This Order No. 28 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) The definitions set forth in § 1306.8 of Revised Price Schedule No. 6 shall apply to the terms used herein.

(f) This Order No. 28 shall become effective November 28, 1942.

(b) Francis D. Ellis, Incorporated, shall mail or cause to be mailed to all persons who purchase veal carcasses from it for resale a notice reading as follows:

> The Office of Price Administration by Order No. 18 effective November 30, 1942, pursuant to § 1364.60 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, as amended, has permitted us to raise the maximum prices to you for calf carcasses slaughtered by Earl H. Schurr, as follows:
>
> Calf carcasses, AA or choice grade, from 24¢ per lb. to 25¢ per lb.
> Calf carcasses, A or good grade, from 23¢ per lb. to 24¢ per lb.
> Calf carcasses, B or commercial grade from 22¢ per lb. to 23¢ per lb.
> This amount represents only that part of cost increases which Earl H. Schurr was unable to absorb, and it was granted with the understanding that retail prices would not be raised. The Office of Price Administration has not permitted you or any other seller to raise maximum prices for sales of calf carcasses. In order that we may continue to provide you with calf carcasses, it will be necessary for you to accept this reduction in your margin.

(c) All prayers of the petition not granted herein are denied.

(d) This Order No. 18 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1364.62 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, as amended, shall apply to the terms used herein.

JAMES M. WHITNEY

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

James M. Whitney, doing business as Hudson Bridge Service Station, 192 East Hollis Street, Nashua, New Hampshire, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A Gasoline Rationing Regulations. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Concord, New Hampshire, on October 21, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to such charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a filling station at 192 East Hollis Street, Nashua, New Hampshire, known as Hudson Bridge Service Station.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, in that at divers times between July 22 and September 15, 1942, respondent sold and transferred gasoline to consumers in exchange for gasoline ration coupons Class A, No. 2.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in New Hampshire, the violation by respondent of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, has resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.

It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 168 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not sell, transfer or deliver any gasoline to any person at or from Hudson Bridge Service Station, 192 East Hollis Street, Nashua, New Hampshire.

(2) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale at said station.

(3) No person, firm or corporation shall deliver, or in any manner directly or indirectly transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale at said station.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 168 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 168 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. December 1, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 A. M. December 31, 1942.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; Sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); WPB Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562); Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216))

Issued this 28th day of November 1942.

RAY MCGRATH

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Ray McGrath, 324 Perry Street, Trenton, New Jersey, hereinafter called respondent was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations. Pursuant to said notice, a hearing upon such charges was held in Trenton, New Jersey, on September 14, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to such charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. Such evidence having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a filling station at 324 Perry Street, Trenton, New Jersey.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, in that on August 14, 1942, respondent transferred four (4) gallons of gasoline to a consumer in exchange for a gasoline ration coupon Class A, No. 3.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in New Jersey violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have necessarily resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.

It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 169 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not sell, transfer or deliver any gasoline to any person.

(2) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(3) No person, firm or corporation shall deliver, or in any manner directly or indirectly transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 169 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 169 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. December 1, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 A. M. December 31, 1942.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; Sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); WPB Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562); Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216))

Issued this 28th day of November 1942.

[Supension Order 170]

ROBERT BINDER

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Robert Binder, doing business as American Gas Station, South Warren and Market Streets, Trenton, New Jersey, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations. Pursuant to said notice, a hearing upon such charges was held in Trenton, New Jersey, on September 14, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to such charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. Such evidence having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a filling station at South Warren and Market Streets, Trenton, New Jersey.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, in that on August 14, 1942, respondent transferred four (4) gallons of gasoline to a consumer in exchange for a gasoline ration coupon Class A, No. 3.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in New Jersey, violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have necessarily resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.

It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 170 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not sell, transfer or deliver any gasoline to any person.

(2) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(3) No person, firm or corporation shall deliver, or in any manner directly or indirectly transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 170 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 170 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. December 1, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 A. M. December 31, 1942.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 70-632]

THE COMMONWEALTH & SOUTHERN CORPORATION

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 25th day of November 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission by The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation pursuant to sections 6 (a), 7 and 12 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-62 promulgated thereunder. All interested persons are referred to said document, which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation (Delaware), a registered holding company, proposes, subject to the approval of its stockholders, and without changing the carrying value of its assets, to reduce the stated value of its presently outstanding 1,500,000 shares of $6 Cumulative Preferred Stock from $100 per share, as presently stated, to $10 per share. It is proposed that the amount of such reduction in the stated value of the Preferred Stock aggregating $135,000,000, will be maintained in a separate account designated as "Capital Surplus Arising From Reduction of Capital of Preferred Stock from $100 Per Share to $10 Per Share" and will be unavailable for the payment of dividends on common stock or for the purpose of permitting purchase of common stock or for the purpose of extinguishing a deficit in earned surplus created by any such payment or purchase or for any other purpose which would reduce the amount of the capital surplus resulting from the reduction in the stated value of the Preferred Stock below an amount equal to $90 for each such share of Preferred Stock outstanding. The company asserts that the proposed restatement will facilitate the payment of dividends on its $6 Cumulative Preferred Stock. On September 30, 1942, dividend arrearages on the Preferred Stock aggregated $37,116,609.75 or $24.75 per share. As at the same date, the company's capital stock, per balance sheet, was stated as follows: Preferred Stock, $150,000,000. Common Stock (stated at $5 per share), $168,366,640.29. Capital Surplus was $127,782.44 and Earned Surplus was $825,998.79. The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation's corporate net income was $7,149,989.45 in 1941 and $683,555.52 for the 9 months ended September 30, 1942, per books.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters, that said declaration shall not become effective nor said application be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matters under the applicable provisions of said Act and rules of the Commission thereunder be held on December 14, 1942 at 10:00 o'clock, A. M., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. On such day the hearing-room clerk will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, cause shall be shown why such declaration or application (or both) shall be permitted to become effective or shall be granted. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above-named declarant and applicant and to all interested persons, said notice to be given to said declarant and applicant by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. In accordance with the agreement of the applicant and declarant; It is ordered, That a copy of this Notice and Order be mailed to all preferred stockholders of record as of November 25, 1942.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of issues presented by said declaration or application (or both) otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. The purpose and appropriateness, in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers, of the proposed restatement;
2. The appropriateness of the accounting entries proposed to be made in connection with said restatement;
3. Whether the proposed restatement is detrimental to the carrying out of the provisions of section 11 of the Act;
4. Whether and to what extent it is appropriate, in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers, to impose terms and conditions with respect to the proposed restatement.

By the Commission.

UNITED GAS CORPORATION, ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 25th day of November, A. D. 1942.

In the matter of United Gas Corporation, Houston Gas Securities Company, United Gas Pipe Line Company and Union Producing Company.

United Gas Corporation ("United"), a subsidiary of Electric Power & Light Corporation which in turn is a subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company ("Bond and Share") both registered holding companies, Houston Gas Securities Company ("Houston Gas"), United Gas Pipe Line Company ("Pipe Line") and Union Producing Company ("Union"), subsidiaries of United, having filed a joint application or declaration and amendment thereto under sections 9 (a) and 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-42 promulgated thereunder regarding a series of proposed transactions which may be summarized as follows:

a. United proposes to redeem at face amount plus accrued interest $3,800,000 principal amount of Twenty Year 6% Gold Debentures, due March 1, 1952, (issued by United Gas Public Service Company, and later assumed upon the merger of United Gas Public Service Company into United), owned by Houston Gas. All such debentures acquired will be cancelled. The funds to be applied toward said proposed redemption are to be obtained by United:

(1) By redemption at face amount plus accrued interest by Pipe Line, a wholly owned subsidiary of United, of $1,000,000 principal amount of 6% debentures due March 1, 1952 (part of a total issue of $23,000,000 all of which are owned by United).

(2) By redemption at face amount plus accrued interest by Union, a wholly owned subsidiary of United, of $3,000,000 principal amount of its 6% Debentures due March 1, 1952 (part of a total issue of $40,000,000 all of which are owned by United.)

b. Houston Gas proposes to use the funds received by it as a result of the redemption of the debentures above described together with other moneys in its treasury for the purpose of redeeming $3,900,000 principal amount of its 5% Collateral Trust Gold Bonds due March 1, 1952, $440,000 principal amount of which are owned by Bond and Share. Houston Gas is then to be merged into United. As a result of such merger United will acquire all of the remaining net assets of Houston Gas, consisting of cash and obligations of United, which obligations will be cancelled; and

A public hearing on said application and declaration having been held after appropriate notice; the Commission having examined the record and having made and filed its findings herein;

It is ordered, That the said application as amended be and hereby is granted, and that the said declaration as amended be and hereby is permitted to become effective forthwith subject however to the transactions therein set forth being carried out in conformity with the representations made and for the purposes stated therein and in compliance with the provisions of Rule U-24 of the Rules of the Commission and the following further terms and conditions:

(1) That prior to consummation of any of the proposed transactions, appropriate provision shall be made and embodied in the record of this proceeding, in a form approved by this Commission, to insure either that the $440,000 principal amount of Houston Gas Bonds held by Bond and Share shall not be presented for redemption or that, if presented for redemption, all cash received by Bond and Share upon such redemption will be held by Bond and Share in a special fund and will be subject to all infirmities and equities, if any, and all notices and proceedings, to which such bonds are or may be presently subject; and the Commission reserves full jurisdiction to make appropriate disposition of such fund in connection with the proceedings entitled In the Matter of United Gas Corporation et al., File Nos. 70-314, 70-315, 59-21 and 4-33.

(2) That the Commission reserves jurisdiction as to the entries to be recorded on the books of applicants and declarants with respect to the proposed transactions.

By the Commission.

National Power & Light Company

ORDER FOR HEARING, ETC.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 24th day of November, A. D. 1942.

Notice of filing of application for extension of period of exchange offer and order for hearing thereon.

The Commission having heretofore, on December 24, 1941, entered its order herein permitting to become effective a declaration or application filed by National Power & Light Company, a registered holding company, pursuant to sections 9 (a) (1), 12 (c), 12 (d), and 12 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act and the applicable rules thereunder respecting a proposed offer to be made by National Power & Light Company to its preferred stockholders to exchange approximately two shares of common stock of Houston Lighting & Power Company for one share of National's preferred stock limited to 90 percent of the holdings of each preferred stockholder of National; and

The Commission having found that such declaration or application should be treated as a plan filed under section 11 (e) and 11 (g) of the Act, and having approved said plan subject to the conditions contained in said order dated December 24, 1941; and

Said exchange offer having become effective on January 30, 1942 for the period ending March 31, 1942, and National Power & Light Company having been permitted successively to extend the period of said exchange offer to and including December 15, 1942, by orders of the Commission dated June 15, 1942, August 13, 1942, and October 12, 1942;

Notice is hereby given that National Power & Light Company, on November 20, 1942, filed an application herein for permission to extend further the period of such exchange offer to and including February 15, 1943.

All interested parties are referred to said application which is on file in the office of the Commission for full details thereof.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held for the purpose of considering said application;

It is ordered, That a hearing on said application be held on December 2, 1942, at 10:00 a. m., E. W. T., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on such date by the Hearing Room Clerk. At said hearing attention will be particularly directed to the question whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to permit an extension of the period within which exchanges may be effected under said offer, and if so, the period of such extension.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing above mentioned. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That any person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings or proposing to intervene shall file with the Secretary of this Commission on or before December 1, 1942, his request or application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice of the Commission;

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the entry of this order by mailing a copy thereof by registered mail to National Power & Light Company and that notice shall be given to all other persons by publication thereof in the Federal Register.

By the Commission.

A plan having been filed by Lone Star Gas Corporation and certain of its subsidiary companies under section 11 (e) and all other applicable sections of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 proposing a reorganization of the holding-company system of Lone Star Gas Corporation; and

Such plan having included, among other things, a declaration pursuant to section 11 (g) of said Act and Rule U-62 promulgated under said Act, regarding the solicitation of consents of stockholders to the plan; and

The Commission having approved said plan on October 22, 1942 (Holding Company Act Release No. 3865), subject to certain conditions and reservations; and having as a condition to such approval reserved jurisdiction under section 11 (g) of said Act to pass upon the material to be used by the applicant companies in soliciting consents of stockholders to the plan; and

The applicant companies having submitted such solicitation material; and

The Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers to permit the said declaration pursuant to section 11 (g) and Rule U-62 to become effective:

It is hereby ordered, That said declaration be and hereby is permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

Federal Water and Gas Corporation and Peoples Light and Power Company

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND DECLARATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 27th day of November 1942.

Peoples Light and Power Company a registered holding company having filed a declaration pursuant to section (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-44 promulgated under said Act with respect to the divestment by sale of all its interest in Mississippi Public Service Company for $420,000 in cash, and the application of such proceeds to the retirement of its debt; and

The Commission having considered the record in this matter and having found that the said declaration of Peoples Light and Power Company should be treated as a plan filed under section 11 (e) of the Act; and

Peoples Light and Power Company having requested that the order of the commission approving such transactions conform with the requirements of sections 371 (b) and 371 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by section 171 of the Revenue Act of 1942 and contain the findings therein specified; and

Federal Water and Gas Corporation, a registered holding company, having filed an application, and amendments thereto, pursuant to section 10 of the Act with respect to the acquisition of the securities of the afore-named company; and

The above-described application and declaration having been consolidated for the purpose of a hearing; and

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice; and the Commission having considered the record in this matter and having made and filed its Findings and Opinion herein; and the Commission having found that the sale of the securities of Mississippi Public Service Company by Peoples Light and Power Company, and the application of the proceeds ($420,000), to the retirement of (a) five of its serial notes payable to The Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities each in the amount of $75,000 maturing on April 1, and October 1, in each year from April 1, 1943 to and including April 1, 1945, and (b) $45,000 principal amount of the $75,000 principal amount of the note maturing October 1, 1945, and the application of treasury funds of Peoples Light and Power Company to the retirement of the balance of the note maturing October 1, 1945 and to the payment of interest and premium due on the retirement of all such notes under the provisions of the agreement pursuant to which such notes were issued, are necessary or appropriate to the integration or simplification of Peoples Light and Power Company System, and are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; and

The Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and for the interest of investors and consumers to grant the applications of said companies pursuant to the applicable sections of the Act and rules thereunder; and the Commission having found that the statutory requirements have been satisfied; It is hereby ordered:

(1) That the sale of the securities of Mississippi Public Service Company by Peoples Light and Power Company, and the application of the proceeds ($420,000), to the retirement of (a) five of its serial notes payable to The Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities each in the amount of $75,000 maturing on April 1, and October 1, in each year from April 1, 1943, to and including April 1, 1945, and (b) $45,000 principal amount of the $75,000 principal amount of the note maturing October 1, 1945, and the application of treasury funds of Peoples Light and Power Company to the retirement of the balance of the note maturing October 1, 1945, and to the payment of interest and premium due on the retirement of all such notes under the provisions of the agreement pursuant to which such notes were issued, are necessary or appropriate to the integration or simplification of Peoples Light and Power Company Holding Company System, and are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935;

(2) That the applicable provisions of the Act are in other respects satisfied with respect to the proposed transaction, including the action proposed to be taken by said Peoples Light and Power Company and by said Federal Water and Gas Corporation, and that said application be, and hereby is, approved and that said declaration be, and hereby is, permitted to become effective, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24

By the Commission.

General Gas & Electric Corporation

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 28th day of November, 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by the above-named party; and

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 10, 1942, at 5:30 p. m., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request, that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such declaration, as filed or as amended, may become effective, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

General Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, which is a subsidiary of Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, proposes to pay out of capital or unearned surplus a quarterly dividend on its $5.00 Prior Preferred stock for the quarterly period ended December 15, 1941. As proposed, the amount of the dividend on the 60,000 outstanding shares of this stock will be $75,000, of which approximately $40,125 will be paid to the public holders of 32,110.9 shs. The declaration as filed states that the remaining 27,889.1 shares outstanding are held by the Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, who are to waive their right to the receipt of the dividend which would otherwise be payable to them.

By the Commission.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter II—Commodity Credit Corporation

[Amendment No. 1; 1942 C.C.C. Rice Form 1; Instructions]

PART 233—1942 RICE LOANS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the provisions of Title III, section 302 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 43; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1302), and the Act of May 26, 1941 (55 Stat. 203; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed., Supp. I, 1330) as amended by the Act of December 26, 1941 (55 Stat. 860), and as further amended by the Act of October 2, 1942, (Pub. Law 729, 77th Congress), Commodity Credit Corporation has authorized the making of loans on, and the purchase of eligible paper secured by rice stored on farms or in approved public rice warehouses, in accordance with the regulations in this part (1942—C.C.C. Rice Form 1—Instructions). Such regulations are hereby amended as follows:

Section 233.6[1] Farm storage is amended by deleting "June 30, 1943" in line 16 and inserting in lieu thereof "August 31, 1943".

Section 233.6 is further amended by deleting "February 1, 1943" for Southern States and "March, 1943" for California, appearing in the computation of the storage payment to be earned by the producer, in the event he has not made any misrepresentation in connection with the loan, and by inserting in lieu thereof, "March 1, 1943" for the Southern States, and "April 1, 1943" for California.

Section 233.40[2] Pending printing and distribution of 1942 rice forms, 1941 rice forms, with the modifications enumerated, shall be used, is amended by adding the following language under the heading "1941 C.C.C. Rice Form C":

(1) Strike "fifty", the last word on page 1 of the Contract, and insert "twenty-five".

(2) Strike "$50,000" in line 1, page 2, of the Contract, and insert "$25,000".

(3) Strike "April 30, 1942" in line 9 of paragraph 3 of the Contract, and insert "June 30, 1943"; strike "July 31, 1942" in lines 9 and 10 of the Contract, and insert "July 31, 1943".

Section 233.40 is further amended under the heading entitled "No. 1 (10-22-41)—Instructions to the Custodian", as follows:

Item 4: Strike out last two lines ". . . which has executed a 1942 C.C.C. Rice Form C, Supplement No. 1" and insert in lieu thereof the following: ". . . and provided further that the rice cooperative association has executed a 1942 C.C.C. Rice Form C, as supplemented".

Item 7: The date "July 21, 1942" appearing in the third line should read "July 31, 1942".

Dated: September 16, 1942.

quota is proclaimed, adjusted for current trends and prospective demand conditions, and the quota so proclaimed shall be in effect with respect to such crop. The national marketing quota for peanuts for any year shall be converted to a national acreage allotment by dividing such quota by the normal yield per acre of peanuts for the United States determined by the Secretary on the basis of the average yield per acre of peanuts in the five years preceding the year in which the quota is proclaimed, with such adjustments as may be found necessary to correct for trends in yields and for abnormal conditions of production affecting yields in such five years: Provided, That the national marketing quota established for the crop produced in the calendar year 1941 shall be a quantity of peanuts sufficient to provide a national acreage allotment of not less than one million six hundred and ten thousand acres, and that the national marketing quota established for any subsequent year shall be a quantity of peanuts sufficient to provide a national acreage allotment of not less than 95 per centum of that established for the crop produced in the calendar year 1941.

Whereas said Act contains the following definitions of terms here pertinent:

Sec. 301 (b) (6) (c). "Market", in the case of peanuts, means to dispose of peanuts, including farmers' stock peanuts, shelled peanuts, cleaned peanuts, or peanuts in processed form, by voluntary or involuntary sale, barter, or exchange, or by gift inter vivos.

Sec. 359 (d). The word "peanuts" * * * means all peanuts produced on a farm, excluding any peanuts which it is established by the producer or otherwise, in accordance with regulations of the Secretary, were not picked or threshed either before or after marketing from the farm.

Now, therefore, be it known that the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, acting under and pursuant to, and by virtue of, the authority vested in him by section 358 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, proclaims that: (Authority: Sec. 358 (a), 55 Stat. 88; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1358 (a))

§ 729.201 Proclamation and determination with respect to the national marketing quota, normal yield per acre, and national acreage allotment for peanuts for the crop produced in the calendar year 1943—(a) National marketing quota. The amount of the national marketing quota for peanuts for the crop produced in the calendar year 1943 is 1,255,800,000 pounds.

(b) Normal yield per acre. The normal yield per acre of peanuts for the United States for the crop produced in the calendar year 1943 is 780 pounds.

(c) National acreage allotment. The national acreage allotment for peanuts for the crop produced in the calendar year 1943 is one million six hundred and ten thousand acres.

Subchapter A—Income and Excess Profits Taxes

PART 19—INCOME TAX UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

VICTORY TAX ON INDIVIDUALS

Section 469 (c), Internal Revenue Code—Extension of time for furnishing statements to employees whose employment has terminated.

An extension of time, not exceeding thirty days, within which to furnish the statement required by section 469 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by section 172 of the Revenue Act of 1942, is granted any employer with respect to any employee whose employment is terminated during the calendar year. In the case of intermittent or interrupted employment where there is reasonable expectation on the part of both employer and employee of further employment, there is no requirement that a statement be immediately furnished the employee; but when such expectation ceases to exist, the statement must be furnished within thirty days from that time.

(This Treasury decision is issued under the authority contained in section 469 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, added by section 172 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress), approved October 21, 1942)

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1709]

PART 322—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT No. 2

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 2 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 2.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 2; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 322.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-I, § 322.9 (Special prices—(c) Railroad fuel) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-II, and § 322.23 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

The price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the Schedules attached are based upon the price classifications and minimum prices in effect on October 1, 1942, for comparable and analogous coals and already reflect the changes, if any, made in minimum prices by the Acting Director's Order of August 28, 1942, 7 F.R. 6943, in General Docket No. 21.

Dated: November 10, 1942.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—War Production Board

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-132]

DEAL ELECTRIC COMPANY, INC.

Deal Electric Company, Inc., New York, New York, is a manufacturer of electrical supplies and also deals in copper products. The Company maintains stocks of such products and is a warehouse as defined in General Preference Order M–9–a. This order, as amended February 6, 1942, prohibited a warehouse from delivering copper products except to fill purchase orders bearing a preference rating of A–10 or higher. On May 7, 1942, General Preference Order M–9–a was further amended to prohibit a warehouse from delivering copper products except to fill purchase orders bearing a preference rating of A–1–k or higher. Despite the fact that the Company was familiar with these restrictions, during the period from February 6 through May 6, 1942, it delivered 358,851 feet of copper wire in fulfillment of unrated orders and during the period of May 7 through August 11, 1942, it delivered 51,440 feet of copper wire in fulfillment of orders rated lower than A–1–k.

These deliveries constituted wilful violations of General Preference Order M–9–a which have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.132 Suspension Order S–132. (a) Deliveries of material to Deal Electric Company, Inc., its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries to Deal Electric Company, Inc., its successors and assigns, by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) Despite the provisions of paragraph (a), Deal Electric Company, Inc. may extend or apply to deliveries to it any preference rating of AA–3 or higher which it would, except for the provisions of paragraph (a), be entitled to apply or extend.

(c) No allocation shall be made to Deal Electric Company, Inc., its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Deal Electric Company, Inc. from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect December 2, 1942, and shall expire on April 2, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-152]

STAR PLUMBING SUPPLY CO.

The Star Plumbing Supply Company, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is a partnership composed of Harry Gitterman, Sidney Gitterman, and Louis Gitterman, in the business of acting as plumbing supply house for the trade and selling plumbing and heating equipment directly to the ultimate consumer and installing equipment so sold. On March 29, 1942, the Star Plumbing Supply Company entered a contract with August H. Hisler, Jr., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to furnish and install a hot water heating system, but deliveries were not made under this contract until the latter part of August and were made without a preference rating and without certification as required by Limitation Order L–79. On or after August 12, 1942, the Star Plumbing Supply Company sold and delivered to Mrs. Jessup Kay, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, new metal plumbing equipment composed of more than 50% metal without a preference rating and without certification as required by Limitation Order L–79.

The delivery of new metal plumbing and heating equipment by the partnership without preference ratings and without certification constituted wilful violations of Limitation Order L–79. These violations have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.152 Suspension Order S–152. (a) Deliveries of material to Harry Gitterman, Sidney Gitterman, and Louis Gitterman, individually or doing business as the Star Plumbing Supply Company, their or its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Harry Gitterman, Sidney Gitterman, and Louis Gitterman, individually or doing business as the Star Plumbing Supply Company, their or its successors and assigns, of any material, the supply or distribution of which is covered by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Harry Gitterman, Sidney Gitterman, and Louis Gitterman, individually or doing business as the Star Plumbing Supply Company, their or its successors and assigns are hereby prohibited from accepting deliveries of, receiving, delivering, selling, transferring, trading, or dealing in any new metal plumbing or heating equipment as defined in Limitation Order L–79, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Harry Gitterman, Sidney Gitterman, and Louis Gitterman, individually or doing business as the Star Plumbing Supply Company from any restriction, prohibition, or provisions contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect December 2, 1942, and shall expire on March 2, 1943.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 30th day of November 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1223—STANDARDIZATION AND SIMPLIFICATION OF PAPER

[Schedule I to Limitation Order L-120, as Amended Nov. 30, 1942]

BOOK PAPER FOR USE IN COMMERCIAL PRINTING

§ 1223.2 Schedule I to Limitation Order L–120—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this schedule, including the Appendix:

(1) The term "book paper" means and is limited to the kinds of paper commonly described and distributed in the paper trade by the names used as captions in the Appendix below.

(2) The term "book paper for use in commercial printing" means all "book papers" commonly manufactured and distributed for use in printing, including but not limited to the printing of music, labels and posters; and excluding only those manufactured and distributed for use in printing periodicals, pamphlets published for resale, and books, or for conversion into another paper product or products otherwise than by printing.

(3) A "grade" means one particular quality within a kind of book paper, such grade having the essential properties peculiar to such kind of paper and common to all grades within such kind, but distinguished from other such grades by a difference in the degree to which one or several of those common properties are emphasized. However, a difference in the degree to which any such property is emphasized, due only to a difference in ash content, in sizing, in the quantity of adhesive in the coating formula, or in the dyes used in the paper and/or coating shall not be considered as resulting in a different grade.

(4) "Color" means any hue of the spectrum, including but not limited to ivory, india and green-white tints, and black, but not including white.

(5) The term "basis weight" means the weight of a kind of "book paper" in pounds per 500 sheets in the size indicated under the appropriate caption.

(6) An "item" means a quantity of paper all of which is of the same size, grain, basis weight, finish, color and grade.

(7) The term "standard" as applied to grade, color, basis weight, and size means, with respect to each manufacturer, a grade and color selected and a basis weight and size specified under A of the appropriate caption in the Appendix below.

(8) The term "special" as applied to grade, color, basis weight, and size means, with respect to each manufacturer, any grade, color, basis weight or size that is not standard.

(9) The term "special making order" means a single order placed by a single buyer for manufacture at one time for use by one printer or consumer.

(10) The term "manufacture" includes all making and finishing operations prior to packaging or packing.

(11) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, or other form of enterprise, including within one "person" all affiliates, subsidiaries, individuals, corporations, partnerships, or other forms of enterprise subject to a common executive or operating management or with a common sales organization.

(b) Identification of the papers subject to this schedule. It shall be the duty of each person who manufactures paper to determine in the first instance, but subject to review and official classification by the Director General for Operations at any time thereafter, under which caption, if any, of the Appendix belongs each of the "book papers for use in commercial printing" manufactured by him. There shall be taken into account in such determination, and in any review and reclassification by the Director General for Operations, the designation by which the manufacturer heretofore identified or distributed the paper in question, the common designation in the paper trade of similar papers selling within the same general price range as the paper in question, and the common designation in the paper trade of papers possessing the same general physical characteristics, manufactured by the same general processes, or commonly distributed and used for the same general uses as the paper in question. If a manufacturer is uncertain as to the proper caption under which to classify a particular kind of "book paper for use in commercial printing", or whether a particular kind of paper is such a paper at all or belongs under any caption of the Appendix to this schedule, he may apply to the Director General for Operations, in writing, for an official classification of such paper, submitting with his application representative samples of the grade or grades in which he manufactures such paper, a full explanation of the processes by which he manufactures the same, the designation by which he has heretofore identified or distributed the same, the general uses for which it is intended, the general price range within which it is sold, and the types of papers with which it chiefly competes, and a full explanation of the reasons for his uncertainty. The Director General for Operations may on his own motion review a manufacturer's classification and substitute therefor an official classification. In any event, an official classification by the Director General for Operations by telegram or notice in writing sent to the manufacturer, shall, unless and until the Director General for Operations shall amend or revise the same by telegram or notice in writing sent to the manufacturer, be conclusive.

(c) Selection of grades for regular manufacture. Each person who manufactures any kind of "book paper for use in commercial printing", shall, with respect to each such kind he manufactures, select such "grade" or "grades" thereof, not to exceed the number specified in A (1) of the appropriate caption of the Appendix below, as he may desire to adopt for regular manufacture, and shall forthwith notify the Director General for Operations of such selection, on Form PD–589. The manufacturer may thereafter apply to the Director General for Operations for leave to amend the original selection by dropping a "grade" or "grades" and substituting another or others, but unless and until such leave is granted by the Director General for Operations in writing the original selection shall be and remain binding.

(d) Selection of colors for regular manufacture. If by the terms of A (2) under the appropriate caption of the Appendix below a manufacturer is permitted, with respect to a particular grade of a kind of "book paper for use in commercial printing", to select a number of colors, each person who manufactures such grade, if he desires to manufacture such grade in colors, shall immediately select therefor such particular colors, not to exceed the number indicated in A (2) of the appropriate caption, as he may desire to adopt for regular manufacture, and shall forthwith notify the Director General for Operations of such selection on Form PD–589. The manufacturer may thereafter apply to the Director General for Operations for leave to amend the original selection by dropping a color or colors and substituting another or others, but unless and until such leave is granted by the Director General for Operations in writing the original selection shall be and remain binding.

(e) General limitations. Except to the extent and upon the conditions indicated in paragraphs (f), (g), (h) and (i) of this revised schedule, or under B of the appropriate caption in the Appendix below, no person shall manufacture any kind of "book paper for use in commercial printing" in any grade, color, basis weight or size other than those selected or specified as standard under A of the appropriate caption of the Appendix, or contrary to any other provision under A of the appropriate caption.

(f) Tolerances and variations. The prohibitions and restrictions of this revised schedule are subject to the normal tolerances customary in the manufacture of "book papers" and to the normal variations in quantity manufactured customarily acceptable in the paper trade. Nothing in this revised schedule shall restrict the remaking, because of faulty manufacture or excessive underrun, of all or any part of a "special making order" accepted in good faith for manufacture in accordance with the terms of this revised schedule.

(g) Cutting and slitting. Nothing in this revised schedule shall restrict the cutting of any sheet size to sizes of which the parent size is a multiple, provided the parent size is manufactured in accordance with the provisions of this revised schedule, nor restrict the slitting to fractional width rolls of any parent roll size manufactured in accordance with the provisions of this revised schedule on an order for roll paper; however, a special sheet size may not be cut from a standard or special roll size except in a quantity and under the conditions applying to a "special size" under B of the appropriate caption in the Appendix below.

(h) Jobs and seconds. Nothing in this revised schedule shall restrict the sale of "job lots" or "seconds", resulting from faulty manufacture or overruns customarily unacceptable to the buyer, which occur during a bona fide attempt to manufacture "book paper" according to the terms of this revised schedule, provided that the manufacturer clearly informs the purchaser that such paper is a "job lot" or "seconds" and so indicates on each package.

(i) Exception for export. Regardless of the foregoing provisions of this revised schedule and of the provisions of Limitation Order L-120, a person may manufacture for export (but may not without permission in writing by the Director General for Operations sell in the domestic market) any kind of "book paper for use in commercial printing" in any size or basis weight required, regardless of quantity, provided all other provisions of this schedule are complied with.

(j) Records and reports—(1) Standard samples. Each person who manufactures any kind of "book paper for use in commercial printing" shall keep, readily available for inspection by the War Production Board, representative samples of each standard grade and each standard color of such grade selected by him under A (1) and A (2) of the appropriate caption.

(2) Special making orders. On and after November 2, 1942, each person who manufactures any "special making order" permitted under B of the appropriate caption of the Appendix below shall require from the buyer a statement to the effect that such order is purchased for use by one printer or consumer, shall keep such statement, together with a complete record of such order, readily available for inspection by the War Production Board, and shall submit reports of such orders to the Director General for Operations as he may from time to time require.

(3) Export orders. On and after November 2, 1942, each person who manufactures "book papers for use in commercial printing" for export shall require from the buyer a statement to the effect that such paper is purchased for export, shall keep such statement, together with a complete record of the order against which such paper is manufactured readily available for inspection by the War Production Board, and shall submit reports of such orders to the Director General for Operations as he may from time to time require.

(P.L. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 30th day of November 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 960—CHLORINE

[General Preference Order M–19 as Amended Dec. 1, 1942]

Part 960 is hereby amended to read Part 960—Chlorine.

Section 960.1 (General Preference Order M–19) is hereby amended to read as follows:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of chlorine for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 960.1 General Preference Order M–19—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Chlorine" means gaseous and liquid chlorine.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of chlorine and includes any person who has chlorine produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(3) "Distributor" means any person who has purchased or purchases chlorine for resale.

(b) Restrictions on use and delivery of chlorine. (1) On and after January 1, 1943, subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) hereof, no producer or distributor shall use or deliver chlorine, and no person shall accept delivery thereof from a producer or distributor, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations upon application pursuant to paragraph (f) hereof.

(2) During the period commencing December 1, 1942, and ending December 31, 1942, no person shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) hereof, deliver, accept delivery of or use chlorine or "products containing available chlorine" as defined in General Preference Order No. M–19 as in effect prior to the date of this amendment, except in accordance with the provisions of such order.

(3) Each person affected by this order shall comply with such directions as may be given from time to time by the Director General for Operations with respect to the use or delivery of chlorine.

(c) Exemptions. The restrictions provided for in paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2) hereof, shall not apply to the following:

(1) Use by any producer or distributor of not to exceed 2,000 pounds of chlorine during any one month.

(2) Delivery by any supplier of not to exceed 2,000 pounds of chlorine to any one person in any one month and the acceptance thereof by any such person: Provided, however, That each person seeking delivery of 2,000 pounds or less of chlorine during any one month shall file with his supplier at the time of placing his order a certificate in substantially the following form:

> The undersigned hereby certifies that if delivery of the quantity of chlorine covered by the accompanying order is made, the undersigned will not have received, during the month in which such delivery is to be made, in excess of 2,000 pounds of chlorine; that such chlorine is to be used for the following purpose:
> and that the amount of chlorine used for such purpose during the month of 1941 corresponding to the month in which such delivery is to be made was pounds.
>
> ______________________________
> (Name of customer)
> By ______________________________
> (Signature of authorized official)
> Date ______________ Title ____________

Such certificate shall constitute a representation to, but shall not be filed with, the War Production Board.

(3) Use by any person of chlorine for potable water treatment, industrial water treatment, swimming pool sanitation or sewage treatment.

(4) Delivery of chlorine by any supplier to any person for use, or for resale for use, for potable water treatment, industrial water treatment, swimming pool sanitation or sewage treatment, or to the acceptance of any such delivery by any such person: Provided, however, That no person shall accept delivery of any chlorine under this paragraph (c) (4) if the chlorine inventory of the deliveree is, or will by virtue of the acceptance of delivery of the chlorine ordered, become, in excess of a 30 days' supply on the basis of his current method and rate of operation, except to the extent that such excess may be occasioned by the fact that the amount ordered is the smallest practical delivery unit.

(d) Placing of orders. Each person ordering chlorine from any supplier, including persons ordering chlorine under paragraph (c) hereof, shall place his order for chlorine on or before the 5th day of the month preceding the month for which delivery is requested if such supplier is a distributor, or on or before the 10th day of such month if such supplier is a producer, and no supplier shall be required to fill any order for chlorine unless the person ordering the same shall have complied with the provisions of this paragraph (d).

(e) Production of chlorine. Each producer shall comply with such directions as may be given from time to time by the Director General for Operations with respect to the production of chlorine.

(f) Applications and reports. In addition to such other reports as may from time to time be required by the Director General for Operations:

(1) Each producer and each distributor seeking authorization to use, and each person seeking authorization to accept delivery of, chlorine, pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) hereof, shall apply to the War Production Board for such authorization on Form PD–190 (Rev.), which form shall be prepared and filed in the manner prescribed therein.

(2) Each producer and each distributor seeking authorization to deliver chlorine pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) hereof, shall apply to the War Production Board for such authorization on Form PD–191 (Rev.), which form shall be prepared and filed in the manner prescribed therein.

(g) Notification of customers. Producers and distributors shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of their regular customers of the requirements of this order, but failure to give such notice shall not excuse any such person from complying with the terms hereof.

(h) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable provisions of War Production Board Priorities Regulations, as amended from time to time.

(2) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(3) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–19.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 1st day of December 1942.

PART 1041—PRODUCTION, TRANSPORTATION, REFINING AND MARKETING OF PETROLEUM

[Preference Rating Order P-98-c]

§ 1041.3 Preference Rating Order P-98-c. For the purpose of facilitating special sales of idle or excess materials by persons engaged in the petroleum industry to other persons engaged in the petroleum industry, it is hereby ordered that persons engaged in the petroleum industry may sell such material to other persons engaged in the petroleum industry upon the terms hereinafter set forth:

(a) Definitions. The definitions of Preference Rating Order P-98-b shall apply in this order.

(b) Sales of material between operators. Any operator may sell to any other operator material from the seller's stocks or inventories, and any such sale shall be expressly permitted within the terms of paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation No. 13, as amended from time to time.

(c) Applicability of orders and priorities regulations. This order does not authorize receipt or use of any material by any person in violation of any inventory, quota or use restrictions imposed by any order or regulation. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the applicable provisions of any priorities regulation issued by the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(d) Communications. All reports which may be required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed:

(1) By any person located in the United States, its territories or possessions to: Office of Petroleum Coordinator, South Interior Building, Washington, D. C., Ref.: P-98-c.

(2) By any person located in the Dominion of Canada to: Office of Oil Controller, Dominion of Canada, Toronto, Canada, Ref.: P-98-c.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(f) Effective date. This order shall continue in effect up to but not after January 1, 1943, unless sooner revoked. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[MPR 200,[1] Amendment 3]

RUBBER HEELS, RUBBER HEELS ATTACHED, AND ATTACHING OF RUBBER HEELS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1315.1402 and paragraph (a) in § 1315.1406 are amended, as set forth below:

§ 1315.1402 Federal and state taxes. (a) Except as limited in the next paragraph, any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, or processing of rubber heels, imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price: If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor.

(b) No shoe repairman may add and after December 31, 1942, no wholesaler may add, the amount of Federal excise tax on rubber products paid by any prior vendor to the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 200.

§ 1315.1406 Marking and posting. (a) Every manufacturer of rubber heels (except sport heels and women's scoop lifts, toplifts, toplift strips and toplift blocks) manufactured after August 31, 1942, for sale in the shoe repair trade, shall imprint prominently on the face of every such heel in the place receiving the least wear the symbol "V-1," "V-2," "V-3," or "V-4," which symbol shall represent the physical tests, as set forth in paragraph (g) (6) of § 1315.1420, which the heel in question is able to equal or exceed. Sport heels and women's scoop lifts, toplifts, toplift strips and toplift blocks manufactured after August 31, 1942, for sale in the shoe repair trade must be marked in some other manner approved by the Office of Price Administration in order to indicate the quality thereof. The marking of the unit of sale container is an approved method of marking sport heels and women's scoop lifts (1 and 3 nail hole) and died out toplifts. A paper sticker on each toplift strip or block is also an approved method of marking toplift strips and toplift blocks.

§ 1315.1419a Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(c) Amendment No. 3 (§§ 1315.1402, 1315.1406 (a) and 1315.1419a (c)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 200 shall become effective December 5, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7891)

Issued this 30th day of November 1942.

PART 1346—BUILDING MATERIALS

[MPR 276]

ASPHALT TILE

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper, in order to effect a translation of the prices established under the General Maximum Price Regulation into dollars and cents and to accomplish the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, to establish as the maximum prices for asphalt tile the prices generally prevailing with respect thereto during the period March 1 to March 31, 1942.

The maximum prices established by this regulation are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable and in conformity with the general level of prices established by the General Maximum Price Regulation. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 276 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1346.301 to 1346.315, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1346.301 Maximum prices for asphalt tile. On and after December 5, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no manufacturer shall sell or deliver any asphalt tile, except on an installed basis, and no person shall buy or receive any asphalt tile from any manufacturer in the course of trade or business, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A, incorporated herein as § 1346.315, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of asphalt tile to a purchaser if prior to December 5, 1942, such asphalt tile had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to any agency of the United States, or any contracting officer thereof, and any such contracting officer or any paying finance officer shall be relieved of any and every liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 276 or by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1346.302 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those determined under § 1346.301 hereof may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1346.303 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In an appropriate situation, where a petition for amendment or for adjustment or exception requires extended consideration, the Price Administrator may upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1346.304 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 276 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of or relating to asphalt tile, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by lowering quality of the tile, or otherwise.

(b) Every person making a purchase or sale subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 276 of asphalt tile shall submit such reports or samples of asphalt tile to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.

---

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F.R. 8961.

§ 1346.306 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 276 are subject to the criminal penalties, and civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 276 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1346.307 Applications for adjustment—Government contracts or subcontracts. Any person who has entered into or proposes to enter into a Government contract or a subcontract under any such contract, who believes that a maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 276 impedes or threatens to impede production of a commodity or supply of a service which is essential to the war program and which is, or will be, the subject of such contract or subcontract may file an application for adjustment of that maximum price in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1346.308 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 276 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1346.309 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 276, the term:

(1) A sale on an "installed basis" means a transaction in which the seller furnishes asphalt tile together with the labor or services required to incorporate such asphalt tile into a building or other structure.

(2) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) "Carload" means a quantity or combination of one or more sizes, gauges, and colors of asphalt tile, and all sundries, including wax, cleaner, underlayment, and crack filler, or laying equipment, the aggregate weight of which totals 36,000 lbs. shipped at one time.

(4) "Asphalt tile" means a tile composed of a thoroughly blended composition of thermoplastic binder of the asphaltic and/or resinous type, asbestos and/or raw cotton fibers, and inert materials as fillers or pigments, formed under pressure while hot, and cut to size.

(5) "Manufacturer" means a person operating an establishment which produces, fabricates or finishes asphalt tile, and any agent or subsidiary or controlled affiliate of such manufacturer.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1346.310 General Maximum Price Regulation[3] and Maximum Price Regulation No. 188[4] superseded. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 276 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation and Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this Regulation.

§ 1346.311 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export asphalt tile shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation,[5] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1346.312 Taxes. There may be added to the maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 276 the amount of tax levied by any Federal excise tax statute or any State or municipal sales, gross receipts, gross proceeds, or compensating use tax statute or ordinance, under which the tax is measured by gross proceeds or units of sale, if, but only if, (a) such statute or ordinance requires the vendor to state the tax separately from the purchase price paid by the purchaser, consumer, or user, on the bill, sales check, or evidence of sale, at the time of the transaction; or (b) such statute or ordinance requires such tax to be separately paid by the purchaser, consumer or user with tokens or other media of State or municipal tax payment; or (c) such a statute or ordinance permits the vendor to state such tax separately, and such tax is in fact stated separately by the vendor. The amount of tax permitted to be added by this paragraph shall in no event exceed that paid by the purchaser, consumer, or user.

§ 1346.313 Application. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable to the forty-eight States of the United States and the District of Columbia, but shall not be applicable to the territories and possessions of the United States.

§ 1346.314 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 276 (§§ 1346.301 to 1346.315, inclusive), shall become effective December 5, 1942.

§ 1346.315 Appendix A: Maximum prices for asphalt tile—(a) List prices. The list prices of asphalt tile shall be as shown in the following tables:

PART 1389—APPAREL

[MPR 208,[1] Amendment 2]

STAPLE WORK CLOTHING

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment is issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Amended: §§ 1389.203, 1389.210 (b), 1389.217 (b) and 1389.218 (a) (4) (vii).

Added: § 1389.206 (b) (3).

§ 1389.203 Maximum prices of sellers other than at retail. Except as otherwise provided in this Maximum Price Regulation 208, the maximum price of a seller other than at retail for staple work clothing shall be the base price, determined under paragraph (a), (b) or (c), less the deduction indicated in paragraph (e), or the maximum price determined under paragraph (f).

(a) List prices. The base price for sale of a garment to a purchaser of any class shall be the price for such a sale shown on the last issued written price list:

(1) Which was generally circulated among the seller's customers or representatives, during or before March 1942; and

(2) Pursuant to which the seller offered and delivered one or more garments of the same classification to a purchaser of the same class during or before March 1942.

(b) Discount prices. The base price for sale of any garment to a purchaser of a class to whom it was not offered on the last issued written price list, as limited by paragraph (a), shall be a base price for the same garment determined under that paragraph, less the seller's "average discount" (defined in paragraph (d) (1)) to this purchaser.

(c) Formula prices. The base price for sale of a garment which is the same as one manufactured during the twelve months preceding April 1, 1942, where the base price cannot be determined under paragraph (a) or (b), shall be a price determined under this paragraph (c).

(1) Pricing formula. To establish a maximum price for a garment to a purchaser of any class, the seller shall:

(i) Determine the unit direct cost of the garment being priced.

(ii) Select from garments of the same classification for which the base price to a purchaser of the same class can be determined under paragraph (a) or (b), the one which has a unit direct cost immediately higher and the one which has a unit direct cost immediately lower than the unit direct cost of the article being priced. If all such garments are either above or below, the one closest in unit direct cost shall be selected, and if any such garment has the same unit direct cost as the article being priced, it shall be selected in addition to the garments immediately above and below.

(iii) Determine the average percentage mark-up over unit direct cost included in the maximum prices of the garments selected.

(iv) Add to the unit direct cost of the article being priced this average percentage mark-up.

EXAMPLE

[Unit direct cost of garment being priced: $9.00]

(1) Unit direct costs of other garments of same classification	(2) Maximum prices of such garments	(3) Calculation of mark-up
$10.00	$11.50	Total maximum prices (from (2))	$19.70
7.00	8.20	Total unit costs (from (1))	17.00
17.00	19.70	Total mark-up	2.70

Divide 2.70 (total mark-up) by 17.00 (total cost), and find average percentage mark-up of ______ 15.9%

Multiply $9.00 (unit direct cost of garment being priced) by 15.9 and find dollar mark-up of $1.43. Add $9.00 and find maximum price ____ $10.43

(2) Computation of unit direct costs by a manufacturer. To establish the unit direct cost, a manufacturer shall add costs per unit of materials and direct labor, determined as follows:

(i) Material costs shall be calculated at the maximum net prices which the manufacturer could lawfully be charged for such materials if purchased on his customary terms from the source of supply most used by him in purchasing materials of the same type during the six months ending March 31, 1942, under the terms of price schedules and maximum price regulations in effect at the time when the calculation is made.

(ii) Wage rates shall be calculated at the rates paid by the seller on March 31, 1942, plus any increase subsequent thereto made pursuant to a collective bargaining contract or other wage agreement which was entered into on or before April 27, 1942, and which provides for an unconditional increase in wage rates of a fixed amount or percent.

(iii) Amounts of labor and material used shall be calculated on the basis of the manufacturer's most recent cost records of the manufacture of each garment during the year preceding April 1, 1942, and labor costs shall be confined to labor used in cutting, sewing, assembling and inspecting the garment.

(3) Computation of unit direct costs by a wholesaler. A seller at wholesale shall take as the unit direct cost of any garment the maximum net price for sale by the manufacturer to him, on the terms customarily obtained by him, or if none, by purchasers of the same class.

(d) Meaning of terms for the purposes of this section. (1) The seller's "average discount" to any purchaser shall be the average of percentage discounts allowed to this purchaser on all orders accepted during 1941, on the same material and labor cost basis, for the garment being priced; or if data are not available for that garment, for the most closely comparable garment of the same classification for which data are available. If the discount cannot be determined on orders from the same purchaser, it shall be determined on orders from all purchasers of the same class.

(2) "Purchasers of the same class" refers to the practice adopted by the seller in setting different prices for staple work clothing for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers, (for example, wholesaler, jobber, retailer, government agency, public institution, or individual consumer) or for purchasers located in different areas or for different quantities or grades, or under different conditions of sale.

(3) A garment shall be considered the "same" as another when:

(i) The garment belongs to the same classification (as defined in § 1389.217);

(ii) The garment contains body material which is the same with respect to (a) construction, (b) weight and thread count within the tolerance of the Worth Street Rules, (c) finish, including shrinkage treatment, and (d) color fastness;

(iii) The garment consumes substantially the same average yards per dozen and has substantially the same body dimensions;

(iv) The garment contains trimmings of fairly equivalent serviceability;

(v) The garment is constructed and assembled with the same standards of workmanship and inspection. Differences in color which are not ordinarily the basis of differences in price shall be disregarded.

(4) A simplified model (defined in § 1389.218) of any garment shall be considered the "same" as such garment before simplification, except when such simplified garment becomes the same, under paragraph (d) (3) of this section, as a lower priced garment in which the seller dealt during or before March 1942.

(5) A "unit" shall be a dozen articles, or any other number customarily used as a basis for calculating costs and prices.

(e) Deductions. The deduction to be made from the base price of any garment, as determined under paragraphs

---

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F.R. 6649, 8940, 8948.

(a), (b) or (c) of this section, in order to determine the maximum price, shall be the product which results from multiplying the number of yards of cloth used in the garment for which such base price was determined, before simplification (if any), by the number of cents indicated in the following Table I, according to the body material of which such garment was made. This deduction shall be subject to the following exceptions:

(1) The deduction to be made in determining the maximum price for a boy's garment shall be one-half the amount indicated by the table.

(2) A seller at wholesale shall omit any part of the deduction which reduces his maximum price to a sum lower than 110% of his unit direct cost.

TABLE I

Pinchecks and pin stripes	All weights	0.5

(f) Replacements and curtailments in body materials—(1) When this paragraph applies. The maximum price for a garment shall be determined under this paragraph if the garment cannot be priced under paragraph (a), (b) or (c), and is the same as one priced under paragraph (a) or (b), except for one or both of the following characteristics:

(i) One weight, finish or construction of body material is replaced by another, or

(ii) The yardage of body material consumed is curtailed in order to comply with General Limitation Order L-181 as amended (§ 3204.1),[2] and remains within 2 percent of the maximum yardage permitted by that order.

(2) Calculating the maximum price. The maximum price shall be found by taking the maximum price of that garment priced under paragraph (a) or (b) which is nearest in cost, and is the "same" except for the replacement or curtailment, and subtracting (or adding, if the material cost of that garment is lower) a sum calculated as follows:

(i) Find the difference between the costs of body materials in the two garments; and

(ii) Multiply this difference by 105 percent in finding a price for sale to wholesalers and to purchasers of classes who are customarily charged the same or a lower price; and by 110 percent in calculating a price for sale to purchasers of classes who are customarily charged more than the price to wholesalers. For all prices charged by wholesalers, the difference shall be multiplied by 110 percent.

(3) Cost of body materials. For the purposes of paragraph (f), the cost of any body material means the price which the seller would be charged (not exceeding the applicable maximum price), at the time the calculation is made, for a purchase on his customary terms from the source of supply most used by him for materials of the same type during the six months ending March 31, 1942. Every seller shall promptly upon request inform any purchaser of the difference between the specifications of body materials in the garments compared, and the difference in their costs.

§ 1389.206 Evasion. * * *

(b) * * *

(3) No seller shall reduce the size range in which a garment is offered from the size range in which it was offered during March 1942.

* * * * *

§ 1389.210 Informational requirements. * * *

(b) Statements to be filed—(1) Initial statements. On or before December 5, 1942, every person who sells staple work clothing otherwise than at retail shall prepare and file the following documents with the Office of Price Administration, Washington. D. C.

(i) The latest price list, generally circulated among the sellers, customers and representatives, pursuant to which the seller delivered, during or before March 1942, any garment of each classification to each class of purchasers, with a statement showing the date when each list was issued, to whom it was circulated, and the name and address of a purchaser of each class to whom a garment of each classification was delivered.

(ii) A statement showing the maximum price under this regulation for each garment sold, delivered or offered from August 26, 1942 to September 30, inclusive, for each class of purchasers to whom the garment was sold, delivered or offered during that period, and disclosing the manner in which the maximum price was determined.

(iii) A description of each garment referred to in subdivision (i) and (ii), and such additional details as may be required in report forms prescribed by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) Supplemental statements. Every person who makes sales, deliveries or offerings of staple work clothing otherwise than at retail after September 30, 1942, for which the maximum prices and descriptions are not shown on the statements filed under subparagraph (1), shall file supplemental statements. These statements shall be filed on the tenth day of December 1942, and of each succeeding month, covering garments sold, delivered or offered prior to the month in which the statement is filed, and not covered by any previous report. They shall contain information corresponding to that required by subparagraphs (1) (ii) and (1) (iii) for initial statements.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 5C,[1] Amendment 3]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of § 1394.7808 are amended, paragraph (e) of § 1394.7808 is revoked, and a new paragraph (c) to § 1394.8352 is added, as set forth below:

Transport Rations

§ 1394.7808 Temporary transport rations. (a) Any person requiring gasoline for the operation of a commercial motor vehicle who has made application for a Certificate of War Necessity but who has received no certificate and no notice that his application has been denied, or any person who has received a certificate which discloses on its face that clear error has been made in stating the gallonage allowed, may apply between November 23, 1942, and December 31, 1942, inclusive, for a temporary transport ration pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, and no Certificate of War Necessity shall be required to be presented in connection therewith.

(b) An application for a Temporary Transport ration may be made, in duplicate, to any Board during the period from November 23, 1942, to December 31, 1942, inclusive. Such application shall be made on Form OPA R-536, and may be made by an agent. The applicant shall state the mileage and gallonage required for the operation of such motor vehicle from the date the ration is required to December 31, 1942, inclusive, and set forth the following:

(1) If no certificate and no notice of denial has been received, the applicant shall specify the address of the District Office of the Office of Defense Transportation with which the application for a Certificate of War Necessity has been filed, the date on which such application was filed, and the address of the Board with which his application pursuant to § 1394.7804 is to be filed. The applicant shall also state that no ration pursuant to § 1394.7805 has been issued, and that he has received no notice that his application for a Certificate of War Necessity has been denied.

(2) If the certificate discloses error in stating the gallonage allowed, the applicant shall state that he has applied or will apply to the District Office of the Office of Defense Transportation for correction of the error.

(c) If the Board believes that the applicant has received no certificate and no notice of denial of a certificate, or if it is evident to the Board that the statement of gallonage allowed in the certificate is a result of clerical error the Board shall determine the number of gallons of gasoline required for the operation of such motor vehicle through December 31, 1942. The Board shall then issue "T-1" or "T-2" books containing coupons in sufficient number to provide the gallonage needed to December 31, 1942, inclusive. Such books shall expire at 12:01 A. M. on April 1, 1942.

PART 1405—FERRO-ALLOYS

[MPR 248,[1] Amendment 1]

MANGANESE ORES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1405.63 the figure "35%" set forth in paragraph (a) (3) is amended to read "40%"; paragraph (a) of § 1405.65 is amended by deleting the following which appears under Penalties: "Below 40%: 10¢, plus 2¢ for each 1% down to and including 35%"; and a new § 1405.64a is added:

§ 1405.64a Effective dates of amendments. (a) Amendment No. 1 (§§ 1405.63 (a) (3) and 1405.65 (a)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 248 shall become effective December 1, 1942.

PART 1413—SOFTWOOD LUMBER PRODUCTS

[Rev. MPR 13[1]]

DOUGLAS FIR PLYWOOD

The title, the preamble, and §§ 1413.1 to 1413.16, inclusive, are renumbered and amended to read as set forth below:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Sec.
1413.1 Sales of Douglas fir plywood at higher than maximum prices prohibited.
1413.2 To what products, transactions, and persons this regulation applies.
1413.3 Maximum prices for direct mill sales.
1413.4 Maximum prices for plywood distribution plant sales.
1413.5 Maximum prices for all other warehouse or yard sales of Douglas fir plywood.
1413.6 What the invoice must contain.
1413.7 Prohibited practices.
1413.8 Maximum prices for items not specifically priced.
1413.9 Petitions for adjustment and amendment.
1413.10 Records and reports.
1413.11 Enforcement and licensing.
1413.12 Relation to other regulations.
1413.13 Effective date.
1413.14 Appendix A. Maximum prices: Moisture resistant plywood.
1413.15 Appendix B. Maximum prices: Exterior type plywood.
1413.16 Appendix C. Estimated average weights of plywood.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1413.1 to 1413.16, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871

§ 1413.1 Sales of Douglas fir plywood at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after December 5, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any Douglas fir plywood at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) If, upon the purchase of Douglas fir plywood, the buyer gets from the seller a written statement that to the best of his knowledge the price does not exceed the maximum price fixed by this regulation, and if the buyer has no reason to doubt the truth of the statement, the buyer shall be deemed to have complied with this section.

(c) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged and paid.

§ 1413.2 To what products, transactions, and persons this regulation applies—(a) Products covered by the regulation. This regulation covers sales of all grades and sizes of Douglas fir plywood. All the grade terms, other than "Sound 1 Side Plypanel", used in the regulation refer to the standards of the United States Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards, published in Commercial Standard CS45–40 (Douglas Fir Plywood, Domestic Grades), Fourth Edition, effective August 20, 1940. The grade rule for "Sound 1 Side Plypanel" is contained in a footnote to Appendix A (§ 1413.14).

(b) Transactions covered by the regulation. This regulation covers all sales of Douglas fir plywood. The regulation divides sales into three kinds:

(1) Direct mill sales;

(2) Plywood distribution plant sales;

(3) All other warehouse and yard sales.

(i) "Direct mill sale". A "direct mill sale" is a sale in which the shipment of plywood originates at a plywood mill (a factory or plant which processes Douglas fir peeler logs into plywood), no matter who the seller is, and no matter whether he usually is known as a mill operator, wholesaler, retailer, distributor, or anything else. A shipment is regarded as originating at a mill if the plywood reaches the purchaser without ever becoming an integral part of the stock of a distribution warehouse or yard. For example, if a distribution warehouse takes an order for an aircraft factory, and then obtains the plywood from a mill, puts it in the warehouse, and delivers it as needed, the sale is a direct mill sale since the plywood never became an integral part of the stock of the warehouse.

(ii) "Plywood distribution plant sale". A "plywood distribution plant sale" is a sale in which plywood is shipped to the purchaser out of the stock of a plywood distribution plant, whether the seller is the distribution plant, a wholesale or retail lumber yard, or anyone else. A shipment is considered to be made out of the stock of a plywood distribution plant only if the plywood was a part of the regular distribution plant stock at the time the sale was made. A plywood distribution plant is a wholesale or retail warehouse or yard which satisfies both of the following tests:

(a) Does not process plywood from Douglas fir peeler logs; and

(b) During the first six months of 1941 received more than 20 percent of its dollar income from sales of plywood or veneer of any kind.

(iii) Sales included under "all other warehouse or yard sales. The term "all other warehouse or yard sales" covers any sale of Douglas fir plywood which is not a direct mill sale or a plywood distribution yard sale. The term includes all sales out of the stocks of distribution warehouses and yards other than plywood distribution plants (defined in the paragraph immediately above) where the plywood is in the regular stock of the warehouse or yard at the time the sale is made.

(c) Persons covered by this regulation. Any person who sells or purchases (in the course of trade or business) Douglas fir plywood is subject to this regulation. The term "person" includes: an individual, corporation, or any other organized groups; their legal successors or representatives; the United States, or any government, or any of its political subdivisions; or any agency of the foregoing.

§ 1413.3 Maximum prices for direct mill sales—(a) Maximum f. o. b. mill prices for direct mill sales. The maximum prices, f. o. b. mill, for direct mill sales of Douglas fir plywood are set out in Appendices A and B (§§ 1413.14 and 1413.15) of this regulation. In determining whether a shipment takes the ceiling price for a carload shipment or for a less than carload shipment, a minimum carload is to be a total of 38,000 pounds. If either Douglas fir doors or Douglas fir millwork, or both, are included in a car with one or more grades or sizes of Douglas fir plywood, they must be included in figuring the total weight of the shipment.

(b) Maximum delivered prices for direct mill sales. A delivered price for a direct mill sale may be charged by the seller and paid by the buyer. The maximum delivered price for direct mill sales is the maximum f. o. b. mill price plus a charge for delivery to the purchaser figured under the rules in the next paragraph.

(c) How to figure charges for delivery—(1) Common or contract carrier. When delivery is by common or contract carrier, the actual amount paid to the carrier may be added. The estimated average weights in Appendix C (§ 1413.16) of this regulation may be applied to the appropriate freight rate in figuring the allowable charge for delivery.

(2) Private truck. When delivery is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the amount added for delivery may not be more than the actual cost to the seller of delivery by truck. This "actual cost" may not be higher than the overall average trucking cost for a similar delivery, arrived at as of the 6-month period ending September 1, 1942.

(3) Rounding out to the nearest nickel. The charge for delivery may be evened out to the nearest nickel per 1,000 square feet.

(d) Addition for storage in transit. When a distribution warehouse or yard sells plywood that it does not already have in stock, and then, instead of shipping it directly from the mill to the buyer, stores it in its warehouse or yard and delivers it, in quantities less than the total order, to the buyer as he calls for it, the distributor may add $3.00 per 1,000 square feet to the maximum price of so much of the plywood as is actually stored. (Note that the sale is still a direct mill sale.) This addition may not be made when the distributor merely reloads plywood at the warehouse or yard, or handles and stores it no more than is necessary in a normal case where the distributor receives a mill shipment, reloads it, and delivers it to the buyer.

§ 1413.4 Maximum prices for plywood distribution plant sales—(a) Maximum prices for plywood at the plywood distribution plant. The maximum price, f. o. b. plywood distribution plant, for plywood distribution plant sales is the sum of the following three items:

Item I. The maximum f. o. b. mill price for direct mill sales.

Item II. The inbound transportation charge to the plywood distribution plant based on the applicable carload freight rate from Portland, Oregon, and the appropriate estimated average weights set out in Appendix C (§ 1413.16) of this regulation. The incoming transportation charge may be rounded out to the nearest nickel per 1,000 square feet.

Item III. A markup of 20 percent on the sum of Items I and II; or if the distribution plant sale involves less than $200.00 worth of Douglas fir plywood, a markup of 25 percent on the sum of Items I and II. This markup may be rounded out to the nearest nickel per 1,000 square feet.

(b) Maximum delivered prices for plywood distribution plant sales—(1) Delivery within a free delivery zone. If the buyer requests delivery within a free delivery zone which the seller recognized during March 1942, the seller cannot charge for making the delivery.

(2) Delivery outside free delivery zones. If the buyer requests delivery outside the free delivery zones which the seller recognized during March 1942, the seller can charge for delivery (outbound freight) according to the same rules as those applying to delivery charges on direct-mill sales. (See the preceding § 1413.3 (c) How to figure charges for delivery.)

(c) Example of calculating the maximum price for a plywood distribution plant sale. An example of the correct application of this section is as follows:

The buyer has ordered 10,000 square feet of plywall, $\frac{5}{16}$" 3 ply S2S to ¼". The plywood distribution plant is in Baltimore, Maryland, and the plywall is delivered by rail out of the regular stock of the distribution plant to a buyer located on a rail siding in Washington, D. C. Washington is outside the free delivery zones which the seller recognized in March 1942.

	Per M square feet
Item I. F. o. b. mill price for direct mill shipment of a carload (established in Appendix A)	$30.00
Item II. Inbound transportation ($1.00 rate (carload) x 790 (estimated weight)), evened to nearest 5¢	7.90
Item III. Markup (20 percent of items I and II on sales over $200.00), rounded out to the nearest 5¢	7.60
Maximum price at the Baltimore plywood distribution plant	$45.50
Item IV. L. C. L. rail freight from Baltimore to Washington (which is outside the seller's free delivery zones) (28¢ rate (L. C. L.) x 790 (estimated weight)), evened to nearest 5¢	$2.20
Maximum price delivered to purchaser in Washington	$47.70

(d) Special added markup for retail and wholesale lumber yards. When a retail or wholesale lumber yard that is not a plywood distribution plant sells plywood which it does not have in stock at the time of sale and which it buys out of the regular stock of a plywood distribution plant, the yard may add a markup of $2.00 per 1,000 square feet to the maximum price which is established in this section. (Note that such a sale is a plywood distribution plant sale since the retail or wholesale lumber yard did not have the plywood in stock at the time of sale.)

(e) Special deduction for pick-up by retail and wholesale lumber yards. When a retail or wholesale lumber yard buys plywood in a plywood distribution plant sale and picks up the plywood at the distribution plant, the maximum prices established in this section must be reduced as follows:

Thickness of plywood:	Deduction per M sq. ft.
¼"	$1.00
⅜" and thicker	2.00

§ 1413.5 Maximum prices for all other warehouse or yard sales of Douglas fir plywood. The maximum price for all other warehouse or yard sales of plywood is to be computed in the same manner as the ceiling price for plywood distribution plant sales, except that two changes are to be made in figuring the ceiling price:

(a) Inbound and outbound delivery charges are to be figured on the basis of the location of the warehouse or yard (rather than on the location of a plywood distribution plant).

(b) The mark-up on the sum of the f. o. b. mill price (for direct mill shipments) and inbound carload freight is 33 percent (instead of 20 and 25 percent).

§ 1413.6 What the invoice must contain—(a) General. Because of the number of possible additions to the basic f. o. b. mill prices, it is necessary that some of them be separately shown on the invoice. Otherwise the purchaser and the Office of Price Administration could not tell in many cases whether a price which appeared to be above the ceiling was legal or not.

Failure to invoice properly is just as much a violation of this regulation as charging an excessive price.

(b) Basic price. All invoices must contain a sufficiently complete description of the plywood to show whether the price is proper or not. Any specification or extra which affects the maximum price must be mentioned in the description. The amount added for extras does not have to be separately shown, except in a few special cases which are specifically mentioned later in this section.

(c) Type of sale. The invoice must show whether the sale is a direct mill sale, a plywood distribution plant sale, or a sale included in the class "all other warehouse or yard sales".

(d) Transportation charges. In delivered sales, the invoice must contain the:

(1) Point of origin of the shipment;

(2) Destination;

(3) Rail or truck rate (or, if delivery is by private truck, the amount added for transportation).

(e) Storage charges. Any separate charge which the seller is permitted to make for storage in transit must be shown separately on the invoice.

§ 1413.7 Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars and cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings and the like.

(b) Specific prohibited practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Getting the effect of a higher price by changing credit practices or cash discounts from what they were in August 1941. This includes reducing the cash discount period, decreasing credit periods, or making greater charges for extension of credit. For purposes of this paragraph, no discount over 2 percent is considered a cash discount.

(2) Unnecessarily routing plywood through a plywood distribution plant or other warehouse or yard.

(3) Refusing to sell on an f. o. b. mill basis (in the case of direct mill shipments) or on an f. o. b. warehouse or yard basis (in the case of all other sales), and insisting on selling on a delivered basis. The purchaser must be given the option of making his own transportation arrangements.

(4) Quoting a gross price above the maximum price, even if accompanied by a discount, the effect of which is to bring the net price below the maximum.

(5) Charging a purchasing commission based on quantity or value of the plywood purchased, if the commission plus the purchase price is higher than the maximum price permitted by this regulation.

(6) Breaking up an order which would normally be a single order into a series of smaller orders in order to evade the maximum price limitations set forth in this regulation.

(c) Adjustable pricing. A price may not be made adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the plywood has been completed. But the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

§ 1413.8 Maximum prices for items not specifically priced—(a) Scope of this section. This section provides pricing methods for any items of Douglas fir plywood not specifically priced in Appendices A and B (§§ 1413.14 and 1413.15), including:

(1) Moisture resistant plywood shipped pursuant to a "military order" (§ 1276.1 (c) (2) of Limitation Order L–150, as amended).

(2) Moisture resistant plywood shipped pursuant to written authorization of the War Production Board (§ 1276.1 (b) of Limitation Order L–150, as amended).

(3) Moisture resistant plywood which qualifies as "work in process" (§ 1276.1 (b) of Limitation Order L–150, as amended).

(4) Exterior plywood in special grades or sizes.

(5) Cut-backs; rejects; plywood from short length veneers.

(b) Pricing method (except for cut-backs, rejects, and plywood from short length veneers). (1) If the item was priced in the tables in Revised Price Schedule No. 13, (that is, the tables as they stood before July 25, 1942), that price is the maximum price.

(2) In all other cases, the maximum price is a price which bears the March 1941 relation to the price of the most closely related item which is specifically priced in Appendices A or B (§§ 1413.14 and 1413.15). The producing mill must send to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a complete description of the specifications, the purchaser's name, points of origin and delivery, the price and the way in which the price was calculated. The price may be ordered reduced, if found excessive. But if it is not disapproved within 30 days of receipt of the report, it is approved. A seller using this pricing method may go ahead with delivery and collection of the price he has computed. But he must tell the buyer that the price is subject to revision within the thirty-day period, and, if the price is ordered reduced, must refund any excess over the final approved price.

(c) Pricing method for cut-backs, rejects, and plywood from short length veneers. This paragraph (c) applies to plywood which has been rejected by grading process, reclaimed plywood of odd sizes developed by cutting back rejects, and plywood produced from short length veneers developed because of defects in logs. The maximum price is the lower of the following two prices:

(1) The price charged by the producing mill between October 1 and October 15, 1941, for the same kind and size; or

(2) The price per thousand feet specified in Appendices A or B for the grade and thickness in the size next lower than the developed size. Where, as in the case of plywall, plyscord, and plyform, the price tables do not carry differentials down to a 24" width, the differentials established for plypanel Sound Two Sides shall be used. For example, if a piece of $\frac{5}{16}$" plyscord in a 28" width is developed, the price of $27.00 must be reduced by $1.00, since in 5/16″ plypanel the differential between 36″ width, which is the narrowest plyscord size, and 24″ width is $1.00. Similarly, for 5/16″ plywall in a width of 40″ the price would be $30.00 less $1.85, since that is the differential between 48″ width and 36″ width, which is the next narrower width in 5/16″ plypanel.

(d) Sales by persons other than mills. Maximum prices arrived at under this section apply to direct-mill sales by any seller for shipments originating at the mill which computed the price. They are also to be used as the basis on which to compute the price for plywood distribution plant, and other warehouse and yard sales of the particular item.

§ 1413.9 Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. (1) The term "government contracts" is here used to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the government or any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the defense of the United States". It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(2) Any person who has made or intends to make a "government contract" and who thinks that a maximum price established in this regulation is impeding or threatens to impede production of Douglas fir plywood which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1413.10 Records and reports—(a) Records. All sellers must keep records which will show a complete description of the items of plywood sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of the sale and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought 38,000 pounds or more of Douglas fir plywood. They must be kept for two years, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration. Any records which the Office of Price Administration later requires must also be kept.

(b) Reports. Any reports that the Office of Price Administration has required in the past, or requires from time to time, must be submitted.

§ 1413.11 Enforcement and licensing. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or of any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) War procurement agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation. "War procurement agencies" include the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

(d) All sellers under this regulation, except mills, have been licensed by Supplementary Order 18. This Order, in brief, provides that a license is necessary, except for mills, to make sales under this regulation. A license is automatically granted to all sellers making these sales. It is not necessary to apply specially for the license, but a registration may later be required. The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and Supplementary Order 18 tell the circumstances under which licenses may be suspended. The license cannot be transferred.

§ 1413.12 Relation to other regulations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation. Any sale or delivery covered by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 13 is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) Maximum Export Price Regulation.[4] The maximum price for export sales of Douglas fir plywood is governed by the Maximum Export Price Regulation.

§ 1413.13 Effective date. (a) This regulation (§§ 1413.1 to 1413.16, inclusive) shall become effective December 5, 1942.

(b) If Douglas fir plywood has been received before December 5, 1942, by a carrier, other than one owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to a buyer, that shipment is not subject to this regulation. It remains subject to the terms of any regulation, whether the General Maximum Price Regulation or earlier version of this regulation, which covered it at the time the plywood was turned over to the carrier.

§ 1413.14 Appendix A: Maximum prices: Moisture resistant plywood.

(a) Basic prices. The maximum prices, f. o. b. mill, for direct-mill sales of moisture-resistant type Douglas fir plywood, in grades and sizes listed in § 1276.1 (b) of Limitation Order L–150,[5] as amended, shall be as follows:

(1) PLYSCORD

(Douglas Fir Plywood Sheathing)

(i) Maximum prices for plyscord in widths of 36″ and 48″ and in lengths of 96″:

	Price per M sq. ft. f. o. b. mill
	Straight carloads	Less than carloads
5/16″ 3 Ply, rough	$27.00	$28.10
3/8″ 3 Ply, rough	32.00	33.45
1/2″ 3 or 5 Ply at mill's option, rough	42.15	44.70
5/8″ 3 or 5 Ply at mill's option, rough	52.25	55.65

(ii) Long standard lengths. For panels in widths of 36″ and 48″ and in lengths of 9′, 10′, 11′, and 12′, the following additional charges may be made:

$5.25 per M sq. ft. for 9′ lengths.
$8.00 per M sq. ft. for 10′ lengths.
$13.25 per M sq. ft. for 11′ lengths.
$16.00 per M sq. ft. for 12′ lengths.

(2) PLYWALL

(Douglas Fir Plywood Wallboard)

(i) Maximum prices for plywall in widths of 48″ and in lengths of 60″, 72″, 84″, and 96″:

	Price per M sq. ft. f. o. b. mill
	Straight carloads	Less than carloads
5/16″ 3 Ply S2S to 1/4″	$30.00	$31.20
7/16″ 3 Ply S2S to 3/8″	40.50	42.90
9/16″ 5 Ply S2S to 1/2″	54.50	58.15
1/4″ Studding strips (per M lineal feet)	5.30	5.30

(ii) Long standard lengths. For panels in widths of 48″ and in lengths of 9′, 10′, 11′, and 12′, the following additional charges may be made:

$5.25 per M sq. ft. for 9′ lengths.
$8.00 per M sq. ft. for 10′ lengths.
$13.25 per M sq. ft. for 11′ lengths.
$16.00 per M sq. ft. for 12′ lengths.

(3) PLYFORM

(Douglas Fir Plywood Concrete Form Panels)

(i) Maximum prices for plyform in widths of 36″ and 48″ and in lengths of 60″, 72″, 84″, and 96″:

	Price per M sq. ft. f. o. b. mill
	Straight carloads	Less than carloads
5/16″ 3 Ply S2S to 1/4″ (Form liners)	$44.00	$47.00
9/16″ 5 Ply S2S to 1/2″	76.10	83.15
5/8″ 5 Ply S2S to 9/16″	81.40	89.00
11/16″ 5 Ply S2S to 5/8″	85.50	93.15
13/16″ 5 Ply S2S to 3/4″	94.30	103.05

(ii) Oiled faces. For plyform with oiled faces, a charge not to exceed $1.00 per M sq. ft. may be added.

(iii) Wide width. Add to the maximum price for 48″ widths:

$8.00 per M sq. ft. for 60″ widths.

(iv) Long lengths. Add to the maximum price for 96″ lengths:

$5.25 per M sq. ft. for 9′ lengths.
$8.00 per M sq. ft. for 10′ lengths.
$13.25 per M sq. ft. for 11′ lengths.
$16.00 per M sq. ft. for 12′ lengths.

(4) AUTOMOBILE AND INDUSTRIAL PLYWOOD—ROUGH PANELS

(i) Maximum prices for automobile and industrial plywood—rough panels:

	Price per M sq. ft. f. o. b. mill
	Straight carloads	Less than carloads
1/4″ rough, 3 ply, sizes up to 48″ x 96″	$29.20	$31.95
5/16″ rough, 3 ply, sizes up to 48″ x 96″	29.20	31.95
3/8″ rough, 3 ply, sizes up to 48″ x 96″	35.00	38.50
1/2″ rough, 5 ply, sizes up to 48″ x 96″	48.80	53.40
9/16″ rough, 5 ply, sizes up to 48″ x 96″	53.75	58.90
5/8″ rough, 5 ply, sizes up to 48″ x 96″	58.75	64.35
11/16″ rough, 5 ply, sizes up to 48″ x 96″	63.70	69.80
3/4″ rough, 5 ply, sizes up to 48″ x 96″	68.65	75.20
7/8″ rough, 5 ply, sizes up to 48″ x 96″	78.60	86.05
7/8″ rough, 7 ply, sizes up to 48″ x 96″	82.30	90.10

(ii) Wide width. Add to the maximum price for 48″ widths:

	Per M sq. ft.
Over 48″ to 60″, inclusive	$8.00

(iii) Long lengths. Add to the maximum price for 96″ lengths:

	Per M sq. ft.
Over 96″ to 108″, inclusive	$5.25
Over 108″ to 120″, inclusive	8.00
Over 120″ to 132″, inclusive	13.25
Over 132″ to 144″, inclusive	16.00

(5) PLYPANEL—SOUND 1 SIDE

(i) Maximum prices for plypanel—Sound 1 side[6] in widths of 24″, 30″, 36″, and 48″ and in lengths of 60″, 72″, 84″, and 96″:

	Price per M sq. ft. f. o. b. mill
	Straight carloads	Less than carloads
3/16″ 3 ply S2S to 1/8″ or 1/4″—3 ply S2S to 3/16″:
24″ width	$33.15	$36.35
30″ and 36″ width	34.15	37.30
48″ width	36.00	39.35
5/16″ 3 ply S2S to 1/4″:
24″ width	29.65	32.85
30″ and 36″ width	30.65	33.80
48″ width	32.50	35.85
7/16″ 3 ply S2S to 3/8″:
24″ width	40.75	44.95
30″ and 36″ width	41.70	45.95
48″ width	43.55	47.95
9/16″ 5 ply S2S to 1/2″:
24″ width	56.45	62.05
30″ and 36″ width	57.35	63.00
48″ width	59.20	65.10
11/16″ 5 ply S2S to 5/8″:
24″ width	67.45	74.15
30″ and 36″ width	68.40	75.15
48″ width	70.20	77.15
13/16″ 5 ply S2S to 3/4″:
24″ width	76.75	84.25
30″ and 36″ width	77.60	85.20
48″ width	79.40	87.25

(ii) Wide width. Add to the maximum price for 48″ widths:

$8.00 per M sq. ft. for 60″ widths.

(iii) Long lengths. Add to the maximum price for 96″ lengths:

$5.25 per M sq. ft. for 9′ lengths.
$8.00 per M sq. ft. for 10′ lengths.
$13.25 per M sq. ft. for 11′ lengths.
$16.00 per M sq. ft. for 12′ lengths.

(6) PLYPANEL—SOUND 2 SIDES

(i) Maximum prices for plypanel—Sound 2 sides in widths of 24″, 30″, 36″, and 48″ and in lengths of 60″, 72″, 84″, and 96″:

	Price per M sq. ft. f. o. b. mill
	Straight carloads	Less than carloads
3/16″ 3 ply S2S to 1/8″ or 1/4″—3 ply S2S to 3/16″:
24″ width	$35.65	$38.85
30″ and 36″ width	36.65	39.80
48″ width	38.50	41.85
5/16″ 3 Ply S2S to 1/4″:
24″ width	32.15	35.35
30″ and 36″ width	33.15	36.30
48″ width	35.00	38.35
7/16″ 3 Ply S2S to 3/8″:
24″ width	43.25	47.45
30″ and 36″ width	44.20	48.45
48″ width	46.05	50.45
9/16″ 5 ply S2S to 1/2″:
24″ width	58.95	64.55
30″ and 36″ width	59.85	65.50
48″ width	61.70	67.60
11/16″ 5 ply S2S to 5/8″:
24″ width	69.95	76.65
30″ and 36″ width	70.90	77.65
48″ width	72.70	79.65
13/16″ 5 ply S2S to 3/4″:
24″ width	79.25	86.75
30″ and 36″ width	80.10	87.70
48″ width	81.90	89.75

(ii) Wide width. Add to the maximum price for 48″ widths:

$8.00 per M sq. ft. for 60″ widths.

(iii) Long lengths. Add to the maximum price for 96″ lengths:

$5.25 per M sq. ft. for 9′ lengths.
$8.00 per M sq. ft. for 10′ lengths.
$13.25 per M sq. ft. for 11′ lengths.
$16.00 per M sq. ft. for 12′ lengths.

(7) DOOR PANELS—SOUND 2 SIDES

(i) Maximum prices for door panels—Sound 2 sides in widths of 22″, 24″, 26″, 28″, 30″, 36″ and 48″ and in lengths of 60″, 72″, 84″ and 96″: (All sizes to be figured on actual surface measure furnished)

	Price per M sq. ft. f. o. b. mill
	Straight carloads	Less than carloads
5/16″ 3 ply S2S to 1/4″:
22″ and 24″ width	$32.15	$35.35
26,″ 28,″ 30″ and 36″ width	33.15	36.30
48″ width	35.00	38.35

(b) Special extras. The following additions to the maximum price established in paragraph (a) of this section may be made for the specified special extras:

(1) Selected sound cores and crossbands:

$2.50 per M sq. ft. for 3 Ply.
$7.50 per M sq. ft. for 5 Ply.
$12.50 per M sq. ft. for 7 Ply.

(2) Core stock: (In lengths not over 48″) Add to maximum price for sound 2 sides or sound 1 side in 48″ widths:

$10.00 per M sq. ft. for widths up to 96″.
$15.00 per M sq. ft. for widths up to 108″.
$20.00 per M sq. ft. for widths up to 120″.
$25.00 per M sq. ft. for widths up to 132″.
$30.00 per M sq. ft. for widths up to 144″.

(3) Redrying:

$3.00 per M sq. ft. (No addition for 1/8 or 3/16″ sanded panels).

(4) Special gluing specifications:

$5.00 per M sq. ft. for 3 Ply.
$10.00 per M sq. ft. for 5 Ply.
$15.00 per M sq. ft. for 7 Ply.

NOTE: This shall include all special glue specifications and assembly requirements. Each panel so manufactured shall be stamped with the word "Special".

(5) Treating panels with waterproofing agent (oiling):

$2.50 per M sq. ft. (This addition may not be made for Plyform.)

(6) Treating panels with edge sealer:
$1.00 per M sq. ft. (This addition may not be made for Plyform.)

(7) Treating panels with resin sealer (one or two sides):
$10.50 per M sq. ft.

(8) Bundling in paper packing:
$0.35 per 1/16″ in thickness per M sq. ft.

(9) Wire or twine bundling:
$0.50 per M sq. ft. for small cut-to-size panels, 3 ply (containing less than 9 sq. ft. per panel) tied with either twine or wire.
$1.00 per M sq. ft. for small cut-to-size panels, 5 ply or heavier (containing less than 9 sq. ft. per panel) tied with either twine or wire.

(10) Segregating and/or lot-marking on car of two or more lots:
$2.50 per lot for each lot over one.

(c) Deduction for unsanded stock. The following deduction from the maximum prices for moisture resistant type Douglas fir plywood stated in paragraph (a) of this section shall be made for unsanded stock in grades other than plyscord and automobile and industrial plywood:

Deduct $1.25 per M sq. ft. from the maximum price for the thickness to which the panel would regularly be sanded.

§ 1413.15 Appendix B: Maximum prices exterior type plywood.

(a) Basic prices. The maximum prices, f. o. b. mill, for direct-mill sales of exterior type Douglas fir plywood in widths of 12″ to 48″ in even 2″ breaks and in lengths of 96″ and shorter shall be as follows:

---

[6] "Sound 1 side plypanel" means a grade of moisture resistant type Douglas fir plywood which satisfies the following standards: The face shall be of one or more pieces of firm smoothly cut veneer. When of more than one piece, it shall be well joined and reasonably matched for grain and color at the joints. It shall be free from knots, splits, checks, pitch pockets and other open defects. Streaks, discolorations, sapwood, shims and neatly made patches shall be admitted. The face shall present a smooth surface suitable for painting. The back shall present a solid surface with all knots in excess of one inch patched and with the following permitted: Not more than six knotholes or borer holes 5/8 of an inch or less in greatest dimension, splits 1/8 of an inch or less in width and pitch pockets not in excess of one inch wide or three inches long or that do not penetrate through veneer to glue line. There may be any number of patches and plugs in the back.

Over 216" to 288", inclusive, sanded or unsanded	108.80

(3) Treating panels with waterproofing agent (oiling):

$2.75 per M sq. ft.

(4) Treating panels with resin sealer:

$8.15 per M sq. ft.

(5) Bundling in paper packing:

$0.40 per 1/16" in thickness per M sq. ft.

(6) Bundling: carton packed, steel strapped:

$0.65 per 1/16" in thickness per M sq. ft.

(7) Sizes containing less than one square foot:

10 percent of the maximum price stated in paragraph (a) of this section.

Estimated average weights no higher than the following may be used in figuring delivery charges:

	Pounds per M surface feet
1/8"	490
3/16"	640
1/4"	790
5/16"	950
3/8"	1,125

and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* Subdivisions (i), (iv), and (v) (b) of subparagraph (44) of paragraph (a) of § 1499.73 are amended as set forth below.

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services and transactions. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the commodities, services and transactions listed below are modified as hereinafter provided.

* * * * *

(44) Oil meals and oil cakes—(i) Maximum prices for certain sales of oil meals and oil cakes. Maximum prices for sales of oil meals and oil cakes are hereby modified in the following particulars:

(a) Sales by a processor in less than carload lots; differential or margin over prevailing carload price. The maximum differential or margin that a processor may charge over his prevailing carload price at his plant for sales of oil meal or oil cake at his plant in less than carload lots shall be $1.00 per ton in the case of sales to jobbers, wholesalers and retailers and $3.00 per ton in the case of sales to persons other than jobbers, wholesalers and retailers.

(b) Sales by a jobber; profit margin over cost. A jobber may charge the maximum profit margin or markup of 50¢ per ton.

(c) Sales by a wholesaler; profit margin over cost. If a wholesaler purchases from a processor, his maximum profit margin or markup shall be $2.50 per ton. If a wholesaler purchases from a jobber, his maximum profit margin or markup shall be $2.00 per ton.

(d) Sales by a retailer; profit margin over cost. If a retailer purchases from a processor, his maximum profit margin or markup shall be $5.50 per ton. If a retailer purchases from a jobber, his maximum profit margin or markup shall be $5.00 per ton. If a retailer purchases from a wholesaler, his maximum profit margin or markup shall be $3.00 per ton.

(e) The maximum profit margins over cost specified in inferior subdivisions (b), (c), (d) above may be charged only once, that is to say, on sales between jobbers or between wholesalers or between retailers, the applicable markup can be added only once.

* * * * *

(iv) Profit margin includes all charges. The profit margins as specified in subdivision (i) hereof includes, and no increase or charges shall in any manner be made for, brokerage, commissions, storage, insurance, extension of credit, carrying charges, handling charges, or any other charges of any nature whatsoever.

(v) Cost. The cost to which the above specified profit margins may be added is as follows:

* * * * *

(b) In the case of the wholesaler, the weighted average delivered price to him on deliveries at his warehouse or place of business for the period October 1, 1942, to October 31, 1942, both inclusive, shall be his cost for the period November 1, 1942, to November 30, 1942, both inclusive. For each month succeeding November, 1942, his cost shall be the weighted average delivered price to him at his warehouse or place of business during the preceding calendar month. If no deliveries were made in any month the cost shall be determined in the manner aforesaid on the basis of deliveries during the last preceding month in which deliveries were made. The price paid by the wholesaler's buyer (the retailer) may include all applicable transportation charges from the wholesaler's warehouse or place of business to the place designated by the retailer: Provided, That under no circumstances shall the wholesaler's profit margin or markup exceed, if he purchased from a processor, $2.50 per ton, or, if purchased from a jobber, $2.00 per ton.

* * * * *

(b) Effective dates. * * *

(72) Amendment No. 71 (§ 1499.73 (a) (44) (i), (iv), and (v) (b)) to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall become effective November 30, 1942.

Chapter XVIII—Office of Economic Stabilization

Subchapter A—Office of the Director of Economic Stabilization

PART 4001—WAGES AND SALARIES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States, and particularly by the Act of October 2, 1942, entitled "An Act to amend the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, to aid in preventing inflation, and for other purposes" (Pub. Law 729, 77th Cong.), the following amendments to the regulations promulgated by the Director of Economic Stabilization, with the approval of the President, dated October 27, 1942 (7 F.R. 8748), are hereby promulgated:

1. § 4001.1 is amended by adding the following paragraphs thereto:

§ 4001.1 Definitions. * * *

(k) The terms "approval by the Secretary of Agriculture" and "determination by the Secretary of Agriculture" shall, except as may be provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary, include an approval or determination by an agent or agents of the Secretary duly authorized to perform such act.

(l) The term "agricultural labor" shall mean persons working on farms and engaged in producing agricultural commodities whose salary or wage payments are not in excess of $2,400 per annum. The Secretary of Agriculture may by regulation issue such interpretations of this term as he finds necessary.

2. The following sections are added immediately following § 4001.5 and preceding § 4001.6:

§ 4001.5 Rules and regulations of commissioners. * * *

§ 4001.5a Authority of the Secretary of Agriculture. Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 4001.2, 4001.4, 4001.6, and 4001.7, the Secretary of Agriculture shall have the authority to determine whether any salary or wage payments to agricultural labor are made in contravention of the Act or any rulings, orders or regulations promulgated thereunder: Provided, however, That the provisions hereof shall not be construed to affect the authority of the National War Labor Board under the provisions of Executive Order No. 9017 (7 F.R. 237) as extended by Section 1, Title III of Executive Order No. 9250 (7 F.R. 7871, 7873). Any such determination by the Secretary shall be conclusive upon all Executive Departments and agencies of the Government in determining the costs or expenses of an employer for the purpose of any law or regulations, either heretofore or hereafter enacted or promulgated, including the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 or any maximum price regulation thereof, or for the purpose of calculating deductions under the revenue laws of the United States, or for the purpose of determining costs or expenses under any contract made by or on behalf of the United States. Any determination of the Secretary made pursuant to the authority conferred on him shall be final and shall not be subject to review by The Tax Court of the United States or by any court in any civil proceedings.

§ 4001.5b Wage and salary increases for agricultural labor. Considering that the general level of salaries and wages for agricultural labor is substandard, that a wide disparity now exists between salaries and wages paid labor in agriculture and salaries and wages paid labor in other essential war industries, and that the retention and recruitment of agricultural labor is of prime necessity in supplying the United Nations with needed foods and fibers, and in order to correct and adjust these gross inequities and to aid in the effective prosecution of the war, no increases in wages and salaries of agricultural labor shall, notwithstanding any other provision of any rules, orders or regulations under the Act of October 2, 1942, be deemed in violation of the Act or of any rules, orders or regulations thereunder, unless and until the Secretary of Agriculture determines and gives public notice of his determination that, with respect to areas, crops, classes of employers, or otherwise, increases in salaries or wages for agricultural labor may no longer be made without the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 4001.5c Wage and salary decreases for agricultural labor. No employer shall decrease wages or salaries paid to agricultural labor below the highest salary rate or wage paid for such work between January 1, 1942, and September 15, 1942, without the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 4001.5d Rules, orders and regulations of the Secretary. The Secretary of Agriculture may make such rulings and issue such orders or regulations as he deems necessary to enforce or otherwise carry out the provisions of the regulations in this part.

3. § 4001.10 (a) is amended in the following particular:

§ 4001.10 Effect of unlawful payments. (a) The phrase "the Board or the Commissioner, as the case may be," is amended to read "the Board, the Commissioner or the Secretary of Agriculture, as the case may be,".

4. § 4001.14 is amended in the following particular:

§ 4001.14 Territories and possessions. The phrase "The Board and the Commissioner" is amended to read "The Board, the Commissioner or the Secretary of Agriculture, as the case may be,".

5. Nothing herein shall be interpreted to prevent the Secretary of Agriculture from utilizing any other authority now or hereafter vested in him to insure an adequate supply of agricultural labor through salary or wage stabilization and otherwise to secure agricultural production necessary for the effective prosecution of the war through programs of procurement, transportation, distribution, housing, medical care, price support, or otherwise.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 440—ACCOUNTS

FREIGHT FORWARDERS; UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of November, A. D. 1942.

The matter of a uniform system of accounts to be prescribed for and kept by freight forwarders being under consideration by the Division, pursuant to the authority of section 412 of the Interstate Commerce Act, and upon consideration of the matters and things involved, and the Division having found that the Uniform System of Accounts for Freight Forwarders, issue of 1943, hereto attached and made a part hereof,[1] is necessary for purposes of administration of the provisions of Part IV of the Act.

It is ordered:

Sec.
440.1 Uniform system prescribed.
440.2 Additional subdivisions; temporary or experimental accounts.
440.3 Effective date.

AUTHORITY: §§ 440.1 to 440.3, inclusive, issued pursuant to sec. 412, 56 Stat. 294; 49 U.S.C. 1012.

§ 440.1 Uniform system prescribed. Every freight forwarder subject to the provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act having annual operating revenues exceeding $100,000.00, and every trustee, executor, administrator, or assignee of any such freight forwarder, are hereby required to comply with the Uniform System of Accounts for Freight Forwarders, issue of 1943, in keeping and recording their accounts.

§ 440.2 Additional subdivisions; temporary or experimental accounts. Any such freight forwarder, and any trustee, executor, administrator, or assignee of such freight forwarder, in addition to the accounts prescribed in § 440.1, may subdivide said accounts in the manner required by any governmental body having jurisdiction, or to the extent required for reports to such governmental bodies, and may keep temporary or experimental accounts for the purpose of developing efficiency of operation, subject, however, to the requirement that such subdivisions of the accounts or such temporary or experimental accounts shall not impair the integrity of any primary account prescribed herein.

§ 440.3 Effective date. This issue of 1943 of the Uniform System of Accounts for Freight Forwarders shall become effective on January 1, 1943.

And it is further ordered, That a copy of this order and the Uniform System of Accounts herein prescribed shall be served upon every freight forwarder subject to the act and upon every trustee, executor, administrator, or assignee of any such freight forwarder, and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., by filing it with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives.

By the Commission, Division 1.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL,
Secretary.

Chapter II—Office of Defense Transportation

[General Order ODT 21, Amendment 3]

PART 501—CONSERVATION OF MOTOR EQUIPMENT

SUBPART M—CERTIFICATES OF WAR NECESSITY FOR AND CONTROL OF COMMERCIAL MOTOR VEHICLES

Pursuant to Executive Order No. 8989 and Executive Order No. 9156, paragraph (b), § 501.96, as amended, and § 501.98, General Order ODT 21, as amended,[1] are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 501.96 Motor fuel and commercial motor vehicle parts, tires, or tubes. No person shall:

(a) * * *

(b) Transfer or deliver any motor fuel for the use of, or transfer, mount, install, or deliver any part, tire, or tube for the use of, any commercial motor vehicle, unless the operator of such commercial motor vehicle shall, at the time thereof, sign a written receipt in duplicate, for such motor fuel, part, tire, or tube, and endorse on each copy of such receipt the number of the Certificate of War Necessity pertaining to the commercial motor vehicle in or upon which such motor fuel, part, tire, or tube is to be used: Provided, That when existing conditions render it impracticable to issue or sign such receipt, such operator shall furnish to the person making the transfer, delivery, or installation, his name, address, and the number of the Certificate of War Necessity pertaining to such motor vehicle and such person shall endorse the operator's name, address, and number upon the invoice covering such transaction. In the event such transfer, delivery, or installation is for the use of a fleet of commercial motor vehicles, the number of the Certificate of War Necessity pertaining to such fleet shall be endorsed on each such written receipt or invoice. The original receipt or the first copy of the invoice shall be retained by the person making the transfer, delivery, or installation, and a copy of the receipt or the original of the invoice retained by the operator of such commercial motor vehicle. Such receipts and invoices shall be available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

* * * * *

§ 501.98 Records and reports. Any person operating a commercial motor vehicle in respect of which a Certificate of War Necessity has been issued, shall prepare and permanently maintain in the manner and form prescribed by the Office of Defense Transportation records of all operations conducted by such vehicle. A weekly record of such operations shall be maintained in accordance with the form provided on the reverse side of such Certificate of War Necessity, and shall be carried at all times in such vehicle: Provided, That, in respect of any vehicle covered by a fleet unit certificate (whose operations are embraced within required periodic fleet reports) such form shall contain only a record of the tire inspections of such vehicle. Such person shall keep such other records and make such reports as may be required and in the manner and form prescribed by the Office of Defense Transportation. All such records shall be available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

This amendment shall become effective on December 1, 1942. (E.O. 8989, 9156; 6 F.R. 6725, 7 F.R. 3349)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of November, 1942.

as a result of which, said transactions, jointly and severally, constituted violations of Rule 1 (J) of section VII, Rules 3 and 6 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, section 4 Part II (i) 3 and 6 of the Act, Part II (i) 3 and 6 of the Code, and paragraphs (c) and (e) of the Agreement.

B. Whether or not the registration of said Steffey & Findlay, Inc., Registration No. 8671, should be revoked or suspended, or other appropriate order should be issued.

It is, therefore, ordered, That a hearing pursuant to § 304.14 of Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, to determine whether or not the aforementioned Steffey & Findlay, Inc., has committed violations in the respects heretofore described and whether or not the registration of said distributor should be revoked or suspended, or other appropriate order should be issued, be held on 9th day of January, 1943, at 10 o’clock a. m., at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at the Washington County Court, Hagerstown, Maryland.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Mitchell or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and recommendations of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said Steffey & Findlay, Inc., and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding.

Notice is hereby given that answer setting forth the position of the aforementioned Steffey & Findlay, Inc., with reference to the matters hereinbefore described must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington office or with any one of the field offices of the Division within twenty (20) days after the date of service on said Steffey & Findlay, Inc., and that failing to file an answer herein within such period, unless the presiding officer shall otherwise order, shall be deemed to be an admission by said Steffey & Findlay, Inc., of the commission of the violations hereinbefore described and a consent to the entry of an appropriate order thereon.

Notice is also given that any application, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Division, for the disposition of this proceeding without formal hearing, must be filed not later than fifteen (15) days after receipt by the said distributor of the Notice of and Order for Hearing.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

MATTHEW PHILLIPS

ORDER CONDITIONALLY RESTORING CODE MEMBERSHIP

In the matter of Matthew Phillips—Applicant.

A written complaint dated June 25, 1941, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the “Act”), having been duly filed on July 17, 1941, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 6, a district board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division (the “Division”); and

Pursuant to Notice of and Order for Hearing dated September 2, 1941, a hearing in said matter having been held before W. A. Cuff, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at Wheeling, West Virginia, on December 4, 5 and 6, 1941; and

An Order of the Division having been issued herein on June 13, 1942, cancelling and revoking the Code membership of Matthew Phillips (the “Applicant”), in the Bituminous Coal Code (the “Code”) effective fifteen (15) days from the date of said order, and providing for the payment to the United States of a tax in the amount of $749.41 as a condition precedent to reinstatement of Applicant to membership in the Code; and

The Applicant now having filed with the Division on November 21, 1942, an application dated November 14, 1942, (the “Application”) for conditional restoration of Code membership wherein Applicant requests that his Code membership be restored as of the effective date of revocation, upon the condition that said restored membership shall remain in effect so long as the said Matthew Phillips shall faithfully comply with the terms of an Agreement made by and between Applicant and F. Roy Yoke, Collector of Internal Revenue at Parkersburg, West Virginia, (the “Agreement”), in which it appears that said Matthew Phillips paid to said Collector of Internal Revenue, on October 22, 1942, $389.41 on account of said tax in the amount of $749.41, and has agreed to pay the balance of $360.00 in installments of $72.00 per month on the first of each and every month, beginning November 1, 1942 and ending March 1, 1943, and it appearing from the Application that the Applicant has paid to said Collector the installment due on November 1, 1942;

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That the membership of Matthew Phillips in the Code be and the same hereby is conditionally restored as of the effective date of revocation of said Code membership referred to in said order issued June 13, 1942, upon the following terms and conditions:

In the event of default in payment of any installment as provided in said Agreement between said Matthew Phillips and F. Roy Yoke, Collector of Internal Revenue, dated November 11, 1942, (a) such conditional restoration of Code membership shall become wholly ineffective, (b) the entire balance of said tax then owing shall become due and payable, and (c) the 19½% tax provided by section 3520 (b) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be imposed on all coal produced by said Matthew Phillips and sold or otherwise disposed of by him on and after the original effective date of revocation of Code membership referred to above.

It is further ordered, That upon the payment of said tax in full in accordance with the terms of said Agreement, Matthew Phillips shall submit to the Division the receipt therefor issued by said Collector or a statement by said Collector that the tax has been fully paid and thereupon, an order shall be issued restoring said Matthew Phillips to full membership in the Code.

Dated: November 30, 1942.

[Docket No. B-98]

HARRY G. LUCAS

ORDER RESTORING CODE MEMBERSHIP

In the matter of Harry G. Lucas, also known as H. G. Lucas—Code Member.

A written complaint having been filed herein on October 16, 1941, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, as complainant, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the “Act”), alleging wilful violation by Harry G. Lucas, Curwensville, Pennsylvania, code member in District No. 1, of the Act, of the Bituminous Coal Code (the “Code”), and rules and regulations thereunder; and

An order having been issued herein on February 20, 1942 revoking and cancelling the code membership of said Harry G. Lucas, also known as H. G. Lucas, effective fifteen (15) days from the date of said order; and

Said order of revocation and cancellation having been duly served on February 26, 1942 on said Harry G. Lucas; and

An order having been issued on July 6, 1942 conditionally restoring the membership of Harry G. Lucas in the Bituminous Coal Code as of March 7, 1942 on condition that said Harry G. Lucas pay the tax of $794.51 prescribed by said order dated February 20, 1942, as a condition precedent to restoration of code membership by monthly installments pursuant to an agreement dated May 26, 1942, and entered into between the said Harry G. Lucas and Walter L. Miller, Collector of Internal Revenue, Treasury Department of the United States, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; and

Said order dated July 6, 1942 having provided that upon payment of the said tax in the sum of $794.51 in full in accordance with the terms of the aforesaid agreement and upon the submission of a statement by said Collector that said tax has been fully paid, an Order will be issued restoring said Harry G. Lucas to full membership in the Code; and

It appearing by a statement from D. S. Bliss, Deputy Commissioner, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., dated November 20, 1942, in possession of the Division that Harry G. Lucas has paid the total sum of $794.51 as a condition precedent to his restoration to code membership.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That the said Harry G. Lucas, also known as H. G. Lucas, be, and he hereby is, restored to code membership;

It is further ordered, That said restoration of code membership of Harry G. Lucas, also known as H. G. Lucas, be, and the same hereby is, effective as of the effective date of said revocation and cancellation of his code membership.

Dated: November 30, 1942.

WILLIS DISBROW

ORDER REVOKING LICENSE AND DIRECTING ITS SURRENDER

In the matter of Willis Disbrow, Licensee. Proceeding for Revocation of License.

To: Willis Disbrow, Hartland, Illinois. Based upon the records in this matter, I, R. R. Sayers, Director of the Bureau of Mines, make the following Findings of Fact:

1. On October 29, 1942, a Specification of Charges against you, setting forth a violation of the Federal Explosives Act (55 Stat. 863) of which you were accused, was mailed to you at the above, your last known, address, giving you notice to mail an answer within 15 days demanding a hearing if you wished to be heard on the charge against you.

2. More than 20 days have elapsed since the giving of said notice. The length of time required for mail to be delivered to the office of the Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C., from Hartland, Illinois, does not exceed 4 days. You have not demanded a hearing.

3. The charge against you is true.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by sections 8 and 18 of the Federal Explosives Act (55 Stat. 863) and § 301.22 of the regulations pursuant thereto (7 F.R. 5901); It is hereby ordered:

That Vendor’s License No. 28266 heretofore issued to you under the Federal Explosives Act (55 Stat. 863) be and it is hereby revoked; And it is further ordered:

That you shall immediately surrender said license and all certified or photostatic copies thereof, if any, by delivering or mailing the same to the Director of the Bureau of Mines, Interior Department, Washington, D. C.

This Order is effective on and after its date, except that you will be allowed not to exceed 10 days thereafter within which to sell or otherwise dispose of explosives or ingredients thereof now on hand to persons licensed under the Federal Explosives Act and in accordance with the provisions of the act and regulations thereunder. This exception does not authorize you to purchase or otherwise acquire explosives or ingredients thereof.

Failure to comply with any of the provisions of this Order will constitute a violation of the Federal Explosives Act, punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year or by both such fine and such imprisonment.

Dated: November 23, 1942.

NOVEMBER 28, 1942.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) By its order dated November 18, 1942, the Commission ordered that a public hearing in the above-entitled matter be held commencing on December 10, 1942, at 10 a. m., in the Federal Building, Kansas City, Missouri;

(b) It has been found desirable to specify more particularly the place for the said hearing in the City of Kansas City, Missouri;

The Commission orders, That:

(a) The public hearing in the above-entitled proceeding now set to begin on December 10, 1942, at 10 a. m., in the Federal Building, Kansas City, Missouri, be held commencing on December 10, 1942, at 10 a. m., in Room 664, United States Court House, Kansas City, Missouri;

(b) The Commission's order of November 18, 1942, be and the same is hereby amended to the extent, and only to the extent, indicated by paragraph (a) above.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[Order 6 Under MPR 225]

KETTERLINUS LITHOGRAPHIC MANUFACTURING COMPANY

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 6 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 225—Printing and Printed Paper Commodities.

For the reasons set forth in an Opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order 9250, and in accordance with § 1347.469 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 225, It is hereby ordered:

(a) Ketterlinus Lithographic Manufacturing Company of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, may sell and deliver to Planters Nut and Chocolate Company, and Planters Nut and Chocolate Company may buy and receive from Ketterlinus Lithographic Manufacturing Company peanut candy bar wrappers at prices not in excess of those established as follows:

	Per M
Wrappers for 5¢ peanut candy bars	$1.07
Wrappers for 1¢ peanut candy bars	.28

This permission shall be retroactive to September 29, 1942.

(b) All prayers of the application not granted herein are denied.

(c) This Order No. 6 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(d) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1347.472 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall apply to the terms used herein.

(e) This Order No. 6 shall become effective December 1, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

Issued this 30th day of November 1942.

[Suspension Order 171]

C. W. DANIEL

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

C. W. Daniel, 585 Memorial Drive, Atlanta, Georgia, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations. Pursuant to said notice, a hearing upon such charges was held in Atlanta, Georgia, on October 14, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to such charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. Such evidence having been considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, It is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a filling station at 585 Memorial Drive, Atlanta, Georgia.

(b) Respondent has violated § 1394.1503 of Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, in that on August 29, 1942, respondent transferred four gallons of gasoline to a consumer, R. C. Young, and into the fuel tank of a passenger automobile in exchange for a coupon detached, prior to the presentation of the coupon book to respondent, from a coupon book that was not issued for and did not bear the identification of the vehicle into which the transfer was made.

(c) Respondent has violated § 1394.1503 of Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, in that on August 29, 1942, respondent transferred four gallons of gasoline to a consumer, John R. Mattem, and into the fuel tank of a passenger automobile upon which no sticker was displayed.

(d) The foregoing transfers by respondent were not within the classes of transfers of gasoline permitted by the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A to be made without the exchange of gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Georgia, violations of Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, have necessarily resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken, It is therefore ordered:

(e) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 171 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not sell, transfer or deliver any gasoline to any person.

(2) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(3) No person, firm or corporation shall deliver, or in any manner directly or indirectly transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(f) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 171 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(g) This Suspension Order No. 171 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. December 6, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 A. M. December 23, 1942.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); W.P.B. Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562); Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216))

Issued this 30th day of November 1942.

Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing.

[Suspension Order 172]

WATKINS BROTHERS

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Watkins Brothers, a partnership composed of Holland Turpin Watkins and John Carter Watkins, Emporia, Virginia, and hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of specific charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5, emergency gasoline rationing regulations and Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing was held on October 21, 1942, in Emporia, Virginia. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been duly considered by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in and a licensed distributor of gasoline and operates a filling station and a bulk plant in Emporia, Virginia.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5, emergency gasoline rationing regulations, in that on July 21, 1942, in Emporia, Virginia, respondent transferred a total of 205 gallons of gasoline in bulk to four different consumers without in any instance receiving any certificate on either OPA Form R-510 or OPA Form R-511.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, in that on July 9, 1942, in its application for service rations for three tank trucks owned and used by it in its business as a dealer and distributor in gasoline, respondent greatly overstated on OPA Form R-536 the number of miles each of its trucks had been driven in its business during the thirty days preceding the date of application. By reason of these overstatements, respondent received service rations for the trucks in amounts greater than those to which it was properly entitled.

(d) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, in that on September 27, 1942, respondent transferred five gallons of gasoline to a consumer and into the fuel tank of a motor vehicle in exchange for a coupon (Class S) which had been previously detached from a coupon book that was not issued for and did not bear the identification of the vehicle into which the transfer was made. Such transfer was not one of the classes of transfers permitted by Ration Order No. 5A to be made without the exchange of gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Virginia, the violations of Ration Order No. 5, emergency gasoline rationing regulations and Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, by respondent have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(e) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 172 shall be in effect, respondent shall not directly or indirectly sell, transfer, or deliver any gasoline to any consumer.

(f) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 172 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(g) This Suspension Order No. 172 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. December 5, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 A. M. January 4, 1943.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); W.P.B. Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562) and Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216))

Issued this 30th day of November 1942.

Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VII—Agricultural Adjustment Administration

[ACP-1943]

PART 701—AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM BULLETIN

SUBPART E—1943

Payments will be made for participation in the 1943 Agricultural Conservation Program (hereinafter referred to as the 1943 program) in accordance with the provisions of this bulletin and such modifications thereof as may hereafter be made.

Sec.
701.401 Allotments, yields and grazing capacities.
701.402 War crop goals.
701.403 Production adjustment allowance and deductions.
701.404 Production practice goals, allowances, practices and rates of payment.
701.405 Division of payments and deductions.
701.406 Increase in small payments.
701.407 Payments limited to $10,000.
701.408 Deduction for association expenses.
701.409 Conservation materials.
701.410 General provisions relating to payments.
701.411 Application for payment.
701.412 Appeals.
701.413 State and regional bulletins, instructions, and forms.
701.414 Definitions.
701.415 Authority, availability of funds, and applicability.

AUTHORITY: §§ 701.401 to 701.415, inclusive, issued under secs. 7 to 17, as amended, 49 Stat. 1148, 1915, 50 Stat. 329, 52 Stat. 31, 204, 205; 53 Stat. 550, 573; 54 Stat. 216, 727; Pub. Law 121, 77th Cong.; 16 U.S.C. 590g to 590q.

§ 701.401 Allotments, yields and grazing capacities. National and State acreage allotments for corn, cotton, peanuts, rice, and each kind of tobacco, will be established by the Secretary. The national wheat allotment is 55,000,000 acres. The State wheat allotments shall be identical with the 1943 State wheat allotments established June 12, 1942, under Title III of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

County allotments will be determined by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, with the assistance of the State committee, in accordance with the provisions contained herein. Farm allotments, farm normal yields, and farm grazing capacities shall be determined by the county committee, with the assistance of the appropriate local committees in the county, in accordance with the provisions contained herein and instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency.

(a) Corn—(1) County acreage allotments. County allotments of corn for counties in the commercial corn area shall be determined by distributing the corn allotment established for the commercial-corn area within the State among such counties in such State pro rata on the basis of the acreage seeded for the production of corn plus the acreage diverted from corn under the agricultural adjustment and conservation programs in such counties during the 10 years 1932 through 1941, with adjustments for abnormal weather conditions and trends in acreage.

(2) Farm acreage allotments. Corn allotments shall be determined for farms in the commercial area. The allotment for each farm shall be determined on the basis of tillable acreage and crop-rotation practices, as reflected in the usual acreage of corn for the farm, with adjustments of not to exceed 50 percent for types of soil and topography.

For those farms for which the 1942 corn allotments reflect these factors in accordance with the conditions as applicable in 1943, the 1942 allotments may be used in determining 1943 allotments. If the county committee determines that the 1942 allotment for a farm does not reflect these factors in accordance with the conditions applicable in 1943 due to a change in type of farming operations, change in farm land, change in cropland acreage, drought, flood, or any other unusual conditions, an allotment shall be determined which reflects the factors as applicable in 1943. Such allotment shall be determined on the basis of the foregoing factors or the average ratio of 1942 corn allotments to cropland for similar farms in the county.

The allotment for any farm shall compare with the allotments for other farms in the same community which are similar with respect to the foregoing factors. The corn allotments determined for the farms in a county shall not exceed the county corn allotment.

(3) Normal yields. For each farm for which a corn allotment is determined or a deduction with respect to corn is to be computed, a normal yield of corn shall be determined as follows:

(i) Where reliable records of the actual average yields per acre of corn for the 10 years 1932 through 1941 are presented by the farmer or are available to the committee, the normal yield for the farm shall be the average of such yields, adjusted for trends in yields and abnormal weather conditions;

(ii) If for any year of such 10-year period reliable records of the actual average yield are not available or there was no actual yield because corn was not planted on the farm in such year, the normal yield for the farm shall be the yield which, on the basis of all available facts, including the yield in years for which data are available, weather conditions, type of soil, drainage, production practices, and general fertility of the land, the county committee determines to be the yield which was or could reasonably have been expected on the farm for such 10-year period; and

(iii) The yields determined under subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph (3) shall be adjusted so that the weighted average of the normal yields for all farms in the county shall not exceed the county yield established by the Secretary.

(4) "Commercial corn area or commercial corn-producing area" means counties designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency with the approval of the Secretary. This area will include the counties which have produced an average of at least 450 bushels of corn per farm and 4 bushels of corn per acre of farm land during the past 10 years. It will also include bordering counties containing townships producing and likely to produce an average of 450 bushels of corn per farm and 4 bushels of corn per acre of farm land.

(5) "Non-corn-allotment farm" means a farm in the commercial corn area:

(i) For which no corn allotment is determined, or

(ii) For which a corn allotment of 15 acres or less is determined and the acreage planted to corn exceeds the allotment by 10 percent or more.

(6) "Acreage planted to corn" means the acreage of land on which field corn is planted (except any acreage of sown corn used as a cover crop or green manure crop and any acreage of corn used as a trap crop in connection with the control of the European corn borer) and the acreage of sweet corn used for livestock feed: Provided, That all or any part of any corn acreage destroyed by causes beyond the control of the operator may be replaced with an equal acreage of corn planted after such destruction and the acreage so replaced shall not be regarded as acreage planted to corn.

(b) Cotton—(1) County acreage allotments. County cotton allotments shall be determined as follows: The State cotton allotment (less not to exceed 1 percent for use in determining allotments for farms on which cotton will be planted in 1943 but on which cotton was not planted in any of the 3 years 1940 through 1942) shall be prorated among the counties in the State on the basis of the acreage planted to and diverted from cotton during the 5 years 1937 through 1941, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions and for trends in acreage: Provided, That there shall be added to the allotment so determined for each county the number of acres required to provide an allotment in such county of not less than 60 percent of the acreage planted to cotton in such county in 1937 plus 60 percent of the acreage diverted from cotton in the county in 1937.

In administrative areas which were treated separately for 1942 and in any additional administrative areas where the Agricultural Adjustment Agency finds that, because of differences in types, kinds, and productivity of the soil or other conditions, one or more of the administrative areas in any county should be treated separately in order to prevent discrimination, the county allotment shall be apportioned pro rata among such administrative areas on the basis of the acreage planted to cotton in 1937 plus the acreage diverted from cotton in 1937, or, if the Agricultural Adjustment Agency determines that conditions affecting the acreage planted to cotton were not reasonably uniform throughout the county in 1937, then on the basis of the cotton base acreages determined under the 1937 Cotton Price Adjustment Payment Plan. Allotments to the farms within each such administrative area shall be made in the manner provided in subparagraph (2) below for the apportionment of county cotton allotments among farms.

(2) Farm acreage allotments—(i) Farms on which cotton was planted during the period 1940–42—(a) Initial farm acreage allotments. An initial allotment shall be established for any farm on which cotton was planted in any one of the three years 1940 through 1942 equal to the highest planted plus diverted cotton acreage in any of such years, but not to exceed 5 acres.

(b) Reserve for farms with allotments of 5 to 15 acres. If the county cotton allotment is more than sufficient to make initial allotments there shall be set aside for adjustment of allotments on farms having allotments of 5 to 15 acres, an amount of not more than 3 percent of the county cotton allotment which remains after making initial allotments.

(c) Apportionment on the basis of tilled acreage. The county allotment less the acreage required for initial allotments of less than 5 acres and the acreage set aside under inferior subdivision (b) above shall be apportioned among farms on which the highest planted plus diverted cotton acreage in any of the three years 1940 through 1942 was 5 acres or more. The apportionment shall be made by multiplying the adjusted acreage of land tilled or in regular rotation on the farm in 1942 by the cotton percentage factor for the county or administrative area. For this purpose the acreage of land tilled or in regular rotation in 1942 shall be adjusted by subtracting therefrom the acreage devoted to the production of sugar cane for sugar; wheat, tobacco, or rice for market; or of wheat or rice for feeding to livestock for market. The cotton percentage factor for the county or administrative area shall be determined by dividing the cotton allotment available for apportionment by the adjusted 1942 acreage of land tilled or in regular rotation on farms with initial allotments of 5 acres or more.

(d) Adjusting farm acreage allotments from 4 percent State reserve. If the county cotton allotment is insufficient to provide allotments to farms in the county which are determined to be adequate and representative in view of their past production of cotton and their tilled acreage, there shall be apportioned to such farms a part of the 4 percent State reserve, so as to give such farms as adequate and as representative allotments as the State reserve will permit. The acreage apportioned from the 4 percent State reserve shall be used first to provide adequate initial allotments, and thereafter to increase other allotments which are substantially smaller than they would be except for the provision for initial allotments.

(e) Increase of farm acreage allotments for past production. After allotments have been made from the 4 percent State reserve, as provided in inferior subdivision (d) above, the remainder of the State reserve, if any, shall be apportioned to the farms for which the allotment otherwise determined is less than 50 percent of the planted plus diverted cotton acreage on the farm in 1937, and to farms on which the allotment is determined to be inadequate in view of past production.

(f) Distribution of reserve for farms with allotments of 5 to 15 acres. Any farm allotment of 5 acres or more, but not exceeding 15 acres, may be increased from the reserve established under inferior subdivision (b) above. The increase shall be made on the basis of the land, labor, and equipment available for the production of cotton, crop rotation practices and the soil and other physical facilities affecting the production of cotton.

(g) Minimum and maximum farm acreage allotments. The cotton allotment for any farm shall not exceed the highest planted plus diverted cotton acreage in any one of the three years 1940 through 1942. The cotton allotment for any farm shall not be less than 50 percent of the 1937 planted plus diverted cotton acreage on the farm except that the allotment shall not be increased thereby in excess of 40 percent of the acreage on the farm which in 1942 was tilled or in regular rotation. The allotment required to meet this minimum shall be in addition to the county cotton allotment and the 4 percent State reserve.

(h) Use of 1942 allotment for 1943. Notwithstanding any other provision of this subparagraph (2) in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, the 1943 farm cotton allotment shall be the 1942 cotton allotment adjusted for changes in tilled acreage and highest planted plus diverted acreage.

(i) Reducing allotments for overplantings. In California the cotton allotment determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions shall be decreased by two-thirds for any farm for which no cotton allotment was determined for 1942 but on which cotton was planted in 1942, and by two-thirds of the amount of the increase in the cotton allotment resulting from overplanting in 1942 of the cotton allotment determined for the farm for 1942.

(j) Reapportionment of unused farm acreage allotments. After making the cotton allotments according to the foregoing provisions of this subparagraph (2), any part of the cotton allotment apportioned to any farm which the operator releases to the county committee because it will not be planted to cotton in 1943 shall be deducted from the allotment to such farm and the acreage so deducted may be apportioned to other cotton farms in the State, preference being given to farms in the same county receiving allotments which are inadequate and not representative in view of the past production of cotton on each farm. In such apportionment the county committee shall consider only the character and adaptability of the soil and other physical facilities affecting the production of cotton and the need of the operator of the farm for an additional allotment to meet the requirements of the families engaged in the production of cotton in 1943 on the farm: Provided, That the cotton allotment for any farm shall not be increased under this item to more than 40 percent of the acreage on such farm which is tilled annually or in regular rotation.

(ii) Farms on which cotton was not planted during the period 1940–42. Allotments for farms on which cotton will be planted in 1943 but on which cotton was not planted in any of the three years 1940 through 1942 will be determined on the basis of land, labor, and equipment available for the production of cotton, crop-rotation practices, and the soil and other physical facilities affecting the production of cotton, taking into consideration also the producer's farming plans. As a reflection of the several factors to be taken into consideration, the acreage on the farm which will be tilled in 1943 or was tilled in 1942 will be the basic index of the farm's capacity for cotton production: Provided, That the allotment shall not exceed an acreage equal to 50 percent of the county cotton factor, times the adjusted tilled acreage in the farm, except that (a) for any such farm with respect to which the county committee recommends an allotment of less than 3 acres such recommendation shall be the cotton allotment for the farm if the State reserve for new farms is sufficient therefor, or for any such farm with respect to which the county committee recommends an allotment of 3 acres or more the allotment for the farm shall not be less than 3 acres if the State reserve for new farms is sufficient therefor, taking into consideration also the local committee's recommendation, and (b) for a farm on which the operator was, in 1942, a producer of cotton on land subsequently removed from agricultural production because of acquisition by a State or Federal agency or for use in connection with the national defense program, the county cotton factor times the adjusted tilled acreage for the farm may be regarded as the basic index of the farm's capacity for cotton production. The sum of the allotments for all such farms in the State shall not exceed the State reserve therefor.

(3) Normal yields. For each farm for which a cotton allotment is determined or a deduction with respect to cotton is to be computed, a normal yield of cotton shall be determined as follows:

(i) Where reliable records of the actual average yield of cotton per acre for the 5 years 1937 through 1941 are presented by the farmer or are available to the committee, the normal yield for the farm shall be the average of such yields, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions;

(ii) If for any year of such 5-year period records of the actual average yield are not available or there was no actual yield because cotton was not produced on the farm in such year, the normal yield for the farm shall be the yield which, on the basis of all available facts, including the yield in years for which data are available, weather conditions, type of soil, drainage, production practices, and general fertility of the land, the committee determines to be the yield which was or could reasonably have been expected on the farm for such 5-year period; and

(iii) The yields determined under this subparagraph (3) shall be adjusted so that the weighted average of the normal yields determined for all farms in the county or administrative area shall not exceed the county or administrative area yield established by the Secretary.

(4) "Acreage planted to cotton" means all land seeded to cotton, except that the acreage planted to cotton on any farm shall not exceed the largest of the cotton allotment, the acreage of cotton on the farm when performance is determined, or the acreage of cotton which reaches the stage of growth at which bolls are first formed: Provided, That any acreage on which all of the cotton produced is determined to staple $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches or more in length will not be considered as planted to cotton. (Cotton produced from pure strains of Sea Island or American-Egyptian seed will be considered to staple $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches or more in length, provided all such cotton is ginned on a roller gin.)

(c) Peanuts—(1) Farm acreage allotments. Peanut allotments shall be determined for all farms for which a 1942 peanut allotment was or could have been determined and on which peanuts were produced during any of the 3 years 1940 through 1942, on the basis of the average acreage of peanuts grown on the farm in the 3 years 1940 through 1942, and the tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts on the farm, taking into consideration the peanut allotments determined for the farm under previous agricultural conservation programs and other crop allotments determined for the farm for 1943; Provided, however, That any acreage of peanuts harvested in excess of the 1941 or 1942 farm peanut allotment shall not be considered in determining the 1943 peanut allotment.

For those farms for which the 1942 peanut allotment reflects the above factors in accordance with conditions as applicable in 1943, the 1942 allotments may be used in determining 1943 allotments. The allotment for any farm shall compare with the allotments for other farms in the same community which are similar with respect to the foregoing factors. The peanut allotments determined for all farms in the State shall not exceed the State peanut allotment.

(2) Normal yields. For each farm for which a peanut allotment is determined a normal yield of peanuts shall be determined as follows:

(i) Where reliable records of the actual average yield of peanuts per acre for the 5 years 1937 through 1941 are presented by the farmer or are available to the committee, the normal yield for the farm shall be the average of such yields, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions;

(ii) If for any year of such 5-year period records of the actual average yield are not available or there was no actual yield because peanuts were not produced on the farm in such year, the normal yield for the farm shall be the yield which, on the basis of all available facts, including the yield in years for which data are available, weather conditions, type of soil, drainage, production practices, and general fertility of the land, the committee determines to be the yield which was or could reasonably have been expected on the farm for such 5-year period; and

(iii) The yields determined under this subparagraph (2) shall be adjusted so that the weighted average of the normal yields determined for all farms in the county shall not exceed the county yield established by the Secretary.

(3) "Acreage of peanuts" means the acreage of land from which peanuts are harvested for nuts on any farm on which any peanuts are picked or threshed.

(d) Rice—(1) Farm acreage allotments—(i) Farms tilled by producers who produced rice during period 1938–42. The allotment for a farm tilled by a producer who participated in the production of rice in one or more of the 5 years 1938 through 1942, and who will participate in the production of rice in 1943, shall be determined on the basis of his past production of rice as reflected in the average acreage of rice for the 5 years 1938 through 1942, adjusted to the acreage on the farm adapted to the production of rice, taking into consideration crop rotation practices, soil fertility, the acreage diverted under previous agricultural conservation programs and other physical factors affecting the production of rice, including the water facilities, labor, and equipment available for the production of rice on the farm.

(ii) Farms tilled by producers who have not produced rice since 1937. An acreage not to exceed 3 percent of the State rice allotment shall be apportioned as farm allotments among farms tilled by producers who are participating in the production of rice in 1943 for the first time since 1937, on the basis of the applicable standards of apportionment set forth in subdivision (i), except that the rise allotment for any such farm shall not exceed 75 percent of the rice allotment that would have been made for the farm had such person(s) participated in the production of rice in one or more of the 5 years 1938 through 1942.

The sum of the rice allotments in a State shall not exceed the State rice allotment.

(2) Normal yields. For each farm for which a rice allotment is determined a normal yield for rice shall be determined as follows:

(i) Where reliable records of the actual average yield of rice per acre for any 5 consecutive years 1937 through 1942 are presented by the farmer or are available to the committee, the normal yield of rice for the farm shall be the average of such yields.

(ii) If for any year of such 5-year period, records of the actual average yield are not available or there was no actual yield because rice was not produced on the farm in such year, the normal yield for the farm shall be the yield which, on the basis of all available facts including the yield in the years for which data are available, weather conditions, type of soil, drainage, production practices, and general fertility of the land, the county committee determines to be the yield which was or could reasonably have been expected on the farm for such 5-year period.

(iii) If the weighted average of the normal yields for all farms in the State exceeds the average yield per acre for the State during the 5 years 1938 through 1942 established by the Secretary, the normal yields for all such farms shall be reduced pro rata so that the weighted average of such normal yields shall not exceed such State average yield.

(e) Tobacco—(1) Farm acreage allotment. The State allotment for each kind of tobacco, except flue-cured and Burley, shall be allotted among farms in the State on which such kind of tobacco was produced in one or more of the 5 years 1938 through 1942, on the basis of the acreage allotments determined for the farms for 1942, with such adjustments as will take into account changes since 1940 in the past acreage of tobacco (harvested and diverted); land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop-rotation practices; the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco; and adjustments for small farms.

In the case of flue-cured and Burley tobacco, for farms on which such kind of tobacco was produced in one or more of the 5 years 1938 through 1942, the allotments for 1943 shall be determined by increasing or decreasing each 1942 farm allotment by the same percentage by which the 1943 national marketing quota for the respective kind of tobacco is increased or decreased from the 1942 national marketing quota; Provided, That no farm allotment shall be reduced by more than 10 percent below the 1940 farm allotment; no flue-cured allotment shall be decreased below the smaller of 2 acres or the 1940 allotment; and no Burley allotment shall be decreased below the larger of (i) the 1939 allotment if such allotment was one-half acre, or less, or (ii) the 1940 allotment, if such allotment was not over 1 acre, except that if the 1939 allotment was more than one-half acre and the 1940 allotment was less than one-half acre, the 1943 allotment shall be one-half acre.

In the case of each kind of tobacco for which marketing quotas are in effect for 1943 an acreage not in excess of 2 percent of the total acreage allotted to all farms in each State for 1940 shall be available to county committees for making adjustments in accordance with marketing quota regulations prescribed by the Secretary. The county committees may use this acreage to increase farm allotments where such increase is necessary in order to make them comparable with allotments determined for other farms which are similar with respect to past acreage of tobacco (harvested and diverted); land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop-rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco.

For any farm for which the 1942 tobacco allotment was reduced because of a marketing quota violation, the original 1942 allotment as determined before such reduction shall be used in determining the 1943 allotment.

Notwithstanding any foregoing provision, any tobacco allotment may, in the case of violation of the marketing quota regulations for the 1942–43 marketing year, be decreased by the percentage which the amount of tobacco involved in the marketing quota violation is of the farm marketing quota.

Allotments shall be determined for farms on which tobacco is produced in 1943 for the first time since 1937 insofar as acreage is available from the national reserve for such farms, on the basis of the tobacco-producing experience of the farm operators; land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop-rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco. The allotment determined for any such farm shall not exceed 75 percent of the allotment determined for a farm which is similar with respect to land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop-rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco.

(2) Normal yields. For each farm for which a tobacco allotment is determined or a deduction with respect to tobacco is to be computed, a normal yield for tobacco shall be determined as follows:

(i) The normal yield for any farm on which tobacco was produced in one or more of the 5 years 1938 through 1942 shall be determined on the basis of the normal yield determined for the farm for 1942, or on the basis of the yields of tobacco made on the farm in the 5 years 1937 through 1941, taking into consideration the soil and other physical factors affecting production of tobacco on the farm and the yields obtained on other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to such factors.

(ii) The normal yield for any farm on which tobacco is produced in 1943 for the first time since 1937 shall be that yield per acre which is fair and reasonable for the farm as compared with yields for other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar.

(iii) The weighted average of the normal yields for all farms in each county shall not exceed the yield established for the county by the Secretary.

(f) Wheat—(1) County acreage allotments. County allotments shall be determined by distributing the State allotment, less reserves for adjustments, among the counties in the State pro rata on the basis of the acreage seeded for the production of wheat plus the acreage diverted in such counties during the 10 years 1932 through 1941, with appropriate adjustments for abnormal weather conditions and trends in acreage.

(2) Farm acreage allotments. Farm allotments shall be determined for farms on which wheat was planted for harvest in one or more of the 3 years 1940 through 1942 and for which the allotment is 10 acres or more, on the basis of tillable acreage and crop-rotation practices, as reflected in the usual acreages of wheat on the farms, with adjustments of not to exceed 25 percent on account of the types of soil and topography. In areas recommended by the State committee and approved by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, a figure below 10 acres may be set as the minimum above which allotments will be determined for all farms. An allotment will be determined for any farm for which the allotment would be less than the approved minimum upon written request of the operator before a date to be specified by the regional director upon recommendation by the State committee.

The usual acreage shall be the average annual acreage of wheat seeded for harvest plus the acreage diverted from the production of wheat during three or more consecutive years of the 8 years 1935 through 1942. Years in which the acreage seeded to wheat was abnormally low due to extreme flood or drought; was not typical of the farm for 1943 due to customary crop-rotation practices, a change in such practices, or a change in the acreage of cropland on the farm; or was abnormally high due to failure of crops other than wheat, shall be eliminated in determining the usual acreage. If all the years of the period are either thus eliminated or eliminated for lack of data, the usual acreage shall be appraised by comparing the farm with other farms in the community or county which are similar with respect to crop-rotation practices, tillable acres, type of soil, and topography, and for which usual acreages have been determined, or by the ratio of wheat acreage to cropland in the community or in the county. For those farms for which the usual acreage used in determining 1942 wheat allotments satisfy the foregoing conditions, the 1942 usual wheat acreages may be used in determining 1943 wheat allotments, taking into consideration the seeded wheat acreages (adjusted for participation) in the next successive year after the last year used in determining the 1942 usual acreage, if necessary to obtain the proper relationship between farms. Usual acreages may be adjusted, if not representative for 1943, by comparison with a farm or group of farms for which the usual acreages are representative for 1943. Not less than 97 percent of the county allotment, less appropriate reserves, shall be apportioned on the basis of the usual acreages so determined.

Allotments for farms on which wheat will be seeded for harvest in 1943 but on which wheat was not seeded for harvest in any of the 3 years 1940 through 1942 will be determined on the basis of tillable acreage, crop rotation practices, and types of soil and topography taking into consideration the producer's farming plans for 1943. Not more than 3 percent of the county wheat allotment shall be apportioned to such farms in a county.

The wheat allotment for any farm shall compare with the wheat allotment determined for other farms in the same community which are similar with respect to the foregoing factors, and the wheat allotments determined for farms in a county shall not exceed their proportionate share of the county allotment.

(3) Normal yields. For each farm for which a wheat allotment is determined or a deduction with respect to wheat is to be computed, a normal yield shall be determined as follows:

(i) Where reliable records of the actual average yields per acre of wheat for the 10 years 1932 through 1941 are presented by the farmer or are available to the committee, the normal yield for the farm shall be the average of such yields adjusted for trends and abnormal weather conditions.

(ii) If for any year of such 10-year period reliable records of the actual average yield are not available or there was no actual yield on the farm in such year, the normal yield for the farm shall be the yield which, on the basis of all available facts, including the yield for years for which data are available, weather conditions, type of soil, drainage, production practices, and general fertility of the land, the county committee determines to be the yield which was or could reasonably have been expected on the farm for such 10-year period.

(iii) The yields determined under subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph (3) shall be adjusted so that the weighted average of the normal yields for all farms in the county shall not exceed the county yield established by the Secretary.

(4) "Non-wheat allotment farm" means any farm:

(i) For which no wheat allotment is determined;

(ii) For which a wheat allotment of 15 acres or less is determined and the acreage planted to wheat exceeds the allotment by 10 percent or more;

(iii) From which no wheat is sold from the farm and the acreage of wheat normally harvested for any purpose after reaching maturity is not in excess of 3 acres per family living on the farm and having an interest in the wheat crop grown thereon and the county committee approves, in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, the classification of such farm for the purposes of the 1943 program as a non-wheat allotment farm; or

(iv) For which a wheat allotment of more than 15 acres is determined and on which wheat is normally planted for green manure, hay, or pasture, or will be planted for such use in 1943, and the county committee approves, in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, the classification of such farm for the purposes of the 1943 program as a non-wheat-allotment farm.

(5) "Acreage planted to wheat" means:

(i) Any acreage of land devoted to seeded wheat except when such crop is seeded in a mixture designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency upon recommendation of the State Committee as a mixture which may reasonably be expected to produce a crop containing such proportions of plants other than wheat that the crop cannot be harvested as wheat for grain or seed;

(ii) Any acreage of volunteer wheat which reaches maturity, except that on any farm on which the acreage seeded to wheat does not exceed the wheat allotment, the acreage of wheat in excess of the wheat allotment shall not be considered as acreage planted to wheat, if the wheat produced on the farm which is subject to marketing quota penalty is placed in farm storage or delivered to the Secretary pursuant to marketing quota regulations; and

(iii) Any acreage of land which is seeded to a mixture containing wheat designated under subdivision (i) above on which the crops other than wheat fail to reach maturity and the wheat reaches maturity:

Provided, That all or any part of any wheat acreage destroyed by causes beyond the control of the operator may be replaced with an equal acreage of wheat seeded after such destruction or by an equal acreage of volunteer wheat, and the acreage so replaced shall not be regarded as acreage planted to wheat.

(g) Miscellaneous—(1) Correction of errors. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, where the Agricultural Adjustment Agency finds that an error in a county or State office resulted in an allotment or yield for a farm which is substantially less than that which would otherwise have been determined, the correction of such allotment or yield may be authorized without requiring a redetermination of other farm allotments or yields in the county, unless such error has resulted in farm allotments or yields for other farms in the county which are substantially higher than they otherwise would have been.

(2) Errors in measurement. Where a farmer relied solely upon the measured acreage furnished to him in writing by the county committee in planning his 1943 farming operations or in adjusting his 1943 crop acreages, such measured acreage may be used in determining compliance with the provisions of the 1943 program even though it subsequently proves to be incorrect.

(3) Erroneous notice of acreage allotments. Notwithstanding the deduction provisions of § 701.403, in any case where, through error in a county or State office, the producer was officially notified of an allotment for a commodity larger than the finally approved allotment for that commodity and the county and State committees find, if the notice was in writing, or the county and State committees, with the approval of the regional director, find, if the notice was not in writing, that the producer, acting in good faith upon the information contained in the erroneous notice, planted an acreage to the commodity in excess of the finally approved allotment, the producer will not be considered to have exceeded the allotment for such commodity unless he planted an acreage to the commodity in excess of the acreage stated in the notice erroneously issued, and the deduction for excess acreage will be made only with respect to the acreage in excess of that stated in the notice erroneously issued.

(4) Reallocation of allotments due to displacement of producers. Except as provided in the next two succeeding paragraphs, the crop allotment for any land which is removed from agricultural production because of acquisition by a State or Federal agency or for use in connection with the national war effort shall be available to the State committee for use in providing equitable allotments for farms on which the crop was grown in one or more of the three years 1940 through 1942 and which are operated by persons who were producers of such crop on the land so removed from agricultural production. Insofar as possible the allotments for farms operated by such persons shall be comparable to the allotments for other farms in the locality taking into consideration the allotments for the land removed from agricultural production.

In the case of cotton and wheat, the allotment determined, or which would have been determined, for any land acquired in 1940 or thereafter by any Federal agency for war purposes shall be placed in a State pool and shall be used only for making equitable allotments for farms owned or acquired by owners dispossessed by a Federal agency because of acquisition of the farm for war purposes. The allotment made for any such farm, including farms on which such crop was not planted during any of the three years 1940 through 1942, shall compare with the allotments for such crops established for other farms in the same area which are similar except for the past acreage of such crop, taking into consideration the character and adaptability of the soil and other physical facilities affecting the production of the crop.

In the case of tobacco, the allotment determined, or which would have been determined, for any land acquired in 1940 or thereafter by any Federal agency for war purposes shall be placed in a State pool and shall be used only for making equitable allotments for farms owned or acquired by owners dispossessed by a Federal agency because of acquisition of the farm for war purposes. Upon application to the local committee, any person so dispossessed shall be entitled to have an allotment for any one of the farms owned or acquired by him equal to an allotment which would have been made to such farm plus the allotment which would have been made to the farm acquired by the Federal agency; Provided, That such allotment shall not exceed 50 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm in the case of flue-cured tobacco, and 20 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm in the case of other kinds of tobacco: Provided further, That this paragraph shall not apply so long as there is any marketing quota penalty due and unpaid, or a failure to account for the disposition of tobacco produced on the farm acquired by a Federal agency, or if the allotment established for such farm in 1943 would have been reduced because of the false or improper identification of tobacco produced on or marketed from each farm.

(h) Determination of grazing capacities. In the North Central and Western Regions, and in Texas and Oklahoma in the Southern Region, there shall be determined a grazing capacity for range land and noncrop open pasture land in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency. In determining grazing capacity, consideration shall be given to the following: composition, palatability, and density of forage growth; climatic fluctuations; distribution and character of watering facilities; topographic and cultural features; presence or absence of rodents and poisonous plant infestations; and number and classes of livestock previously carried. In counties where individual grazing capacities are determined the average of the individual grazing capacities determined for all range land and noncrop open pasture land in a county shall not exceed the county average grazing capacity limit determined by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency on the basis of available statistics.

§ 701.402 War crop goals—(a) National and state goals. National and State war crop goals will be established by the Secretary. In any area war crops shall include those crops for which the Agricultural Adjustment Agency determines that the 1943 goal is substantially greater than would normally be produced in the area.

(b) County goals. County war crop goals shall be determined by the State Committee by distributing the State goals among counties in the State in accordance with the instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, on the basis of the adaptability of the soil, availability of cropland, equipment, labor, and the acreage and production of each war crop in the county during recent years and other related factors. The sum of the county goals for any war crop shall not be less than the coresponding State goal.

(c) Farm goals. Farm war crop goals shall be determined by the county committee with the assistance of local committees by distributing the county goals in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, on the basis of adaptability of the soil, availability of cropland, equipment, labor, and the acreage and production of each war crop on the farm during recent years, and other related factors. The sum of the farm goals for each war crop shall not be less than the corresponding county goal except in counties where the Agricultural Adjustment Agency determines that the county goal is higher than it would be except for the assumption that war crops will be substituted for special crops. In such counties the sum of the farm goals for each war crop and the acreage of such war crop which it was assumed would be substituted for special crops shall not be less than the corresponding county goal.

§ 701.403 Production adjustment allowance and deductions—(a) The farm production adjustment allowance. The farm production adjustment allowance shall be the sum of the following:

(1) Corn on a corn-allotment farm. ---- cents per bushel of the normal yield of corn for the farm for each acre in the corn allotment.

(2) Cotton. ---- cents per pound of the normal yield of cotton for the farm for each acre in the cotton allotment.

(3) Peanuts. $---- per ton of the normal yield of peanuts for the farm for each acre in the peanut allotment.

(4) Rice. ---- cents per 100 pounds of the normal yield of rice for the farm for each acre in the rice allotment.

(5) Tobacco. The following number of cents per pound of the normal yield per acre of tobacco for the farm for each acre in the tobacco allotment:

Burley	------
Flue-cured	------
Dark air-cured	------
Fire-cured	------
Virginia sun-cured	------
Cigar-filler, Type 41	------
Cigar-filler and binder (except types 41 and 45)	------
Georgia-Florida, Type 62	------

(6) Wheat on a wheat-allotment farm. ---- cents per bushel of the normal yield of wheat for the farm for each acre in the wheat allotment.

(b) Deductions for failure to have acreage equal to 90 percent of allotted acreage. Deductions for failure to have an acreage of any special crop equal to 90 percent of the allotment for such crop shall not exceed that part of the farm production adjustment allowance computed for that crop. No deduction shall be made where the county committee finds, in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, that the failure to have an acreage of the crop equal to 90 percent of the allotment is due to flood, drought, hail, insects, or plant bed diseases. For the purpose of this provision any acreage of war crops in excess of 90 percent of the sum of the war crop goals may be substituted acre for acre for any special crop and in areas designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency any acreage of feed crops designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency in excess of the usual acreage may be substituted acre for acre for any acreage of wheat. If more than one special crop on a farm is subject to a deduction under this provision, any substitution of feed crop acreage for wheat acreage shall be made first. Thereafter the acreage of war crops available for substitution shall be substituted for the special crop or crops which will result in the largest payment for the farm. These deductions shall be determined as follows:

(1) Corn on a corn-allotment farm. Five times the payment rate for each acre by which the acreage planted to corn is less than 90 percent of the corn allotment.

(2) Cotton. Five times the payment rate for each acre by which the acreage planted to cotton is less than 90 percent of the cotton allotment.

(3) Peanuts. Five times the payment rate for each acre by which the acreage of peanuts is less than 90 percent of the peanut allotment.

(4) Rice. Five times the payment rate for each acre by which the acreage planted to rice is less than 90 percent of the rice allotment.

(5) Tobacco. Five times the payment rate for each acre by which the harvested acreage of each type of tobacco is less than 90 percent of the respective tobacco allotment.

(6) Wheat on a wheat allotment farm. Five times the payment rate for each acre by which the acreage planted to wheat is less than 90 percent of the wheat allotment.

(c) Deduction for failure to achieve 90 percent of the sum of the war crop goals. The deduction for failure to achieve 90 percent of the sum of the war crop goals shall be made only from the farm production adjustment allowance. The deduction shall be limited to that portion of the farm production adjustment allowance remaining after the deductions provided for in paragraph (b) above have been made. No deduction shall be made where the county committee finds, in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, that the failure to achieve 90 percent of the sum of the war crop goals is due to flood or drought. The deduction will be $15.00 for each acre by which the sum of the acreage planted to war crops on the farm is less than 90 percent of the sum of the war crop goals for the farm.

(d) Deductions for exceeding allotments. Deductions for exceeding allotments shall be made from the remainder of the farm production adjustment allowance after any deductions provided for in paragraphs (b) and (c) above have been made. If the deductions for exceeding allotments are in excess of the remainder of the farm production adjustment allowance, each person's share of the excess after proration of net deductions shall be deducted from such person's share in the production adjustment payment for any other farm in the county, and may be deducted from such person's share of the production adjustment payment for any other farm in the State, if the State committee finds that the crops grown on the farm or farms with respect to which such deductions are computed substantially offset the contribution to the program made on such other farm or farms. These deductions shall be determined as follows:

(1) Corn—(i) Corn on a corn allotment farm. Ten times the payment rate for each acre planted to corn in excess of the corn allotment. The deduction for excess corn acreage shall not exceed that part of the farm production adjustment allowance computed with respect to corn plus 10 times the payment rate for each acre planted to corn in excess of ---- percent of the corn allotment.

(ii) Corn on a non-corn-allotment farm. Ten times the payment rate for each acre planted to corn in excess of 15 acres or ---- percent of the corn allotment, whichever is larger.

(2) Cotton. Ten times the payment rate for each acre planted to cotton in excess of the cotton allotment.

(3) Tobacco. Ten times the payment rate for each acre of tobacco harvested in excess of the applicable tobacco allotment.

(4) Wheat—(i) Wheat on a wheat allotment farm. Ten times the payment rate for each acre planted to wheat on the farm in excess of the wheat allotment.

(ii) Wheat on a non-wheat-allotment farm. Ten times the payment rate for each acre of wheat on the farm harvested for grain, or for any other purpose after reaching maturity, in excess of the larger of 15 acres or the wheat allotment, or in areas designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency in excess of the largest of 15 acres, the wheat allotment, or if no wheat is sold from the farm, three acres per family living on the farm and having an interest in the wheat crop grown thereon.

(e) Miscellaneous deductions. The following miscellaneous deductions shall be regarded as personal deductions and shall be made from any payment with respect to the same or any other farm determined for the person responsible therefor. These deductions shall be made after payments have been increased in accordance with the provisions of § 701.406 hereof and after deductions for county association expenses as provided in § 701.408 hereof.

(1) Deduction for failure to prevent wind or water erosion. $1.00 for each acre of land in any area designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency as subject to serious wind or water erosion hazards with respect to which there are not adopted in 1943 methods recommended by the county committee and approved by the State committee for the prevention of wind or water erosion, or both.

(2) Deduction for breaking up permanent vegetative cover. $3.00 for each acre of native sod, or any other land on which a permanent vegetative cover has been established, broken out during the 1943 program year in any area designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency as an area subject to serious wind erosion unless the acreage was broken out with the approval of the county committee for the planting of forest trees or the county committee determines in accordance with standards established by the State committee with approval of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency that the land broken out is suited to the continuing production of cultivated crops and will not become a wind erosion hazard to the community.

(3) Deduction for failure to maintain practices under previous programs. Where the county committee, in accordance with instructions of the State committee, determines that any terrace constructed, water development established, forest trees planted, or pasture established under any previous agricultural conservation program are not maintained in accordance with good farming practices; that any seeding of perennial legumes or grasses is destroyed contrary to good farming practice; or that the effectiveness of any soil-building practice carried out under any previous program is destroyed during the 1943 program year contrary to good farming practice, a deduction shall be made equal to the payment that would be made under the 1943 program for a similar amount of such practice.

§ 701.404 Production practice goals, allowances, practices and rates of payment—(a) National goal. The national goal is the conservation of farm and range land, the restoration, insofar as is practicable, of a permanent vegetative cover on land unsuited to the continued production of cultivated crops, the carrying out of production practices that will conserve and improve soil fertility, will promote conservation and better utilization of water, will conserve and increase range and pasture forage, will prevent wind and water erosion, and will increase production of agricultural commodities required in the war effort.

(b) County goals. County goals may be established for particular production practices which are most needed in the county in order to conserve and improve soil fertility, improve range and pasture land, prevent wind and water erosion, promote conservation and better utilization of water and increase the production of agricultural commodities required in the war effort. The county committee, with the approval of the State committee, may designate those practices which will be approved for payment in the county in order that the production practice allowance will be used most effectively to bring about added conservation and to secure the carrying out of production practices most needed on farms in the county.

The county committee, with the approval of the State committee, may specify for any group of farms in the county a proportion of the production practice allowance which may be earned only by carrying out designated production practices which are most needed and are not routine.

(c) Farm goals. Insofar as practicable, the county committee shall determine for individual farms practices to be carried out which are not routine farming practices on the farm, but which are needed on the farm in order to conserve and improve soil fertility and prevent wind and water erosion and which will tend to accomplish the goals established for the county with respect to particular production practices.

(d) Area production practice allowance. The production practice allowance for any area shall be the total amount which the Agricultural Adjustment Agency estimates would be earned in the area if the production practice allowance for each farm in the area were determined in accordance with the formula for determining farm soil-building allowances contained in the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin.

(e) Farm production practice allowance. The production practice allowance is the maximum amount of payment that may be made for carrying out production practices on the farm. With prior approval of the State committee, landlords, tenants or sharecroppers in any local area may combine by written agreement all or any part of the production practice allowances for their farms for the performance of any practices which the State committee determines are necessary to conserve the agricultural resources of the community and such practices must be carried out on one or more of the farms included in the agreement.

(1) Farms in the North Central Region. A preliminary production practice allowance shall be determined for farms in the North Central Region and shall be the sum of the following:

(i) 75 cents per acre of cropland on the farm in excess of the acreage allotments determined for the farm.

(ii) $2.00 per acre of commercial orchards on the farm.

(iii) $1.00 per acre of the normal commercial vegetable acreage on the farm.

(iv) A county flat rate per acre of noncrop open pasture land on the farm, based upon 2 cents per acre of such pasture land in the county plus 90 cents for each animal of grazing capacity but not less than 8 cents times the number of such acres, or 8 cents times 2,000 acres, whichever is smaller.

Provided, however, That the preliminary production practice allowance for any farm shall not be less than $20.00.

The county committee may increase or decrease the preliminary production practice allowance determined for the farm by not more than 30 percent on the basis of the type and degree of erosion, the topography of the land, the type of soil, the type of farm, the acreage in war crop goals, the need for maintaining and increasing soil fertility, the need for and practicability of water conservation, and the availability of labor, equipment, and material required in carrying out needed practices. The sum of the preliminary production practice allowances for all farms in the county after making these adjustments shall not exceed an amount determined by the State committee with the approval of the regional director, and for all counties in the region, shall not exceed the sum of the preliminary production practice allowances.

The final production practice allowance for any farm shall be the adjusted preliminary production practice allowance for the farm plus the smaller of the amount earned by planting trees or $15.00

(2) Farms in the Western Region. A preliminary production practice allowance shall be determined for farms in the Western Region and shall be the sum of the following:

(i) 75 cents per acre of cropland on the farm in excess of the acreage allotments determined for the farm.

(ii) $2.00 per acre of commercial orchards on the farm.

(iii) $1.00 per acre of commercial vegetables on the farm in 1942.

(iv) 8 cents per acre for each acre of grazing land on the farm, up to and including 2000 acres, plus 5 cents per acre for each acre of grazing land in excess of 2000 acres.

(v) 30 cents per acre of mountain meadowland (applicable only in counties designated by the regional director as counties in which erosion-control practices are necessary and effective in promoting mountain meadowland conservation).

Provided, however, That the preliminary production practice allowance for any farm shall not be less than $20.00.

In determining the final production practice allowance for any farm, the county committee may increase or decrease the preliminary production practice allowance determined for the farm in accordance with the foregoing factors by not more than 30 percent on the basis of the type and degree of erosion, the topography of the land, the type of soil, the type of farming, the acreage in war crop goals, the need for maintaining and increasing soil fertility, the need for and practicability of water conservation, and the availability of labor, equipment and material required in carrying out needed practices. The sum of the final production practice allowance for all farms in the county shall not exceed an amount determined by the State committee with the approval of the regional director, and for all counties in the region, shall not exceed the sum of the preliminary production practice allowances.

(3) Farms in the Northeast Region. In the Northeast Region a production practice allowance will be established only for farms on which in 1942 there are at least 5 animal units, at least 300 pullets ranged, at least 3 acres of vegetables, potatoes, tobacco, small fruits, and commercial orchards, or at least 10 acres of cropland and commercial orchards. "Animal unit," for the purpose of this subparagraph (3), means 1 dairy or beef animal over 2 years, 2 dairy or beef calves under 2 years, and 5 goats, sheep or lambs. The production practice allowance for any farm shall be the sum of the following:

(i) The allowance for liming materials, phosphate, and potash will be the sum of the following:

(a) The larger of $2.50 per animal unit belonging on the farm at the time of enrollment, if there are on the farm at least 5 animal units, or $2.50 per 100 pullets ranged in 1942, not to exceed $5.00 per acre of pullet range used on the farm in 1942, if at least 300 pullets were ranged.

(b) 40 cents per acre of cropland and commercial orchards in excess of 5 acres, for each unit used in computing the allowance under inferior subdivision (a), if there are in the farm at least 10 acres of cropland and commercial orchards.

(c) 80 cents per acre of vegetables, potatoes, small fruits, and commercial orchards on the farm in 1942, if there were at least 3 acres of one or more of these on the farm.

(ii) The allowance for other approved practices shall be the extent of such practices times the approved rates therefor.

(4) Farms in the East Central Region. The production practice allowance for farms in the East Central Region shall be the sum of the following:

(i) 75 cents per acre of cropland on the farm, exclusive of the average acreage of cropland subject to overflow in counties designated by the State committee and approved by the regional director.

(ii) 40 cents per acre of fenced noncrop open pasture land on the farm in excess of one-half the acreage of cropland. The pasture land must be capable of maintaining during the normal pasture season at least one animal unit for each 5 acres.

(iii) $2.00 per acre of commercial orchards on the farm.

(iv) $1.00 per acre of commercial vegetables grown on the farm in 1940 if the acreage grown was 3 acres or more.

Provided, however, That if the sum of the amounts determined on the basis of the foregoing factors for any farm is less than $20.00, the county committee may adjust the production practice allowance for the farm upward to an amount not in excess of $20.00 if it determines that the farm will be operated in 1943; the practices to be performed thereon in 1943 will contribute toward sound conservation and the national war effort; and the land, labor, and equipment available on the farm are sufficient to permit the carrying out of practices in a workmanlike manner, except that in no case shall the allowance as adjusted exceed the sum of $3.00 per acre of cropland and $1.50 per acre of noncrop open pasture land.

(5) Farms in the Southern Region. The production practice allowance for any farm in the Southern Region shall be the sum of the items listed under the name of the State in which the farm is located: Provided, That for any farm with respect to which the sum of the production adjustment allowance and the amounts computed for the production practice allowance is less than $20.00, the production practice allowance shall be increased by the amount of the difference.

Alabama

(i) $1.00 per acre of cropland on the farm.

(ii) 25 cents per acre of fenced noncrop open pasture land on the farm in 1942.

(iii) $1.50 per acre of commercial orchards (excluding tung orchards) on the farm in 1942.

(iv) The smaller of $5.00 per acre of tung orchards (excluding old nonbearing orchards) or the amount earned by carrying out in tung orchards production practices designated by the regional director and approved by the Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Administration.

Arkansas

(i) The allowance for establishing and improving permanent pasture, developing a continuous system of grazing, contour furrowing pasture land, construction of terraces and outlets, and establishing vegetative waterways, shall be the extent of such practices times the approved rates therefor.

(ii) The allowance for other practices shall be the sum of the following:

(a) $1.00 per acre of cropland on the farm in excess of the sum of the special crop allotments.

(b) $2.00 per acre of commercial orchards on the farm in 1942.

(c) 15 cents per acre of fenced noncrop open pasture land on the farm in 1942.

Florida

(i) The allowance for establishing a permanent vegetative cover by planting sod pieces, seeding permanent pasture, construction of terraces, and green manure and cover crops of legumes and winter nonlegumes following peanuts harvested for nuts in 1942, shall be the extent of such practices times the approved rates therefor.

(ii) The allowance for other practices shall be the sum of the following:

(a) $1.00 per acre of cropland on the farm in excess of the sum of the special crop allotments, the cropland in commercial orchards, the 1941 acreage of commercial vegetables, and the 1943 acreage of sugarcane for sugar.

(b) $2.00 per acre of commercial orchards (excluding tung orchards) on the farm in 1942.

(c) $1.50 per acre of commercial vegetables grown on the farm in 1941.

(d) 20 cents per acre of fenced noncrop open pasture land on the farm in 1942 in excess of one-half of the number of acres of cropland.

(e) The smaller of $5.00 per acre of tung orchards (excluding old nonbearing orchards) or the amount earned by carrying out in tung orchards production practices designated by the regional director and approved by the Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Administration.

Georgia

(i) The allowance for establishing a stand of lespedeza sericea; establishing a permanent vegetative cover of kudzu; establishing a permanent pasture by sodding and seeding; establishing a permanent pasture by seeding; clearing, cleaning up, and preparing for the establishment of permanent pasture; and construction of standard terraces, shall be the extent of such practices times the approved rates therefor.

(ii) The allowance for other practices shall be the sum of the following:

(a) 70 cents per acre of cropland on the farm.

(b) $1.00 per acre of commercial orchards (excluding tung orchards) on the farm in 1942.

(c) The smaller of $5.00 per acre of tung orchards (excluding old nonbearing orchards) or the amount earned by carrying out in tung orchards production practices designated by the regional director and approved by the Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Administration.

(d) 25 cents per acre of fenced noncrop open pasture land on the farm in 1942 in excess of one-half of the number of acres of cropland.

Louisiana

(i) 90 cents per acre of cropland on the farm in excess of the sum of the special crop allotments, the cropland in commercial orchards, and the 1943 acreage of sugarcane for sugar.

(ii) $2.00 per acre of commercial orchards (excluding tung orchards) on the farm in 1942.

(iii) 25 cents per acre of fenced noncrop open pasture land on the farm in 1942 in excess of one-half of the number of acres of cropland.

(iv) $1.00 per acre of commercial vegetables grown on the farm in 1942 where the acreage was 3 acres or more.

(v) The smaller of $15.00 or the amount earned by carrying out designated pasture practices.

(vi) The smaller of $5.00 per acre of tung orchards (excluding old nonbearing orchards) or the amount earned by carrying out in tung orchards production practices designated by the regional di- Conservation and Adjustment Administration.

Mississippi

(i) The allowance for establishing permanent pasture, construction of terraces, and establishing permanent waterways shall be the extent of such practices times the approved rates therefor.

(ii) The allowance for other practices shall be the sum of the folowing:

(a) 70 cents per acre of cropland on the farm in excess of the sum of the special crop allotments and the cropland in commercial tung orchards and young nonbearing tung orchards.

(b) 15 cents per acre of fenced noncrop open pasture land.

(c) The smaller of $5.00 per acre of tung orchards (excluding old nonbearing orchards) or the amount earned by carrying out in tung orchards production practices designated by the regional director and approved by the Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Administration.

(d) The smaller of $15.00 or the amount earned by planting forest trees.

Oklahoma

(i) The allowance for construction of standard terraces and establishing a permanent pasture shall be the extent of such practices times the approved rates therefor.

(ii) The allowance for other practices shall be the sum of following:

(a) 70 cents per acre of cropland on the farm in excess of the sum of the special crop allotments and the cropland in commercial orchards.

(b) For each acre of noncrop open pasture land on the farm (or ranch):

8 cents per acre in the following counties: Beaver, Beckham, Cimarron, Ellis, Greer, Harmon, Harper, Roger Mills, Texas, and Woodward;

9 cents per acre in the following counties: Alfalfa, Blaine, Caddo, Comanche, Cotton, Custer, Dewey, Jackson, Kiowa, Major, Tillman, Washita, and Woods;

10 cents per acre in the following counties: Atoka, Canadian, Carter, Cleveland, Coal, Garfield, Garvin, Grady, Grant, Johnston, Kingfisher, Lincoln, Logan, McClain, Murray, Oklahoma, Payne, Pittsburg, Pontotoc, Pottawatomie, Pushmataha, Seminole, and Stephens; 11 cents per acre in the following counties: Adair, Bryan, Cherokee, Choctaw, Craig, Creek, Delaware, Haskell, Hughes, Jefferson, Kay, Latimer, Le Flore, Love, McCurtain, McIntosh, Marshall, Mayes, Muskogee, Noble, Nowata, Okfuskee, Okmulgee, Osage, Ottawa, Pawnee, Rogers, Sequoyah, Tulsa, Wagoner, and Washington.

(c) $2.00 per acre of commercial orchards on the farm in 1942.

(d) $1.00 per acre of commercial vegetables grown on the farm in 1942 where the acreage was 3 acres or more.

South Carolina

(i) 50 cents per acre of cropland on the farm.

(ii) $1.50 per acre of commercial vegetables grown on the farm in 1942 where the acreage was 3 acres or more.

(iii) $2.00 per acre of commercial orchards on the farm in 1942.

Texas

(i) The allowance for construction of terraces shall be the extent of this practice times the approved rate therefor.

(ii) The allowance for other practices shall be the sum of the following:

(a) 75 cents per acre of cropland on the farm in excess of the sum of the special crop allotments, the acreage of cropland in commercial orchards, including all tung orchards, and the 1943 acreage of sugar beets for sugar.

(b) For noncrop open pasture and range land:

(1) For farms on which the acreage of noncrop open pasture and range land on the farm in 1942 was 1,920 acres or less:

8 cents per acre in the following counties and in all counties lying west of the counties named: Wilbarger, Foard, Knox, Haskell, Stonewall, Fisher, Scurry, Howard, Martin, Midland, Upton, Pecos, and Terrell;

9 cents per acre in the following counties: Archer, Baylor, Brooks, Callahan, Clay, Coke, Comanche, Crockett, Dimmit, Duval, Eastland, Erath, Frio, Glasscock, Irion, Jack, Jim Hogg, Jones, Kinney, LaSalle, Maverick, McMullen, Mitchell, Nolan, Palo Pinto, Reagan, Shackelford, Starr, Sterling, Stephens, Taylor, Throckmorton, Uvalde, Val Verde, Webb, Wichita, Young, Zapata, and Zavala;

10 cents per acre in the following counties: Atascosa, Bandera, Bexar, Blanco, Bosque, Brown, Burnet, Cameron, Coleman, Concho, Coryell, Edwards, Gillespie, Hamilton, Hidalgo, Hood, Jim Wells, Kendall, Kenedy, Kerr, Kimble, Lampasas, Live Oak, Llano, Mason, McCulloch, Medina, Menard, Mills, Montague, Parker, Real, Runnels, San Saba, Schleicher, Somervell, Sutton, Tom Green, Willacy, Wilson, and Wise;

11 cents per acre in the following counties and in all counties lying east of the counties named: Cooke, Denton, Tarrant, Johnson, Hill, McLennan, Bell, Williamson, Travis, Hays, Comal, Guadalupe, Gonzales, Karnes, Lee, San Patricio, Nueces, and Kleberg.

(2) For farms on which the acreage of noncrop open pasture and range land on the farm in 1942 was more than 1,920 acres—2 cents per acre of noncrop open pasture and range land plus 90 cents for each animal unit of grazing capacity established: Provided, That the allowance shall not be on the basis of more than one animal unit for each 10 acres of noncrop open pasture and range land and the 2-cent rate on the acreage of noncrop open pasture and range land shall not apply to more than 60 acres per animal unit of grazing capacity: Provided, further, That the allowance so computed shall not be less than $160.00 for farms containing 2,000 acres or more of noncrop open pasture and range land nor less than 8 cents per acre of noncrop open pasture and range land for farms containing more than 1,920 acres but less than 2,000 acres.

(c) $2.00 per acre of commercial orchards (excluding tung orchards) on the farm in 1942.

(d) $1.00 per acre of commercial vegetables normally grown on the farm where the normal acreage is 3 acres or more. The 1941 acreage of commercial vegetables on the farm will be considered the normal acreage unless such acreage was reduced by flood or drought, in which case the 1941 commercial vegetable allotment will be considered the normal acreage.

(e) The smaller of $5.00 per acre of tung orchards (excluding old nonbearing orchards) or the amount earned by carrying out in tung orchards production practices designated by the regional director and approved by the Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Administration.

(f) Production practices. In any area the production practices for which payment will be made shall be those practices which are recommended by the regional director and approved by the Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Administration as practices best adapted to achieve sound soil conservation and production of agricultural commodities required in the war effort. In order to be approved for payment, any practice shall be one which:

(1) Will control and prevent soil erosion caused by wind or water; or will maintain or increase soil fertility; or will promote conservation and better utilization of water; or will conserve and increase range and pasture forage; or will increase the production of agricultural commodities required in the war effort; and

(2) Is not a routine practice; and

(3) Will not be carried out in desired volume unless payment is made for the practice.

If one-half or more of the total cost of carrying out any practice is represented by labor, seed, trees, or other materials furnished by any State or Federal agency other than the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, no payment will be made for such practice and if less than one-half of the total cost of carrying out any practice is represented by such items, payments shall be made for one-half of such practice except that in areas designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency the payment for eradication or control of perennial noxious weeds shall be reduced only by the percentage of the total cost of the practice represented by these items. Labor, seed, trees, and materials furnished to a State or political subdivision of a State or an agency thereof by an agency of the same State shall not be deemed to have been furnished by any State agency within the meaning of this paragraph.

Production practices carried out with the use of equipment furnished by the Soil Conservation Service shall not, by virtue of the use of such equipment, be deemed to have been paid for in whole or in part by a State or Federal agency.

Trees purchased from a Clark-McNary Cooperative State Nursery shall not be deemed to have been paid for in whole or in part by a State or Federal agency. No payment will be made for planting trees furnished by the Forest Service in connection with the Prairie States Forestry Project.

(g) Rates of payment. In any area the rate of payment for carrying out any production practice shall be the rate recommended by the regional director and approved by the Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Administration. Approval of such rates shall be made in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) General provisions applicable to all rates. The rate of payment for each practice shall be determined on the basis of the estimated average cost of performing the practice; the relative need for the practice; and the familiarity of farmers with the practice.

(2) Provisions applicable to specific types of practices. (i) The rate of payment for practices which consist largely of the application of materials shall not exceed 85 percent of the estimated average cost of such materials determined on a farm-delivery basis.

(ii) The rate of payment for engineering and construction practices shall not exceed 75 percent of the estimated average cost of labor, materials, and use of equipment.

(iii) In the case of other practices, with the exception of those for which a higher rate of payment is justified on the basis of need for the practice in the area, or the lack of familiarity on the part of the farmers in carrying out the practice, the rates of payment shall not exceed 70 percent of the estimated average cost of performing the practice.

§ 701.405 Division of payments and deductions—(a) Payments and deductions in connection with crop acreage allotments. (1) The net payment or net deduction computed for any farm with respect to any special crop shall be divided among the landlords, tenants, and sharecroppers in the same proportion that such persons are determined by the county committee to be entitled, as of the time of harvest, to share in the proceeds (other than a fixed commodity payment) of the crop grown on the farm in 1943, or if the farm comprises two or more separately owned tracts of land, in the proportion which the county committee determines fairly reflects each person's contribution to performance with respect to the crop. This determination shall be made at the time the county committee approves the application for payment: Provided, That if any special crop is not grown on the farm in 1943 or the acreage of the crop is substantially reduced in 1943 because of flood, hail, draught, insects, or plantbed disease, the net payment computed for the crop shall be divided among the landlords, tenants, and sharecroppers in the proportion that the county committee determines such persons would have been entitled to share in the proceeds of the crop if the entire acreage in the acreage allotment for the crop had been planted and harvested in 1943: Provided further, That in cases where landlords, tenants, or sharecroppers after planting but prior to harvest, lose their interests in any special crop by reason of the acquisition of title to or lease of the farm for use in connection with the national war effort, the net payment (less any compensation for the loss of payment) or the net deduction computed with respect to the crop shall be divided among such persons in the same proportion that the county committee determines that such persons would have been entitled, as of the time of harvest, to share in the proceeds of the crop except for such acquisition of title or lease.

(2) The deduction for failure to achieve 90 percent of the sum of the war crop goals shall be made prorata from the payments for crop acreage allotments after making the deductions provided for in § 701.403 (b).

(b) Payments in connection with production practices. The amount of net payment earned in carrying out production practices shall be paid to the landlord, tenant, or sharecropper who carried out the practices. If more than one such person contributed to the carrying out of production practices on the farm under the 1943 program, the net payment shall be divided in the proportion that the county committee determines such persons contributed to the carrying out of the practices. In making this determination, the county committee shall take into consideration the value of the labor, equipment, or material contributed by each person toward the carrying out of each soil-building practice on a particular acreage, assuming that each person contributed equally unless it is established to the satisfaction of the county committee that their respective contributions thereto were not in equal proportion.

In those areas where part of the production practice allowance is determined by the production practices carried out, a separate division of payment shall be determined for such practices and for other practices.

(c) Proration of net deductions. If the sum of the net special crop payments computed for all persons on a farm exceeds the sum of the net special crop deductions computed for all persons on the farm, the sum of the net special crop deductions computed for all persons on the farm shall be prorated among the persons on the farm for whom a net special crop payment is computed, on the basis of such computed net payments. If the sum of the net special crop deductions computed for all persons on a farm equals or exceeds the sum of the net special crop payments computed for all persons on the farm, no special crop payment will be made with respect to the farm and the amount of the net special crop deductions in excess of the net special crop payments shall be prorated among the persons on the farm for whom a net special crop deduction is computed, on the basis of such computed net deductions.

§ 701.406 Increase in small payments. The net payment computed under §§ 701.403, 701.404, and 701.405 exclusive of the miscellaneous deductions in § 701.403 (f) for any person with respect to any farm shall be increased as follows:

(a) Any payment amounting to 71 cents or less shall be increased to $1;

(b) Any payment amounting to more than 71 cents but less than $1 shall be increased by 40 percent;

(c) Any payment amounting to $1 or more shall be increased in accordance with the following schedule:

[2] No increase.

§ 701.407 Payments limited to $10,000. The total of all payments made in connection with programs for 1943 under section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act to any individual, partnership, or estate with respect to farms, ranching units, and turpentine places located within a single State, territory, or possession shall not exceed the sum of $10,000, prior to deduction for association expenses in the county or counties with respect to which the particular payments are made. The total of all payments made in connection with such programs to any person other than an individual, partnership, or estate with respect to farms, ranching units, and turpentine places in the United States (including Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico) shall not exceed the sum of $10,000, prior to deduction for association expenses in the county or counties with respect to which the particular payments are made.

All or any part of any payment which has been or otherwise would be made to any person under the 1943 program may be withheld or required to be returned if he has adopted or participated in adopting any scheme or device, including the dissolution, reorganization, revival, formation, or use of any corporation partnership, estate, trust, or any other means, which was designed to evade, or would have the effect of evading, the provisions of this section.

§ 701.408 Deduction for association expenses. There shall be deducted pro rata from the payments with respect to any farm all or such part as the Secretary may prescribe of the estimated administrative expenses incurred or to be incurred by the county agricultural conservation association in the county in which the farm is located.

§ 701.409 Conservation materials. Wherever it is found practicable, limestone, superphosphate, trees, seeds, terracing, and other farming materials and services may be furnished in lieu of payments by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency to be used in carrying out approved production practices on the farm and in areas designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency to be used in expanding the production of war crops.

These materials or services will be furnished to the producer by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency either directly or through the medium of a purchase order executed on a form prescribed by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency. When materials or services are furnished under the purchase order plan, payment will be made, in advance of determination of performance by the producer, to the vendor who, in filling the purchase order, furnished to the producer the approved conservation material or service, in accordance with instructions and specifications issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, at not to exceed a fair price fixed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

Wherever the materials or services are furnished a deduction shall be made in an amount determined by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency on the basis approved by the Secretary. If the producer uses any such material in a manner which is not in substantial accord with the purpose for which it was furnished, an additional deduction for the material misused equal to the amount of the original deduction for the material shall be made.

The deduction for materials or services shall be made from any payment due the person who obtained the materials or services on the same or any other farm in the county. If the amount of the deduction for materials or services exceeds the amount of the payment for the producer subject to deduction, the amount of the difference shall be paid by the producer to the Secretary:

Provided, That, in any region wherein the regional director recommends and the Agricultural Adjustment Agency approves, deductions for any deficit will be made insofar as possible from payments computed for other persons on the farm with respect to which such materials or services were furnished.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this bulletin, in areas designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency and in accordance with its instructions, conservation materials or services furnished may be in lieu of the entire payment for the farm. Conservation materials so furnished shall be limited to farms with respect to which the only payment which may be earned is for carrying out production practices; or the producer foregoes any production adjustment payment; or the sum of the production adjustment allowance and the production practice allowance is $50.00 or less.

§ 701.410 General provisions relating to payments—(a) Payment restricted to effectuation of purposes of the program. All or any part of any payment which otherwise would be computed for any person under the 1943 program may be withheld or required to be returned if he adopts or has adopted any practice which tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1943 or previous agricultural conservation programs; if, by means of any corporation, partnership, estate, trust, or any other device, or in any manner whatsoever, he has offset, or has participated in offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance for which such payment is otherwise authorized; or if, with respect to grazing land, forest land, or woodland owned or controlled by him, he adopts or has adopted any practice which is contrary to sound conservation practices.

Practices which tend to defeat the purposes of the 1943 program and the amount of the payment which shall be withheld or required to be refunded in each such case shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following cases:

Practices and Amounts To Be Withheld or Refunded

(1) A landlord or operator, including the landlord of a cash or standing or fixed rent tenant, either by oral or written lease or operating agreement, or by an oral or written agreement supplementary thereto, requires by coercion or induces by subterfuge his tenant or sharecropper to agree to pay to such landlord or operator all or a portion of any Government payment which the tenant or sharecropper has received or is to receive for participating in the 1943 Agricultural Conservation Program.

Amount. The entire payment for the landlord or operator with respect to the farm.

(2) A landlord or operator requires that his tenant or sharecropper pay, in addition to the rental customarily paid in the community for similar land and use, a sum of money or any thing or service of value equivalent to all or a portion of the Government payment which may be, is being, or has been earned by the tenant or sharecropper.

Amount. The entire payment for the landlord or operator with respect to the farm.

(3) A landlord or operator knowingly omits the names of one or more of his landlords, tenants, or sharecroppers on an application for payment form or other official document required to be filed in connection with the 1943 Agricultural Conservation Program, or knowingly shows incorrectly his or their acreage shares of a crop, or shares of production practices, or otherwise falsifies the record required therein to be submitted in respect to a particular farm.

Amount. The entire payment for the landlord or operator with respect to the farm.

(4) A landlord or operator requires his tenant or sharecropper to execute an assignment, ostensibly covering advances of money or supplies to make a current crop, but actually for a purpose not permitted by the assignment regulations.

Amount. The entire payment for the landlord or operator with respect to the farm.

(5) A person complies with the provisions of the program on a farm or farms operated by him as an individual, but causes or fails to prevent the substantial offsetting of such performance by the farming operations of a partnership, association, estate, corporation, trust, or other business enterprise in which he has a financial interest and the policies of which he is in a position to control.

Amount. The amount of the net deductions computed for the business enterprise.

(6) A partnership, association, estate, corporation, trust, or other business enterprise carries on its operations so as to qualify for payment, but one of the persons who is interested in and in a position to control the operations or policies of the business enterprise, substantially offsets such performance by his individual operations.

Amount. The portion of the payment for the business enterprise which the State committee finds or estimates is commensurate with the person's interest in the enterprise.

(7) A person operates farms in two or more States and substantially offsets his performance in one State by overplanting his farm in another State.

Amount. The net amount of the deduction which would be computed for such person for such overplanting if the farms were in the same State.

(8) A person rents land for cash, standing, or fixed rent to another person who he knows or has good reason to believe will offset such person's performance by substantially overplanting the acreage allotment for the farm which includes such rented land.

Amount. The net amount of the deduction which would be computed if the person were entitled to receive all the crops planted on the land so rented.

(9) A person participates in the planting, production, or harvesting of a crop on a farm other than a farm in which he admits having an interest. (A person shall be considered to be participating in the planting, production, or harvesting of a crop if the committee finds that he furnished labor, machinery, work-stock, or financial assistance for the planting, production, or harvesting of such crop and that he has a financial interest in such crop.)

Amount. The proportion of the net amount of the deduction which would be computed for the farm which the committee determines was such person's interest in the crops planted, produced, or harvested.

(10) A tenant, in settling his obligations under a written or oral contract or agreement supplemental or collateral thereto, pays or renders cash, standing rent or fixed rent, or a share of the crop, or any service or thing of value, aggregating in value in excess of the rental customarily paid in the community for similar land and use, thereby diverting to the landlord or operator the whole or any part of any Government payment which the tenant is entitled to receive. The application of this rule shall be subject to the approval of the regional director.

Amount. The entire payment for the tenant with respect to the farm and the entire payment for the landlord or operator with respect to all of his farms under the program involved: Provided, however, That, where a tenant is renting for a share of the crop only and the tenant's share is 60 percent or less, only the landlord's or operator's payments shall be withheld or recovered.

(11) A landlord or operator forces or causes, by coercion, subterfuge, or in any manner whatsoever, a tenant or sharecropper to abandon a crop prior to harvest for the purpose of obtaining the share of the Government payment that would otherwise be made to the tenant or sharecropper with respect to such crop.

Amount. The entire payment for the landlord or operator with respect to the farm.

(12) A person misuses or participates in the misuse of a marketing card with respect to any commodity for which marketing quotas are in effect or fails to file or knowingly falsifies any report required by or under the regulations pertaining to marketing quotas for the 1943–44 marketing year.

Amount. The entire payment for such person with respect to the farm.

(13) A person whose maximum payment computed without regard to the $10,000 limitation is in excess of $10,000 adopts practices which result in a substantial difference between the maximum payment so computed and the payment after applying all applicable deductions except the $10,000 limitation and the deduction for administrative expenses.

Amount. The net payment shall not exceed that amount which is the same percentage of $10,000 as the payment computed after applying all applicable deductions, except the $10,000 limitation and deductions for administrative expenses, is of the maximum payment computed without regard to the $10,000 limitation: Provided, The State committee with the approval of the regional director and the Agricultural Adjustment Agency finds that the practices adopted apart from the net performance rendered tend to defeat the purposes of the program.

No payment will be made to any person with respect to any farm which he owns or operates in a county if the county committee finds that he has been negligent and careless in his farming operations by failing to carry out approved erosion-control measures on land under his control to the extent that any part of such land has become an erosion hazard during the 1943 program year to other land in the community in which such farm is located.

(b) Payment computed and made without regard to claims. Any payment or share of payment shall be computed and made without regard to questions of title under State law; without deduction of claims for advances (except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, and except for indebtedness to the United States subject to set-off under orders issued by the Secretary); and without regard to any claim or lien against any crop, or proceeds thereof, in favor of the owner or any other creditor.

(c) Changes in leasing and cropping agreements, reduction in number of tenants, and other devices. If on any farm in 1943 any change in the arrangements which existed on the farm in 1942 is made between the landlord or operator and the tenants or sharecroppers and the change would cause a greater proportion of the payments for special crops to be made to the landlord or operator under the 1943 program than would have been made to the landlord or operator for performance on the farm under the 1942 program, payments to the landlord or operator for special crops under the 1943 program with respect to the farm shall not be greater than the amount that would have been paid to the landlord or operator if the arrangements which existed on the farm in 1942 had been continued in 1943, unless the county committee certifies that the change is justified and approves the change.

If on any farm the number of sharecroppers or share tenants in 1943 is less than the average number on the farm during the three years 1940 to 1942 and the reduction would increase the payments for special crops that would otherwise be made to the landlord or operator, such payments to the landlord or operator shall not be greater than the amount that would otherwise be made, unless the county committee certifies that the reduction is justified and approves the reduction.

The action of the county committee under this paragraph (c) is subject to approval or disapproval by the State committee.

If the State committee finds that any person who files an application for payment pursuant to the provisions of the 1943 program has employed any other scheme or device (including coercion, fraud, or misrepresentation), the effect of which would be or has been to deprive any other person of any payment under any agricultural conservation program to which such person would normally be entitled, the Secretary may withhold, in whole or in part, from the person participating in or employing such a scheme or device, or require him to refund in whole or in part, the amount of any payment which has been or would otherwise be made to him in connection with the 1943 program.

(d) Assignments. Any person who may be entitled to any payment in connection with the 1943 program may assign his payment in whole or in part as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1943. No assignment will be recognized unless it is made in writing on Form ACP–69 in accordance with the instructions (ACP–70) issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency and unless the assignment is entitled to priority under instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency.

Nothing contained in this paragraph (d) shall be construed to give an assignee a right to any payment other than that to which the farmer is entitled nor (as provided in the statute) shall the Secretary or any disbursing agent be subject to any suit or liability if payment is made to the farmer without regard to the existence of the assignment.

(e) Excess cotton acreage. Any person who makes application for payment with respect to any farm located in a county in which cotton is planted in 1943 shall file with his application a statement that he has not knowingly planted cotton or caused cotton to be planted, during 1943 on land in any farm in which he has an interest, in excess of the cotton allotment under section 344 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 for the farm for 1943 and that if cotton was planted in excess of such allotment, it was done without his authority or consent and, if he had knowledge thereof, he made every reasonable effort to prevent such overplanting.

Any person who knowingly plants cotton, or causes cotton to be planted, on his farm in 1943 on acreage in excess of the cotton allotment under section 344 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 for the farm for 1943 shall not be eligible for any payment whatsoever, on that farm or any other farm, under the provisions of the 1943 Agricultural Conservation Program. No person shall be deemed to have knowingly overplanted cotton on his farm if the acreage planted to cotton on the farm in 1943 does not exceed the farm cotton acreage allotment by more than the larger of 3 acres or 3 percent of the farm cotton acreage allotment. Any person having an interest in the cotton crop on a farm on which the acreage planted to cotton in 1943 exceeds the farm cotton allotment by more than the amount specified in the last preceding sentence shall be presumed to have knowingly planted cotton on his farm on acreage in excess of such farm cotton allotment if notice of the farm allotment is mailed to him prior to the completion of the planting of cotton on the farm, unless the farmer establishes the fact that the excess acreage was planted to cotton due to his lack of knowledge of the number of acres in the tract(s) planted to cotton. Such notice, if mailed to the operator of the farm, shall be deemed to be notice to all persons sharing in the production of cotton on the farm in 1943.

§ 701.411 Application for payment—(a) Persons eligible to file applications. An application for payment with respect to a farm may be made by any person for whom, under the provisions of §701.405, a share in the payment with respect to the farm may be computed.

(b) Time and manner of filing application and information required. Payment will be made only upon application submitted on the prescribed form to the county office. Payment may be withheld from any person who fails to file any form or furnish any information required with respect to any farm which such person is operating or renting to another person for a share of the crops grown thereon or for cash or standing rent. Any application for payment may be rejected if any form or information required of the applicant is not submitted to the county office within the time fixed by the regional director. At least 2 weeks' notice to the public shall be given of the expiration of a time limit for filing prescribed forms or required information, and any time limit fixed shall be such as affords a full and fair opportunity to those eligible to file the form or information within the period prescribed. Such notice shall be given by mailing the same to the office of each county committee and making copies of the same available to the press.

(c) Application for other farms. If a person makes application for payment or is furnished conservation materials or services in lieu of payment with respect to a farm in a county and has the right to receive all or a portion of the crops or proceeds therefrom produced on any other farm in the county for which a deduction could be computed under the program, he must make application for payment with respect to all such farms. Upon request of the State committee, any person shall file with the committee such information as it may request regarding any other farm in the State with respect to which he has the right to receive all or a portion of the crops or proceeds thereof or which he rents to another.

§ 701.412 Appeals. Any person may, within 15 days after notice thereof is forwarded to or made available to him, request the county committee in writing to reconsider its recommendation or determination in any of the following matters respecting any farm in the operation of which he has an interest as landlord, tenant, or sharecropper: (a) eligibility to file an application for payment; (b) any acreage allotment, war crop goal, normal or actual yield, grazing capacity, measurement, or production practice allowance; (c) the division of payment; or (d) any other matter affecting the right to or the amount of his payment with respect to the farm. The county committee shall notify him of its decision in writing within 15 days after receipt of such written request for reconsideration. If he is dissatisfied with the decision of the county committee he may, within 15 days after such decision is forwarded to or made available to him, appeal in writing to the State committee.

The State committee shall notify him of its decision in writing within 30 days after the submission of the appeal. If he is dissatisfied with the decision of the State committee, he may, within 15 days after its decision is forwarded to or made available to him, request the regional director to review the decision of the State committee.

Written notice of any decision rendered under this section by the county or State committee shall also be issued to each person known to it who, as landlord, tenant, or sharecropper having an interest in the operation of the farm, may be adversely affected by such decision. Only a person who shows that he is adversely affected by the outcome of any request for reconsideration or appeal may appeal the matter further but any person who, as landlord, tenant, or sharecropper having an interest in the operation of the farm, would be affected by the decision to be made on any reconsideration by the county committee or subsequent appeal shall be given a full and fair hearing if he appears when the hearing thereon is held.

§ 701.413 State and regional bulletins, instructions, and forms. The Agricultural Adjustment Agency is hereby authorized to make such determinations and to prepare and issue such State and regional bulletins, instructions, and forms as may be required in administering the 1943 program pursuant to the provisions hereof.

§ 701.414 Definitions. For the purposes of the 1943 program, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) Officials. (1) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(2) "Regional director" means the director of the division of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency in charge of the agricultural conservation program in the region to which that division relates.

(3) "State committee or State agricultural conservation committee" means the group of persons designated within any State to assist in the administration of the agricultural conservation programs in that State.

(4) "County committee or county agricultural conservation committee" means the group of persons elected within any county to assist in the administration of the agricultural conservation programs in that county.

(b) Regions. (1) "Northeast Region" means the area included in the States of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Vermont.

(2) "East Central Region" means the area included in the States of Delaware, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia.

(3) "Southern Region" means the area included in the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma, South Carolina, and Texas.

(4) "North Central Region" means the area included in the States of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, South Dakota, and Wisconsin.

(5) "Western Region" means the area included in the States of Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming.

(c) Farms. "Farm" means all adjacent or nearby farm or range land under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also:

(1) Any other adjacent or nearby farm or range land which the county committee, in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, determines is operated by the same person as part of the same unit in producing range livestock or with respect to the rotation of crops and with workstock, farm machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other lands; and

(2) Any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops.

A farm shall be regarded as located in the county or administrative area, as the case may be, in which the principal dwelling is situated, or if there is no dwelling thereon it shall be regarded as located in the county or administrative area, as the case may be, in which the major portion of the farm is located.

(d) Cropland. (1) "Cropland" means farm land which in 1942 was tilled or was in regular rotation, excluding any land which constitutes, or will constitute if such tillage is continued, a wind-erosion hazard to the community, and excluding also, except in the Southern Region, any land in commercial orchards.

(e) Miscellaneous. (1) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, or other business enterprise or other legal entity, and, wherever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof.

(2) "Landlord or owner" means a person who owns land.

(3) "Sharecropper" means a person who works a farm in whole or in part under the general supervision of the operator and is entitled to receive for his labor a share of a crop produced thereon or of the proceeds thereof.

(4) "Tenant" means a person other than a sharecropper who rents land from another person (whether or not he rents such land or part thereof to another person), including, in the case of rice, a person furnishing water for a share of the rice.

(5) "Commercial orchards" means the acreage on the farm in planted or cultivated fruit trees, nut trees, vineyards, hops, or bush fruits (excluding nonbearing orchards and vineyards), from which the major portion of the production is normally sold.

(6) "Noncrop open pasture land" means pasture land (other than rotation pasture land) on which the predominant growth is forage suitable for grazing and on which the number or grouping of any trees or shrubs is such that the land could not fairly be considered as woodland.

(7) "Range land" means any land which produces forage grazed by range livestock without cultivation or general irrigation, in which an operator has such a legal estate or interest as to give him control thereof, except land determined by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency to be noncrop open pasture.

(8) "Animal unit" means one cow, one horse, five sheep, five goats, two calves, or two colts, or the equivalent thereof.

(9) "Grazing capacity" of range land or noncrop open pasture land means the number of animal units which such land will sustain, on a 12-month basis, over a period of years without decreasing the stand of grass or other grazing vegetation, and without injury to the forage, tree-growth, or watershed.

(10) "Special crop" means corn, cotton, wheat, tobacco, rice, or peanuts.

§ 701.415 Authority, availability of funds, and applicability—(a) Authority. This program is approved pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act (49 Stat. 1148, 16 U.S.C. 590g to 590q), as amended. In connection with the effectuation of the purposes of section 7 (a) of said Act for 1943 the payments provided for herein will be made for participation in the 1943 program.

(b) Availability of funds. The provisions of the 1943 program are necessarily subject to such legislation affecting said program as the Congress of the United States may hereafter enact; the making of the payments herein provided are contingent upon such appropriation as the Congress may hereafter provide for such purpose; and the amounts of such payments will necessarily be within the limits finally determined by such appropriation, the apportionment of such appropriation under the provisions of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, and the extent of national participation in the program. As an adjustment for participation the rates of payment and deduction with respect to any commodity or item of payment may be increased or decreased from the rates set forth herein by as much as 10 percent.

The funds provided for the 1943 program will not be available for the payment of applications filed in the county office after June 30, 1945.

(c) Applicability. The provisions of the 1943 program contained herein, except § 701.407 are not applicable to (1) Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and Alaska; (2) counties for which special agricultural conservation programs are approved for 1943 by the Secretary; (3) any department or bureau of the United States Government and any corporation wholly owned by the United States; and (4) grazing lands owned by the United States which were acquired or reserved for conservation purposes or which are to be retained permanently under Government ownership. Such lands include, but are not limited to, lands owned by the United States which are administered by the Forest Service or the Soil Conservation Service of the United States Department of Agriculture or by the Bureau of Biological Survey of the United States Department of the Interior. Grazing lands administered by other bureaus of the Department of the Interior are within the scope of the program only if such lands are operated under an instrument in writing approved by the Department of the Interior, under which the holder has an interest in the grazing and forage growing on the land and a right to occupy the land in order to carry out his grazing operations.

The program is applicable to lands owned by corporations which are only partly owned by the United States, such as Federal Land Banks and Production Credit Associations.

The 1943 program is also applicable to any land which, although owned by the United States or a corporation wholly owned by it, is to be temporarily under such Government or corporation ownership and was not acquired or reserved for conservation purposes. Such land shall include that administered by the Farm Security Administration, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, or the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, or by any other Government agency which the Agricultural Adjustment Agency finds complies with all the provisions of the preceding sentence. The 1943 program will also be applicable to any cropland farmed by private persons which is owned by the United States or a corporation wholly owned by it, if the Congress so provides.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of November 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CLAUDE R. WICKARD,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Subchapter C—Miscellaneous Excise Taxes

[T.D. 5190]

PART 130—TAXES ON SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES, TRANSPORTATION OF OIL BY PIPE LINE, TELEPHONE, TELEGRAPH, RADIO AND CABLE MESSAGES AND SERVICES, AND TRANSPORTATION OF PERSONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In order to conform Regulations 42 (1942 edition) [Part 130, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations], relating to the taxes on safe deposit boxes, transportation of oil by pipe line, telephone, telegraph, radio and cable messages and services, and transportation of persons under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, to sections 601, 606, 609 and 616 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, Seventy-seventh Congress, second session), approved October 21, 1942, such regulations are hereby amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. The first paragraph of § 130.0 is amended to read as follows:

These regulations deal with the excise taxes:

(a) On the use of safe deposit boxes, imposed by Chapter 12 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by section 532 of the Revenue Act of 1941.

(b) On the transportation of oil by pipe line, imposed by Chapter 30, Subchapter A, of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by sections 502 and 521 (a) (22) of the Revenue Act of 1941 and section 616 of the Revenue Act of 1942.

(c) Imposed by Chapter 30, Subchapter B, of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by section 548 of the Revenue Act of 1941 and section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1942, with respect to:

(1) Telephone and radio telephone messages and conversations;

(2) Telegraph, cable, and radio dispatches and messages;

(3) Leased wire, teletypewriter, and talking circuit special service;

(4) Wire and equipment services (including stock quotation and information services, burglar alarm and fire alarm service, and all similar services);

(5) Local telephone service rendered to subscribers.

(d) Imposed by Chapter 30, Subchapter C, of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by section 554 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1941, and amended by section 609 of the Revenue Act of 1942, with respect to:

(1) Transportation of persons by rail, motor vehicle, water, or air;

(2) Seating or sleeping accommodations furnished in connection with transportation of persons by rail, motor vehicle, water, or air.

PAR. 2. There is inserted immediately after § 130.25 the following:

EXEMPT TRANSPORTATION

SEC. 616. EXEMPT TRANSPORTATION OF OIL BY PIPE LINE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

Section 3460 (relating to tax on transportation of oil by pipe line) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(c) Exempt transportation. For the purposes of this section, the term "transportation" shall not include any movement through lines of pipe within the premises of a refinery, a bulk plant, a terminal, or a gasoline plant, if such movement is not a continuation of a taxable transportation. The crossing of rights-of-way, streets, highways, railroads, levees, or narrow bodies of water, in connection with such a movement, shall not of itself constitute such movement as being "transportation".

SEC. 601. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS TITLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, approved October 21, 1942, Title VI.)

This title shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins more than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

§ 130.26 Exempt transportation. The tax does not apply to the movement on and after November 1, 1942, of crude petroleum or liquid products thereof through lines of pipe within the premises of a refinery, a bulk plant, a terminal, or a gasoline plant, if such movement is not a continuation of a taxable transportation. For purposes of this exemption, a movement is regarded as being carried on within the premises of a refinery, bulk plant, terminal, or gasoline plant even though in connection with such a movement the pipe lines through which the petroleum or liquid products thereof are carried incidentally traverse rights-of-way, streets, highways, railroads, levees or narrow bodies of water (such as creeks, canals, etc.).

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately preceding § 130.30 the following:

SEC. 606. TELEPHONE, TELEGRAPH, ETC. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

(a) Rates of tax. Section 3465 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 3465. IMPOSITION AND RATE OF TAX.

(a) There shall be imposed:

(1) Telephone and telegraph, etc. (A) On the amount paid within the United States for each telephone or radio telephone message or conversation for which the toll charge is more than 24 cents, a tax equal to 20 per centum of the amount so paid. If a bill is rendered the taxpayer for the services described in this subparagraph, the amount upon which the tax shall be based shall be the sum of all such charges included in the bill, and the tax shall not be based upon the charge for each item, separately, included in the bill.

(B) On the amount paid within the United States for each telegraph, cable, or radio dispatch or message a tax equal to 15 per centum of the amount so paid, except that in the case of each international telegraph, cable, or radio dispatch or message the rate shall be 10 per centum. If a bill is rendered the taxpayer for the services described in this subparagraph, the amount upon which the tax at each of the rates in this subparagraph shall be based shall be the sum of all such charges at that rate included in the bill, and the tax shall not be based upon the charge for each item, separately, included in the bill.

If the tax under subparagraph (A) or (B) is paid by inserting coins in coin-operated telephones, the tax shall be computed to the nearest multiple of 5 cents, except that where the tax is midway between multiples of 5 cents, the next higher multiple shall apply. Only one payment of a tax imposed by subparagraph (A) or (B) shall be required notwithstanding the lines or stations of one or more persons are used in the transmission of such dispatch, message, or conversation.

PAR. 4. Sections 130.30 and 130.31 are amended to read as follows:

§ 130.30 Effective period. The taxes on telegraph, telephone, cable, or radio dispatches, messages, or conversations, were imposed originally by Title V of the Revenue Act of 1932. The applicable provisions of the Revenue Act of 1932 were superseded, effective March 1, 1939, by provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. The Code provisions were amended subsequently by various Acts, including the Revenue Act of 1940, and as so amended were to remain in effect until June 30, 1945. The Code provisions were further amended by the Revenue Act of 1941 and the Revenue Act of 1942 and as the result of such amendments the rates and basis of computing these taxes were changed. The amendments made by the Revenue Act of 1941 were effective as of October 1, 1941, and the amendments made by the Revenue Act of 1942 were effective as of November 1, 1942. The taxes will continue in effect indefinitely.

§ 130.31 Scope of tax—(a) Telephone and radio telephone messages, and conversations. Paragraph (1) (A) of section 3465 (a), as amended by section 606 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1942, imposes a tax on the amount paid within the United States for each telephone or radio telephone message or conversation, for which the toll charge is more than 24 cents. Prior to November 1, 1942, the tax was on any such message or conversation which originated within the United States.

(b) Telegraph, cable, and radio dispatches and messages. Paragraph (1) (B) of section 3465 (a), as amended by section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1942, imposes a tax on the amount paid within the United States for each telegraph, cable, or radio dispatch or message regardless of the amount of the charge therefor. Prior to November 1, 1942, the tax was on any such dispatch or message which originated within the United States.

PAR. 5. Section 130.33 is amended to read as follows:

§ 130.33 Rate and application of tax—(a) Telephone and radio telephone messages, and conversations. In the case of each telephone or radio telephone message or conversation where the charge is more than 24 cents, the rate of tax is 20 per cent of the amount paid. Prior to November 1, 1942, the tax was at the rate of 5 cents for each 50 cents or fraction thereof of the amount paid.

Any additional charge made for "overtime" in connection with a telephone, or radio telephone, message or conversation shall be added to the basic charge for the purpose of determining the amount of tax due. A report charge amounting to more than 24 cents is subject to tax. For information with respect to charges amounting to 24 cents or less, see §§ 130.39 to 130.42.

(b) Telegraph, cable, and radio dispatches and messages. The amount paid for each telegraph, cable, or radio dispatch or message is subject to tax at the rate of 15 per cent, except that in the case of each international dispatch or message the rate of tax is 10 per cent. Prior to November 1, 1942, the tax on all telegraph, cable or radio dispatches or messages was 10 per cent.

A charge made for a telephone toll call used by a telegraph company in effecting delivery of a telegraph message shall be added to the basic charge for the transmission of the telegraph message for the purpose of determining the amount subject to tax. In such case, the telegraph company is not liable for tax on the amount paid by it to the telephone company for the toll call whether or not the charge therefor is in excess of 24 cents.

A charge made for a telephone toll call which is used to reach a telegraph office for the purpose of sending a telegraph message should not be added to the basic charge for the transmission of the telegraph message, as the telegraph message is considered to begin at the telegraph office. The telephone toll call in such case is considered to be a separate transaction and as such subject to tax.

(c) General. Where a bill is rendered to a taxpayer covering charges for (1) telephone or radio telephone messages, (2) telegraph, cable, or radio dispatches or messages, or (3) international telegraph, cable, or radio dispatches or messages the tax at the rate which is applicable in the particular case shall be based on the sum of all charges included in the bill which are subject to that rate.

Where the tax on a telephone or radio telephone message or conversation, or a telegraph, cable, or radio dispatch or message is paid by inserting coins in a coin-operated telephone, the tax shall be computed to the nearest multiple of 5 cents, and where the tax is midway between multiples of 5 cents, the next higher multiple shall apply. In other words, one-half or a greater fraction of 5 cents shall be treated as 5 cents and a smaller fraction shall be ignored.

The tax applies to all amounts paid for services rendered and facilities provided incidental to the transmission of a message or conversation. An amount paid to a telephone, telegraph, radio, or cable company for messenger service in bringing the recipient of a message to the telephone, or in delivering a dispatch or message, must be included in determining the total amount subject to tax. However, an amount paid for messenger service rendered by a hotel or similar establishment is not to be included in the total charge on which the tax is computed.

Transmission begins when the message is delivered by the sender to the carrier, or its agent, and continues until receipt by the addressee or his agent. A dispatch, message, or conversation transmitted by the combined facilities of several lines or radio links is considered to be one dispatch, message, or conversation for purposes of the tax.

All transmission services, as described herein, when rendered for hire are subject to tax whether or not the agency furnishing such services is a common carrier.

The tax is payable by the person paying the transmission charge and is to be collected by the person receiving the payment. (See § 130.70.) If a message, dispatch, or conversation is transmitted "collect", the person who pays the charge therefor is liable for the tax.

Effective as of November 1, 1942, messages which originate in the United States and are sent "collect" to a recipient outside of the United States are not taxable, while messages originating outside of the United States and sent "collect" to a recipient in the United States are taxable. With respect to messages transmitted prior to November 1, 1942, the rule is the reverse, i. e., messages which originated in the United States and which were sent "collect" to a recipient outside the United States are taxable, while messages which originated outside of the United States and were sent "collect" to a recipient in the United States are not taxable.

PAR. 6. There is inserted immediately preceding § 130.36 the following:

SEC. 606. TELEPHONE, TELEGRAPH, ETC. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

(a) Rates of Tax.—Section 3465 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 3465. IMPOSITION AND RATE OF TAX.

(a) There shall be imposed:

* * * * *

(2) Leased wires, etc. (A) A tax equivalent to 15 per centum of the amount paid for leased wire, teletypewriter, or talking circuit special service, but not including an amount paid for leased wire, teletypewriter, or talking circuit special service used exclusively in rendering a service taxable under subparagraph (B).

(B) A tax equivalent to 5 per centum of the amount paid for any wire and equipment service (including stock quotation and information services, burglar alarm or fire alarm service, and all other similar services, but not including service described in subparagraph (A)).

The tax shall apply under this paragraph whether or not the wires or services are within a local exchange area.

* * * * *

(b) This section shall not apply to the amount paid for so much of the service described in paragraph (2) of subsection (a) as is utilized in the conduct, by a common carrier or telephone or telegraph company or a radio broadcasting station or network, of its business as such.

(b) Effective date of amendments.

* * * * *

(2) The amendments to section 3465 (a) (2) and (3) made by subsection (a) shall apply only to amounts paid pursuant to bills rendered after the effective date of this title for service for which no previous bill was rendered. Where bills rendered after the effective date of this title include charges for services previously rendered, the amendments shall not apply to such service as was rendered more than two months before the effective date of this title, and the provisions of section 3465 in effect at the time such prior service was rendered shall be applicable to the amounts paid for such service.

SEC. 601. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS TITLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, approved October 21, 1942, Title VI.)

This title shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins more than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

PAR. 7. Sections 130.36 and 130.37 are amended to read as follows:

§ 130.36 Effective period. The tax on leased wires and talking circuit special service was imposed originally by Title V of the Revenue Act of 1932. The applicable provisions of the Revenue Act of 1932 were superseded March 1, 1939, by the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. The Code provisions were amended subsequently by various Acts, including the Revenue Act of 1940, and as so amended were to remain in effect until June 30, 1945. Effective as of October 1, 1941, the provisions of the Code relating to this tax were further amended by section 548 of the Revenue Act of 1941, increasing the rate of tax and imposing a tax on the amount paid for any wire and equipment service (including stock quotation and information services, and burglar alarm or fire alarm service). The Code provisions relating to these taxes were also amended by section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1942, approved October 21, 1942. The amendments made by such section apply only to amounts paid pursuant to bills rendered on and after November 2, 1942, for service furnished on or after September 1, 1942, for which no previous bill was rendered. These taxes will continue in effect indefinitely.

§ 130.37 Scope of tax—(a) Leased wire, teletypewriter, or talking circuit special service. Paragraph (2) (A) of section 3465 (a), as amended by section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1942, imposes a tax on the amount paid for leased wire, teletypewriter, or talking circuit special service, except where such service is used exclusively in rendering a service taxable under paragraph (2) (B) of such section 3465 (a).

(b) Wire and equipment service. Paragraph (2) (B) of section 3465 (a), as amended by section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1942, imposes a tax on the amount paid for any wire and equipment service, including stock quotation and information services, burglar and fire alarm services, and all other similar services.

PAR. 8. Section 130.38 is amended as follows:

(A) The first paragraph of the section is amended to read as follows:

In the case of leased wire, teletypewriter, or talking circuit special service, the tax is to be computed at the rate of 15 per cent of the amount paid therefor. In the case of service taxable under section 3465 (a) (2) prior to amendment by section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1942, the tax was at the rate of 10 per cent of the amount paid.

(B) By adding after the third paragraph of subsection (a) the following paragraph:

Beginning with the effective date of section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1942, as explained in § 130.36 of these regulations, amounts paid for leased wire, teletypewriter, or talking circuit special service used exclusively in rendering a service taxable under paragraph (2) (B) of section 3465 are not subject to the tax imposed by paragraph (2) (A) of such section 3465.

(C) By substituting for the last paragraph of paragraph (b) the following:

For exemption from the tax on leased wire, teletypewriter, and talking circuit special service where such service is used exclusively in rendering any of the services described in this paragraph, see paragraph (a) of this section.

PAR. 9. There is inserted immediately preceding § 130.39 the following:

SEC. 606. TELEPHONE, TELEGRAPH, ETC. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

(a) Rates of Tax. Section 3465 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 3465. IMPOSITION AND RATE OF TAX.

(a) There shall be imposed:

* * * * *

(3) Local telephone service.—A tax equivalent to 10 per centum of the amount paid by subscribers for local telephone service and for any other telephone service in respect of which a tax is not payable under paragraph (1) or (2). Amounts paid for the installation of instruments, wires, poles, switchboards, apparatus, and equipment shall not be considered amounts paid for service. Service paid for by inserting coins in coin-operated telephones available to the public shall not be subject to the tax imposed by this paragraph, except that where such coin-operated telephone service is furnished for a guaranteed amount, the amounts paid under such guarantee plus any fixed monthly or other periodic charge shall be subject to the tax.

* * * * *

SEC. 606. TELEPHONE, TELEGRAPH, ETC. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

(b) Effective date of amendments.

* * * * *

(2) The amendments to section 3465 (a) (2) and (3) made by subsection (a) shall apply only to amounts paid pursuant to bills rendered after the effective date of this title for service for which no previous bill was rendered. Where bills rendered after the effective date of this title include charges for services previously rendered, the amendments shall not apply to such service as was rendered more than two months before the effective date of this title, and the provisions of section 3465 in effect at the time such prior service was rendered shall be applicable to the amounts paid for such service.

PAR. 10. Section 130.39 is amended to read as follows:

§ 130.39 Effective period. The tax on local and other telephone services was added to the provisions of section 3465 of the Internal Revenue Code by section 548 of the Revenue Act of 1941, which became effective October 1, 1941. Section 3465 was amended by section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1942. The amendment as it relates to this tax applies only to amounts paid pursuant to bills rendered on and after November 2, 1942, for service furnished on or after September 1, 1942, for which no previous bill was rendered.

PAR. 11. The first paragraph of § 130.40 is amended to read as follows:

Paragraph (3) of section 3465 (a), as amended by section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1942, imposes a tax on the amount paid by any subscriber for local telephone service and for any other telephone service in respect of which a tax is not payable under the provisions of paragraph (1) or (2) of that section.

PAR. 12. The first paragraph of § 130.41 is amended to read as follows:

The tax is imposed at the rate of 10 percent of the amount paid by any subscriber for local telephone service or for any other telephone service which is not subject to the provisions of section 3465 (a) (1) or (2) of the Code, as amended. (See §§ 130.30 to 130.38.) In the case of service taxable under section 3465 (a) (3) prior to amendment by section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1942, the tax was at the rate of 6 percent of the amount paid.

Par. 13. Section 130.42 is amended to read as follows:

§ 130.42 Coin-operated telephones. No tax is imposed with respect to charges of 24 cents or less paid by the insertion of coins in public coin-operated telephones for a single telephone conversation, except where the coin-operated service is furnished for a guaranteed amount. However, if the amount paid for a single telephone conversation, including additional charges for overtime service, totals more than 24 cents, the tax imposed by section 3465 (a) (1) of the Code, as amended, applies. (See §§ 130.30 to 130.35.)

Service paid for by inserting coins in coin-operated telephones where the coin-operated telephone service is furnished for a guaranteed amount is taxable. In such case, the tax attaches to the amounts paid under the guarantee plus any fixed monthly or other periodic charge.

Par. 14 There is inserted immediately preceding § 130.50 the following:

Sec. 609. Transportation of persons. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

(a) Increase in Rate.—Section 3469 (a) (relating to tax on transportation of persons) * * * are amended by striking out "5 per centum" and inserting in lieu thereof "10 per centum."

* * * * *

Sec. 601. Effective date of this title. (Revenue Act of 1942, approved October 21, 1942, Title VI.)

This title shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins more than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

Par. 15. Section 130.50 is amended by adding thereto the following sentence:

The increase in the tax rate made by the amendment of section 3469 by section 609 of the Revenue Act of 1942 became effective November 1, 1942.

Par. 16. The first paragraph of § 130.52 is amended to read as follows:

The tax is 10 per cent of the amount of the taxable payment for transportation. Prior to November 1, 1942, the tax was 5 per cent of such amount.

Par. 17. There is inserted immediately preceding § 130.55 the following:

Sec. 609. Transportation of persons. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

(a) Increase in Rate.— * * * section 3469 (c) (relating to tax on seats or berths) are amended by striking out "5 per centum" and inserting in lieu thereof "10 per centum."

* * * * *

Sec. 601. Effective date of this title. (Revenue Act of 1942, approved October 21, 1942, Title VI.)

This title shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins more than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

Par. 18. Section 130.55 is amended by adding thereto the following sentence:

The amendment to section 3469 made by section 609 of the Revenue Act of 1942, whereby the rate of tax was increased, became effective November 1, 1942.

Par. 19. The first paragraph of § 130.57 is amended to read as follows:

The tax is 10 per cent of the amount of the taxable payment for seating or sleeping accommodations. Prior to November 1, 1942, the tax was 5 per cent of such amount.

Par. 20. There is inserted immediately preceding § 130.63 the following:

Sec. 609. Transportation of persons. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

* * * * *

(b) Exemption of Members of Armed Forces of United Nations From Tax on Transportation of Persons, Etc.—Section 3469 (f) (2) (relating to exemptions from the tax on transportation of persons) is amended by inserting after the words "uniform of the United States" a comma and the following: "or to members of the military or naval forces of any of the other United Nations traveling in uniform of such nation, * * *

Par. 21. Section 130.63 is amended by inserting after the words "including authorized cadets and midshipmen," the words "or to members of the military or naval forces of any of the United Nation,".

(Secs. 601, 606, 609 and 616 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Cong.), and sections 1855, 3472 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 206, 423 and 467; 26 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1855, 3472 and 3791))

Part 316—Excise Taxes on Sales to the Manufacturer

REFRIGERATION EQUIPMENT, PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES, ETC.

In order to conform Regulations 46 [Part 316, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Sup.] as amended, relating to excise taxes on sales by the manufacturer under the Internal Revenue Code, to sections 601, 607, 610, 611, 614, 615, and 618 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress, 2d Session), such regulations are amended as follows:

Paragraph 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 316.2 the following:

Sec. 601. Effective date of this title. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

This title shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins more than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

Par. 2. The last two paragraphs of § 316.2, as amended by Treasury Decision 5099, approved November 28, 1941, are eliminated and the following new paragraph is inserted in lieu thereof:

Under the provisions of Title VI of the Revenue Act of 1942, effective November 1, 1942, the taxes with respect to sales of electric signs, rubber articles, washing machines and optical equipment are terminated, and certain changes are made in the taxes with respect to sales of refrigerators, etc., and photographic apparatus.

Par. 3. The last paragraph of § 316.5 is amended to read as follows:

In the case of a lease, an installment sale, a conditional sale, or a chattel mortgage arrangement, a proportionate part of the tax attaches to each payment. (See § 316.9.) In the case of use by the manufacturer (see § 316.7) the tax attaches at the time the use begins.

Par. 4. There is inserted immediately preceding § 316.8 the following:

Sec. 618. Sale under chattel mortgage. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

* * * * *

(b) Manufacturers' sales taxes generally. Section 3441 (c) (1) (relating to tax where articles are sold under installment or conditional sales contracts) is amended by striking out "or (C) a conditional sale" and inserting in lieu thereof "(C) a conditional sale, or (D) a chattel mortgage arrangement wherein it is provided that the sales price shall be paid in installments".

Par. 5. Section 316.9, as amended by Treasury Decision 5099, is further amended by changing the heading to read "Basis of tax on leases, installment sales, conditional sales, and sales under chattel mortgage arrangements." and by adding the following new paragraph at the end thereof:

Where articles are sold by the manufacturer on and after November 1, 1942, under a chattel mortgage arrangement, with payments to be made in installments, a proportionate part of the total tax shall be paid upon each payment made with respect to the articles. The tax must be returned and paid to the collector during the month following that in which such payment is made.

Par. 6. There is inserted immediately preceding § 316.60 the following:

Sec. 610. Organs under contract before October 1, 1941. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

The tax under section 3404 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the sale of an organ sold under a bona fide written contract entered into before October 1, 1941, and tax paid with respect to the sale of an organ under such a contract may be refunded, subject to the provisions of section 3443 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Par. 7. Section 316.63, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, is amended by adding the following new paragraph at the end thereof:

The tax does not apply to an organ sold under a bona fide written contract entered into before October 1, 1941. In any case where tax has been paid with respect to the sale of an organ under such a contract, the person who paid the tax to the United States may take a credit or be allowed a refund in the amount of the tax paid on such article in accordance with the provisions of § 316.204.

Par. 8. There is inserted immediately preceding § 316.70 the following:

Sec. 614. Refrigerators, refrigerating apparatus, and air-conditioners. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

Section 3405 is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3405. Tax on mechanical refrigerators and self-contained air-conditioning units. There shall be imposed on the following articles (including in each case parts or accessories therefor sold on or in connection with the sale thereof) sold by the manufacturer, producer, or importer a tax equivalent to 10 per centum of the price for which sold:

(a) Refrigerators.—Household type refrigerators (for single or multiple cabinet installations) having, or being primarily designed for use with, a mechanical refrigerating unit operated by electricity, gas, kerosene, or gasoline.

(b) Refrigerating apparatus. Cabinets, compressors, condensers, evaporators, expansion units, absorbers, and controls for, or suitable for use as parts of or with, household type refrigerators of the kind described in subsection (a) except when sold as component parts of complete refrigerators or refrigerating or cooling aparatus.

(c) Air-conditioners. Self-contained air-conditioning units.

Par. 9. Section 316.70, as amended by Treasury Decision 5099, is further amended as follows:

(A) Following the title "Refrigerators, etc.—" the subtitle "(a) For the period October 1, 1941 to October 31, 1942, inclusive.—" is inserted.

(B) The fourth paragraph is changed to read as follows:

A manufacturer of an article taxable under section 3405 (a), as amended by section 546 of the Revenue Act of 1941, may purchase tax free for use as a component in the manufacture of such article any of the refrigerating apparatus specified in section 3405 (b), as amended by section 546 of the Revenue Act of 1941. (See § 316.71.) However, if any of the refrigerating apparatus specified in section 3405 (b) as so amended, is purchased tax paid and used as a component in the manufacture of an article taxable under such section 3405 (a) as amended, the manufacturer of the article may be allowed a credit to the extent of the tax paid on the refrigerating apparatus so used as a component. (See § 316.204.)

(C) The following paragraphs are added at the end thereof:

(b) For the period beginning November 1, 1942. Subsection (a) of section 3405, as amended by section 614 of the Revenue Act of 1942, imposes a tax on sales by the manufacturer of household type refrigerators (for single or multiple cabinet installations) having, or being primarily designed for use with, a mechanical refrigerating unit operated by electricity, gas, kerosene, or gasoline, and including in each case parts or accessories therefor sold on or in connection with the sale of the article.

The term "household type refrigerator" includes refrigerators for single or multiple cabinet installations, which (1) are designed for domestic use, (2) are arranged to provide refrigerated storage space for the preservation of food products or low temperature space for making ice cubes and frozen desserts, (3) have a net storage space not exceeding 20 cubic feet, and (4) have, or are primarily designed for use with, a mechanical refrigerating unit operated by electricity, gas, kerosene, or gasoline.

The tax applies to all household type refrigerators, if primarily designed for use with a mechanical refrigerating unit operated by electricity, gas, kerosene, or gasoline; it is not necessary that such a mechanical refrigerating unit be sold on or in connection with the sale of the refrigerator.

A manufacturer of household type refrigerators taxable under section 3405 (a), as amended by section 614 of the Revenue Act of 1942, or other refrigerators, or refrigerating or cooling apparatus may purchase tax free for use as a component in the manufacture of such articles any of the refrigerating apparatus specified in section 3405 (b), as amended by section 614 of the Revenue Act of 1942. (See § 316.71.) However, if any of the refrigerating apparatus specified in such section 3405 (b) as amended, is purchased tax paid and used as a component in the manufacture of a household type refrigerator taxable under section 3405 (a) as amended, the manufacturer of such household type refrigerator may be allowed a credit to the extent of the tax paid on the refrigerating apparatus so used as a component. (See § 316.204.)

The tax does not apply to refrigerator cabinets which are primarily designed for use without a mechanical refrigerating unit.

Par. 10. Section 316.71, as amended by Treasury Decision 5099, is further amended by inserting after the title "Refrigerating Apparatus.—" the subtitle "(a) For the period October 1, 1941 to October 31, 1942, inclusive.—", and by adding the following new paragraph:

(b) For the period beginning November 1, 1942. Subsection (b) of section 3405 as amended by section 614 of the Revenue Act of 1942, imposes a tax on sales by the manufacturer of cabinets, compressors, condensers, evaporators, expansion units, absorbers and controls for, or suitable for use as parts of or with, household type refrigerators of the kind described in section 3405 (a), as amended by section 614 of the Revenue Act of 1942, including in each case parts or accessories therefor sold on or in connection with the sale of the specified refrigerating apparatus. Sales of such refrigerating apparatus as component parts of complete refrigerators, or refrigerating or cooling apparatus are not subject to the tax.

Par. 11. Section 316.72 amended by Treasury Decision 5099, is further amended by inserting after the title "Air-conditioners, and components.—" the following subtitle "(a) For the period October 1, 1941 to October 31, 1942, inclusive.—", and by adding the following new paragraph at the end thereof:

(b) For the period beginning November 1, 1942.—Subsection (c) of section 3405, as amended by section 614 of the Revenue Act of 1942, imposes a tax on sales by the manufacturer of self-contained air-conditioning units, including parts or accessories therefor sold on or in connection with the sale of such units.

Par. 12. There is inserted immediately preceding § 316.120, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, the following:

Sec. 607. Photographic apparatus. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

Section 3406 (a) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) Photographic apparatus. Cameras (except cameras weighing more than four pounds exclusive of lens and accessories) and lenses, photographic apparatus and equipment, and any apparatus or equipment designed especially for use in the taking of photographs or motion pictures or in developing, printing, or enlarging photographs or motion pictures, 25 percentum; unexposed photographic films (including motion picture films but not including X-ray film), photographic plates and sensitized paper, 15 per centum.

Par. 13. Section 316.120, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, is amended as follows:

(A) The first paragraph is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

Under section 3406 (a) (4), as amended by section 607 of the Revenue Act of 1942, increased rates of tax are imposed (see § 316.122), and the tax in the case of cameras is restricted to cameras weighing 4 pounds or less, exclusive of the lens and accessories. In all other respects, the scope of the tax under section 3406 (a) (4), as amended by section 607 of the Revenue Act of 1942, is identical to the scope of the tax as originally imposed under section 3406 (a) (4), as added by section 551 of the Revenue Act of 1941.

(B) The second paragraph is amended to read as follows:

The term "cameras" includes the entire assembly which is used for, or capable of use in, the taking of still or motion pictures. For the period prior to November 1, 1942, the tax applies to all cameras regardless of weight; for the period beginning with November 1, 1942, cameras weighing more than 4 pounds exclusive of lens and accessories are specifically excluded by law from the scope of the tax.

Par. 14. Section 316.122, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, is amended to read as follows:

§ 316.122 Rates of tax. For the period prior to November 1, 1942, the tax is payable by the manufacturer at the rate of 10 per cent of the sale price.

For the period beginning with November 1, 1942, the tax is payable by the manufacturer at the following rates:

25 per cent of the sale price. Cameras; lenses; photographic apparatus and equipment; and any apparatus or equipment designed especially for use in the taking of photographs or motion pictures, or in developing, printing, or enlarging photographs or motion pictures.

15 per cent of the sale price. Unexposed photographic films (including motion picture films but not including X-ray film); photographic plates; and sensitized paper.

In each case, the taxable sale price shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of §§ 316.8 to 316.15, inclusive.

PAR. 15. There is inserted immediately preceding § 316.130, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, the following:

SEC. 611. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN EXCISE TAXES. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

The taxes imposed by the following provisions shall not apply to the sale, by the manufacturer, producer, or importer, after the effective date of this Title, of the articles taxable under such provisions:

(a) Section 3406 (a) (5) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to tax on electric signs).

* * * * *

PAR. 16. There is inserted immediately following section 316.131, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, the following new section:

§ 316.132 Termination of tax. The tax imposed by section 3406 (a) (5) on sales of neon-tube signs, electric signs, and electric advertising devices by the manufacturer does not apply to sales made on and after November 1, 1942.

PAR. 17. There is inserted immediately preceding § 316.140, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, the following:

SEC. 615. EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN CASH REGISTERS. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

Section 3406 (a) (6) (relating to tax on business and store machines) is amended by inserting after "cash registers" the following: ", except cash registers of the type used in registering over-the-counter retail sales".

PAR. 18. Section 316.140 as added by Treasury Decision 5099, is amended by adding a new paragraph at the end thereof, as follows:

The tax does not apply to sales on and after November 1, 1942, of cash registers of the type used in registering over-the-counter retail sales.

PAR. 19. There is inserted immediately preceding § 316.150, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, the following:

SEC. 611. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN EXCISE TAXES. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

The taxes imposed by the following provisions shall not apply to the sale, by the manufacturer, producer, or importer, after the effective date of this Title, of the articles taxable under such provisons:

* * * * *

(b) Section 3406 (a) (7) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to tax on rubber articles).

* * * * *

PAR. 20. There is inserted immediately following § 316.151, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, the following new section:

§ 316.152 Termination of tax. The tax imposed by section 3406 (a) (7) on sales of rubber articles by the manufacturer does not apply to sales made on and after November 1, 1942.

PAR. 21. There is inserted immediately preceding § 316.160, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, the following:

SEC. 611. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN EXCISE TAXES. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

The taxes imposed by the following provisions shall not apply to the sale, by the manufacturer, producer, or importer, after the effective date of this Title, of the articles taxable under such provisions:

* * * * *

(c) Section 3406 (a) (8) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to tax on washing machines).

* * * * *

PAR. 22. There is inserted immediately following § 316.161, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, the following new section:

§ 316.162 Termination of tax. The tax imposed by section 3406 (a) (8) on sales of washing machines of the kind used in commercial laundries by the manufacturer does not apply to sales made on and after November 1, 1942.

PAR. 23. There is inserted immediately preceding § 316.170, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, the following:

SEC. 611. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN EXCISE TAXES. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title VI.)

The taxes imposed by the following provisions shall not apply to the sale, by the manufacturer, producer, or importer, after the effective date of this Title, of the articles taxable under such provisions:

* * * * *

(d) Section 3406 (a) (9) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to tax on optical equipment).

PAR. 24. There is inserted immediately following § 316.171, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, the following new section:

§ 316.172 Termination of tax. The tax imposed by section 3406 (a) (9) on sales of optical equipment by the manufacturer does not apply to sales made on and after November 1, 1942.

(Secs. 601, 607, 610, 611, 614, 615 and 618 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress, 2d Session), and section 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat., 467; 26 U.S.C., 3791).

AUTHORITY: §§ 1002.1 to 1002.34, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 729, 77th Cong., E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; Regs. of Economic Stabilization Director, dated October 27, 1942, 7 F.R. 8748.

SUBPART A—DEFINITIONS

§ 1002.1 General terms. When used in these regulations, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(a) The term "Act" means the Act of October 2, 1942 (Public No. 729, 77th Congress) entitled "An Act to amend the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, to aid in preventing inflation, and for other purposes".

(b) The term "Board" means the National War Labor Board created by Executive Order No. 9017, dated January 12, 1942 (7 F.R. 237).

(c) The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(d) The term "Code" means the Internal Revenue Code, as amended and supplemented.

(e) The term "person" has the same meaning as when used in the Code.

(f) The term "General Regulations" means regulations (relating to wages and salaries) issued by the Economic Stabilization Director, approved by the President on October 27, 1942 (7 F.R. 8748), and as amended or supplemented by subsequent regulations issued by the Economic Stabilization Director relating to wages and salaries.

(g) The term "in contravention of the Act" means in contravention of the Act of October 2, 1942 (referred to in paragraph (a) above), Executive Order No. 9250 of October 3, 1942 (7 F.R. 7871), the General Regulations, these regulations and other rulings and regulations promulgated under such Act.

§ 1002.2 Employee and employer. An employee, for the purposes of these regulations, is an individual who performs services for compensation where the relationship between him and the person for whom he performs the services is the legal relationship of employee and employer. An employer is any person for whom an individual performs any services, of whatever nature, as the employee of such person. The term "employer" is not limited to private persons engaged in trade or business, but includes organizations which, under section 101 of the Code, are exempt from income taxation, and also government departments and agencies. The existence of the legal relationship of employer and employee is to be ascertained in the light of the general purposes of the Act and the General Regulations.

Generally, the legal relationship of employer and employee exists when the person for whom services are performed has the right to control and direct the individual who performs the services, not only as to the result to be accomplished by the work done, but also as to the details and means by which that result is accomplished. An employee is generally subject to the will and control of the employer not only as to what shall be done but how it shall be done. In this connection it is unnecessary that the employer actually direct or control the precise manner in which the services are performed; it is sufficient that he has the right to do so. The right to discharge is also an important factor indicating that the person possessing that right is an employer.

Other factors characteristic of an employer, but not necessarily present in every case, are the furnishing of tools and the furnishing of a place to work to the individual who performs the services. In general, if an individual is subject to the control or direction of another merely as to the result to be accomplished by the work and not as to the means and methods for accomplishing the result, he is an independent contractor. An individual performing services as an independent contractor is not an employee as to such services. Physicians, lawyers, architects, contractors and others who follow an independent trade, business or profession in which they offer their services to the public are generally independent contractors and not employees. Whether the relationship of employer-employee exists will be determined upon an examination of the particular facts of each case.

If the relationship of employer and employee exists the designation or description of the relationship by the parties as anything other than that of employer and employee is immaterial. If such relationship exists, it is of no consequence that the employee is designated as a partner, co-adventurer, agent or independent contractor. The measurement, method, or designation of compensation is immaterial if the relationship of employer and employee thus in fact exists.

An officer of a corporation is an employee of the corporation but a director as such is not. A director may be an employee of the corporation, however, if he performs services for the corporation other than those required by attendance at and participation in meetings of the board of directors.

§ 1002.3 Executive employees. An individual "employed in a bona fide executive capacity" means any employee:

(a) Whose primary duty consists of the management of the establishment in which he is employed or of a customarily recognized department or subdivision thereof, and

(b) Who customarily and regularly directs the work of other employees, and

(c) Who has the authority to hire or fire other employees or whose suggestions and recommendations as to the hiring or firing and as to the advancement and promotion or any change of status of other employees will be given particular weight, and

(d) Who customarily and regularly exercises discretionary powers, and

(e) Who is compensated for his services on a salary basis at not less than $30 per week (exclusive of board, lodging, or other facilities), and

(f) Whose hours of work of the same nature as that performed by employees not employed in an executive, administrative or professional capacity do not exceed 20 percent of the total number of hours worked in the workweek by the employees under his direction: Provided, That this subparagraph (f) shall not apply in the case of an employee who is in sole charge of an independent establishment or a physically separated branch establishment.

§ 1002.4 Administrative employees. An individual "employed in a bona fide administrative capacity" means any employee:

(a) Who is compensated for his services on a salary or fee basis at a rate of not less than $200 per month (exclusive of board, lodging, or other facilities), and

(b) (1) Who regularly and directly assists an employee employed in a bona fide executive or administrative capacity (as such terms are defined in these regulations), where such assistance is nonmanual in nature and requires the exercise of discretion and independent judgment; or

(2) Who performs under only general supervision, responsible nonmanual office or field work, directly related to management policies or general business operations, along specialized or technical lines requiring special training, experience, or knowledge, and which requires the exercise of discretion and independent judgment; or

(3) Whose work involves the execution under only general supervision of special nonmanual assignments and tasks directly related to management policies or general business operations involving the exercise of discretion and independent judgment; or

(4) Who is engaged in transporting goods or passengers for hire and who performs, under only general supervision, responsible outside work of a specialized or technical nature requiring special training, experience, or knowledge, and whose duties require the exercise of discretion and independent judgment.

§ 1002.5 Professional employees. Any individual "employed in a bona fide professional capacity" means any employee who is:

(a) Engaged in work—

(1) Predominantly intellectual and varied in character as opposed to routine mental, manual, mechanical, or physical work, and

(2) Requiring the consistent exercise of discretion and judgment in its performance, and

(3) Of such a character that the output produced or the result accomplished cannot be standardized in relation to a given period of time, and

(4) Whose hours of work of the same nature as that performed by employees not employed in an executive, administrative or professional capacity do not exceed 20 percent of the hours worked in the workweek by such employees; provided that where such non-professional work is an essential part of and necessarily incident to work of a professional nature, this subparagraph (4) shall not apply, and

(5) (i) Requiring knowledge of an advanced type in a field of science or learning customarily acquired by a prolonged course of specialized intellectual instruction and study, as distinguished from a general academic education and from an apprenticeship, and from training in the performance of routine mental, manual, or physical processes; or

(ii) Predominantly original and creative in character in a recognized field of artistic endeavor as opposed to work which can be produced by a person endowed with general manual or intellectual ability and training, and the result of which depends primarily on the invention, imagination, or talent of the employee, and

(b) Compensated for his services on a salary or fee basis at a rate of not less than $200 per month (exclusive of board, lodging, or other facilities); provided that this paragraph (b) shall not apply in the case of an employee who is the holder of a valid license or certificate permitting the practice of law or medicine or any of their branches and who is actually engaged in the practice thereof.

§ 1002.6 Salary payments. The terms "salary" and "salary payment" mean only such salaries over which the Commissioner has jurisdiction. (See § 1002.10 of these regulations.) These terms are not used in any restricted, narrow or technical sense, but encompass all forms of direct or indirect compensation for personal services of an employee which is computed on a weekly, monthly, annual or other basis, other than wages (as defined in the General Regulations and in orders or rulings of the Board). Bonuses, gifts, loans, commissions, fees, additional compensation and any other remuneration in any form or medium whatsoever are considered as falling within the concept of "salary" or "salary payment". Any compensation which is not regarded as wages in the commonly accepted sense of the term is salary notwithstanding that it may be computed on an hourly, daily or piecework basis.

Retainer fees paid to an individual, not otherwise an employee, are not to be considered as salary. Insurance and pension benefits in a reasonable amount (see § 1002.8) are likewise excluded from the terms "salary" and "salary payment".

Although the terms "salary" and "salary payment" do not include any compensation other than for personal services of an employee, the Commissioner is not precluded from determining, after investigation, that amounts denominated, for example, as rents or royalties are in fact salary payments subject to the controls set forth in these regulations.

All amounts paid to, authorized to be paid to, or accrued to the account of any employee during a calendar year for services rendered or to be rendered are to be included as salary for such year.

§ 1002.7 Salary rate. The term "salary rate" means the rate or aggregate of rates or other basis at which the salary for any particular work or service is computed, either under the terms of a contract or agreement, express or implied, or in conformity with custom or usage existing in the employer's business establishment. For treatment of commissions and bonuses on a percentage basis see § 1002.14.

§ 1002.8 Insurance and pension benefits. Compensation may include insurance and pension benefits. In determining the amount of salary of an employee, the insurance or pension benefit inuring to such employee is not measured by what he will be entitled to receive after the happening of certain contingencies, but rather in terms of the amount of contributions or premiums paid by the employer. To the extent that an insurance and pension benefit inuring to an employee is reasonable in amount, such benefit is not considered as salary as defined in § 1002.6.

Section 165 (a) of the Code sets forth the conditions under which a trust forming part of a stock bonus, pension or profit-sharing plan of an employer for the exclusive benefit of his employees or their beneficiaries shall not be taxable for Federal income tax purposes. Contributions by an employer to an employees' trust or under an annuity plan, which trust or plan meets the exemption requirements of such section 165 (a) (as of the date the contributions are made), shall be considered as reasonable, regardless of the amount of such contributions. On the other hand, contributions by an employer to an employees' trust which is subject to Federal income taxation because it does not meet the requirements of such section 165 (a) shall be treated, for purposes of these regulations, as salary.

To the extent amounts paid by an employer on account of insurance premiums on a policy on the life of an employee are deductible by the employer in computing net income under the conditions set forth in section 23 (a) of the Code (relating to deductions for ordinary and necessary business expenses), such amounts are not considered as salary. The amount of insurance premiums that will be considered as falling outside the concept of salary cannot exceed the amount of such premiums deductible by the employer for Federal income tax purposes. If, however, such insurance premiums are includible in the gross income of the employee (for whose benefit the insurance has been taken out), as well as deductible by the employer, the amount which shall not be considered as salary in respect of such employee may not exceed 5 percent of the employee's annual salary determined without the inclusion of insurance and pension benefits.

The application of the preceding paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples. An employer having 20 salaried employees takes out life insurance policies on each of such employees in favor of beneficiaries designated by them. The premiums paid for 10 of the employees are in each instance 7 percent of the employee's annual salary (exclusive of insurance and pension benefits). As to the remaining 10 employees the premiums in each instance are 5 percent of the employee's annual salary (exclusive of insurance and pension benefits). It is assumed that with respect to each employee the premium paid would be includible in his gross income under the Code and would be deductible by the employer under section 23 (a) of the Code. As to the first 10 employees 2 percent of the premiums in each instance will be considered as salary, whereas no part of the premiums will be considered as salary in the case of the second group of employees. If, however, none of the premiums were deductible in computing the net income of the employer, then the entire amount of the premium in each instance would be considered as salary to the employee involved.

Premiums paid by an employer on policies of group life insurance without cash surrender value covering the lives of his employees, or on policies of group health or accident insurance, the beneficiaries of which are designated by such employees, do not constitute salary (regardless of the amount of salary otherwise received annually by such employees) if such premiums are deductible by the employer under section 23 (a) of the Code.

§ 1002.9 Approval by Commissioner. Wherever the terms "approval by the Commissioner" and "determination by the Commissioner" are used in these regulations they shall, except as otherwise provided, include an approval or determination by a regional officer of the Salary Stabilization Unit established by the Commissioner under Treasury Decision 5176, which officer is authorized to make such determination. If an approval or determination made by such regional officer is subsequently modified or reversed by the Commissioner, such approval or determination shall be deemed to have been continuously in effect from its original date until the first day of the payroll period following reversal or modification, or until such later date as the Commissioner may provide in his ruling.

To illustrate, an employer obtains the approval of a regional officer of the Salary Stabilization Unit that a proposed increase in certain salaries is permissible. The approval is given on January 2, 1943, and the salary increase is to become effective January 15, 1943. On March 15, 1943, the Commissioner determines that the salary increase was not proper and reverses the approval given by the regional officer. The Commissioner provides in his ruling that the increase in salary shall be discontinued after March 31, 1943. For purposes of these regulations, no part of the salary for the period between January 15 and March 31 shall be considered to have been in contravention of the Act.

SUBPART B—JURISDICTION OF COMMISSIONER

§ 1002.10 Amount of salary payment. (a) The General Regulations provide that the Commisisoner shall have authority to determine, under regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, whether salary payments are made in contravention of the Act. The Commissioner's jurisdiction is confined to:

(1) Salary payments in excess of $5,000 per annum, in the case of individuals employed in any capacity whatsoever; and

(2) Salary payments of $5,000 or less per annum, in the case of individuals (i) who are employed in bona fide executive, administrative or professional capacities, and (ii) who, in their relations with their employer, are not represented by duly recognized or certified labor organizations, and (iii) whose services are not within the meaning of "agricultural labor" as defined in paragraph (l) of § 4001.1 of the General Regulations.

Other salary payments are subject either to the jurisdiction of the Board or the Secretary of Agriculture, as prescribed in the General Regulations. If, for example, a salary is to be increased from $4500 per annum to $5200 per annum (and subparagraph (2) is inapplicable), approval of such increase, if required, must be obtained from the Board.

§ 1002.11 Conclusiveness of determination. (a) Any determination by the Commissioner that a salary payment is in contravention of the Act is conclusive in every respect upon all executive departments and agencies of the Federal Government for the following purposes:

(1) Determining costs or expenses of any employer for the purpose of any law or regulation, either heretofore or hereafter enacted or promulgated, including the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, or any maximum price regulation thereunder;

(2) Calculating deductions under the revenue laws of the United States; or

(3) Determining costs or expenses under any contract made by or on behalf of the United States.

(b) Any such determination of the Commissioner is final and not subject to review by The Tax Court of the United States or by any court in any civil proceedings. Nothing herein is intended, however, to deny the right of any employer or employee to contest in The Tax Court of the United States or in any court of competent jurisdiction the validity of:

(1) Any provision of these regulations, on the ground such provision is not authorized by law, or

(2) Any action taken or determination made under these regulations, on the ground that such action or determination is not authorized, or has not been taken or made in a manner required, by law.

(c) No increase in salary rate shall result in any substantial increase of the level of costs or furnish the basis either to increase price ceilings of the commodity or service involved or to resist otherwise justifiable reductions in such price ceilings.

§ 1002.12 Geographical scope. The provisions of these regulations shall not apply to salaries in any Territory or possession of the United States, except Alaska and Hawaii.

SUBPART C—SALARY INCREASES

§ 1002.13 Commissioner's approval required. Section 1 of the Act provides in effect that salaries, so far as practicable, shall be stabilized at the levels which existed on September 15, 1942. In the case of a salary rate of $5,000 or less per annum existing on October 27, 1942, or established thereafter in compliance with these regulations, and in the case of a salary rate of more than $5,000 per annum existing on October 3, 1942, or established thereafter in compliance with these regulations, no increase shall be made by the employer, except as provided in § 1002.14, without prior approval of such increase by the Commissioner. Any salary increase made before the required approval of the Commissioner is obtained is from the date of such increase in contravention of the Act. (See §§ 1002.28 and 1002.29 for the consequences of a salary payment made in contravention of the Act.) The Commissioner may, however, approve an increase in salary rate to be effective as of the date of the application for approval.

The burden of justifying an increase in salary rate shall in every instance be upon the employer seeking to make such increase. Increases in salary rates will not be approved unless necessary to correct maladjustments or inequalities, or to aid in the effective prosecution of the war. A promise made by an employer to his employees prior to October 3, 1942 that salaries would be increased in the future is generally to be ignored in determining whether an increase after that date should be approved. The same rule is applicable with respect to a promise made by an employer prior to October 27, 1942, in the case of employees whose salary rates are $5,000 or less per annum. A salary increase, however, may be approved, as to salaries below $5,000 per annum, if to deny such increase would be to force the continuation of a salary which is below the general level existing for the same or comparable work in the local area on September 15, 1942.

An employer who has established a new job classification, or who has begun business, after October 3, 1942, must obtain approval of the Commissioner for the payment of salaries for such job classification or in such new business: Provided, however, That if the salary rates in question are not in excess of those prevailing for similar job classifications within the local area, the approval of the Commissioner is not required. An increase in a salary rate for a job classification established after October 3, 1942, shall be subject to the limitations provided in this Subpart.

A mere change in the name, organization, or financial structure of an employer, whether such employer be an individual, partnership or corporation, will not in itself be sufficient for a finding that, for the purposes of these regulations, a new business has been begun or new job classification established after such change.

Any change in a salary rate, regardless of its effective date, which results from an award or decision of an arbitrator or referee made after October 3, 1942, in the case of salaries of more than $5,000 per annum, and after October 27, 1942 in the case of salaries of $5,000 or less per annum, is subject to the provisions of these regulations notwithstanding that the agreement or order for arbitration or reference was made on or before October 3, 1942 or October 27, 1942, as the case may be.

Unless otherwise expressly exempted, any change in a salary rate, provided for in any agreement existing as of October 3, 1942 in the case of salaries of more than $5,000 per annum, or as of October 27, 1942 in the case of salaries of $5,000 or less per annum, which is to take effect at some future date or on the happening of some future event, is subject to the provisions of these regulations regardless of when the agreement was made.

Payment for overtime will constitute an increase in salary rate, and thus will require the approval of the Commissioner, unless the customary practice of the employer has been to pay for overtime, and the rate has not been changed.

Except as may be otherwise provided from time to time by the Commissioner, an application for the approval of a salary increase shall be filed by the employer with the regional office of the Salary Stabilization Unit of the Bureau of Internal Revenue in whose territorial jurisdiction the main office or principal place of business of the employer is located. Such application shall be filed on forms prescribed by the Commissioner and shall contain such information as may be required by the Commissioner.

§ 1002.14 Commissioner's approval not required. The Commissioner's approval is not required where an increase in salary rate is made in accordance with the terms of a salary agreement or salary rate schedule in effect on October 3, 1942, or approved thereafter by the Commissioner, and is a result of:

(1) Individual promotions or reclassifications,

(2) Individual merit increases within established salary rate ranges,

(3) Operation of an established plan of salary increases based on length of service,

(4) Increased productivity under incentive plans,

(5) Operation of a trainee system, or

(6) Such other reasons or circumstances as may be prescribed in rulings or regulations promulgated by the Commissioner from time to time.

For purposes of this section, the term "salary agreement" or "salary rate schedule" may include a salary policy in effect on October 3, 1942, even though not evidenced by written contracts or written rate schedules. For example, a salary policy may be determined from previous payroll records or other payroll data. The existence of such policy, however, must be established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, and the burden of proof rests upon the employer. In such cases, the employer in advance of making an increase in salary rate may reduce the salary policy to writing and secure approval thereof by the Commissioner.

A bonus or other form of additional compensation which does not exceed in amount the bonus or other additional compensation to such employee for the last bonus year ending before October 3, 1942 does not require approval by the Commissioner. In addition a bonus based upon a fixed percentage of salary where the percentage has not been changed, does not require approval by the Commissioner even though the amount may be increased due to an authorized increase in salary. Any other bonus or other form of additional compensation requires approval by the Commissioner. Where the compensation, or part thereof, is paid on a commission basis and is based upon a fixed percentage (which has not been changed) of sales made by the employee, a payment does not require approval by the Commissioner even though the amount may represent an increase due to increased sales by the employee. See, however, Subpart F of these regulations.

The provisions of this section may be illustrated as follows:

(1) The X Corporation began business in 1940. As of July 1, 1942, pursuant to a corporate resolution duly passed in January 1942, all of its salaried employees received more than $5,000 per annum. No approval of the Commissioner is required to increase the salary of an employee who is promoted in November 1942 from a salesman to general manager and who receives a salary within the salary range paid previously to individuals occupying the position of general manager.

(2) The X Corporation in December 1942 wishes to establish a new salary rate schedule raising the level of compensation of all its salaried employees. Approval by the Commissioner of such schedule is required. Assuming that such approval has been obtained, further approval by the Commissioner of any adjustment under such schedule coming within this section is not required.

(3) The Y Corporation begins business on November 1, 1942. The salaries paid by it to its employees are commensurate with salaries paid by other employers in comparable businesses in the same local area. Payment of such salaries does not require the approval of the Commissioner. Any increase in salary rates, however, requires the approval of the Commissioner.

(4) The M Corporation, which has manufactured furniture since 1925, is reorganized in November 1942 and emerges from the reorganization proceedings as the N Corporation. There is no change in the nature of the business although there is a substantial alteration in the financial structure of the company. The N Corporation is not to be treated as a new employer beginning business after October 27, 1942. Consequently, any general increase in salaries over and above those paid by the M Corporation requires the prior approval of the Commissioner.

(5) Employees of the Z Corporation have customarily received a bonus of 5 percent of their annual salary at the end of each calendar year. If, for example, one of the employees received $6,000 in 1941 but received salary of $7,000 in 1942 due to a salary increase on July 1, 1942, a bonus of $350 may be paid to him for 1942 without prior approval of the Commissioner, notwithstanding that his bonus for 1941 was only $300.

SUBPART D—SALARY DECREASES

§ 1002.15 Salaries under $5,000. In the case of a salary rate existing as of the close of October 3, 1942, or established thereafter in compliance with these regulations, under which an employee is paid a salary of less than $5,000 per annum for any particular work, the general rule is that no decrease can be made by the employer in such salary rate below the highest salary rate paid for such work in the local area between January 1, 1942, and September 15, 1942. A decrease is permitted, however, with the approval of the Commissioner, in order to correct a gross inequity in any case or to aid in the effective prosecution of the war. Where such decrease is permitted the salary rate may be reduced below the highest salary rate paid for the work in question between January 1, 1942 and September 15, 1942. Except as otherwise provided in this section, any decrease in such salary rate after October 3, 1942 shall be considered in contravention of the Act if it is made prior to the approval thereof by the Commissioner.

Except as may be otherwise provided from time to time by the Commissioner, an application for approval of any salary decrease shall be filed in the same manner as in the case of an application for approval of a salary increase. See § 1002.13 of these regulations.

The Commissioner's approval is not required, for example, in the following cases where salary decreases are made after October 3, 1942:

(1) The new salary rate does not fall below the highest salary rate existing between January 1, 1942 and September 15, 1942 for the particular work in question or for the same or comparable work in the local area.

(2) An employee has been demoted to a lower position than that filled by him between January 1, 1942 and September 15, 1942 and the salary rate for such lower position is not less than the highest salary rate existing for that position during the same period.

(3) An employee has been relieved of substantial duties and responsibilities.

A disparity between salaries paid by a particular employer and those paid by employers generally in the local area does not necessarily constitute justification for decrease in salary rates paid by such employer.

§ 1002.16 Salaries over $5,000. In the case of a salary rate existing as of the close of October 3, 1942, or established thereafter in compliance with these regulations, under which an employee is paid a salary of more than $5,000 per annum, the employer is permitted to make, without approval by the Commissioner, a decrease to a rate not less than $5,000 per annum. If, however, by virtue of a decrease the new salary paid to the employee is less than $5,000 per annum, then the decrease below $5,000 per annum is subject to the limitations of § 1002.15 of these regulations. To the extent that prior approval by the Commissioner of a decrease is not required under § 1002.15 or this section, such decrease shall not be considered as being in contravention of the Act.

SUBPART E—GOVERNMENTAL EMPLOYEES

§ 1002.17 State and local employees. An adjustment in salaries (not fixed by statute, see § 1002.32) may be made by a State, or any political subdivision thereof, the District of Columbia, or any agency or instrumentality of any of the foregoing, on certification to the Commissioner that such adjustment is necessary to correct maladjustments, or to correct inequalities or gross inequities. The certification procedure shall not apply to any adjustment which would not otherwise require the Commissioner's approval or which would raise salaries beyond the prevailing level of compensation for similar services in the area or community. A certificate by the official or agency authorizing the adjustment stating the nature and amount of such adjustment, and briefly setting forth the facts meeting the foregoing requirement, will be accepted by the Commissioner as sufficient evidence of the propriety of the adjustment, subject to review by the Commissioner. Modification by the Commissioner of adjustments made by a governmental official or agency acting pursuant hereto shall not be retroactive.

In exceptional cases where such an adjustment is sought, and in all cases where the agency seeks an adjustment other than by the certification procedure, application for approval shall be filed with the appropriate regional office of the Salary Stabilization Unit.

SUBPART F—LIMITATIONS ON CERTAIN SALARIES

§ 1002.18 Basic allowance. In addition to setting forth limitations on increases and decreases in salary rates, the General Regulations provide a ceiling on the amount of salary which may be paid to any employee during a calendar year. The general rule is that no amount of salary may be paid or authorized to be paid to or accrued to the account of any employee or received by him during the calendar year 1943, and in each succeeding calendar year, which, after reduction by the Federal income taxes on the amount of salary, computed as below without regard to other income and without regard to deductions or credits, would exceed $25,000. Additional allowances of salary which may be permitted in certain circumstances are described in §§ 1002.19 to 1002.22, inclusive.

The amount of Federal income taxes referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be determined:

(1) By applying to the total amount of salary (but not including any amounts allowable under §§ 1002.19 to 1002.22, inclusive, of these regulations) paid or accrued during the calendar year in question, undiminished by any deductions, the rates of taxes imposed by Chapter 1 of the Code (except section 466 thereof relating to withholding) as if such total amount of salary were the net income (after the allowance of the appropriate credits), the surtax net income, and the Victory tax net income, respectively; and

(2) Without further allowance of any other credits against any of such taxes.

Assume that the rates imposed under Chapter 1 of the Code, as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, are applicable with respect to the calendar year 1943. Under the formula described in the preceding paragraph, the basic allowance of salary for 1943 (which after reduction by the Federal income taxes would yield $25,000) is $67,200. This latter amount is the maximum amount of salary which an employee would be permitted to receive for 1943, provided he is not entitled to further allowances under §§ 1002.19 to 1002.22, inclusive. If the rates of Federal income tax applicable for 1943 should be increased above those now existing in the Code for 1942, the basic allowance of salary will be an amount greater than $67,200.

The basic allowance of salary as described in this section represents an amount against which the appropriate tax rates are applied and remains the same regardless of whether the employee is married or single or of the number of his dependents, if any. It is likewise unaffected by the nature or amount of his other income (taxable or exempt) or by the extent of his deductions allowable for tax purposes generally.

For purposes of this subpart an amount of salary, in addition to the basic allowance of salary, will be permitted for any expenses paid or incurred by an employee which are ordinary and necessary for the performance of the services for which the employee is compensated. No such additional amount, however, shall be permitted for expenses which would not be deductible in computing individual Federal income taxes.

§ 1002.19 Charitable contributions. An amount of salary, in addition to the basic allowance of salary described in § 1002.18, will be permitted in certain circumstances to allow an employee to maintain his customary contributions to charitable, educational or other organizations described in section 23 (o) of the Code. Such additional amount of salary will be permitted if the employee establishes to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that after resorting to his other income from all sources he would suffer undue hardship in maintaining his customary contributions out of the basic allowance of salary described in the preceding section.

For purposes of this section and §§ 1002.20, 1002.21, and 1002.22, "income from all sources" includes income which is exempt under the Federal income tax laws.

What constitutes "undue hardship" for purposes of this section and §§ 1002.20, 1002.21, and 1002.22, is dependent upon all the circumstances in each case.

Contributions may be customary within the meaning of this section even though in the particular year in question the organizations to which the contributions are made are different from those to whom contributions were made in previous years.

§ 1002.20 Insurance premiums. An amount of salary, in addition to the basic allowance under § 1002.18 may be permitted to an employee under this section to meet certain payments during the employee's taxable year for insurance premiums. To be entitled to such extra allowance of salary the employee must establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that after resorting to other income from all sources (see § 1002.19) he is unable, without disposing of assets at a substantial financial loss resulting in undue hardship, to meet premium payments on policies of life insurance in force and effect on October 3, 1942 on his life.

The premium payments referred to in the preceding paragraph are those which are required to be met during the calendar year in question. No allowance for salary is permissible for payments of premiums which are due in future calendar years.

If any insurance has been permitted by an employee to lapse after October 3, 1942, no allowance for salary is permissible for payments of premiums on policies taken out after such date, even though the total annual premiums on the new policies are not in excess of the total annual premiums due on policies in effect on October 3, 1942. Renewal of policies in effect on October 3, 1942 (even though new premiums are higher) will not preclude applicability of this section to premium payments on the renewed policies. Generally, in the case of a conversion of a policy in effect on October 3, 1942 to a new policy requiring payment of higher premiums, this section is inapplicable to the annual amount by which the new premiums exceed the premiums in effect on October 3, 1942.

As used in this section, and §§ 1002.21 and 1002.22, substantial financial loss is not necessarily confined to a loss suffered on disposition of assets at depressed prices substantially below cost to the employee. The present value in use or in production of income and the potential future value are factors to be considered. For the purpose of this subpart, the provisions of the Code governing the determination of loss upon disposition of assets are not controlling.

§ 1002.21 Fixed obligations. An amount of salary in addition to the basic allowance under § 1002.18 may be permitted to an employee under this section to make required payments during the employee's taxable year on fixed obligations. Before any amount will be allowed under this section, the employee must establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that after resorting to his income from all sources (see § 1002.19), he is unable, without the necessity of disposing of assets at a substantial financial loss resulting in undue hardship, to meet required payments of fixed obligations for which he was obligated on October 3, 1942. (See § 1002.20.)

The term "fixed obligations" as used in this section means any enforceable liability of the employee the amount of which liability was fixed and determined on October 3, 1942. In no event is an allowance for salary permissable under this section for the payment of any amount due in future years.

§ 1002.22 Federal taxes. An amount of salary in addition to the basic allowance under § 1002.18 may be permitted to an employee, under this section, to meet payments during the employee's taxable year of certain Federal income taxes. To be entitled to such an additional allowance of salary the employee must establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that after resorting to his income from all sources (see § 1002.19), he is unable, without disposing of assets at a substantial financial loss resulting in undue hardship, to meet payments of certain Federal income taxes, more fully described below. (See § 1002.20.)

An allowance for additional salary is permissible in order to pay Federal income taxes owed by the employee himself for any prior taxable year, but is not permissible in order to pay any Federal income tax due on the basic allowance of salary under § 1002.18, except as this allowance is applicable for 1942. See § 1002.24. Thus, an amount for additional salary might be allowable in 1943 to meet the payment of the entire Federal income tax due on a salary received in 1942. In 1944 an amount for additional salary might be allowable to meet the payment of Federal income tax due on additional salary allowances permitted for 1943 under §§ 1002.19, 1002.20, 1002.21 and this section for 1943; but no amount, however, would be allowable to meet the payment of the Federal income tax due on the basic allowance under § 1002.18 for 1943.

§ 1002.23 Multiple employers. Salaries payable to an employee from more than one employer may, for purposes of Subpart F, be treated as if all such salaries were payable by a single employer, regardless of the financial or other relationship of the several employers. For example, individual A receives a salary as an employee of the X Corporation and also as an employee of its subsidiary, the Y Corporation. Both the X Corporation and the Y Corporation are required to adjust their salary arrangements with such employee to conform with the provisions of these regulations. If individual B is employed by the M Corporation and the N Corporation, both of whom are owned, directly or indirectly, by the same person or persons, the M Corporation and the N Corporation must adjust their salary arrangements with B to conform with the provisions of these regulations. If individual C is employed by the R Corporation and the S Corporation and both corporations have knowledge of that fact, they must adjust their salary arrangements with C to conform with the provisions of these regulations.

Where an individual is employed by two or more employers who, under these regulations, are required to make salary arrangements in order to conform with the provisions of Subpart F, such individual and employers will be deemed to be acting in contravention of the Act and these regulations if proper salary arrangements are not made. In any event, no employee may receive any salary in excess of that allowed under Subpart F. (See § 1002.30.)

§ 1002.24 Limitation on 1942 salaries. Unless payment thereof is required under a bona fide contract in effect on October 3, 1942, no amount of salary shall be paid or authorized to be paid to or accrued to the account of an employee or received by him after October 27, 1942 and before January 1, 1943, if the total salary paid, authorized, accrued or received for the calendar year 1942 exceeds the amount of salary which would otherwise be allowable under § 1002.18 (but not under §§ 1002.19 to 1002.22, inclusive) and also exceeds the total salary paid, authorized, accrued or received for the calendar year 1941. For purposes of this section, the term "bona fide contract" means a legally enforceable agreement, written or oral. Such an agreement may be evidenced by a bona fide resolution of a board of directors of a corporate employer passed on or before October 3, 1942. The amount allowable under § 1002.18 for 1942 (before reduction by any Federal income taxes) is $54.428.57.

§ 1002.25 Community property. The limitations on salaries provided for in §§ 1002.18 to 1002.24, inclusive, shall in nowise be affected by any community property law. For example, an employee resident in the State of R receives a salary in 1943 of $100,000. Under the laws of that State, $50,000 of that salary is deemed to be the property of the employee's wife. For purposes of these regulations, the employee's salary is $100,000, not $50,000.

§ 1002.26 Taxable year. For purposes of Subparts F and G of these regulations, the term "taxable year" of an employee shall mean the calendar year during which the salary in question is paid or authorized to be paid to or accrued to the account of such employee or received by him. This rule is applicable regardless of whether the employer or employee, or both, file Federal income tax returns for a fiscal year or report income, for Federal income tax purposes, on an accrual basis or on the cash receipts and disbursements basis.

§ 1002.27 Effective date. The provisions of this subpart, except as provided in § 1002.24, shall be applicable to all salaries paid or accrued after December 31, 1942, irrespective of when payment or accrual of such salary was authorized and irrespective, also, of any contract or agreement made prior to or after such date.

SUBPART G—EFFECT OF UNLAWFUL PAYMENTS

§ 1002.28 Amounts disregarded. (a) Section 5 (a) of the Act provides in effect that the President shall prescribe the extent to which any salary payment made in contravention of regulations promulgated under the Act shall be disregarded by executive departments and other governmental agencies in determining the costs or expenses of any employer for the purposes of any other law or regulation. In any case where a salary payment is determined by the Commissioner to have been made in contravention of the Act, the entire amount of such payment is to be disregarded by all executive departments and all other agencies of the Federal Government for the purposes of:

(1) Determining costs or expenses of any employer for the purpose of any law or regulation, either heretofore or hereafter enacted or promulgated, including the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, or any maximum price regulation thereof;

(2) Calculating deductions under the revenue laws of the United States; or

(3) Determining costs or expenses under any contract made by or on behalf of the United States.

A payment in contravention of the Act may be disregarded for more than one of the foregoing purposes.

(b) In the case of salaries decreased in contravention of the Act, the amount to be disregarded, as required by paragraph (a) of this section, is the amount of the salary actually paid or accrued by the employer at the reduced rate. Thus, if, for example, on November 1, 1942, a weekly salary rate of $100 has been unjustifiably reduced to $50 for the remainder of the calendar year 1942, the amount to be disregarded under paragraph (a) of this section is the total amount of salary paid at the weekly rate of $50.

(c) In the case of salaries increased in contravention of the Act, the amount to be disregarded, as required by paragraph (a) of this section, is the amount of the salary actually paid or accrued by the employer at the increased rate and not merely an amount representing an increase in such salary. Thus, if, for example, on November 1, 1942, a weekly salary rate of $100 in unjustifiably increased to $150 for the remainder of 1942, then the amount of salary to be disregarded for purposes of paragraph (a) of this section is the total amount paid at the weekly rate of $150. Also, if, for example, on February 1, 1943, a weekly salary rate of $100 is increased to $150 without prior required approval, but is restored to $100 on June 1, 1943, after formal disapproval by the Commissioner or regional officer, then the amount of salary to be disregarded for purposes of paragraph (a) of this section is the total amount at the weekly rate of $150. Neither, in the cases described in this paragraph nor in the case described in paragraph (b) of this section are the total amounts paid at the weekly rate of $100 to be disregarded for purposes of paragraph (a) of this section. (See § 1002.31 relating to salary allowances under section 23 (a) of the Code.)

(d) In the case of a salary in excess of the amount allowable under Subpart F of these regulations which is paid to, authorized to be paid to, or accrued to the account of an employee during his taxable year (as distinguished from the taxable year of the employer) in contravention of the Act, the amount to be disregarded is the full amount of such salary and not merely the amount representing the excess over the amount allowable under such Subpart F of these regulations. Thus, if, for example, under such Subpart F an employee would be entitled to receive a total salary during his taxable year of $67,200 for services rendered in such year, but actually receives $100,000 for such services, then the entire amount of $100,000 is to be disregarded for purposes of paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 1002.29 Criminal penalties. Section 5 (a) of the Act provides in substance that no employer shall pay, and no employee shall receive, any salaries in contravention of the regulations promulgated by the President under the Act. Section 11 of the Act provides that any person, whether an employer or employee, who wilfully violates any provision of the Act or of any regulation promulgated thereunder, shall be subject, upon conviction, to a fine of not more than $1,000, or to imprisonment for not more than one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 1002.30 Salary allowances under Code. Under section 23 (a) of the Code reasonable allowances for salaries are allowed as deductions in computing net income. The tests which determine whether an allowance for salaries paid or accrued is reasonable within the meaning of section 23 (a) of the Code are in nowise suspended by any provision of these regulations. An employer may be exempt from the operation of these regulations yet be denied deductions for purposes of section 23 (a) of the Code with respect to the salaries paid or accrued by him. Also, a basic allowance under § 1002.18 and additional allowances under §§ 1002.19 to 1002.22, inclusive, may nevertheless be disallowed in whole or in part as deductions under section 23 (a) of the Code.

SUBPART H—EXEMPTIONS

§ 1002.31 Exempt employers. The provisions of these regulations, except those contained in Subparts F and G thereof, shall not apply in the case of an employer who employs eight or less individuals in a single business. An employer is subject to the provisions of these regulations if at the time a salary increase is to take effect he has in his employ more than eight individuals in a single business. It is not necessary that each employee be paid a salary provided all the individuals employed receive compensation for their personal services. If it is subsequently determined that the number of employees has been temporarily reduced by the employer, or that the employer has utilized any other improper device, for the sole purpose of claiming the exemption provided in the General Regulations and these regulations, then such exemption shall be deemed to have been improperly obtained and of no force or effect.

An employer may be exempt under this section notwithstanding that shortly after the effective date of a salary increase he enlarges his personnel in good faith to more than eight employees. Any further adjustment in salary will then be subject to the provisions of these regulations.

§ 1002.32 Statutory salaries. The provisions of these regulations are applicable in every respect to any salary paid by the United States, any State, Territory, or possession or political subdivision thereof, the District of Columbia, or any agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing, except where the amount of such salary is fixed by statute. The term "statute" for purposes of this section does not include a municipal ordinance or resolution enacted by a governmental unit inferior to a State, Territory, or possession. Salaries covered by the Federal Classification Act of 1923, as amended, are excluded from the operation of these regulations. Likewise, salaries, for example, of public school teachers which are paid under salary schedules fixed by a state legislature and providing for mandatory increments are excluded from the operation of these regulations. (See § 1002.17.)

§ 1002.33 Services in foreign countries. The provisions of these regulations shall not be applicable in the case of any individual employer, resident in the United States or any Territory or possession thereof, or of a corporate employer organized under the laws of the United States or any State, Territory or possession, with respect to salaries paid by such employers to employees for services rendered exclusively in foreign countries.

§ 1002.34 Foreign employers. The provisions of these regulations shall not be applicable in the case of nonresident foreign employers except that if any salary is paid to an employee residing in the United States payment of such salary is subject to all the provisions of these regulations.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1705]

Part 321—Minimum Price Schedule District No. 1

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 1 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1 and for a change in shipping points.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1 and for a change in shipping points; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-I and R-II, and § 321.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof; and, commencing forthwith, the shipping points appearing in the aforesaid Supplement R-II for Mine Index Nos. 459, 460, 212, and 2010 shall be effective in place of the shipping points heretofore established for these mines.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: November 12, 1942.

Part 325—Minimum Price Schedule, District No. 5

ORDER CORRECTING AMENDMENT, ETC.

Order correcting amendment to final order in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 5 for revision of size group classifications for mines in District No. 5.

In Amendment R-VI attached to order of the Director dated September 22, 1942,[1] reducing the number of size group classifications established for coals produced in District No. 5, it is stated that the effective minimum prices for coals shipped into Market Area 21 shall be "the above prices plus 35 cents in all Size Groups."

It is apparent that an error has been made and the words "minus 35 cents" should have been used instead of "plus 35 cents."

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That effective September 22, 1942, § 325.6 (General prices) Amendment R-VI attached to the order of the Director dated September 22, 1942, 7 F.R. 7880, in Docket No. A-1482 be and it is hereby amended so as to read:

For shipment into Market Area No. 21. The effective minimum prices shall be the above prices minus 35 cents in all Size Groups.

Dated: December 1, 1942.

Director.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-167]

UNITED VALVE CORP.

The United Valve Corporation is a corporation doing business at 1260 Winslow Road, Cleveland, Ohio, and is engaged in the manufacture of brass plumbing supplies, fixtures and hardware. As early as February, 1942, its principal officers were aware, or should have been aware, of the various restrictions contained in the orders and regulations of the War Production Board affecting its business.

During the period from January 1, 1942, to June 30, 1942, the Company generated by its operations in each calendar month more than 2,000 pounds of copper or copper base alloy scrap and failed to file Form PD–226 for any of said months with the War Production Board, as required by Supplementary Order M–9–b. The failure to file said forms constituted a wilful violation of Supplementary Order M–9–b.

During the month of May, 1942, the Company delivered more than 6,000 pounds of copper or copper base alloy scrap to the Cleveland Brass Works, Cleveland, Ohio, although said Cleveland Brass Works was not specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations to receive such scrap. The delivery of such scrap as aforesaid constituted a wilful violation of Supplementary Order M–9–b.

Subsequent to May 6, 1942, the Company used chromium as a finish on plumbing fixture fittings and plumbing fixture trim without having obtained specific authority from the Director of Industry Operations. This constituted a wilful violation of Limitation Order No. L–42.

These violations of Supplementary Order M–9–b and Limitation Order No. L–42 have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing: It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.167 Suspension Order S–167. (a) Deliveries of material to The United Valve Corporation, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to The United Valve Corporation, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is covered by any order to the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve The United Valve Corporation, its successors and assigns, from any restrictions, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, whether now in force or hereafter issued, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order is to take effect December 4, 1942, and is to expire on June 4, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order are to be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 1st day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension order S-168]

CLEVELAND BRASS WORKS

Cleveland Brass Works, a partnership composed of Anthony Arth, Lawrence Arth and Mrs. Helen Arth, is a brass foundry located at 1525 East 49th Street, Cleveland, Ohio. As early as February, 1942, one or more of the aforementioned partners was aware, or should have been aware, of the various restrictions contained in the orders and regulations of the War Production Board affecting its business.

During the period from February 6, 1942, to May 7, 1942, the Cleveland Brass Works delivered 2,707 pounds of brass castings to Smolensky Valve Company on orders upon which preference ratings of A–10 or better had not been legally extended in accordance with the orders and regulations of the War Production Board. Subsequent to May 7, 1942, Cleveland Brass Works delivered 17,340 pounds of brass castings to the United Valve Corporation and the Empire Brass Company on orders which did not bear a preference rating of A–1–k or better. The deliveries of brass castings mentioned in this paragraph constituted wilful violations of General Preference Orders No. M–9–a and No. M–9–a as amended.

During the period from March 1, 1942, to June 30, 1942, Cleveland Brass Works made deliveries of approximately 263,000 pounds of brass castings to the American Brass Manufacturing Company on orders which bore no preference ratings. This constituted a wilful violation of General Preference Order No. M–9–a.

Subsequent to March 31, 1942, Cleveland Brass Works accepted deliveries of approximately 67,524 pounds of copper or copper base alloy scrap from the American Brass Manufacturing Company and the United Valve Corporation, which deliveries had not been authorized by the Director of Industry Operations. This constituted a wilful violation of Supplementary Order M–9–b.

During the period from March 31, 1942, to June 30, 1942, Cleveland Brass Works melted copper and copper base alloy scrap without having first received authority to do so from the Director of Industry Operations. This constituted a wilful violation of Supplementary Order No. M–9–b.

During the period from March 31, 1942, to June 30, 1942, Cleveland Brass Works had an inventory of copper or copper base alloy scrap and failed to file Form PD–121–b with the War Production Board for any month during said period. This constituted wilful violations of Supplementary Order No. M–9–b.

These violations of Supplementary Orders No. M–9–a and No. M–9–b have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing: It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.168 Suspension Order S–168. (a) Deliveries of material to the Cleveland Brass Works, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to the Cleveland Brass Works, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as hereafter specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve the Cleveland Brass Works, its successors and assigns, from any restrictions, prohibitions, or provisions contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, whether now in force or hereafter issued, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order is to take effect December 4, 1942, and is to expire on June 4, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order are to be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 FR 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 1st day of December 1942.

Director General for Operations.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-169]

AMERICAN BRASS MANUFACTURING CO.

The American Brass Manufacturing Company is a corporation engaged in the manufacture of brass plumbing supplies, fixtures and hardware at 1525 East 49th Street, Cleveland, Ohio. As early as February, 1942, its principal officers were aware, or should have been aware, of the various restrictions contained in the orders and regulations of the War Production Board affecting its business.

During the period from January 1, 1942, to June 30, 1942, the Company made deliveries of copper or copper base alloy scrap to the Cleveland Brass Works, although said Cleveland Brass Works was not authorized by the Director of Industry Operations to receive such scrap. The delivery of such scrap as aforesaid constituted a wilful violation of Supplementary Order No. M–9–b.

During the period from January 1, 1942, to June 30, 1942, the Company generated by its operations in each calendar month of said period more than 2,000 pounds of copper or copper base alloy scrap and failed to file Form PD–226 with the War Production Board for each of said months. This constituted a wilful violation of Supplementary Order No. M–9–b.

Subsequent to May 6, 1942, the Company used chromium as a finish on plumbing fixture fittings and plumbing fixture trim without having specific authority from the Director of Industry Operations. This constituted a wilful violation of Limitation Order No. L–42.

During the period from April 1, 1942, to June 30, 1942, the Company used, out of inventory, materials on the critical materials list attached to Priorities Regulation No. 11, of a value in excess of $5,000. Although, under these circumstances, it was required to file a PRP application with the War Production Board on Form PD–25–a not later than June 30, 1942, it failed to do so. This constituted a wilful violation of Priorities Regulation No. 11.

These violations of Supplementary Order No. M–9–b, Limitation Order No. L–42, and Priorities Regulation No. 11 have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing: It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.169 Suspension Order S–169. (a) Deliveries of material to the American Brass Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to the American Brass Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as hereafter specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve the American Brass Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, from any restrictions, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, whether now in force or hereafter issued, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order is to take effect December 4, 1942, and is to expire on June 4, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order are to be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 1st day of December 1942.

[Suspension Order S-170]

EMPIRE BRASS CO.

The Empire Brass Company is a corporation operating a brass foundry and brass mill located at 10301 Berea Road, Cleveland, Ohio, engaged in the manufacture of plumbing supplies, fixtures and hardware. As early as February, 1942, its principal officers were aware, or should have been aware, of the various restrictions contained in the orders and regulations of the War Production Board affecting its business.

During the period from February 6, 1942 to May 31, 1942, the Company delivered substantial quantities of brass castings to the American Brass Manufacturing Company and the United Valve Corporation on orders which bore no preference ratings. This constituted a wilful violation of General Preference Order No. M–9–a.

During the period from January 1, 1942, to June 30, 1942, the Empire Brass Company transferred a substantial quantity of copper or copper base alloy scrap from its machine shop to its foundry without specific authorization from the War Production Board. This constituted a wilful violation of Supplementary Order No. M–9–b.

During the period from January 1, 1942, to June 30, 1942, the Empire Brass Company generated by its operations during each calendar month in said period more than 2,000 pounds of copper or copper base alloy scrap, and failed to file Form PD–226 with the War Production Board for each month, except for the month of February, 1942. This constituted a wilful violation of Supplementary Order No. M–9–b.

During the period from March 31, 1942 to June 30, 1942, the Empire Brass Company melted copper or copper base alloy scrap without specific authority from the War Production Board. This constituted a wilful violation of Supplementary Order No. M–9–b.

During the months of May and June, 1942, the Empire Brass Company had an inventory of copper or copper base alloy scrap and failed to file Form PD–121–b with the War Production Board. This constituted a wilful violation of Supplementary Order No. M–9–b.

Subsequent to May 6, 1942, the Empire Brass Company used chromium as a finish on plumbing fixture fittings and plumbing fixture trim. This constituted a wilful violation of Limitation Order No. L–42.

These violations of General Preference Order No. M–9–a, Supplementary Order No. M–9–b and Limitation Order No. L–42 have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing: It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.170 Suspension Order S–170. (a) Deliveries of material to The Empire Brass Company, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as hereafter specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to The Empire Brass Company, its successors and assigns, of any materials the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as hereafter specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve The Empire Brass Company, its successors and assigns, from any restrictions, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, whether now in force or hereafter issued, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order is to take effect December 4, 1942, and is to expire on June 4, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order are to be of no further effect.

PART 1141—MOTOR FUEL

[Limitation Order L-70, as Amended Dec. 1, 1942]

Section 1141.1 (Limitation Order L-70) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of any applicable priorities regulation issued by the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Motor fuel" means liquid fuel, except Diesel fuel, used for the propulsion of motor vehicles or motor boats and shall include any liquid fuel to which Federal gasoline taxes apply except liquid fuel used for the propulsion of aircraft.

(3) "Supplier" means any person, other than a service station, who delivers motor fuel, directly or indirectly, for redelivery or for consumption.

(c) Limitation on shipment of motor fuel from certain areas. (1) No supplier shall deliver or cause to be delivered, directly or indirectly, and no person shall accept delivery of any motor fuel from any point within the States of Oregon or Washington to any point in the United States outside such States: Provided, That this paragraph shall not apply to:

(i) The delivery outside the States of Oregon or Washington of any motor fuel manufactured wholly from crude oil or natural gas produced within the States of Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Utah, or Wyoming.

(ii) Deliveries from bulk plants within the States of Oregon or Washington to such points outside such States as were actually served by such bulk plants by tank truck during the period December 1, 1941-February 28, 1942, inclusive.

(2) Effective December 15, 1942, no supplier shall deliver or cause to be delivered, directly or indirectly, and no person shall accept delivery of any motor fuel from any point within the States of Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Vermont, Virginia, or West Virginia, or the District of Columbia, to any point in the United States outside such States: Provided, That this paragraph shall not apply to deliveries from bulk plants within such States to such points outside such States as were actually served by such bulk plants by tank truck during the period December 1, 1941-February 28, 1942, inclusive.

(d) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may file an appeal setting forth the pertinent facts and reasons why he considers himself entitled to relief. All appeals shall be filed in quadruplicate.

(e) Appeals and correspondence. All appeals filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the District Director of Marketing, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War at:

(1) 855 Subway Terminal Building, Los Angeles, California, if the motor fuel is to be used in the States of Oregon or Washington or states adjacent thereto.

(2) 122 East 42nd Street, New York, New York, if the motor fuel is to be used in the States of Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Vermont, Virginia, or West Virginia, or the District of Columbia or states adjacent thereto.

(f) Violations or false statements. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who wilfully furnishes false information to any Department or Agency of the United States in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 1st day of December 1942.

PART 1028—DOMESTIC COOKING APPLIANCES

[Limitation Order L-23-c as Amended Dec. 2, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of critical materials for defense, for private account, and for export, which are used in the production of domestic cooking appliances and domestic heating stoves; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1028.4 Supplementary General Limitation Order L-23-c—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Domestic cooking appliances" means gas ranges, cooking stoves, and hot plates for household use; coal and wood ranges and cooking stoves (including laundry stoves) for household use; kerosene, fuel oil, and gasoline ranges, cooking stoves, table stoves, and hot plates for household use; combination ranges (including kitchen heater and bungalow types), except electric, for household use; camp and trailer stoves for cooking purposes; and fuel oil conversion range burners.

(2) "Domestic heating stoves" means any above the floor device (except electric) for the direct heating of the space in and adjacent to that in which the device is located, designed for use without heat distribution pipes or ducts as integral parts of such heating devices.

(3) "Iron and steel used" means the aggregate weight of iron and steel contained in the finished products manufactured.

(4) "Factory sales value" means the aggregate value of shipments of domestic cooking appliances and domestic heating stoves.

(5) "Class A manufacturers" means those manufacturers of domestic cooking appliances and/or domestic heating stoves whose factory sales value for the twelve months ending June 30, 1941, including both domestic sales and exports, was $2,000,000 or more.

(6) "Class B manufacturers" means those manufacturers of domestic cooking appliances and/or domestic heating stoves whose factory sales value for the twelve months ending June 30, 1941, including both domestic sales and exports, was less than $2,000,000 and who are located in labor shortage areas.

(7) "Class C manufacturers" means those manufacturers of domestic cooking appliances and/or domestic heating stoves whose factory sales value for the twelve months ending June 30, 1941, including both domestic sales and exports, was less than $2,000,000 and who are not located in labor shortage areas.

(8) "Accessories" for domestic cooking appliances means closets, shelves, aprons, clocks, cast broiler pans, thermometers, or any other instruments, attachments, or appurtenances (except thermostats, reservoirs, water backs and portable ovens), not essential to any of the following three major cooking operations: top-burner cooking, oven baking and oven broiling.

[Preceding subparagraph in small type to be superseded by following subparagraph December 26, 1942]

(8) "Accessories" for domestic cooking appliances means thermostats, closets, shelves, aprons, clocks, cast broiler pans, thermometers or any other instruments, attachments, or appurtenances (except reservoirs, water backs and portable ovens) not essential to any of the following three major cooking operations: top-burner cooking, oven baking and oven broiling. This paragraph (a) (8) shall become effective on the 26th day of December 1942.

(9) "Permitted type gas range" means any domestic cooking appliance using gas as fuel, and which has not more than four top-burners, one baking oven and one broiler, no storage space or accessories, and which has a total weight of metal not exceeding 100 pounds.

(10) "Permitted type gas hot plate" means any domestic cooking appliance using gas as fuel, and which has not more than three burners, and which has a total weight of metal not exceeding 15 pounds.

(11) "Permitted type coal or wood range" means any domestic cooking appliance equipped to burn either coal or wood, which has one baking oven, and which has no storage space, warming closet, or accesories.

(12) "Permitted type combination range" means any domestic cooking appliance equipped to burn gas and coal or wood, and which has one baking oven and one broiler, no storage space or accessories, and which has a total weight of metal not exceeding 350 pounds.

(13) "Permitted type kerosene and/or gasoline range" means any domestic cooking appliance equipped to burn either kerosene or gasoline, and which has not more than three top-burners, one baking oven, no storage space or accessories, and which has a total weight of metal not exceeding 90 pounds.

(14) "Permitted type kerosene and/or gasoline stove" means any domestic cooking appliance equipped to burn either kerosene or gasoline, and which has no storage space or accessories, not more than three burners, and which has a total weight of metal not exceeding 45 pounds.

(15) "Permitted type kerosene and/or gasoline table stove" means any domestic cooking appliance equipped to burn either kerosene or gasoline, and which has not more than three burners, and which has a total weight of metal not exceeding 18 pounds.

(16) "Permitted type portable oven" means a portable oven which has no acessories and which has a total weight of metal not exceeding 17 pounds.

(17) "Permitted type domestic cooking appliances" means only those domestic cooking appliances defined in paragraphs (a) (9) to (a) (16), both inclusive.

(18) "Labor shortage area" means any one of the following localities:

Alabama: Huntsville.
California: Beverly Hills, Culver City, Huntington Park, Irvington, Los Angeles, Monrovia, North Hollywood, Oakland, Petaluma, San Francisco, San Rafael, Stockton.
Connecticut: Hartford, New Britain.
Indiana: Indianapolis, South Bend.
Kansas: Wichita.
Maine: Portland.
Maryland: Baltimore, Perryville.
Michigan: Milan.
New Hampshire: Salmon Falls.
New Jersey: Cranford, Newark, West Berlin.
New York: North Tonawanda.
Ohio: Akron, Cleveland, Massillon.
Oregon: Portland.
Pennsylvania: Erie, Lansdale, Middletown, Philadelphia, Pottstown, Royersford.
Washington: Everett, Seattle.

(19) "Base period" means the twelve months' period, July 1, 1940, to June 30, 1941.

(b) General restrictions. (1) After July 31, 1942, no person shall manufacture any domestic cooking appliances except permitted type domestic cooking appliances.

(2) After July 31, 1942, no Class A manufacturer and no Class B manufacturer shall manufacture any domestic cooking appliances or any domestic heating stoves.

(3) During the period from January 1, 1942, to and including July 31, 1942, no Class A manufacturer and no Class B manufacturer shall use in the production of domestic cooking appliances more iron and steel than six times the average monthly amount used by him in the base period.

(4) During the period from May 15, 1942 to July 31, 1942, no Class A manufacturer and no Class B manufacturer shall use in the production of domestic heating stoves more iron and steel than three times the average monthly amount used by him in the base period.

(5) From and after June 30, 1942, no Class C manufacturer shall use in any calendar quarter in the production of domestic cooking appliances iron and steel in excess of three times 70% of the monthly average of iron and steel used by him in the manufacture of domestic cooking appliances during the base period.

(6) From and after December 31, 1942, no Class C manufacturer shall use in any calendar quarter in the production of domestic heating stoves iron and steel in excess of three times 50% of the monthly average of iron and steel used by him in the manufacture of domestic heating stoves during the base period.

(7) After July 31, 1942, the average weight of iron and steel used per unit by any manufacturer in domestic heating stoves shall not exceed 70% of the average weight of iron and steel used per unit by such manufacturer in the production of domestic heating stoves during the base period.

(8) After July 31, 1942, the average weight of iron and steel used per unit by any manufacturer in permitted type coal or wood ranges shall not exceed 70% of the average weight of iron and steel used per unit by such manufacturer in the production of coal and/or wood burning domestic cooking appliances during the base period.

(9) After July 31, 1942, no manufacturer of domestic cooking appliances shall produce more than one model of permitted type gas ranges.

(10) [Revoked]

(11) No manufacturer of domestic cooking appliances shall:

(i) Use any iron or steel in the production of cover tops or lids to cover the cooking surfaces of domestic cooking appliances when not in use, or

(ii) Produce or assemble any domestic cooking appliances equipped with such cover tops or lids containing any iron or steel.

(12) Until January 1, 1943, no Class C manufacturer, who in the base period produced any combination ranges or domestic cooking appliances using coal or wood as fuel and any domestic heating stoves using coal or wood as fuel, may produce any permitted type combination range or any permitted type coal or wood range except for delivery to or the account of the Federal Public Housing Authority. Nothing in this subparagraph, however, shall restrict the manufacture of any permitted type combination range or any permitted type coal or wood range all of the parts for which on the 9th day of November, 1942 were completed or in the process of manufacture.

(13) From October 1, 1942 through December 31, 1942, no Class C manufacturer shall use in the production of domestic heating stoves using coal or wood as fuel any iron or steel in excess of three times 50% of the monthly average of iron and steel used by him in the manufacture of domestic heating stoves during the base period plus three times 70% of the monthly average of iron and steel used by him in the manufacture of domestic cooking appliances during the base period.

(c) Replacement parts. Nothing in this order shall be construed to prohibit or limit the production, by any manufacturer, of replacement parts for domestic cooking appliances or domestic heating stoves.

(d) No interference with production of war materials. No manufacturer shall divert materials, labor, or equipment from the production of war materials to enable him to use in the production of domestic cooking appliances and domestic heating stoves the quantities of iron and steel permitted under paragraphs (b) (3) and (b) (4).

(e) Equipment for the armed forces and the Maritime Commission. None of the restrictions or limitations in this order shall apply to domestic cooking appliances or domestic heating stoves manufactured after July 31, 1942, by Class C manufacturers to specifications of the Army, the Navy or the Maritime Commission of the United States.

(f) Applicability of the order. Insofar as any other order issued, or to be issued hereafter, limits the use of any material in the production of domestic cooking appliances or domestic heating stoves to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions in such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

(g) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(h) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(i) Reports. Each manufacturer to whom this order applies shall file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time specify.

(j) Provision for companies under common ownership. For the purposes of this order, a manufacturer's classification into Class "A" or Class "B" or "C" shall depend upon the total factory sales value of that manufacturer, including in the total of such factory sales value the factory sales value of all subsidiaries, affiliates, or other companies or enterprises under common ownership or control.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Appeals. Any manufacturer affected by this order, who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in his community, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter directed to the Director General for Operations, Social Security Building, Washington, D. C., setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(m) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provisions hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(n) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–23–c.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Laws 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 2d day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1109—MICA

[Conservation Order M-101 as Amended Dec. 2, 1942]

Section 1109.1 Conservation Order M–101 is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

§ 1109.1 Conservation Order M-101—(a) Definitions. (1) The term "strategic mica" means:

(i) Muscovite block mica in the rifted condition (partially or fully trimmed) usually sold by the miner or rifting shop, that is of a quality better than black or red stained, whether or not cut, stamped, split or punched to predetermined shape or dimensions, excluding scrap, or

(ii) Phlogopite (amber) block mica in the rifted condition (partially or fully trimmed) usually sold by the miner or rifting shop, that is of a quality which does not expand over 50 percent and will not calcine at 1500° F., whether or not cut, stamped, split or punched to predetermined shape or dimensions, excluding scrap, or

(iii) Phlogopite (amber) bookform splittings in grades (sizes) larger than No. 5, but not including any other form of mica splittings, either amber or muscovite, of the types used for making built-up mica products.

(2) The term "scrap" means that part of strategic mica remaining after a piece or pieces have been cut, stamped or punched therefrom if such remnant is of a grade (size) too small to permit the cutting of two pieces ½'' x ½'', as well as mine waste if no commercial grade (size) larger than No. 7 can be trimmed therefrom.

(3) The term "to fabricate or cause another to fabricate" means to punch or to change in any manner the form, shape or size of strategic mica or to cause another to punch or change in any manner the form, shape or size of strategic mica, unless such fabricating is for the purpose of making emergency repairs or emergency replacements to prevent a threatened breakdown when such repair or replacement is made on the premises of the owner of the article being repaired.

(4) The term "product containing strategic mica" means a part into which completely fabricated strategic mica is assembled, installed or inserted, such as a spark plug, condenser, or radio tube.

(5) The term "end-product" means the finished article in the form ready for delivery to the ultimate consumer, such as a tank or radio receiving set.

(6) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(b) Restrictions on fabrication and causing of fabrication of strategic mica. (1) On and after the effective date of this amended order, no person shall fabricate or cause another to fabricate any strategic mica for any purpose unless each person fabricating or causing another to fabricate the strategic mica has been specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations to do so in the particular manner in which it is being done pursuant to an application made under the provisions of paragraph (b) (4) of this amended order.

(2) On and after the effective date of this amended order, no manufacturer of a product containing strategic mica shall at any time or for any purpose:

(i) Fabricate or cause another to fabricate strategic mica of a quality better than is necessary for the particular purpose to which the strategic mica will be put; or

(ii) Fabricate or cause another to fabricate strategic mica for use where the substitution of non-strategic mica or other material is practicable.

(3) On and after the effective date of this amended order, no fabricator shall at any time or for any purpose fabricate strategic mica of a grade (size) larger than is required to yield the particular pattern desired. Whenever a piece or pieces of required dimensions are cut or stamped from strategic mica with a resultant remnant large enough so that two pieces ½'' x ½'' can be cut therefrom, such remnant shall be deemed and treated hereunder as strategic mica of the same quality as the original mica from which the piece or pieces are cut.

(4) Application to the Director General for Operations for specific authorization to fabricate or cause another to fabricate strategic mica shall be made by the manufacturer of the product containing strategic mica and by the person, if any, fabricating strategic mica for such manufacturer, on Form PD–480 Revised, or otherwise; and the authorization, if secured, shall apply to such manufacturer and to the person, if any, fabricating strategic mica for such manufacturer pursuant to the terms of the authorization.

(5) The Director General for Operations may at any time, either before or after authorization is granted, require satisfactory evidence from the manufacturer of any end-product into which the product containing strategic mica is to be assembled, installed or inserted, or from the manufacturer of the product containing strategic mica, that a lesser quantity or a lower quality of strategic mica could not be or could not have been used than the quantity or quality applied for, or that non-strategic mica or other materials could not be or could not have been used as a substitute for strategic mica.

(c) Restrictions on delivery of unfabricated domestic strategic mica. After the effective date of this amended order, no person (other than Colonial Mica Corporation, as agent of Metals Reserve Company) shall deliver any strategic mica mined in the United States which has not been cut, stamped, split or punched to predetermined shape or dimensions to any person (other than Colonial Mica Corporation, as agent of Metals Reserve Company), unless specifically authorized to do so by the Director General for Operations. Application for such an authorization shall be made by letter, which need only state the amount and grade (size) of the strategic mica which the applicant seeks permission to acquire and the name of the mine from which it is to be or has been mined. Authorization to deliver such strategic mica must be obtained not only when delivery is made by one person to another person, including an affiliate or subsidiary, but also when delivery is made from one branch, division or section of a single person to another branch, division or section of the same or any other person under common ownership or control, such as from a rifting shop or department to a fabricating shop or department owned by the same person.

(d) Reports. Every person fabricating strategic mica shall make a report on Form PD–325 Revised, covering any fabricating of strategic mica done by him in each month in which fabrication of such mica takes place, and every such person and every other person having in his possession strategic mica which has not been cut, stamped, split or punched to predetermined shape or dimensions shall, as of the end of each month beginning with November, 1942, make a report on Form PD–325 Revised, covering his inventory position with respect to such unfabricated strategic mica at the end of each such month. Such reports shall be filed with the War Production Board within fifteen days of the end of the month as of which the report is made. No report need be filed for a given month if the total quantity of strategic mica fabricated during the month is less than 10 pounds, unless the inventory position of the person fabricating less than 10 pounds of strategic mica or of a person not fabricating any strategic mica at all, contains more than 100 pounds of strategic mica which has not been cut, stamped, split or punched to predetermined shape or dimensions or such unfabricated strategic mica of a value in excess of $100.00.

(e) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of paragraphs (b) (2) and (3) of this amended order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(2) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(3) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply to fabricating or causing another to fabricate strategic mica after the effective date of this amended order irrespective of whether such articles are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to such effective date. Insofar as any other order of the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations, or of the Director General for Operations may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided fabricating or causing another to fabricate strategic mica, the limitations of such other order shall be observed.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all appeals and other communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Mica-Graphite Division, Washington, D. C., Reference: M–101.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(6) Effective date. This amended order shall take effect December 10, 1942.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 2d day of December 1942.

PART 3122—ELECTRICAL MOTORS AND GENERATORS

[General Conservation Order L–221]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials and facilities used in the manufacture of electric motors for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3122.1 General Conservation Order L–221—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Motor" means any new rotating equipment or device used to transform electric energy into mechanical energy, and having a rating of one horsepower or more; except motors used in the operation of passenger automobiles, trucks, truck trailers, passenger carriers and off-the-highway motor vehicles, as defined in Order L–158, or in the operation of stationary automotive type engines.

(3) "Generator" means any new rotating equipment or device used to transform mechanical energy into electric energy, and having a rating of not less than ¾ KW and not more than 6000 KW; except generators used in the operation of passenger automobiles, trucks, truck trailers, passenger carriers and off-the-highway motor vehicles, as defined in Order L–158, or in the operation of stationary automotive type engines.

(4) "Manufacture" means the fabrication or assembly of motors or generators.

(5) "Manufacturer" means any enterprise to the extent that it is engaged in the business of manufacturing motors or generators.

(6) "Dealer" means any enterprise to the extent that it acquires motors or generators for resale.

(7) "Used motor or generator" includes reconditioned and rebuilt motors or generators.

(8) "Delivery" includes delivery of a motor or generator from one affiliate to another or from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same enterprise where the recipient affiliate, branch, division or section will use the motor or generator or incorporate it into other machinery.

(9) "Order" means any commitment or other arrangement for the delivery of a new motor or generator whether by purchase, lease, rental or otherwise.

(10) "Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration" does not include any privately operated plant or shipyard financed by, or controlled by any of those organizations, or operated on a cost-plus-fixed-fee basis.

(b) Restrictions on acceptance and delivery of orders. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, on and after December 10, 1942, no manufacturer or dealer shall accept any order for, or deliver, any motor or generator, and no person shall accept delivery thereof from a manufacturer or dealer unless:

(i) The purchaser shall have no idle motor or generator in his possession which is adaptable to the purpose for which the new motor or generator is sought to be purchased;

(ii) The purchaser shall have attempted to obtain, from at least three dealers, a used motor or generator for the purpose for which the new motor or generator is sought to be purchased: Provided, however, That the provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply to any order for 10 or more new motors of an identical kind and rating by a purchaser who fabricates or assembles machinery or equipment into which such motors will be incorporated;

(iii) The motor or generator is not purchased for replacement of existing equipment; and

(iv) The motor or generator is required for installation within the shortest practicable time after delivery and is not for standby purposes. As applied to a person who purchases motors or generators for incorporation into other machinery manufactured by him, "installation" as used above refers only to such incorporation and not to the use of the other machinery. For the purpose of this subparagraph, a motor or generator shall be deemed installed (and not standby) equipment when it is connected to the purchaser's load and electrical system, notwithstanding that the purpose of such equipment may be emergency relief service.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (b) (1) shall not apply to (i) any order for motors or generators for the use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, or for incorporation into any machinery or equipment to be used by said agencies, or (ii) any order for special motors, by a person who fabricates or assembles machinery or equipment into which such special motors are to be incorporated: Provided, That, as of the date of this order, such special motors were required by the function and design of such machinery or equipment. As used in this subparagraph, the term "special motor" means any motor other than a general purpose, horizontal, continuous duty, open type 40° C. rise motor.

(c) Restrictions on types of motors. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein or authorized by the Director General for Operations, on and after December 10, 1942 no manufacturer or dealer shall accept any order for any motor; and on and after February 1, 1943 no manufacturer or dealer shall deliver, and no person shall accept delivery from a manufacturer or dealer, of any motor; unless the motor is in compliance with the following standards and is otherwise of the simplest practicable mechanical and electrical design:

(1) Mechanical and electrical design. The following minimum standards shall be applied with respect to electrical and mechanical design:

(i) No motor shall have a temperature rise less than 40° C, for open type; 50° C, for splash-proof type; and 55° C for totally enclosed type motors: Provided, however, That the temperature rise of the motor may vary from the above standards to the extent that the manufacturer has heretofore provided tolerance therefrom in his design and manufacture of the same or a similar type motor rated 40° C, 50° C, or 55° C, as the case may be.

(ii) No motor shall include a special enclosure to make it other than open type; except that (a) a motor may be explosion proof type if it is to be used in a Class I hazardous location, as defined in Paragraph 5005, Article 500, Chapter 5 of the National Electrical Code approved by the American Standards Association August 7, 1940; (b) a motor may be totally enclosed if it is to be used in a Class II hazardous location, as defined in Paragraph 5006, Article 500, Chapter 5 of the above Code, or if it is to be used generally in an atmosphere which is corrosive or which contains such quantities of material particles, dust or fumes as to be destructive of an open type motor; (c) a motor may be splash-proof type in any case where the motor is to be permanently installed outdoors without other protection or where the motor will be subjected to continually falling material particles, or to drops of splashing or jet propelled liquids falling at regular intervals of not less than once a day; and that (d) the provisions of this paragraph (c) (1) (ii) shall not apply to any motor to be used on board any vessel owned or operated by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration: Provided, however, That in any case where the requirements of General Limitation Order L–147, or any action taken by the Director General for Operations thereunder shall be more restrictive than the requirements of this subparagraph, the former shall apply.

(iii) Where practicable, AC polyphase motors shall be single voltage.

(iv) All alternating current multi-speed motors shall be single-winding; except motors for use in metal cutting machines.

(v) No motor shall be of slip ring type, except for hoist, crane, conveyor, elevator, tow, or dragline duty.

(vi) No motor shall be direct current type; except (a) where only direct current is available to the user; or (b) for use on a metal cutting machine or on testing equipment; or (c) where speed matching is required.

(vii) No direct current motor shall have a lower base speed than as prescribed below:

Horsepower rating:	Minimum base speed
1 to 5 incl	600 r. p. m.
5.1 to 25 incl	450 r. p. m.
25.1 to 75 incl	400 r. p. m.
75.1–200	300 r. p. m.

(2) Horsepower loading. The following standards shall be applied in determining horsepower loads for motor ratings:

(i) Horsepower required for purposes of ascertaining load as provided herein shall be determined by test or, where test is impossible, by careful calculation or comparison with known power requirements of similar apparatus.

(ii) Where the motor rated voltage will be maintained and the ambient temperature, normally, will be below 40° C, and will only occasionally, and for short periods, equal or exceed 40° C: (a) in the case of alternating current motors rated 40° C open type, continuous duty, the horsepower rating shall be not more than 80% of the determined horsepower load; (b) in the case of alternating current or direct current motors rated 50° C semi-enclosed, or 55° C totally enclosed, continuous duty, the horsepower rating shall be not more than 91% of the determined horsepower load; and (c) in the case of direct current motors rated 40° C open type, continuous duty, the horsepower rating shall be not more than 87% of the determined horsepower load: Provided, however, That in any case where the application of any of the above formulae results in a horsepower rating, which is not a standard horsepower rating, the rating may be the standard horsepower rating next above the rating resulting from the application of the formula.

Example: Where the horsepower required as determined in subdivision (i), is 9.3 HP, of which 80% would be 7.44, a motor not exceeding 7.5 standard HP should be delivered.

(3) Speed. The following minimum standards shall be applied in determining motor speed:

(i) All alternating current motors, 25 horsepower and below shall have a synchronous speed of at least 1800 R. P. M. at 60 cycles (four pole winding), and corresponding speeds at other frequencies: Provided, however, That in any case where the purchaser deems such speed impracticable he shall endorse on the certification required by paragraph (d) below such facts as shall demonstrate such impracticability, and if the manufacturer shall likewise certify such impracticability on the order, the provisions of this subdivision (i) shall not apply.

(ii) All other motors shall be of the highest practicable speed for the purposes for which purchased.

(d) Certification. (1) Each person placing an order on and after December 10, 1942 with a manufacturer or dealer for delivery of a motor or generator, and each person who receives delivery of a motor or generator from a manufacturer or dealer on and after February 1, 1943, pursuant to an order placed prior to December 10, 1942, shall certify to the manufacturer or dealer, as a condition to receiving delivery, the following (in substantially the form described below) on the purchase order or in a separate document (except that there may be omitted therefrom any portion relating to provisions of this order which are inapplicable in the particular case):

The undersigned hereby certifies that:

(A) (i) He has no idle motor (or generator) in his possession, except the following which is not adaptable to his purpose for the reasons stated below:

(ii) He has been unable to obtain a used motor (or generator) for his purpose from the following dealers (at least three):

(iii) The motor (or generator) is not for purposes of replacement of existing equipment (except as otherwise authorized by the Director General for Operations, upon appeal, when copy of authorization is to be attached):

(iv) The motor (or generator) is required for installation within -------- days after delivery and is not for standby purposes.

(B) The motor or motors described in the within (or attached) order, or orders, are in compliance with paragraph (c) (1) of General Limitation Order L–221 as follows:

(Here explain how design of motor meets requirements of each subdivision of paragraph (c) (1)).

(C) Horsepower required has been carefully determined in accordance with paragraph (c) (2) (i) and the horsepower rating of the motor or motors is in accordance with paragraph (c) (2) (ii) as follows:

(Here describe method of determining horsepower rating in accordance with said paragraph)

(D) (If the motor is AC, 25 horsepower or below, and does not have a synchronous speed of at least 1800 R.P.M. at 60 cycles (4 pole winding) and corresponding speeds at other frequencies, here provide the purchaser's certification required by paragraph (c) (3) (i)).

By ------------------------
(Authorized official)

In any case where an order relates to motors or generators of the identical kind and rating covered by a certification previously furnished to the same manufacturer or dealer, any facts included in the previous certification and which have remained unchanged may be incorporated in the certification required with respect to the current order by reference to the previous certification.

(2) Such certification shall be signed by a duly authorized and responsible official, employee, or agent of the purchaser, and shall constitute a representation to the Director General for Operations, War Production Board, as well as to the supplier, of the facts certified therein.

No person shall make delivery under this order who has reason to believe that the purchaser has furnished a false certification; and no person shall falsely furnish the certification specified above.

Any manufacturer or dealer may rely upon the facts furnished in the above mentioned certification and shall not be responsible for any action taken by him under this order in reliance upon inaccurate or untrue statements therein, unless he has reason to believe that such statements are inaccurate or untrue.

(3) Each manufacturer who manufactures a motor for delivery as part of other machinery or equipment which he also manufactures shall provide and retain in his records, with respect to each such motor, a certification similar to that provided for in subparagraph (1) and (2) above, signed by a duly authorized and responsible official or employee connected with the production of such motor; but no certification shall be required by the purchaser of the machinery which includes the motor. Such certification by the manufacturer shall constitute a representation to the Director General for Operations, War Production Board, of the facts certified therein.

(e) Authorization of Director General for Operations. Application for the authorization of the Director General for Operations to deviate from the standards and conditions of paragraph (c) shall be made by the purchaser or proposed purchaser of the motor (or by the manufacturer in any case where the motor is to be incorporated into other machinery manufactured by the same manufacturer) by letter or telegram or other communication addressed to the General Industrial Equipment Division, War Production Board, setting forth facts sufficient to enable the Director General for Operations to determine the necessity for such authorization. If granted, the authorization shall be transmitted by the purchaser to his supplier.

(f) Exemptions. The limitations and restrictions of paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this order shall not apply (1) for 90 days following the date hereof to any motor or generator delivered to and for the direct use of the Army, the Navy, the Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration; (2) to any motor or generator delivered for use in any foreign country (except Canada); (3) to any motor or generator delivered to any manufacturer or dealer for resale as a motor or generator and not as part of other machinery or equipment: Provided, however, That all the limitations and restrictions of this order shall apply to any resale of any such motor or generator; (4) to any motor or generator to be used above deck on any vessel or to be used in the operation of combat equipment. As used herein, "combat equipment" means any combat end product (including but not limited to, ammunition and other ordnance, tanks, warships, and aircraft) prescribed for field or combat use by the Army or Navy of the United States.

(g) Production schedules. (1) On and after February 1, 1943, no manufacturer shall manufacture any motor or generator unless the motor or generator is included in a production schedule approved by the Director General for Operations as provided below.

(2) On or before the 20th day of December and of each succeeding calendar month, every manufacturer shall file with the Director General for Operations a report on Form PD–738 which shall include such manufacturer's proposed production schedules of motors and generators so far as then planned, and such other information as shall be required by said Form PD–738. The production schedule for the calendar month following the date of filing shall be deemed to be approved by the Director General for Operations upon receipt of the above mentioned report by the War Production Board unless and until the Director General for Operations shall otherwise direct. Regardless of the terms of any other order or rule or regulation of the War Production Board, or of any commitment by the manufacturer or any customer, the Director General for Operations may at any time change any schedule; direct the cancellation of any order held by any manufacturer whether or not included or reflected in any schedule; prescribe any other schedule for production; allocate any order theretofore received by the manufacturer to any other manufacturer; or direct the delivery of any motor or generator, in production or completed to any person, at the established price and terms. No manufacturer shall alter any approved or prescribed production schedule unless authorized or directed to do so by the Director General for Operations.

(h) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production, and sales.

All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as the Director General for Operations shall from time to time request.

(2) Other limitation orders. Nothing in this order shall be construed to permit any person to sell, deliver, or otherwise transfer, or any manufacturer to purchase, receive delivery of or otherwise acquire any raw materials, semi-processed parts, or finished products in contravention of the terms of any L or M Order, or amendments or supplements thereto or other regulations of the War Production Board effective at the date of any such sale, delivery, or other transfer. Where the limitations imposed by any other L or M Order are applicable to the subject matter of this order, the most restrictive limitation shall apply, unless otherwise specifically provided herein.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(5) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be adressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–221.

PART 3124—HARD-FACING MATERIALS

[General Limitation Order L–223]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain alloying elements for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3124.1 General Limitation Order L–223—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Alloying element" means manganese, silicon, chromium, nickel, molybdenum, tungsten, vanadium, cobalt, tantalum, columbium, titanium, aluminum, magnesium, sodium, calcium, boron, and copper in any metallic form or combination with carbon, boron, or another metal.

(2) "Hard-facing material" means any material in any form containing 4 per cent or more of any alloying element or combination of alloying elements or requiring more than 4 per cent of any alloying element or combination of alloying elements for its manufacture, which is normally applied by a fusion welding process, such as the oxy-acetylene, metallic-arc, atomic hydrogen, or carbon-arc process as a coating, edge, or point to a metal for the purpose of providing a surface which is resistant to abrasion, corrosion, erosion, cavitation, heat, impact, or any combination of these; except that nothing in this order shall be construed to include copper base materials, or welding rods and electrodes (as defined in General Preference Order L–146, as amended from time to time) used as a filler in joining two or more pieces of metal.

(3) "Implements of war" means combat end-products, complete for tactical operations (including, but not limited to, aircraft, ammunition, armament and weapons, merchant and naval ships, tanks and vehicles), and any parts, assemblies and materials to be physically incorporated in any of the foregoing items.

(4) "Producer" means any person making hard-facing material, or having hard-facing material made for him which he sells under his own trade name, either after altering, applying a coating or in the condition received. It shall not be deemed to include steel mills producing rods for sale only to a hard-facing material producer.

(b) Restrictions on delivery of hard-facing material. Except pursuant to specific authorization or direction of the Director General for Operations no person shall deliver any hard-facing material, and no person shall accept delivery of any hard-facing material, except as follows:

(1) To fill any contract or purchase order for hard-facing material to be delivered on a preference rating of AA-5 or higher for the maintenance and repair of any of the following:

(i) Any machine or equipment used exclusively in the manufacture of any of the following: implements of war; wire and radio communication equipment; synthetic rubber; aviation gasoline; explosives; dry batteries; machine tools; cement; brick; chemicals; plastics; food processing equipment; industrial electric equipment; lumber; paper; abrasive grinding wheels; and tools to be used in mechanical fixtures for cutting, shaping, forming and blanking of material, either hot or cold, and for precision gauges.

(ii) Any machine or equipment used exclusively for any of the following: mining; excavating; dredging; quarrying; drilling, producing and refining of petroleum; harbors; highways; utility plants, including but not limited to electric light and power, gas, street railway, telephone, telegraph and cable communication, and water; railroads (including track repair); and primary metal processing (i. e. steel mills, foundries, brass mills, ferro-alloy plants, magnesium plants, etc.).

(2) To fill any contract or purchase order for hard-facing material to be delivered on a preference rating of AA-5 or higher and to be physically incorporated into any of the following, or any part thereof: implements of war; valves; lathe centers; pumps; dredges; industrial electrical control equipment; pneumatic hammers; wire and radio communication equipment; automotive replacement parts, as defined in Limitation Order L-158, as amended; chemical equipment; road machinery; diesel engines; food processing equipment; oil well drilling equipment; and tools to be used in mechanical fixtures for cutting, shaping, forming and blanking of material, either hot or cold, and for precision gauges.

(3) To fill any contract or purchase order for hard-facing material for research work or field tests in connection with any of the applications listed above, except that the total to be delivered for these purposes by any producer or to be received by any person shall not exceed 100 pounds of hard-facing material per month.

(c) Special directions. The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue directions, specifying as to any alloying element, the quantities and proportions which may be used in making hard-facing material, and whether and in what proportions, any such element is to be the metal, a ferro-alloy, reclaimed metal, scrap, a chemical compound or any other material containing such element.

(d) Restrictions on inventory. No person shall acquire hard-facing material if such acquisition will increase his supply of hard-facing material to more than a sixty-days' supply.

(e) Existing contracts. Fulfillment of contracts in violation of this order is prohibited regardless of whether such contracts are entered into before or after the issuance date of this order. No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for default under any contract or order which shall result directly or indirectly from compliance with the terms of this order.

(f) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years, accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production, deliveries, and orders for hard-facing material.

(g) Producer's forms. Each producer shall file monthly with the War Production Board, Ref. L-223, reports on forms PD-733, 734 and 735 and such other forms as may be from time to time prescribed.

(h) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(i) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order of the Director General for Operations may have the effect of limiting to a greater extent than herein provided the use of any material in the production of any item, the limitation of such order shall be observed.

(j) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Steel Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L-223.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2(a), Pub Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 2d day of December 1942.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1420—BREWERY AND DISTILLERY PRODUCTS

[MPR 193,[1] Amendment 3]

DOMESTIC DISTILLED SPIRITS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Subparagraphs (1) and (2) of Paragraph (d) of § 1420.13 are revoked and the following subparagraphs (1) (i) (ii) and (2) are added:

§ 1420.13 * * *

(d) Automatic adjustments for Monopoly States—(1) (i) Permitted increases. If any seller is permitted to increase his maximum price to any Monopoly State for domestic distilled spirits under the provisions of paragraph (a) (1) (i) or (ii) or under the provisions of paragraph (a) (2) (i) of this section relating to increased costs, such Monopoly State may adjust its maximum prices for such domestic distilled spirits by applying to the gross adjusted price (exclusive of new or increased taxes) charged to it by such seller the statutory or discretionary percentage mark-up in effect in such Monopoly State on March 31, 1942.

(ii) New or increased taxes. If any seller is permitted to increase his maximum prices to any Monopoly State for domestic distilled spirits under the provisions of paragraph (a) (i) (iii) or under the provisions of paragraph (a) (2) (ii) relating to new or increased taxes, such Monopoly State may add to its maximum prices for such domestic distilled spirits in accordance with subparagraph (2) hereof the exact amount per case and per container which is furnished to it by its seller pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(2) In increasing its maximum prices established under § 1499.2 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation[2] pursuant to subdivisions (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (1) hereof, any Monopoly State:

(i) May add to the amount determined from time to time pursuant to (1) (i) hereof the amount determined from time to time pursuant to (1) (ii) hereof, and

(ii) May follow its practices of March 31, 1942 with reference to the disposition of fractional and odd cents, if any, existing in the figure determined pursuant to (2) (i) hereof.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Supp. Reg. 14[1] of GMPR,[2] Amendment 69]

IMPORTED DISTILLED SPIRITS, ETC.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Subdivisions (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (41) of § 1499.73 (a) are revoked and the following subdivisions (i) (a) (b) and (ii) are added:

§ 1499.73 * * * (a). * * *

(41) Imported distilled spirits and all wines; automatic adjustments for Monopoly States—(i) (a) Permitted increases. In the event that any vendor of imported distilled spirits or wines, whether domestic or imported, is permitted to increase his maximum price to any Monopoly State for any imported distilled spirits or wines to cover any increased cost other than new or increased taxes, such Monopoly State may adjust its maximum prices for such imported distilled spirits or wines by applying to the gross adjusted price (exclusive of new or increased taxes) charged to it by such vendor, the statutory or discretionary percentage mark-up in effect in such Monopoly State on March 31, 1942.

(b) New or increased taxes. In the event that any vendor of imported distilled spirits or wines, whether domestic or imported, is permitted to increase his maximum price to any Monopoly State for any imported distilled spirits or wines to cover new or increased taxes, such Monopoly State may add to its maximum prices for such imported distilled spirits or wines in accordance with subdivision (ii) hereof the exact amount per case and per container which is furnished to it by its vendor pursuant to subparagraph (iii) below.

(ii) In increasing its maximum prices established under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation pursuant to subparagraph (i) (a) and (i) (b) hereof any Monopoly State:

(a) May add to the amount determined from time to time pursuant to (i) (a) hereof the amount determined from time to time pursuant to (i) (b) hereof, and

(b) May follow its practices of March 31, 1942 with reference to the disposition of fractional and odd cents, if any, existing in the figure determined pursuant to (ii) (a) hereof.

(b) Effective dates. * * *

(70) Amendment No. 69 (§ 1499.73 (a) (41) (i) and (ii)) to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 shall be effective as of December 7, 1942.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 124 Under § 1499.18 (b) of GMPR].

MCKESSON & ROBBINS, INC.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICE

Order No. 124 Under § 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation—Docket No. GF3-2308.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1025 Adjustment of maximum prices for sales of Globe Anti Swine Erysipelas Serum by McKesson and Robbins, Incorporated, Minneapolis, Minnesota. (a) The maximum prices for sales of Globe Anti Swine Erysipelas Serum by McKesson and Robbins, Incorporated, Minneapolis, Minnesota, shall be as follows:

Size:	Maximum price per package
50 cc	$0.87
100 cc	1.56
250 cc	3.17

(b) All discounts, allowances and trade practices in effect with respect to sales of Globe Anti Swine Erysipelas Serum by McKesson and Robbins, Incorporated, Minneapolis, Minnesota, during March 1942 shall remain in effect under this Order No. 124.

(c) At the time of the first delivery of of Globe Anti Swine Erysipelas Serum made to each purchaser at a price determined under this Order No. 124, McKesson and Robbins, Incorporated, Minneapolis, Minnesota, shall furnish each such purchaser with the following notice:

> The Office of Price Administration has permitted us to raise our maximum price to you of Globe Anti Swine Erysipelas Serum from $0.73 to $0.87 per 50 cc package, and from $1.33 to $1.56 per 100 cc package. This increase represents only that part of cost increases which we were unable to absorb, and it was granted with the understanding that other price increases would not be caused thereby. The Office of Price Administration has not permitted you or any other purchaser of this product from us to raise any maximum price by reason of our increased price to you.

(d) All prayers of the applicant not granted herein are denied.

(e) This Order No. 124 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) This Order No. 124 (§ 1499.1025) is hereby incorporated as a section of Supplementary Regulation No. 14, which contains modifications of maximum prices established by § 1499.2.

(g) This Order No. 124 (§ 1499.1025) shall become effective December 2, 1942.

PART 1307—RAW MATERIALS FOR COTTON TEXTILES

[MPR 33,[1] Amendment 1]

CARDED COTTON YARNS AND THE PROCESSING THEREOF

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The term "greige" is substituted for the term "grey" wherever the latter term is used in subparagraphs (2), (4) and (8) of paragraph (a) of § 1307.64 and subparagraph (1) (ii) of paragraph (d) of § 1307.69. § 1307.55 is amended, in paragraph (a) of § 1307.64, subparagraph (5) (v) is amended and Table I is deleted, in § 1307.63, paragraph (c) is amended, a new § 1307.65a is added, in § 1307.67, paragraphs (f) and (g) are amended and a new paragraph (h) is added, in paragraph (b) of § 1307.68, Table V is amended and in § 1307.69, a footnote is added to subparagraph (1) (i) of paragraph (c) and a footnote is added to subparagraph (1) (i) of paragraph (d) as set forth below:

§ 1307.55 Reports to be submitted to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., by producers of carded cotton yarns. On or before the 10th day of each calendar month commencing with a date hereafter to be designated, each producer of carded cotton yarns for which maximum prices are established in paragraph (f) of § 1307.67 (discounted yarns) shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. all sales of such yarns made during the preceding calendar month. Such reports shall contain with respect to each such sale: (a) the date; (b) the name and address of the purchaser; (c) a description of the yarns sold, including the number, ply, percentage of low-grade cotton and/or cotton waste and the other specifications of the yarn; (d) a description of the type, kind and quality of the low-grade cotton and/or cotton waste used in the yarn and the replacement cost per pound to the producer of the low-grade cotton and/or cotton waste; (e) a statement of the differences per pound in manufacturing costs which were taken into consideration by the producer in determining his maximum price under § 1307.67; (f) the amount of the discount allowed in accordance with paragraph (f) (2) of § 1307.67; (g) the quantity sold; and (h) the price per pound contracted for or received therefor.

§ 1307.63 Exempt sales. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 33 shall not apply to:

* * * * *

(c) Sales of seine twine and other yarns produced by two-process twisting and of all yarns twisted on a Brownell or Haskall-Dawes type machine;

* * * * *

§ 1307.64 Definitions of terms used. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 33, the term: * * *

(5) "Base grade yarn" means clean uniform greige carded yarns of the following specifications:

* * * * *

(v) Cotton content. American cotton of such grade, not inferior to strict low middling (white), and such staple length as may be required by the individual producer to produce a clean uniform carded cotton yarn possessing a tensile strength sufficient for the use to which the yarn is to be put. As used herein, the term "American Cotton" means all kinds of cotton grown in the United States except Sea Island, SXP and Pima.

* * * * *

§ 1307.67 Appendix B: Maximum prices for greige carded cotton yarns. * * *

(f) Discounts—(1) Discounts for yarns containing low-grade[2] cotton and/or cotton waste. The maximum price for carded cotton yarn which contains low-grade cotton and/or cotton waste shall be a price in line with the maximum price set forth herein for base grade yarn of the same number and ply. As used herein, the term "in line with" means having a justifiable relation to the maximum price for the base-grade yarn of the same number and ply with a decrease in price commensurate with the decrease in his material costs[3] resulting from his use of the low-grade cotton and/or cotton waste. In determining his "in line with" price, allowance may be made by the producer for increased manufacturing costs which he may incur in producing such yarns. Solely for the purposes of computing an "in line with" price under this paragraph a producer shall employ the following maximum prices for base-grade yarns of numbers less than 6:

[Cents per pound]

Yarn No.	Single	Ply
1s	35.25	37.75
2s	35.50	38
3s	35.75	38.25
4s	36	38.5
5s	36.25	38.75

(2) Discounts for yarns which are not clean and uniform. The maximum price for carded cotton yarn which is not clean and uniform shall be 90% of the otherwise applicable maximum price if such yarn were clean and uniform: Provided, That a yarn containing cotton waste shall be subject only to the discount required by subparagraph (1) above of this § 1307.67.

(g) Premiums for carded cotton yarns composed of long staple, high grade[4] and/or Sea Island, SXP or Pima cotton; petitions to be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Any producer who (1) produces carded cotton yarn composed of a longer staple cotton than the applicable staple length set forth below,[5] of high grade cotton and/or of Sea Island, SXP or Pima cotton and (2) can show that the use of such cotton is reasonably related to the tensile or other specifications required in the yarn by the purchaser thereof, may file a petition for adjustment in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[6] This petition shall contain or be accompanied by the following with respect to such yarn:

(i) The number, ply and other specifications of the yarn;

(ii) Evidence to show that the use of long staple or high-grade cotton is reasonably related to the tensile or other specifications required in the yarn by the purchaser;

(iii) Full size samples from both sides of at least 5 bales of the cotton to be used by the producer in producing the yarn;

(iv) Samples of such yarn and of his base-grade yarn of the same number and ply and the 10 most recent reports of breaking strength tests of both yarns prior to the filing of the petition;

(v) The highest and the lowest price for which the producer sold such yarn and the base-grade yarn of the same number and ply during each month of the calendar year of 1940;

(vi) An analysis of the costs involved in the production of such yarn as compared with the costs involved in the production of base-grade yarn of the same number and ply; and

(vii) A description of the extent to which the processes involved in the production of such yarns vary from the processes used in the production of base-grade yarns.

(h) Premiums for double-carded yarns; petitions for adjustment to be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Any producer who produces double-carded yarns may file a petition for adjustment of his maximum price in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1. This petition shall contain the following: (1) the sales price of double-carded yarn on each day during the calendar year of 1940 on which a sale thereof was made and the price contracted for or quoted on each such day by the producer for single-carded yarns of the same number and ply; (2) the amount of the premium requested by the petitioner for double-carded yarns; and (3) an analysis of the costs involved in the production of double-carded yarns as compared with the costs involved in the production of single-carded yarns of the same number and ply.

§ 1307.68 Appendix C: Maximum prices for sales of stock yarn; sales by jobbers. * * *

(b) Maximum prices for sales of stock yarn. * * *

TABLE V—PREMIUMS FOR SALES OF STOCK YARN BY JOBBERS

Sales on which premiums are allowed	Premium
Sales of broken case[1] lots in quantities of 1500 pounds or less per calendar month to a given customer Provided, That no jobber shall avail himself of this premium on that portion of such sales in any calendar month which is in excess of 15,000 pounds to all of his customers.	10%
Sales of broken case lots in quantities in excess of 1500 pounds per calendar month to a given customer Provided, That no jobber shall avail himself of this premium on that portion of such sales in any calendar month which is in excess of 15,000 pounds to all of his customers.	5%
Sales of 1 to 3 unbroken cases Provided, That no jobber shall avail himself of this premium on that portion of his sales in any calendar month which is in excess of 3,000 pounds to the same customer or 20,000 pounds to all of his customers.	5%

[1] As used in this Table V, the term "broken case" means a case from which at least 25 per cent of the contents have been removed.

§ 1307.69 Appendix D: Maximum prices for processed carded cotton yarns and the processing thereof. * * *

(c) Maximum prices for mercerizing, bleaching and/or gassing—(1) Explanation of Table VI—(i) Quilling, winding and handling charges. The maximum prices set forth below include all charges for quilling, cone winding and special handling: Provided, That if the processor does not quill or wind, his maximum price shall be the price shown herein less his customary charge[7] for quilling or winding.

* * * * *

(d) Maximum prices for mercerized, bleached and/or gassed yarns—(1) Explanation of Table VII—(i) Quilling, winding and handling charges. The premiums set forth below include all charges for quilling, cone winding and special handling: Provided, That if the processor does not quill or wind, his maximum price shall be the price shown herein less his customary charge[8] for quilling or winding.

* * * * *

§ 1307.65a Effective dates of amendments. (a) Amendment No. 1 (§§ 1307.55, 1307.63 (c), 1307.64 (a) (2) (4) (5) (v) and (8), 1307.65a, 1307.67 (f), (g) and (h), 1307.68 (b), 1307.69 (c) and (d)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 33 shall become effective as follows: September 28, 1942, insofar as it amends subparagraphs (5) (v) of § 1307.64 (a); and on December 7, 1942, insofar as it amends §§ 1307.55, 1307.63 (c), 1307.64 (a) (2) (4) and (8), 1307.67 (f), (g) and (h), 1307.68 (b) and 1307.69 (c) and (d).

[2] For the purposes of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 33, any cotton which is quoted at a price lower than the price quoted for strict low middling (white) cotton of the same staple length in the official average quotation of the 10 designated spot cotton markets published by the Agricultural Marketing Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture is "low-grade".

[3] The producer shall determine the decrease in his material costs in the following ways: (a) when he uses low-grade cotton he shall determine the difference in selling price on the business day immediately preceding the sale of the yarn between the low-grade cotton and strict low middling (white) cotton of the same staple length set forth in the most recent official average quotation of the 10 designated spot cotton markets published by the Agricultural Marketing Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture; and (b) when he uses cotton waste, he shall use the difference between the replacement cost for such cotton waste, and the price listed for strict low middling (white) cotton of the staple length specified for the same yarn number in footnote 5 (paragraph (g) of this § 1307.67) in the official average quotation of the 10 designated spot cotton markets published by the Agricultural Marketing Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture.

[4] For the purposes of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 33, any grade of cotton higher than middling is "high grade".

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Maximum Rent Regulation 52]

HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS OTHER THAN HOTELS AND ROOMING HOUSES

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within the Santa Maria Defense-Rental Area set out in § 1388.681 (a) of this Maximum Rent Regulation, as designated in the designation and rent declaration issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said designation and rent declaration.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within the Santa Maria Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the Santa Maria Defense-Rental Area on or about July 1, 1941. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for housing accommodations within the Santa Maria Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Act, this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1388.681 to 1388.694, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1388.681 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52 applies to all housing accommodations within the Santa Maria Defense-Rental Area, consisting of Judicial Townships Nos. 4, 5, 6, 7, 9 and 10 in the County of Santa Barbara in the State of California (referred to hereinafter in this Maximum Rent Regulation as the "Defense-Rental Area"), as designated in the designation and rent declaration (§§ 1388.1201 to 1388.1205, inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) This Maximum Rent Regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Housing accommodations situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part;

(3) Rooms or other housing accommodations within hotels or rooming houses, or housing accommodations which have been, with the consent of the Administrator, brought under the control of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Hotels and Rooming Houses pursuant to the provisions of that regulation: Provided, That this Maximum Rent Regulation does apply to entire structures or premises though used as hotels or rooming houses;

(4) Housing accommodations rented to the United States acting by the National Housing Agency: Provided, however, That this Maximum Rent Regulation does apply to a sublease or other subrenting of such accommodations or any part thereof.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this Maximum Rent Regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.682 Prohibition against higher than maximum rents. (a) Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52 of any housing accommodations within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation, where housing accommodations are heated with fuel oil the landlord of such accommodations may as hereinafter provided enter into an agreement with the tenant providing for payment by the tenant of part or all of the cost of changing the heating unit to use some fuel other than oil or of installing a new heating unit using some fuel other than oil. Prior to making such agreement the landlord shall in writing report the terms of the proposed agreement to the Area Rent Office. The landlord may enter into the agreement either upon its approval by the Administrator or, unless the Administrator has disapproved the proposed agreement within 5 days after the filing of such report, upon the expiration of such 5-day period.

(c) Where a lease of housing accommodations was entered into prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith was granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which were the subject of the lease, with the further provision that some or all of the payments made under the lease should be credited toward the purchase price in the event such option is exercised, the landlord, notwithstanding any other provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation, may be authorized to receive payments made by the tenant in accordance with the provisions of such lease and in excess of the maximum rent for such housing accommodations. Such authority may be secured only by a written request of the tenant to the Area Rent Office and shall be granted by order of the Administrator if he finds that such payments in excess of the maximum rent will not be inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof. After entry of such order the landlord shall be authorized to demand, receive and retain payments provided by the lease in excess of the maximum rent for periods commencing on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation. After entry of such order, the provisions of the lease may be enforced in accordance with law, nothwithstanding any other provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation: Provided, however, That if at the termination of the lease the tenant shall not exercise the option to buy, the landlord may thereafter remove or evict the tenant only in accordance with the provisions of § 1388.686 of this Maximum Rent Regulation. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to authorize the landlord to demand or receive payments in excess of the maximum rent in the absence of an order of the Administrator as herein provided. Where a lease of housing accommodations has been entered into on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, and the tenant as a part of such lease or in connection therewith has been granted an option to buy the housing accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the landlord, prior to the exercise by the tenant of the option to buy, shall not demand or receive payments in excess of the maximum rent, whether or not such lease allocates some portion or portions of the periodic payments therein provided as payments on or for the option to buy.

§ 1388.683 Minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in § 1388.685 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with housing accommodations the same essential services, furniture, furnishings and equipment as those provided on the date determining the maximum rent, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those provided on such date: Provided, however, That where fuel oil is used to supply heat or hot water for housing accommodations, and the landlord provided heat or hot water on the date determining the maximum rent, the heat and hot water which the landlord is required to supply shall not be in excess of the amount which he can supply under any statute, regulation, or order of the United States or any agency thereof which rations or limits the use of fuel oil.

§ 1388.684 Maximum rents. Maximum rents (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in § 1388.685 shall be:

(a) For housing accommodations rented on July 1, 1941, the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(b) For housing accommodations not rented on July 1, 1941, but rented at any time during the two months ending on that date, the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period.

(c) For housing accommodations not rented on July 1, 1941, nor during the two months ending on that date, but rented prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52, the first rent for such accommodations after July 1, 1941. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.685 (c).

(d) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented after July 1, 1941 and before the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed between those dates so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations changed between those dates from unfurnished to fully furnished, or from fully furnished to unfurnished, or (4) housing accommodations substantially changed between those dates by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, the first rent for such accommodations after such construction or change: Provided, however, That, where such first rent was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of a major capital improvement, the maximum rent shall be the first rent after termination of such lease. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.685 (c).

(e) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed on or after such effective date so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations not rented at any time between May 1, 1941 and such effective date, the first rent for such accommodations after the change or the effective date, as the case may be. Within 30 days after so renting the landlord shall register the accommodations as provided in § 1388.687. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.685 (c).

(f) For housing accommodations constructed with priority rating from the United States or any agency thereof for which the rent has been heretofore or is hereafter approved by the United States or any agency thereof, the rent so approved, but in no event more than the rent on July 1, 1941, or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, more than the first rent after that date.

(g) For housing accommodations constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on July 1, 1941, as determined by the owner of such accommodations: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.685 (c).

(h) For housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.685 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in the furniture, furnishings or equipment, an increase or decrease of services or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Administrator finds would have been on July 1, 1941 the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change. In all other cases, except those under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on July 1, 1941. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since July 1, 1941. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on July 1, 1941.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, on or prior to July 1, 1941, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent on July 1, 1941 was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent. No increase in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground set forth in this paragraph (a) (3) unless the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment occurred with the consent of the tenant or while the accommodations were vacant: Provided, That an adjustment may be ordered, although the tenant refuses to consent to the increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, if the Administrator finds that such increase (i) is reasonably required for the operation of a multiple dwelling structure or other structure of which the accommodations are a part or (ii) is necessary for the preservation or maintenance of the accommodations.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on July 1, 1941.

(5) There was in force on July 1, 1941 a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to July 1, 1940, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on July 1, 1941; or the housing accommodations were not rented on July 1, 1941, but were rented during the two months ending on that date and the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period was fixed by a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to July 1, 1940, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on July 1, 1941.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) (1) If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52, the services provided for housing accommodations are less than the minimum services required by § 1388.683, the landlord shall either restore and maintain such minimum services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. If, on such effective date, the furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with housing accommodations are less than the minimum required by § 1388.683, the landlord shall, within 30 days after such date, file a written report showing the decrease in furniture, furnishings or equipment.

(2) Except as above provided, the landlord shall, until the accommodations become vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment he shall file a petition within 10 days after the change occurs. When the accommodations become vacant the landlord may, on renting to a new tenant, decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report showing such decrease.

(3) The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of § 1388.685 (c) (3). If the landlord fails to file the petition or report required by this paragraph within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by any order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. In such case, any order decreasing the maximum rent shall be effective to decrease such rent from the beginning of the first rental period after the decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, whichever is the later. The foregoing provisions and any refund thereunder do not affect any civil or criminal liability provided by the Act for failure to comply with any requirement of this paragraph.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The maximum rent for housing accommodations under paragraphs (c), (d), (e), or (g) of § 1388.684 is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on July 1, 1941.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by § 1388.683 since the date or order determining the maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on July 1, 1941.

(5) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially lower rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on July 1, 1941.

(e) Where, at the expiration or other termination of an underlying lease or other rental agreement, housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the landlord may rent the entire premises for use by similar occupancy for a rent not in excess of the aggregate maximum rents of the separate dwelling units, or may rent the separate dwelling units for rents not in excess of the maximum rents applicable to such units.

Where housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the tenant may petition the Administrator for leave to exercise any right he would have except for this Maximum Rent Regulation to sell his underlying lease or other rental agreement. The Administrator may grant such petition if he finds that the sale will not result, and that sales of such character would not be likely to result, in the circumvention or evasion of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation. He may require that the sale be made on such terms as he deems necessary to prevent such circumvention or evasion.

(f) Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) of this section, the Administrator may enter an interim order increasing the maximum rent until further order, subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order upon such petition. The receipt by the landlord of any increased rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or, where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

(g) No adjustment in the maximum rent shall be ordered on the ground that the landlord, since the date or order determining the maximum rent, has, as a part of or in connection with a lease of housing accommodations, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease. Where a lease of housing accommodations was in force on the date determining the maximum rent, and the landlord had on that date, as a part of or in connection with such lease, granted the tenant an option to buy the accommodations which are the subject of the lease, the Administrator may, on or after the termination of such lease, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, enter an order fixing the maximum rent on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations not subject to an option to buy on July 1, 1941.

§ 1388.686 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant shall be removed from any housing accommodations, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, and regardless of any contract, lease, agreement or obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into which provides for entry of judgment upon the tenant's confession for breach of the covenants thereof or which otherwise provides contrary hereto, unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52; or

(2) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the housing accommodations for the purpose of inspection or of showing the accommodations to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein: Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the accommodations is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or

(3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure, such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the housing accommodations for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) The tenant's lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, and at the time of termination the housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant; or

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the housing accommodations or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(6) The landlord owned, or acquired an enforceable right to buy or the right to possession of, the housing accommodations prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, and seeks in good faith to recover possession of such accommodations for immediate use and occupancy as a dwelling for himself. If a tenant has been removed or evicted under this paragraph (a) (6) from housing accommodations, the landlord shall file a written report on a form provided therefor before renting the accommodations or any part thereof during a period of six months after such removal or eviction.

(b) (1) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(2) Removal or eviction of a tenant for occupancy by a purchaser who has acquired his rights in the housing accommodations on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, is inconsistent with the purposes of the Act and this Maximum Rent Regulation and would be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof, unless (i) the payment or payments of principal made by the purchaser, excluding any payments made from funds borrowed for the purpose of making such principal payments, aggregate 33⅓% or more of the purchase price, and (ii) a period of three months has elapsed after the issuance of a certificate by the Administrator as hereinafter provided. For the purposes of this paragraph (b) (2), the payments of principal may be made by the purchaser conditionally or in escrow to the end that they shall be returned to the purchaser in the event the Administrator denies a petition for a certificate. If the Administrator finds that the required payments of principal have been made, he shall, on petition of either the vendor or purchaser, issue a certificate authorizing the purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant in accordance with the requirements of the local law at the expiration of three months after the date of issuance of such certificate. In no other case shall the Administrator issue a certificate for occupancy by a purchaser who has acquired his rights in the housing accommodations on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, unless he finds that the vendor has or had a substantial necessity requiring the sale and that a reasonable sale or disposition of the accommodations could not be made without removal or eviction of the tenant, or unless he finds that other special hardship would result; under such circumstances the payment by the purchaser of 33⅓% of the purchase price shall not be a condition to the issuance of a certificate, and the certificate shall authorize the vendor or purchaser to pursue his remedies for removal or eviction of the tenant in accordance with the requirements of the local law.

(c) The provisions of this section do not apply to a subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant, where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(d) (1) Every notice to a tenant to vacate or surrender possession of housing accommodations shall state the ground under this section upon which the landlord relies for removal or eviction of the tenant. A written copy of such notice shall be given to the Area Rent Office within 24 hours after the notice is given to the tenant.

No tenant shall be removed or evicted from housing accommodations, by court process or otherwise, unless, at least ten days prior to the time specified for surrender of possession and to the commencement of any action for removal or eviction, the landlord has given written notices of the proposed removal or eviction to the tenant and to the Area Rent Office, stating the ground under this section upon which such removal or eviction is sought and specifying the time when the tenant is required to surrender possession.

Where the ground for removal or eviction of a tenant is non-payment of rent, every notice under this paragraph (d) (1) shall state the rent for the housing accommodations, the amount of rent due and the rental period or periods for which such rent is due. The provisions of this paragraph (d) (1) shall not apply where a certificate has been issued by the Administrator pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant, including an action based upon non-payment of rent, the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the Area Rent Office stating the title of the case, the number of the case where that is possible, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant, and the ground under this section on which removal or eviction is sought.

(e) No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

§ 1388.687 Registration. Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52, or within 30 days after the property is first rented, whichever date is the later, every landlord of housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in triplicate a written statement on the form provided therefor to be known as a registration statement. The statement shall identify each dwelling unit and specify the maximum rent provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation for such dwelling unit and shall contain such other information as the Administrator shall require. The original shall remain on file with the Administrator and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy, stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord. In any subsequent change of tenancy the landlord shall exhibit to the new tenant his stamped copy of the registration statement, and shall obtain the tenant's signature and the date thereof, on the back of such statement. Within five days after renting to a new tenant, the landlord shall file a notice on the form provided therefor, on which he shall obtain the tenant's signature, stating that there has been a change in tenancy, that the stamped copy of the registration statement has been exhibited to the new tenant and that the rent for such accommodations is in conformity therewith.

No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

When the maximum rent is changed by order of the Administrator, the landlord shall deliver his stamped copy of the registration statement to the Area Rent Office for appropriate action reflecting such change.

The foregoing provisions of this Section shall not apply to housing accommodations under § 1388.684 (g). The owner of such housing accommodations shall file a schedule or schedules, setting out the maximum rents for all such accommodations in the Defense-Rental Area and containing such other information as the Administrator shall require. A copy of such schedule or schedules shall be posted by the owner in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such housing accommodations.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including any civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

§ 1388.688 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of housing accommodations and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the accommodations by the Administrator as he may, from time to time, require.

§ 1388.689 Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52 shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of housing accommodations, by way of absolute or conditional sale, sale with purchase money or other form of mortgage, or sale with option to repurchase, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges or by modification of the services furnished with housing accommodations, or otherwise.

§ 1388.690 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52 are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

§ 1388.691 Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52 shall be filed with the Area Rent Office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).[1]

§ 1388.692 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52 may file petitions therefor in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

§ 1388.693 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52:

(1) The term "Act" means the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(2) The term "Administrator" means the Price Administrator of the Office of Price Administration, or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Administrator may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the Act.

(3) The term "Rent Director" means the person designated by the Administrator as director of the Defense-Rental Area or such person or persons as may be designated to carry out any of the duties delegated to the Rent Director by the Administrator.

(4) The term "Area Rent Office" means the office of the Rent Director in the Defense-Rental Area.

(5) The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(6) The term "housing accommodations" means any building, structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any other real or personal property rented or offered for rent for living or dwelling purposes, together with all privileges, services, furnishings, furniture, equipment, facilities and improvements connected with the use or occupancy of such property.

(7) The term "services" includes repairs, decorating and maintenance, the furnishing of light, heat, hot and cold water, telephone, elevator service, window shades, and storage, kitchen, bath, and laundry facilities and privileges, maid service, linen service, janitor service, the removal of refuse and any other privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations.

(8) The term "landlord" includes an owner, lessor, sublessor, assignee or other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations, or an agent of any of the foregoing.

(9) The term "tenant" includes a subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the possession or to the use or occupancy of any housing accommodations.

(10) The term "rent" means the consideration, including any bonus, benefit, or gratuity, demanded or received for the use or occupancy of housing accommodations or for the transfer of a lease of such accommodations.

(11) The term "hotel" means any establishment generally recognized as such in its community, containing more than 50 rooms and used predominantly for transient occupancy.

(12) The term "rooming house" means, in addition to its customary usage, a building or portion of a building other than a hotel in which a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment are rented on a short time basis of daily, weekly, or monthly occupancy to more than two paying tenants not members of the landlord's immediate family. The term includes boarding houses, dormitories, auto camps, trailers, residence clubs, tourist homes or cabins, and all other establishments of a similar nature.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used in this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.694 Effective date of the regulation. This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 52 (§§1388.681 to 1388.694, inclusive) shall become effective December 1, 1942.

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Maximum Rent Regulation 59A]

HOTELS AND ROOMING HOUSES

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within the Santa Maria Defense-Rental Area set out in § 1388.731 (a) of this Maximum Rent Regulation, as designated in the designation and rent declaration issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said designation and rent declaration.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within the Santa Maria Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the Santa Maria Defense-Rental Area on or about July 1, 1941. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for rooms in hotels and rooming houses within the Santa Maria Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Act, this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1388.731 to 1388.744, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1388.731 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A applies to all rooms in hotels and rooming houses within the Santa Maria Defense Rental Area consisting of Judicial Townships Nos. 4, 5, 6, 7, 9 and 10 in the County of Santa Barbara in the State of California (referred to hereinafter in this Maximum Rent Regulation as the "Defense-Rental Area"), as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration (§§ 1388.1201 to 1388.1205, inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) This Maximum Rent Regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Rooms situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Rooms occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the rooms are provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the rooms are a part;

(3) Rooms in hospitals, or rooms of charitable or educational institutions used in carrying out their charitable or educational purposes;

(4) Entire structures or premises used as hotels or rooming houses, as distinguished from the rooms within such hotels or rooming houses.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this Maximum Rent Regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(e) Where a building or establishment which does not come within the definitions of a hotel or rooming house contains one or more furnished rooms or other furnished housing accommodations rented on a daily, weekly or monthly basis, the landlord may, with the consent of the Administrator, elect to bring all housing accommodations within such building or establishment under the control of this Maximum Rent Regulation. A landlord who so elects shall file a registration statement under this Maximum Rent Regulation for all such housing accommodations, accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such election.

[1] 7 F.R. 9958.
[2] 7 F.R. 9964.

If the Administrator finds that the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation establishing maximum rents are better adapted to the rental practices for such building or establishment than the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations Other than Hotels and Rooming Houses, he shall consent to the landlord's election. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations within such building or establishment which are or hereafter may be rented or offered for rent shall become subject to the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation, and shall be considered rooms within a rooming house for the purposes of the provisions relating to eviction.

The landlord may at any time, with the consent of the Administrator, revoke his election, and thereby bring under the control of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations Other than Hotels and Rooming Houses all housing accommodations previously brought under the Maximum Rent Regulation by such election. He shall make such revocation by filing a registration statement or statements under the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations Other than Hotels and Rooming Houses, including in such registration statement or statements all housing accommodations brought under this Maximum Rent Regulation by such election. Such registration statement or statements shall be accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such revocation. The Administrator may defer action on such request if he has taken or is about to take action to decrease the maximum rents of any housing accommodations within such building or establishment. If the Administrator finds that the revocation so requested will not result in substantial increases in the maximum rents of housing accommodations affected by such revocation, he shall give such consent. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations affected by such revocation shall become subject to the provisions of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations Other than Hotels and Rooming Houses.

§ 1388.732 Prohibition. (a) Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A of any room in a hotel or rooming house within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) No tenant shall be required to change his term of occupancy if that will result in the payment of a higher amount per day than the maximum rent established for his present term of occupancy. Where, on June 15, 1942, or between that date and the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, a room was regularly rented or offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, the landlord shall continue to offer the room for rent for that term of occupancy, unless he offers another term of occupancy for a rent which results in the payment of an amount no higher per day.

§ 1388.733 Minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment. Except as set forth in § 1388.735 (b), every landlord shall, as a minimum, provide with a room the same essential services, furniture, furnishings and equipment as those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, and as to other services, furniture, furnishings and equipment not substantially less than those provided on such date or during such period: Provided, however, That where fuel oil is used to supply heat or hot water for a room, and the landlord provided heat or hot water on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, the heat and hot water which the landlord is required to supply shall not be in excess of the amount which he can supply under any statute, regulation or order of the United States or any agency thereof which rations or limits the use of fuel oil.

§ 1388.734 Maximum rents. This section establishes separate maximum rents for different terms of occupancy (daily, weekly or monthly) and numbers of occupants of a particular room. Maximum rents for rooms in a hotel or rooming house (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in § 1388.735) shall be:

(a) For a room rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on July 1, 1941, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during that thirty-day period, or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(b) For a room neither rented nor regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on July 1, 1941, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during the thirty days commencing when it was first offered for rent after July 1, 1941; or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(c) For a room rented for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent is established under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section the first rent for the room after July 1, 1941, for that term and number of occupants, but not more than the maximum rent for similar rooms for the same term and number of occupants in the same hotel or rooming house.

(d) For a room constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on July 1, 1941, as determined by the owner of such rooms: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.735 (c) (1).

(e) For a room with which meals were provided during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent without separate charge therefor, the rent apportioned by the landlord from the total charge for the room and meals. The landlord's apportionment shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reported in the registration statement for such room. The Administrator at any time on his own initiative or on application of the tenant may by order decrease the maximum rent established by such apportionment, if he finds that the apportionment was unfair or unreasonable.

Every landlord who provides meals with accommodations shall make separate charges for the two. No landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on June 15, 1942.

(f) For a room rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.735 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. Except in cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section, every adjustment of a maximum rent shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on July 1, 1941: Provided, however, That no maximum rent shall be increased because of a major capital improvement or an increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, by more than the amount which the Administrator finds would have been on July 1, 1941, the difference in the rental value of the accommodations by reason of such improvement or increase: And provided, further, That no adjustment shall be ordered because of a major capital improvement, an increase or decease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, or a deterioration, where it appears that the rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since July 1, 1941. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms during the year ending on July 1, 1941.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been, since the thirty-day period or the order determining the maximum rent for the room, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, on or prior to July 1, 1941, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent during the thirty-day period ending on July 1, 1941, was fixed by a lease or other rental agreement which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the thirty-day period or the order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by an allowance or discount to a tenant of a class of persons to whom the landlord regularly offered such an allowance or discount, and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on July 1, 1941.

(5) There was in force on July 1, 1941, a written lease, for a term commencing on or prior to July 1, 1940, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on July 1, 1941.

(6) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) (1) If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A, the services provided for a room are less than the minimum services required by § 1388.733, the landlord shall either restore and maintain such minimum services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. If, on such effective date, the furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with a room are less than the minimum required by § 1388.733, the landlord shall, within 30 days after such date, file a written report showing the decrease in furniture, furnishings or equipment.

(2) Except as above provided, the landlord shall, until the room becomes vacant, maintain the minimum services, furniture, furnishings and equipment unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment and on order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment he shall file a petition within 10 days after the change occurs. When the room becomes vacant the landlord may, on renting to a new tenant, decrease the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment below the minimum; within 10 days after so renting the landlord shall file a written report showing such decrease.

(3) The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent; and any maximum rent for which a report is required by this paragraph may be decreased in accordance with the provisions of § 1388.735 (c) (3). If the landlord fails to file the petition or report required by this paragraph within the time specified, or decreases the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment without an order authorizing such decrease where such order is required, the rent received by the landlord for any rental period commencing on or after such decrease or the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, whichever is the later, shall be received subject to refund to the tenant of any amount in excess of the maximum rent which may later be fixed by any order decreasing the maximum rent on account of such decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment. In such case, any order decreasing the maximum rent shall be effective to decrease such rent from the beginning of the first rental period after the decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, whichever is the later. The foregoing provisions and any refund thereunder do not affect any civil or criminal liability provided by the Act for failure to comply with any requirement of this paragraph.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The maximum rent for the room is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on July 1, 1941.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the room other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a decrease in the minimum services, furniture, furnishings or equipment required by § 1388.733 since the date or order determining the maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on July 1, 1941.

§ 1388.736 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant of a room within a hotel or rooming house shall be removed from such room, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A; or

(2) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the room for the purpose of inspection or of showing the room to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein: Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the room is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or

(3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the room for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the room or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local laws; or

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith not to offer the room for rent. If a tenant has been removed or evicted from a room under this paragraph (a) (5), the landlord shall file a written report on a form provided therefor before renting the room during a period of six months after such removal or eviction.

(b) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(c) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant (except an action based on non-payment of a rent not in excess of the maximum rent) the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the Area Rent Office stating the title and number of the case, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant and the grounds on which eviction is sought.

(d) The provisions of this section do not apply to:

(1) A subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant; or

(2) A tenant occupying a room within a hotel on a daily or weekly basis; or a tenant occupying on a daily basis a room within a rooming house which has heretofore usually been rented on a daily basis.

(3) Rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

§ 1388.737 Registration and records. (a) Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A every landlord of a room rented or offered for rent shall file a written statement on the form provided therefor, containing such information as the Administrator shall require, to be known as a registration statement. Any maximum rent established after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation under paragraphs (b) or (c) of § 1388.734 shall be reported either on the first registration statement or on a statement filed within 5 days after such rent is established.

(b) Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, every landlord shall post and thereafter keep posted conspicuously in each room rented or offered for rent a card or sign plainly stating the maximum rent or rents for all terms of occupancy and for all numbers of occupants for which the room is rented or offered for rent. Where the taking of meals by the tenant or prospective tenant is a condition of renting such room, the card or sign shall so state. Should the maximum rent or rents for the room be changed by order of the Administrator the landlord shall alter the card or sign so that it states the changed rent or rents.

The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to rooms under § 1388.734 (d). The owner of such rooms shall post a copy of the registration statement in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such rooms.

(c) No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(e) Every landlord of a room rented or offered for rent shall preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, all his existing records showing or relating to (1) the rent for each term and number of occupants for which such room was rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for such room and (2) the rent on any date determining a maximum rent for such room for a particular term and number of occupants under § 1388.734(c).

Every landlord of an establishment containing more than 20 rooms rented or offered for rent shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, records showing the rents received for each room, the particular term and number of occupants for which such rents were charged, and the name and permanent address of each occupant; every other landlord shall keep, preserve, and make available for examination by the Administrator, records of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the rents received for rooms.

§ 1388.738 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of a room and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the room by the Administrator as he may from time to time require.

§ 1388.739 Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of a room, by requiring the tenant to pay or obligate himself for membership or other fees, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with the room, or otherwise.

§ 1388.740 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

§ 1388.741 Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A shall be filed with the Area Rent Office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

§ 1388.742 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A may file petitions therefor in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

§ 1388.743 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A:

(1) The term "Act" means the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(2) The term "Administrator" means the Price Administrator of the Office of Price Administration, or the Rent Director or such other person or persons as the Administrator may appoint or designate to carry out any of the duties delegated to him by the Act.

(12) The term "term of occupancy" means occupancy on a daily, weekly, or monthly basis.

(13) The term "hotel" means any establishment generally recognized as such in its community, containing more than 50 rooms and used predominantly for transient occupancy.

(14) The term "rooming house" means, in addition to its customary usage, a building or portion of a building other than a hotel in which a furnished room or rooms not constituting an apartment are rented on a short time basis of daily, weekly, or monthly occupancy to more than two paying tenants not members of the landlord's immediate family. The term includes boarding houses, dormitories, auto camps, trailers, residence clubs, tourist homes or cabins, and all other establishments of a similar nature.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used in this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.744 Effective date of the regulation. This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 59A (§§ 1388.731 to 1388.744, inclusive) shall become effective December 1, 1942.

Issued this 1st day of December 1942.

Part 1389—Apparel

[MPR 153,[3] as Amended, Amendment 5]

WOMEN'S, GIRLS' AND CHILDREN'S OUTERWEAR GARMENTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment is issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1389.12 is amended, as set forth below:

§ 1389.12 Termination date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 153 as amended, shall not be applicable to any new lines of women's, girls' and children's outerwear garments manufactured for the purpose of ultimate sale at retail during the spring 1943 season. Without limiting the generality of the aforegoing, this Maximum Price Regulation No. 153 as amended, shall become inoperative:

(a) On February 1, 1943, for sales at retail and sales at wholesale; and

(b) On December 15, 1942 for sales other than at wholesale or retail, except for sales and deliveries of new lines of women's, girls' and children's outerwear garments in stock prior to December 12, 1942, or recuts and reorders of new lines of women's, girls' and children's outerwear garments which were in stock or in process of manufacture prior to December 12, 1942.

Chapter XIII—Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War

[Recommendation No. 58]

PART 1504—PROCESSING AND REFINING

MANUFACTURE OF LUBRICATING GREASES

To all Manufacturers of Lubricating Greases: The present shortage of glycerine referred to in General Preference Order No. M-58,[1] as amended, and Conservation Order M-193,[2] of the War Production Board can be remedied in part by the substitution of fatty acids for fatty oils in the manufacture of certain lubricating greases.

Therefore, in order to bring about that action required by the President's letter of May 28, 1941 defining the objectives and duties of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War and pursuant thereto, I do hereby recommend that immediately and until further notice:

Sec.
1504.91 Definitions.
1504.92 Limitation on use of fatty oils.
1504.93 Exemptions.
1504.94 Reports.
1504.95 War Production Board regulations and orders.
1504.96 Exceptions.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1504.91 to 1504.96 inclusive, issued under the authority contained in the President's letter of May 28, 1941, to the Secretary of the Interior (6 F.R. 2760)

§ 1504.91 Definitions. For the purposes of §§ 1504.91 to 1504.96 inclusive, of this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Fatty oils" means all fats and oils (regardless of acid content) of animal or vegetable origin, except essential oils, from which no glycerine has been recovered.

(b) "Fatty acids" means all acids obtained by the hydrolysis or saponification of fatty oils or of waxes of animal or vegetable origin.

(c) "Manufacturer" means any person who processes, reprocesses or in any manner alters (including compounding and blending) petroleum or petroleum products to produce lubricating greases and who produced not less than 1000 short tons of such lubricating greases during the year beginning July 1, 1941 and ending June 30, 1942.

(d) "Lubricating greases" means all lubricants manufactured from petroleum products and a soap, organic salt or ester of any fatty oil or fatty acid. This term shall not be construed to mean any compounded mineral oil which includes, among others, marine oils and soluble and non-soluble cutting oils and compounds.

§ 1504.92 Limitation on use of fatty oils. Beginning with the calendar quarter-year from January to March, inclusive, 1943 and subject to the exemptions in § 1504.93 of this chapter, no manufacturer shall manufacture lubricating greases not subject to the provisions of said § 1504.93 which in the aggregate in any calendar quarter-year contain fatty oils in excess of 50% by weight of the total amount of fatty oils and fatty acids used in such manufacture in such calendar quarter-year.

Despite the maximum limitation set forth in this § 1504.92 and the exemptions set forth in § 1504.93 of this chapter, no manufacturer shall use more fatty oils than he requires for the manufacture of satisfactory lubricating greases.

§ 1504.93 Exemptions. The provisions of § 1504.92 of this chapter shall not apply to the manufacture of long service anti-friction bearing lubricating greases or to lubricating greases for high temperature or railroad service or to the manufacture of those amounts of other lubricating greases which are purchased by the United States Army, Navy or Office of Lend-Lease Administration or which are exported outside the territory comprising the continental United States, Canada and Alaska.

§ 1504.94 Reports. On the 15th day of the month immediately following the end of each calendar quarter-year, each manufacturer shall file a report for such calendar quarter-year, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A,[3] with the Director of Refining, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, New Interior Building, Washington, D. C. The first such report shall be for the calendar quarter-year January to March, inclusive, 1943 and shall be due on April 15, 1943 and further reports shall be due thereafter as prescribed in this § 1504.94.

§ 1504.95 War Production Board regulations and orders. Nothing contained in this Recommendation shall be construed to affect or limit, in any wise, any provision of any regulation, order or direction issued by the War Production Board.

§ 1504.96 Exceptions. Any manufacturer affected by this Recommendation who can show that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may apply in writing to the Director of Refining, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, for an exception, stating in full the facts upon which the application is based and the extent to which the exception is requested.

RALPH K. DAVIES,
Deputy Petroleum Coordinator for War.

TITLE 35—PANAMA CANAL

Chapter I—Canal Zone Regulations

PART 4—OPERATION AND NAVIGATION OF PANAMA CANAL AND ADJACENT WATERS

AMENDMENTS RELATING TO DOCUMENTS REQUIRED OF ARRIVING VESSELS

1. Section 4.20, as amended, of Title 35, Code of Federal Regulations, relating to papers required to be delivered to the boarding party by an arriving vessel, is further amended by adding the following two Notes numbered 2 and 3, respectively, to follow the Note, which is hereby numbered 1, at the end of the regulation:

§ 4.20 Papers required by boarding party, list of.[1] * * *

Note 2. Crew list; copy for American consular officer. Under the regulations governing the control of persons entering and leaving the United States issued by the Secretary of State on November 19, 1941, pursuant to authority contained in the Act of May 22, 1918 (40 Stat. 559) as amended by the Act of June 21, 1941 (55 Stat. 252) and Proclamation No. 2523 issued by the President of the United States on November 14, 1941, no alien may enter the Canal Zone unless he is in possession of a valid unexpired permit to enter or is exempted under such regulations from presenting a "permit to enter," which term includes an immigration visa, a reentry permit, a passport visa, a transit certificate, a border crossing identification card, a crew list visa, or any other document which may be required under authority of law for entry into the United States. When it is contemplated that entrance of alien seamen into the Canal Zone is to be authorized by a crew list visa, an additional copy of the crew list should be prepared for retention by the consular official by whom the crew list is visaed.

Note 3. Crew list to include "Z" numbers of seamen. For purposes of additional identification of crew members, all copies of the crew list required by Regulations 12.1 (§ 4.20) and 12.4 (§ 4.20c) should include the "Z" number of each seaman to whom a certificate of identification bearing a "Z" number has been issued by the United States Department of Commerce.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter II—Office of Defense Transportation

[General Order ODT 18, Revised, Amendment 1]

PART 500—CONSERVATION OF RAIL EQUIPMENT

SUBPART C—CARLOAD FREIGHT TRAFFIC

Pursuant to Executive Order No. 8989, § 500.24 of General Order ODT 18, Revised,[1] is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 500.24 Consignor's certificate. There shall be endorsed on the shipping instructions issued with respect to any carload freight other than carload freight which is loaded in compliance with the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of § 500.21 of this subpart, or any special direction issued by the Director, Division of Railway Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, under the provisions of § 500.22 of this subpart, or which is covered by the provisions of paragraphs (a), (f) (g), (h), (i), or (j) of § 500.23 of this subpart, a certificate specifying the exemption applicable to such freight, the number of any special permit issued by the chief operating officer or division superintendent of a rail carrier, or the number of any special or general permit issued by the Office of Defense Transportation, authorizing the transportation of such freight in a manner other than that required hereunder. Such certificate shall be in the form prescribed by the Director, Division of Railway Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, and shall be executed by the consignor. Where freight of more than one consignor is loaded in one freight car at point of origin, the consignor who completes the loading of the car shall execute the certificate. Any agent other than a rail carrier may execute the certificate for the consignor. The failure of a consignor or his agent to endorse on the shipping instructions a certificate specifying the exemption, general permit, or special permit number applicable to the freight covered by such shipping instructions, shall constitute a representation by the consignor to the rail carrier that the car containing such freight has been loaded in compliance with the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of § 500.21 of this subpart, or in compliance with the provisions of a special direction issued by the Director, Division of Railway Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, or that the freight is covered by an exemption contained in paragraphs (a), (f), (g), (h), (i), or (j) of § 500.23 of this subpart. (E.O. 8989, 6 F.R. 6725)

This amendment shall become effective November 28, 1942.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of November 1942.

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.145 to 501.150, inclusive, issued under E.O. 8989, 9156; 6 F.R. 6725, 7 F.R. 3349.

§ 501.145 Definitions. As used in this order (§§ 501.145–501.150) the term:

(a) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, joint-stock company, business trust, or other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or of any territory, or possesion thereof, the District of Columbia, a State or any agency or political subdivision thereof, or any trustee, receiver, assignee, or personal representative.

(b) "Rental car" means any rubber-tired vehicle, propelled or drawn by mechanical power, built (or rebuilt) primarily for the purpose of transporting persons and having a seating capacity of less than ten (10) passengers, leased or rented, or held for leasing or renting, with or without driver or operator.

§ 501.146 Restrictions on new or additional operations. No person shall:

(a) Engage in the business of renting or leasing rental cars unless on the effective date of this order (1) there was in force with respect to such business a license, permit, or other grant of authority issued by competent governmental authority, authorizing such person, or his predecessor in interest, to engage in such business; or (2) such person, or his predecessor in interest, was bona fide engaged in the business of renting or leasing rental cars in a community where no such license, permit, or other grant of authority was required;

(b) Have under lease or rental to other persons, or have available for lease or rental to other persons, in any municipality, other governmental subdivision or community, a greater number of rental cars than such person, or his predecessor in interest, had regularly under lease or rental and available for lease or rental in such municipality or governmental subdivision on the effective date of this order.

§ 501.147 Special and general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permit issued by the Office of Defense Transportation to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances, or to prevent undue public hardships.

§ 501.148 Records and reports. (a) Any person engaged in renting or leasing rental cars to other persons shall keep a daily record in respect of each rental car leased or rented to such persons showing (1) the total number of miles and hours used in rental car service and (2) in respect of each separate rental or lease (i) the name and address of the person to whom such car is leased or rented, (ii) the purpose for which such car was leased or rented, and (iii) the actual miles operated and the elapsed time of such operation.

(b) Any person engaged in leasing or renting cars to other persons shall retain in his files all original car rental leases or car rental agreements and shall keep such other records and make such reports as may be required and in the manner and form prescribed by the Office of Defense Transportation. All such leases, rental agreements, and records shall be available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.149 Communications. Communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Division of Local Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C., and should refer to General Order ODT 26.

§ 501.150 Effective date. This General Order ODT 26 shall be come effective December 1, 1942.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of November 1942.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Bituminous Coal Division.

DISTRICT BOARD 14

[Docket No. A-1680]

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF THE DIRECTOR

In the matter of the petition of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 14 for the establishment of a price exception for mines located in Production Group 1 of District No. 14 on Size Group No. 16 coals for movement to the Kansas City Power and Light Company, Kansas City, Missouri, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the act.

This matter was initiated by a petition duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") on October 6, 1942, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 14 ("District Board 14"), pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"), seeking temporary relief in the form of a price exception permitting the sales, until April 1, 1943, of Size Group 16 coals produced by mines in Production Group 1 of District 14 to Kansas City Power and Light Company ("Kansas Power"), Kansas City, Missouri, at not less than $1.20 per net ton f. o. b. the mine.

Pursuant to notice given by telegram to District Boards 14 and 15 and other interested parties, and by letter to the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel, an informal conference in this matter was held on October 16 and 17, 1942, presided over by a designated chairman, at Washington, D. C. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise participate in the conference. District Board 14, certain code members who opposed the relief asked in the petition, and the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel appeared at the conference and participated therein. The transcript of the record made at this conference, including various exhibits, is now before me.

The petition alleges that Size Group 16 coals produced in Production Group No. 1 in District 14, which includes all mines in Pope County and all mines in the "Spadra Field" of Johnson County, Arkansas, have a very limited market which is generally confined to lead, zinc and tin smelters located in the States of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. A small amount of these coals are also used in the manufacture of briquettes. Practically all smelters have accumulated large stocks of the coals and, as a result of such accumulations, practically all mines producing in Production Group 1 have been compelled since July 1942 to unload and accumulate Size Group 16 coals on the ground. This accumulation of coals on the premises of these mines is so great and so extensive to the mines that they can no longer afford to operate, unless they can dispose of their Size Group 16 coals. The petition further alleges that the Kansas City Power and Light Company of Kansas City, Missouri, is the only industrial plant within a reasonable distance having facilities for burning these coals, which it is able to do by blending them with Kansas and Missouri high volatile coals. A price of $1.20 per ton has been tendered by Kansas Power for these coals. It is necessary, the petition asserts, for code member producers in Production Group No. 1 to dispose of the accumulated stock of Size Group 16 coals, as well as all such coals produced, in order to continue mining operations and produce coals used by domestic consumers. Petitioner prays for a temporary order establishing a price exception in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 14, permitting code members in Production Group 1 to sell Size Group 16 coals to Kansas Power at $1.20 per ton, such exception to remain in effect until April 1, 1943. Two code members operating in this production group have opposed the granting of the relief asked herein. On the other hand District Board 15 notified the Division by telegram that it had no objections to the granting of the relief prayed.

It appeared at the conference that there are now four code members operating in Production Group 1. Two of these, the Smokeless Coal Company ("Smokeless Coal") and the West Spadra Coal Company ("West Spadra"), asked for a reduction of the prices in Size Group No. 16 screenings, while the other two producers, the Ruby Glow Mining Company ("Ruby Glow") and the Arkansas Coal Company ("Arkansas Coal") were opposed to the reduction sought by the first named. Since July 1942, Smokeless Coal has stored adjacent to its mine approximately 5200 tons of Size Group 16 screenings, and has continued to accumulate such screenings at the rate of 75 to 100 tons per day. West Spadra, as of October 1, 1942, had stored approximately 1500 tons of screenings, and is accumulating the same at the rate of 30 to 40 tons per day. It also appears that these screenings are not in demand for use as fuel in industrial plants,[1] but are quite suitable for use in large quantities in zinc, tin, and lead smelters as a reducing agent or "flux," as an element in the smelting process, not as a fuel.[2] Until about July 1942, the two producers on whose behalf the petition was filed, as well as the two who oppose the relief asked, seemed to have had no difficulty in disposing of their screenings. The latter, Ruby Glow and Arkansas, seem to have no difficulty now in the disposal of their coals. They have no Size Group 16 coals accumulated as have Smokeless Coal and West Spadra.[3]

Kansas Power has in the past used District 15 screenings in large quantities for its fuel needs,[4] though it uses screenings for only approximately one-half of its fuel requirements. For the other half it uses natural gas. Kansas Power has determined that it could use Production Group No. 1 screenings by blending them with the high volatile coal of District 15, and thus be able to take up all of the accumulated slack coal of Smokeless Coal and West Spadra. Kansas Power, however, refuses to pay more than $1.20 per ton for these screenings. It maintains that the freight rate from Production Group No. 1 to its plant is high, and that it will pay only such price for this coal as will make its delivered cost equal to the delivered cost of the screenings from District 15.

It was urged by petitioner that unless the minimum price for Size Group 16 screenings is reduced from $2.30 to $1.20 per net ton for sale to Kansas Power, Smokeless Coal and West Spadra will not be able to continue to operate their mines, but rather will be forced to abandon them. It was further urged that the large accumulation of screenings are in danger of catching fire from spontaneous combustion which would cause code members great and irreparable losses. Petitioner also sought to justify the reduction requested on the ground that Kansas Power will use the screenings for a different purpose than do the smelters and briquette plants.

On the other hand, the opposing code members insisted that such a reduction in the minimum price for these coals is unjustified and unnecessary; that the petitioning code members have not exhausted other means for disposing of the accumulated screenings; that if the relief asked herein were granted, it would degrade the present market for the other producers in Production Group No. 1, and that it would cause the smelters and briquette plant, (particularly the latter, which is presently paying the minimum price), to ask for a reduction in the price paid by it. The briquette plant, like Kansas Power, is located in Kansas City, Missouri, and is subject to the same freight rate.[5]

This petition raises a crucial question in the application and administration of the Act. The difficulty here sought to be adjusted and relieved is one which was familiar in the industry in the days before the passage of the Act. At that time, price-cutting appeared the only way an individual could meet the competition of other producers. Such price-cutting was followed by similar action on the part of competitors. Thus, in the very attempt to remedy competitive inequalities, economic hardship was spread over an ever-widening area. Such practices, as were noted by the Director in his Findings in General Docket No. 15 created "distress tonnage," and produced what was graphically characterized by Mr. Justice Cardozo as a condition in which free competition had been "degraded into anarchy."[6]

To grant the relief prayed in the petition and reduce the minimum price for Size Groups No. 16 coals in Production Group No. 1 from the present $2.30 per net ton to $1.20 per net ton for sales to Kansas Power would sanction an expedient which the Act prohibits—the cutting of prices to sell "distress tonnage." This would not only reduce the actual realization of these particular code members, but would open the door to similar requests by others in similar situations. With respect to the particular reductions requested by the petitioner, it would mean a reduction of almost 50% in minimum price on approximately 40% of the entire output in Production Group 1, at a loss of approximately 75% of the actual average cost per ton of producing coal in this production group.[7]

It has long been the policy and practice of the Division to deny relief under section 4 II (d) of the Act, if the granting of such relief, would disrupt the system of price coordination which was worked out and established with great care. Granting relief of the nature requested in this petition would not only disrupt coordination in the particular production group in District 14, but would seriously disturb price coordination in other production groups of this district and in other districts. Further, it would sanction a gross discrimination in favor of one large consumer. The relief requested is not a solution of petitioners' problems compatible with the purpose of the Act.

It is also significant that in a period of high prices, in what is now a seller's market, petitioners are asking for a reduction of approximately 50% in the established minimum price applicable to a substantial part of their tonnage, even though this would result in a minimum price approximately 75% less than the average cost of production in their production group. Clearly, relief which would not be granted in a depressed market, certainly cannot be justified at a time of steadily increasing demands for coal.

Accordingly, upon consideration of the representations made at the informal conference, I believe that the relief prayed for herein is unwarranted and inconsistent with the policies of the Division and the objectives of the Act. Of course, this opinion is not to be deemed to preclude judgment on a complete record after full hearing in this matter.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the temporary relief requested in the petition herein be, and it hereby is, denied.

[1] The Examiners in their Report in General Docket No. 15, described District 14 coals as "* * * low volatile * * * not well adapted to industrial uses, because of their comparatively high costs and freight rates when compared to competitive fuels." Examiners Report, General Docket No. 15, p. 1010.

[2] These smelters use natural gas for fuel.

[3] The two protesting code members produce approximately 80% of all Size Group 16 coal in Production Group No. 1.

[4] This company consumes approximately 400,000 tons of coal annually.

[5] Participant Cobb, President of Arkansas Coal, one of the opposing code members, voiced his objection thus: "Now, if you are going to grant a price of $1.20 in order to accommodate, or even make possible these two mines to continue in operation, and if the smelters or any one else, by reason of that fact can secure a less minimum price than the present minimum price, then you put our operation out of business entirely."

[6] See dissenting opinion of Mr. Justice Cardozo in Carter v. Carter Coal Company, 298 U.S. 238 (1936).

[7] It was shown at the informal conference that the percentage of Size Group 16 coal in Production Group 1 of the entire output is about 40%. The cost of production per ton of coal in this production group was stated at that conference to be approximately $4.00 to $4.25 per ton.

[Docket No. B-274]

EDWARDSVILLE COAL CO., INC.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER APPROVING FINDINGS OF FACT, ETC.

In the matter of The Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc.—Code Member.

Memorandum opinion and order approving and adopting proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law and recommendations of the examiner.

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") on June 3, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"), by District Board No. 10, alleging that code member, the Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc., operating a mine (Mine Index No. 1041) in Madison County, Illinois, had wilfully violated the Act, the Bituminous Coal Code (the "Code"), and orders, rules and regulations thereunder, and praying that an order be entered either cancelling and revoking the code membership of the Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc., or directing code member to cease and desist from such further violations.

Pursuant to appropriate orders, and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on July 27, 1942, before Charles S. Mitchell, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in St. Louis, Missouri, at which interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witneses, and otherwise be heard, and at which time code member and District Board No. 10 appeared.

The Examiner found that code member, the Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc., operating a mine (Mine Index No. 1041), at Edwardsville, Madison County, Illinois, in District No. 10, had wilfully violated:

(1) Section 4 II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code by selling to various purchasers, during the period from October 28, 1941, to November 21, 1941, 88.8 tons of 1¼" x ½" nut coal at a price of $1.05 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, whereas the effective minimum price for such coal was $1.45 per net ton f. o. b. the mine;

(2) Sections 4 II (e) and (g) of the Act and Parts II (e) and (g) of the Code by selling to the County of Madison of the State of Illinois, during the period from October 7, 1941 to November 6, 1941, 158.4 tons of 1¼" x ½" nut coal at a price of $1.45 per net ton f. o. b. the County Jail, Edwardsville, Illinois, whereas the effective minimum price for such coal was $1.45 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, code member actually having paid 50 cents per net ton for the transportation and delivery for such coal from the mine to the point of delivery to the County;

(3) Section 4 II (e) of the Act, Part II (e) of the Code and Rule 1 of section III of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, by selling to M. J. Dickman, an independent trucker and a person not authorized by the Division to receive discounts on sales of coal, during the period from January 3, 1941, to November 10, 1941, 260.03 tons of 1¼" x ½" nut coal at a price of $1.05 per net ton f. o. b. the mine less a discount of 25 cents per net ton, whereas the effective minimum price for such coal was $1.45 per net ton f. o. b. the mine; and

(4) Section 4 II (i) 8 of the Act, Part II (i) 8 of the Code, and Rule 8 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by falsely invoicing and describing 1¼" x ½" coal on sales tickets as 1¼" x ⅜" coal or as 1¼" x 0 coal.

The Examiner further found that the amount of tax required to be paid by the code member as a condition to reinstatement to membership in the Code, as provided in section 5 (c) of the Act, is $286.84.

On September 26, 1942, the Examiner submitted his Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law, and upon the basis thereof, recommended that an order be entered cancelling and revoking the code membership of the Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc., and providing that prior to any restoration of such membership, the Company should pay to the United States a tax in the amount of $286.84.

An opportunity was afforded parties to file exceptions and supporting briefs. On October 23, 1942, code member filed exceptions[1] to the Examiner's Report.

Exceptions were taken by code member to the Examiner's Report on two grounds. The first exception was addressed to the Report in its entirety on the ground that no service had been made on the duly qualified, elected, and acting President and Secretary of the Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc. There is no basis for this exception. The Examiner's Report was sent by registered mail to L. C. Davis, President of the Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc., who appeared at the above-mentioned hearing; the certificate attesting receipt of said registered mail was signed by Josephine Davis, a member of the household of L. C. Davis, on October 16, 1942. A copy of the Examiner's Report was also sent by registered mail to the Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc., and signed for by Arthur H. Grace on October 17, 1942.

[1] These exceptions were irregularly presented in the form of a letter by D. M. Buckley, attorney for the Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc., rather than in the form prescribed by the Division. I have, nevertheless, ignored this procedural defect and considered the exceptions on the merits.

Code member also excepts to the Report on the ground that it was not represented by counsel at the hearing. Code member was duly notified of the hearing and was afforded adequate time to prepare a defense and select an attorney to represent it, had it chosen to do so. Rather, code member was represented only by its president, L. C. Davis. Having failed to avail itself of legal counsel, code member cannot now assert its neglect as a reason to invalidate the Report filed by the Examiner. It is significant that code member neither claims that its right to counsel was abridged, or limited, or that it was in any way prejudiced by its failure to be represented by counsel. Under such circumstances, the exception is baseless; due process of law does not mean that a litigant who fails zealously to protect his interests can, by such failure, obtain the right to duplicated hearings.

The undersigned having determined, after a consideration of the record and code member's exceptions, that the Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendation of the Examiner should be approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the exceptions of code member, the Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc., to the Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law and Recommendation of the Examiner, be, and they hereby are, severally overruled;

It is further ordered, That the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law be, and they hereby are, approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

It is further ordered, That the code membership of the Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc., is hereby cancelled and revoked;

It is further ordered, That prior to the reinstatement of the Edwardsville Coal Co., Inc., to membership in the Code, there shall be paid to the United States a tax in the amount of $286.84 as provided in section 5 (c) of the Act.

BOARD OF ECONOMIC WARFARE.

TOWER SALES CO., ET AL.

ORDER DISMISSING CHARGES AS TO ONE RESPONDENT AND DENYING LICENSING PRIVILEGES AS TO OTHERS

Pursuant to Part 807 of the Regulations adopted under section 6 of the Act of July 2d, 1940, as amended, the Chief of the Trade Intelligence Division of the Export Control Branch, Office of Exports, has charged the Tower Sales Company, 223 Majestic Bldg., San Antonio, Texas, and Bernard H. Sampson and M. B. Rafelson of the same address (hereinafter referred to as respondents) with violations of section 80 of Title 80 of the U. S. Code in matters relating to export control and within the jurisdiction of the Board of Economic Warfare. Respondent Bernard H. Sampson filed a written answer to the charges set forth, while respondents Tower Sales Company and M. B. Rafelson presented an oral answer on September 11, 1942, before a Compliance Commissioner duly designated under § 807.1[1] of the aforesaid regulations.

The Compliance Commissioner has reviewed the record and filed his finding of fact and recommendations in this matter. The following facts have been found:

Bernard H. Sampson until May 26, 1942, was an exporter trading under the name of the Tower Sales Company. On March 7, 1942, the Tower Sales Company issued an invoice to Representaciones Internacionales S. R. L. de C. V. of Mexico City for 220 pounds of caffeine at $11.50 a pound or a total of $2,530. On March 28, 1942, Bernard H. Sampson, trading under the name of Tower Sales Company applied for an export license to export 220 pounds of caffeine to Representaciones Internacionales calling for a net value, or selling price, of $1,320, a clear misrepresentation. An investigation of this license application was undertaken by the Customs Department prior to May 16, 1942.

On May 16, 1942, the Tower Sales Company wired the Board of Economic Warfare asking the cancellation of this license on the ground that it was impossible to secure merchandise at the price stated in the license. B. H. Sampson conveyed his business assets, including the name of Tower Sales Company to M. B. Rafelson by bill of sale dated May 26, 1942, and some time after that date accepted a commission as Lieutenant (j. g.) in the U. S. Navy, and is presently with the armed forces of the United States.

At the time of the issuance of the charging letter on August 18, 1942, Mr. Sampson was in the service of the Country and presumably unable as a practical matter to exercise his right, vouchsafed, under § 807.7 of the regulations of the Board, to elect to be heard orally. The Compliance Commissioner has ruled that, under the circumstances, the consummation of the proceedings against Mr. Sampson would be in violation of the spirit of the various acts of Congress providing for the relief of members of the armed forces from legal process.

Mr. Rafelson had no connection of any character with the misrepresentations in this license application.

On June 11, 1942, the Tower Sales Company filed with the Board of Economic Warfare export license applications to ship 50,000 pounds of lithopone and 50,000 pounds of bicarbonate of soda, respectively. Each application stated that the consignee, ultimate consignee and purchaser in foreign country would be Juan Staarthof, Monterrey, Mexico, and that an order had been accepted by the exporter on June 11th; with respect to the use of material, the applications stated simply that the material concerned would be used in the manufacture of paints and in the packing of pharmaceuticals, respectively. The Chief of the Trade Intelligence Division charged that these statements were knowingly and wilfully false or fraudulent.

On June 5, 1942, Juan Staarthof wrote to Mr. Rafelson that he was in the market for these commodities and that if Mr. Rafelson could obtain the merchandise, the letter could be considered an order. At the time the applications for licenses were filed, the respondents, Tower Sales Company and M. B. Rafelson had not accepted this order, it being their intention to accept the order provided the material and licenses therefor could be obtained. Letters attached to each of the applications stated that the materials covered were intended to be used by the "purchaser" in the manufacture of paints and the packing of pharmaceuticals, respectively. Juan Staarthof is a broker in Monterrey, Mexico, and is not engaged in the manufacture of paints or the packing of pharmaceuticals. The respondents, Tower Sales Company and Rafelson knew at the time the applications were filed that Staarthof was a broker who intended to resell the commodities for which export licenses were asked, and that the purchaser and ultimate consignee named would not use the bicarbonate of soda to package pharmaceuticals, nor the lithopone in the manufacture of paint. The Compliance Commissioner found that, with respect to the filing of these license applications, no violation had been committed in connection with the charge of falsity of the statements as to acceptance of the order. However, it was found that the respondents Tower Sales Company and M. B. Rafelson materially misrepresented the ultimate consignee of the material sought to be exported and the use to be made thereof by the ultimate consignee named.

On June 10, 1942, the Tower Sales Company filed with the Board of Economic Warfare an export license application to export 5,000 pounds of citric acid. This application stated that Cia. Rafmex S. de R. L. in Mexico City would be the consignee, ultimate consignee and purchaser in foreign country; that an order had been accepted by the exporter on June 3, 1942; and, with respect to the use of material to be exported, merely that it was to be used for the manufacture of soft drinks. The Chief of the Trade Intelligence Division charged that these statements were knowingly and wilfully false or fraudulent.

Rafmex is a sales company of which M. B. Rafelson is the sole owner. It does not manufacture soft drinks but solely buys and sells goods. The respondents, Tower Sales Company and Rafelson knew in applying for this license that Rafmex did not intend to receive the citric acid for the manufacture of soft drinks, but intended the same for resale. The Compliance Commissioner stated that no violation had been committed in connection with the charge of falsity of the statement that an order had been accepted. However, it was found that violations had occurred with respect to misrepresentations as to use of the material and ultimate consignee.

Under date of May 22, 1942, the Tower Sales Company filed a license application with the Board of Economic Warfare for the shipment of 50,000 pounds of bicarbonate of soda to Carlos de Curtis as consignee, ultimate consignee or purchaser in Mexico City. The charges of misrepresentations in this application were similar to those made with respect to the applications referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 above. It was found that no violation had been committed in connection with these charges.

Upon consideration of the record, Findings of Fact and Recommendations, in this matter: It is hereby ordered, That:

(1) The charges be dismissed with respect to Bernard H. Sampson.

(2) The export licenses heretofore issued to the Tower Sales Company or M. B. Rafelson for exportations as yet not consummated are hereby revoked.

(3) The Tower Sales Company and M. B. Rafelson, and any person, association or organization acting on behalf, or for the account of the Tower Sales Company or M. B. Rafelson are denied the privilege of obtaining individual export licenses and the use of any general or unlimited export licenses for any exportation whatsoever from the United States until December 27, 1942.

The respondents may appeal in writing to the Assistant Director in charge of the Office of Exports provided the appeal is taken within ten (10) days after receipt of this order.

OFFICE OF ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN.

[Vesting Order 407]

FERD. MULHENS, INC.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Paul Peter Muelhens, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Cologne, Germany, is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. Finding that said Paul Peter Muelhens owns or controls Aktian-Gesellschaft für Aetherische Oele, (herein called "Aetherische"), a Swiss corporation, the last known address of which was represented to the undersigned as being Glarus, Switzerland, and which is listed on The Proclaimed List of Certain Blocked Nationals;

3. Determining that to the extent that Aetherische is a person not within a designated enemy country such person is controlled by or acting for or on behalf of or as a cloak for the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany) or a person within such country, and finding, therefore, that such person is a national of such designated enemy country (Germany);

4. Finding that Ferd. Mulhens, Inc., a New York corporation, New York, New York, is a business enterprise within the United States whose outstanding capital stock consists of:

1,000 shares of no par value common and 3,000 shares of $100 par value preferred stock, which shares are registered in the following names:

Names	Number of shares—
	Common	Preferred
Richard Stern	1
Hazel McMullen	1
Aetherische	998	3,000
Total	1,000	3,000

and that the two shares of stock registered in the names of Hazel McMullen and Richard Stern, as aforesaid, are held for the benefit of Aetherische;

5. Finding that said capital stock is property of, and represents ownership of said business enterprise which therefore is, a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

6. Finding that the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of Paul Peter Muelhens and Aetherische, and each of them, in and to all indebtedness, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to them or either of them by said Ferd. Mulhens, Inc., including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all such indebtedness and the right to sue for and collect such indebtedness, is an interest in the aforesaid business enterprise held by, and is also property within the United States owned or controlled by, nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

7. Determining that to the extent that any or all of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that each of such persons be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

8. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and

9. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby (a) vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraphs 4 and 6, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States, and (b) undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control of such business enterprise to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the undersigned.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control or to terminate the same, if and when it should be determined that any of such action should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on November 28, 1942.

Order granting application pursuant to section 10 and permitting declaration to become effective pursuant to section 12 (c) and Rule U-42.

Federal Water and Gas Corporation, a registered holding company, having filed an application and declaration pursuant to sections 10 and 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-42 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, with respect to the purchase from time to time prior to December 31, 1943, for cash, all or any part of a maximum of $500,000 principal amount of its 5½% Gold Debentures, due May 1, 1954, in the open market at current prices at the time of purchase but not to exceed the call price of said Debentures in effect at the date of each such purchase, the Debentures so acquired to be cancelled;

Said application and declaration having been filed November 5, 1942, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23, promulgated pursuant to said Act, and the Commission, not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said application or declaration within the period specified by said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

Said party having requested that the effective date of said application and declaration be advanced; and

The Commission finding with respect to said application under section 10 of the Act that the requirements of section 10 (f) are satisfied, that no adverse findings are necessary under the provisions of sections 10 (b) and 10 (c) (1), and that the proposed acquisition has the tendency required by section 10 (c) (2); and

The Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to permit said declaration pursuant to section 12 (c) and Rule U-42 promulgated thereunder to become effective; and

The Commission being satisfied that the effective date of said declaration and the date of granting said application should be advanced;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to said Rule U-23, that said application be, and it is hereby granted, and that said declaration, be and it is hereby permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, and to the further condition that Federal Water and Gas Corporation file with the Commission, within ten days after the close of each calendar month, a report stating the principal amounts and dates of purchase, and the prices paid for all Debentures purchased during such calendar month pursuant to this Order, until there shall have been filed, as aforesaid, reports covering the purchase of said maximum amount of Debentures for each calendar month within which purchases pursuant to this Order may be made.

By the Commission, Commissioner Healy dissenting for the reasons set forth in his memorandum of April 1, 1940.

GENERAL MANAGEMENT CORPORATION AND WALNUT ELECTRIC & GAS CORPORATION

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 28th day of November, A. D. 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by the above-named party or parties; and

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 17, 1942, at 5:30 p. m., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may become effective or may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration or application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

General Management Corporation, a Delaware corporation allegedly inactive since June 30, 1942, and a direct subsidiary of Walnut Electric & Gas Corporation, a registered holding company, proposes to liquidate by the payment of all its debts in cash, and the distribution of all its assets to its sole stockholder, Walnut Electric & Gas Corporation, as a liquidating dividend. Walnut Electric & Gas Corporation will surrender for cancellation to General Management Corporation all of the outstanding capital stock of that corporation, all of which, 5,000 shares, is owned by Walnut Electric & Gas Corporation. Upon the completion of these transactions General Management Corporation will be dissolved. Walnut Electric & Gas Corporation proposes to apply the proceeds from the liquidation of General Management Corporation to the reduction of outstanding secured notes issued by Walnut Electric & Gas Corporation in the approximate amount of $28,000.

The declaration sets forth that the net assets of General Management Corporation, as of October 31, 1942, consisted of cash in the amount of $28,462.65 and other net assets totaling $197.32, and, as of the same date, its debts amounted to $41.67.

By the Commission.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9276

Establishing the Petroleum Administration for War and Defining Its Functions and Duties

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes, as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy, and in order to coordinate and centralize the war policies and actions of the Government relating to petroleum with a view toward providing adequate supplies of petroleum for the successful prosecution of the war and for other essential purposes, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. Whenever used in this order:

a. The term "petroleum" means petroleum, petroleum products, and associated hydrocarbons, including but not limited to natural gas, except that natural gas which has entered into gas transmission lines from field gathering lines shall not be so included.

b. The term "petroleum industry" means the production, refining, treating, storage, shipment, receipt, or distribution within the United States, its territories and possessions, of petroleum, exclusive of: (1) the transportation of petroleum, (2) the transmission of natural gas from the point of its entry into gas transmission lines from field gathering lines, and (3) the distribution of natural gas.

c. The term "transportation" means transportation as defined in U. S. Code, Title 49, section 1 (3) (a), and in Executive Orders No. 8989 [1] and No. 9156.[2]

2. There is established a Petroleum Administration for War, at the head of which shall be a Petroleum Administrator who shall be directly responsible to the President. The Secretary of the Interior shall serve ex officio as Petroleum Administrator hereinafter referred to as the Administrator.

3. The Administrator shall:

a. Subject to the provisions of this order, establish basic policies and formulate plans and programs to assure for the prosecution of the war the conservation and most effective development and utilization of petroleum in the United States and its territories and possessions, issue necessary policy and operating directives to parties engaged in the petroleum industry, and appoint such general, regional, local, or functional petroleum industry committees or councils as the Administrator finds necessary: Provided, that no directive issued hereunder shall conflict with any direction which may be issued by the Chairman of the War Production Board pursuant to Paragraph 1 of Executive Order No. 9125 of April 7, 1942.[3]

b. Serve, as far as practicable, as the liaison and channel of communication between the units of the petroleum industry and the several departments and agencies of the Federal Government on matters directly involving the functions and duties of the Administrator.

c. (1) Obtain from the Departments of War and the Navy, the Office of Lend-Lease Administration, the Department of State and the Board of Economic Warfare, the several divisions and branches of the War Production Board, and such other Federal departments and agencies as may be appropriate, estimates of the amounts of petroleum which will be required from the United States, its territories and possessions, to meet direct and indirect military, and essential industrial and civilian, requirements; and compile and analyze such estimates and submit them to the War Production Board with recommendations for the allocation of petroleum to meet such requirements.

(2) Prepare and recommend to the War Production Board estimates of the quantities and kinds of material needed by the petroleum industry to produce, refine, store, distribute (excluding transportation), or otherwise make available the amount of petroleum recommended by the Administrator for allocation by the War Production Board.

d. Subject to the direction of the Chairman of the War Production Board, exercise the powers, authority, and the discretion conferred upon the Chairman by Paragraph 1 of Executive Order No. 9125 of April 7, 1942, by issuing, and taking appropriate action to enforce, such orders or directives to the petroleum industry as the Administrator may deem necessary, in order to:

(1) Provide adequate supplies of petroleum for military, or other essential uses; or

(2) Effect the proper distribution of such amounts of materials as the Chairman of the War Production Board may allot for the use of the petroleum industry.

e. Compile data and make continuing surveys with respect to the effect of the prices charged for petroleum upon the efficient wartime operations of the petroleum industry and the maintenance of adequate supplies of petroleum for war and essential industrial and civilian uses. On the basis of such surveys, the Petroleum Administrator shall consult with and recommend to the Administrator, Office of Price Administration, such upward or downward adjustments in the schedule of prices charged for petroleum as will, in the judgment of the Petroleum Administrator, assure the efficient wartime operation of the petroleum industry and the maintenance of adequate supplies of petroleum for war, and essential industrial and civilian uses. In order to enable the Petroleum Administrator to make appropriate recommendations, the Price Administrator shall advise with the Petroleum Administrator prior to the establishment or alteration by the Price Administrator of any schedule of prices to be charged for petroleum.

f. Be advised of all plans or proposals which deal with the civilian rationing of petroleum and consult with rationing authorities in the development of such plans or proposals; and, in those instances where rationing is for the purpose of maintaining adequate supplies of petroleum for war and essential industrial and civilian requirements, determine, after advising with the War Production Board, the areas and the times within which such rationing should be effective and the amount of petroleum available for such purpose.

g. Consult with the War Shipping Administration with respect to the assignment of tankers and the movement of petroleum, and, subject to the requirements of the Departments of War and the Navy, recommend allocations as between units of the petroleum industry of available tankers under the control of the War Shipping Administration.

h. Designate the quantity and kind of petroleum to be shipped and received by those engaged in the petroleum industry, and certify such designations to the Office of Defense Transportation for appropriate action in providing the necessary transportation.

i. Review all plans or proposals for the construction, extension, enlargement or interconnection of petroleum pipe lines; subject to the over-all responsibilities of the Office of Defense Transportation, approve such plans or proposals as are, in his judgment, necessary to provide adequate supplies of petroleum for war and other essential uses and recommend to the War Production Board programs covering the amounts and kinds of materials needed for such pipe lines. The Administrator shall direct the physical operation of petroleum pipe lines to the extent of prescribing the quantity and kind of petroleum to be transported by and the direction of flow through such pipe lines: Provided, that nothing herein shall be deemed to limit the functions and authority of the Office of Defense Transportation under Executive Order No. 8989 of December 18, 1941, with respect to the provision of necessary additional transportation facilities and equipment, or to coordinate and direct domestic traffic movements.

j. Advise the several Federal departments and agencies concerned with the construction, enlargement, or additional interconnection of any natural gas transmission line as to the supply and availability of natural gas at the proposed sources of production whenever such construction, enlargement, or interconnection will result in substantially altering the rate of production at such sources.

k. Perform the duties and responsibilities with relation to petroleum and the facilities used in the petroleum industry imposed by Executive Order No. 9165 of May 19, 1942,[4] upon the Department of the Interior.

[4] 7 F.R. 3765.

l. Certify to the various State regulatory bodies having jurisdiction with respect to the production of petroleum, the amounts and kinds of petroleum which should be produced in their respective States, and collaborate with such State regulatory bodies in the coordination of their activities with the programs and policies of the Administrator.

m. Keep the President informed with respect to the progress made in carrying out this order and perform such related duties as the President may from time to time assign or delegate to him.

4. The Administrator shall collaborate with the appropriate Federal departments and agencies authorized to determine plans and policies with respect to foreign petroleum activities. The Administrator shall, in conformity with such plans and policies, issue directives concerning the physical operations of their foreign petroleum facilities to units of the American petroleum industry which directly or indirectly engage in such operations in foreign countries. The Administrator shall be the channel of communication on foreign petroleum matters between the Federal departments and agencies and such units of the American petroleum industry.

5. The Administrator shall perform the functions with respect to rubber conferred upon the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War by Executive Order No. 9246 of September 17, 1942,[5] subject to such directives as the Rubber Director may issue pursuant to such order. Nothing in this order shall apply to or in any way limit the functions and authority, or the manner of executing the same, of the Chairman of the War Production Board or the Rubber Director in the exercise of control over and administration of the Nation's rubber program pursuant to said Executive Order No. 9246, or the functions and authority of any department, establishment or agency in the execution of such aspects of the rubber program in such manner and for such period of time as the Rubber Director may direct pursuant to said Executive Order.

6. Subject to such restrictions as may be imposed by the Departments of War and the Navy with respect to their own requirements, the several Federal departments and agencies shall supply such information and data as the Administrator may require in performing his functions and shall advise with the Administrator before undertaking any action which might affect the continuous, ready availability of petroleum for military and essential industrial and civilian needs. In order to assist him in carrying out the purposes of this order, the Administrator may establish or designate committees or groups of advisors, representing two or more departments or agencies of the Federal Government, or States. The Administrator shall meet at regular and special intervals with representatives of the various Federal departments and agencies having continuing functions directly related to petroleum or the petroleum industry.

7. The Administrator may appoint, with the approval of the President, a Deputy Administrator, who shall report directly to the Administrator, and to whom he may delegate any and all power, authority, and discretion conferred upon him by this order. The Deputy Administrator shall serve as Acting Administrator in the absence of the Administrator. The Administrator, within the limits of such funds as may be allocated or appropriated for the purpose, may employ necessary personnel and make provision for necessary supplies, facilities, travel, and services.

8. The Office of the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, later changed to the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, established by the letter of the President dated May 28, 1941, is abolished, and its personnel, records, property, and funds are transferred to the Petroleum Administration for War, effective fifteen days from the date of this order. All orders, directives, agreements, recommendations, and other documents issued or entered into under the functions, duties, and authorities of the Petroleum Coordinator for War shall remain in force as the responsibility of the Administrator until such time as he may revoke, alter, or otherwise change such documents under provisions of this Executive Order.

9. Nothing in this order shall be deemed to limit in any way the authority of the Departments of War and Navy to initiate or carry out directly, without review or approval by the Administrator, any action relating to petroleum or the petroleum industry which either Department deems to be a matter of military necessity or expediency and which arises in such areas and is of such military urgency as to require special or secret disposition; or to limit in any way the functions and authority of the Secretary of State, under the direction of the President, in the formation of the foreign policy and the conduct of the foreign relations of this Government; or to limit in any way the statutory powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission with respect to rates, charges, statistics, accounts, car service (including emergency service powers) or operating authority; or to limit in any way the exercise of the authority of the Federal Power Commission or the performance of its functions and authority under the Natural Gas Act (52 Stat. 821) as amended; or to limit the functions and authority of the Board of Economic Warfare under the Act of June 30, 1942 (56 Stat. 463); or to limit in any way the powers of the Price Administrator under the Emergency Price Control Act (56 Stat. 23) and as amended by Public Law 729—77th Congress, Second Session.

10. Any provisions of pertinent Executive Orders in conflict with the provisions of this order are hereby superseded: Provided, that nothing herein shall be deemed in any way to limit the functions and authority of the Chairman of the War Production Board under Executive Orders No. 9024 of January 16, 1942,[6] No. 9040 of January 24, 1942,[7] No. 9125 of April 7, 1942, and No. 9246 of September 17, 1942; or to limit in any way the functions and authority of the Federal Power Commission under Executive Order No. 8202 of July 13, 1939;[8] or to limit in any way the functions, duties, or authority of the War Shipping Administration with respect to the operation, control, purchase, requisition, charter, repair, use, or insurance of any vessel or cargo; or to limit the functions and authority of the Board of Economic Warfare under Executive Orders No. 8839 of July 30, 1941,[9] as amended, No. 8900 of September 15, 1941,[10] No. 8926 of October 28, 1941,[11] No. 8942 of November 19, 1941,[12] and No. 9128 of April 13, 1942; [13] or to limit the functions and authority of the Office of Lend-Lease Administration under Executive Order No. 8926 of October 28, 1941.

PART 323—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 3

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 3 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 3.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 3; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 323.6 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-I, § 323.8 (Special prices—(b) Railroad fuel prices for all movements except via

[Docket No. A-1718]

PART 328—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 8

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 8 for establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 8.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 8, and for changes in shipping points; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 328.11 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R and § 328.34 (General prices for high volatile coals in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

The correct name for the code member operating the Everidge & Bowen Mine, Mine Index No. 5732 is Has Bowen.

The correct name for the mine operated by R. C. Rowe, Mine Index No. 5763, is Elkhorn.

The correct names of the code members operating the Phillips Mine, Mine Index No. 5756, are Odas Phillips and A. Y. Phillips (Odas Phillips).

The correct name for the code member operating Mine No. 3, Mine Index No. 5765 is B. & C. Coal Company.

No relief is granted for the Poplar Lick Mine, Mine Index No. 5643, operated by the Garmeada Coal Company or No. 2 Mine, Mine Index No. 5746 operated by T. V. McMahan as requested by petitioner for the reasons set forth in an order severing that portion of Docket No. A-1718 which relates to these mines and designating such portion as Docket No. A-1718, Part II.

Dated: November 19, 1942.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER,
Director.

TEMPORARY AND CONDITIONALLY FINAL EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR DISTRICT 8

PART 335—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 15

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of District Board No. 15 for establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for certain mines.

An original petition pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 15; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 335.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 335.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

The price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the Schedules attached hereto are based upon the price classifications and minimum prices in effect on October 1, 1942, for comparable and analogous coals and reflect the changes, if any, made in minimum prices by the Acting Director's order of August 28, 1942, 7 F.R. 6943, in General Docket No. 21.

Dated: November 18, 1942.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER,
Director.
